Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Quach
P.O. Box 1652
Gambier OH, 43022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tracy Qualls
4912 N. Kedzie
Chicago IL, 60625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marcia BERRY
4 Camino Azul
Santa Fe NM, 87508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ali Chase
802 N. Draper Ave.
Shawnee OK, 74801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MA White
44 Walnut St.
New Rochelle NY, 10801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rowan Glaser
1606 Breda Ave
St. Paul MN, 55108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

R T Maxell
2597 Autum Leaf
Memphis TN, 38016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janeen Clark
914 Brack St.
Kissimmee FL, 34744

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Craig Coelho
50 Colony Rd
Riverside RI, 02915

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anthony Natola
PO Box 345
Meredith NH, 03253

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bj sucidlo sandpiper ln
W. Palm Beach FL, 33411

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Taylor
3021 S Jay St
Denver CO, 80227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Libonati
866se136ave.
portland OR, 97233

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Jahnke
1101 Janwood Dr.
Plano TX, 75075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Hunger
226 Main St.
Elmwood WI, 54740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

hilary sochacki
14 walnut st
sharon MA, 02067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joe kownslat
44 towhee waynesville NC, 28786

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Stutz
703 E Wapato Ave
Chelan WA, 98816

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

char laughon
p.o. box 370687
montara CA, 94037

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

WE NEED YOU!

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cate Vosecky
5 Penny Lane
Chapel Hill NC, 27514

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Segal
76 Denny Rd
Chestnut Hill MA, 02467

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Findling
PO Box 236
Oakland OR, 97462

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

martin webber
1051 sw ellis st
dallas OR, 97338

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lou Bernieri
16 abbot street
andover MA, 01810

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps, No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections. Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

thomas bailey jr 729 dwyer rd
virginia beach VA, 23454

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pablo Ornelas
37 Doran Ct.
Chula Vista CA, 91910

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Kemper
114 Bennett Rd.
Aptos CA, 95003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Darlene Yamrose
208 Dorothy St.
Minoa NY, 13116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucy Freedman
PO Box 2296
Los Gatos CA, 95031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kathy trillin 39 montauk dr
st louis MO, 63146

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emma Dalsimer
9817 w 510 s
West Point IN, 47992

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chair Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Mr. Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Mr. Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Teresa McCormick
203 N 143rd St
Seattle WA, 98133

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Blakley
1306 Talton Av.
DeLand FL, 32720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Hamon
PO Box 298
Harrisville NH, 03450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mirene Charles 405 NW 19TH LN
Miami FL, 33136

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debbie Egan
1161 Jordan Lane
Oakley CA, 94561

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbarella
Third St
SANTA MONICA CA, 90403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce H. Handy Sr
P.O. Box 29
Dillsboro NC, 28725

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Torchiano
4812 28th ave
Astoria NY, 11103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Ferrara
1284 Balsam Dr
Decatur GA, 30033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leonard W. Rappe
18 Church St
Roslyn NY, 11576

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

T Tomacci
1512 Solana Drive
Belmont CA, 94002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Grace Lee-Park
PO Box 10251
Portland OR, 97296

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Taylor Morgan
PO Box 4783
Valley Vlg CA, 91617

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John F Tate
3805 Joycliff Road
Macon GA, 31211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Madolyn Fox
PO Box 854
Carmichael CA, 95609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brent Wagner
1614 Pine St
Hastings MN, 55033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gwen Cruchon
102 W. Eagle Dr
The Hills TX, 78738

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Assmus
100 Village Drive
Pierre SD, 57501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

greg nielsen 537 ivy st
san francscio CA, 94102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tracy McBride
920 90th St
Everett WA, 98204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chuck Dolan
1220 NE 97th St
Seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Juanita Olivas
5550GeneseeCt.E.#215
SanDiego CA, 92111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gemma Bond
2008 W 6th ST
Aberdeen WA, 98520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Commissioner Copps,

You have been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than anyone else at the FCC.

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please be a hero for the Internet.

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.

Please do what's right one more time, and vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Pihl
129 N. Wilke Rd.
Arlington Heights IL, 60005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Kuhler
2503 Irene St., Apt. #8
Lutz FL, 33549

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Bown
2543 SE 35th Ave
Portland OR, 97202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Legere
8237 21st Ave NE
Seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally Pincus
7024 Donal Ave
El Cerrito CA, 94530

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Hallett
1510 E. Dolphin Ave
Mesa AZ, 85204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anna James 6018 Culross Close
Humble TX, 77346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dennis gwynn 3255 dallas hwy
salem OR, 97304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tera McBurney
239 Garrett Rd
Lamar AR, 72846

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jay Matthews
Wabash st
New orleans LA, 70114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick Almanza
14 Reading
Bloomington IL, 61701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julia Helton
2645 N. Sawyer
Chicago IL, 60647

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Thomas
11 Lewis
Los Angeles CA, 90210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 17, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra King
1965 Westside
Kelso WA, 98626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Johnson
899 Westwood Dr
Monroe MI, 48161

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Johnson
899 Westwood Dr
Monroe MI, 48161

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ilse Spiegel
P.O. Box 230923
New York NY, 10023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Johnson
899 Westwood Dr
Monroe MI, 48161

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alex Scofi
429 Beatrice St
Teaneck NJ, 07666

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john elliott
1417 spruce st
berkeley CA, 94709

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Ianchiou
2716 E. Helen St.
Tucson AZ, 85716

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Chavez
3064 S 35TH Ave
Omaha NE, 68105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Seaberg
po box 628
KITTITAS WA, 98934

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Troy Staten 1628 Moreland
Alameda CA, 94501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gail desmki
11501 HEMLOCK AVE
LAKE MI, 48632

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william evans, md
box 242
carbondale CO, 81623

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel J. Barlow
53 Leupp Rd.
Flagstaff AZ, 86004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rose Bowen
580 Broadway
New orleans LA, 70118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ted pierot
210 E 68th Street phc
nyc NY, 10065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Guy Brenner
2001 Parker St
Berkeley CA, 94704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dru Pilmer
7814 Geswein Rd
Lanesville IN, 47136

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Bowling
24920 Rd 96
Davis CA, 95616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea Gatley
1204 Lonnie Way
Fruita CO, 81521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

DAVID LAIRD
1130 WEST 9TH ST.
ALTON IL, 62002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joni Dunn
1316 Half Moon Rd
El Prado NM, 87529

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruthe Enstad
3775 E 182 St
Prior Lake MN, 55372

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

wynn richards
57 Willow Ave
Fairfax CA, 94930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beau Kraus
167 N Dunlap St #B
St Paul MN, 55104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doug Frey
206 Grant St SW
Cascade IA, 52033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Sutton
5010 E Victor Dr
Godfrey IL, 62035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Duval
1690 Main St.
Mosheim TN, 37818

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Davis
PO Box 1854
Ridgeland MS, 39158

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Viveca Coleman
po box 377704
Chicago IL, 60637

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

melody chord
811 Hilda St.
Missoula MT, 59801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bou Tillisch
900 University
Seattle WA, 98101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Barz
638 62nd Street
Oakland CA, 94609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Hoy
4001 Keswick Rd
Baltimore MD, 21211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betty Hall
328 E Shelby Dr
Memphis TN, 38109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thea DuBow
260 Garth Rd.
Scarsdale NY, 10583

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam Reynolds
9501 N FM 620
Austin TX, 78726

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Karman
1016 N Second
Chillicothe IL, 61523

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Riley
2010 Idylwild Ct
Richmond KY, 40475

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hon. Seth C. MArshall
11 buck
Nashua NH, 03060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Bloom
8477 Summer
Macedonia OH, 44056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Geoffrey Tait
P O Box 8040
Fort Worth TX, 76124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nathan Pape
485 St Johns Pl
Brooklyn NY, 11238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

henry Bruning
PO Box 5781
Gainesville FL, 32627

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Mitchell
43 Cherry St
Canton NC, 28716

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Friedman
701 27th St
Des Moines IA, 50312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jason Fox
950 Hart St #202
Brooklyn NY, 11237

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Higbee
1816B 27th Ave.
Seattle WA, 98122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dickelle Fonda
1220 Darrow
Evanston IL, 60202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Harris
273 Pinedale Dr.
Avon IN, 46123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brent Naylor
981 State St
Raymond WA, 98577

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

R. Ehr
2839 N Summit Ave.
Milwaukee WI, 53211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Guy Lopez
2030 Shore Dr.
Anchorage AK, 99515

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Caitlin Tucker
1955 Edison Ave
Bronx NY, 10461

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben Dake
665 gerona road
Stanford CA, 94305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Moloch
3087 S 100 E
Kokomo IN, 46902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bryce Hixson
122 sw 207st
Seattle WA, 98166

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brigand Jaszkowiak
2423 Lemhi
Boise ID, 83705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 19, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Jo Knox
P.O. Box 333
Bakerstown PA, 15007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

colin Blattel
1260 sw 104th path
miami FL, 33174

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carob Bradlyn
1424 Martin St.
Chico CA, 95928

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Jaffe
84 Meadow Lan
Riverhead NY, 11901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james hargreaves
443 w. 4th st
boston MA, 02127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wes Snypes
1030 West Drive
St Louis MO, 63130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julia Hernandez
7300 Cahalan
Detroit MI, 48209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

argyle baukol
po box 1169
spokane WA, 99210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

linda baker
po box 83125
fairbanks AK, 99708

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kathryn hall
1312 cedar st
berkeley CA, 94702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

D Fuller
5417 44TH Ave S
Minneapolis MN, 55417

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Day
225 Valley Vista
Danville CA, 94526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elaine Fontaine
415 E Gobbi #32
Ulah CA, 95482

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Dyer
76 Florence St
Roslindale MA, 02131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

S Daniels
21 Rockleigh Rd
Rockleigh NJ, 07647

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rita Kiley
1162 W 27th Place
Eugene OR, 97405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam B
Communipaw ave
Jersey city NJ, 07304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ernest Lee
220 Heater Road
Lebanon NH, 03766

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam Farish
171 main St
Eastsound WA, 98245

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry Hall
507 West Broughton
Salem IL, 62881

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mary wirpel
5465 zephyr st
arvada CO, 80002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robbie Bos
PO Box 1945
Big Bear Lake CA, 92315

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Barkan
3 Hillcrest Rd
Manalapan NJ, 07726

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hugh A. Linn
PO Box 8911
Santa Fe, NM NM, 87504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Carney
10 Cliffside Rd
Casco ME, 04015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Zenoit
1371 Willow St
Denver CO, 80220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Breta Stroud
211 Pollock St.
Beaufort NC, 28516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sue Boulais
809 Truman Ave.
Lady Lake FL, 32159

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Ernst
113 Lytton Cir
Las Cruces NM, 88001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jaki Erdoes
PO Box 475
Mount Desert ME, 04660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Worden
32918 us 12
burr oak MI, 49030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alvin Long
1738 LaSalle Ave
Norfolk VA, 23509

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

V Loring
Old Fall River Rd
Dartmouth MA, 02747

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jolie De Pauw
PO Box 6756
San Rafael CA, 94903

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edwin Galka
2264 68th St
Fennville MI, 49408

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jaclyn Falk
187 Filors Ln
Stony Point NY, 10980

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lori Green
15 Summit Ave.
Somerville MA, 02143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

g murphy
400 E Date St
Cottonwood AZ, 86326

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Musia Stagg
3234 Ettie St.
Oakland CA, 94608

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frances Bicknell
9 Beach St.
Madison WI, 53705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Shelby
4720 52nd Ave S
Seattle WA, 98118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Hildenbrand
461 Lilac Lane
Chico CA, 95926

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul L Johnson
7545 W. Pierson
Phoenix AZ, 85033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Caren Helms
8105 The Hague
Raleigh NC, 27606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Robinson
90 Smith 2 Rd.
Glasgow KY, 42141

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Hudgins
2020 Hazel Ave NE
Salem OR, 97301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Seres
6195 Krista Dr
Spring Hill FL, 34609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Long Tran
1359 S Thomas St
Pomona CA, 91766

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Ann Ford
24071 Oneida
Oak Park MI, 48237

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Litt
112 Pacific Blvd
Long Beach NY, 11561

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roberto Vivas
14 Coyle Place
Yonkers NY, 10705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Romo
9 West 64th St.
New York NY, 10023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gail Hunn
282 Treichler Road
Alburtis PA, 18011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jay Fulbright
20627 Hwy 84
Malvern AR, 72104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J. Dana Forbes
4037 N. Troy St.
Chicago IL, 60618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Lipsitt
15 Griggs Rd
Brookline MA, 02446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Lariviere
469 Poole St.
Ludlow MA, 01056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

anne marie havel
639 saw mill hill
wells VT, 05774

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lil Judd
15555 Sorbonne St
Sylmar CA, 91342

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Law
375 NW 48 Ave
Plantation FL, 33317

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Asaro
4433 Rockwood ave
Napa CA, 94558

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Rossman
849 W. Barry 3A
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jarvis Martin
108 Courtney Dr.
Bullard TX, 75757

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bill manser
12175 lacey blvd
hanford CA, 93230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Annmarie LaMay
PO Box 1553
Capitan NM, 88316

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

angelica cruz
818 cypress ave
ukiah CA, 95482

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mercy ebiala
1845 memory ln
rockford IL, 61102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Herbert Long 745 Alaska st
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Bunch
1801 Evalane Way
Concord CA, 94519

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Rabovsky
1212 Elm St.
El Cerrito CA, 94530

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristy Pauley
1401 E. 18th St.
Sterling IL, 61081

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Morrison
130 Roseland Rd
Galax VA, 24333

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john broussard
715 Drehr
Baton Rouge LA, 70806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Stickle
492 Rogue Pl.
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Cracchiolo
5542 Shale Dr
Troy MI, 48085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helki Roundtree
PO Box 526
Norwalk CT, 06856

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Snyder
1045 N. Bellamy Rd.
Ionia MI, 48846

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

P Rhoads
1705 Cabrillo Ave
Alhambra CA, 91803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Church
304 W. 14th St
New York NY, 10014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Lester
82 E Lake Dr NE
Atlanta GA, 30317

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joey Harris
4640 Skyline Ln.
La Mesa CA, 91941

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Hornsby
770 E 36th St
Baltimroe MD, 21218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Varda Burns
82 Turnpike Rd
Norwich VT, 05055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brad Taylor
1802 Calvin Ct.
Iowa City IA, 52246

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Frank
10050 Westview Dr
Houston TX, 77055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Myles
green river rd
greenfield MA, 01301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Ewing
82 Bon Air Circle
Jackson TN, 38305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

david safer
12195 SW 94th Ave
Miami FL, 33176

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Kivic
P.O. Box 171
Fort Covington NY, 12937

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christy Ramsey
304 Alpha Ave
Akron OH, 44312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Johnston
9 Golf Drive
Clayton GA, 30525

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Olivarez
576 Oakbrook
Flushing MI, 48433

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Rasch
24 Elm Road
Cromwell CT, 06416

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Proulx
Exeter rd
Exeter ME, 04435

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dick whittington
PO Box 457
Big Sur CA, 93920

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Wryn
16011 S Morgan
Estacada OR, 97023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joy Gault
620 Highland Dr
Los Osos CA, 93402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Horning
557 Weber Ave
Akron OH, 44303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristen Ruddle
1210 Ash St
Iowa City IA, 52240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

george carnes
8016 fm 1303
floresville TX, 78114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heather Bungard-Janney Longspur
WL IN, 47906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

rick myers
355 main street
ashland MA, 01721

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Grant Butler
8000 Old River rd.
Ukiah CA, 95482

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael McCue
7526 Kyle S.
Tujunga CA, 91042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Ourusoff
Ross Rd
Sebastopol CA, 95472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barry Saver
1043 NE 95th St
Seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

martha austin
box 536
garden valley CA, 95633

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Mitchell
PO Box 139
Kurtistown HI, 96760

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Waters
710 E 3rd St
Everson WA, 98247

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Delaine Spilsbury
P O Box 1055
McGill NV, 89318

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Brophy
653 Cantara Lane
Vista CA, 92081

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

freddy salazar
570 west 193
new york NY, 10040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Jensen
3249 S Cathay Cir
Aurora CO, 80013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben N
3123 California Lane
Portland OR, 97219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theodore T Bryce
45 Seville Ct
Alamo CA, 94507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tek Wojenski
195 Garvin Rd
Hamden CT, 06518

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 19, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Manders
1990 Ellis
Dubuque IA, 52001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Royer
27 razor dr
keystone CO, 80435

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Quinn
3361 Idaho St
Riverside CA, 92507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Perry Nigro
2036 W. Chase
Chicago IL, 60645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Foster
2010 Elka Lane
Madison WI, 53704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Seed
213 Hargrave Ave
Teaneck NJ, 07666

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Quartironi
73 Beacon St.
Beacon NY, 12508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Paden
665 Cressa Dr.
Loveland CO, 80537

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john walton
2152 bock st
santa rosa CA, 95403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mars Patterson
240 Maron
Seven Hills OH, 44131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lily Wilde
1003 NE 71st Ave.
Portland OR, 97213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J. Hobbs
1706 Lead Se
Albuquerque NM, 87106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Andem
P.O. Box 844
Marianna FL, 32447

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael peters
7 alsen street
albany NY, 12205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Limb
606 Iowa Street
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Warren Daniels
26 Kopernik
Buffalo NY, 14206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Romer
1530 13th Ave S
Seattle WA, 98144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Gleason
PO Box 2135
Clackamas OR, 97015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Hinnant
4212 Raleigh St
Denver CO, 80212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Bufe
901 Miami Way
Boulder CO, 80305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Cook
2 Silver Lake Dr.
Waterloo IA, 50702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james nelles
39 Forest Ave
Riverside IL, 60546

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John King
4620 N M88
Central Lake MI, 49622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gabriel Landes
66 Cedar St
Newton MA, 02459

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ivan Engle
605 Bosque St.
Tularosa NM, 88352

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jana Libby
90085 Logan Rd.
Astoria, OR, 97103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joshua Welch
1995 Grant St.
Eugene OR, 97405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Chin
föreningsgatan 50
malmö MD, 21214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

florence klein
6873 fortuna rd.
goleta CA, 93117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Shampo
Musser St.
Brookings OR, 97415

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kat Hughes
37 Currier Street
Athens OH, 45701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Roller
1479 A Cliff Ct
Columbus OH, 43204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Barrett
1148 S Ceylon St
Aurora CO, 80017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Risa Beckham
9971 FM 773
Ben Wheeler TX, 75754

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Tomas
125 Juniper Rd.
Ruidoso NM, 88345

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Ritchie
160 Crescent Pl
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victor Oshel
1305 Franklyn St.
Rome NY, 13440

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alice May 450 Lovall Valley
Sonoma CA, 95476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karl Riemann
7 Ashford Drive
Trenton NJ, 08610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patti Rich
1121 E 22 Street
Oakland CA, 94606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lisa sawatzki
706 n evans
bloomington IL, 61701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barry Monohon
3825 S. 44 th
Lincoln NE, 68506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Buechler
2211 La Costa dr
Rowlett TX, 75088

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

L. A. Girardin
1959 Shay Road
Laurel MT, 59044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claudia Silva
7 Cedar Street
Ashland MA, 01721

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John M. Beam
230 Garfield Pl.
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deb Rieselman
134 Center St.
Erlanger KY, 41018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rodney Weaver
119 Beagle Rd.
Mill Hall PA, 17751

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

NK Acevedo
3 Carson St
Dorchester MA, 02125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luis Salmeron
2207 Wilson Ave
Bronx NY, 10469

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Olsen
2361 Hano Trail
Flagstaff AZ, 86001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Trina Jacobson
670 S Race St
Denver CO, 80209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Andrulli
93 Pond St
Stoneham MA, 02180

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pete Weinelt
p.o. box 184
Morristown AZ, 85342

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Mahler
7548 W. Clarence
Chicago IL, 60631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hannah G. Bloch
2 Gregory Lane
Acton MA, 01720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Heizmann
137 Bills Hill Rd
Oak Hill FL, 32759

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Coleman Cole
668 Sequoia
Imperial, CA, 92251

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eithne Davis
1064 Gapter Rd
Boulder CO, 80303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Grawl
241 W.16th. St.
Houston TX, 77008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brent Supperstein
3104 Leslie Dr
COS CO, 80909

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vicki Foxx
145 Cottage St
New Haven CT, 06511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gil piger
18817 ne 175 pl
Woodinville WA, 98072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

loren devito
128 cherry st
brooklyn MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dee Young
399 Park Avenue
New York NY, 10022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J Fox
222 Driftwood Dr
Chesapeake VA, 23320

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Warren Daniels
26 Kopernik
Buffalo NY, 14206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Konner Brooke Dominguez 1245 ogden UT, 84403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Smith
340 Green St.
Champaign IL, 61820

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark W Pritchard
PO Box 783
Andover MA, 01810

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marcos Ganon
P.O. Box 2958
Bellevue WA, 98008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Sweeney
915 Lawton St
McLean VA, 22101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 19, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Hall
2848 Country Lane
Eugene OR, 97401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Sharp
118 Teche Drive
Lafayette LA, 70503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Celia McIntosh
13430 SW 182 ST
Miami FL, 33177

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Miskis
14920 SW 145 ST
Miami FL, 33196

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Renny Reep
1722 NW 97th St.
Seattle WA, 98117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization or exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline, nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Rose
1239 S. Walliman Rd.
Globe AZ, 85501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

nan mattis 401 grove st.
haddonfield NJ, 08033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Virginia Wolter
6618 Dorr St
Toledo OH, 43615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Wagstaff
1114 Kent Dr
Davis CA, 95616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryder Diaz
1724 Fremont Ct #2
Davis CA, 95618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leo Harris
P.o> Box 73101
Los Angeles CA, 90003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan van Cort
335 Benson Pl
Westfield NJ, 07090

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Chng
1724 Eastern Ave
Baltimore MD, 21231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sam Shone
5412 Manhart St
Sedalia CO, 80135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Smith
716 Densley Drive
Decatur GA, 30033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Penfield Belton
1460 Jasmine
Denver CO, 80220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susie mossman
920 fifth st
las vegas NM, 87701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Datah
606 Smith St
Los Angeles CA, 90010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

wayne wind
1359 sylmar pl.
loveland CO, 80537

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

EDGAR PALMER
118 DAVID ST.
MONROE LA, 71202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Launa Prince
15728 Hart St
Van Nuys CA, 91406

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elaine Peterson
1019 E. 33rd.
Oakland CA, 94610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Ferland
35 Pearl St
Claremont NH, 03743

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Bolwerk
4511 Ohio St.
San Diego CA, 92116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chas Richards
1410 Kenton St
Aurora CO, 80010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hiba Hawi
1602 Collyer st
Longmont CO, 80501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kate eller
920 nw kearney
portland OR, 97209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Wittman
68 Stuart
Amityville NY, 11701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claire Vitucci
2313 W. 6000 N.
Tetonia ID, 83452

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Allan
717 3RD ST
STEILACOOM WA, 98388

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Justice
10320 Boulder Ln
Austin TX, 78726

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's "fake net neutrality plan", your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Albert Koval
Carlsbad
Carlsbad CA, 92009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Franke
7470 NW 10th CT
Plantation FL, 33313

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Skogley
2302 W. lunt
Chicago IL, 60645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Donohue
811 N Rebecca Pl
Peoria IL, 61606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carla Dalton
1720 Buena Ave
Berkeley CA, 94703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Hochberg
P. O. Box 569
Philo CA, 95466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mark lamotte
1252 kearney st
Denver CO, 80220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

judith dumitru
32 front street
akron NY, 14001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Seth Blake
23 Pine St.
Peterborough NH, 03458

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Swift
3048 Mt Diablo
Concord CA, 94518

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Baksha
550 Truman Dr.
Oswego IL, 60543

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rosalie
1907 Legette Dr
Bainbridge GA, 39819

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Lane
302 Funston
San Antonio TX, 78209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Priscilla Gilman
4537 Deer Run
Evans GA, 30809

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathi Downes
14 Turtle Court
Delanco NJ, 08075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dave Karasic
2 Bonnievale Dr
Bedford MA, 01730

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heather Cantino
33 Cable Lane
Athens OH, 45701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

anon.
6183 Yellowstone Dr
Port Orange FL, 32127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Kane
198 Hillcrest Dr.
Pittsboro NC, 27312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

rich grass 826 so 227th
des moines WA, 98198

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Brothers
POB 2435
IDYLLWILD CA, 92549

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurent Comes 7 Dogwood Trl
Kinnelon NJ, 07405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susan johnson
1216 jay ave
Ypsilanti MI, 48198

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vidya Sims
US Highway 101 N
Orick CA, 95555

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

brad berg
849 n. chodikee
highland NY, 12528

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Reed
110 Pond Rd # 5
Wellesley MA, 02482

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry Maxwell
123 Zapata Ln.
Minooka IL, 60447

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim Atkinson
PO Box 703
Sebastopol CA, 95473

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gene Ulmer
1408 e 5935 s
Salt Lake City UT, 84121

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elwood Horsey
P.O. Box 83206
Phoenix AZ, 85071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel McMillan
104 Phillips
Clawson MI, 48017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maya-Rose Paulsen
15-2006 5th
Keaau HI, 96749

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

diane libman
1132 w. lunt ave.
chicago IL, 60626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Perlman
410 E. 5th St #203
Austin TX, 78701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna G. Gierman
200 W. 26th St.
Bryan TX, 77803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Hackley
35 Ashley
Champaign IL, 61820

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dustin C
3 Farmington Ct
South Elgin IL, 60177

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jo Davis
16712 Magnino Rd
Shawnee OK, 74801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

P Garza
2560 W Dolbrook Way
Tucson AZ, 85741

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Gage
74 Secret Lake Rd
Canton CT, 06019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leandra Peterson
1113 Tarbert Ct.
Cary NC, 27511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gertrude Burns
2606 Olive St
Racine WI, 53403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Oakman
277 sw 170 st
Newberry FL, 32669

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J Braxton
Walnut Terrace
Bloomfield NJ, 07003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paula Frighetti
7133 E. 28th St.
Tucson AZ, 85710

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

R Johnson
468 W Melrose St
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karla Herrera
P.O. Box 26788
San Jose CA, 95159

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Verlene Lewis
192 N 2000 E
St George UT, 84790

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Liese
41 S 900 E
Salt Lake City UT, 84102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

janet dollacker
20 irwun way
orinda CA, 94563

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thushan Kotta
130 Miller Ave
Edison NJ, 08820

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fred Dunn
PO Box 65097
Los Angeles CA, 90065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Frank
P.O. box 795
Mt Desert ME, 04660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sonja Davis
10747 N.E. 2nd Place
Miami FL, 33161

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea Lepain
PO Box 83102
Portland OR, 97283

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susanna Bair
PO Box 437
Sunset Beach CA, 90742

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Kramer
781 Indigo Court
Irvine UT, 84738

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hayden Kaden
P.O. Box 138
Gustavus AK, 99826

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alyssa Ihler
2636 E. 3100 N.
Twin Falls ID, 83301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

carol e
407 valencia school rd
aptos CA, 95003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennie Stein
453 W. 148th St.
New York NY, 10031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ricardo Hofer
370 63rd St.
Oakland CA, 94618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joshua Kol
1537 Barker Rd
Post Mills VT, 05058

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claire Braye
20 Fairway Dr
Brockton MA, 02301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.

Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Many 1070 East Waldo Road
Belfast ME, 04915

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janis Cashman
PO Box 505
Wolfeboro NH, 03894

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dale Russ
13533 23rd Ave NE
Seattle WA, 98125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Irene Bachelder
P.O. Box 125
Kenwood CA, 95452

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike McSwain
1636 Hwy 31 S
Lonoke AR, 72086

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Stek
10201 E Lucille Dr
Tucson AZ, 85730

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

elmer taylor
15 potters rd.
buffalo MO, 65622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Heisler
1057 Swanson Ln
Colfax CA, 95713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sunny Patten
8321 Dulcet Drive
Austin TX, 78745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fiona Boyd
11 Ludwig St.
Thomaston ME, 04861

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Walsh
541 Starlite Dr
Pueblo CO, 81005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynne Spickard
7 Nace Ave.
Piedmont CA, 94611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maureen Powers
PO BOX 2826
Homer AK, 99603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lorel Kapke
17003 Park Ave
Sonoma CA, 95476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clara Bakker
815 Bertsch Dr.
Holland MI, 49423

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Brody
208 Lameshur Ln
Monroe NC, 28110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Lesh
1512 Cornell Ave
Berkeley CA, 94702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sue Shimer
6215 Espee Dr
Flagstaff AZ, 86004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Treadway
712 N School
Normal IL, 61761

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Horace Lee 718 Academy Ave
Matteson IL, 60443

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amanda Bray
2194 Alex Ave. SE
Salem OR, 97302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Man Meat Eater
2357 Soncy
Lubbuck TX, 67809

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Humphrey
622 Broadwa
Venice CA, 90291

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Hackley
35 Ashley
Champaign IL, 61820

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 19, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Beeny
181 Tudor Oval
Westfield NJ, 07090

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jude rubadue
1121 East 200 South
SLC UT, 84102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

aron shevis
302 windsor pl
brooklyn NY, 11218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Trudi Dixon
9600 Scales Pl
Bristow VA, 20136

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Trudy Hasan
6103 Sun Vista Dr
Austin TX, 78749

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roy Snell
PO Box 34
South Woodstock VT, 05071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Yoder
137 nw bowdoin pl
seattle WA, 98107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Hastings
1070 Novelly Dr.
Reno NV, 89503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandy Orr
2094 Windsong Ct
Gurnee IL, 60031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah Mokma
po Box 1330
ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Della Herden
503 W Seneca St
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lila Berman
3401 N Bacobi Ave
Tucson AZ, 85750

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theresa Pauline
PO Box 904
Richmond KY, 40476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Patton
4512 Bracada Dr
Durham NC, 27705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel Silber
59 Orient Ave
Melrose MA, 02176

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruth Dewey
181 Brittany Ln
Sequim WA, 98382

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rhosan Ames
10250 Guinevere Dr
Boise ID, 83704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eduardo Hilario
55 Rockwood
Irvine CA, 92614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Civic 3455 N. 47th Way
Phoenix AZ, 85018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Johns
251 heath
Jamaica Plain MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katrina Davis
749 Riverside
Mancos CO, 81328

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Barrick
618 8th Street
Nevada IA, 50201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joy Bunton
512 Madison St.
Oak Park IL, 60302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Gent
2169 Princeton Ave
LA CA, 90026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fredrick Turner
PO Box 15114
Seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa A. Pace
2067-B Higby Drive
Stow OH, 44224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Bishop 4018 Ballima Dive
encino CA, 91436

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Hendren
218 W. Clark
La Plata MO, 63549

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

naseem alharbi
1 Barnes St
Waltham MA, 02453

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

wendy wilke
7517 n jackson av
fresno CA, 93720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Cales
7772 Cranley Road
Powell TN, 37849

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melanie King
1050 E. 227th St.
Bronx NY, 10466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rodney Meyer
PO Box 823
Black Hawk SD, 57718

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jim lavin
10 hastings road
spencer MA, 01562

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim Slawson
48 Jones Rd
Somerville ME, 04348

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Morris
208 E State St
ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Prindable
41 E 8TH ST
Chicago IL, 60605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Kusiak
924 W Leland 1W
chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doris Bergen
642 Shultz Dr.
Hamilton OH, 45013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elena Amodeo
845 Willow Ave
Eugene OR, 97404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Buck
4901 Pole Rd
Alexandria VA, 22309

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

curtis n. evans
23 oak st.
marblehead MA, 01945

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Spiro Telegadis
59 john St
New York NY, 10038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah E. Gold
1320 44th St.
Des Moines IA, 50311

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Henry Sommers
11 Culver Pkwy
Vestal NY, 13850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Davis
1340 Drift Rd
Westport MA, 02790

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Calder Gilliam
67 Oviedo Ct
Pacifica CA, 94044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lee Cali
2102 Elk Circle
Cottonwood AZ, 86326

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Colvin
2976 Clay
San Francisco CA, 94115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Duane Erway
PO Box 2807
Kailua Kona HI, 96745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Holmes
100 E. 17 St.
Silver City NM, 88061

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

larry king
1651 w lowry st
meridian ID, 83646

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John R. Selser
311 Nave Street
Clinton TN, 37716

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Brown
6 Herrada Way
Santa Fe NM, 87508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alice Simpson
1503 Wood Rd.
Fulton CA, 95439

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christina Barnes
PO Box 27031
Ralston NE, 68127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mira el 1409 highland dr.
mt. shasta CA, 96067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janette Wells
1218 SW Tanner Ct
Bend OR, 97702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Noble
111 Little Road
Skamania WA, 98648

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dave Palughi
21-50 33rd Road
AStoria NY, 11106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

M Just 1018 Marengo Ave
Forest Park IL, 60130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

maurice kelly
1749 w 42
los angeles CA, 90062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Penny DeNoble
2323 Race St
Denver CO, 80205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Lesco
3502 E 2nd St
Tucson AZ, 85716

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Ferguson
615 Penick Road
Waller TX, 77484

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael davis
1441 s lindsay rd
mesa AZ, 85204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

KC Crafts
po box 117
south berwick ME, 03908

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 19, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Chreene
6142 E Lovers Lane
Dallas TX, 75214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sean Knight
PO Box 22396
Santa Fe NM, 87502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brad Conquer
110 Central Ave
Warren PA, 16365

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Whittemore
5448 Alan Dr
Oregon WI, 53575

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

crys dixon
7701 Lindbergh Blvd
Phila PA, 19153

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

C LH
66 Charles Street #359
Boston MA, 02114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angela Davenport
7318 La Vista
Dallas TX, 75214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Jones
3306 26th Ave. S.
Fargo ND, 58103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ebun Adelona
PO Box 156
Hot Springs SD, 57747

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurie Burnham
151 Ohio Ave
Ft Thomas KY, 41075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

emil pirelli
702 10th st
Wichita Falls TX, 76301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc H Laviates
35 Mercer St #4W
NY NY, 10013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Welsch
2935 Katie Ln
Bettendorf IA, 52722

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Burroughs
6020 McGlenn
Aptos CA, 95003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ernest Backus
145A Troy Road
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wendy Weir
23694 Butler Rd.
Elmira OR, 97437

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Caswell
4190 12th St SE
Salem OR, 97302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

TJ Davis
975 S. Myrtle Avenue
Tempe AZ, 85287

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Jones
2819 Joyce Ave.
Columbus OH, 43211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angela Turner
2011 Ferry Ave
Camden NJ, 08104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joslen Letscher
41120 Fox Run Rd
Novi, MI, 48377

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pam Dix
11127 Aprilia Lane
Cornelius NC, 28031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Scott
1509 E 55th St
Savannah GA, 31404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Merical
40 N. Fir Street
Ventura CA, 93001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kelly Moore
1805 Pilot Way
Garland TX, 75040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gwylym Cano
2545 W. 45th Ave
Denver CO, 80211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katy Griswold
2244 N Dalton Ln
Boise ID, 83704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Syfers
208 Malaga St
Sonoma CA, 95476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

diane hawkey 823 hoffman
royal oak MI, 48067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victoria Poppe
500 R Road
Douglas NE, 68344

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian F Koch
254 Pine Hill Rd
Chester NY, 10918

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Louis Hirsch
1423 W. Thome
CHICAGO IL, 60660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristin Ede
P.O. Box 0806
Milwaukee WI, 53201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anna McDonough
27 Main St.
Geneseo NY, 14454

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

F Robert Wesley
212 Hill Road
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Davi Lakind
204 Jackson St.
Brooklyn NY, 11211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jill Manske
6204 44th Ave
Riverdale MD, 20737

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Lisman
448 N. Golfers Way
Denver CO, 80230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization,exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline, or move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cosmos Dohner
10 Wildflower Court
placitas NM, 87043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Miles
PO Box 98
Myrtle Point OR, 97458

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Willis
PO Box 368
Kingston OK, 73439

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Rogers
E. Brierfield Dr.
Eagle ID, 83616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Hawes
5405 37th Ave SE
Lacey WA, 98503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Smith
9728 - 3rd Ave NW
Seattle WA, 98117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Skeen
4849-C N. 7th St.
Fresno CA, 93726

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william burnett
3842 14th. st.
ecorse MI, 48229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Perry Olds
408 W Howe
Bloomington IN, 47403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Be a Hero!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

claudio donndelinger
3125 sudbury
memphis TN, 38115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Siegler
1720 Grape Ave
Boulder CO, 80304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 19, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claude Abraham
63A Weis rd
Albany NY, 12208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Gilfillan
Hwy 60
Vero Beach FL, 32960

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

WILMA PARKER
PO BOX 7981
ATLANTA GA, 30357

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

B. DeSourdis
48 Dorothy Rd.
Millbury MA, 01527

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

eve lyman
3 hubbard pk
cambridge MA, 02138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Gould
123 Tall Pines Rd.
Newark DE, 19713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

adele cox
45 fulton st
redwood city CA, 94062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Blumert
8 Meadow St.
Lakeville CT, 06039

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

San Diego
92020
Matthew Sablove CA, 92020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Easton
525 Venice Way
Venice CA, 90291

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

P Gretrix
453 Shirley St
Winthrop MA, 02152

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elaine Hunter
2109 Joffre Ave.
Toledo OH, 43607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rex Sauls
7394 Layton st
Cucamonga CA, 91730

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Buss
4311 Braemar Ave
Lakeland FL, 33813

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

aron shevis
302 windsor pl
brooklyn NY, 11218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

zaki smith 1576 westhaven pl
salem OR, 97304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philip A Morgan
5888 Ohe St
Kapaa HI, 96746

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Angel
2936 N 36th St
Phoenix AZ, 85018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Yelvington
1488 Rt B
Goodman MO, 64843

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

alicia power
8531 12th ave nw
seattle WA, 98117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert T Jordan
302 Oak Lane
Cresco PA, 18326

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Stevens
PO Box 1055
Cambria CA, 93428

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shannon May 4415 Willhi St.
Eugene OR, 97402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Caldwel
5780 Bozeman Dr.
Plano TX, 75024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Cimino
P.O. Box 176
New Britain CT, 06050

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Tweedy
10 Adams St
Taunton MA, 02780

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fran Stanley
19 Court Street
Groton MA, 01450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Martin
76 W 34th St
Bayonne NJ, 07002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

meg gilman
po box 584
portsmouth NH, 03802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniela Iannone
103 Penn Place
Linden NJ, 07036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Albee
1717 pauger st
new orleans LA, 70116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katha Seidman
18 Elba St
Brookline MA, 02446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cathie Bell
4339 SE 35 Ave
Portland OR, 97202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Haven Doane
PO BOX965
Gig Harbor WA, 98335

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

linda hecht
4396 harvard av
la mesa CA, 91941

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Maisel
150 Hacienda Dr.
Tiburon CA, 94920

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Connie J Peterson
247 W. El Paso
Clovis CA, 93611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Euclide
307 N. 1st Ave.
Valders WI, 54245

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Tuley
1807 n. 90th St.
Seattle WA, 98103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dana Zimmer
5753 S Gray St
Littleton CO, 80123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ralph kolderup
455 s elm st
palatine IL, 60067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

vicki citron
31 jefferson st
newton MA, 02458

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mike mcginn
8645 s. yarrow
Littleton CO, 80128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Ives
1190 Main St
River Edge NJ, 07661

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gerald shimon
434 tennyson ave
flint MI, 48507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Velez
12016 75th Ave S
Seattle WA, 98178

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Burke
Kenna St;
Moonee Ponds GA, 30309

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Jeannot
317 E Rich Ave
Spokane WA, 99207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Abel
1708A Nakiu Pl
Honolulu HI, 96822

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

matthew rock 3708 N. Keeler
chicago IL, 60641

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Sullivan
129 S Lincoln
Pocatello ID, 83204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

donal wick
1002 s 202nd st
seattle WA, 98198

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Oswaldo Ortiz
106 s 9th st
Reading PA, 19602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

eric Ostrander
40 locust lane
halesite NY, 11743

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Kahle
2685 Bowmont Dr
Eugene OR, 97405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Somerville
127 Gillette Ave
Troy NY, 12180

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Catanese
1500 Detroit Ave
Apt 406 OH, 44113

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Randhawa
190 ryland
san jose CA, 95100

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ryan chennault
20 Tee Time Dr
Petal MS, 39465

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory Stupp
3857 sw 4th pl
Miami FL, 33143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lincoln stoller
148 dubois rd
shokan NY, 12481

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Pesz
260 Orchard Place
Fox Lake IL, 60020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Cardlin
3 Serene Ln
Yardley PA, 19067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beatrice Eichten
577 Huff St.
Winona MN, 55987

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deanna Ratto
898 Breys Ave NE
Salem OR, 97301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tifni T Lynch
box 321
Shaw Island WA, 98286

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Vandiver
1098 FM 2716
Cooper TX, 75432

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cruz Phillips
PO Box 1107
Santa Ynez CA, 93460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Duncan
828 Beaver Ct.
Fremont CA, 94539

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Miyahira
PO Box 8733
San Jose CA, 95155

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

stacy prince
5 Little Lane
Westport CT, 06880

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heidi OMara
4532 NW 3 St.
Plantation FL, 33317

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hugh Ellis
5861 Lance St
San Diego CA, 92120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel green 16 perkins dr
arcadia CA, 91006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peg O'Sullivan
7 Sammis St.
Norwalk CT, 06853

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Napolitano
46 Perri Rd.
Freehold NJ, 07728

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Hart
Prospect St
East Orange NJ, 07017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Kraft
915 E. Court St., #403
Flint MI, 48503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Bartek
419 Crescent Ave
Buffalo NY, 14214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob De Dea
8022 Burke Ave N
Seattle WA, 98103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Lobel
807 Park Lake Pl
Maitland FL, 32751

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Joerg
1055 Hope Street
Venice FL, 34285

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

virginia ikeda
3320 15th st
boulder CO, 80304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Agnes Hale
1234 Warrington
Detroit MI, 48221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brady Bakay
1109 Chestnut Ln
Davis CA, 95616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Smith
906 Rio Grande St
Austin TX, 78701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elaine Rose
704 City Drive
Missoula MT, 59802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sakeena R
HC 61 Box 169A
Glenwood NM, 88039

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kirk Fuss
1030 Dudley St
Lakewood CO, 80215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doug Traer
15416 Gault St
Van Nuys CA, 91406

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Anderson
450 S Vine St
Denver CO, 80209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe B. Jones
22 Lerome Place
Teaneck NJ, 07666

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Stewart
P.O. Box 42043
Atlanta, GA, 30311

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

david stang
P.O. Box 273
Palmer Lakec CO, 80133

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Pratt
2826 Hoard ST
Madison WI, 53704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barry Simmons
110 S. Galena
Wyoming IL, 61491

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl duff
412 holes ave
Huntsville AL, 35801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Hays
452 Longley Road
Groton MA, 01450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Nelson
156 High St
Belfast ME, 04915

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Claffey
24031 68 ave
little neck NY, 11362

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Szwaja
3 Pine Hill Ave
Norwalk CT, 06855

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Franc James 4400 Pierce Blvd
Racine WI, 53405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Troup
173 Hill View Ln.
Bernville PA, 19506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Merri Isom
8304 Mendota Cove
Austin TX, 78717

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Taddie
282 2ND Ave
Mansfield OH, 44902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucille O. Farley
647 Hudson St. #3
NY NY, 10014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

neale allen
3530 W Sahuaro Dv
Tucson AZ, 85742

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anthony Magana
252 E Front St
Boise ID, 83702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kelly S
240 Collins Ave
Miami Beach FL, 33139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brent Hepner
720 Penna. Ave.
Norfolk VA, 23508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

katie did
p.o. box 221066
san diego CA, 92192

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David L. Hansen
HC-69 Box 112
Anselmo NE, 68813

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Bayer
111 Pirates Cove
Marathon FL, 33050

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vanessa Starks
P.O. Box 8493
Alta Loma CA, 91701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the the people! Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all of the USA's diversity of ethnicity, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Monte Martin
General Delivery
Sumner WA, 98390

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Forrest Jones
400 Garden St.
Golden CO, 80403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

deb mcburney
239 garrett rd
lamar AR, 72846

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Fagin
1460 w. Victoria
Chicago IL, 60660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Kaye
No street
Wilmington DE, 19808

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Luca
43 Main St
Westford MA, 01886

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ramon abrego 770 w. gladys
chicago IL, 60661

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

barb henault
po box 17158
smithfield RI, 02917

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruth Byington
3607 172 St.
Flushing NY, 11358

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allen Yun
1613 Auburn Ave
Rockville MD, 20850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslie Kaufmann
P.O. Box 915
Monrovia CA, 91017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jen Platt
6 Old County Way
Portland CT, 06480

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Gifford
5002 Strass Dr.
Austin TX, 78731

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Gall
6380 Buckley Dr.
Cambria CA, 93428

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Genevieve Windsor
PO Box 1515
Talent OR, 97540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Mead
6639 Swamp Road
Beulah MI, 49617

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mandy Power
PO Box 615
Newcastle CA, 95658

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leah Pearlstein
1 Fairview Ave
Malden MA, 2148

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Obie wade
3943 e. 5th St.
Long beach CA, 90814

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Schuyler Judd
PO Box 64
Island Park ID, 83429

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jaime Barnes
130 Central Ave
Buffalo NY, 14206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claudia Cohen
8 redwood
Larkspur CA, 94939

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Meagher
561 c St.
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karana White
8615 19th AVE
Brooklyn NY, 11214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Bergman
803 West Ave.
Austin TX, 78701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Trevyn Lamison
759 Viola Ct
Nipomo CA, 93444

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Commissioner Copps:

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jordan Hahn
580 w 215th st., #1G
New York NY, 10034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurece Sherman
808 Baird St.
Akron OH, 44306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Neil R
39 Pearl Street #5R
Brooklyn NY, 11201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

e thomas 7413 w oregon ave
glendale AZ, 85303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alfredo Huante
575E 238th PL
Carson CA, 90745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

david keenan
8315 48th ave S
seattle WA, 98118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

robert norman 2129 se 10th
portland OR, 97214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Hunt
3158 Puritan Ave
Lincoln NE, 68502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kent Price
604 Castine Road
Orland ME, 04472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt Seniff
1007 N Walnut St
Normal IL, 61761

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Bobb
207 Hunt Rd
Westerlo NY, 12193

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Megan Evans
1901 55th st
Des Moines IA, 50310

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. Brian G. Scott
c/o 2901 Palous
Boise ID, 83501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucious Freeman 9541
Jacksonville, FL FL, 32210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith McNea
1020 Brad St
Lansing MI, 48911

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erica Usurin
2225 Holland Ave
Bronx NY, 10467

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Adams
8 Oakshore
Bratenahl OH, 44108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Burner
RR 3, Box 433
Grafton WV, 26354

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank K McKinney
PO Box 265
Boone NC, 28607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ada Babino
115 V St. NW
Washington DC, 20001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

p b 49 trossach road
staten island NY, 10304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Hilario
6902 9th St.
Lubbock TX, 79416

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gayle DeBay
15 Hazel St
Watertown MA, 02472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leigh Hessel
P.O Box 21616
Oakland CA, 94620

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hu Toy
135 Julian Way
Pleasant Hill CA, 94523

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Connie LaMotte
112 Harris Rd.
Butler PA, 16002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Samia Estassi
621 w 15th
Anchorage AK, 99501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Louis
1041 S. Zeno Way
Aurora CO, 80017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Click
30 Fairway Drive
Chico CA, 95928

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Andrews
2815 W. Fargo
Chicago IL, 60645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Seeman
142 West St.
Vacaville CA, 95688

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Faust
E6602 State Rd 170
Colfax WI, 54730

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Fabian
62 South St
Addison NY, 14801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanne Stack
850 N DEWITT PL
Chicago IL, 60611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

alvin shiraishi
937 18th ave
honolulu HI, 96816

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hope Carr
358 85th Street
Brooklyn NY, 11209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Tarleton
901 Kensington Dr.
Cary NC, 27511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

pat urbanick 1330 SE 52nd
portland OR, 97215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lee Streitz
2345 E Juanita St
Tucson AZ, 85719

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gabriel baren
7135 banbury ct
reno NV, 89523

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brad Findlay
1910 Ajay Dr
Roseville CA, 95678

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Geoff Abbas
481 Quincy St
Brooklyn NY, 11221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Travis Porter
3609 Meadow Dr
Boise ID, 83706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phil Rider
443 W. Hillcrest Dr.
DeKalb IL, 60115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn
172 N. Esterly Ave.
Whitewater WI, 53190

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerry Milliken
PO Box 1880
Oroville WA, 98844

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Lobo
5350 kalmia dr. n.e.
Keizer OR, 97303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karin Ralph
9 Gwen Place
Greenlawn NY, 11740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chenell Young
18961 E 44th Pl
Denver CO, 80249

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Bek
42 Redding cir
Princeton NJ, 08540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Britton
P.O.Box 491
Clatskanie OR, 97016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Penny Derleth
PO Box 421
Deer Park WA, 99006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Ralston
1423 W Kandy Ct.
Tucson AZ, 85745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Batey
11912 SE 19th
Milwaukie OR, 97222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Knight
7 Gray Hawk
Santa Fe NM, 87508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jane leavitt
518 26th Ave. S.
Seattle WA, 98144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Farrell
PO Box 80825
Portland OR, 97280

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jesse Hudson
137 Wateree Dr.
Santee SC, 29142

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ava Evans
16962 Oak View Dr
Encino CA, 91436

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jana Rice
7433 Parkwood Dr
St. Louis MO, 63116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leah Gitter
106 Spring St
New York NY, 10012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

April Zilber
897 Hillcrest Dr.
Felton CA, 95018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Justin Richel
70 Lynn Way
Rangeley ME, 04970

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

yvonne austin
400 E. Pratt
Baltimore MD, 21202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

doris wright
9208 45th NE
seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

T Petrine
2503 Foxcroft Way
Reston VA, 20191

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amanda Walls
p.o.box 21
jamestown NC, 27282

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

asdur triff
2131 sw 11th. street
miami FL, 33135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Berkley
421 fifth st.
ann arbor MI, 48104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

shrdlu ashe
PO Box 1498
New Milford CT, 06776

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lelia bogard
p.o. box 24
coarsegold CA, 93614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Janowitz
7821 W 15 Ave
Hialeah FL, 33014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jaime Becker
1332 67th St.
Berkeley CA, 94702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

fran schneider
1328 taft rd
teaneck NJ, 07666

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Choate
315 W. Clay #2
Houston TX, 77019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Sanborn 617 Illinois St.
Geneva IL, 60134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dave Francis
PO. Box # 517
ROSENDALE NY, 12472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Francis Dallaire
P.O. Box 1212
Medford NY, 11763

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Duncan
828 Beaver Ct.
Fremont CA, 94539

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arthur Bjork
9 Marsh Ave
Salem NH, 03079

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy
P.O. Box 821472
Pembroke Pines FL, 33082

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

tom mcburney
239 garrett rd
lamar AR, 72846

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J W Baker
2611 43RD AVE NE
Hickory NC, 28601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julian Mitchell
1920 18
Kingsburg CA, 93631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Muncy
300 Quail Run
Pinehurst NC, 28374

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vivian Cannon
108 W Linda Dr
Garland TX, 75041

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 19, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Klein
74 Casterton Av
Akron OH, 44303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joyce Dougherty
1460 Parker
Holly MI, 48442

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Pike
2300B Estes Rd
Chico CA, 95928

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melinda Bandow
628 Jackson
Aurora IL, 60505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rodger Broyles
3359 Silo Rd,
Durant OK, 74701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leah Hertzel
8680 Nina Court
Cotati CA, 94931

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Louis Falzerano
po box 75
north river NY, 12856

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doe Tabor
2480 Augusta St.
Eugene OR, 97403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ina Martinez
1134 Crown St
Glendora CA, 91740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt Kraai
116 Euclid Place
Upland CA, 91786

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Wolf
102 NW 101st St
Seattle WA, 98177

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Steele
1055 miami way
Boulder CO, 80305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paula Stevens
7676 Dundas Dr
Orlando FL, 32818

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anita Das
9522 49th Ave NE
Seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Lincoln
402 Amelia Lane
Aledo TX, 76008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Rea
2801 Exmoor Rd.
Columbus OH, 43221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ted Steege
313 18th Ave SE
Olympia WA, 98501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dena Higgins
Bolinas Road
Fairfax CA, 94930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alex Adams
P. O. Box 768882
Roswell GA, 30076

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thai-An Ngo
2303 25th Ave
Oakland CA, 94601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helga Riehlein
P.O. Box 5
Carlsborg WA, 98324

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

B. Pearl
218 -168th St Se
Bothell, WA WA, 98012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzi Randall
PO Box 222059
Carmel CA, 93922

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

shahin samia
6601 preston rd
PLANO TX, 75024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Woods
2119 S. S St.
Fort Smith AR, 72901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Tucker
11605 Barchetta
Austin TX, 78758

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barry Tillis
1134 Orwell Ave
Orlando FL, 32809

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Henry Flurry
406 Arena Dr.
Prescott AZ, 86301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrejs Ozolins
733 CLIFF ST
ITHACA NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

P Mazzulo
247 e. chestnut St
chicago IL, 60611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susana Boukamel
200 Fox View Pl
Cary NC, 27511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sid Kivanoski
1069 E37 St.
Brooklyn NY, 11210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Lopes
17 Blackman Ave
Bethel CT, 06801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruth Milas
710 15th St. N.
Moorhead MN, 56560

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Riddell
603 C Street
Davis CA, 95616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

angus m macdonald
PO BOX 111
Elkwood VA, 22718

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ashley wong
25 hightop lane
jericho NY, 11753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Monte Taylor
1022 S 80th St.
Omaha NE, 68114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jared Hester
3649 211th St
Bayside NY, 11361

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Art Sangurai
4717 N. Lincoln
Chicago IL, 60625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Oram
181 Division Ave
Shelton CT, 06484

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clark Cole
1311 Pacific Ave
Alameda CA, 94501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Awana Black not needed
Picayune MS, 39466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry Matsui
541-19th. Ave.
Seattle WA, 98122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Annie Coburn-Kane
99 Lake St
Wilson NY, 14172

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

nancy alcumbrack
702 Oak
Ypsilanti MI, 48198

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Brown
3785 Williams St
Denver CO, 80205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

judy loring
39 orchard way
novato CA, 94947

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Adamson Curlis
1105 4th Avenue
Altoona PA, 16602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dan cappello
2015 bandek
lawrence PA, 15055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Ellzey
10 Tarro Road
Santa Fe NM, 87508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brion Hurley
P.O. Box 104
Sausalito CA, 94966

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eve McClure
1727 31st Ave S
Seattle WA, 98144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Chew
512 N Ridgeland
Oak Park IL, 60302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

R. Ronald Rau
6 Peathole Lane
Bellport NY, 11713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

marlene reed 16151 rosemont
detroit MI, 48219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vince McLeod
POB 112195
Gainesville FL, 32611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eugene Rhodes
16126 Dexter
Detroit MI, 48221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry Hodge
590 W Dallas St
Canton TX, 75103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Rose
520 Pine AVe. #30
Goleta CA, 93117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

alan ezust
70 wendell st
cambridge MA, 02138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Propp
700 Parry Rd
Falls City OR, 97344

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rob Everhart
1451 S. 9th
Terre Haute IN, 47802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alicia Ziff
1512 Penmar Ave.
Venice CA, 90291

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Akers
2311 Ridgeview
Austin TX, 78704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

robert w svetlik
511 n. 3rd. st.
palatka FL, 32177

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sam Fedele
2650 Turk Hill Rd.
Victor NY, 14564

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Moon
P.O. Box 505
Florence TX, 76527

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sally freund
4094 tichenor rd
hector NY, 14841

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucy Fridella
po box 233
Columbiana AL, 35051

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allen Cowgill
1441Central St
Denver CO, 80211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Howard Glazer
7752 Barrie
Dearborn MI, 48126

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Devon Watson
1262 Cavan st
Boulder CO, 80303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Boyer
141 Club Circle
Belvidere IL, 61008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Hill
981 Robin Hood
Eugene OR, 97401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gene Schulze
493 Boston St
Guilford CT, 06437

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenn Zorn
6140 S 15th CT
Milwaukee WI, 53221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Brown
874 White Oak Rd.
Manheim PA, 17545

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Hohn
244 Hayts Road
Ithaca NY, 14580

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Craig Schuster
7168 Hall St
Holland OH, 43528

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tami Redi
1220 N 15 Court
Hollywood FL, 33020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Bradley
P.O. Box 52
Laytonville CA, 95454

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randy Chaney
72789 Rice Lane
Arlee MT, 59821

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jake wolfhart
P.O. Box 1193
CAPITAN NM, 88316

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Bennett
4107 McKee Rd
Erie PA, 16506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Hamilton
815 Dunn Ave
Oregon WI, 53575

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Lynch
535 Rte 111
Willow Grove NE, 59784

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Smith
619 Penick Road
Waller TX, 77484

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 18, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

P. Devine
6167 N. Broadway
Chicago IL, 60660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jonathan hoppe
26 echo lane
melville NY, 11747

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Rowell
5266 Boyd Ave.
Oakland CA, 94618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wayne Bania
1633 W. 37th Pl.
Chicago IL, 60609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

donald S. Feiner 1221 Third Ave
napa CA, 94558

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

laura presley
4221 5th St
Riverside CA, 92501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Sajdak
1624 Clarence
Berwyn IL, 60402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kris Claus
3117 Cliffoak Drive
Dallas TX, 75233

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Halli Bourne
P.O. Box 5222
Bernalillo NM, 87004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Lee
921 Harvard RD
Berkley MI, 48072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

nancy hart
575 Lore Lk Rd
Kalispell MT, 59901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Hicks
921 Ell Way
Sarasota FL, 34243

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gloria Joyce
2214 Erie St.
San Diego CA, 92110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Cruse
9631 N. 33rd St
Phoenix AZ, 85028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Faia
130 Camino Pacifico
Aptos CA, 95003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nina Schwartz
717 Laurel Lane
Wayne PA, 19087

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane Winsted
249 Kilkare Rd
Sunol CA, 94586

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shaun Case
PO Box 1159
Nevada City CA, 95959

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Watson
205 18th Ave E
Seattle WA, 98112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

CLARK BUTLER
2904 W33RD ST #129
Sioux Falls SD, 57105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Wetern
975 Park Center Dr
Vista CA, 92081

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessica Reisman
2401 E. 6th St.
Austin TX, 78702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Powers
1158 Opal St
Broomfield CO, 80020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carlos Santos
104 Liberty st
Trenton NJ, 08611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MERYL DROR
351 Richard Ct
Pomona NY, 10970

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Porter
PO Box 12268
Jackson WY, 83002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald H Smith
PO Box 1344
Capitan NM, 88316

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Tobin
279 Fantango Rd.
Durango CO, 81301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Will Snow
537 NE Couch #1
Portland OR, 97232

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Graves
P.O. Box 486
TUCUMCARI NM, 88401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kyla Allen
P.O.Box 462
Cummaquid MA, 02637

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Crussel
1224 Iowa St.
Norman, OK, 73069

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

edmund galusky
41 Llano Rd
questa NM, 87556

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

L. Kent Bendall
308 Tulip Dr.
Meriden CT, 06450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Bell
3012 St Paul St
Baltimore MD, 21218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eleanor Lynn 18 America Way
Salem MA, 01970

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

betty mazur
pobox 403
amagansett NY, 11930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Vann
251 Wayne Ave
Oakland CA, 94606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Gordon
911 Redman
Duncanville TX, 75137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Soon
121 LAdrea Drs
Santa Cruz CA, 95060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betty Armstead
835 Ogden St
Denver CO, 80218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

S. Perry
2444 Moore Blvd. #115
Davis CA, 95618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brent D. Sellers
43848 Hwy 72
Salem MO, 65560

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

rita ibrahim
4 salisbury pt.
nyack NY, 10960

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Max Orelus
14970 Durham Lane
DAVIE FL, 33331

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben Bauer
4301 N 44th St
Milwaukee WI, 53216

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Walter Pinkus
PO Box 2428
Pensacola FL, 32513

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leanne Friedman
1576 Drake Dr.
Davis CA, 95616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joann Koch
134 Olenick Rd.
Lebanon CT, 06249

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mishelle shepard
PO Box 683
Elkhart TX, 75839

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

connie converse
Box 39341
rochester NY, 14604

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

tia pearson
po box 861697
wahiawa HI, 96786

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I've heard that no one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Turner
28759 127th Street
Mobridge SD, 57601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Pimpler
P.O. Box 808
Cameron TX, 76520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Birt
251 gamage ave
auburn ME, 04210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Robbins
po box 5049
cerritos CA, 90703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

scott schlafman
box 353
chewelah WA, 99109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dick Corrigan
341 West 71st St
NYC NY, 10023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clara Gagnon
3 Bronsdon St.
Boston MA, 02135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kathleen chippi
po 567
Nederland CO, 80466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erica Heller
248 Kimball Ave
Golden CO, 80401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doris Nabors
PO Box 201
Lake Geneva FL, 32160

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Rudan
130 Northway
Greenbelt MD, 20770

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Craig Lucas
439 Cuyahoga St.
Kent OH, 44240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J Esposito
897 E York Way
Sparks NV, 89434

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rod DeGeorge
S. View Rd
Fleetwood PA, 19522

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gail Picard
316 Candler St.
Atlanta GA, 30307

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Beauchamp
1002 Eliot Dr
Urbana IL, 61801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kipp Chandler
4113 S 5500 W
Hooper UT, 84315

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Gillespie
1103 Enfield
Austin TX, 78703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim Plumlee
19008 Lowell
Stilwell KS, 66085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard C Hover
2920 Alt 19
Dunedin FL, 34698

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Barry
910 N 32nd St
Renton WA, 98056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gale Litvak
1318 Agua Fria
Santa Fe NM, 87501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shana Crews
PO
Westhampton Beach NY, 11978

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Graham
154 windmill ln.
Madison VA, 22727

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maude Hulcher
2328 Dalton Dr
Pelham AL, 35124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Kent
90 Riverside Drive
NY NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Heege
1068 Dayton
Saint Paul MN, 55104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Cohen
54 Twinleaf Lane
Sidney ME, 04330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael keck
6 varick st 4c
new york NY, 10013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanne Rile
1474 Autumn Road
Rydal PA, 19046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carole Roy
105 Redwood Dr
Taunton MA, 02780

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Gleason
88 Hart Road
Belfast ME, 04849

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Al Pierson
3 Hawthorne Dr.
Walpole MA, 02081

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Chipman
P.O. Box 708
Bradford VT, 05033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane Wong
7 Lake Drive
Pleasantville NY, 10570

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Tate
3805 Joycliff Road
Macon GA, 31211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

tom renckens
183 young rd
Augusta ME, 04330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jordana H.
2750 N. Hampden
Chicago IL, 60614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerald Ulrey
PO Box 262
Swannanoa NC, 28778

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Futterer
122 Pueblo Ln
Topanga CA, 90290

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Urbaniak
RR #1 Box 20
Cairo WV, 26337

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Voget
1615 n. 41st
Seattle WA, 98103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheriel Jensen
13737 Quito
Saratoga CA, 95070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sylvia Barnard
84 Willett St
Albany NY, 12210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Friedman
855 West End Ave
NY NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Lay
215 County Road 725
Belle MO, 65013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dian Berger
5639 E. Gateway Dr.
Boise ID, 83716

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Iris Meltzer
419 E. College Ave.
Kent OH, 44240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Johnson
1531 Stout St.
Denver CO, 80202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Creamer
335 E 94th
New York NY, 10128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Bayliss
385 Idaho
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

peter ternes
88 Ludlow St.
New York NY, 10002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kent renz
1902 lombard ave.
berwyn IL, 60402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

barbara meislin
po box 1277
tiburon CA, 94920

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Min Su
219 West 40 Street
New York NY, 10018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanna Klose
3605 Marcae Ct
Austin TX, 78704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lynn trott
145 Skillman Drive
Toano VA, 23168

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

DANIEL BLANCO
15875sw 79st
miami FL, 33193

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sheri Postma
1890 Ola Dr.
Missoula MT, 59802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

seth harrison
621 27th st
richmond CA, 94804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Adams
44 Glen Road
Rochester NY, 14610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dianna Mullen
1813 8th Ave
Kearney NE, 68845

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Francisco Daum
PO Box 8076
New York NY, 10116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Pope
8914 Creekstone Rd
W NC, 28173

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Jones
416 Broad St
Oxford PA, 19363

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Young
1614 Grant st
Berkeley CA, 94703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

charles casper 4703 belmont
dallas TX, 75204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Chi
3530 186th Pl SE
Bothell WA, 98012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth MacFawn
605 N. Tracy
Bozeman MT, 59715

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Chen
150 Marion Ave
Pasadena CA, 91106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ara Marderosian
PO Box 988
Weldon CA, 93283

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristian Rex
50 Starlight Rd
Howell NJ, 07731

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Dornbusch
6110 Tyne St
Houston TX, 77007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dawn Gwinn
5 Bonnie Ct
Springfield IL, 62704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Blan
111 Barnes Rd
Millsap TX, 76066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline Grant
6500 n 8th st
Phila PA, 19126

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

nora shafer
pob 70524
ft lauderdale FL, 33307

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

janet wolfman
147 west 12 street
nyc NY, 10014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Smith
63 Locust Road
Orleans MA, 02653

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Sine
105 River St
Wakefield RI, 02879

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Knorowski
3920 ontario
Ames IA, 50014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Tilley
17 Birch LN
Pelham NH, 03076

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

don manthei
19 columbus st
newton MA, 02461

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Bork
18502 Delaware
Redford MI, 48240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

phil smith
208 Veronica Way
Normal IL, 61761

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Wartel
9212 Cork Place
Burke VA, 22015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

W Dietrich
5217 Sumner St
Lincoln NE, 68506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Megan Roemer
2602 6th St.
Boulder CO, 80304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Hulett
3860 Gary Road
Arnold MO, 63010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lana fryers
5280 mertz Rd.
mayville MI, 48744

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

L. Darlene Pratt
2211 10th St
Berkeley CA, 94710

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Wales
118 Pulido Rd
Danville CA, 94526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Geri Connors
400 S Brush
Las Vegas NV, 89107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Uchman
3832 N fremont
Chicago IL, 60613

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gwen Mascy
P.O. Box 3517
San Rafael CA, 94912

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslie Schneider
534 Gold Ave
Felton CA, 95018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Hedling
5 Croft Lane
Smithtown NY, 11787

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philip D Robinson
PO Box 1407
Easton MD, 21601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joshua Ferguson
12020 ne 11 ct
Miami FL, 33161

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Tan
2500 Halsey Street
Bronx NY, 10463

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

art sherva
302 windsor pl
brooklyn NY, 11218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paula Krejcik
56 Hope Lane
Sonora CA, 95370

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betty Cutler
1321 North 54th
Omaha NE, 68132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vanessa Nielsen
PO box 1144
Tijeras NM, 87059

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melanie De Boer
4743 Jay Avenue
Alton IA, 51003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kay White
245 E Sherman St
Macon IL, 62544

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terrie Durgin
10516 E 29th Dr
Denver CO, 80238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Bater
241 N. Penn St.
Bellefonte PA, 16823

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gurumukh Khalsa
Antelope Dr,
Hailey ID, 83333

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roy Smith
P.O. Box 106
Brookhaven MS, 39601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Dubielak 3824 Beverly toledo OH, 43614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Porter
540 14th st NE
Salem OR, 97301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bg kenley
po box 340
Port Haywood VA, 23138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Hart
107 Weatherby St.
Dalton PA, 18414

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Drew Bentley
1405 Byers Lane
Austin TX, 78753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Kalos
PO Box 370142
Montara CA, 94037

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rob Thomas
2740 Nelson Rd
Delano MN, 55328

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harvey Stoll
4509 Inverness
Dexter MI, 48130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael 551 joost ave
san francisco CA, 94127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vern Nelson
PO Box 16945
Portland OR, 97292

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

godfree Roberts
po box 1204
cobb CA, 95426

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Bryan
1474 Falcon Dr
Salinas CA, 93905

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Fallon
711 5th st. #3
Coronado CA, 92118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theron Gabel
18884 E. Julie Dr
Tempe AZ, 85283

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Walter Reeve
114 School St
Johnson VT, 05656

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

luke radl
799 Merrimack St
Lowell MA, 01854

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Boyd
6700 Lavon Dr
Fort Worth TX, 76118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rick Wicks
no address
Anchorage AK, 99517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Henderson
8106 Dee Ct
Knoxville TN, 37931

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Page
515 E 72nd Street
New York NY, 10021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betty Spence
41 W. 58th St.
New York NY, 10019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Tindale
165 N. Harvey
Oal Park IL, 60302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jamila Garrecht
620 E St
Petaluma CA, 94952

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

marco viola
l. da vinci 17
pognano bg VA, 24040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Munn
1400 Utica Street
Denver CO, 80204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucy Thomas
3104 Foxwood Dr.
Bryan TX, 77803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Linn
98 Hillside Ave.
Milford CT, 06460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ladonna Ford
20203 Goshen Road
G MD, 20879

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tara Sitser
17736 Martha St.
Encino CA, 91316

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Cutelli
5409 Neosho
st. Louis MO, 63109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Gillam
216 C.R. 234A
Durango CO, 81301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greta Aul
80 Spencer Ave
Lancaster PA, 17603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Danielson
PO Box 68
Oak Bluffs MA, 02557

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Shartsis
704 Del Mar Ave
Novato CA, 94947

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Conway
PO Box 16978
San Diego CA, 92176

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joshua Feikema
279 wall st
Zerland MI, 49464

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Johnnie Bostic
PO Box 305
Polkville NC, 28136

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dave Kolars
623 Franklin St.
DeKalb IL, 60115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jason ables
Riverside Dr.
Cupertino CA, 95014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Gannon
P.O.Box 223724
Carmel CA, 93922

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

K Mccleave
1545 Carver St.
Madison WI, 53713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick Rodin
4141 Fairway Dr
Soquel CA, 95073

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicola Olibarri
PO Box 419
El Prado NM, 87529

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Dudney
18101 Clear Lake Dr.
Lutz FL, 33548

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Cohen
41 Twelfth St.
Brockton RI, 02906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jean durbin
7125 mayfield ave
cinti OH, 45243

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Carter
5001 Cedar St
Blaine WA, 98230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nan Brown
694 Main Street
Quincy CA, 95971

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane Conger
9 Angel Road
New Paltz NY, 12561

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

connie connie
po box 46
south paris ME, 04281

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Sebek
331 N. 78th St.
Seattle WA, 98103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

My name is Phil Ware,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phil Ware
23 Ware Place
Greenbrier AR, 72058

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Boger
317 East 7th St
Brooklyn NY, 11218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tibor Weinreb
1041 e 83 st
Brooklyn NY, 11236

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elliott Kim
2730 Lime St
Riverside CA, 92501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Sessions
PO Box 3265
Branford CT, 06405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john Grano
3220 Clayton st.
Denver CO, 80205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann M. bolan
727 N. East Ave.
Oak Park IL, 60302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Darren Mitton
640 Warren Rd
Rome GA, 30165

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Worman
2587 E 175 N
Albion IN, 46701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jamillah Jackson
109 Eldon Ln.
Apex NC, 27502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally Houghton
PO Box 131
Falmouth MA, 02541

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Regina Schuler
383 Birch St
Denver CO, 80220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Faye Ranney
301 Hawthorn La
Quincy FL, 32351

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeanette Oxelson
3421 Zuni St.
Denver CO, 80211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

S Nam
165 Bennett Avenue
New York NY, 10040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robbie R Walsh
2911 Moore St.
Boise ID, 83702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kirk Taylor
12525 Morris rd
Yelm WA, 98597

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

eugene cornelius
3673 3rd Ave
Bronx NY, 10456

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Winger
3653 N. Nufer Pl
Tucson AZ, 85705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Acuna
12 Dunmore St
Boston MA, 02119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sue Zhao
13410 SW 102nd Lane
Miami FL, 33186

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Darling
3121 N. Gill Ave.
Tucson AZ, 85719

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roland Goyette
782 E 9990 S
Sandy UT, 84094

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

D Gianetti
14 Woolsley Ave
Trumbull CT, 06611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joshua Head
308 Wood Bine Dr
Austin TX, 78745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

matthew o'neal
1205 lee ave
lafayette LA, 70501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

marianne
430 cedarcrest lane
aston PA, 19014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

etta jamison
2635 south blvd
dallas TX, 75215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George rios
1741east 46st
Brooklyn NY, 11233

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Skelton
40900 Bemis
Belleville MI, 48111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phil Rachwal
34 Cliff St
Arlington MA, 02476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

chris miguel 11714 basilica
houston TX, 77099

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john lund
po box 5092
silver city NM, 88062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fran Pollard
P. O. Box 832
El Granada CA, 94018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Galyn Gorg
735 Cory Dr.
Inglewood CA, 90302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Rich
8061 16th Ave. NW
Seattle WA, 98117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Thornley
P.O. Box 122
Wendell MA, 01379

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

illisa kelman
69 foster st.
new haven CT, 06511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Lovejoy
49 Aurora Ln.
Sylva NC, 28779

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Pratt
34B Circle Drive
Tiburon CA, 94920

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dale Le Favre
PO Box 1641
Mendocino CA, 95460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leo Sprietsma
4310 Grant Rd.
Tucson AZ, 85712

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

remi Clignet
7515 Radnor
Bethesda MD, 20814

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucille Cecon
50 E Hill Rd #7J
Canton CT, 06019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bernard Badtke
1622 Gull Ln
Mound MN, 55364

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Gordon
1931 5th Ave
Helena MT, 59601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Hansen
p o box 932
Mendocino CA, 95460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

illisa kelman
69 foster st.
new haven CT, 06511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Lewis
101 Elmwood Ave
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Watkins
52 Hill st
Alplaus NY, 12008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bita edwards
p.o.box 122
woodacre CA, 94973

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael brennan 26 lien st
toms river NJ, 08753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Lendack
229 Dunbar Rd
Hilton NY, 14468

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richrd Bingham
box 1493
Sun Valley ID, 83353

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Grant
N Zapata Hwy
Laredo TX, 78043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Chapman
862 Alice Ave
Ukiah CA, 95482

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Sopoci
18593 E Layton Pl
Aurora CO, 80015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Steuck
3005 Sunset Dr.
Golden CO, 80401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Thompson
78 Kahoa Street
Hilo HI, 96720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Butler
17 Woodview Dr
Whiting NJ, 08759

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Grattan
8141 Busch
Center Line MI, 48015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hamlet Gordillo
690 N. 1050 W.
Provo UT, 84601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Ford
1248 S. Conwell
Casper WY, 82601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janna Plant
2236 Pine St #1
Boulder CO, 80302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lanis LeBaron
PO Box 869
Greenville CA, 95947

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

liz helenchild
box 1276
Mendocino CA, 95460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

K Garland
6021 E. 18th Street
Tucson AZ, 85711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roth Woods
312 Koch Ave
Ann Arbor MI, 48103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Gibson
9916 Kay st.
Adelanto CA, 92301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ginny lentz
pobox 645
weaverville NC, 28787

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Grant Rauscher
Bolinas Rd
Fairfax CA, 94930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betsy DeWitt
14915 33 ave
Flushing NY, 11354

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Dane
301 E. Cedar St.
Ontario CA, 91761

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susanna Odry
P.O.Box 22
Fish Camp CA, 93623

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maureen Dowd
121 Huron Dr
Carnegie PA, 15106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Lichtman
PO Box 226
Newport OR, 97365

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Baker
385 4th Ave
Chula Vista CA, 91910

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

alexis nazario
58 aintree lane
dover DE, 19904

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Nunes
902 Academy Dr.
Kelso WA, 98626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

floyd
5485 w 135th street
savage MN, 55378

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angela Yeager
370 18th St. SE
Salem OR, 97301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rotraut Lippke
Union Rd.
Plymouth IN, 46563

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john wood
po box 62
fountain city WI, 54629

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debbie L. Ceder
P.O. Box 841
Los Olivos CA, 93441

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Wasserman
71 Beardley Rd.
Kent CT, 06757

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Anderson
343 gold st
Brooklyn NY, 11201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amanda Y
337 Velva Dr.
Chesapeake VA, 23325

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Ankrom
2480 W. Main
Decatur IL, 62522

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andy Cai
9615 Church Ave
New York NY, 11212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Moore
239 Equine Cove
Red Lion PA, 17356

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Smith
18 Runyon Ave
Somerset NJ, 08873

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deja Lizer
2 Melody lane
Asheville NC, 28803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Owen
902 Union St. #2
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Baker
140 Carefree Ln
Buffalo NY, 14227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

alex aderer
23 Nylander Way
Acton MA, 01720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

cara lombardo 265 langdon
madison WI, 53711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Jensen
PO Box 390251
Omaha NE, 68139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lonnie Bloom
PO Box 22106
Seattle WA, 98122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessie Huff
Fairbanks
Fairbanks AK, 99775

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Feaster
5 Evelyn Ct
Columbia SC, 29210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

al avenoso
706 N Wilcrest Dr
Houston TX, 77079

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Hilyer
2554 Inman ct
San Diego CA, 92111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Doyle
994 54th St
Oakland CA, 94608

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Main
3101 McGlenn Dr
Aptos CA, 95003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea Schneer
110 W. 71 St.
New York NY, 10023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Eschen
308 E St
Grand Coulee WA, 99133

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacquie Reed
141 Ward Ct
Lakewood CO, 80228

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melissa Rubin
145 Daryl Ave
Novato CA, 94947

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Carlson
10721 E 28th
Spokane WA, 99206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

wendy colschen
520 5th st.
Rawlins WY, 82301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tomas A Simon
PO BOX 967
westbury NY, 11590

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dexter lam
1803 Cheney Dr.
San Jose CA, 95128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Walter Kuhn
30 Jewett Rd
Raymond ME, 04071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dot Bosley
13 Leslie Drive
Scranton PA, 18505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dessa Kaye
P.O.Box 1397
Studio City CA, 91614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Pence
318 SE 71st St
Gainesville FL, 32641

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Revis
6028 3rd ave
Kenosha WI, 53143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Behrends
798 Park St
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roy Stock
9 Gadsen Court
Albany NY, 12205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elbert Brown
2832 Kelly Sq.
Vienna VA, 22181

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

M Pelfrey
9612 Rosebay
Anaheim CA, 92804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Kaald
16716 SE 44th
Issaquah WA, 98027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeanne Beckman
pobox 544
winnetka IL, 60093

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Tosto
P. O. Box 103
Brookdale CA, 95007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Prairie Moser
800 W. 10th St.
Bandon OR, 97411

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leroy James 20483 Charest
Detroit MI, 48234

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ev Forte
1915 Drew S
Minneapolis MN, 55416

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lewis Timpson
16 6th Ave
Longmont CO, 80501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeanne O'Neal
HC 01-858
Kaunakakai HI, 96748

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beau Peterson
PO Box 13522
Portland OR, 97213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Joern
50 Godwin Lane
St. Louis MO, 63124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harold Moore
7716 Hill rd.
Knoxville TN, 37938

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Darrell Hogge
pob 42
Farmington WA, 99128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betty S
8044 SW 10th Ave.
Portland OR, 97219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kacey Milwicz
PO Box 4121
Boulder CO, 80306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elaine Watson
1287 5th St.
Los Osos CA, 93402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hal Singer
8640 Casaba
Winnetka CA, 91306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fred Schwacke
PO Box 367
Bondville VT, 05340

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Bennett
23 E 33RD St
Richmond VA, 23224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erich Pessl
522 W Olive St
Bozeman MT, 59715

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

terry corcoran hwy t marthasville MO, 63357

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Carle
540 Snell Rd
Geneva NY, 144569701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lee Pingel
365 Nowhere Rd
Athens GA, 30601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Stackhouse
304 Main St
Delran NJ, 08075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian McArdle
26 Rhea Run
Newton NJ, 07860

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erma Lewis
1736 63 street
Brooklyn NY, 11204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Joye
pobox 5847
vacaville CA, 95696

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Loehr
37 Amity Place
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily alma
2300 Estes Road
Chico CA, 95928

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anna Isis-Brown
207 E Street
Boston MA, 02127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erik Dabel
6001 Miwok Dr.
San Jose CA, 95123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

carola Penn
2806 13th ave
portland OR, 97212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ralph Roug
PO Box 273
Lake Forest CA, 92609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

M. C. Kubiak
43 White Pl
Bloomington IL, 61701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Derek Lai
Autumn Willow Dr.
Fairfax VA, 22030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Buckner
PO BOX 788
Philmont NY, 12565

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Rioux
918 E Fir St
Seattle WA, 98122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

peter sellas
4221 kilauea rd
Kilauea HI, 96754

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Carlon
2211 Lausett Ave
San Jose CA, 95116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brittany Reed
400 E Vine Ave.
Eunice LA, 70535

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Bass
165 Mayson Ave
Atlanta GA, 30307

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Seitz
1819 256th St
Lomita CA, 90717

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Francis Moulton
PO Box 65
Cheney WA, 99004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dougal Crowe
1104 Polipoli Rd
Kula HI, 96790

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MS Moonshadow
414 Mill Ave
Tempe AZ, 85281

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Samuel
421 East 35
Brooklyn NY, 11203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Abe Vandenberg
PO Box 791449
Paia HI, 96779

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Walsh
1616 Joan Dr
Petaluma CA, 94954

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Powell
562 A Street
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jill Barker
177 Briarcliff Dr
Folsom CA, 95630

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Garson
501 W 52 St
New York NY, 10019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Hume
P.O. Box 4626
Arcata CA, 95518

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles LeSeure
328 N 1st Ave
Canton IL, 61520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Bernardo
4170 Hwy 357
Inman SC, 29349

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Josephine Bray
1822 21st Rd
Astoria NY, 11105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Urban 46 Burton Ave.
Plainview NY, 11803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Smith
179 Desoto Pl
Macon GA, 31204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

chris Robbins
po box 186
acworth NH, 03601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eileen Short
PO Box 11733
St. Thomas VI, 00801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rama Reddy
44201 Dequindre
Troy MI, 48085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Brown
PO Box 1097
Lewistown MT, 59457

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andres Medina
1268 Taft st
Irvine CA, 92620

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lara Dale
383 Priestly Rd
Corrales NM, 87048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Egan
18 Roundtree Ct
Beacon NY, 12508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan King
796 Paulison Ave
Clifton NJ, 07011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philip Brown
210 E Lincoln #9
Leland IL, 60531

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Will Arrington
10204
Prospect Hill TX, 77064

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Steffes
628 River Rd.
Caribou ME, 04736

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Barker
129 Lane Road
Laconia NH, 3246

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hal Bogotch
423 Grand Blvd
Venice CA, 90291

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

stephanie Gudeman
PO Box 191222
SD CA, 92119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william rader 2423 u st
sacramento CA, 95818

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randy Block
308 E. 11th St.
Sterling IL, 61081

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Hood
792 Glen Ave
Ellicott City MD, 21043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Coss
9450 Gilman Dr
La Jolla CA, 92092

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam Norton
70 Sand Hill Rd
Essex VT, 05452

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rita Moskowitz
PO Box 701385
Tulsa OK, 74170

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeneen Haines
130 Frosti Way
Eustis FL, 32726

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

paula pine 1357 Via Deste
livermore CA, 94551

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

rob wlson
4 amber court
Westbury NY, 11590

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ASHLEY SCOTT
PO BOX 848
DURHAM NC, 27702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sam Moore
2368 Holt Ave
Columbus OH, 43219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Rumley
5572 Liberty
Dryden MI, 48428

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

m Thueman
740 Burbank
Broomfield CO, 80020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greta Zeit
PO Box 1760
Middletown CA, 95461

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Larsen
PO Box 2566
Lancaster CA, 93539

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ren Erives
3714 Landon Park Dr
Katy TX, 77449

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karyn Parsons
13249 Taza Lane
Pine CO, 80470

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J A Bowman
P.O.Box 118660
Carrollton TX, 75011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ralph Barkley
130 Bates RD
Cochran GA, 31014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

marie ariel
41 amory st
cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Alexander
234 Camp St.
Barre VT, 05641

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucy Boone
2505 W Winona
Chicago IL, 60625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Hansen
1107 Circle
Forest Park IL, 60130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arden Voigt
6821 Cty Rd J
valders WI, 54245

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doug Pugh
PO Box 272813
Boca Raton FL, 33427

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicole Moore
16733 Harlow
Detroit MI, 48235

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peggy Luhrs
52 Peru St.
Burlington VT, 05401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Kyper
111 Centre St.
Roxbury MA, 02119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Megan Stoll
356 Estey Ln
Windsor VT, 05089

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

LINDA PALADIN
P.O.Box 292
Union WA, 98592

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Luk
790 Alcosta Dr
Milpitas CA, 95035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Davies
10532 2100 Road
Austin CO, 81410

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Ester
18 Vienna
Laguna Niguel CA, 92677

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Fulton
9222 benning
Houston TX, 77031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Martin
707 Mill Street
Tipton IN, 46072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pam Reagor
5405 Alton Pkwy
Irvine CA, 92604

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Elliott
4721 Love Lane
Bozeman MT, 59718

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sesame fowler
1269 CR 626
Gardner CO, 81040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Keener
11 Pine Road
Medford NJ, 08055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randall Bell
314 Garcia St.
Santa Fe NM, 87501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arthur Baxter
PO Box 135
Cedarville CA, 96104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

larry brown
po box 3033
lafayette LA, 70502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Franssen
411 w 15th #5
Eugene OR, 97401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nishant Kanitkar
Herndon
Herndon VA, 20171

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amanda Hawkins
552 E Ivy St.
Mesa AZ, 85203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Steen
1322 Arch St
Pittsburgh PA, 15212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Krueger
PO Box 319
Newbury NH, 03255

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Pettijohn
PO Box 423
Welches OR, 97067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carla Carey
57 Avenue D
ROCHESTER NY, 14621

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

maria smith
1323 W 111 ST. cleveland OH, 44102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Isel Lamoureux
150 Palmyra
Auburn CA, 95603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruth Lang
4337 Avondale Ave
Dallas TX, 75219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Ferry
7 Justin Lane
Coatesville PA, 19320

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Irma Tapia
1173 W 17TH St
San Pedro CA, 90731

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

anne hendrickson
2221 e 4 st
duluth MN, 55812

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john e adams
2375 w 18th ave
eugene OR, 97402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Post
2203 Ada Ln
Round rock TX, 78664

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Therese Smith
PO Box 1367
Placitas NM, 87043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Bartolic
513 12th St.
Davis CA, 95616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Martin
2819 N Mullen
Tacoma WA, 98407

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eileen Snitzer
607 N 31 CT
Hollywood FL, 33021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Brown
880 17th St
Arcata CA, 95521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paula Griffin
1329 st rd WW
Fulton MO, 65251

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

colleen ziroli
box 427
laupahoehoe HI, 96764

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gabriel Voiles
145 Nagle
New York NY, 10032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Schwacke
PO Box 367
Bondville VT, 05340

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Root Routledge
PO Box 830
Durango CO, 81302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

donna emig 30023 young gibraltar MI, 48173

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Matta
408 Ocampo Ct
Waco TX, 76708

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clare Watts
30705 Road V.6
Dolores CO, 81323

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Corbin
3303 River Rd
Laurel MT, 59044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Morgana Rhys
PO Box 926
Bigfork MT, 59911

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ned Kratzer
3925 5th Ave
Altoona PA, 16602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Sargent
4296 n owl rd
lincoln MI, 48742

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Win Carson
13350 Via Mark
Poway CA, 92064

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hughie J Nairn
781 NW 43st ST
Miami FL, 33127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william norris
115 osner dr
atlanta GA, 30342

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Schacker
P. O. Box 45
Willow NY, 12495

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Riley
64 Glenside trail
Sparta NJ, 07871

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pete Kirkwood
1 River Rd
Shawnee PA, 18356

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Roby
P.O.Box 80
Columbiaville NY, 12050

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brad LaMar
208 St Johns Pl
Brooklyn NY, 11217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cindy J Ditrick
153 S ASH ST
Fruita CO, 81521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Collins
P. O. Box 59776
San Jose CA, 95159

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Barr
1515 W. 8th. St.
Silver City NM, 88061

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amie King
8059 E. Vassar Dr.
Denver CO, 80231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eve Duplissis
355 East Av
Lewiston ME, 04240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

leanna slusher
421 yale dr.
lexington KY, 40517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Richter
40 second ave
Albany NY, 12202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Russell
128 squires dr
Austin TX, 78734

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Wice
110 Johnson Rd.
Berea KY, 40403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Davis
1712 Willow Way
Bedford TX, 76022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carmen Banea
2201 Stella St.
Denton TX, 76201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Liz Pierson
401 N. 6th St.
Mankato MN, 56001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Wieder
1732 McGee
Berkeley CA, 94703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JOan Taylor
1586 Dwelle Rd.
Old Joe AR, 72658

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Carlsten
3741 W 20th Ave
Denver CO, 80211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

josrph zadravetz
pobox 127
obrien OR, 97534

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Meyer
88 Brook Rd
Milton MA, 02186

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

eric link
po box 122
leavenworth WA, 98826

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Teddi Curtis
1027 Oakdale
Corona CA, 92880

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jill Levy
72 Tucker Rd.
Stony Creek NY, 12878

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

vernon ward
2037 N 17th Ave
Phoenix AZ, 85007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Coyle
314 Pierce Ave
Endwell NY, 13760

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kerry krebill
8 Park Place
Clancy MT, 59634

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

R LOVING 1315 W AIKEN AVE
PEORIA IL, 61605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Hose
1335 Beacon St
Newton MA, 02468

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jerry holmes
409 index pl
renton WA, 98056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Ronan
4469 Richmond St.
Phila. PA, 19137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dee Jarrell
20 Burgess Lane
Durham NC, 27707

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Yokum
208 Dubois Rd.
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Harris
35217 Glover St
Wayne MI, 48184

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Terrell
140 E. Tyler St.
Longview TX, 75601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joshua Mahan
221 S 3rd St
Brooklyn NY, 11211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julia Dalton
101 W 80th St
New York NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tanner Warner
625 S 11
Philadelphia PA, 19147

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucy Johnson
P.O. Box 51442
Eugene OR, 97405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ramman Turner
PO Box 1245
Portland OR, 97207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Daniels
P.O. Box 2613
Naperville IL, 60567

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Womack
PO Box 245
Free Union VA, 22940

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J. C. Wiks
20500 Cape Horn
Bayview ID, 83803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

pat turney
4106 Amyx Ct
Hayward CA, 94542

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amanda Pearl clay street
Brooklyn NY, 11222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Leaman
714 Broadway Drive
Ocoee FL, 34761

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Forte
6170 Howell Dr
La Mesa CA, 91942

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gwen S.
1383 E. 5935 S.
Salt Lake City UT, 84121

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lillian Landrau
P.O. Box 205
Amherst MA, 01004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Tice
310 Umstead
Chapel Hill NC, 27516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Brake
645 Wilshire Ct.
Holland MI, 49423

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Felix S.Ruiz
Towers St.
Jersey City NJ, 07305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Whiles
4215 Pine Lane
Spring TX, 77389

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Blake Fox
353 W 4th St
Cincinnati OH, 45202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phil Havens
18 Somers Ave.
Trevose PA, 19053

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Root
255 G Street
San Diego CA, 92101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Ghosheh
413 Lee Dr
Liberty MO, 64068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Silk
6560 Duke St.
Riverside CA, 92506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Cofer
915 McCall Rd
Macon GA, 31217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kendall Craig
Box 64 SRSU
Alpine TX, 79832

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tina Hickman
9401 Nagel Dr
Denver CO, 80229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shari Juranic
189 Sawmill Rd.
Milan NY, 12571

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dalton boynton
60 grant st
cohoes NY, 12047

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Barmettler
POB 1462
Chehalis WA, 98532

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Craig Gillis
PO Box 747
Moss Beach CA, 94038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheri Leslie
607 Palms Blvd.
Venice CA, 90291

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessica Bohlman
110 1st St E
Chaska MN, 55318

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Rhodes
91 Ed Hill Rd.
Freeville NY, 13068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Giovanna Imbesi
312 5th Ave
Venice CA, 90291

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Hoyng
401 Pauly Drive
Clayton OH, 45315

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kathy bailey
1523 48th st
boulder CO, 80303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Delano
26 Grove Ct
Oakley CA, 94561

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Nickell
P.O. Box 424343
Denton TX, 76204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Lesko
28 Avenue B
New York NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dean A. Wilson 32675 G
racie Ln Unit D LA, 70764

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marion Alsup
2311 Pruett St.
Austin TX, 78703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hanna O'Neill
207 Allen St.
Lansing MI, 48912

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Hunter
27 Mill Ave.
Whitefish MT, 59937

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary England
Pittman Rd
Whitwell TN, 37397

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andy Kearney
P.O. Box 873
Sarasota FL, 34230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Stabile
457 W 35th St Apt 2E
NY NY, 10001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Cummings
80 Wolff St
Denver CO, 80219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Len Berg
8580 W 10th Ave
Lakewood CO, 80215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mike eder
3322 falling leaf
spring TX, 77380

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

danny davis
pobox 28921
st louis MO, 63132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

c thiessen 738 121 terr
kansas city MO, 64146

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Asnicar
PO Box 941
Lyons CO, 80540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

carol whitt
11718 stillwater
houston TX, 77070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dustin Monda
661 Clay St
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Foote
PO Box 394
Miranda CA, 95553

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susan boyd
6030 45 ave sw
seattle WA, 98136

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for all of us. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gerda seaman
1020 Macy Avenue
Chico CA, 95926

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

karen kreutzer
PO Box 4037
Boulder CO, 80306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Fleming
1100 N LaSalle
Chicago IL, 60610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JP Albano
184 Kent Avenue
Brooklyn NY, 11211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

robert martin
195 ash st.
lewiston ME, 04240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Hardin
2800 20th St.
Boulder CO, 80304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

STEVE MILLER
P.O. BOX 526
JASPER AR, 72641

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Becky Carver
1612 Ward St
Durham NC, 27707

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Miwa
2 Maiden Lane
Fairfax CA, 94930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Wagner
97 Snyder Road
Ghent NY, 12075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kaye Gucciardo
1727 74st
brooklyn NY, 11204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Younker
PO Box 102573
Denver CO, 80250

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heidi I. Jones
PO Box 126
Blossburg PA, 16912

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Hoffman
5410 E 2nd St
Tucson AZ, 85711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heather Ivy
1144 10th Ave E
seattle WA, 98102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bill repetto
po box 162
mt shasta CA, 96067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Winter
16620 Fetlock Dr.
Reno NV, 89508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Johnson
674 W. 24th Pl.
Eugene OR, 97405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

The Rev. Michael Dudley
32
Quincy MA, 02169

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerard Pereira
PO Box 1711
Fairfield IA, 52556

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

AM Canada
N. Prospect
Milwaukee WI, 53211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randall Tate
5212 Austin Rd
Hixson TN, 37343

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sue Monaco
2247 Lewis Rd.
Poultney VT, 05764

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shiela Smith
608 Main Street
Delta PA, 17314

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jo Checa
5 Mitchell Dr
Sound Beach NY, 11789

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregg Jaeger
871 Comm. Ave
Boston MA, 02215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rick Dysart
3991 E. 29th St.
Bryan TX, 77802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Mayoh
Via Pepe 38
Milan VA, 20159

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brandelyn W
PO Box 255
Port Lavaca TX, 77979

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bernard Tilson
2 Maple Ter
Newton NJ, 07860

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Dee Dykes
PO BOX 185
LIMON CO, 80828

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Platt
5815 s. Mozart
Chicago IL, 60629

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william m canal street new smyrna FL, 32168

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Hooper
P.O. Box 57
Patterson NY, 12563

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

luis frausto
10703 lou dillon ave
LA CA, 90059

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

L V LaBarge
520 Nevada St
Portola CA, 96122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wayne Mullins
P.O. Box 320
Granby MO, 64844

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jo Podvin
1919 E. 24th St
Oakland CA, 94606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christy Weum
5505 W 66th
Edina MN, 55439

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

please help 4322 foss rd.
lake worth FL, 33411

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chad Welch
6540 N 7th Ave
Phoenix AZ, 85013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 19, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Seanna Willett
PO Box 674
Trinidad CA, 95570

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha White
629 N Stewart
Azle TX, 76020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

T Taitt
Lafayette Avenue
Brooklyn NY, 11238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alex Gilchrist
731 E 42 St
Brooklyn NY, 11203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ash Smith
156 Ludie Ln
Greensburg LA, 70441

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gail Parker
1 Berkshire Sq
Adams MA, 01220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

suzane scheyd
p.o.box 303
deep river CT, 6417

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

L Thomas Orchard View
Fogelsville PA, 18051

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Prostko
PO Box 54
Caledonia MI, 49316

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeanne Baggs
195 Concho Dr
Sedona AZ, 86351

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Connie Tyler
2322 8TH St
Berkeley CA, 94710

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Therese Peloquin
PO Box 731
Crestone CO, 81131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

S. Allison
B Avenue SE
Mount Vernon IA, 52314

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Legg
331 Mt Merino Rd
hudson NY, 12534

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dianne Levy
250 E 30th St
New York NY, 10016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ella Moss
19547 garfield
redford MI, 48240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

leo whitney
14468 w main st
cut off LA, 70345

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Hodnett
105 Dodd Dr.
Holliston MA, 01746

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arne Wendt
41 Welshs Ln
Somerset NJ, 08873

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Austan
4 High St
Brattleboro VT, 05301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Johnson
PO Box 119
Grafton NH, 03240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

zetla elvi
2298 cty rt 28
fishs eddy NY, 13774

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ella Elman
834 171st PL NE
Bellevue WA, 98008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Weil
104 Solterra Way
Durham NC, 27705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Crockett
PO Box 810
Florence OR, 97439

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

patrick pierce 57 market st
lowell MA, 01852

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Garth Johnson
172 S. Euclid
Bradley IL, 60915

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Perin
442 Fillmore St
Denver CO, 80206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

April Guse
203 Harper St.
Dunmore PA, 18512

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 19, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Saveliff
PO Box 6975
Eureka CA, 95502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phillip Smith
1811 Park St
Houston TX, 77019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebeca Torres-Rose
221 10th St.
Troy NY, 12180

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ri taylor
507 east 6th st
new york NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Selena Bonito
1611 Lilac Lane
Venice FL, 34293

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Duncan Reilly
30 Grant Rd
Reynella VT, 05161

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shelley Davis
Main ST
Saugerties NY, 12453

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Hornby
109 CR 351
Caldwell TX, 77836

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Quinton Bland
PO Box 297
Canadian OK, 74425

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Lucero
PO BOX536
Westcliffe CO, 81252

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Palmer
P. O. Box 705
Tonasket WA, 98855

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andre Fabre
1 Craven Drive
La Porte IN, 46350

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cea Noyes
6642 Monroe Rd.
Olivet MI, 49076

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Biven
546 W 147th St.
New York NY, 10031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Vance
2001 Shoshone St
Boise ID, 83705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bart Bogle
503 S. Monroe
Wagoner OK, 74467

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Swanson
3069 1360 Rd.
Delta, CO, 81416

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lillian morgan
826 florida ave
york PA, 17404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Sisko
211 Lehigh Ave
Palmerton PA, 18071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ingrid Jones
629 Porter
Moberly MO, 65270

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Diercks
92 South St.
Troy NH, 03465

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theresa Barwell
5084 Hwy 116
Omro WI, 54963

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

eddie rangel 430 m st
washington DC, 20024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nora Wood
113 Townhouse
Hershey PA, 17033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bridget Connors
1020 Linwood Ave
Columbus OH, 43206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

R R
14340 Greenbelt Court
Carmel IN, 46033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Stanleigh
3360 E St
Eureka CA, 95503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Som
925 N La Salle Ave
Tucson AZ, 85748

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

janet stein
842 jessica pl
nipomo CA, 93444

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debi Murphy
5707 N, 4th Pl
Phoenix AZ, 85012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark W. Mehl
315 E. Main St.
Lowell IN, 46356

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Searing
483 Canton Ave
Milton MA, 02186

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luci Ungar
21 Acapulco Dr.
Sonoma CA, 95476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Les Robinson
837 N 10th Ave
Phoenix AZ, 85007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elvira Borgstadt
PO Box 189
Potosi WI, 53820

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ricky Ratliff
CR 1310
Mooreville MS, 38857

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Samer hassan
P.O.Box 305241
Denton TX, 76201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Carey
25 E. 8th St.
Ashland OH, 44805

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Amato
18 Day St.
Somerville MA, 02144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynne Paschal
PO Box 591
Oak Creek CO, 80467

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Hunter
1246 W. Pratt
Chicago IL, 60626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucia Flint
237 4th Avenue
Garwood NJ, 07027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jay Loggie
P. O. Box 60458
Chicago IL, 60660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

terry andrews
1334 allston
houston TX, 77008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,
No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Bettison
1900 68th St N
St Petersburg FL, 33710

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Lord
818 Stonewater Dr
Kent OH, 44240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Escoll
1887 Greenfield Ave.
LA CA, 90025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gloria Sferra
4521 S Bond
Seattle WA, 98118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Flanagan
415 W 3RD ST
Rialto CA, 92376

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jean younis delaware st
berkeley CA, 94708

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Karsh
275 Brady Ct.
Martinez CA, 94553

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Garvin
211 W. Bway
New York NY, 10013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

tony hintze 1718 W. albion
chicago IL, 60626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dalton Boynton
60 grant st
cohoes NY, 12047

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lan Walllin
4819 Farnam St
Omaha NE, 68132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Callie Palmer
1725 1st Ave. E.
Albany OR, 97321

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Payne
P.O. Box 66
Whitesville KY, 42378

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lauri Zadel
721 Park Lane
Lakewood CO, 80214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bryce Fly
110 Culver Rd
Oak Ridge TN, 37830

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Cole
1109 NE Locksley Dr.
Bend OR, 97701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Carl
1318 W King Rd
Malvern PA, 19355

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

patty guerrero
393 Fulton
St Paul MN, 55102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alison Banik
3130 10TH St
Boulder CO, 80304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anita Walsh
P.O. Box 1046
Corrales NM, 87048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Garth Neil 45 Creek Road
Fairfax CA, 94930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hue Rhodes
520 E 84th St
New York NY, 10028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Owen Peacock
P. O. Box 66
Ray Brook NY, 12977

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Kantola
835 Platt St
Niles MI, 49120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John O'Brien
1 hyde park Av
Boston MA, 02134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

eve sokol
10 Academy Lane
Bellport NY, 11713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Averill
po box 3583
landers CA, 92285

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Carter
3109 Coles
Saint Louis MO, 63114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Zernia Gaines
740 Neyland
Houston TX, 77022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Iris keltz
1008 Richmond NE
abq NM, 87106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gail Schlesinger
1407 Blume Dr
Elgin IL, 60124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melvin Peth
11205 Veler Rd.
Martin OH, 43445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Cox
3966 Clark Blvd
Ontario OR, 97914

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Earline Hittel
36 Begonia
Casper WY, 82604

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mike donivan
38 main street
livonia NY, 14487

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lani Ball
1221 Fordham Drive
Davis CA, 95616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kevin moore
234 vetavia st
irondale AL, 35210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Dulik
101 Yeakel Ave
Glenside PA, 19038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Mackey
P.O Box 1004
Eastport NY, 11941

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mary luminoso
pob 3268
saratoga CA, 95070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Trey Smith
1234 Smith Street
Erie PA, 16501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dave dalton
2351 w. wilson
chicago IL, 60625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andre Amos 105Rocky Dr
Columbia TN, 38401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Romm
Apt 1828
Albuquerque NM, 87114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Juliann Krute
100 Waxwood Ln
Cary NC, 27518

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dion Johnson
Central ave w
St. Paul MN, 55103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Schaub
38W 31St.
New York NY, 10001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Wellehan
8 Wood St
Groveland MA, 01834

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tina Law
78-07 101 Avenue
Ozone Park NY, 11416

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Grant Kimball
126 second ave
Ault CO, 80610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raymond Tuley
1730 Purdue #3
L.A. CA, 90025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J Churcher
1971 W15
VANCOUVER WA, 98660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Gropman
PO box 503
Mill Rift PA, 18340

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Fry
6604 E. Bates Ave.
Denver CO, 80224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lara Brown
1035 Olive Ave
Ramona CA, 92065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bernie Duran
2103 8th St
Las Vegas NM, 87701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Hay
4696 Cobb Dr
San Diego CA, 92117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Billy Foster
1132 Fillmore St
Gary IN, 46407

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Walker
104 Patterson Dr.
Tad WV, 25201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Scott
119 Pacific St.
Brooklyn NY, 11201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kelly keegan
530 w aldine
chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Clay
202 W. Ash St.
Celina TX, 75009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Craig Roth
1921 FURMAN CT
Cocoa FL, 32922

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

chris edstrom
107 boulder trl
alto NM, 88312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mauni Seraji
801 Ash St.
San Diego CA, 92101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Ohlson
PO Box 1514
Glen Ellen CA, 95442

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Herman Hahn
1020 Mingo Dr
Naples FL, 34120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Selin
221 Hargraves
Teaneck NJ, 07666

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marcia McIntosh
cabrini blvd.
nyc NY, 10033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claudia Karll
po box 2852
Vashon WA, 98070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Whelan
5 Surrey Ct
Berlin NJ, 08009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry Harris
1250 N Wood
Chicago IL, 60622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

A Corn
323 Meldoy Dr
Northglenn CO, 80260

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Oliver Chalker
3 Alcott St
Allston MA, 02134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Hunt
1561 Broadway
New York NY, 10022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 19, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tzviah Dank
74 Casterton Av
Akron OH, 44303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Miller
2101 Amador Ave
Davis CA, 95616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janice phelps
PO Box 10
Villanueva NM, 87583

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Major Hooper
1231 Hwy 64
Manteo NC, 27954

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marjorie Curci
PO Box 502
Beaver WA, 98305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel K. Jones
22 Park Trail
Croton NY, 10520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Brown
25 Atlantic Terr
Lynn MA, 01902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shay ader
965 S 4th Ave
Kankakee IL, 60901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charline Brock
PO Box 238
Mahwah NJ, 07430

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

L. Pitner
PO Box 234
Olympia Fields IL, 60461

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Chen
455 Murray Dr
El Cajon CA, 92020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kim harrell
3220 Albion St.
Denver CO, 80207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Moscarella
POB 572
El Prado NM, 87529

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Souder
407 Duryea Dr
Auburn IN, 46706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wm. Eagle
PO Box 295
Saint Helens OR, 97051

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

pamela moore 3301 e 1st ave
denver CO, 80206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

1635 Corte Via Los Altos
Los Altos CA, 94024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Nagata
PO Box 635
Sanger CA, 93657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Pierce
333 Haumana Rd
Haiku HI, 96708

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane Fox
1634 NE Halsey
Portland OR, 97232

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erin Potter
PO Box 1211
Westport WA, 98595

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lina Montes
1494 N Iris ave
Rialto CA, 92376

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Parker
310 E12th St
New York NY, 10003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Secora
6717 So. 142 St.
Omaha NE, 68137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sasha Shaw
PO Box 2744
Flagstaff AZ, 86003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randy Gaffney
POB 19165
Boulder CO, 80308

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sam Scrofani
624 E 18th St
Denver CO, 80202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Willis
P O Box1343
Langley WA, 98260

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lon Black
97 Kane Street
Brooklyn NY, 11231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john pope 2577 hinda rd
lake park FL, 33403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Tauss
P.O. Box 153
lincolnville ME, 04849

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Pecker
649 10TH St
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

robert edmonds
11120 RT. H
Henley MO, 65040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Fetter
PO Box 521
Puyallup WA, 98371

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chanelle Benz
107 Judson
Syracuse NY, 13210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

serena castaldi
Po box 978
Bolinas CA, 94924

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Robin Lippman
521 E 14 St
NY NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joyce Johnson
1515 W.123rd St.
L. A. CA, 90047

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Davis
623 Bayview
Seabrook TX, 77586

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Collins
5415 31st St
Lubbock TX, 79407

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Sullivan
6412 Gwin Ct
Oakland CA, 94611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam Hilt
12393 Rose Lane
Omaha NE, 68154

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Kirby
5728 N Yale
Portland OR, 97203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory Ott
2329 Houston
Clovis CA, 93611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 19, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen McCloud
35 Haven St
Buffalo NY, 14211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 18, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William J. Haddad
P.O. Box Z
Danville OH, 43014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Lish
PO Box 113
Olema CA, 94950

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

celia maximin
P O Box 50763
Eugene OR, 97405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurel Hatch
157 13th St.
Richmond CA, 94801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Willie Hayes

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Willie Hayes
4475 E. Arapahoe Pl.
Centennial CO, 80122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phil Klein
454 Sierra Trl
Coralville IA, 52241

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Hummel
226 6th St
Lake View IA, 51450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jay Fry
163 Dorothy
Grand Prairie TX, 75051

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Max
2855 14th Ave W
Seattle WA, 98119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

paul kane
p.o.box 941
bloomington IN, 47402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Art Lajeunesse
73 Broadway
Latham NY, 12110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruby Stein
2001 5th ave
Oakland CA, 94606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rae Wolfe
PO Box 1182
Guerneville CA, 95446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Josh Lynch
163 Pier Ct
Naperville IL, 60565

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Hillegas
PO Box 3234
Jackson MS, 39207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jill Sidley
1 Circle Dr
Jensen Beach FL, 34957

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sr martin, jr.
po box 310568
atlanta GA, 31131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luis Pelayo
1160 Singleton
Roselle IL, 60172

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bob zeliff
2209 east st
bridport VT, 05734

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joshua R. Marshall
2310 Eastman Avenue
Midland MI, 48640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luc Suer
1800 Glendale Ave.
Durham NC, 27701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

EBERT HINO
PO BOX 412
CYPRESS CA, 90630

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Suerth
332 LLoyd St.
Cary IL, 60013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Kuehnl
1803 se 57th
Portland OR, 97215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

charles fina
295 greenwich st
nyc NY, 10007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

nina sakun
946 west blvd
hartford CT, 06105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Meg Beasley
1648 W 600 S
Pingree ID, 83262

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

vernon wilbur
1816 n.e.82 place
k.c. MO, 64118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Bliss
9 Lewis Street
Newton MA, 02458

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roberta Vaubel
Box 1295
Tonopah NV, 89049

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Boyd
3640 SE 13th
Portland OR, 97202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Seagal
2450 NE 209 Ter
Miami FL, 33180

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Rose
137-03 168th st
Jamaica NY, 11434

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tolga Tarhan
86 Millbrook
Irvine CA, 92618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Ward
320 Santa Fe
Borger TX, 79007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Jordan
430 Bonnie Brae
Vienna OH, 44473

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Reem Fakhouri
Jabal Amman
Amman NY, 11194

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Breyman
25 Cross St.
Hudson NY, 12534

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stacia Lloyd
3867 Vine ave
Norco CA, 92860

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Pagan
1451 82nd St.
Brooklyn NY, 11228

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Seese
205 Heritage Dr
Delphi IN, 46923

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Vignere
PO Box 194
Lakeside MT, 59922

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leona Diener
5427 N 5th St
McAllen TX, 78504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

B Menkes
173 Sullivan St
New York NY, 10012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hal M.
1441 102nd Ave Ne
Bellevue WA, 98004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Jo Adams
877 Brown St
Reno NV, 89509

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andy McGrew
McGrew
Livermore CA, 94550

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Omar Khwaja
17 Sweet Rain
irvine CA, 92614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Cohen
202 taylor Av
Easton PA, 18042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lyle McKarns
847 Middle St
Bath ME, 04530

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jasmine Rivera
2812 N. 34th Pl.
Mesa AZ, 85213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Hansen
233 Mound St.
Berlin WI, 54923

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Willis Tim
503 1/2 W Main
Bushnell IL, 61422

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sybil Allen
33 beaver Street
NYC NY, 10004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Courtney
P.O. Box 246
Clarion PA, 16214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Baldau
1457 US Rte 2
North Hero VT, 05474

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Hill
136 S Main St
Assonet MA, 02702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

eleni papakonstandinou faliro faliro PA, 17501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

eliud lopez
846 Taylor Dr
Folcroft PA, 19032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bita edwards
53 elm ave
woodacre CA, 94973

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gabe Craft
36 Joan Drive
Taylors SC, 29687

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julia Brown
1277 32nd Ct NW
Salem OR, 97304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Griffith
13 Pearl Ave
Oil City PA, 16301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gail Fries
5 Mt. Warner Rd
Hadley MA, 01035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristin Howard
PO Box 62
Tesuque NM, 87574

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karla Bean
224 N. Utah
West Plains MO, 65775

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Rosen
PO Box 262404
Houston TX, 77207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Brown
214 4th Ave
Longmont CO, 80501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna D. Bland
1570B CR 375E
Bethany IL, 61914

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alese Barkas
16223 N. 41 Pl.
Phoenix AZ, 85032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Malin Hess
3745 pompano ct
Gotha FL, 34734

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Santo
821 Turner Blvd
Omaha NE, 68105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

paul derose
po box 604
dowagiac, MI, 49047

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Fotos
26 Truell Road
Hollis NH, 03049

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gail Smith
408 Fairmont
Pocatello ID, 83201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robi Guillen
1070 Lampe St
Tulare CA, 93274

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Brasaemle
P O Box 14720
Copley OH, 44321

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doug Janni
1410 N Garden
New Ulm MN, 56073

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terri Pintarelli
Portland
Portland OR, 97211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Gallman
PO Box 6754
Brandon FL, 33508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Dennis
PO Box 278
Maricopa CA, 93252

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Fricano
7785 Hwy 377
Deming NM, 88030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tess Brunet
219 Kenneth St.
Houma LA, 70360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Witt
1506 Lake Ave
Wilmette IL, 60091

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lodi Siefer
672 Tantra Dr.
Boulder CO, 80305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katie Colhoun
92 Sunset Rd
Brick NJ, 08723

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

adam walsh
1275 4th st
santa rosa CA, 95404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard mawhir3
3029 Hazel
Erie, PA, 16508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Daum
54 Lakeshore Dr.
Lincoln AL, 35096

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

tim ball 348 atlas
grand rapids MI, 49506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Peel
18 Green Place
Newport VT, 05855

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Grout
P.O. Box 331
Westminster VT, 05158

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Canopy
1817 Victoria Dr
Pekin IL, 61554

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Meri Lehtinen
POBox 562
El Prado NM, 87529

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marie Malik
PO Box 17139
Seattle WA, 98127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joy Baker
380 19 Av
San Francisco CA, 94121

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Candice Lynn
PO Box 534
Brunswick ME, 04011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dale Sorensen
PO Box 316
Inverness CA, 94937

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jill Rapaport
341 W 24th St #2G
NY NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

m noethen
7050 n cmo de fray
tucson AZ, 85718

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

keith davis
367 Newton St
Denver CO, 80219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nathan Wolf
927 Lake Ct
Madison WI, 53715

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Candace Quibell
P O Box 513
BISBEE AZ, 85603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Gay
PO box 856
Mesilla NM, 88046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Oji
4151 Wellborn Road
Bryan TX, 77801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Dean
1930 Lassen Dr.
Reno NV, 89503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Howland
713 Lesia Dr
Nokomis FL, 34275

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Sumner
179 Cedar St
Auburn CA, 95603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john Hoffmann
PO 816
Carbondale CO, 81623

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kathy reed 476 allman dr
franklin NC, 28734

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

donna penn 204-11 45 drive
bayside NY, 11361

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roslyn Rose
P.O. Box 6129
Hoboken NJ, 07030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emmanuel Nino
630 lemon av.
vista CA, 92084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alexa Kelly
400 W 43 St
New York NY, 10036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Bekas
5727 W 71st PL
Arvada CO, 80003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Virginia Stainton
Foxtail
Boulder CO, 80303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shane Cotier
4955 Fender Rd
Lisle IL, 60532

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emilie Martin
HC 3 Box 514
Alturas CA, 96101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Fryer
1007 Wind Trail
Fort CO, 80526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerald Brown
17494 Cooley
Detroit MI, 48219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

suzanne watson
po box 96
gardner CO, 81040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janice Hall
PO Box 637
Eastsound WA, 98245

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne v
27 Old Route 28
Whitehouse NJ, 08888

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Ganassi
4 Wall St Fl 2
New Haven CT, 06511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Dupin
2707 7th St
Elkhart IN, 46517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Rose
561 Terrapin Rd
Venice FL, 34293

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Keeney
101 Russell St
Warren PA, 16365

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Alessi
9674 E. Frito Ave.
Mesa AZ, 85208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vikki Owens
pob 2929
surfside WA, 98072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kitty C
221 Erin Lane
Charleston WV, 25309

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

n mcnaughton
Blah st.
bloomington IN, 47404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Valdes
4121 Fairway
Soquel CA, 95073

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Will
14766 231 St.
Rosedale NY, 11422

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sean O
15 Daniel Rd East
Fairfield NJ, 07004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Curt Qanta
Main Street
New York NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenn Munson
360 VT Rte 133
Pawlet VT, 05761

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gayle Gordon
PO Box 921
Claremont CA, 91711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eden Davis
342 E Niles Ave.
Fresno CA, 93720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denyse Leslie
PO Box 102
Hopewell NJ, 08525

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Frerotte
HC 73 Box 9
Alderson WV, 24910

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chloe Lewis
1627 Lincoln
Berkeley CA, 94703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for your admirable work toward preserving net neutrality. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please stand up for freedom. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew J. Williams
43 Dale St.
Asheville NC, 28806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Gamin
1015 Ty Drive
Medina OH, 44256

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Deemer
5055 Ocotillo
El Paso TX, 79932

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Cook
241 Clifton
Newport KY, 41071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Ergle
1075 Venita Dr
Athens GA, 30606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Burns
PO Box 286
Snow Hill MD, 21863

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vincent Berg
19115 Main St
Cedar MN, 55011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

j.e. mathis
660 b court
south fork PA, 15956

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anthony Sciolino
Dove Ct
Bozeman MT, 59718

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

carolyn Pruitt
109 pine dr
Milton DE, 19968

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tina Desmarais
gray rd
Plainfield VT, 05667

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

rita pearce
7 maple street
exeter NH, 03833

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Shorkey
3203 Coin St.
Burton MI, 48519

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Phelps
381 E Boise St
Kuna ID, 83634

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Cuthbert
2118 Thorn Hollow Ct
St Augustine FL, 32092

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betty Baskind
71 Echo Ave
Oakland CA, 94611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kat Tachera
5005 Azurite Dr
Reno NV, 89508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jovan jelic
PO Box 363
Mendocino CA, 95460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Athens
POB 1386
Mendocino CA, 95460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Molly Moore
9921 E 7th. St.
Tucson AZ, 85719

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anita Clinton
75 Henry St
Brooklyn NY, 11201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan jEffs
6 eaton st
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fred Kaifosh
17 Hoyle Ave
Toronto NY, 10027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bonnie monte 16 Page St
Madison NJ, 07940

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Al McCann
1719 S. Lander
Seattle WA, 98144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Brodner
214 Riverside Dr.
NY NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Lidiak
2407 10th Ave
Greeley CO, 80631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

tetsu okuhara
202 east 42nd st
nyc NY, 10017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

steve seyb
7 kennedy dr
los lunas, NM, 87031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Burke
PO Box 1233
Evergreen CO, 80437

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ric Frye
PO Box 356
Goldendale WA, 98620

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stacy D Stinson
P O Box 1591
Muncie IN, 47308

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kat Jerman
1 Thalia St.
Mill Valley CA, 94941

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslee Doner
2500 Millway Dr
Boise ID, 83709

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rhoda Staff
N Shore Rd
Newport NH, 03773

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jed Barton
3810 Avenue D
Billings MT, 59102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebekah W.
PO Box 11275
Fort Smith AR, 72917

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Fuller
PO Box 540
Brookings OR, 97415

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ron bowden 6421 sw luradell
port OR, 97219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Walker
3139 FM 1801
Mineola TX, 75773

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah Lewis
2216 N Dakota
Ames IA, 50014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

C. Colvin
2620 Dundee
San Pablo CA, 94806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vici Casana
PO Box 9082
Berkeley CA, 94709

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james grant
po box 478
inverness CA, 94937

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Brauner
504 Antioch Ln
Ballwin MO, 63011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janelle Kaye
1153 5TH Ave
Windom MN, 56101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Crockett
24 Sol Drive
Carmel NY, 10512

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

doris wallace
3 peter cooper rd
ny NY, 10010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Couch
39 Miller
Los Lunas NM, 87031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bart Farell
28 Fountain St.
Clinton NY, 13323

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debra Valov
715 60th St
Oakland CA, 94609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dotti Gelson
815 E Mercer St
Phila. PA, 19125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

vince vukonich
po box 2154
Frisco CO, 80443

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Rostan
19 Haven Court
Nyack NY, 10960

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tala Wood
2162 Roop Rd.
Cocolalla ID, 83813

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Froehlich
PO 3431
Telluruide CO, 81435

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Van Baalen
510 S 12th
Laramie WY, 82070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stanley Webb
5307 Link Ave.
Austin TX, 78751

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lisa bigger
113 17th ave s
nashville TN, 37203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Ng
14736 35TH Ave
Flushing NY, 11354

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Michel
185 ve 85th
NEW YORK NY, 10028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

deborah burke
3042 lynn ave
slp MN, 55416

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Darlene Larive
514 Barclay St.
Lead SD, 57754

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Ryan
PO Box 1077
Pacific City OR, 97135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hazel Colina
3901 Kandy Dr
Austin TX, 78749

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Gay
PO Box 856
Mesilla NM, 88046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John McDevitt
P.O. Box 1168
Havana FL, 32333

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

edith byer
pobox1464
wainscott NY, 11975

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bart Farell
28 Fountain St.
Clinton NY, 13323

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Chien
425 NE 55 Street
Miami FL, 33137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jenn Viola
25 Margerie Steet
Lee MA, 01238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

catie searfus
3137 cr 119
hesperus CO, 81326

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chuck Dowe
15 Sachem St
Boston MA, 02120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ruth wolz
1080 felton creek rd.
troy ID, 83871

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Max Keele
2170 Adams St
Eugene OR, 97405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Sills
906 Stoner St
Akron OH, 44320

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MIKE CAIN
2212 TRACI DR
MURRAY KY, 42071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

A H Pell
HC 1 Box 279
Saylorsburg PA, 18353

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Clark
239 So 11th St
Newark NJ, 07107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Gengo
PO Box 9323
Berkeley CA, 94709

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kyle Wlke
6723 35th pl s
Seattle WA, 98118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JD Harrison
245 Thatch
Melbourne FL, 32937

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cathee Posin
13426 Verona
Tustin CA, 92782

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beau Mullis
17 st.marks pl#15
nyc NY, 10003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Lucas
2 Aldie Street
Allston MA, 02134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

L. Girginov
29-07 36th ave.
Astoria NY, 11106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lisa vana
2929 1/2 texas st
vernon TX, 76384

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

richard riger
1029 nashville
alb NM, 87105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ray Nelson
15950 CR 47.5
La Salle CO, 80645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Layman
708 Arch
Ann Arbor MI, 48104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Garry Gleckel
185 Main St
Ashby MA, 01431

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Deaver
PO Box 923
Cornville AZ, 86325

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

a horwitt
5501 ne 62nd st
seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mack Lee
110 Townhouse Ln
Houston TX, 78412

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tal Peretz
400 n el molino
Pasadena CA, 91101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dave puskala
3505 Hilltop St
wbl MN, 55110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Sagona
PO Box 294
Fordoche LA, 70732

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rosa Bordallo
449 1st St
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Sturm
4610 Joliet Ave.
Lyons IL, 60534

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Watson
P.O. Box 155
Scooba MS, 39358

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

rod munro 15455 tyrone
kent city MI, 49330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J Lee Hull
2277 120th Street
Lawton IA, 51030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben Basin
515 SE 19th Ave
Portland OR, 97214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

claudia allore
44 fane ct
brooklyn NY, 11229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Fish
78 Bokum Rd
Deep River CT, 06417

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Kee
6726 E Calle Dened
Tucson AZ, 85710

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Divina Himaya
1901 Loyola
Claremont CA, 91711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Wills
105 E 2nd St
Brooklyn NY, 11218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bernard martin
po box 188
dayton PA, 16222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

miriam landman
PO Box 375
Tomales CA, 94971

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Dube
39 First St
Worcester MA, 01602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Mahoney
PO BOx 133
Hebron ME, 04238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Demedts
4 Ellery
Cambridge MA, 02138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen E. Baker
2252 Dixie Dr.
York PA, 17402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Pint
899 Quarry Dr
Akron OH, 44307

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Shoup
11927 Atwell
Houston TX, 77035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom McCabe
1017 E. Hopkins
Aspen CO, 81611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kathleen epp
PO Box 2194
durango CO, 81302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth
2228 40th Av E
Seattle WA, 98112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Klein
700 East L St
Benicia CA, 94510

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dav id Salant
PO Box 274
Henryville PA, 18332

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

irene brown
112 wheat circle
scott LA, 70583

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Rosen
14 Loller Road
Hamden CT, 06514

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dinda evans
pob 178695
san diego CA, 92177

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Lutz
255 N. Main St
Red Lion PA, 17356

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doug Young
338 E.13th ST #4C
NYC NY, 10003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

robert branin
1705 17th Ave
tampa FL, 33605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Asia Philbin
612 S 6TH Ave
Tucson AZ, 85701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Brown
335 E.6th st
New York NY, 10003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

beth malloy
1571 michigan ave
slc UT, 84105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Stanley
74 River Rd.
Richmond ME, 04357

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Catherine Rank
3501 Omar Ln
Plano TX, 75023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lorraine Rondon
POB 1843
Madison WI, 53701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Armand Fontaine
PO Box 13
Kamay TX, 76369

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dana Radell
7236 SW 114TH Pl
Miami FL, 33173

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nikhil
106 Cassa Loop
Holtsville NY, 11742

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JO LAZ
3225 so. Kedvale
Chicago IL, 60623

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

pamela ward
1017 lewis ave
Arcata CA, 95521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diana Kostelecky
51 B Avenue
Zuni NM, 87327

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura M. Ohanian
P.O. Box 811
Eugene OR, 97440

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

billee Buvia
210 West St
stevenson AL, 35772

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Scott
1307 Lujan St
Santa Fe NM, 87505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Neal
575 CR 507
Nacogdoches TX, 75961

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Wang
213 Hayes Dr.
Turlock CA, 95382

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Troyer
P.O. Box # 382
Ashland KY, 41105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 21, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tyler Dinner
24 Cook St
Brooklyn NY, 11206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anton Simanov
Stuart Ave.
Clovis CA, 93612

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Henry DeGrazia
PO Box 554
Norris TN, 37828

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 19, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Grishman
Kyle Ct
Hyde Park NY, 12538

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

travis cahill
918 1/2 N. 7th St
Boise ID, 83702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 14, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Aaron
5801 Pisa Lane
Frisco TX, 75034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Penn Dur
7555 e harvard ave
Denver CO, 80231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

chris vey
113 Pickerel Rd
Monroe NY, 10950

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike York
8 Diego Dr
San Rafael CA, 94903

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Major
2726 e 26b st
Mpls MN, 55406

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael little 804 Ector St
denton TX, 76201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deb Brown
PO Box 98964
Raleigh NC, 27624

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jayne Demakos
302 Hook Pl
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

C. Peck
1115 Green Valley Dr
Paris TN, 38242

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick Covey
414 Danton Drive
Cary NC, 27518

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Kern
50 post road
westerly RI, 02891

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ypm altizere 14 e kinney
mt pocono PA, 18344

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Yung
925 Union St
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Gold
3 Taylor Rd
Tunbridge VT, 5077

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Yara Mello
12525 Morris rd
Yelm WA, 98597

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

R Ferrier
Siskiyou Blvd
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam Dorr
1137 Nielsen
Ann Arbor MI, 48105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 19, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Thomas
65 W. 11 St.
Bayonne NJ, 07002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 18, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carrie Grace
3253 N. Troy
Chicago IL, 60618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 15, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslie Jones
PO Box 2933
Corrales NM, 87048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Myers
205 5th st
spencer WV, 25276

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jenna Fang
21465 S 270 Rd
Morris OK, 74445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Albert Rowe
785 Sand Ave
Eugene OR, 97401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Ramos
476 First St
Solvang CA, 93463

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Billy Smith
817 7th St. South
Luck WI, 54853

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Bloomfield
Box 595
Norwood CO, 81423

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kate smith
12510 phoebe ct
austin TX, 78727

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Chapman
1520 Lynn
Lucas TX, 75002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

linda Finger
6067 Colt Rd
Brocton NY, 14716

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Berger
5041 Galen Rd
Wolcott NY, 14590

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 13, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

BJ Hargrave
525 W May St
DELAND FL, 32720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Walling
801 Pine St
Seattle WA, 98101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

alan strachan
51 Carol Way
aptos CA, 95003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 12, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vic Kern
756 Westglen Dr.
Yukon OK, 73099

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jenny boettiger 12660 bellevue WA, 98005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Neal
72 Sedgley Rd.
Greene ME, 04236

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I understand that you have been a great champion for real net neutrality at the FCC. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's plan, yours will be the deciding vote.

Please, be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free! Please do the right thing one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Miller
3403 NE 11th Ave
Portland OR, 97212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 20, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dave B
11066 Winds Way
Fishers IN, 46037

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 19, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Armstead
P.O. Box 203
Onaga KS, 66521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 16, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebekah Jarvis
16 locust Ave
Troy NY, 12180