Re: CBS TV Show "Two & a Half Men"

Dear Sirs:

I don't have E-mail, so it took ½ an hour to get your ph. no. + mailing address, so hope you will pay some attention to my complaint which represents the viewpoint of my contemporaries (ages 40 to 90) here in AZ.

The new show (without Charley Sheen - which was bad enough, but at least it was humorous!) is without any redeeming features and should be considered [illegible] for young people, as it is [illegible] indecent + obscene - even for my 80+ years!

Please do something about the content of this show. Many thanks from all of us!!

PS.:

Sept. 6-13

Am especially offended by this week's show which pushed 3 way love affairs as a normal activity.

I kept waiting for a glimmer of humor, but there was none, & it might or should be considered more pornography than comedy!!?
