To the Federal Communications Commission: 96-128 10/18/13

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

For far ~~too~~ too long, prison phone companies have gotten away w/ charging sky-high rates to prisoners and their families. Capping state-to-state phone calls was a start, but most prisoners are serving time in their home state.

When prisoners keep in touch w/ their families, they are less likely to reoffend later and kids are better. It's time to cap in-state prison phone rates at a price families can afford.

Sincerely,

Elise Young

USA 33

Federal ~~Communications Commission~~

Elise Young

1030 Columbia Ave, Claremont

~~Claremont~~ CA 91711

19 OCT 2013 PM 5 L

Received & Inspected

OCT 24 2013

FCC Mail Room

Federal Communications Commission

445 12th Street, SW

Washington, DC 20554

To the Federal Communications Commission, 96-128

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

For far too long, prison phone companies have gotten away with charging sky-high rates to prisoners and their families. Capping state-to-state phone calls was a start, but most prisoners are serving time in their home state. When prisoners keep in touch with their families, they are less likely to reoffend later and kids are better off. It's time to cap in-state phone rates at a price families can afford.

sincerely, Annie

Thy (Anne) Nguyen
1030 Columbia Ave. #805 SANTA ANA CA 926
Claremont, CA 91711 19 OCT 2013 PM 3 L

USA 33

#96-128

Federal Communications Commission

445 12th street, SW

Washington, DC 20554

Received & Inspected

OCT 24 2013

FCC Mail Room

To the Federal Communications Commission: 96-128

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

For far too long, prison phone companies have gotten away with charging sky-high rates to prisoners and their families. Capping state-to-state phone calls was a start, but most prisoners are serving time in their own state.

When prisoners keep in touch with their families, they are less likely to reoffend later and kids are better off. It's time to cap in-state prison phone rates at a price families can afford.

Sincerely,

Sharmishtha Gupta

SHARMISHTHA GUPTA
1030 COLUMBIA AVE #466
Claremont, CA 91711

SANTA ANA CA 925
15 OCT 2013 PM 3 L

USA 33

(19)

Federal Communications Commission
445 12th street, SW
Washington, D.C. 20554

Received & Inspected
OCT 24 2013
FCC Mail Room

13

To the Federal Communications Commission: 96-128

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

For far too long prison phone companies have gotten away with charging sky-high rates to prisoners and their families. Capping state-to-state phone calls was a start, but most prisoners are serving time in their home state.

When prisoners keep in touch with their families, they are less likely to reoffend later and kids are better off. It's time to cap in-state phone rates at a price families can afford.

Sincerely,
Tryphena

1030 Columbia Ave.
Claremont, CA 91711

SANTA ANA CA 926

19 OCT 2013 PM 3 L

USA 33

Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Received & Inspected

OCT 24 2013

FCC Mail Room

To the Federal Communications Commission, 10/18/13

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

96-128

For far too long, prison phone companies have gotten away with charging sky high rates to prisoners and their families. Capping state to state phone calls was a start, but most prisoners are serving time in their home state.

When prisoners keep in touch with their families, they are less likely to reoffend later and kids are better off. It's time to cap in-state prison phone rates at a price families can afford.

Sincerely,

Timothy Eng + Marissa Butler

Marissa Butler
1415 N. College Ave #302
Claremont, CA 91711

USA 33

15 OCT 2013 PM 3 L

Received & Inspected

OCT 24 2013

FCC Mail Room

Federal Communications Commission
445 12th St, SW
Washington, DC 20554

96-128

Dear Institution,

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

How would you feel if you couldn't talk to your loved ones ~~ever~~ when ever you wanted? Have some sympathy

Lucy

Lucy Blumberg
1030 Columbia Ave
Claremont, CA 91711

SANTA ANA CA 926
OCT 2013 PM 3 L

USA 33

Federal communications
commission
445 12th Street, SW
Washington D.C. 20554

Received & Inspected

OCT 24 2013

FCC Mail Room

To the Federal Communications Commission:

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL 96-128

For far too long prison phone companies have gotten away with charging sky-high rates to prisoners and their families. Capping state-to-state phone calls was a start but most prisoners are serving time in their home state.

When prisoners keep in touch with their families they are less likely to reoffend later and kids are better off. It's time to cap in-state prison phone rates at a price families can afford.

Sincerely,

Zadulee Spraggs

Zandalee Springs
Scripps College 1030 Columbia Avenue
Claremont, CA 91711

USA 33

19 OCT 2013 PM 4 L

Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW
Washington, DC 20554

Received & Inspected

OCT 24 2013

FCC Mail Room

20554

To the Federal Communications Commission: 96-128

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

For far too long, prison phone companies have gotten away with charging sky-high rates to prisoners and their families. Capping state-to-state phone calls was a start, but most prisoners are serving time in their home state.

When prisoners keep in touch with their families, they are less likely to ~~off~~ reoffend later and kids are better off. It's time to cap in-state prison phone rates at a price families can afford.

Sincerely,
Isabel

Isabel Lippincott
1030 Columbia Ave #6
Claremont, CA 91711

SANTA ANA CA 926

19 OCT 2013 PM 4 L

USA 33

Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Received & Inspected

OCT 24 2013

FCC Mail Room

20554

96-128 10/18/13

To the Federal Communications Commission:

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

For far too long, prison phone companies have gotten away with charging sky-high rates to prisoners and their families. Capping state-to-state phone calls was a start, but most prisoners are serving time in their home state.

When prisoners keep in touch with their families, they are less likely to reoffend later and kids are better off. It's time to cap in-state prison phone rates at a price families can afford.

Sincerely,
Lia Metzger

Lia Metzger
1850 39th Ave.
San Francisco, CA 94122

SANTA ANA CA 926

19 OCT 2013 PM 6 L

USA 33

Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Received & Inspected
OCT 24 2013
FCC Mail Room

To the Federal Communications Commission 96-128 10/18/13

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

For far too long, prison phone companies have gotten away with causing sky-high rates to prisoners and their families (ex: $17 for a phone call that would cost $2) Capping state-to-state calls was a start (thanks), but most prisoners are serving time in their home state.

When prisoners keep in touch with their families, they are less likely to reoffend later, and their children are better off. Please cap in-state prison phone rates at a price families can afford.

Sincerely,

Christina Fox

Christine Fox
2328 Punta de Vista Pl NE
Albuquerque, NM 87112

19 OCT 2013 PM 6 L

USA 33

Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW
Washington, DC 20554

Received & Inspected

OCT 24 2013

FCC Mail Room

To the Federal Communications Commission,

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

For far too long, prison phone companies have gotten away with charging sky-high rates to prisoners and their families. Capping state to state phone calls was a start, but most prisoners are serving time in their home state. 96-128

When prisoners keep in touch with their families, they are less likely to reoffend later and kids are better off. It's time to cap in-state prison phone rates at a price families can afford.

Sincerely, Chive

1030 Columbia Ave.
Claremont, CA 91711

SANTA ANA CA 926

19 OCT 2013 PM 6 L

USA 33

Received & Inspected

OCT 24 2013

FCC Mail Room

Federal Communications
Commission

445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

20554

96-128

To the Federal Communications Commission

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

For far too long, prison phone companies have gotten away with charging sky-high rates to prisoners + their families. Capping state-to-state phone calls was a start, but most prisoners are serving time in their home state. When prisoners keep in touch with their families, they are less likely to reoffend later and kids are better off. It's time to cap in-state prison phone rates at a price families can afford

Sincerely,

Vivian Yu

Vivian Yu
1030 columbia ave #1140
claremont CA 91711

SANTA ANA CA 925
19 OCT 2013 PM 6 L

USA 33

Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW
Washington DC 20554

Received & Inspected
OCT 24 2013
FCC Mail Room

To the federal communications commission

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

for far too long, prison phone companies have gotton away w/charging sky-high rates to prisoners & their families. Capping state to state phone calls was a start, but most prisoners are serving time in their home state.

96-128

When prisoners keep in touch with their families, they are less likely to reoffend later & kids are better off. Its time to cap in-state prison phone rates at a price families can afford.

Sincerely, Nicole

10/18/13

Nicole
1030 columbia Ave
claremont, CA 91711

USA 33

SANTA ANA, CA 926

19 OCT 2013 PM 6 L

federal communications
Commission
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Received & Inspected
OCT 24 2013
FCC Mail Room