Re: GN Docket No. 14-57, Applications of Comcast Corporation and Time Warner Cable Inc. for Consent to Assign or Transfer Control of Licenses and Applications

Dear Ms. Dortch,

Enclosed please find the signatures and comments of thousands of Free Press activists urging the Federal Communications Commission to block the Comcast-Time Warner Cable merger.

_____/s/_____
Craig Aaron
President and CEO
Free Press

We alrady have limited choices in Internet and cable providers. This makes our only bad provider bigger and probably not better service.
—Angel Polan, Oviedo, FL

The open internet is the most important thing in the last 30 years. Keep it that way.
—Edward Loveall, Cambridge, MA

This merger is clearly not in the best interests of Americans and does not foster the growth of any business other than this potential conglomerate's. Please block this merger.
—Perry Carter, Northampton, MA

As it is comcast is one of the worse monopolies ripping consumers across the country. Giving Comcast more power will be a detriment to the future of communications and the United states!!!
—William castillo, dunnellon, FL

This is a mistake of epic proportions. I for one and very pro-business and opportunity. This a competition crusher if I've ever saw one. This would rightly make this future company another giant that can do what they like to the prices and the completion. Please really consider not just the business aspect of this merger, but the ultimate impact to the consumers that are going to have to live with this decision down the road.
—Kirk Youngbauer, Concord, CA

Prove the FCC is more than just a rubber stamp for the communications behemoths: enforce the anti-trust laws and make these bloated giants conform to behavior that actually protects rather than destroys what's left of our democratic society. Enforcing these laws would also force these monsters to play by the "free enterprise" model they're forever claiming they worship. So put them on their knees!
—Michael D. Spence, Tukwila, WA

I live in an area with no cable access and limited internet in spite of being near one of the largest software companies in the nation- we need an open net and more not less competition and options t o insure access to critical information needed by al l of us to live and develop our local small businesses
—George Hagenauer, Verona, WI

This merger is clearly not in the best interests of the American people.
—Brett Docksteader, Bakersfield, CA

A free internet is as vital to our democracy as a free press.
—Luc Lefebvre, North Attleborough, MA

This would create a monopoly in way too many places around the country. And while monopolies are ALWAYS bad for the consumer, a monopoly in information is by far the worst sort of monopoly possible.
—Mark Indrebo, Marysville, WA

Remember when AT&T was busted?
—Patrick Donnelly, Guerneville, CA

STOP!
—Thomas F Sherry, San Jose, CA

This will be BAD for consumers! It's been shown time after time that monopolies are not good for the free market.
—Liz Camarie, Santa Cruz, CA

No monopolies. Diversity and competition are good for America.
—Christopher Dillon, Euclid, OH

There comes a point when enough is enough and the regulators must do their job. That time is now.
—Dale Mullen, Westcliffe, CO

Once the FCC protected the local media. Once upon a time we had local voices. Before mergers, before one size fits all media greywash. We need local media, we need more voices.
—Richard W. Spisak Jr., Hobe Sound, FL

We need more COMPETITION among our national media, not less. Please do not allow Comcast to acquire Time Warner Cable.
—Scott Weaver, Las Cruces, NM

Anyone that doesn't think this is a blatant step towards a monopoly just isn't paying attention. Don't let this happen!
—Erik Ortiz, Thornton, CO

I don't know about you.. But I'm not looking forward to have this company further hinder the growth of technology in the states while other countries are blazing past us. The US is slow... and expensive. This trend will continue and worsen if this merge happens.
—Roc Lescala, Roseville, MN

no merger!
—John Sanderson, Henrico, VA

Comcast is the 800-pound gorilla, and approving this merger adds on another thousand pounds. Do not do it.
—Susan Chapman, Seattle, WA

Monopoly obstructs opposing points of view. Diversity of perspectives is vital to DEMOCRACY. The merger will result in monopoly.
—Susan Dacenko Callis, Chicago, IL

Monopolies are not good for the country and certainly not good for the consumers.
—Scott P Robinson, Sausalito, CA

I hate the media monopolies which prevent the media from serving the public interest and, to be sure I boycott them and I will boycott any politician or system which promotes these monopolies. STOP THE MERGER, enough is enough!
—Julie Johnson, Elkhart, IN

Enough with the monopolies - lets create some real competition. Why? Because competition breeds excellence and Americans deserve nothing less.
—R Krenke, Ann Arbor, MI

I was out of PHONE, cable, INTERNET for 3 days. It was a simple fix - the lines were pulled from the pole. I work from home and had to take 3 days vacation before a tech, Darrell, came today. Also, I have a father in a hospital out of state and I could not reach him until I went to a neighbor's house to use their phone. Furthermore, without a phone how I to call 911 for emergencies. This is TOTALLY unacceptable as a consumer. I have been loyal to your company for over 15 years - I am considering leaving due to the HORRIBLE continued service (not be the techs) and raising prices. My ticket #021555372 and CR363162. When the tech came, his invoice showed a box was not in service, had the number that was not working as the only number to call when I gave an alternative number and was shocked to see that the live wires had separated from the poll. The live wires were lying on the neighbors back yard who have 3 small children who could not go out to play because of your equipment.
—Meg Zimmerman, Baltimore, MD

Additional: It's very simple. We do not act on behalf of the public by allowing increases in the Monopoly power held by large companies. Less companies in a market is less competition and yields increasing Monopoly (or Oligopoly) power. If anything, Comcast should be broken up like the old Bell telephone companies were. Thus opposition to this merger is a very easy call. Thank you.
—Randolph Gaul, Baltimore, MD

The worst calamity ever to befall the USA is the Plutocrat coup. The Comcast/Time Warner merger is just one of many consequences of the coup that is now engulfing our country. Citizens United was another big hit. This all spells doom to the republic for which we thought we stood. The coup is probably now a done deal and It is probably too late, but whomever is listening and thinks that they can do something, go for it !
—Michael Gabriel, St. Augustine, FL

Our government seems to be in its own world like voracious aliens. Your jib is to work for the people. Comcast is an alien to want so much power. Help your people. Stop all monopolies.
—Ellen Geer, Topanga, CA

STOP ALLOWING OUR ECONOMY TO BECOME FILLED WITH MONOPOLIES THAT TURN THIS COUNTRY INTO A COMPLETE OLIGARCHY! HOW DO YOU F#$%ING SLEEP AT NIGHT?!?!?!?!?!?!
—David Hayes, Deerfield, MA

Their service is already terrible.
—Carol Bryant, Newark, DE

Absolute monopolies have never benefitted the consumer with lower costs, more choice of content, or even most worrisome, assurance of net neutrality. This merger should be repudiated as contrary to the Public Interest--the unequivicable MANDATE OF BOTH THE FCC and the Justice Department.
—Eddie Griffiths, Seattle, WA

Eliminating or reducing competition stifles innovation and reduces the choices available to users. Stop This Merger!
—Jeff Spruit, Otsego, MI

Time Warner is bad enough now and this merger can only make bad service worse.
—Walter Korzon, Lancaster, PA

Customer service at Comcast is worse than awful.
—Beverly Bell, Saint Petersburg, FL

Every time a huge corporation takes over another, the consumer pays. They already own a lot of the cable & internet industry & their prices are way too high. We can't afford Comcast to be the only game in town. Let it alone.
—Shirley Walker, Arvada, CO

As we have seen with other industries, competition is best. T-Moble and AT&T are great examples. The merger was rejected, T-Mobile started to compete and drive prices for consumers down while adding choices for consumers.
—Dan Cormack, Boynton Beach, FL

Not only are We learning to distrust massive mergers… We the People are also learning that Government agencies can be sociopathically collusive. WE… have a hemorrhagic erosion of confidence in our Institutions.
—Alan Ernesto Phillips, Redding, CA

Stop Monopolies, not create them!
—David Carnese, Portland, OR

Remember the phone company was broken up and everything is good now. Don't let Comcast become a monopoly like the old phone company.
—Jim Shubin, Novato, CA

Please stop this!
—Catherine Hill, Nashville, TN

The whole promise of the Internet rested on its decentralized nature. Enough is enough.
—Mr. Paul Dirks, St Thomas, VI

Monopoly ownership means outrageous prices.
—Cass Martinez, Portland, OR

Monopolies are bad news for both consumers and capitalism itself. Please lose the idea that it is government's job to give big corporations and monopolies whatever they want.
—Carne Lowgren, Bishop, CA

CON-cast, no thank you.
—William Edward Brown, Nashville, TN

If this merger involved widgets it would violate anti-trust laws and I would oppose it. But proposed merger between Comcast and Time Warner Cable involves information and communication, the touchstones of democracy. This cannot happen in a free country!
—Vicky Peters, Lakewood, CO

Thought Comcast and Time Warner Cable do not technically operate in the same markets, allowing them to merge would create a monopoly in the cable market, which would be bad for consumers and stifle innovation and competitive prices. It would also increase the likelihood of censorship and metered internet, driving up costs for consumers to access online services and impact online businesses that rely on unlimited bandwidth for the consumption of their products, like Netflix, which will put us back into the era of dial-up in terms of content consumption, which wouldn't be good for anyone, all for the sake of corporate greed. Don't let these two corporations become a monopoly and strangle the free growth of information exchange and digital services!
—Aysha Springston, Dallas, TX

We need more competition, not less.
—Jeanne Brown, San Diego, CA

Just what we don't need or want--our life controlled by people that have no concept of reality and will sell our souls for profit.
—Rebecca Gingrich, ,

Comcast has cheated us out of hundreds of $ and their service is inferior.
—James Hay, Seattle, WA

Comcast could become stronger and more influential than the US government if it owns so much TV and Internet access. Choice crumbles, then censorship inevitably arises, then corporate fascism becomes a horrible fact and we are almost there now. Don't let this happen.
—Bruce Adolphe, New York, NY

www.TheHardcoreNews.com
—John Szabo, Warren, OH

We are effectively destroying competition and innovation within this industry and turning control over to one conglomerate who will be able to dictate what we watch/use and how we can do the same.
—Julius Fazekas, Blaine, TN

The advent of distributed media has eliminated the need for monopoly power, except to allow inferior providers such as Comcast to charge exorbitant rates for poor service. There is no need for this merger. In fact, the public would be better served, and at cheaper rates, if they were simply taken apart and the pieces sold off. Thank you.
—Norm Cimon, LaGrande, OR

Monopoly anyone?
—Shaen ONeal, Wichita, KS

Telecoms have too much hegemony, we don't need to add fuel to the flame.
—Zak, Fayetteville, AR

It is expensive enough now. Without competition prices go up and democracy and different points of view go down.
—Vivian Weinstein, Denver, CO

Avoid the oligopoly !
—Dave D. Devol, St. Petersburggg, FL

If this deal goes through, it will mark the beginning of the new gilded age. And Obama will be the one who goes down in history as allowing it to happen. The good thing about such a merger is it will likely bring about the second age of anti-trust sooner and more powerfully. Don't mess with people's internet connections. Comcast has no right to their monopoly and political heads will roll over this.
—William Davern, Shoreview, MN

And there's that deal between Time Warner Cable and the Dodgers. Back to your radios, sports fans!
—Barri Clark, Los Angeles, CA

All the free market economists say our economy thrives through competition, not gigantic monopolies. The FEC should be protecting citizens from the tyranny of Comcast not buckling under to it.
—Joy Cunningham, Austin, TX

This country badly needs a Teddy Roosevelt at the helm.
—Glenn Munson, Pawlet, VT

As a Comcast customer, I am worried.
—Robert L. Drury, Bainbridge Island, WA

This is another "too big to fail" or too big to care. No, not another Ma Bell!
—Michael Robert Mead, Monroe, WA

The age of the Robber Barons is upon us again.
—Matt, Fort Mill, SC

In order to insure that other voices are heard, citizens of a democracy need more options with fair competition between vendors not less. And, it is boring, flat and does not reflect the various points of view that exist within our society. When a singular voice is all that is made available it is in essence a lie.
—Charon D. Collings, Philadelphia, PA

This will approach Carlos Slim's 75% control of the Mexican market.
—Joe Day, Boulder, CO

My Comcast bill is already too high! Letting them get bigger will just make bills higher. STOP Comcast NOW!
—Lynn Beagle, antioch, IL

STOP the merging of large corporations, we must maintain a competive market place!!!!!!!!
—Paul Stanley, North Las Vegas, NV

no Way!
—Christopher Micahel, Wauchula, FL

Save what is left of our Democracy!!
—Wilhelm Schaser, Eureka, CA

We are already at the mercy of monopolizing companies, why add another to the mix, except to be able to gouge the public and take their hard in $$$
—Paul & Shirley Christ, Hickory, NC

This monopoly would not be in the best interest of the consumer. Time to make cable service a utility, like phone companies.
—Marc L. Henry, Seattle, WA

Absolutely Not! This is not right!
—William Gilliard, Zolfo Springs, FL

Comcast is already a rip off!
—Terry Forch, McLean, VA

This deal appears to be a disaster in progress.
—Craig Webb, Arleta, CA

I'd change cable providers...IF I COULD!!!!!
—James Moffat, Marysville, WA

Media consolidation must be stopped.
—Janet Zahn, grand rapids, MI

Vote for the People, NOT the corporations!
—Ron Bock, Lompoc, CA

These companies are far too big as it is. Don't let them get bigger, they will be unstoppable.
—Evan Solberger, San Diego, CA

Currently, I have no choice in choosing a company to provide Internet or television service. Comcast already has that monopoly. It makes no sense that I get to choose the company that supplies my electricity which is a commodity, while getting no choice in choosing the company that gets to decide what I'm allowed to see based on their arbitrary pricing structure. More competition is needed, not less. Allowing this merger would be a huge and dangerous mistake. Please do not approve it!
—Mary Schwartz, Brewster, NY

We broke up the Bell monopoly years ago for a reason. Show the same sense of public protection by not permitting further consolidation in broadcast and online technologies.
—Roxanne Moger, Sacramento, CA

Cable companies already use their near monopolistic status to gouge customers by steadily increasing subscription fees without improving infrastructure or service. We need more competition, not less. Don't let this mega-merger go through. It's a bad deal for consumers!
—Gary S. Watkins, Longmont, CO

Please do not allow this merger to happen - Huge companies are not to US citizens interest - they never stop wanting more power and our money !!!! thank you
—Carolyn Cook, Santa Fe, NM

Comcast is one of the worst companies ever in terms of service and value. It is a very bad idea indeed to give it more market share - indeed almost a monopoly.
—Nona Walker, Scituate, MA

Too big!
—Suzanne Hartley, Phoenix, AZ

This country's growth has ever been tempered by wise protections against monopolies, and for good reason. Without a fair and balanced marketplace, democracy in trade cannot be maintained. Allowing an apparent monopoly in a market as fundamental as digital media is too flawed to be sustainable. Thank You =:xB
—Jeramy Bray, Salem, OR

It will be too big, and will be harming consumers.
—Gretchen Collins, Tisbury, MA

small is better.
—Robert Catlin, Greenfield, MA

Please, do not sell us out again.
—Joe Bischoff, Stoughton, WI

The forest animals will hear of this —Therra Angess, Jenks, OK

Ummm are you too phuckin stupid to know about anti-trust laws and the logic behind them? Perhaps you are just a bunch of stupid sheep doing whatever big business tells you to do because you are too moronic to determine problems that will unavoidably (and are already building) due to the very issues that this merger would accelerate. Derp - that is the sound of your apparent retardation.
—Bradley S Roon, Upper Lake, CA

We have been Comcast customers in the past but no more. They are not a corporation that has any ethics or sense of community engagement and responsibility. To give them greater control over the electronic infrastructure of our country will stifle competition and poison opportunities for consumers to avoid this awful company.
—Lynn Krell, Hattiesburg, MS

A free market means citizens have various choices to pick what's best for them. Only one option is a monopoly, which the US is supposed to protect against. Whatever happened to trust-busting?
—Aimee Polekoff, Lansdale, PA

The bigger the company the less quality the service!
—Jeff Holyszko, jacksonville, FL

Bad idea.
—James Anest, Olympia, WA

Please keep healthy competition in the marketplace and give choice to consumers.
—Amy Jasmer-Flanders, Paynesville, MN

On my street, Comcast service goes dead almost every month even for six hours or more. My individual TV and Internet signals go out an additional one to two times each month. Comcast email works intermittently every single day. Comcast should not allowed to provide terrible service to even more Americans. Their large market share in my area probably explains why they do little to permanently repair these constant equipment failures.
—Ernest Delmazzo, West Linn, OR

Please don't allow ma bell to form again. Can we at least try to have competition with ISPs in this country?
—Jonathan Melberg, BREEZY POINT, MN

This merger will limit people's access to diverse information, it will make the Internet more of a tool for corporate profits and less of a tool of connectivity for the citizenry of the US and the rest of the world, which they deserve to have and need in order to educate themselves and their children. Therefore this merger ought not be allowed to go forward. Giving permission for it would ultimately be bad for the future of our planet.
—Reinhard Sokol, Providence, RI

To my legislators: remember -- your children will have to live with the consequences of your decision. Even the most enthusiastic capitalist admits that monopolies are a bad idea. Do you want your children to have only one source of news, entertainment, and learning? Cui bono?
—Nick Papadakis, Falls Church, VA

FCC and Doj stop the merger. Don't permit Comcast to purchase TIme Warner Cable. This would give Comcast way to much power.
—Paula Huffman, Las Vegas, NV

Remember the financial institutions that were "too big to fail"? You are creating another massive corporation that can easily get out of control. The people need CHOICE particularly for cable and Internet options which for many people fill our waking hours (I'm one). Do not allow this merger to happen. Thank you.
—Paulianne Ann Balch-Rancourt, Port Orford, OR

This company is too close to a monopoly now. Their service is terrible, and it appears to us they have worked out agreements to stop would-be competitors from expanding into their markets already. They are anti-competitive and dangerously fond of censorship and charging websites for access to "their" pathways to millions of homes...
—Richard A. Barry, Sarasota, FL

Comcast isn't managing the business they have already very well. They are difficult to reach regarding issues around service, they also require me to subscribe to TV stations just to get internet service. They need to focus on the responsibilities they already have, and work to improve basic services.
—Matthew Matthew Herschler, Northhampton, MA

Comcast must by law operate as a UTILITY, to serve the community. Not a destroyer of Open and Free Markets
—Michael Kirchner, Harrisburg, PA

This appears to be headed in a distopian direction with these types of mergers.
—Evan Ten Brink, San Jose, CA

I am a current Comcast subscriber and I don't think their service is very good. If they had no competition, things would be even worse.
—Thomas Eaton, Gary, IN

Didn't Teddy Roosevelt try to stop this from happening 100 years ago? Did we learn nothing?
—Jared Jones, chicago, IL

Thank you, Gus Henning
—Gus Henning, Waterbury, CT

History shows us that monopolies harm the people. Please do not make this mistake.
—Ms. Pat Bohlinger, Sarasota, FL

Please protect our rights as consumers!
—Deborah Way, Northampton, MA

Comcast has to be the worst cable and internet service company and if they get a monaply it will be all over. They will raise the rates first thing. Its about GREED
—Richard Crooks, Loveland, CO

This merger must be stopped.
—Wilberta Woodson, Denver, CO

This corporate media consolidation must stop! Combined with SOPA, the Congress keeps considering terrible corporate favoring legislation. Knock it off!
—Steve Rae, Hillsboro, OR

They're both TOO BIG TO CONTROL in the public interest now.
—Larry Panek, Salt Lake, UT

One entity that has too much power will collapse the choice in the free market
—Halden Richards, Seattle, WA

As a former Comcast customer I can attest to the extremely poor customer service they provide (they already act like a monopoly; they don't care, they don't have to) and the rate hikes. My cable bill creeped up 75% over 4 years! Please, please do not allow this merger to happen!
—Jessica Byrnes, Evanston, IL

NO!
—M Garrett, South Jordan, UT

I'm a Comcast customer and know just how little I receive for my ever increasing fees. We customers desperately need more options, not fewer.
—Marianne Dickinson, Albuquerque, NM

In the Houston market area if you don't have comcast; you can't view the Astro's games on TV. When they merge with Time Warner you may not be able to watch anything anywhere unless you subscribe to comcast. But alas it is no longer government for and by the people; but government for and by multi-national corporations.
—Dallas Ross, Dickinson, TX

When the size of AT&T became detrimental to the best of interest of the US and its citizens, it was corrected - it proved the divested size was best. Then Low & Behold, the Repubs let the Chlld buy the Daddy - it is much worse than that now.
—Leonard Kamman, Austin, TX

Ma Bell was broken up many years ago to prevent what you are on the brink of doing. Were they smarter than you?
—James P. Brady, Rochester, MI

The merger between Comcast and Time Warner hurts the consumer and should be denied.
—Jeffery K. McGonagill, Corvallis, OR

No one company should be in the business of providing Internet access, local cable access, phone services, entertainment access such as streaming video, and content production. These are separate businesses. I have Comcast cable and Internet access service, but their cable access box blocks the Internet access feature of my TV. What other services will a merged company start blocking?
—Brian Young, Bellevue, WA

Too big is too scary and too Much risk
—Johan, Santa Cruz, CA

Net neutrality and competition in capitalism is NESSISARY for capitalism to work properly!
—Tracy Page, El Cerrito, CA

Congress failed to prosecute them under The Sherman Anti-Trust Act, which means they're chickenshit to piss off one of their biggest donors. They all suck. I just turned off my Crumbcast account. Fk them.
—Warren Levine, Bellingham, WA

The internet should be a public utility. Any other arrangement, and especially this one, cripples our country and leaves us in the third world.
—David Rust, Sebastopol, CA

I've been a Comcast customer for over 10 years and I cannot support this takeover. We need competition among broadcast companies to insure that all points of view are represented in our media.
—Christie Maurer, Scotts Valley, CA

Please block this merger. Media consolidation is bad for democracy.
—Kathy Van Dame, SLC, UT

I haven't heard any rationale for this take over that focuses on the benefits to consumers. I would expect that to be the number one criteria for approving such a deal. Please do not approve this!
—Sheila Anderson, Seattle, WA

Comcast has BY FAR the worst customer service I've seen--repeatedly--in my entire life! They should be punished, not rewarded. Stop this merger!
—Mr. Thomas Jacobson, Jamaica Plain, MA

Capitalism only works when there's (real) competition, not oligopoly.
—Roberta Beach, St. Paul, MN

This is a bad idea for all consumers. It takes away our freedom of choice.
—Mrs. Marcella Moore, Eugene, OR

To further damage our democracy by combining these media conglomerates is criminal!
—Jean Darsie, Seattle, WA

This is unfair and undemocratic.
—Ann Stockdale, Gig Harbor, WA

The notion that this merger wouldn't be anticompetitive is utter nonsense.
—Rick Baker, Minneapolis, MN

The terms and promises made by the companies are never honored. Please can we not have a repeat like meridith baker.
—John Kelly, Sealy, TX

COMCAST IS TOO BIG AND TOO UNRESPONSIVE ALREADY!!!! IF THEY BECOME A MONOPOLY THERE WILL BE NO WAY TO REGULATE THEM!!
—Eugene Howard, Franklin, TN

This consolidation will hinder competition hence stagnate high speed bandwidth availability for all internet users. When we need higher speed and bandwidth to grow our economy.
—Sudhanshu Dongre, Camarillo, CA

We've come too far - let's keep our choices and freedom! No to Comcast and Time Warne merger!
—Kimberly M., La Habra, CA

In my life time the erosion of the "fairness doctrine" has led to the cultural and political impoverishment of this country. The end of "fin syn" rules helped wipe out independent Hollywood companies that keep work in California and that give us multiple voices. Approving ComCast's deal is yet one more craven act by the FCC that will make them rich in the short term and guarantees that history will condemn in the long term.
—Todd Darling, Venice, CA

What do we get but even worse service and higher pricing. Do I have to move to the EU to get a fair shake on mt media and cell phone
—MR. joe Katroscik, Bend, OR

What happened to the story that said competition is critical to capitalism? We're down to 6 banks, 3 bookstores and 2 providers for internet. Ahh the Plutocracy has won. I'll be so surprised when this is approved!
—Tim Isom, San Francisco, CA

Does the word "monopoly" come to mind? It should.
—Cathy Bledsoe, Portland, OR

We NEED competition, and I'm opposed to the buy out!!!
—Robert Visco, Peabody, MA

Big business getting bigger - never a good thing.
—David Desautel, Sequim, WA

Capitalism is not the means of production in the hands of the fewest number of people. That's economic fascism.
—Steve Deutsch, Berkeley, CA

We need more competition and more media companies so diverse opinions can be expressed-not a monopoly.
—Diane Bell-Rettger, Moraga, CA

This only hurts consumers and the internet as a whole!
—, Brighton, CO

STOP THE MERGER!!! This Would Put Way Too Much Power & Must Be Put To A STOP!!!
—Jody Webb, Asheville, NC

Remember the old AT&T? Are we going to allow this only to be breaking up the cable monopoly in a few years? The cable companies already force us to pay for channels we don't watch or want - we don't need more of that!
—Laurie Moskow, Lansing, NY

Big business is bad for America.
—Brock Bryant, Polson, MT

Comcast already has a monopoly in certain markets. They continue to increase their rates while their service is poor.
—Madan M. Joshi, Wilmington, DE whatever happened to our anti-trust laws?

—Jeffrey A Zamrzla, Topeka, KS

They are already the only high speed internet provider in my area, and the price just keeps going UP, AND UP, AND UP !!!!
—Brian Zwergel, New Kensington, PA

Don't let this merger happen, please!
—John Shore, San Marcos, CA

Another huge monopoly is NOT good for American citizens.
—Sylvia Black, Portland, OR

No more monopoly- do your job and what's in your chater FCC and reject the merger! Put people and the American ideal of competition into action by rejecting this merger and reinforce the antitrust model of American fair business!
—Steve Molenda, Huntington Beach, CA

This is also a national security concern. If one company controls so much of U.S. communications, the consequences are more dire if that system goes down for any reason.
—Amy Quate, Denton, TX

I live in an area where I already am limited to ONLY comcast, and Time Warner is one of the few possibilities for a second provider, assuming they are willing to expand. Please don't remove my chance for making a choice.
—Scott Plumlee, Greenwood, IN

stop the madness
—Madeline McKeon, Sarasota, FL

You know this is a terrible idea. Block this merger.
—Jonathan Shapiro, Chicago, IL

If the merger is allowed to go through, Comcast (or whatever the resulting company is called) should be forced into the roll of a government controlled monopoly, wherein their profits are limited, the wages of their higher executives are limited, and their operations and operational procedures are required to b open at all times to government audit. Even now, they are the only provider available to a significant number of households across the country.
—Paul Degenkolb, San Francisco, CA

All of you politicians are criminals and deserve to be in jail with your puppet-master corporate-cronies. This latest example only shows how afraid you are of the internet. To hell with you and to hell with comcast, time-warner, CBS, NBC and all you lying excrement.
—Geo Conner, Fort Wayne, IN

Its your job to protect the American People not Corporations.
—Joseph Warren, Filer, ID

Consumers always benefit from competition. Please what little exists in the telecom industries.
—Krystn Mccaleb, Santa Rosa, CA

No. No. No Merger!
—chris Powers, Portland, OR

The cable companies are too big as it is. Why encourage their disdain for customer service.
—Frank Willis, Chicago, IL

information must stay free of any trust !
—Jean-Sebastien RENARD, Cataract, WI

Am sick and tired of "big" getting "bigger" and pricing everyone out of things. Competition use to be a good thing, but I guess not anymore.
—Eleanor Snyder, Salmon, ID

It is time for the FCC and the Justice Department to say NO to Comcast. This is NOT good for our country. Too much power in on massive corporation's hands. Enough. Say NO to this merger.
—C M McCormick, Westminster, CO

Ceast Und Desist, this must. For should this go through, it will only Dampen the Internet more than what it is now.
—Sektor, North Las Vegas, NV

This is disgusting, pure and simple.
—Sean Harrison, Roslindale, MA

Less competition is ALWAYS detrimental to the consumer of the product or service. Spare me the 'scale' arguments. Competition will force 'Best price/service'. The consumer and the markets know this.
—Doug Christensen, Salt Lake City, UT

If you believe in American democracy, you must oppose this merger. Diversity protects our freedom!
—Eric C. Peters, Carlisle, MA

We don't need the biggest infowhore to get any bigger...stop this now. Signed, your constituent!
—Jon Rolph, Claymont, DE

Free competition is necessary. Otherwise costs rise without control
—Jeffrety Levitan, martinsburg, WV

No free market solution for main stream media!
—Robert L Holzman Jr, Lockport, NY

This is the definition of a monopoly.
—Mrs. Laura Curry, Barnstble, MA

My daughter has Comcast and has many issues with the quality of phone, internet and TV. Recently spent hours with dropped phone calls, standing in line at the service counter , etc., trying to get a service person to come out. When he did arrive he found two wires were very old and needed to be replaced and told her it would coust $100 per tiny wire. He did give her a quick , free, option. It was to connect the service another place to a modem in another room. That was the option she chose. I hope those wires hold up !
—Ms. Maryann Bailey, north port, FL

If you don't understand the need for and benefits of "net neutrality" now's a good time to start. What's happening here is a true disaster and the Comcast/TimeWarner merger will only make things worse. According to a recent study by Ookla Speedtest, the U.S. ranks a shocking 31st in the world in terms of average download speeds. The leaders in the world are Hong Kong at 72.49 Mbps and Singapore on 58.84 Mbps. And America? Averaging speeds of 20.77 Mbps, it falls behind countries like Estonia, Hungary, Slovakia, and Uruguay. Its upload speeds are even worse. Globally, the U.S. ranks 42nd with an average upload speed of 6.31 Mbps, behind Lesotho, Belarus, Slovenia, and other countries you only hear mentioned on Jeopardy.

STOP THIS DANGEROUS MEDIA MONOPOLIZATION!
—Dona LaSchiava, Tucson, AZ

I believe this merger is another in a long series of serious blows to free speech and a free press in our country.
—Don Alan Hall, Corvallis, OR

Please think of the consumers, and small guys, who need choices.
—Herb Powers Jr, Orlando, FL can we please at least pretend to oppose monopolies

—Zeeshan Shera, chico, CA

This merger is crazy and can do nothing but ultimately harm the country and consumers. You don't get innovation by letting one company own everything.
—Gary Bernard, Indio, CA

Our experience with Comcast has been dismal over the years. Their customer service has been appalling, including charging fees to repair their own faulty installation and continual issues with their cable modems (we had to swap them out numerous times). Until a very few years ago, we had no other cable option than Comcast. We switched to Uverse (AT&T) as soon as it was offered in our neighborhood. At one point, due to a number of technical issues over three weeks period, during which to their credit AT&T sent people out to try to fix often the very same day (and even on Sunday), we spoke to Comcast about possibly switching back (simply due to the fact that AT&T was having issues isolating our problem). You'd think they wanted our business, but after finding we'd been a previous customer, we were told it would take over 3 weeks before they could do an install. Fortunately, AT&T continued to work on our problem and fixed it, and especially given Comcast's lack of interest in getting us back as customers, we were very happy. That Comcast is so often people's only option for Internet (since Dish is more and more available for TV), is terrible. They've claimed over the years they "fixed" their customer service issues, but based on discussion with friends who are still stuck with Comcast, it's gotten worse not better. What kind of company treats their customers like this? Ones with too much of a monopoly!
—Loyd Auerbach, Martinez, CA

There was a time that monopolies were outlawed. It's too bad we can't do that again, because monopolies do not help the consumer, they only help the few big corporations that ARE monopolies.
—Rory & Dee Pierce, Wheat Ridge, CO

What ever happened to the concept of competition and the ability of the people to stop overarching entities from controlling their lives. If this merger is approved, there will be no alternatives to this gigantic super monopoly. Allow the flow of information to be unhindered by censorship and free speech to thrive through small and independent television and internet access. Do you want to pay internet providers by the website? or cable companies by the bundle? I sure don't.
—Raymond Hart, Accident, MD

The cost difference between basic cable has decreased so much that it appears basic cable subscribers now support those who want premium service, a minimum package should be made available that costs less than $36/mo. Cable companies should be required to notify you one and two months before "package" deals expire.
—Kent Bridges, Weston, WI

Speaking as a former customer of Comcast, I can tell you they are arrogant and dictatorial already and would only become far worse if allowed to complete this merger.
—Celeste Mookherjee, Long Beach, CA

Merging these two companies will do nothing to improve the user experience for the customer.
—Jon Genova, Wheat Ridge, CO

Whatever happened to diversity, so many areas of my life are already determined by big business. Often determined by those who stand to gain big bucks and don't give a hoot about the individual (little me).
—Marian Wilson, Sequim, WA

having been a comcast (Bombast. the future od awwe!) for 15 years & even doing tech support be the ugly company decide the rural pennsylvanian were cheaper than philippeans or maybe it was this merger.. still just yuck! let me make it simple this so called compamy should be investagated for in my option TREASON ! yes treason because they sure are unamerican! ok that is a little harsh but my second choice is well you choose the crime I am fully confident they are guilty. freedom of the press is for thoose who own the press...ugh i am feeling sick at the thought that comcast is current press yuck!! i could go on & on GGgrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrr!
—david Duff, dauphin, PA

Comcast is already a less than satisfactory internet provider. They are expensive, and because of the way they "bundle" services, they oblige consumers to pay for services they don't need or use. The last thing this company need is less competition.
—Lynn Freitas, Salem, OR

I am shocked that this possibility could even exist -- I thought this was what anti-trust laws were meant to prevent. Please make sure this doesn't happen. Thank you

Consolidation of power and control is exactly the OPPOSITE of what's in the best interest of the citizens of this country.
—William Kent, Vancouver, WA

Comcast customer vehemently opposed to this merger. Comcast already blocks certain content (like viewing HBOGo on a PS3) - how long would it take for Comcast to start blocking non-TW content?
—Julie Luxenberg, Montgomery Village, MD

Don't I remember some lesson about MONOPOLY companies from my school years? This would be a really dangerous thing. So much is at risk...freedom of speech, internet access, phone service, all media information...SCARY!!!
—Lois Wilson, NOVATO, CA

I have never received honest, truthful customer service from Comcast. I no longer subscribe to their cable TV service. Their cable internet service is the only option I have, otherwise I would switch that, too. It's frightening that one company can have so much power over me and us.
—David O. Ruberg, Seattle, WA

One company should not control 1/3 to 1/2 of any market. It's not a free market if there's little choice. This is the reason we have anti-trust laws.
—Kirsten Waack, Barrington, IL

I cannot say anything any better than what is said above. Just NO about sums up my opinion -
—Marina Pratt, perry hall, MD

With the proposed merger, Comcast has even LESS incentive to provide competitive pricing to its customer and improved service. There is also a risk of the company limiting other provider services. PLEASE stop the merger!!
—Cathy Donath, N. Eastham, MA

Please act to protect American people NOT corporations. Please.
—Deborah C. Reilly, Worthington, MA

This proposed merger must not be allowed to happen! Reasons for opposing are numerous and persuasive enough to justify quashing a single giant to be created at any time.
—Glen Carroll, Seattle, WA

This is similar to the take over of the, then, Nazi take over by Joseph Goeggels and the indoctrination of the Germans... We all know how that turned out..
—Richard, San Luis Obispo, CA

Don't allow this!!
—Moshe Newmark, Fayetteville, AR

Competition brings down the price? Free Market? This is highway robbery! We need local programing provided by local companies. I would like to be proud of American Corporations. What happened to the public good?

Comcast needs to be stopped!
—Joseph Nolan, Charles Town, WV

Comcast has already been making changes which hurts their customers but makes them more money. Companies like Comcast can and will continue to do this if they are not stopped. It is seriously out of control.
—Jessica Nolan, Charles Town, WV

Dear FCC and Justice Department: Please promote competition, not monopoly for my cable companies.
—Scott Mabel, Boston, MA

What next? United States of Comcast? Funny, yes but also very true! Comcast has shown this country they do not care about customers, only money. Stop Comcast now please!
—Nicholas Nolan, Charles Town, WV

What Comcast id doing is illegal!
—Sean Bartel, Hagerstown, MD

I'm tired of seeing companies monopolize industries and deliver half-assed quality.
—Dakota Boyer, Jacksonville, FL

We just got Comcast - we would not want to see this pathetic level of customer service 'spread' any further. ALSO, it's time to start doing something about the monopolies this country has allowed in the last couple of decades. And the FIRST PLACE to start is with any companies that have anything whatsoever to do with the dissemination of information, or we will be kissing our constitution good-bye very soon.

—Barry Rein, High Falls, NY

This merger clearly concentrates too much power, thereby weakening competition AND potentially hampers free speech and equal access when the safeguards expire in 2018. Please prohibit this merger as it creates problems for ordinary people while simultaneously engineering market monsters that are too big to fail:(. NO MERGER
—Marilyn K. Anderson, Kailua Kona, HI

They are already raising their bills again. My location also does not have many choices either.
—Sandra Washington, San Francisco, CA

Comcast is trying to Monopolize the telecommunications market, something the FCC aided in taking down while net neutrality was still in play. We let big oil have free reign over gas prices and look at them now, $3-$4 a gallon and no control over it!
—Patrick England, Mount Washington, KY

This is an extraordinarily bad deal for all consumers! Please, Please do NOT approve this merger!
—Mark Laube, Mountain View, CA

This kind of merger works against free markets and eliminates the competition necessary to ensure better access, higher quality, and reduced cost.
—Heath Eddy, Exton, PA

I have Comcast and they provide the WORST service I have ever had from a company. What other service provider could get away with what they do?? So annoying!
—JiaJia Chen, Salt Lake City, UT

A robust and healthy diversity in our nation's media, cable and internet providers is central to a free press, which is vital to a healthy democracy. Yes! It's that important. This is not ok. Don't let history repeat itself! There are reasons why they made laws to not lets this happen and now they are letting it happen anyways. Stop corporate greed.
—adriana Hall, Pacifica, CA

—Brad Hopkins, Martinsburg, WV

The United States has the most expensive and poorest quality television systems in the in the industrialized world because there is already almost no competition. This merger will make the problem worse.
—Gunnar Louis Keel, Los Angeles, CA

Consumers need a 2nd choice for a cable. Comcast Cable & internet has a monopoly and it really hurts us consumer's.

This merger would be monopolistic behavior of the boldest and most toxic form. Do not allow comcast and time warner to merge. The consumer will suffer.
—Deborah Wallace, Danville, CA

Anti-trust laws haven't been vigorously enforced since the Reagan administration and our economy is suffering for it, our choices as citizens are more limited, and the power of the conglomerates is has become way too powerful. TOO BIG TO FAIL! Please cut things down to size, don't increase them.
—Jan Harris, Sebastopol, CA

Congress has been far too remiss in protecting the listening and viewing rights of ordinary American citizens, it is time they stop succumbing to sheer corporate greed and protect the rights of their less affluent constituents.

How is any of this legal?
—Jeffrey Sowles, manahawkin, NJ

This kind of monopolization is unacceptable.
—Hugh Weymouth, Fort Lauderdale, FL

The LAST thing that any FREE society needs is ever-fewer out-of-control faceless corporate conglomerates monopolizing ever-more of the nation's communications channels. STOP this monopolization!
—Jim Warren, Hansville, WA

We already have natural monopolies and oligopolies in the telecom industry. Don't give them a helping hand. We need the illusion of competition in the marketplace to ensure the telecom industry can continue to price gouge customers while receiving Federal funds and not expand our nation's telecom infrastructure. Regardless of what you do, anything short of regulating wired telecom services like a utility, will fall short of ensuring consumers are able to get necessary telecommunications services for less than a small fortune in the next 20 years. I'm sure lobbying dollars speak louder than my e-signature, but if you're reading this, I would like to be pleasantly surprised by you taking actions that would benefit the people who voted you into office instead of taking legal bribes from corporate America.
—David Boaz, Lees Summit, MO

This merger is wrong! Comcast must not be allowed to merge with Time Warner because it will create another monopoly. Remember the breakup of the Bell System? The Justice Department had determined that the company had grown too big, and filed suit under the Sherman Antitrust Act in 1974. The case, United States v. AT&T. Comcast with its merger with Time Warner would just create a giant monopoly hurting customers because Comcast controls the internet, broadcasting, and pricing. So do not let this merger happen between Comcast and Time Warner...
—Joseph Gunther, Oswego, NY

Comcast can't do an adequate job without Time Warner Cable. Making Comcast even bigger won't improve it's ability to do an adequate job. Bigger is not better it is just greedier and more powerful. Putting this much power in the hands of one company is bad for our country. It is competition between cable companies that keeps them under control and doesn't allow them to run roughshod over their customers. If you have America's best interests at heart, please BLOCK THIS MERGER.
—Carol Patton, KENSINGTON, CA

Companies too big! Government does not care about our people!

I'm a TW cable customer and the service leaves much to be desired. Monopolies serve no one but the owners.
—Catherine M. Barnes, New York, NY

This would be a monopoly.
—David Saunders, Oviedo, FL

The proposed merger of the nation's two largest and most powerful cable/internet providers poses a serious threat to our representative-democratic governmental system. This merger must be stopped NOW. Abuses of public information have already been observed, particularly in Comcast's method of centralizing "local" broadcasting.
—Leila Zai, San Diego, CA

We have anti-trust laws! Do your job and block this merger!
—Patricia Hauser, Shorewood, MN

There use to be laws governing how much media control one person or corporation could have in a given area. These laws should probably be revisited instead of giving more control to a single corporation.
—Martin Finkelstein, Chicago, IL

Comcast already has too much power.
—Mr. Steve Smith, Melba, ID

A monopoly is never a good thing
—Gregory T, ,

Comcast promises the world, but delivers poor service, slow connections, and more promises they won't keep. If allowed to buy Time-Warner, Comcast will be able to control our lives as a virtual monopoly on internet access and our news media. This is anti-American and something the Kremlin would do...I will equate Comcast with Vladimir Putin in my mind for the rest of my life.
—Milton Bosch MD, Napa, CA

This proposed merger is antithetical to a robust democracy wherein free speech and alternative perspectives are encouraged. Stop this merger!
—Will Thomas, Auburn, NH

This Monopoly on the national playing board.
—Ginger Souders-Mason, Kentfield, CA

Both company's are the root of evil. High speed internet is becoming a necessity and should be cheaper faster and more reliable neither one delivers that. They only care about the money in there hands. I say remove both from the world. free internet act of 2014 100Mb/s to 100% of the nation
—Zachary Evan Roessler, Zanesville, OH

Comcast already controls too much of what we see and how we see it. This deal goes completely against the spirit of anti-trust laws and the idea of open markets.
—Vance Abeyta, Anchorage, AK

The public access to free choice is already hampered. further restrictions will erode this country
—Mary Louise Wilson, stone ridge, NY

I grew up thinking that America was about preventing monopolistic control.
—Robert Van Wagoner, Haiku, HI

We do not need one company to have that large a percentage of control over our cable and Internet. Please stop this Merger form taking place. Concerned Cable and Internet user.
—O J. Pratt, Erath, LA

This is not in the interest of the general public and should be illegal.
—Lily Johnson, Pahoa, HI

High Speed Internet access in the 21st century is just as much a utility necessity as electricity and running water. Make the current xfinity/Comcast behemoth more accountable for it's customer service and pricing.
—Mark Jared, Eugene, OR

Both companies are terrible - We have Time Warner Cable in ME - cable and Wi-Fi - Comcast is worse - we had them as our cable and Wi-Fi company in FL - they have a monopoly there - our condo association president referred to them as ayatollah Comcast!
—Phyllis Coelho, Belfast, ME

The lack of competition in the telecommunications market is unacceptable. If this merger is approved, then this condition will only be worsened and consumers everywhere will be the ones paying the costs.
—Carl Jensen Payne, Carlsbad, CA

If this merger is approved we will be taking yet another step in dismantalling the pro-consumer anti-trust acts of the late 19th and early 20th centuries. The Sherman, Clayton and FTC Acts were were passed for good reasons and should not be eviscerated at the expense of consumer choice and protection.
—Don Willson-Broyles, Eau Claire, WI

Don't allow monopolies like this to grow any further.
—Chris Kozma, Wappingers Falls, NY

MORE Choice--not less.
—Paul Laswick, Ashland, VA

Not only are these the two largest cable/Internet companies, but they are also two of the LOWEST RATED of such services. Bad plus bad can only equal EVEN MORE BAD. Not only that, but the lack of competition could force bills sky high for families already struggling to stay connected in the most basic sense.
—India La Motte, San Diego, CA

I DO NOT support the merger of Comcast and Time Warner Cable. Please block this from happening. It is not in the best interests of the American consumer.
—Dinah Bahlman, Phoenix, AZ

You have GOT to be kidding me - even CONSIDERING this is a very, VERY bad idea!!!
—Garry M. Doll, Williamsport, PA

The Feds should be breaking up the monopolies, including both media and banks, among others, not allowing further consolidation.
—David B. Chandler, Newark, DE

This is getting ridiculous.
—Jonathan Rogers, Maricopa, AZ

Comcast charges more and more for less and less. Consumers have none to few options. Far worse than Ma Bell, back in the day!
—Mary K. Lund, Minnetonka, MN

The free market presupposes competition. We already have an oligarchy in these markets. Don't make it worse. If you don't understand this comment don't vote; study economics.

—Duane Shadduck, Corning, NY

Don't let them monopolize our market please!
—Jordan Hamilton, Muskegon, MI

Obscenity rules alone should prempt considerations of this consolidation of media power.
—Ryan Colclasure, Galesburg, IL

If the merger is allowed and Internet providers are allowed to give preferential treatment to some content, as proposed by Tom Wheeler of the FCC, Time Warner content will gain an huge advantage. Comcast will control the production, distribution and availability of major amounts of Internet media. This must not be allowed to happen.
—Gerard Albanese, Portland, CT

The size of this megamonster would be bad enough, but Time Warner already rides roughshod over its customers with large, unjustified, rate increases, like the one this month Los Angeles.
—Brian Bland, santa monica, CA

The whole industry profits from competition. Stop this merger!
—Thomas Baldridge, Iowa City, IA

Remember Bell Telephone!
—L D Best, Lebanon, OH

Does money rule this country or do citizens still rule!?
—Scot Owen Nelson, Lubbock, TX

As a Comcast subscriber I oppose this, how can you put together the two worst customer service organizations on the planet?
—ken Halpern, Pompano Beach, FL

Please stop this merger. Don't allow this in the name of public interest as you are allowed to do.
—Colleen Vallo, Tiffin, OH

We need more choices in a free market, not fewer.
—Bryan McCarthy, Willmar, MN

I debated between these two companies when I was picking my ISP. Time Warner Cable has FAR better service than Comcast, and better reviews. Please do not let Comcast ruin a company who has potential.
—William Sean Behunin, Missoula, MT

This merger would be really bad news for the American consumer.
—Mrs. Julie Davis, North Port, FL

The reality of competition in the marketplace produces better goods and services for our country; huge take-overs destroy the incentive to make better services at lower costs. NO.
—Nancy Devine, Mountain View, CA

You loudly opposed and rejected the AT&T/T-mobile merger, what's taking you so long to reject this? Why is the FCC so quiet about this merger?
—Kristie K Boyd, Atlanta, GA

Please don't allow comcast to do such a thing. giving them permission to do this can result in them abusing their power and demanding more money from the people who use their service simply because there is no one else to oppose them.
—Eric Newson, San Jose, CA

Please ensure diversity and competition!
—Daniel Palomino, Buena Park, CA

Do your job and block this merger.
—Robert E. Rodgers III, Morrisville, PA

Stop the murger
—Gary Gould, North Port, FL

I feel that giving any one media outlet this much power is more than a threat to our ability to purchase internet and cable in a marketplace of competitors, but also to our nation and its politics. The internet and television medium is the greatest influence to how Americans perceive the world and our own country. The Internets freedom may very well be at stake with this merger. With not options to go elsewhere Comcast would have the ability to limit bandwidth to certain website or services, or even charge additionally to the service to gain access to it. This to me is completely unacceptable. I hope that congress will see the benefit in having a diverse marketplace for people to enjoy the benefits of the internet. Thank you
—Andrew Erie, Sherman Oaks, CA

Fewer choices are never a good thing.
—Gray Ham, Greensboro, NC

Freedom of Speech will be reduced with media controlled by a handful of companies. This merger must not happen!
—Bradford Lewis, Sparta, NJ

I have enough problems with Comcast's lack of customer service already. Don't make it worse via a merger that eliminates competition and concentrates power.
—Morita C. Bruce, Fallston, MD

we have already lost so much of the independent news and programming that used to be part of pour country , fewer vendors means further loss of voices
—Andrea Cassidy, Berkeley, CA

What happened to competition ? Anti-trust laws ? Are you in Congress really receiving that much in bribe money ? Shame on you ? Term limits !!
—Martin B. Beidleman, Ashburn, VA

This is a monopoly, you understand this, right? If Teddy Roosevelt was here he'd wave a big stick and bust this trust. Be like Teddy!
—Alex Drude, Bend, OR

I have personally experienced the lack of response to customer complaints from this monopolistic company even in its current size. I surrender to the information desert that I will have to live in if they get even larger. Btw, just how much fibre and cable have they pulled to build out and improve their service? I will lay bets on the amount not being enough to justify the discounts and stipends the government gives them.
—Clyde Horn, Seattle, WA

Yes, as you can see by my e-mail address, I am a Comcast customer. I am also a U.S. citizen afraid that this merger will further erode our democracy as well as those reasons cited above.
—Ronald E. Kaufman, Spokane, WA

This merger is horrible for consumers!!
—Susan Donaldson, Honolulu, HI

My recent service provided by a subsidiary that will be part of this merger. Time to cancel mu service. Monopoly? Only if the lobbyists redefine the term. And, they will no doubt spy on we the people. LEAVE MY FEW RIGHTS ALONE!
—Sue Lyon, Ocala, FL

Whatever happened to anti-trust legislation and the understanding that companies such as comcast will jack up prices, discourage competition. The history of AT&T in the 20th century shows the danger of price gouging and more when one company is permitted to dominate a field.
—James Twiford, Beverly Hills, CA

This is absolutely one of the worst ideas ever. If this passes they can jack up the prices as high as they want and force people to have to pay outlandish prices for internet and cable. Totally terrible
—Sarah A Smith, Hondo, TX

TWC went up on my bill last Aug and in Mar, My income level is "extreme." I told TWC to turn off my TV. Then I was given a deal which is less than what I was already paying.
—Deborah Roberts, Winston Salem, NC

It is a horrible deal for the consumer!!!
—Michael OHara, Voorhees, NJ

I am in in a rural area less than 60 miles from NYC but my ONLY CHOICE FOR "HIGH SPEED" internet is Comcast. The High Speed is going to be a "NEGOTIABLE" option just like premium channels. Verizon is not going to run a fiber optic cable to my neighborhood. Don't paint me into a corner with a MONOPOLY!
—Steven Schneider, Brewster, NY

Time Warner Cable alone is a Disaster, but I cannot in good conscience support such greedy corporate expansionism. Please stop this and also repeal Citizens United. My heavenly God this Country has become a nightmare on all levels.
—Charles Grays, Los angeles, CA

comcast sucks
—Janis Wilkey, Chattanooga, TN

You have already allowed Honolulu to become a one newspaper city and allowed the merger of the news rooms of our major TV stations. Unless you have no concept of what it takes to have a democracy or no intention of supporting democracy, you will not permit this merger of Comcast and Time Warner Cable!
—Barbara Polk, Honolulu, HI

We need more choices, not fewer ones. Comcast already provides lousy service without any meaningful competition. Don't make it harder for start ups to compete!
—Stacy Winnick, Seattle, WA

crooks
—Jonathan Martinez, Spokane, WA

This great nation was founded on the principle of competitive capitalism and against monopoly or oli-poly, the power and financial control in the hands of one or just a few entities. Allowing Comcast to buy Time Warner would only exacerbate an already lopsided imbalance of economic and financial and media power in the hands of just a few. What if Comcast if then bought by a foreign power, or a corporation that decides to stifle the free flow of news, information and networking among the citizenry? That would spell permanent disaster for our freedoms. In addition, letting Comcast own Time Warner portends the end of competitive pricing and content, as well as equal Internet speed for all content providers and users. We need MORE competition, not to allow one giant uncaring and greedy corporation control nearly half the United States' Internet and television. Thank you.
—Jun Lee, Los Angeles, CA

I have had both U-verse and Comcast service at my house. I currently am with at&t so Comcast keeps sending me offers to change. Their offer is enticing but I know that once I change that offer was only for a limited time. The same thing goes for the U-verse. There are extra charges added that look like "taxes" so that my bill is more exorbitant all the time. I am old enough to remember when all you had to do was buy a set, put an antenna on your roof, and you could receive a picture. Allene
—Allene Schooler, San Jose, CA

Monopolies are anti-democratic and must be stopped. Comcast and Time-Warner would be the mother of all monopolies.
—Margaret Wilson, Green Bay, WI

The only person this merger will benefit is the CEO who will get the $80 million golden parachute. Consumer Reports rates Comcast's dismal service worse than Time Warner's awful service.
—Sherry Chanslor, Northridge, CA

Time Warner Cable is already too big! They need more competition, not less.
—Deirdre M. Murphy, Milwaukee, WI

we want internet do not Merge
—Pablo Garcia, Visalia, CA

Protect our right to diversity of choice in the market place. Do not allow this merger.
—Roger Brooks, Cumberland, RI

This would be terrible for consumers. Comcast will continue to increase their prices and leave consumers with even fewer choices. Please do not allow this merger to happen.
—Peter J O'leary, Royal Oak, MI

While growing up, I was taught that generally Democracies don't last much over 200 years. So I guess this country is overdue to fail - and cases like this one and today's Supreme Court ruling are just hurrying it up. Average citizens don't count for much and don't even get heard much any more. They'll be heard even less if this merger goes thru.
—Barbara Berry, Iva, SC

I don't want this giant to control our TV. In my opinion, except for PBS and CNN it's mostly trash and I fear more of the same if a giant company controls everything.
—Anna M Cienciala, Lawrence, KS

This much consolidation hurts the average user!
—Alice L Schafer, Acton, MA

This travesty must be stopped. Our rights to free speech are our greatest power. An uninformed populace is a pliable populace - sheep to be led willingly one way or the other by the strong voice of corporate media. This corporate takeover has to be stopped. This is one of the issues we should focus on first.
—Cynthia Ferguson-Morris, Sonoma, CA

Stop the monopolies. End corporate control of our media. No deal!
—Cynthia A. Williams, Proctor, MT

Too big companies mean too little competition
—Stanislaus Stewart, Conyers, GA

This merger will stifle competition.
—Dave Clayman, Clifton Park, NY

The Comcast Time Warner Cable merger would consolidate a major share of our nations TV and Internet service in the hands of one mega corporation. No more competition, no more fair pricing, no more satisfactory customer service. The proposed merger is bad for America and should be blocked.
—Ronald Kalil, Madison, WI

I have Comcast. Two main points: overpriced, dodgy contracts. We have laws on the books preventing interlocking directorates and monopolies / oligopolies! Please disallow this merger, regardless of how much they've already paid you.
—Peter Torcivia, Houston, TX

Comcast has poor service now. It will be even worse if there is no competition.
—Larry L. Wheeler, Peru, IN

What ever happened to outlawing monopolies?This kind of takeover does not bode well for freedom of information.
—Mary I. Buchanan, San Andreas, CA

We need diversity in tellecommunications, not a monopoly.
—Jessie Vosti, Ranchos de Taos, NM

It seems to me as a middle class American that a handful of the rich and powerful are usurping all the power, and the laws, and now even the ownership of the majority of the media landscape! WE MUST STOP THIS, AS EVEN THE POWER OF THE PRESS/MEDIA WILL BE IN THE HANDS OF A GREEDY, POWERFUL ELITIST FEW!!
—Kevin D. Ogborn, MESA, AZ

Congress, even though most of you are owned by your donors, totally corrupt, and incapable of actually acting in anyone's best interest but your own, please, act and vote to reject this proposed merger. This merger will serve no one except the very rich. Act on your own, reject this merger.
—Bill McSwain, West Sacramento, CA

Less choices, and less diversity is never better
—Andy Topete, San Bernardino, CA

This would give to much power to one business that serves many small communities making it difficult for most middle income families to afford even basic service.
—Lisa Morin, Hondo, TX

We all have to share everything because there is only so much to go around, but there is enough for everyone; and everyone gets some because it was given to all of us by unseen forces of good that see us all as equally lovable and good and deserving, regardless of income, or education, or skin color, or ability. So come on, Comcast, listen to us when we say, you have more than your share already, now let us all have what is ours. Make sense? Did your mother not teach you to share?
—Sharon J. Rohrbach, Nevada City, CA

Absolutely ridiculous. We need more options and outlets for content, not have fewer and fewer gatekeepers.
—Jacob Miller, Madison, WI

No Monopoly is ever ok!
—Sarah Johanna Floyd, Knoxville, TN

Comcast is a ripoff.
—Colette Walczak, Santa Monica, CA

It's past time to reverse the trend of media consolidation.
—Beau Brueggemann, St Paul, MN

We used to have laws against this for good reason!!
—Haddie Hadachek, Brainerd, MN

Stop monopolies. Stop this merger.
—Donald Gurney, Arlington, VA

Comcast needs to stick to the knitting they already have as they cannot handle it properly. I have a Comcast bundle and have quite a bit of trouble with phone and computer. Most of the time I don't even bother because they don't have the training to fix it. Also, they are way over priced.
—Joan Bykonen, Lacey, WA

Comcast has been voted the country's most hated company on several years, and aside from franchise agreements granting them exclusive markets probably wouldn't have any customers left. Don't put more market power in the hands of a company that exists only by abusing it.
—Daniel Allen, Silver Spring, MD

WHAT THE HELL IS WRONG WITH ALL OF YOU? I'M GLAD I WON'T BE IN YOUR SHOES WHEN IT IS TIME TO MEET WITH GOD.
—Karen Hartman, Kirkland, WA

Please keep competition alive. No monopolies please.
—James Burney, Saltillo, MS

Freedom of press includes the means of transmission.
—Charles Hinrichs, Springfield, IL

Simply put, a multi-media empire like this is dangerous on so many levels that it should literally scare everyone... even a stock owner who would benefit from it!
—Greg Quetel, Barre, VT

The dribble we get on the media is bad enough. Now there will be even less choice for consumers if Comcast takes over Time Warner.
—Crystal Griffin, Crescent City, CA

STOP Comcast!!!!
—Alexie Jongco, Chula Vista, CA

I am a Comcast subscriber who endures by holding my nose when paying a convoluted bill. I am determined to bow out if this merger happens. Customers don't matter. Only $$$$ do.
—Mary & Rev. Robert Reader, Warwick, NY

They who control the media control the info, the spin, the content and the country. This merger makes for a compaany too big for democracy to tolerate. Please do not allow it.
—Barbara van Noord, Amherst, MA

Unless we're trying to make a monopoly of the cable business, this is just crazy. Bigger is not better.
—James Reitz, Olympia, WA

The internet provider monopoly is damaging because the internet is a utility that we depend on for essentials like jobs notices and work. The practice of monopolistic ISPs gouging us to pay for cable TV that we may not want should be outlawed, not assisted. This merger will represent a low point in protection of the consumer.
—John Broglio, Florence, MA

We need more, and better, competition - not less!
—Kathy Fannin, Phoenix, AZ

Whatever happened to "Competition"?
—Raymond DeForge, Scappoose, OR

This amounts to a monopoly. I thought that was illegal!
—Wendy Wharton, Vashon, WA

A free and independent media is the cornerstone of democracy. Don't allow this media consolidation to continue!
—Russ and Diane Hullet, Boulder, CO

We cannot allow this to occur or this becomes a monopoly.
—Helene Mertz, Houston, TX

Monopolies are bad. Monopolies in the media are worse. A democracy requires access to all opinions. We need to prevent monopolization of the media.
—Susan McRae, Olympia, WA

No matter which "side" of the table you are on, this deal is dangerous for public education and free speech - not to mention capitalism (no competition for advertising revenue means high costs) and "free market" proponents (no free market in a monopoly). This deal is awful - and dangerous. Please stop it now.
—Dorothy Mejia, Arlington, TX

JUST SAY "NO!" TO THE MERGER!
—Gretchen Leavitt, San Jose, CA

This creates a near monopoly. No longer will we have free access to on-line content. Prices will go where the greedy baby birds who are stock holders want the prices to go. These services will begin to creep up such that very many will loose access to vital services that can be accessed on line. Cable TV will also likely creep up so that many will no longer be able to afford this service. Here's the short of it: CUT IT OUT!
—Kathi Worthington, Chicago, IL

How can this not be considered a monopoly, and one not in the best interests of its customers (who will have no other option besides this behemoth) or our country's elected representatives, who will feel the pressure to cave in to the lobbyists for such a large and powerful company. It's a bad idea and everyone knows it. Stop the merger.
—Jamie Hill, Harahan, LA

Stop the monopoly.
—Brian Sloan, Phoenix, AZ

To close to being a monopoly! We need MORE diversity, MORE choices and MORE sources!
—David Yates, Powell, WY

The FCC and the Justice Dept. should already know how horrible this kind of merger is, but from their inaction in the past, I would guess that corruption prevents them from doing anything about it. This country has been consumed by companies that are "too big to fail", and too big to be denied anything they want. We're already their wage slaves, and our information is limited to what they want to spin. It's only a formality for them not to admit it outright.
—Verna Aldrich, Los Angeles, CA

This merger is a very bad deal for all internet or cable TV users - way to much power and no effective competition. SAY NO!
—Edward E Syrett, Menlo Park, CA

I recall when the FCC broke up the AT&T conglomerate years ago and prevented the AT&T /TMobile merger a few years ago. So why would FCC commissioners create another conglomerate by approving the Comcast/Time Warner merger? I think doing this would be "anti-consumer and anti-American!" I urge you to vote on the side of "the people"!
—Ms. Robbie Smith, Chicago, IL

Companies like these are the reason we are trailing the rest of the world in the number of people connected to the internet and the speeds that we connect to the internet with. DO NOT LET THEM SCREW US PLEASE.
—John Ross, Middlesboro, KY

Monopoly's are unlawful and un-Amarican.
—Adrian Maldonado, Aurora, CO

No one company should own it all... Where's the competition in that?
—Collien Kaseberg, Salem, OR

The collusion and extreme lack of competition is already bad enough when it comes to cable/internet service providers. It's long past time you folks in government stop rolling over for big business.
—Chuck Hamilton, Albany, NY

We need competition, not giant companies who control everything.
—Jonny Dailey, New Britain, CT

Please lock the proposed merger of Time Warner and Comcast. Its not in the consumer's interest.
—Mark Benson, Chester, MD

Berlusconi 101 Time Warner and Comcast sort of remind us old time network engineers, of the whole Bell telephone conglomerate issue of the 1960s, one provider controlling too much infrastructure in a sovereign (sigh) nation. Controlling information is pretty much the most powerful aphrodisiac on the planet. Generally speaking how you perceive and react to information are very important tools and control mechanisms. Now let's take a look at the tools available to sway opinion in a supposedly free society, today. Web based service providers generate revenue by providing selection lists to consumers. These Web based service providers for example Google / Yahoo / Facebook and the list is endless, and very competitive are business. Their consumers in this example are your everyday Web user looking for information and businesses trying to sell things to customers. Web users go there for news it its many varied forms. That is of course if you even care about anything besides anything else but your Facebook and virtual friends? Television used to be pretty important and still is a well consumed product. Opinions and social habits are formed from interactions in these mediums more and more. I could be getting some avid readers out there saying "No that isn't Me."; however these mediums show us how to show adaptability and that is a good trait, and we emulate people that impress us. A school teacher, a good businessman, a politician, maybe even a holy man are worth emulating. Growing up with TV and Internet connectivity has definitely formed traits in my character, both good and bad. Let's try an exercise in the world of important things. Here is a good question that was asked over and over in a society not dissimilar from the 50 States of America. How will I vote today? What has influence over important things? Berlusconi pretty much sewed up the media services in Italy. I am sure for extremely ultraistic reasons. However absolute power appears to have corrupted him. Berlusconi was one of the first noticeable celebrities to capture political capital through a media source. People really voted by what the media was presenting as the right reasons to vote. It wasn't a good choice of leadership in hind sight; however extremely popular. Berlusconi was a real social media event. Not only do large networks deliver information, they also decide what priority and whether it is important enough to linger around long enough for a lot of people have the opportunity to view it. A well-built news feed is only good if it gets viewed. Looking into the guts of content delivery makes you more and more aware that infrastructure caches information seen by consumers. Today, as seen above consumers come in to different flavors. One flavor is the Web users being presented the information and another flavor are those companies that are buying the bandwidth necessary to deliver a message to consume a product. Internet or Television users pay for Cable TV or Internet access, and then get all sorts of advertisements across the paid for service bought by the highest Company bidder. If you are providing access and selling access then that is a classic conflict of interest. This is crux of the matter in a Time Warner / Comcast merger. A number of companies paying the deliverer of the service to deliver content on your paid for subscription are controlling access to information in unobvious ways. Selling Internet / Television user's paid for access to a network to the highest company trying to sell a product bidder is conflicting. Another way to view this opportunity is called leveraging an existing market. This is generally what is happening at the great feed trough of information in the 50 States of America. Remaining fast agile and competitive in today's business market is critical to the 50 States of America. Having a purely service orientated provider, also tinkering in selling advertisement on the medium it provides is dangerous to their business model. Welcome to the wonderful world of service aggregation. The whole one stop shop for services is presented by data delivery and data acquisition in the same business model. It didn't work for Bell Telephone. Comcast mergers are more dangerous. The whole IP network design was to allow survivability and assured delivery. The allowance of this merger is irresponsible and not a morally correct decision. It seems opinions are nothing more than a series of questions that are answered by available information.
—Daniel J Armstrong, APO, AE

It would be a monopoly that we people could not afford.
—Jayna Armstrong, Manitou Springs, CO

Not only is this monopoly-creating merger unconsciousable, what will it do to service, which is lousy aleady? The last time I had a problem with Comcast, it took THREE (3) phone calls to resolve it. Becoming a larger entity will NOT help. NO TO THIS MERGER!!!!!!
—Judith M Klockzim, Lafayette, IN

This merger will harm me and those individual small cable users like me! Do your job. Protect my access to TV programming and internet access with reasonable speeds at reasonable cost!
—Diane Verhoest, San Antonio, FL

This will come very close to a monopoly. With Net Neutrality already lost, this would take us one step closer to the everyman's loss of free speech on the internet.
—Ivan Potter-Smith, Winston Salem, NC

It already offers the worst service I've ever experienced and the price keeps going up. A dreadful company now. Give them more money and power and they can unite with the Koch brothers to finish destroying Democracy.
—Ann deLorge, Augusta, GA

Please don't allow this to take place. BLOCK this merger.

Monopolies are a bad idea. Don't let Comcast create one.

—Mark Katz, Arnold, MD

Didn't we go through this exact same problem in the 80's? I think we did! Maybe we should do our future selves a favor and not repeat bad history by allowing such a merger to go through.
—Edmund Dubois, Tyngsboro, MA

This Monopoly game is way out of control already... do the right thing for once...flip the board!

I implore you, do not let the short term possibilities blind you to long term disaster. Above all remember, your first duty is to the people of America, all of them.
—Patrick Cole, Lansing, MI

Comcast is a terrible company that way over charges for what they offer. Please don't let them merge because we will really be at their mercy.
—Carson J Heldmann Jr, Catonsville, MD

We need MORE competition, not less. What happened to the Sherman Anti-trust law?
—Mrs. Roberta M Green, Gurnee, IL

Time Warner customer - definitely against! Particularly in light of 'un-Supreme Court yesterday re political contributions.
—Nancy K Schneider, Palm Desert, CA

Let us keep prices stable and maintain an open internet.
—Drew Sunderman, Oceanside, CA

Please block now. Breaking up the monopoly later will be costly and ugly. They each have too much clobber already.
—James J Burnham, Winston Salem, NC

I'm on a fixed income and my cable bill is becoming unaffordable. Do not allow the Comcast - Time Warner merger. It will give one company more pricing power. I may have to cancel my cable and internet if prices don't stop skyrocketing. Prices are rising much more than the inflation rate. Please STOP this merger.
—Floyd Minana, San Mateo, CA

Media monopoly is wrong and not good for a society that wants to maintain its democracy.

Worse than disaster, monopolistic pricing and extremely filtered content. No, this is not in America's best interest.

—Ty Beh, Rio Rancho, NM

Why did we break up "Ma Bell"???
—Mrs. Kirk Fuss, Lakewood, CO

The Internet situation in the US already lags behind many developed nations, and a major factor is the remonopolization of the sector which has eliminated any incentives for companies to improve service or reduce cost to the end user. In fact, in many places the opposite has happened -- service has become worse and/or prices have gone up -- but nobody can complain because in most places, they have only one choice. This is unacceptable. The Internet is a vital part of modern commerce and communication. Failing to stop this merger will put the nail in the coffin of any goodwill and trust the FCC, Department of Justice AND either of these companies had. Plus, with Internet service continuing to degrade under these hegemonies, we will be outcompeted by other developed nations. Catch up to the rest of the world and treat the internet like the UTILITY that it has become in the 21st century, and not as a "service" or a luxury.
—Louis S Ramirez, Chicago, IL

This is why we have antitrust legislation, I mean, I can't think of what it would apply to if it didn't apply to this.

Whatever happened to our antitrust laws? It there ever was a monopoly, this would be it. Don't let it happen!
—Jan and larry J. Slobin, Portland, OR

We must maintain our laws regarding prevention of monopolies. This would be one -- a big one! Congress broke up AT&T and now would allow another AT&T to form -- without ANY Congressional oversight? Wrong!
—Karen Gleeson, Northport, ME

They need to be broken up not merged together. This country is going crazy and it is time to vote out the incumbents who are no longer looking out for the people.
—Preston Uhland, Gibbstown, NJ

I hate comcast, worst customer service ever
—Kelsey Barney, Ogden, UT

My bill goes up every month for LESS SERVICE and now NO STATIONS with Basic TV. If my bill goes over $50 a month I will have to let it go. No jobs, and I REFUSE to be a welfare leech, I cannot afford all these ridiculous charges. I've been a customer for 25 years and for them to take away ALL the channels I had ALL those years and RAISE the rates, we can't afford to give them MORE power-NO, NO, NO!!!!
—Ms. Leslie G, Pennsauken, NJ

We've had nothing but problems with Comcast constantly raising their cable 'bundles.' It's an absolute joke. This corporation is already screwing the public and it's just going to get worse. How about letting us choose what channels we want and charging accordingly!? "But oh no, then we can't price gouge the consumer." This company is already dark, it's time to cancel your cable and hit them where it hurts!
—Jennifer Scholte, Mather, CA

We should be Trust Busting the Existing Monopolies, not exacerbating the, already outrageous, problem.
—Tom Dorsey, santa margarita, CA

Too big to fail stomps out competition. Mega corporations act as if they are a monopoly. This is not capitalism and is certainly not democracy.
—Steven Willhite, Fort Worth, TX

Enough you broke up ma bell
—Glenn Schweikart, Reading, PA

My biggest concern is that in the absence of internet neutrality, this combined behemoth would be free to cripple online streaming video from sites and services they do not own.

Holden Caufield takes action
—Holden Caufield, Ann Arbor, MI

I have now dealt with Comcast for many years. Comcast is distinguished by having the sorriest record of all in terms of service to its paying customers, ability to shove off service tasks on its customers instead of dealing with problems they have with their own equipment, inability to deal in any satisfactory way with problems, and its lousy customer service and even lousier business practices. Anyone who believes they should grow their business in any way has to be more than a little delusional.
—Ted Steege, Olympia, WA

Comcast has also repeatedly wronged the public consumer by pushing their problems I. Them and not honoring agreements
—David Magnuson, Barrington, IL

There is such a thing as too big to fail and we are suffering that situation to this very day after the 2008 economy fiasco and it seems the government and the market have learned nothing. DO NOT LET THIS DEAL GO THROUGH!
—Chris Hernandez, UNION CITY, IN Whose Pockets are YOU IN ? Be Ashamed !

—Barbara Wyatt, Fort Lauderdale, FL

Near-monopolies are never a good deal for consumers. This will only lead to higher bills and less choice for us.
—Dale Blankenship, Chandler, AZ

FYI, I was considering switching to TWC, but decided even before the proposed merger that there is not savings from my current satellite subscription. With a merger, it will get even more expansive.
—Jane S Permaul, PACIFIC PALISDAES, CA

Such a BAD Idea!!!!!!!!
—Patty Blankenship, Chandler, AZ

Comcast already provides substandard service coupled with high prices and slow broadband speeds; just think what they'd do after gobbling up the nation's #2 provider!!
—Mark Sprunger, Bloomington, IN

Even if individual consumers cannot choose between these, there needs to be competition at the city level so that bad service can lead to a city changing carriers, and to hold down market power that suppresses innovation.
—Matthew Filler, Seal Beach, CA

If gone unchecked this could turn out to be a monopoly
—Noah, Gladwyne, PA

We do not want or need corporate government and this kind of media control shifts power from government by with and for the people, to government through control of information by megacorporations.
—Sara Salyers, Caryville, TN

Stop supporting the creation of monopolies!!!!!!!!!!PLEASE.
—Timothy J. Seniff, warren, VT

Please prevent this disaster.
—Jacqueline Olsen, Kingston, NY

I believe this merger will also be detrimental for broadband internet access, in that Comcast+Time Warner will have direct control over the pipeline into homes, leading to stringent data caps in the name of profits, lack of competition and higher access costs.
—Leigh Evans, Mount Olive, MS

I know firsthand the shoddy service provided by Comcast. They have become so big that they apparently don't even feign concern for customer problems. No, they have shown to me how they have managed their huge customer base--they ignore us. And, more insulting, they refer customers to "techs" in Manila who read meaningless niceties from a binder in incredibly broken English. You got me Comcast! But I will tell everyone I know about your insulting customer "service" and will support any and all initiatives (like this) to keep you small enough to be held accountable in this competitive marketplace.
—Dr. Jeff Condit Ph.D., Murfreesboro, TN

JUST STOP
—Moyce, Lawrence, MA

Please abide by the anti-trust rules and stop the monopolization of something so important to us Americans. -- (All I have is an old television set w/converter and have never been able to afford cable). Thank you and God bless.

Current rates are obscene. Please do what you can to stop the Comcast TWC merger. (I feel like we are in a time warp - let's make some progress and not just make a few rich people more rich). Do the right thing!
—John Mader, Lincoln, NE

It is clear that this is a monopolistic deal. I have already lost faith in the FCC for even entertaining this. If they were to approve the merger it will make it clear to me that the FCC; wearing the mask of the protector is actually a threat to the free American public and I would have lost not just faith in the FCC but America all together. I remember growing up hearing about this country as a land of opportunity but now i see and hear measures to secure freedoms for the rich and connected at the expense of the deceived public. With a Comcast Time Warner merger would come a loss of freedom of the press of free speech of education and privacy. It would come with a complete loss of faith in the U.S for me and many others.
—Derrick Raphael, Brooklyn, NY

No - that's all I have to say. We need to put a stop to the unlimited growth of companies - they will get so large that the government will say they are too large to fail - sounds familiar.
—Allan Brief, Livingston, NJ

Please enforce ou nation's anti-trust laws and stop this take-over.
—Gaynelle Bloh, Blandon, PA

This letter is not so much for the FCC and Justice Department since it can be argued that these department work under the laws and regulation implemented by Comcast, and Time Warner Cable, and have little to no control over these governing bodies. This letter is mainly for the CEO's of Comcast, and Time Warner Cable in a plead to do what is right for what should be a public utility like libraries. It is in the companies best interest in the long run (even though long term investment is a dated concept) to invest in what is best for the public, so the public can be informed and prosper. I am sure this is falling on deaf ears, since the content you have provided over the years is targeted at dumbing down the public for profit. This letter will not earn me any points with your company (if read at all) but it Saturday I'm having coffee and I have the time to journal.
—Matt Gosselin, Worcester, VT

—Jean and Jack Hodges, Campobello, SC

The ever-climbing costs for cable and internet are obscene! WERE ARE THE MONOPOLY RULES & REGULATIONS ENFORCEMENT IN PROTECTING USERS!!!??? We citizens should not have to band together to prevent the bigger corps from getting bigger! STOP THIS MERGER!!!
—Linda N. Hutchinson, Austin, TX

It is outrageous that our utilities are only through one server. Don't let this monopoly take us over as well.
—Chris Schaffner, Albany, NY

Any claim that this merger will be good for consumers is simply wrong. What we need is more competition in all markets, while what we now have in most markets is a monopoly. Should this merger take place we'll simply have a nation-wide monopoly. It will not be sufficient for one or both companies to sell off some (very little) of their current business in the name of making things fair. Stop this before it goes any further.
—Markus Alexander, Gainesville, FL

A monopoly is never good. Which is exactly what this will be.
—Geraldine Nassen, St. Louis Park, MN

If we allow Comcast to have basically a monopoly on cable and internet, then what was the point years ago breaking up the Bell Telephone monopoly? When we allow one company to control at least 50% of the market share of a service or product, then that unfairly attacks not only other businesses but also the citizens' right to choose what services or products they want and from whom. Please stop this take-over - we've seen way too many hostile take-overs such as this one lately and we must stop this one.
—Martha Cifuentes, Lakewood, WA

How about we take away their motivation to merge? http://www.credomobilize.com/p etitions/a-glass-steagall-for- broadband Comcast is worst monopoly in internet & cable TV already. All cities, locals should have at least 2 equal competitive providers.

ANTITRUST ANTITRUST ANTITRUST ANTITRUST! ARE YOU REPRESENTING THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES OR HAVE YOU BEEN BOUGHT AND PAID FOR BY COMCAST?
—Marian Bobyak, Haddon Twp., NJ

Please take all necessary steps to block this merger.
—Brian Holt, Lake Jackson, TX

Don’t forget, Comcast already owns NBC, MSNBC, Universal Studios and tons of cable networks. Plus, 40% of Broadband in the country. Putting this much power in the hands of one company is dangerous. This deal would lead to less consumer choice, less diversity and much higher cable bills.
—Robert J. Conlan, Wahiawa, HI

Dear congress, It is up to you to stop the Revolution which may not be pretty because you did not do your job. Namely, drowning out the voice of the people by caving into the demands of the one percent. Do the right thing and stop corporate media from merging any further. The best antidote to corruption, abuse and war is revealing the Truth. This can not happen when the criminals are holding the keys to information.
—Tom Abeln, St.Louis, MO

This merger will only hurt the consumer and make this monopoly even bigger.
—William Horn, Westfield, NY

Prevent this dangerous monopoly!

Please don't let yourself be swayed by big business money ... do something right for the American people!
—Gregory Balser, Evansville, WY

If this goes through the #1 and #2 cable providers with the worst customer service will grow even stronger and give consumers even worse service. This will not be good for the consumer, please stop this.
—Jonathan Schaeffer, State College, PA rewarding comcast with a monopoly is a horrible deal for consumers-- block this merger. antitrust laws are supposed to protect us.

—Lynn Kowalewski, Brooklyn, NY

As a nation, we are already behind the rest of the industrialized world in bandwidth and lower cost of access for every U.S. citizen. We already have too few competitors in this market. Comcast has had the long term since the 1970s. Allowing this merger will show that Congress continues to endorse the oligarchical reign of particular industries and individuals. Stop the merger now!

They've already gouged Netflix and they're trying to get money from everyone and block content for the end user, even though they're not supposed to!
—Murali Nagulakonda, Gaithersburg, MD

I don't think it's right that a company could have such control over how much of the (now free) internet we could use and be able to charge us extra money if we go over a certain limit !!!
—Patricia Lynn, Springfield, MA

Allowing this merger to happen will cripple the economy even further than it has been already!
—Fenton Phan, York, NE

Don't let this happen
—Morris Dale, Bloomington, IL

This is an incredibly anti-consumer merger that puts America's ability to compete and grow at great risk. Not only should Comcast's merger be denied, but pressure should be put on them to actually build the infrastructure that the American Government has already helped pay for, but which they refuse to build. The FCC and Federal Government should also hold Comcast accountable for predatory and anti-consumer policies including bundling equipment costs with service fees and throttling broadband speeds for platforms websites that do not pay them for the privilege. This Company is a glorified racket, and it's embarrassing to the FCC as a regulatory body that this is even being considered. Shame on you if you allow this to move forward.
—Benjamin Swanson, San Francisco, CA

Remember how Pa Bell turned out.
—Maxwell Johnson, Fresno, CA

It is impossible for the everyday American citizen to participate in the global economy without open access to the internet. Protect innovation, access to information, and freedom of access, please do not approve this merger.
—Jaap Tuinman, Half Moon Bay, CA

Stop the merger. I only have Comcast as an option where I live and they are horrible, both in customer service and in broadband speeds and pricing. Justice Roberts has given enough away to corporate lobbies this past month, so let's put an end to this right here. It's the American thing to do. :)
—Kevin Crouse, San Francisco, CA

Lack of choice = diminished democracy.
—Mark Smith, San Francisco, CA

i think enough has been said. do not allow this!
—Alex Benavides, San Francisco, CA

I have had Comcast Cable and Time Warner Cable Service. Both are poor compared to AT&T or WOW. Please don't give us less choice.
—David Doak, Westlake, OH

If you can not stop the merger, force them to offer fair priced Al Carte channel choices.
—Adam, Harrington, DE

I understand that ISPs are businesses that deserve to make a profit, but this conglomeration reduces competition and increases control over access, which is very much counter to the well-being and idealistic nature and promise of the internet.
—Jon C. Horton, SARASOTA, FL

Please stop the rich from taking over our T.V. and Internet.
—Rita Morris, Landrum, SC

This is sickening and prices are out of control. To witness this merger happen would cause us to witness something Un-American and against a competitive market which helps this country flourish.
—Patrick McCue, Milford, OH

I oppose the time warner-Comcast merger because it gives too much control to the cable company and none to the consumer!! I'm sick and tired of overpaying for programming and regulation of my internet connection speed!!
—Mark Rascon, Chula Vista, CA

TimeWarner is out of control as it is.
—Christian Ventor, Sherman Oaks, CA

—Kyle Howell, Redford, MI

Stop the merger now!
—Ryan Cuttino, Columbia, SC

Allowing this merger would be anti-competitive and unproductive for US and the public's interests. Comcast's ownership of both programming and distribution threatens the media environment already and allowing it to merger with TWC would only further raise prices, prohibit upstart competition and hurt consumer choice.
—Kyle Wrather, Ridgeland, MS

No Monopoly please
—Austin Hunt, San Francisco, CA

I definitely against this merger. As consumers we pay way to much for the 3 services. This merger would I think raise the prices ever more.
—Lino Morales, Albemarle, NC

The cable companies do NOT compete today. They are the only wireline service in many areas. This will NOT benefit the public. Comcast wields too much power today in content negotiations, prices have risen faster than inflation, and now they want to be the only provider of cable and internet in even MORE markets? Unacceptable. Regulate them as neutral dumb pipes and let content be king.
—Dave Paules, Wilmington, DE

This is worse than the airline monopoly. This jeopardizes any potential for a free market in our primary artery for interaction!
—Aundrea Malone, Duluth, GA

If the U.S. Government approves this merger, it will be obvious for all to see that the antitrust laws are a dead letter. Do your job. Enforce the law.
—Anne O'Berry, Hobe Sound, FL

To whom it may concern: to hear Comcast argue that it would have meaningful competition is patently absurd. How do I know? I've been trying to get my municipality to offer additional choices for broadband to no avail. I spend a significant portion of my days (and nights) working online and Comcast stifles ALL COMPETITION in my area. I believe that if the FCC accepts this merger on the basis of Comcast's weak arguments then we may as well eliminate all antitrust laws and go back to the roaring 20's. I, for one, am against this.
—Peter Salvitti, Peabody, MA

Think back to Comcast's seat-stuffing shenanigans at a publich meeting here in Boston. I would never trust they peopl;e ever again. Don't approve this merger!!!!
—Kenton Rhoades, arlington, MA

"Trust Me" doesn't work any more. A monopoly benefits only a Monopoly.
—Dean Richmond Richmond, Waldport, OR

You should be dismantling Comcast and Time Warner, not allowing them to join forces to screw their customer even more than they already do. This is an unthinkable merger. Do your job and uphold the rights of the PEOPLE, not greedy evil corporations who only want to rape us.
—Elaine Van Gunst, Long Valley, NJ

Do not allow the time Warner/Comcast merger. Stop corporate domination which stifles competition. We are not to sacrifice our country to reckless greed and profiteering!
—Michael J Connors, JBER, AK

Cable and internet needs more competition, not less. Having one giant company will not serve the needs of the people or the nation. Block this merger!
—Robert P Zanardelli, Erie, MI

Comcast's service and channel selection are the worst. Their costs are outrageous. Do not allow this merger to take place.

As a customer of Time-Warner, which has a cable monopoly in my town, I see no upside to a merger with Comcast. We need more competition in this area, not less. The monthly cost for even basic electronic communications and entertainment, including internet access, is far more than many families are able to spend on groceries per month.
—Alphonse Pare, Wells, ME

If you allow this to take place, even more people will wake up to the duplicity of US government.
—Joan Diener, Silver City, NM

I used to be a Comcast customer until they featured porn during a Super Bowl game in Tucson and could never find the culprit. They have high prices, low service and when there is lightning forget it. I went to Direct TV which is fantastic. They are just pulling the wool over your eyes with their so called rhetoric. It is all about the huge profits for them. Don't bite!
—Lawrence Quilici, Tucson, AZ

Yes, please stop this merger. Make all networks a la carte. I would pay content creators directly to stream their content (also adding incentive for them to create quality content).
—Kevin Johnson, Charlotte, NC

Their service is already horrible. To allow them to expand and gobble up more of this country's infrastructure would be a travesty to Internet openness and competition. I could not think of a worst company to take over Time Warner. They frequently rank as one of the worst rated companies in the nation, why would we give them more power and control over our Internet and televisions?
—Dave Murphy, Live Oak, CA

Comcast not only throttles thier customers, they reduce the amount of content that they make available. If you got to Hulu and try to watch the show on Syfy which is owned by NBC who is owned by Comcast they will lock the shows and only allow cable subscribers, even thought they advertise on these networks and they are also suppose to make their content available. Comcast cannot be trusted with net neutrality that they where suppose to abide by til 2018 due to the Comcast NBC merger. Comcast has throttled Netflix and cannot be trusted.
—Shawn Cochran, Layton, UT

Comcast already delivers terrible service, why give them more latitude?
—Ms. Amy Martin, Nashville, TN

Fewer choices = Less American Democracy
—Mr. Richard Heckler, Lawrence, KS

My cable expenses are already outrageous. Also, TWC (who I presently have) has one of the worst customer services I have ever experienced. Comcast will only worsen the matter.
—Joel Barber, Charlotte, NC

The left and right agree, this merger is bad for business, bad for consumers, and bad for democracy.
—Ryan Kluthe, Albuquerque, NM

This will limit competition and someone will have tp pay for all the "goldenchutes".....that will be us. And what do we get for it? Even poorer service, it that is possible!
—JP Johnson, Louisville, KY

This would be unlawful and would complete their monopoly of the cable industry! Their customer service IS deplorable, and Comcast are crooks. They do not honor the advertised price of the services that are posted online, and will lie to you that they do not even exist, until you threaten that you want your entire service severed. Then, they will admit that they do, in fact, have them. They are absolutely terrible, and this merger will only make them worse!
—Christy Frazier, jacksonville, FL

If it is bad for the american people but good for big business "our" governement will certainly let it happen.
—Matt Norris, Grosse Pointe, MI

We have cable service from Comcast and find their customer services virtually impossible to reach. When we call about a service interruption, for instance, we get an operator in the Phillipines whom we can barely undertand and who has no ability to solve the problem.
—RN Esther Blau, Mill Valley, CA

To whom it my concern, Good day to you and a blessed day to your family... We are pleading and begging for you to STOP the merger! We have Time Warner now with NO bandwidth cap and NO contract and utilizing their fastest internet speed of 50Mbps with Digital phone for ONLY $75/ month (that includes all taxes & fees)... If COMCAST will buy Time Warner ALL those services will be going to the sewer, how we know? We had Comcast when we are in Houston, Texas and they have bandwidth cap and you to be on contract to get better pricing and MOST of the time, we have problems in their service. NOW, here in Austin, Texas, we are getting the best service of Time Warner with great pricing... For the last time, STOP this merger and tell Time Warner that they can still wage a war versus the competition for years to come... Thanks in advance & GOD bless
—Cliff, Austin, TX

—Alfredo Granado, Louisville, KY

Internet service providers have lower operating costs due to initial infrastructure investment being well paid off. They have come up with false pretenses to charge more, such as 'if you only subscribe to one of our services, you will be penalized with a monthly fine'. Heavy restriction of access has become a serious problem; slower speeds are given for higher prices than ever before, as well as evidence of arbitrary or retaliatory cutting of bandwidth.
—Alex, Weed, CA

Americans need choices, competition in the increasingly basic need for Internet and cable service.
—Lynne Kane, Chapel Hill, NC

This merger will be another way to suppress the american consumers, it is very obvious Comcast has the blessing of the Obama white house and they will utilize their technology to assist the NSA on their domestic spying program. Was this merger funded with goverment loans??? And if it is, who is behind it to benefit the most.....
—Aquiles Aranda, Daly City, CA

I oppose the merger of Comcast and Time Warner. It will hurt consumers and harm competition.
—Stacey Jones, New York, NY

Nothing good will come from this merger. This merger not only needs to be blocked but both of these mega ISPs need to be broken into a dozen smaller companies that must compete in their local areas.
—Steve Kellener, Sherman Oaks, CA

This merger would be bad for competition and bad for consumers.
—TK Odom, Midland, TX

I have contacted the fcc to complain about Comcast. My service is lousy, had to call almost everyday to get our line fix, never had they offered to give me a discount so this last time (LAST WEEK) told then I wanted them to change my bill because was not able to use computer, or tv, plus I had no phone. They have told me that they were going to give me a master card for $200.00 since I was on a bundle, still have not receive it, but rest assure I will call then every day if I have to. I hate Comcast, had a supervisor come to my home because the FCC contacted then about my complain, still some station cannot watch because of tilling real bad. Had my dvr box change and now they want me to go to their new boxes.(of course more money) paying well over $200 a month for lousy service. Let them buy Time warner, road runner has a broken leg they are just as bad. I say NO NO NO NO to all mergers with Comcast. Thank you for letting me vent. Celina Davis
—Celina Davis, Lake City, FL

Do not let this happen.....huge monopoly!
—Larry Kevin Emerson, Snellville, GA

I'm upset that this kind of obvious monopoly attempt is being made and isn't being criticized as much as it should, even legally it should be. Comcast and TWC need to stay separate, stay different, and uphold this whole system of capitalism without going into power=extreme market dominance. Not to mention this isn't want people want, as is obvious, so the question is, why aren't our services that we get to chose what we want? Because we get so little choice when something like this happens.
—Lance Yeager, Georgetown, KY

I'm a Time Warner Cable subscriber. I have no other broadband company available to me. I do not subscribe to the TV service because of the lack of content. If Comcast and Time Warner want to merge, they could increase the happiness of their current customer base by providing better service and product offerings to show they really care about their customers. I for believe they don't.

It is another attempt to usurp the free press of communications and is headed the way of most of human rights as Habeas corpus, The Commons, First to those that advocate against the people and their sharing of the commons seem to think that not only our thinking but all aspects of our lives should be done for us by rule of private for profit corporations. The Commons Domestically, recent Supreme Court rulings greatly enhance the already enormous political power of corporations and the super-rich, striking further blows against the tottering relics of functioning political democracy. Corporatist who have the politicians by a strangle hold by either bankrolling their elections (not to mention their bank accounts) or just shear intimidation of their current strangle hold on the commons…and the list goes on All those battling this should order & read "Deer Hunting with Jesus" (Dispatches from America's class war) by Joe Bageant. I'm against this merger between Comcast and Time Warner, it will eliminate competetion, higher prices for comsumers and give Comcast a monopoly on cable services.
—Kenneth Adams, Radcliff, KY

This merger will harm consumers and other businesses. Access to fast affordable IP communications is critical to maintaining economic competitiveness. Furthermore, this merger raises significant antitrust concerns. I hope the merger will be blocked.

This merger has nothing to do with providing better services. This Merger will only increase our bills! Does anyone remember the Adelphia Communications purchase... our bills go up while the service was terrible.
—Mark Velazquez, West Palm Beach, FL

I thought this is why they split up the Bell Phone companies a long time ago. Why would we let them control the Cable market like that? There would be no competition, service would go down as well as customer service. I think it's a big mistake. If you let this happen, then it might as well be taken over by the government and we know how well they've done with healthcare.

How on earth is it acceptable for there to be so few cable companies in the US?
—Erica Monjeau, Greensboro, NC

The Cable TV/Internet Service business is already a virtual monopoly in many communities, and an oligopoly in all others. Two or three choices, who all charge the same rate is not competition. Don't let this get any worse. This industry needs more competition, not less, and it desperately needs regulation. The way the handful of content providers control the handful of rebroadcasters already borders on being an anti trust violation. And Internet service must be reclassified as a telecommunications service and regulated accordingly. I can't really blame the local cable companies for passing on increases and bundle pricing imposed upon them by the TV networks, but when they raise rates on Internet service as their costs actually decrease, the brakes have to be put on.

Comcast was rated the worst in the ACSI twice for a reason. Once Comcast controls the entire market, things will be much worse. This is exactly why there are antitrust laws. Exactly why Comcast should be disbanded and split into many smaller businesses.
—, La Fayette, NY

I used to have cable TV with Comcast. But considering the low quality of the shows and exorbitant fees, I cancelled my service. Please don't let these companies merge. More competition is not less. The quality needs to improve to match the monthly fees first.

Fuck Comcast, they are so full of shit they might as well be a cable company

—Rebecca R Johnson, Pittsburgh, PA

TWC bought out our local internet provider (insight) late last year. The ink had not even dried on the buy out and our bill went up 15% for some modem leasing fee insight must have been generous enough to offer for free. Then, the next time we tried to stream a movie through a competitive service provider(Apple) all of a sudden the movie was barely watchable due to all the delays and choppy play back. This had not been the case under insight and you can hardly say we are an extreme user of bandwidth at only one or two movies a month. Lastly, we live in a rural area where there is no other internet provider outside of dial up. TWC is bad news, throttling the internet is like enforcing limits on who can attend school, access health care and so on. Knowledge is power and know TWC+Comcast is bad!
—Phillip Ross, Salem, IN

When people were talked into relinquishing their "free" "public" air waves in favor of private for profit cable companies they were assured this would create "more choice" and not be a monopoly. However now everyone pays for a service that used to be freely available, and although we have many more channels, we don't have any more choice or perspective than we used to and we certainly have more commercial interuptions of any programming that might be worth watching to the point where it is more aggravation than entertainment, education or enlightenment (the generally agreed on goals to justify allowing countless self interested profiting corporations into our living rooms and our broadcast bands). For once the government should stand up for the interests of the average American citizen instead of self serving corporations. One of many promises broken.

—Michael C. Purdy, St. Louis, MO

It is in no way in the interest of the public to decrease the amount of options available for internet connection. This company has proven time and again it will do what it wants and that has never been in the interest or service of it's customers.
—Daniel Myers, Fresno, CA

Comcast does a horrible job with the share of the market they already have. Granting them a virtual monopoly on internet service for a huge segment of the country will be awful for customers. There is a reason monopolies are a no-no.
—Kit Scott, Eugene, OR

The government should not allow a merger that is clearly designed to squelch market innovation and only serves to protect an outdated business model. Comcast has perhaps the highest customer dissatisfaction rate of any communications company. To take that clearly flawed model and glom it together with another highly disliked company, what do you think will happen? Nothing good for consumers.
—W Snyder, Tucson, AZ

Comcast and Time Warner Cable are two of the very few media conglomerates who control about 90% of our media diet. If they were to merge, the public would have even less diversity in their media options and our media diet would become even more homogenized. Not allowing them to merge would take away some of the power that the conglomerates already have over us. This is in hopes that more voices can be heard in our media.

Don't let this merge happen Comcast is already overcharging people since it only has very few competitors. My uncle just signed up for a "deal" comcast had that offered 50+ mbps at around $60 a month but his bill for the first week came out to be $120 and the following week he got another one for $80. He ended up calling them and was confirmed he owed it but when he questioned them they then said it was a "mistake". Comcast thinks they can get away with it due to no other options around and now merging with TWC will make things even worse.
—Francisco Marz, Waukegan, IL

I'm fairly sure, this is the description of (a) monopoly which is already illegal, so it shouldn't be able to happen in the first place, neither company should be able to make this deal with each other. There is no reason it should even be allowed to be on the table for them to discuss, as I believe it would be a monopoly, which is illegal, discussing it should also be illegal.

I'm a Comcast subscriber and other than cost, I have no problems with them but I don't support this merger. Allowing them to be bigger than they already are gives them anti-competitive power. Choices for ISPs are low enough as it is and after seeing the power they recetly had over Netfilx, I think that goes against Net Neutrality and I don't support this merger. Could this merger any more fulfill anti trust laws. Does anyone in are government understand that oligarchies and monopolies stifle competition and peoples choices?
—Scott Severson, Nokomis, FL

Competition is vital to the health of mass communications. Our government should not even be taking this merger under consideration. Anti-trust laws exist for this reason.

Stop this Merger. Nothing good will come from a larger Comcast. Stop the Merger.
—BT Fox, Santa Monica, CA

Comcast already illegally makes it harder it use competition products by slowing down connection, merger would create monopoly. If they want to merge they should have to sell off their competing services and just provide internet service. They will stop products like Skype , and other internet phone services, the whole idea of the merger is bad
—Stephen Mills, Snow Camp, NC

Comcast has a monopoly in their areas of service now
—Frank harrison, Graton, CA

Cable and Internet are already operated on a cartel system, giving them a monopoly would be even worse.
—Brandon Epstein, Baltimore, MD

To the US Government...monopolies are ILLEGAL!
—, Philadelphia, PA

I already have Time Warner Cable. Their customer service is abysmal and their prices are outrageous, but I have no choice but to subscribe to their service as they are the only providers in my area (AT&T is even worse). If Time Warner and Comcast merge, things will only get worse. They will continue to crush competition and raise prices without fear of reprisal.
—Tyler Uslan, Canoga Park, CA

I have no choices for Internet where I live at the moment, only Comcast. If I had a choice I would switch right away. The service overall is horrible in every way shape and form. But I have no choice and now possibly I will lose any hope that there could be choice one day. I pay too much as it is. Please do not let this merger go forward, you have already let Comcast create a monopoly, do not let it get bigger.
—Josh Arkey, Jonestown, PA

This countries entire economy is based on competition. This has allowed many companties to start up and flourish because of their new and innovative idea. When these types of mergers happen they break the anittrust laws and create huge monopolies that control too much of the product provided to the public and consumers. Comcast is already big enough and the merger of these two giants would overall negatively impact their services for consumers. This is why we have antitrust laws in the first place.
—Greg Pajon, Chicago, IL

I have comcast. They completely misled their customer of their services and pricing. This will get a lot worse if they are allowed to merge.
—Sunir Kochhar, Tucson, AZ

Just like AT&T back in the 70s, history repeats itself!
—Douglas m KROS, Green cove springs, FL

Where I live, I already only have one option for cable internet - Comcast. I'd like to have MORE options, not FEWER. It's ludicrous to think that this merger would do anything but increase Comcast's power and decrease the power of the American people... as well as their ability to choose. If you care about the PEOPLE more than the CORPORATIONS, you will stop this merger from happening. It's a no-brainer.
—Andrew MacFarland, Longmont, CO

I want to move to the united states for its ability to help start ups become successful companies. This deal would make me majorly reconsider this decision.

This whole thing is ridiculous, can't believe that they continue to proceed with this merger that will do nothing but hurt the American public.

Please preserve authentic net neutrality while encouraging innovation by preventing monopolies like what TWC/Comcast will become!

MORE CONSUMER CHIOCE!! LESS MONOLITHS!!!
—Victor Ruiz, Sandy, UT

Competition is what drives humans as a species and businesses to provide the people they serve the best way the business can. Allowing these two companies to merge kills all competition, and you can already see comcast's service has declined over the years because they are so big. We broke up Bell South monopoly already so why are we letting another monopoly form?
—Michael Monsees, Acworth, GA

I believe the merger will create an unhealthy monopoly, where the largest telecommunication firms will be able to set unfair prices for their customers on the ground that there will be no other alternative. In many places of the country, this is already happening. I believe that if this merger would take place that there will be little or no incentive for them to upgrade or even maintain their infrastructure. It's the FCC's responsibility to ensure that there is a healthy marketplace of options for consumers, in allowing this merger to take place the FCC would have failed in this responsibility.
—Richard DeSantis, Newton, NJ

I do not understand how allowing these regional monopolies is at all legal. They give these corporations the power to provide abysmal services at absurd prices. It is absolutely appalling that our country, that is by the people and for the people, is allowing something like this.
—Jesus Orozco, Perris, CA

Allowing this merger is in direct conflict with your responsibility to protect this interests of the American people.

—Eric Abt, Auburn, CA

What is wrong with you, you were appointed to protect free communications, not sell them out, monopoly is control
—Hermine DeMichele, Ludlow, MA

This merger would be awful for the public as these 2 companies already dominate the market and deliver crappy services to people. A larger company would just have to much power and would gouge the public as well as offer worse service.
—Daniel Perlstein, Santa Monica, CA

—Brit Churchman, Gallatin, TN

I read Thomas Pinkitty. The new Oligarchs are draining this country of its freedom and liberty. —David Arndt, Beloit, WI

We, the public, already have watered-down news, ridiculous sitcoms and highly controlled media by Comcast. With this merger Comcast could and would control all power via media in this country, an extremely dangerous position for any democratic county.
—Corrine Cole, Markleeville, CA

I only have one choice for cable in my area. They essentially monopolize the city I live in. Clearly this merger would reduce choices and allow for prices to rise, rather than be kept fair due to competition.

—Sharon Belk-Krebs, Bellingham, WA

Even before this merger was proposed, Comcast has consistently ranked as the single worst American corporation when it comes to customer service. Add to that the fact that we pay more for slower and less reliable internet service (with an emphasis on pricey, unnecessary tv/phone bundles) than many other countries with fewer economic resources than the United States. The proposed merger is an absolute disgrace. The mere fact that it is even being seriously considered shows what has happened to the government of the once great United States of America. Stop this merger. Break Comcast into smaller companies, encourage competition and help make America great again. Or at least slow it's decline, rather than speeding it.
—Craig Rockweiler, Denver, CO

Consolidation has never been good for the consumer and will not give people better service or pricing.

If they have a finanical disaster or god forbid they have a polical agenda it so hard to stop them because of thier deep pockets and lobbying mechanism. This merger should NOT be allowed to happen because it will essentially be a monopoly! Comcast is already charging outrageous prices and there isn't much competition. If the merger goes through, consumers will be at Comcast's mercy. Comcast will be able to charge whatever they want because they'll be the only game in town, and THEY KNOW THAT! Stopping this kind of deal is exactly why we have antitrust laws. The Justice Department and the Federal Communications Commission should do their jobs and block this merger!

Typical of comcast: 1) regular increases in charges, advertised 'special pricing' offered to only NEW customers, not those of us who cannot receive any TV or radio without cable. 30 year old movies and tv episodes offered @ $2 and up to watch on advertised ondemand. 2) Owned my own modem 5 years. All of sudden got letter stating an audit showed Comcast should have charged me for equipment, I called to explain and was told all ok. Next month got charges on bill for my own equipment. Called again (each customer service call involves very long hold/wait times 20-30 mins). It took another 20 mins. to explain problem to phone rep, she patronizingly explaining that all equipment had a charge and insisting it was their equipment. When I finally convinced her to compare my brand and those comcast leased (I was put on hold another 10 mins for this), she finally understood it was my equipment and said she would correct. She then proceeded to delete the modem connection. I made several more calls to complain I had no connection and they finally schedule a technician visit for next day. He called the office and gave them the model number I had given many times and discovered that they had transposed numbers so I had no connection for 2 days. They tried to charge me for the visit on next bill which involved another call to a manager. My total phone time for their error = 6.5 hours.
—Janet Duncan, San Anselmo, CA

I've signed two petitions against this merger and am reaching out further to the DOJ and the FCC. Here is a copy of a letter I recently sent to Senator Al Franken on this subject: Dear Senator Franken, Here is an excerpt of a recent post I made this morning on a CNN article about Netflix's opposition to the merger: http://www.cnn.com/2014/04/24/ tech/web/netflix-franken-comca st-time-warner/index.html?hpt= hp_bn5 "I couldn't agree more. Comcasts business model isn't innovation, it's based on cheap hardware, the worst customer service I've ever seen, and charging customers more for less choice. I should know, as a new customer in November, I had two X1 DVRs (the first lasted a week, the second died literally 5 minutes after the installer left), then I downgraded to an older Motorola, the first died a month ago, along with an HD cable box, the second is still working at the moment. When I researched problems with the X1, I found out that Comcast had a nationwide X1 outage last year and customers were complaining online en masse that they'd ordered X1 but couldn't get one. I spoke to a Comcast X1 technician and she told me they'd had so many problems like mine that they'd stopped doing installs. When I asked them about what their technician told me, Comcast customer service lied to me. They said the X1 tech was wrong, said they were selling X1's like hotcakes, in spite of thousands of people contradicting them on their own website, saying they were told the X1's were "out of stock". This is clearly a coverup for the problems they're having with their garbage hardware. The last time a technician came out to replace their defective DVR, they tried to charge me for replacing their defective equipment, I had to call their billing unit and demand that the charges be taken off my bill. Compare what you get with Comcast with similarly priced packages from, say, Dish, and Comcast always delivers a lot less. I agree with Netflix, making this disaster of a company even bigger is an absolutely horrible idea for consumers. They were recently voted the worst company to work for in America. I urge everyone who feels this way to contact the FCC, the Justice Department, and Senator Franken to make your voices heard, it's the only chance we have to stop this merger." Thanks for taking on Comcast, Senator Franken, I've even seen hardcore conservatives say that they completely agree with you on this issue. Sincerely, Richard L. Fague"
—Richard Fague, Lacey, WA

The Founders designed checks and balances into the structure of government to prevent the abuse of government power. The U.S. Congress passed the Sherman Anti-trust Act to promote the checks and balances of a free market to prevent the abuse of corporate power. Putting this much power into the hands of one company is dangerous. This deal would not only lead to less consumer choice, less diversity and higher cable bills, but would further the destruction of a fair and healthy economy and democratic government. Please take every possible action to block this merger.
—Peter K. Harrell, Gainesville, FL

The merger is bad for the consumer in general; however it'most detrimental to women, small businesses, independent media--especially free press, and the poor.

Stopping this kind of deal is exactly why we have antitrust laws. Comcast's merger and the FCC ruling will disproportionately color our news and information by controlling access to who gives it to us. Information access will be auctioned off to the highest bidder at Comcast's discretion. Only if Big Brother move is halted under the Justice Department's obligation and FCC's duty to ensure antitrust measures cover all mediums will we retain the free and open access to information in North America that will prevent 2014 from becoming 1984.

Monopolies have never benefitted the consumer in any way, shape or form. Please do not allow this merger! If it happens then Comcast-Time Warner would control too much of the nation' TV and Internet. Just moved from 31324 where comcast was the only cable in town, and in most places the only internet. They have a 300gig cap which is not enough to even do remote work from home. Sale of parts of Comcast and Time Warner to Charter Communications makes no significant difference. The deals creating such limited competition will still create the problems monopolies are known to cause. It will be the same mess for the consumer with just a few of the numbers changed.

Please stop this merger from happening. Its unbelievable that this is even being considered. I do not want any less competition. This is un-American, competition is the core of our economy and if we let this happen we lose the power of choice. This is not just about this merger. The government will eventually take control of the company's that are doing this and they to will be into lose there rights.

Comcast is just about the worst company I've ever dealt with: constant rises in price, lousy service, many outages (for which they wouldn't deduct charges unless you called them and demanded a rebate). I used to make out my checks to "Concasst" before I (happily) found another provider.

In May of 2004, I signed up for internet from Comcast Business Class Service for my building in Oakland. The service itself has been satisfactory. In September of 2009, someone from Comcast contacted me and told me it would be to my advantage to "Go on Auto Renewal". Sounded like a decent idea, so I signed another contract to do this. A new modem was required, so to the contact was handed to me by an installer. I noticed that next to my signature on this paper contract was the following: By signing below, Customer agrees and accepts the Terms and Conditions of the Agreement. General Terms and Conditions can be found at http://business.comcast.com/te rms-conditions/index.aspx Since this contract was not for new service, I didn't think to go to this URL and make sure everything was AOK. Besides, there was a real person in front of me, waiting. Fast forward to this month: I decided to try AT&T internet service. I signed up and found that indeed it is faster and more reliable. So I called Comcast on 4/21/14 to cancel my old service. To my great surprise, I was told I would have to pay for two more months of service. Why? Because those Terms and Conditions I didn't read included a new provision (that didn't exist in 20014), that requires the customer to give 60-days notice before disconnecting. Now if I was trying to get out of a mobile phone contract for which I was given a big discount on an iPhone, I'd understand. If I were relinquishing an apartment, I would understand the need for notice. But it's just a utility! When you disconnect power, water, garbage, a land line, or an out-of-contract mobile phone service, you don't need to give 60 days notice! To me, this is simply a way of squeezing an extra $150 (in my case) out of customers when they leave. I've spoken about this with Comcast reps. I've carefully made the case that this is shabby business practice, that it's penny-wise-pound-foolish. I spoke with a supervisor who first tried to get me to stay with Comcast (amazingly), then got testy. She said she'd have HER supervisor call me. He/she never did. I called again today, and was refused access to a supervisor outright. Obviously, the last thing we need is Comcast to get be even MORE of a monpoly.
—Christopher Schardt, Emeryville, CA

Market concentration in 19 of the 20 largest US markets is NOT good for the American consumer. Block this proposed merger!
—Dave Kalata, Seattle, WA

I personally believe that this merger would give less choice to the American consumer and create a monopoly that would further distance itself from any real market competition. The American people deserve to have a choice in who they have as a cable and internet provider and this merger would severly prohibit that choice.
—John H. Seydak Jr., Camby, IN

It seems my Time Warner internet speed has already degraded, is this just the first of many changes? This is not good for the American people, it must be stopped.
—Sandie Minasian, Porter Ranch, CA

—Kevin P Larkin, Indianapolis, IN

This merger would be disasterous for our country.
—David Benson, Dayton, OH

The Comcast/Time Warner merger would be a disaster. It would concentrate way too much power in one cable/internet/phone operator. How many communities have more than 2 cable/internet providers? The cable industry is fundamentally a monopoly or a duopoly in every community in America. To let Comcast grow bigger by buying the number 2 cable provider, thereby giving them more power over both consumers and content providers, and keeping the profits for themselves would be the height of irresponsibility. The cable companies price bundle cable/internet/phone in such a way to strangle the consumer. They bundle content to do the same. How does Comcast say this merger will benefit the consumer? Is it going to bring prices down in monopolistic and duopolistic communities (99% of America)? Is it going to let consumers pick the content they want instead of price-inflated bundles. Not at all - all Comcast talks about is offering 50,000 movies and 300,000 streaming programs and content to consumers, so much that it gives you a headache. But nowhere do they talk about reducing the already outrageously-priced monthly cable/internet/telephone bundles. Oh no, it's all about more choice. Well, consumers are tired of the over-glut of choice and want lower prices. Comcast does say that the merger will "generate significant cost savings", but what they don't say is that those cost savings will be passed on to the consumer. How is Comcast going to deliver lower prices as they accrete market share dominance? Why would they? The money will go to the bottom line and their shareholders, not consumers. It's good to be the only game in town. It's good to leverage economies of scale to grind down the competition. And, answer this question: won't a merger make it easier for Comcast to wipe out the remaining competition because they won't have to spend effort on Time Warner territories anymore and can totally focus on Verizon or AT&T and the remaining small players out there? And, if Comcast uses its market dominance to wring payments from Netflix and Amazon and other content providers, what are the chances they will pass that on to the consumer?Maybe in the short term to wipe out Verizon, and then jack up the prices once the deed is done. Industry pricing is under-regulated as it is, no recourse for consumers in cities like Cambridge, MA who only have Comcast as a cable provider. In my town, Wayland, MA, there are only Comcast and Verizon, a classic duopoly. Both are very happy not to price-compete with each other. They are fat,dumb and happy. Until the FCC and DoJ get serious about reigning in the cable companies (and cable company is a misnomer: cable/internet/voice companies), then they will continue to take a bigger and bigger piece of the American wallet. In conclusion, I vote an emphatic "NO" and am against this merger.

This is not just a merger of ISP's it is a merger of CONTENT creators which puts far too much control over what media we can see into one organization . . . not to mention the current separate entities have the worst customer service reputation; why would merging the two be of benefit to the customers. If would not.
—Greg Hoey, Holland, NY

Comcast is already a very difficult, non-transparent provider of internet and television services. They disguise their real prices and try to keep the customer from being able to estimate the real, long-term cost of their various levels of service. As an even bigger monopoly with Time-Warner, they will only get worse.
—Rosemary Blanchard, Albuquerque, NM

what happened to Anti trust law enforcement?
—Sally Crawford, Los Angeles, CA

Both are already too big... less competition means higher prices for normal people and more corporate profits for people like you and your telecomm cronies.
—Lw Webb, Nags Head, NC

You, sire, are supposed to be protecting the U.S. public against monopolies. Please put a stop to this merger immediately.
—Barbara Edwards, Township of Washington, NJ

The consumer always loses in these types of deals. Enough already —Tony Zamba, Sebastian, FL

It is a well know fact that industry strives to develop monopolies. It is also a fact that unless there are 7 players in a segment true competition will not exist. Why do we continue to allow mergers and takeovers to limit competition? Are the profits that these corporations make from limiting competition not an example that we can look at as a prediction of the future. "Absolute power corrupts absolutely"
—John Misaros, Marysville, MI

Let's secure the internet as people's forum like other countries do.
—Hugh Moon, Los Angeles, CA

Comcast already abuses its near monopoly whenever and wherever it can. Don't give them more power. Look at what other countries offer for TV and internet where they don't have Comcast killing the competition.
—Martin Hunt, West Lafayette, IN

You will destroy any competition with in the tv and Internet market DO NOT FO IT
—Seth, Mansfield, OH

All experts seem to agree that this merger is bad for consumers. Many seem to think Comcast is the worst company in America. Please - don not allow this merger.
—Tony Serra, Yucaipa, CA

STOP this from happening. Monopoly is bad
—Bonnie Janney, Pinckney, MI

The obvious is that Comcast will have way too much control. No one is also mentioning that what is going to happen to all the employees. Yes with a merger and even if this were not to happen jobs are lost. That is obvious but has anyone thought of the outcome to the employees and there families. They are only guaranteed there current benefits and pay rate for one year. What happens after that. If employees of the new company after the one year have a reduction in there wages people could lose their homes have to claim bankruptcy or worse. Is this all worth it. Michigan is just starting to somewhat rebound what happens a year from now is it really worth this merger. It's all about the overall dollar what about the loyal employees. There needs to be someone there to protect these people. Please say no to this merger as there are more reasons to not do this good reasons too.
—RaeAnne Schwesinger, Warren, MI

Use Sherman Anti-trust regulations to prevent the continual creation of "too big to regulate" corporations. Deregulation is giving corporations too much economic control of this nation.

Please don't kill our rights for equality. Support net neutrality.

I am against this merger
—Mark Carpani, Gillespie, IL

Comcast has the worst customer service on the planet. Giving them more power will only make it even worse. They care very little because they know you have very little choice in alternative providers.
—Mark Spungin, Alexandria, VA

Although this merger might not be one that would make it so one company has full control of providing cable access. The merger is still creating an incredibly larger company that should not be allowed by the anti-trust laws.
—, Libertyville, IL

We need more competition!
—Michael P Wachter, Pittsburgh, PA

STOP this merger, and STOP future mergers. In fact, we need more than SIX companies to preside over the bulk of our media, so start halving these companies instead. This is Microsoft all over again, and getting worse. We need more CHOICE in our media.

Unfair. Unjust. Illegal.
—Beth Elizabeth Alexander, Tucker, GA

I own a small business which depends on the Internet. I cannot afford additional fees to get into the "fast lane." Keep the Internet "pure" and "for the people."

This merger will ONLY benefit Comcast and Time Warner Cable, and will be a detriment to the Citizens of the United States. I respectfully ask that you do not let this merger happen.

—Sharon egan, Fort Lauderdale, FL

Bad Idea. Its sad we even need to comment on this.
—Joseph Fascenda, Ventura, CA

My internet and cable bills are already TOO HIGH with Comcast as is. If this "disaster" is allowed to happen, the common subscriber like me would be financially HARMED. Say NO to block this merger...
—Jeff Sanberg, Portland, OR

This is inexcusable and must be stopped. As it is, the Corporate Media in the U.S. is not beneficial nor informative to us the consumers, but if this passes, it will be worse.
—Leticia Cortez, Santa Fe, NM

This is SO IMPORTANT. Without competition there is no free market (which will erode a democratic and free society). It will deny millions of citizens access to free and full information because they won't be able to afford the internet and will have NO OTHER OPTIONS !
—Lynda Dyar, Vernon Rockville, CT

Anti-trust laws! WTF?!
—Adam Davis, Oviedo, FL

I've been a customer of both companies, but not really by choice. Neither had very good customer service, and the ever increasing rates is just insane. Something needs to be done, and here's a hint, it's not letting them merge. If the SEC and FCC allow the merger, they should force the companies to divest the infrastructure or the media creation piece. That would at least force a bit of competition.
—Dennis Behrens, Grand Rapids, MI

We don't want to be held hostage to another monopoly. It's obvious that monopolies only increase that company's revenue; just look at the oil industry. No thanks, I don't want my "free internet" eroded any further.
—Terry Jenkins, Hagerstown, MD

I won't use Comcast if this merger with Time Warner is approved. Comcast has the worst customer service ratings for their customers. Friends that have to use Comcast, hates Comcast. I have another Internet provider waiting for my business. And... I will vote against and work to see the defeat of any politician that allows this merger!!
—James R. Wells, Reynoldsburg, OH

Stop the madness and break up the monopolistic tendencies of our current society. Our history more then reflects the failure of private interests trying to "help us" w. more benefits as long as we can pay.

As if I didn't feel powerless enough as a young American woman who's poor- another grand merger is just what I need to make it easier for me to read the news from different sources. Oh wait...

Monopolies are against our laws. Stop this merger, create more competition for the nation.
—Crystal Roe Hawkins, Portland, TN

This proposed merger would create a giant company that would undoubtedly stifle competition, something that is crucial to the protection of the American consumer.
—Andrew Coots, Louisville, KY

Please. Just. No.
—Merry Weather, Savannah, MO

Having just gone through a labyrinth of customer service hassles to settle a $1000 billing error, I can't imagine Comcast having more authority and national market share.
—Don Ladig, Marana, AZ

Monopoly conditions exist when three or fewer companies control more than 60% of the market. A merger of the two largest companies in the internet and cable industry would create monopolistic market conditions. I strongly urge you to stop this merger.
—Dorothy E Ross, New York, NY

It will impose data caps on current twc customers and force us to pay for much worse service and it will be monopolized plz use antitrusst laws
—Enrique Diaz, Uvalde, TX

In a time when a gallon of milk costs $4 why create a cable tv/internet monopoly. This monopoly would cause more people to loose their jobs (yes I know they are promising that they will do EVERYTHING in their power to keep every job, but come on merge 2 offices and see how many mail delivery people you need). Then you have to think of those who are on SSI and SSD. They got a 3% cost of living raise last year. Those ppl have a right to news coverage, storm notifications, public safety alerts, terrorism alerts, presidential messages etc. These things should be available in rural areas for lower than satellite companies. merging these companies would just cause increased costs to consumers and decrease these services to lower income families, the elderly, and disabled.
—Karissa Bridgeman, Altamont, MO

Please rethink what you have planned. I realize that it may look good for you on paper, but it won't help anybody. That actions you've planned to perform will harm everyone, so please for the sake of we as a people, rethink it. That's all I have to say, have a good day. -Asher
—Asher Wenrich, Valencia, CA

Putting this much power in the hands of one company is dangerous. This deal would lead to less consumer choice, less diversity. Assess to information would be limited and thus so would be my education.
—Joshua, Maple Shade, NJ

Do not let this merger occur!
—Deborah Freeman, Worcester, MA

Don't give a regional monopoly an even greater region. They're too big as it is and are pulling out all the stops with their PR campaign to close this deal. Don't fall for it, or their lobbyists whispering in your ear. It's bad for consumers. We all know it.
—Steve Birnhak, New York, NY

I'm happy with my Comcast service but this merger would create another bloated monopoly STOP IT NOW!!
—William D. Payne, Woodstock, GA

PLEASE STOP THIS MERGER! BAD FOR US!!

—Mireya Coronado, SAN JOSE, CA

This deal will affect not only consumers pockets, choices for cable provider, but also WHO delivers the news and how it's delivered.
—Monika Lorincz, Mount Prospect, IL

TWC is already wreaking havoc in Los Angeles by refusing the negotiate in good faith with other providers to air the Dodgers games that they own the rights to. A larger and more powerful entity approved by the Justice Dept and FCC would have even more catastrophic consequences. If that happens, I will definitely "cut the cord." FCC has the primary responsibility to protect the consumers over the greedy intentions of the telecom giants. Do you effen job!
—Dean Curtin, Redondo Beach, CA

More bad customer service for consumer and higher prices? The government seems to forget they work for the american people and not for these greedy corporations.
—Karen, Norwalk, CT

Please stop this merger... NOW!
—David Skinner, Buffalo, MN

The internet should be open and equal. This is a clear case of monopoly and discrimination in lack of access.
—Samantha Herndon, Seattle, WA

The internet serves as great tool for education, and it is vital that every citizen in the United States has equal access to it so that our education system does not continue to fall behind other developed nations. Consumers already have a limited, if any, choice when picking a cable company. If this merger happens, more Americans will be priced out of home access to the internet, creating another barrier to academic equality in this nation.
—Katherine Reed, Chicago, IL

Blocking this merger is important to me because I want to protect universal access to the communications networks that we all depend on to connect with ideas, information, and each other. I also want to ensure companies large and small have equal access to the Internet.
—Lacey Williams, Austin, TX

Do we not all agree that monopolies, and letting corporations become too big is detrimental to American consumers? I have been a Comcast customer for years, and they are a terrible company. I only do business with them because there is no other viable choice. Please do not let them merge with Time Warner Cable. Thanks.

—Maria Nunez, Copiague, NY

We once had an efficient monopoly nicknamed "Ma Bell". The US government felt it imperative to break it up to enhance free market competition. And now you want to allow consolidation to exactly the opposite effect???? Makes no sense. Cable rates are exorbitant now. Consolidation will NOT help that!

The internet is an essential part of our modern society, don't fuck it up

Free press means exactly that....FreePress. The internet provides a place worldwide where we can do just that. Most written newspapers have an agenda. Our previous Prime Minister, Julia Gillard, dared to start an enquiry into the monopoly of all forms of media ownership. The press vilified her for it, under instruction from the owners of Fairfax. My point is net neutrality is necessary for "Free Press" (excuse the pun) to maintain an open and free internet for everyone.
—Julia, ,

i love to stop this merger with this time warner and comcast deal , i love my freedom on the internet , and we should sighed this petition every one on line internet , and please saved our net neutrality as well , david

—Haley Hamilton, Allston, MA

Comcast is already terrible. There customer service is poor, their service is high cost for low value, but I live in an area where if I want to get on the internet it's my only choice. (Being a doctoral student I need pretty consistent access to the internet.) Please don't make Comcast even stronger. The bigger they get, the less they care about their customers and the more expensive they get. To get my internet installed at my new apartment (which had internet services before I moved in.) It took 3 different appointments on 3 different days. Each time I had to reserve a 4 hour block of my time. Each time Comcast was late. (That on-time guaranty? It's $25 credit on your service. $25 doesn't make up for an entire day missed from work. Especially since it happened 3 times.) I had similar problems with Comcast both while I lived in Maryland and now in Massachusetts. I don't get television services. I don't usually have time for it. But to watch any of the Olympics on-line in America I would have been required to purchase a television package. I couldn't even pay an additional fee to watch on-line (would have been willing, I get nothing is for free.) Why do I have to buy television service and pay a cable install fee, to watch Olympics on-line when I already have internet? (I don't even have a tv.) That's not something any of the other countries did. That is a huge monopoly already. Comcast is horrible. Every time I deal with them I have to brace myself because I know it's going to be bad. And I have to deal with them frequently because the service keeps shutting off. They don't maintain their current infrastructure don't give them more. Plus I don't only want content that Comcast approves. But if they get to pick and choose over what gets delivered to me at high speed, and what buffers for 45 minutes before it gets displayed, you're pretty much eliminating freedom of the press. Please. I'm begging. Don't do this.
—Amanda Lulloff, Cambridge, MA

Teddy Roosevelt would have never allowed this to happened.
—Jorge J Acebo, Riverside, CA

This merger represents a massive consolidation of media power that is not good for the American people. The FCC must regulate - a failure to do so is undemocratic.

—Dr. Steven Barrows, Williamsport, PA

Comcast should not be allowed to merge. Their customer services is abysmal and gets worse all the time. They have no concern for their current customers and it will only get worse if they get bigger.
—Walter Bradhering, Stone Harbor, NJ

DONT DO IT!!!!
—Foodfrenzygaming, Williamston, SC

This is very bad. This would put a MONOPOLY on the internet. Comcast and Time Warner Cable with their ALREADY BAD internet speeds, and prices. Also with many problems with their internet. This would put prices at a record high for internet, and with the most [enter vulgar word here] internet ever. If this continues, Comcast-Time Warner Cable would take over other internet companies, and would take away our internet as we know it.
—Henry Tran, San Diego, CA

Before doing crap like this, think About your customer first, hear the pleads, allow your customer to vote on a merger first and for god sakes, YOU ARE NOW A MONOPLOY!!! Get out of America if you become a monoploy
—Matthew Rerick, Rosemount, MN

Comcast is a bully with some of the shadiest internet practices around and undoubtedly the worst customer service in the business. This merger would only subject more people to their bad practices and give people less options.
—Francis Freeman, Hoffman Estates, IL

Are you trying to make everyones lifes WAY harder then they are? Its 2014 and its already hard enough for any human in the US. This is the most selfish and unthought out plan I have ever seen.
—Elena paz, Westbrook, ME

If you guys at the FCC and Justice Department had any sense you would not let Comcast Merge with Time Warner. If you do it shows how stupid the FCC and Justice Department is or how krooked and croup the FCC and Justice Department are. Then what part of the Government is not croup or krooked?
—Titus Schoonover, Fayette, OH

No monopolies!
—Nina, Aliso Viejo, CA

This would be a legalized trust, if you allow it to happen. What good is the FCC if you won't do your job?
—Ashley Byrd, Bellevue, NE

This merger is really bad and needs to be stopped. It only adds to the monopolistic anti-competitive practicies these companies alreay enact. Comcast has already extorted money from Netflix to further their agenda for building an internet "fast lane". Additionally they are now planning to limit customer usage and charge "overage fees". Net neutrality needs to be preserved and more competition is the way to do this.
—Monte Perdew, Charlotte, NC

Net neutrality means the ability to speak and hear without disadvantage. It is extremely important that this public good--and the right to unimpeded and fair speech--be protected. The alternative is a society run by and for corporations. This is an issue about democracy and fairness for all. Please do not create a two tiered internet.
—David Hildebrand, Denver, CO

Save competitive markets.
—Sarit Levy, New York, NY

As a Senior on SSA fixed income, I and along with all other Seniors on SSA who depend on a fast, affordable Internet will have to cancel our service if we have to make a choice between eating and higher Internet prices that give bad, slow service. Not Good, keep net neutrality!

Stop this Monopoly!!!
—John Vandenbraak, Downingtown, PA

This sort of situation has already been deemed unacceptable, so how is it even an issue? This must not be allowed to continue.
—Meghan Smith, Milwaukee, WI

NOOOOOO
—B young, San Diego, CA

Stop this lunacy and handing over the country to monopolies.
—Inder, Edison, NJ

This merger is an abomination. There is no competition now and adding to the monopoly only hurts consumers. In my city there is only one choice for cable. The city is divided in half between cable companies and they call that competition. I don't believe these comments will do any good since corporations own every politician and regulatory agency, but I had to try.
—Faith Johnston, Tucson, AZ

The FCC should make ISPs common carriers. The FCC should not allow this merger because it will bring Comcast closer to a monopoly, I believe that this is what anti-trust laws were made for.
—William Birmingham, San Francisco, CA

This merger is not American. It's not fair and it's not playing by the rules for everyone!
—Jessica Wagner, San Diego, CA

if the fcc takes the freedom of speech away on the internet busnesses schools jobs homes of the internet will be ruined for the american people it not right what the fcc comcast and at&t verizon and tmoble are doing it taking the first admendment away and uncostintutinal
—Anon, Doylesburg, PA

THE INTERNET IS OUR MAIL SYSTEM. Just as we made sure all had equal access to the postal system, now we need to be sure all have to have equal access to the Internet. Remember when/why we broke up AT&T? We need competition among providers of content and an Internet regulated to protect equal access for all.
—Ann C Somers, Brookline, NH

Comcast is already a monopoly in certain areas and they have terrible service and don't care. They alredy own NBC, MSNBC, Universal Studios and many cable networks, and not to mention they are controlling the internet and costantly increasing their rates isn't this enough already! Please STOP THIS MERGER.
—Bryan Melson, Blackstone, MA

Monopolistic control of information is oppressive!
—Jacqueline Marish, Bristol, PA

If this merger happens, the internet and cable television will no longer be diverse. All of the power of cable television and the internet will be mostly lost because one giant mega-corporation is controlling it. It is much like government-controlled television and internet, except for us it won't be controlled by the the government, but by the actual service that is meant to let the people of the United States express their opinions.
—Collin, Souderton, PA

CONSTANT POOR RECEPTION AND USELESS SERVICE.
—Joe Krug, Lake Worth, FL

Let the people keep their choice. Give other companies opportunities to gain customers. Immigrants used to come to America for the opportunity to make it big because there was competition in the market. If this merger happens there won't be any competition.
—Hunter Ertz, Jackson, GA

This merger will create a big problem for twc customers. While Comcast may stay "somewhat" away from twc current markets. It has positioned itself to have not only the large portion of market share, but also what it could not have if it were to have been competing with twc. This deal kills any competition to the cable providers dominance in the US market.
—Jon Cole, Charlotte, NC

Comcast right now already charges so much —Yocelin Rodriguez, Houston, TX

This will become, if not already, one of the largest monopolizes in all of telecommunication. This is ridiculous and tragically comical that this merger has not already been blocked.
—Ruffin White, Atlanta, GA

A merger between Time Warner & Comcast will create increased prices and unfair monopolies in many markets. Do not permit this merger. FCC should be promoting competition in the market rather than allowing Comcast to grow bigger and "bully" the cable TV and internet provider market. Do your job right and vote no merger.
—Lou Niggel, Conshohocken, PA

Although I do not live in the United States, this merger has the potential for a worldwide telecommunications catastrophe.
—Ciaran Cumiskey, Trim,

I thought we were against monopolization? That will happen if we don't stop it NOW.

—Sedricka Jackson, Houston, TX

Stop this insanity. There will come a time when this country will rebel. Stop stepping obn the little guys. You remember us we pay you.
—Janet Harninger Pomponio, Piedmont, SC

As a Comcast subscriber I cannot see anything positive about this merger for the subscribers and many attributes that can be gained from the global internet. It is far more than television. They will have a monopoly on the all aspects that keep the network neutral.

I AM A COMCAST SUBSCRIBER. TO SAY THEIR SERVICE (INCLUDING, BUT NOT BY WAY OF LIMITATION, BILLING) IS HORRIBLE IS AN UNDERSTATEMENT. THIS ANTI COMPETIVE TRANSACTION SHOULD NOT BE PERMITTED BY FEDERAL, STATE OR LOCAL GOVERNMENTS.....
—W Herrick, GIBSON ISLAND, MD

if you really want to promote competition and innovation, make it so companies can rent the lines to other customers. It would help companies get new footing, reach the nation and let consumers decide what sort of policies and internet they want. The current monopoly doesn't do that.

Capitalism, to the extent that it works, does so through competition. This merger is clearly anti-competitive and therefore, creates a near monopoly in the cable business. It is a danger to creativity and, especially, to consumers.
—Garry Chick, Port Matilda, PA

I am a Time Warner internet cable subscriber. Monopolies are always bad, except for the top executives. They raise prices and worsen services, with no fear customers will go somewhere else.

—Mairin Loftus, buchanan, NY

Cutting down the competition always leaves the consumer with fewer choices and higher prices. This merger comes on the heels of Verizon announcement of purchasing DirectTV so both these moves hurt the consumers.Yuri —Anne Lancaster, Arlington,, VA

We need MORE competition, not less. I know first hand how competition keeps prices down and service up--I moved from one neighborhood that only had TWC to another that had multiple service providers, and my bill went down by $40 per month for a higher tier of service!
—Elizabeth Smock, Kissimmee, FL

We need MORE choice, MORE competition, not less! Just say NO to this merger!
—Susan Weber, Loudonville, NY

And start right now!
—Carlos Sicilia, Culver City, CA

I am against this merger. Remedial legislation is also needed to guard against the cyclically repeating effects of creeping monopolization, which is an unfortunate byproduct of the (initially beneficial) capitalist system.
—David Wenk, Salem, NY

The FCC is just creating another AT&T, which will eventually have to be broken up by the courts. Stop this insanity NOW.
—John Watlington, Acton, MA

Back when this country was thriving, the government worked to keep any company from getting 10% of the market. The Founding Fathers understood that a diverse collection of sources and competition was good for the American people. Too bad that concept is lost on the greedy patricians in office now.

WHY is it that NO finger gets lifted by our "government" unless it helps some despicable lowlife with a big bank account go from being ridiculously rich to obscenely rich?? decade after endless decade of stupid, simple-minded right wing BULLSHIT and propaganda from the whore media has destroyed the middle class, looted the country, dumbed everyone down back to the stone age and made millionaires (if not billionaires) out of some of the most smarmy cockroaches on the planet. this bullshit has to STOP. it can't continue. it just CAN'T.
—G Bormes, city, CT

Comcast ought to be broken up like 'Ma Bell' was in the 1980's. It is getting too big and reducing competitiveness which is bad for us consumers. We have little or no choice. Stop this merger and stop Comcast from growing ever larger!
—Timothy Bernard, Mounds View, MN

Simply put.....Stop The Merger ! The Internet will not be happy if this merger goes thru.....as in Millions of people if not Billions.
—Jordan Kratz, Portland, ME

I want choices not a massive merger.
—Martin A Smith, Seattle, WA

I am sick of these mega mergers taking over the free market.
—Brian Cavanaugh, Latham, NY

The trend towards media consolidation has been relentless, and has forced Americans to be hostages to corporate control of our media. Please don't facilitate this media monopoly.
—Linda Olson Pehlke, Brookline, MA

Deregulation was to prevent monopolies , and your going to allow it, and take away any choice to line your pockets? The people have had enough of the outrageous screwing by companies, and our governing body.
—Robert Kulp, Ware, MA

Democracy requires media diversity.
—Ka'imi Nicholson, Honolulu, HI

This would give one company just to much control, and one thing the good people of this country need is more big business calling the shots like they now do in political elections.
—Wanda Smith, greensboro, NC

This should not even be up for debate. Comcast has the worst track record of any company for this sort of thing. They are too powerful as-is, they don't need more.
—Chris Harper, madison, MS

Neither of you do a decent job anyway, together we have less choice and less quality
—David Juter, New York, NY

This merger in a violation of both the Sherman and Clayton Anti-Trust Acts. If we are a nation of laws the merger can not be approved.
—Keith Loomis, Keuka Park, NY

WHEN DOES THE GREED END?
—Dr. Fred Brunner, myrtle beach, SC

Don't follow the money!
—Sis Everly, Oxford, MD

Kill this merger ! As an end result if this merger does not get killed, I can only imagine what we will be paying for cable TV and Internet services. This keeps rates in check when there is competition. so the Greedy want to eliminate any and all of that, as you can plainly see..
—James D. Derrick, Cocoa, FL

Antitrust laws will be violated by this merger!
—Sue Stroud-Speyers, Brandon, VT

Denying this merger will be a step towards restoring our Republic from the Oligarchy it has become.
—Joanna Clark, San Juan Capistrano, CA

And with the loss of net neutrality, we cannot afford large cable monopolies controlling the Internet.
—Robert Leduc, Saint Paul, MN

One media source should not have a monopoly on the information and access consumers receive, do not allow this merger.
—Kathleen Weaver, Clermont, FL

Monopolies are bad things. No private group should have this much power.
—Benjamin Coomer, Calhan, CO

No more monopolies.we don't have any choices now.
—Leo Sehler, Ocala, FL

This is why? O-Bomber is the head CEO of the corporate coup d'état! This is what the corporate coup d'état has! "$1.2 quadrillion, or twenty times the GDP of all the countries of the world combined." Being nice! Will not make them give it up! You have to devote your resources to eliminate the root cause of the problem! The wealthy elites have gang raped my country, and the world! Get your priority's in order! You have to do this first! You have to end the Corporate Coup of my country, and around the world! "The welfare of the many, mater more than the welfare of the few, or of the one! The notional (or hypothetical) value of the derivatives market has been estimated to be as high as $1.2 quadrillion, or twenty times the GDP of all the countries of the world combined. According to Hervé Hannoun, Deputy General Manager of the Bank for International Settlements, investment banks as well as commercial banks may conduct much of their business in the shadow banking system (SBS), although most are not generally classed as SBS institutions themselves. At least one financial regulatory expert has said that regulated banking organizations are the largest shadow banks." See; Why Washington Is Cutting Safety Nets When Most Americans Are Still in the Great Recessionby Robert Reich "Congress, meanwhile, doesn't know much about the bottom 90 percent. The top 10 percent provide almost all campaign contributions and funding of "independent" ads. The bottom 90 percent of Americans — most of whom are still suffering from the Great Recession, most of whom have been on a downward escalator for decades — have disappeared from official Washington." The number one way to collapse the ponzi scheme is to start a domino effect, by a single individual, and/or individuals, politician, concerned citizen, freedom fighter, loan wolf. Much easer to accomplish in Europe. 1. Collapse the value of treasury bonds (Treasury = A combination of treason, and usury) by letting a government default. 2. Disrupt the elites ability to access, and/or transfer there digital funds. 3. Use the tools they have set up agents them. Use the NDAA, to arrest them, and transport them to Guantanamoe, or other offshore sites, where they will be held indefinitely without trail or council. 4. Use the NSA, to seize there wealth, for the common good. See; The Death of Truth "Chris Hedges" "The world has been turned upside down. The pestilence of corporate totalitarianism is spreading rapidly over the earth. The criminals have seized power. It is not, in the end, simply Assange or Manning they want. It is all who dare to defy the official narrative, to expose the big lie of the global corporate state. The persecution of Assange and Manning is the harbinger of what is to come, the rise of a bitter world where criminals in Brooks Brothers suits and gangsters in beribboned military uniforms—propped up by a vast internal and external security apparatus, a compliant press and a morally bankrupt political elite—monitor and crush those who dissent. Writers, artists, actors, journalists, scientists, intellectuals and workers will be forced to obey or thrown into bondage. I fear for Julian Assange. I fear for Bradley Manning. I fear for us all." See; The Final Battle by "Chris Hedges" " The corporate state knows that the steady deterioration of the economy and the increasingly savage effects of climate change will create widespread social instability. It knows that rage will mount as the elites squander diminishing resources while the poor, as well as the working and middle classes, are driven into destitution. It wants to have the legal measures to keep us cowed, afraid and under control. It does not, I suspect, trust the police to maintain order. And this is why, contravening two centuries of domestic law, it has seized for itself the authority to place the military on city streets and citizens in military detention centers, where they cannot find redress in the courts. The shredding of our liberties is being done in the name of national security and the fight against terrorism. But the NDAA is not about protecting us. It is about protecting the state from us. That is why no one in the executive or legislative branch is going to restore our rights. The new version of the NDAA, like the old ones, provides our masters with the legal shackles to make our resistance impossible. And that is their intention." No, no, NO! The FCC's main job is to PREVENT anti-competitive mergers like this. STEP UP. DO YOUR JOB. Say "No" to this anti-competitive merger!
—Travis Cutbirth, Fort Collins, CO

From what I have seen .. bigger is only better for the merged corporations ..... or the dominant one. The consumer always loses.
—Christopher Reading, Clarkston, MI

Hopefully someone will come up with a "system" that will be a provider giving total choice, access and quality to consumers which will put the "big greedy guys" totally out of business
—Jean Fisher, San Diego, CA

Have we not learned from the past? The people should also demand that Internet Service Providers be classified as Common Carriers! Enough is enough!
—Lance Trahan, Baton Rouge, LA

Apply antitrust laws! No to this behemoth!
—Linda Howe, Belmont, MA

I am a Comcast customer. Please - no further concentration !
—John Miller, Bellingham, WA

I wouldn't use Comcast anyway
—Midge O'Brien, Savoy, IL

Good news for consumers, my ass!
—Frank Bilovsky, Pittsford, NY

Stop this stupidity from happening.
—Bob Murry, Corpus Christi, TX

Do not allow this to happen!
—Yannio Fabian, New York, NY

Anti-trust laws will be revived. Don't make it so.
—Sonja Langsjoen, Apple Valley, MN

This will give Comcast free reign to raise rates.
—Lou Lange, Portsmouth, NH

This will not help deliver services to the average consumer - this is all about stock prices. Please think about the customer.
—megan mcgraw, Saint Paul, MN

Comcast and Time Warner Cable have proven time and again that they can not be trusted to act in their customers best interests. These companies regularly engage in unjust business actions to maximize profits, disregarding ethics. These companies are regularly involved in efforts to prevent possible competition, usually through bribing and lobbying lawmakers to make competition nearly impossible. They should not be allowed to merge, further reducing the already ridiculously slim choices most Americans have for the service these companies provide!
—Benjamin Croxton, Jacksonville, FL

Enough said.
—Ingrid Ronngren Guerci, Tarrytown, NY

This anti-public merger screams for anti-trust remedy.
—Chris Grimley, North Wales, PA

All filtered news and programs, NO THANK YOU!
—Ms. Madelyn B Pesci, columbia, SC

I'd prefer MORE diversity in TV choices not less.
—Patricia Rahikainen, Green Bay, WI

Lack of competition hurts the consumer.
—Cheryl Mayo, Pittsburg, KS

We do not need an oligopoly like Comcast-Time Warner!
—Charles C Buell, Norwich, VT

I am not necessarily against the merger of Comcast and Time Warner. My concern is with the implied threat of losing access to a wide open Internet and choking off programming. Proper safeguards should be in effect to insure that Comcast/Time Warner only provide services to their clients and not have the ability to censor public access to information media. Secondly, Corporations are servants of the public, the ability to form a Corporation rests solely in the hands of Our Government which is the instrument of the will of the People of the United States. It is vital to the survival of any Corporation to understand that it's charter may be revoked if it uses it's position to undermine the good of the People of the United States by practicing in unfair trade or monopolistic manipulation of the price fixing for goods and services. My hope is that by the merger of Time Warner and Comcast will ultimately create fantastic new technologies and services that will be the gateway to a better, more connected planet. I hope and pray that we can trust that this merger is to have the benefits of two great organizations working together to establish lines of communication open to all, and not (as our worst fear), become an instrument of fascism, dictatorship and deception.
—Rick McNamara, Troy, NY

We are Comcast users. We want them to supply the power, not abuse it.
—Ms. Deborah and Barry Benjamin, Lancaster, PA

Do not make this about a class war! Keep net neutrality!
—Nancy V. Willing, Newark, DE

The is a monopoly in the final stages. Please do not allow this merger to take place or I along with other consumers will be cutting the cord on cable.
—Jeff Schneider, lAUREL, MD

There is less and less competition.
—Evelyn Krueger, Forest Park, IL

Democracy cannot be sold out on the internet.
—Tom Noonan, Hancock, NY

There have been too many media mergers already!
—Mr. Steven Dean, TOPTON, NC

This corporate merger also has the potential to undermine the American public's access to information vital to casting an informed vote. Please consider our democracy in your review. Thank you.
—Anne Grogan, Truckee, CA

I want to protect my choices.
—Susan kerwin, Goldendale, WA

As a democracy of people United in the States of America, I am strongly urging you, the Federal Communications Commission, and the United States Justice Department to reassess the potential corporate monopoly that these two companies merging as one would create and cease this activity indefinitely. It would not be fair game at all for the consumers of the free world. ~Z.
—Zakiyyah F. Askia, Oak Park, IL

Say "No" to gigantic Ma Bell style monopolies. Internet service should be considered a public utility.
—Mr. Scott Huber, Hales Corners, WI

The danger of the merger is NOT cable TV it is that these companies already have exclusive access to large user bases that they threaten the integrity and operability or the internets peering backbone. If they want to merge make them spin off internet access into a series of smaller, independent companies that pay or line access and thereby opening up competition where competition is needed. I doubt they will still want to merge after that.
—Joel Richards, Greensboro, NC

I expect you are corrupt corporate stooges and will approve this deal. How can people be so blind.
—Barrie Macrae, Fall City, WA

Dear Govt. Start doing your god damned jobs already.
—Glen Colby, Boise, ID

Two of the worst corporations for customer satisfaction should not be able to merge.
—Michael McCarthy, Clarkston, MI

All these mergers are actually leading to monopolies. Monopolies make competition difficult or impossible. That includes also the merger of ATT and Direct TV. Monopolies are illegal and place far too much bargaining power in the hands of the few, the powerful, the already rich. They are contrary to the vision of our Founders where all citizens have equal rights and protection, and the right to share in the blessings of the Common Good and the opportunity to own their own business-not a nation that is ruled by a "new aristocracy". The power of monopolies overwhelms the majority of the common people. This is why a law against monopolies was passed decades ago. That Congress and that President understood what is at stake when the nation faces a monopoly or concentration of power in the hands of the few. Stop all mergers that make any corporation too big to fail or to go to jail. We have seen how that works.
—Elizabeth Riebschlaeger, Cuero, TX

no merger!
—Lynn Anderson, ventnor, NJ

After years of terrible experience with Comcast in Oregon, I say NO to the merger.
—Joan Lockwood, Salem, OR

This merger would be just another step in the path to 'NO CHOICE' living.
—Allyn Totino, miami springs, FL

Comcast is horribly mismanaged, this can only spell disaster for EVERYONE!
—David Kline, Lake Worth, FL

This merger is one more step in the demise of the United States' competitive environment and will lead to the further dumbing down of the country. Cynthia Philip —Ms. Cynthia Philip, Rhinecliff, NY

As you know Comcast gives terrible service. Making them bigger only adds to consumers' woes
—Philip Levitt M.D., West Palm Beach, FL

Another fine example of how special interest groups run this country.. Our goverment is quite simply...corrupt. Big Oil, Dole, Comcast... and the list goes on. We are all subject to many kings.
—C Jeffries, Houston, TX

Is the goal to have monopoly control of media.? We need competition, not conglomerates.
—Dan Egolf, Hayward, CA

I realize that the government no longer thinks ANY antitrust measures are necessary, but THE PEOPLE DO!!!
—Marquis Z. Hodes MD, Indianapolis, IN

Too much monopoly already!!!! Stop the merger!
—Mr. Paul Rutkovsky, Tallahassee, FL

I agree completely.
—, Tyler, TX

Say "NO " to predatory capitalism. YOUR CUSTOMER SERVICE IS WOEFULLY UNDERMANNED.
—Mary Price, Spokane, WA

We're looking for open access and a choice from many, not 1 monolith. Stop this merger please.
—Linda Rudick, Sunset Beach, NC

Scandalous to even consider permitting such massive monopoly power.
—Devon Sean McCullough, Arlington, MA

I'm angry about this merger! Even though I'm a Comcast customer, I'm totally and irrevocably against this merger with Time Warner Cable, and I urge all of you shareholders to reject it today!
—Richard Clifford, Milton, MA

This would create a monopoly, we already have little choice. The consumer is already bombarded with monthly ticks to their pocketbook and we can't afford a mega merger with the power to extort more money from us because we have little choice.
—Leslie Bennett, Moorpark, CA

Comcast has been cited for hiring shills to cram community meeting rooms so citizens with real complaints can not participate. This behavior is an indicator of what they will do on a national basis. Comcast's Nazi-like tactics are what we can expect when they are allowed even greater control internet and cable and TV. Comcast must be stopped.
—Greg Miller, Watertown, MA

Comcast is the worst rated company. Horrible customer service and rip off rates. They have offices for sales only. No one to help customers with issues. Nothing is put in writing.
—Barbara Petrie, Portland, OR

Why would we be creating more "too big to fail" opportunities in business? We, as consumers, lose when our choices are lessened.
—Elizabeth Foster, Tucson, AZ

No more too big to fail. No more consolidation of power and loss of competition in fees.
—Beverly Brady, Soquel, CA

The lack of choice is a serious problem in all areas of Ohio. Each merger has made the situation more serious against the consumer. Families need inexpensive access to internet for business and education purposes and you are making it impossible for families of less income to have this resource. Please stop making it worse.
—Holly McTernan, Lakewood, OH

We need to split them up not let them merge. Six companies owning almost all of our media is not how a democracy practices freedom of the press.
—Kevin McCarthy, Buffalo, NY

Monopolies are anathema to democracy.
—William White, Salt Lake City, UT

This is an obomination. Why not let Shell, Exxon, Citgo, Sunoco & Hess merge too
—Alan D. Kardoff, Palm Bay, FL

The fact that we the people have to fight these monopoly-mergers and net neutrality shows how pathetic and off-base the FCC is. Why are you not staffed with people who UNDERSTAND TECH?? Every tech company, every tech individual, ALL have come out against this merger and against the killing of net neutrality. We support local fiber cooperatives and anything to get the internet to ALL AMERICANS. FCC, stand up for US, not for more corporate masters. Seriously.
—Courtney B Keller, Loveland, CO

A few companies should NOT own everything in this country. m They have too much control now.
—Dolores Ciabattoni, Cortland, OH

Combining the documented worst cable company (Time-Warner) with the second worst (Comcast) will only create a behemoth that can provide even poorer service with near monopoly impunity. This would be a blow to consumers.
—Jon Kapecki, Rochester, NY

whatever happened to the RICO Act??
—Victoria Pueschel, Makawao, HI

The merger will only HURT the consumer. Comcast claims this will improve things for us. Bullshit! Here are a few examples - This is a repeat of Ma Bell becoming ATT then having to be broken up again. Back then ATT said it would lower prices and help the consumer. It only hurt us! Comcast recently told the FCC the merger would allow them to lower prices and allow unlimited bandwidth BUT they just announced last week that they planned on rolling out bandwidth caps over the course of the next 5 years!!!!!!! I live in southern NJ. There are no other options! It is only Comcast or the unreliable, slow Verizon DSL service - which Verizon is not even properly caring for any more! Comcast has abusive practices towards consumers that have no choice. I know of numerous friends/family in this area that Comcast has basically told them "take it or leave it" when they had terrible experiences that Comcast would not correct or fix. Why? Because Comcast knows they have no choice! Dish/Satellite is not an option. In many communities satellite dishes are not allowed to be mounted on condos/townhomes and even worse, their internet speeds are horrible! There should be small, local ISPs in every town offering consumers a CHOICE! NO MORE DAMN MONOPOLIES!!!!!!!!!!!
—Brian Williams, Mount Laurel, NJ

Enough is enough already. How about expanding internet access to more people instead of planning how to fleece those you already monopolize.
—Mr. Glenn Bath, Negaunee, MI

This merger would create a monopoly.
—Louise Simrell, Waialua, HI

Good grief, haven't we yet strangled our news/internet media enough yet? Any normal market needs diversity, and these mergers are destroying that. Please, please block this horrendous merger.
—Ravenna Oakes, Lawrence, KS

A simple consideration of corporate behavior makes it clear that this proposed merger will clearly not be in the best interest of our country and society.
—Paul W. Deeley, Winsted, CT

What happened to our anti-trust laws? In years past this kind of monopoly was recognized as being dangerous to our country. It still is.
—Meredith Ares, Searsport, ME

Freedom of the press is a meaningless concept when all the "presses" belong to the same entity. Do not allow the creation of this monopoly!
—Deborah Burger, Jonesborough, TN

Cable bills are rediculous as is and to let this merger happen could be disastrous for many people and in particular the elderly who enjoy TV and can barely pay the bills now !
—Susan Litt, Naples, FL

Where is Teddy Roosevelt when you need him? Monopolies are not good for capitalism and free markets.....Only for power.
—Benita Phillips, Palisade, CO

Preserve free press and democracy
—Ann Rogers, Traverse City, MI

We are looking for a new provider.
—Paul Gahris, Columbus, OH

Freedom of the press is essential to a functioning democracyc. Like thousands of other writers, I depend on easy internet access to report accurately.
—Diana Somerville, Port Angeles, WA

I already am a very dissatisfied Comcast subscriber; my apartment complex will not allow any other. Moving soon and I will dump Comcast at the first opportunity. Your service is awful, too expensive,and customer service reps, dishonest.They will say anything to keep you and then don't deliver.
—Beth Case, Troy, MI

If you do this, your FCC name should be changed to appropriately reflect your function: FASTTRACK CORPORATE CONTROL
—Carol Edwards, Evanston, IL

No good will come from the Comcast/Time Warner merger. Comcast and TWC are already monopolies in most areas and making them even larger will make the problem of competition and better prices even worse.
—Angela Moseley, Philadelphia, PA

This proposed merger is anti-competitive. What innovations will come from this? The answer is none - this is about controlling the market.
—Ray Zielinski, Champaign, IL

Please see the anti-trust laws designed specifically to counter this kind of monopoly.
—Casey Lyon, Burlington, VT

Competition is good for American Business!!
—Andrew Mickel, Minneapolis, MN

This whole thing does NOT SERVE THE AMERICAN PUBLIC!!!
—Jann Thomas, Newburgh, IN

From a business prospective in addition to market competition being reduced and program choices being reduced wouldn't the merger just become a big private sector bureaucratic mess with a handful of executives trying to run something so large and harder to manage which ends up being another "too big to fail" company that gets bailed out by the taxpayer money coming out of the struggling lower income people?
—Julian Kernes, Fairfax, VA

This merger is not in the best interest of the public, the concepts of open market competition or allowing the American citizens to have options in the services it receives from the media. We as a nation need to stop allowing these one stop shops to grow at the sacrifice of innovation and competition for all businesses.
—Orlando Taylor, Stockton, CA

Too much control & power in one place is not good for democracy. Democracy flourishes when there is choice in the media world.
—Constance Del Nero, Easton, MD

Allowing this merger to happen would create a monopoly (or close to) and create higher prices on what is almost unaffordable now.
—Nakia Giles, Newark, DE

These idiots always say the merger is going to improve everything, end world hunger, and other stupid things. It's nothing but a total monopoly scheme and puts more into the hands of the few who wish to own the whole world.
—Mr. Michael Martin, Lansing, MI

I pay Comcast $66/month for average speed internet access and nothing else. There is no other cable service offered. For all intents and purposes, Comcast has a monopoly. I urge you to do everything possible to block this merger. Thank you.
—Stuart Ward, Simsbury, CT

Time Warner is already enjoying a monopoly of cable service in the Char/Meck area Comcast merger would only be worse. Rates which are already too high would increase.
—Sharon K Sapp, Charlotte, NC

No need to fool the US public, rates will go up if this goes through —Barry F. Lee, Newark, DE

Ad businesses get bigger and bigger eliminating competition we lose choice. The economies of scale they promise are never enjoyed by the consumer. All that happens is that the upper management claims the increased profits. It is your responsibility in our government to look out for the best interests of the majority. In this case that would be to block the merger.
—Charles MacDonald, Auburn, ME

We once broke up AT&T because they were considered to be too big, now we race to make big bigger. Haven't we learned from the banking fiascos about too big to fail?
—Mr. R. Michael Ehr, Milwaukee, WI

We require more and smaller companies that can respond locally to the needs of their customers. Time Warner and Comcast both have the top two lousiest customer service ratings in America. We clearly won't be getting better service from making both of them the single worst in customer service. We're supposed to be against monopolistic capitalism, not for it. Please vote no on this deal. It's bad for America, it's bad for the American People and it's bad for our sense of local values. So if it's good, financially, for a few rich already multi-millionaires or billionaires we should stand up and say no just to that on principle alone.
—Christoper S. Dunn, Bastrop, TX

This must be stopped!
—Cassandra Church, E. Montpelier, VT

Stop it now. Please.
—William Hale, Roseville, MN

No F-ing Way.
—Jeni DeMarco, Nunda, NY

This proposed merger is yet another example of class warfare at it's worst; I own a small business and depend greatly on efficient and affordable internet access to receive and transport graphic files, communicating with customers and vendors. This merger will bring unfair expense to my small business whereas a larger business will be better able to absorb the extra cost. The internet as a commodity needs to be open and fair to everyone. This is actually a similar war as is being waged over water as a commodity; powerful companies seek to make us pay unduly and unfairly for what is a necessity. It ends up being that those who CAN afford the expense continue on. Those who CAN'T afford it, die. The cable/internet industry is pitting the “haves" against the "have-nots", and they don't care about the fall out – They Only Care About Their Own Bottom Line. FCC and Dept. of Justice: If you care, DO YOUR JOBS! DO NOT ALLOW THIS MERGER; your choice will show whose side you are on!!! And sadly, I suspect it’s big-business, big-money, big-Lobbiests. Despicable.
—Karen Peters, Phoenixville, PA

I have no doubt that the woeful state of broadband in this county is due to the lack of meaningful competition in most US markets. This merger can only serve to undermine competition even further and will undoubtedly reduce quality of service.
—Paul Rosenfeld, Silver Spring, MD

Monopolies are anti capatalistic!
—Linda Bassett, RPV, CA

Completely unacceptable and against all the laws designed to limit or prevent monopolies in our American democracy. One of the worst ideas of this century!
—Lisa Awbrey, san francisco, CA

We need to move away from too big government
—KAren Small, Portland, OR

Where are our antitrust laws? Where will be the competition? Stop this merger!!!!!
—Terry Harris, Austin, TX

does anyone believe it wont hurt compation and raise prices
—Arthur Postal, New York, NY

With customer satisfaction surveys indicating a D average for cable providers, we can't afford a further decrease in competition. Nip this now.
—Ken Nikaidoh, Dallas, TX

The cable companies are too monopolistic and there is NOT open competition. We consumers lose when these companies jack up prices with ZERO competition. It's the sworn DUTY of the FCC to protect consumers from just these monopolistic price gouging techniques. DO YOUR DUTY, NOW!
—Jack Schlotte, San Diego, CA

This merger will NOT serve your clients better
—Bettyanne Green, Oakland, CA

Good grief, when will this stop? When there's ONE PERSON pushing a button to feed us whatever "news" the .01 percent wants us to get? ol·i·gar·chy. noun \ˈ ä-lə- gär-kē, ˈ ō-\ 1. a government in which a small group exercises control especially for corrupt and selfish purposes; also 2. a group exercising such control : very harsh control or authority

History has shown that Monopolies don't innovate, leaving Americans with sone of the most expensive and poorest quality internet in the world
—Jeff Brewster, Fullerton, CA

We need competition NOT giants!! Damn it stop allowing big money to take our choices away!! Stop it NOW!!!!!
—Dallas Jensen, Aurora, CO

I'd ditch Comcast if this goes through.
—Roseann Dudrick, Boulder Creek, CA

How is this NOT construed as an ANTITRUST situation??
—James Sander, Austin, TX

Why on the earth do we even have antitrust laws, if we let industry after industry get taken over by a handful of giants that collude on pricing? Please. No more. We need more competition in cable, not less.
—Ms. Anne Willard, Callicoon, NY

Allowing this merger essentially creates an essentially creates monopoly that increases costs to consumers, stifles competition and reduces choice. Such a merger would be anti-free market and further increase crony-capitalism.
—Richard Hyde, Greensboro, NC

Comcast already charges ridiculously high rates for broadband internet and for cable TV services. Comcast has eliminated all competition in the Denver Metro market. And the Justice Departmrnt has long sinced stopped enforcing anti-trust, anti-competition laws. Comcast must be stopped from devouring every last competitor nationwide.
—Jim Engelking Engelking, Golden, CO

More concentration means less democracy!
—Angie Burnham, Boulder, CO

Big business got us in the past mess. Now they are doing it again. The country was build on competition and all these communications mergers will end competition in the communications field and feedoms of choice in America.
—Stephen Stuczynski, Grafton, MA

Please do not allow this merger. Let the companies compete for business and allow consumers to choose. A consolidation is unhealthy and would not benefit the market nor the consumer. Oppose the merger now! Thank you.
—Claudia Ford, New York, NY

Use the Anti-Trust law that still exists, and was used to break up AT&T when it got too big. That is what it is there for, to prevent monopolistic action!
—John Bowling, Phoenix, AZ

This merger should not be allowed - it will deny Freedom of a real choice + stifles ingenuity + creativity + creates a colossus + is antithetical to free markets + I don't want it for those reasons and many more - the country is run by the oligarchs now so whats next Tass + Pravda -- I also think that the FCC is very corrupted under Wheeler re: his lobbying history -don't forget you reap what you sow - so think carefully about where you are taking us -
—Isobel Lowther, new york, NY

Ever heard of Anti-Trust? This merger is against the public interest.
—Kathleen O'Donnell, Phila, PA

NO!!! Wake up NOW!!
—Danielle Dunn, Bastrop, TX

When has eliminating the competition ever been good for the average American?
—Michael Moore, Boulder Creek, CA

The proposed Comcast/Time Warner merger serves no one but the media conglomerates involved. The merger would be a further step toward consolidation of media power, to the detriment of consumers and citizens in terms of choice, competition, price and quality of service, and diversity of information. The cable industry (and by extension, the broadband industry) are already oligopolistic in nature. Most markets have few, if any choice as to whom they may subscribe for service. This would further concentrate ownership, consolidating the two largest cable and Internet companies into one. Moreover, consider the recently released reports of the American Consumer Satisfaction Index, in which respondents clearly ranked Comcast and Time Warner as having the lowest customer satisfaction rates of any industry. Those are striking figures, and underscores that the proposed merger would do little to serve consumer and public interest. Please take the necessary steps to block this merger.
—Zack Stiegler, Pittsburgh, PA

Simply put, monopolies are bad. It's bad enough I only have 2 choices in my area for TV & Internet and now you want to make one of them even larger... This isn't going to be good for customers.
—Brandon Burton, Raleigh, NC

FCC should do their job and block this merger!
—Gina Gennaro, Tempe, AZ

Note that these are among the corporations that champion the end of Net Neutrality and therefore are anti-democratic in their orientation.
—Mark Siemens, Eugene, OR

Clinton was wrong to sign into legislation the bill to de-regulate the Telecomm Industry. We don't want Telecomm Industry ran by just a few individuals. It's not safe.
—Larry Mann, Maple Falls, WA

No Merger. Comcast should also have to sell off its Cable Modem ISP business. Cable Companys should not be in the Internet Service Provider business.
—Trevor Pierce, Seattle, WA

What are we in China? I thought we were not living under a fascist regime, but I'm beginning to wonder. Net neutrality is essential for the sharing of information between citizens of the world. It's our only hope for peace. And you want to take that away? You're no better than Monsanto. You can't own the seeds of freedom! One day the people WILL rise up.
—Jen Winter, sausalito, CA

Bigger corporations mean higher prices for the consumer.
—Jacquelyn Goeldner, Boulder, CO

Given Comcast's abuse in blocking access to legitimate web sites and it's ongoing efforts to favor some traffic over others, I object wholeheartedly to this proposed merger.
—Sean Sowell, Pleasanton, CA

And keep net neutrality !
—Anne Petersen, Sonoma, CA

Stop media consolidation
—Grant Hamill, Richmond, VA

Competition is for the benefit of the people. Mergers into conglomerates is for the benefit of the businesses.

—Clay Hilligas, Chico, CA

Here we go again?
—Jason D. Poley, Santa Barbara, CA

Cable companies in this country wield too much influence already in this country with their largely legalized monopolies, allowing the two biggest to merge is insanity and will only hurt competition and the American people.
—Thaddeus Ryker, Elkton, MD

We need more competition and openness and less big business total control over media. Please say NO to this merger.
—Ruth L Green, Raleigh, NC

We must not return to the guilded age. We must protect our democracy by protecting competition and assuring accountability to the consumer. Break-up the all of the media monopolies!
—David P. Margolis, Buffalo Grove, IL

This is bad for users and horrible for competition.
—Todd Gage, San Francisco, CA

Two highly disliked companies joining does not create a loved company.
—Bill Eagle, Saint Helens, OR

Let's not concentrate all of the power for a service that is essential to the people of America in the hands of two corporate powers who have earned the lowest marks for customer regard / customer service in their industry. We should be mindful of the millions of consumers who are already at the mercy of these behemoths. Already I have to purchase TV channels that I don't want from Comcast! These companies already pose a great threat to NET Nuetrality too... I Urge You To VOTE NO on this merger!
—Victoria Gladstone, Front Royal, VA

THIS COUNTRY DOES NOT NEED AN OLIGARCHY BEING ONE OF A VERY FEW RUNNING -- CONTROLLING -- THE NATION'S TV AND INTERNET ACESS MARKETS. LET'S ENSURE THAT WE KEEP OUT DEMOCRACY!!!
—Dennis W. Hilger, Lee's Summit, MO

Monopolies SUCK! Corporate power needs to be checked, because it's interest is undemocratic. Bring back Net Neutrality!
—Peter King, Florence, MA

I am upset about the increasing over and over the of the cost of cable to watch commercials. And also, why do they keep changing channels and forcing us to add digital converter boxes?
—gloria gaxiola, newhall, CA

This is insane!
—Lisa Lederer, Pompano Beach, FL

cable, Comcast included, are a monopoly and I do not want to see a merger.
—Erika Uhrlass, Hermitage, TN

I am troubled anytime companies merge with the idea of reducing competition. Less competition reduces customer service and increases costs.
—Mike Fratto, Saint Paul, MN

Comcast is already dangerous. It just would be super dangerous none of which should have been or should be allowed.
—Nancy Newell, Portland, OR

Monopoly much?
—John Robinson, Henderson, NV

There are laws against monopolies! What happened to those??
—Colleen Raner, Ben Lomond, CA

If things don't work out, I believe in the power of the masses to organize and branch off into their own little powerhouses of communication and lifeblood to communities. Life will find a way..!

We don't need more group think opinion coming from fewer and fewer sources. WE NEED more information coming from much more divergent sources. Mergers are killing our democracy.
—chris connolly, White Salmon, WA

Monopolies are not good for the consumer, it kills competition and leaves the consumer with no choice but to pay higher and higher prices.
—Edith E. Colbert, Williamsburg, VA

History shows - no good ever comes to people from monopolies.
—Beryl M Oliver, Springfield, OR

The act and resultant affect of this merger would be unconscionable! But can we trust the FCC and DOJ to do what is right to not allow it?
—Mary Thompson, Redmond, WA

There's no competition in "Too Big To Fail". MegaCorps don't work for consumers!
—Michael Phillips, Cottontown, TN

Rather than provide more and better service to its customers — and reward its investors by paying a better dividend — Comcast and Time Warner's executive would rather reward themselves.
—Tom Cammarata, Middletown, CA

We are done with the MegaMergers. It's truly criminal and undemocratic.
—Carol Chandler, San Francisco, CA

I don't expect this to influence a company already so far removed from customer desires due to monopolistic market carving.
—Scott Maddock, Redmond, WA

Serve the majority of Americans as you were entrusted to do - Stop This Merger.
—Laura Geraghty, Boise, ID

so--now we have telecom companies too big to fail?!
—Wright G Gregson, dorchester, MA

Consolidation of this magnitude is unhealthy for our country, and all the promo talk about how great this will be for consumers is baloney. Only a select few will benefit.
—Richard Paschal, Carrboro, NC

I already have no choice as to what cable/internet provider is available in my area -- the Bronx of NYC. If NYC has no choices, how much more limited will consumer choices be if this giant media firm is allowed to become reality? Stop this type of corporate takeover of our airwaves.
—Ms. Bonnie-Ann Black, Bronx, NY

When are we going to get an Antitrust policy other than "we don't enforce the antitrust laws"?!

THIS IS THE INTENTION OF THE NEW WORLD ORDER - TO HELL WITH THE AMERCAN PEOPLE - REVOLT U.S. CITIZENS - YOU ARE ABOUT TO BECOME OBSOLETE!
—Jeanne Serrano, suffolk, VA

Not only should this merger be denied, but all these other conglomerates should be broken up too!
—Cynthia Leeder, San Jose, CA

Comcast is a lousy company bent only on profit, failure to maintain and upgrade services along one of worst customer service support. This merger is a monopoly plan and simple so I stand against this and others will to. No company is to big to fail!
—Raymond S kohn, Salisbury, NC

Consumers have always been best served by more choice, not less. Allowing a controlled industry such as cable and Internet to be further consolidated only allows the companies remaining to keep charging us more for less. America invented the internet, but we have some of the worst ISP service in the developed world because companies have no motivation to improve their service. Please do what is right for the people of this nation, and stop this —Nicolas Shugart, Golden, CO

Freedom of the press is one of the most important of the safeguards to liberty and democracy. Monopolies threaten Democracy.

—Marjorieolsen Olsen, Higganum, CT

Stop screwing the consumer by eliminating completion. And stop putting your campaign contributors ahead of your constituents.
—Dick Yates, the colony, TX

No!
—Robin Wilson, Hawley, PA

Really, don't you think that the media is consolidated enough as it is? I am concerned that if this trend continues, in a few years there will be only one colossal company. That can't possibly be good for this nation. Too much is at stake to allow this merger to go through. Please vote and act to oppose this merger. -John —John Allen, Long Beach, MS

More diversity, not less! We need a commitment to universal access for every citizen!
—Max Girouard, Renton, WA

The cable industry will become too big to budge on anything with this. Much power if this merger goes through.
—Jon Whitsell, Santa Fe, NM

I was lead to be;ieve that when big companys joined togeather that was wrong and against the laws
—Jerryhall, Goodlettsville, TN

this merger should not occur, we need more competition in the free market for consumers not less, and we do not need monopolies that hold hostage and gouge consumers in perpetuity.
—Bruce DeYoung, Lynnwood, WA

Enough monopolies!!!
—Elsie Winstead, Saint Louis, MO

No one company should EVER have this much power.
—Kathleen Rueppel, San Antonio, TX

Just what is NOT needed- a Ma Bell of cable.
—Damon S. Edwards, Orangeburg, SC

The 20 Democrats who voted for this merger stabbed their own Democratic constituents in the back. They are the perfect example of why Democratic voters don't come out to vote in the mid-term elections. Who needs Republicans, when we have these spineless, Corporate controlled Democrats, to ruin everything we voted for.
—Jeff Morris, Saugerties, NY

The last thing this country needs is for these two giant fucking shitty companies to join forces. They're already fucking us over hard enough as it is.
—William Shroyer, Lisle, IL

Even more, right now the internet providers want us consumers to have all three services with them. Like internet, phone and cable even if we don't need them. Otherwise they rise the price if we need only one. Now if the server becomes even bigger. This will get worse...They don't increase prices by a dollar but by ten to fifteen dollars. They are so greedy...
—Digna B. Escudero, Pasadena, CA

Norris's octopus is returning in shifted form
—Andrew McLane, San Francisco, CA

Yes, isn't monopoly a wonderful thing (for the monopolists, and the revolving door opportunists who shill for them). FCC and Justice need to remember that they don't work for the 1 percent, even if they think they do.
—Timothy J. Moye, Madison, WI

STOP COMCAST!!!! I am a voter and I will vote for the elected official that blocks Comcast merger ! Comcast is CRAP! Dont be like them!
—Victor Sager, Baltimore, MD

Money (as speech), or democracy It seems we can't have both =(We will know which side you are on when we vote =)
—Thomas Seaman, moscow, ID

We need media diversification, not consolidation!
—Evan William Selby, Troutdale, OR

This will drastically reduce competition.
—Douglas Fish, new port richey, FL

The FCC and even more importantly, Congress, should be using the Sherman Anti Trust Act to combat monopolies in this country.
—Ron Johnson, Rockford, IL

Monopoly of information is dumbing down America. This makes us a weaker nation. We can not afford that.
—Richard Bowden, Austin, TX

I say stop a merger!
—Susan, Frankfort, NY

Monopolies or near-monopolies are bad for customers-competition drives quality and choice. Gargantuan companies are bad for the government officials because of the enormous pressure they are able to exert. Monopolies and near-monopolies cause barriers to entry for new players. They limit or affect other industries through preferential practices in their operations. Large financial institutions and large energy companies have proven that with power and resources, corporate ethics, corporate accountability and ability to regulate go right out the window. Communications companies that achieve monopoly power reduce freedom for all but themselves. DO NOT ALLOW IT.
—Donna Phillips, Nashville, TN

You Are all well aware of the negative consequences of allowing this merger to go thru!! Please do the right thing for the American People..
—W. A. A Mackay, Salem, OR

It is bad enough that Comcast has their hands in nearly EVERY media format now and is dominating the cable industry. Do we really want them to gain this much control and be allowed to snatch up yet another cable provider? This cable conglomerate is borderline on a Monopoly as it is. If this merger is allowed to continue then we may as well just let every industry do as it pleases and Monopolize as they please. This is a no-brainier here. Do not allow this merger to complete as it destroys the market for fair and reasonable priced cable.
—Jeffrey David Day Jr., Urbana, OH

Anyone who has dealt with Comcast as a consumer can testify that their customer service is terrible--make them bigger, and it will only get worse. The public deserves better, especially considering the cost paid for service to begin with.
—Nancy A Naragon, Sewickley, PA

WE THE PEOPLE! do not need monopoly empire!
—Joe Jurcisin, Island Lake, IL

please do not allow the 2 most loathsome media conglomerates to merge. they rank dead last in customer service. combining the two will not improve that metric one bit

I have numerous Monopoly games at home. This satisfies my desire to own the old Atlantic City and variations thereof. Your endeavor is out of proportion to reality. Don't do it.
—Chloe Ross, West Hollywood, CA

Comcast, Verizon, and AT&T should be broken up NOT allowed to swallow up more companies!
—Michael Walker, Vancouver, WA

I oppose monopolies!
—Estella Leopold, Seattle, WA

If there is to be a single Internet provider it would have to be a regulated utility, perhaps restricted to a 1% profit margin. This worked pretty well for the Bell System for many years. So if Comcast wants to own the US Internet, let them agree to be a regulated, profit-limited entity. Otherwise, NO!
—Michael Lutter, Boulder Creek, CA

Historically we have already seen the detrimental effect monopolies have on our economy which is why anti-monopoly laws were created and enforced. The government should have the best interest of its people at heart NOT the major corporations.
—Nicole Boyeson, Madison, WI

no more "nationalization" of the media, too little competition now, diverse the whole corporate system.
—Terry Thorne, Shiloh, IL

comcast is already too large and strong arming other companies into submission. Please don't give them additional power.
—Roger A. Marrero MD, Oviedo, FL

We need better service and more competition not another company to big to fail.
—Rich Racimora, Aptos, CA

Let's STOP the madness, we don't want Comcast to take over Time Warner and control a share of this market, don't we already have enough CRAP on TV/Internet.
—Carol Jasnosz, Wallingford, PA

This merger must be stopped at all cost. As a Comcast customer I am very dissatisfied - and they simply ignored the letter I wrote to them, even although it was sent recorded delivery. They have contempt for their customers now - and we can only expect poorer service if the merger is completed. The existing service provider corporations have divided up the country to avoid competition. Thankfully we have PBS and NPR - what we also need is over the air availability of programming.
—Dr Barry J Farbrother, Guilford, CT

Please do not let this deal go forward. We already enough discrimination in this country. This will disenfranchise not only the poor, but also the middle class. Are we becoming Iran?

Monopoly is antidemocratic.
—Kelley Hayden, Reno, NV

Comcast has some of the worst customer satisfaction ratings in this country. I have tried twice to work with them and gave up completely. To allow this to grow and reduce competition while Europe has much better service than we do, is self-defeating.

—Dinda Evans, san diego, CA

Our cable bills are already outrah=geously expensive. Please don't give the big boys any more leverage !!!
—Warren Woodward, Tallahassee, FL

Just heard on NPR this morning, that Time Warner and Comcast are the lowest on the list of consumer satisfaction. This is a disaster in the making for consumers.
—Barbara Chambers, Bellevue, WA

I used to get "broadband" internet through a local cable company who got their bandwidth from Comcast. I paid a lot of money for 2M service, and a lot of the time it didn't work. If this merger goes through, service will probably get a lot worse for users. And the price will go up, because there is no more competition. Stop this now! We need more free choice, not less.
—Char Leverette, Evening Shade, AR

Ridiculous to even consider this merger. We already have too few companies in TV and Internet access markets.

In addition to these points, with which I completely agree, it must be noted that both companies already provide TERRIBLE service and control the Internet and Cable services of much of the country. I do not know anyone who uses these companies' services and actually like them. Please do not let them merge thereby giving us less options for getting the Internet and cable services that are so crucial to work and life today. Thank you.
—Kara Keeling, Los Angeles, CA stop all communication mergers.

—Raymond Duncan, Oklahoma City, OK

Monopoly is a board game, it should not be allowed in real life. This is not for consumers, this would ONLY benefit the corporation. What is America becoming, the land for the few.
—Mary Hansen, Madison, WI

Time warner is a monopoly here.It is illegal period they own us.We have no option but to pay way too much and the did over run comcast buffalo.
—Daniel Cherry, batavia, NY

These conglomerate companies are using their hugeness and their money to stave off competition in a "free" market. Keeping municipalities from setting up fiber optic networks to read meters etc is a shameful use of their deregulation. It is time to break them up and regulate for the sake of future growth. Thank you for your help in this matter.
—Steven Wood, Newport, NY

Comcast and TWC consistently rate the worst in customer service. How would that improve under consolidation?
—Kevin Calman, Austin, TX

The main rationale offered by giant corporations with near-monopoly control is always, "Services will be more efficient and comprehensive and consumer prices will be lower." None of these promises have ever held true in the case of Telcom/Cable giants, and never will. Instead, we Americans pay the highest prices for some of the slowest, most inadequate Internet services in the developed world. It is time to re-regulate, split up, and downsize these overgrown communications monoliths.
—Dan Ashby, San Pablo, CA

Every time we merge communications companies we lose some of our control, right? We don't want that.

Where is the anti-trust law?? It was for fair competition based on lots of entities competing so keep them honest. Propaganda about synergies, even consumer choice???? "Trust us." Talk is absolutely cheap, and they get to control the rules of the game. We find out how they lied after it's too late. Honor democracy, and law, deny the merger.

It is the FCC's job to regulate the industry in such a manner to protect the interests of the public, not the interests of the corporations. Please do your job!
—Rick Bligh, Marysville, WA

The FCC and the Justice Dept. are as crooked as the day is long. If they had intelligence they would know that a merger supports Payola received and they are complicit in destroying what little is left of our Republic - which now stands for big time corruption. This nation was once the First and Now is at the bottom as the biblical quote goes -"the last shall be the first and the first shall be the last". This odious merger puts you in the category of predators of the people, destroyers of freedom.
—Annette Saint John Lawrence, Sherman Oaks, CA

evolution is variation with natural selection. technical evolution is variation with competitive social and cultural selection. No matter how you split the difference, they are both based upon variation and selection. We have had enought too big to fail and too big to jail nonsense...stop the merger and give the people a voice in choice!
—Bruce E. Woych, KINGSTON, NY

How does this merger help Americans!! Comcast is the only cable provider in my town, because an agreement signed decades ago the only competition is satellite tv. The FCC's mission is to protect Americans right to fair use of the vast radio wave spectrum by providing fair and thoughtful regulations. Not the wholesale blanket approval for mega media, whos sole purpose is to extract as much money as possible users of bandwidth. What is the FCC's stake in this merger? Who stands to gain at the FCC.
—MelArgon Argon, Waltham, MA

IT IS INSANE TO NARROW OUR INFORMATION SOURCES WHEN WE SO DESPARATELY NEED WISDOM. IT IS INSANE TO ENABLE CONTINUED CONCENTRATRATION OF MEDIA AND ECONOMIC CONTROL INTO THE HANDS OF A FEW. Concentration of information and economic control in the hands of a few is disastrous for everyone. These truths have been proven over and over. It's clear that we haven't paid attention to history - even the depression lessons from our grandparents and Monopoly. We enabled 'too big to fail' financial institutions and businesses by removing limits on mergers and acquisitions. We've already enabled media to over-consolidate. We, in the practice of democracy, need and require diverse sources of information. We need diverse information in order to innovate and meet all manner of challenges, including wise economic development.
—Bren Ames, Marietta, GA

Bag of nope. Two bad companies combine to create a double stack of turd creating a monopoly. No thank you.
—Patrick Sutton, Plano, TX

Antitrust legislation was passed for a reason; Capitalism is based on the idea that competition among providers will bring the price of service down to the level that the maximum number of consumers are willing to pay. There will be no competition of service providers after this merger if it is allowed.
—Suzan Syrett, Menlo Park, CA

I'm a Comcast shareholder, but I do not believe that this merger will be in the interests of either the company or the country.
—Marjorie Power, Montpelier, VT

When will we put an end to ever larger monopolistic corporations? Already I have no choice of internet provider. Now you want to make Comcast even more powerful.
—Victor Myers, Buchanan, MI

NO NO NO NO to the merger
—Paula Bourgeois, Woodland Park, CO

Who wants to prevent another Enron scandal? I do, and so does everyone I know...and probably most people I don't know. In fact, everyone who uses cable for any purpose whatsoever wants to keep these companies separate from one another. Please don't merge.
—Virginia Buck, Boone, NC

No information monopolies!
—Vernon Huffman, Corvallis, OR

This proposal is nothing but another power grab by people who don't understand themselves and who think a good day is one during which they either made somebody suffer, took money they weren't entitled to, or tried to force-feed their opinions to a nation that actually wasn't interested in their totalitarian propaganda.
—Richard Tibbitts, San Diego, CA bad deal for consumers

—Robert Pollunsky, Austin, TX

Less choice for users at more cost is not in the public interest. I would be less willing to participate.
—Gail Owens, Portland, OR

we need more diversity in cable and internet providers not less. Stop the merger.
—Victoria Hartman, el Portal, CA

I do not want a merger because I don't want a communications monopoly - this is not healthy for individual citizens, our economy and our country.
—Laurie Anderson, Milford, NH

Comcast customer service is abysmal; the last thing we need is a larger monopoly.
—Roddy Erickson, Anacortes, WA

Bust that trust!
—Chris Nephew, Winchester, MA

Don't like companies creating large monopoly business that takes away a competitive market that has been the american way. DON'T let this merger happen with out rules stopping a big jump in cost to consumers which is what will happen if there are no controls in place.
—Michael Tuberdyck, West Seneca, NY

Keep the internet neutral and free.
—Eric Nisonger, San Tan Valley, AZ

There is a reason we have antitrust laws. Remember this.
—Patricia A Harcarik, Baltimore, MD

Why is this even on the table? Competition is needed in mega markets more than anywhere else!
—Jordan Bain, Brookline, MA

Please make it stop! The control this allows over information flow may violate the spirit of the First Amendment's Freedom of the Press.
—Dana Organ, Woodinville, WA

Can you say MONOPOLY. What happened to anti-trust government regulation? Who's getting paid and how much are they getting?
—Cheryl McGregor, phoenix, AZ

The fewer big businesses there are, the less voice the common individuals have in this society.
—Beverly Shields, Long Beach, CA

I don't like this idea in any way. This idea is nothing but a waste of time.
—Jordan Christopher Howells, Scranton, PA

Comcast is a monopoly so large it can decree what its customers will watch and what it chooses to exclude. I prefer Link TV
—Marcia Bushnell, Bedford, MA

Adding the overpriced, poor service of Time Warner Cable to the overpriced poor service of Comcast is nothing but an expensive disaster for consumers. We should be breaking up these virtual monopolies, not allowing them to fester.
—Hugo Dwyer, New York, NY

None of these mergers ever helps consumers but decreases competition. Comcast service already sucks, if given more clients without any improvement their current operation is a farce.
—Marvin Bolden, Decatur, GA

Comcast could price themselves out of the market...and into Market St. Not a bad idea :)
—Steve Treegoob, Portland, OR

This has to be stopped. Corporate domination by the very worst providers on the planet.
—Keith Streeter, Greenfield, MA

In fact they should be broken up rather then merged.
—Daniel Page, Camden, ME

I already get lousy service with interruptions and no competition from COMCAST. Why would I want them to have any more control of this market? I don't!
—Joanie Davis, Eagan, MN

Stop this merger
—Randy Shurpin, Oregon City, OR

As we speak, Comcast is harassing it's current customers for the return of the older equipment that was given to the customers as part of their current plan, and threatening them with adding monthly incremental fees to their current bill. They are already out of control!!!!!
—Bonnie Hill, Chicago, IL

I am a Comcast customer. This company is effectively a monopoly. My rapidly rising cable bill with no improvement in service is my evidence.
—William Cox, Grosse Pointe, MI

Do your job and serve the public!
—Yesenia Perez, Springfield, MA

This is the exact opposite of what this country needs.
—Thomas Frantz, Lancaster, PA

Why is less competition ever good!
—Nicholas Molson, Carney, MI

WE already have big problems with unification of big media. WE must have the FREEDOM of an OPEN INTERNET. Stop this horrible merger attempt.
—HDavid Frotscher, Temple Terrace, FL

NO MORE GIANT CORPORATIONS CONTROLLING OUR MEDIA!!!!!
—Dotty Haight, Glendora, CA

As a TW customer, I am made to take channels I DON'T want to get those I do, and my bill is awful. My internet access is slow, though I pay for high speed. I can't imagine how much worse it would be with the merger.
—Lucy Mercado, Oconomowoc, WI

No more monopolies!
—Caroline Lewis, Tarzana, CA

STOP THIS
—McKenzie Lawton, Brooklyn, NY

As a citizen and a shareholder of Comcast, I strongly object to the concentration of powers Comcast is trying to create by intending to absorb Time Warner.
—Michel LEBAS, Seattle, WA

Comcast is already a second rate company. If they merge with TW they will only treat their customers worse.
—Robert Meyer, Three Bridges, NJ

Monopoly!
—Joe Kelty, Waterford, MI

Healthy competition is necessary to protect the consumer, and to foster innovation. Monopolies suck.
—Taylor Hunt, Boise, ID

Ah! Time Warner Cable. Where do I begin. A company known for it's horrible customer service, over hyped access and need to play with consumer wallets. Up and down prices, fees and the worst consumer call centers on the planet, the last thing Time Warner needs to do is merge with a company also known for it's horrible consumer marketing. Mergers are destroying the foundation of competitive small business and even medium business class companies trying to gain and edge on information technology. These mergers are creating monopolies with no intention on so-called "customer satisfaction" but instead lining the pockets of CEOs and other investors hell bent on making more and more money. These companies rake in billions of profit a year and still want more. This is a domination scenario that will ultimately lead to corporate financial collapse and eventually mass job loss to an already unstable economy despite what media giants say to calm the general population. This is just a sad attempt and a transparent one for these companies to suck more consumers dry in an already dry market. Control of the internet is a ridiculous endeavor by TWC itself which already charges customers enough for inflated access. This needs to stop now.
—Jeff Coffin, Rome, NY

Our airways are a commons. Those commons have ALREADY been so dreadfully privatized. A merger such as this would totally kill ANY notion that our means of communication is a common good. It would be a huge rivet in the coffin of this being a democratic republic. These huge conglomerates need to be BUSTED UP, not further conglomerated so they have an even TIGHTER GRIP on all media and communication. Oligarchic behavior like this is why I avoid having cable altogether - wish more Americans would follow suit. A vote to allow this merger is literally a vote to finish turning this democracy into a full-fledged corporatocracy.
—Linda Kemp, Arlington, VA

We. Eyed more choices about what is available and I don't sincerely believe Comcast is overly concerned about such matters of importance. Fair play is what's actually most critical regarding information we get from our various media sources, and a wide range of sources yields the most educated and informed consensus from you and me...and they should know that and act accordingly...Unfortunately, I doubt that is the case.
—Philip Simon, Lafayette, CA

There are already too few choices for internet service in much of the nation. Why should we allow more of a monopoly?
—Laura Bundy, Fort Payne, AL

Monopoly is the antithesis of the American dream. Should we be carving these two into 200 smaller companies, increasing competition and choice, and putting more people to work, instead? Are some corporations too big to exist?
—Richard Fouchaux, Sparta, NJ

Allowing this merger really hurts the people who can't afford big-ticket cable or Internet services. This hinders their children in doing homework, and hinders them from finding a better job. Yes, the Internet is used for many other purposes, but let's not discount the life-changing purposes for which the Internet is used as well.
—Bonnie C, Baltimore, MD

This merger is atrocious. The fact that they think they can have it approved means that they already have the politicians involved in their pockets.
—Zahit Akunler, New York, NY

We need to stop these monopolies that will control all that we see on the news. Stop the monopolies!
—Karen Owens, Gainesville, FL

another too big to break up!!!!!
—Mike McGrath, St. Albans, VT

Terrible idea. The reason they broke up Bell System was to allow fair competition. Don't let a monopoly like this happen again.
—Frank Warnock, Newark, DE

Monopoly is not competition, not free enterprise. No more dictators of taste. Give the people back their choice.
—Ken Lundgreen, San Francisco, CA

We need competition not a monopoly
—Alexander Perez, Pittston, PA they already raise a rates at an outlandish rate, if they merge our bills will end up being insane... time to buy a dish.

—Eric Schult, Granville, NY

This is ridiculous. This is about power and money. If it were not it would not be happening. And if it was about the consumer, then there would be a clear and transparent plan with accountability for the changes that will be made and the guaranteed savings that customers will be receiving. There would be a clear indication of just how they are going to foster competitiveness in the marketplace (actual competition) and they would be clear and transparent and accountable to all ways they are looking to limit and change how we receive information. This makes me believe we need to go back to charter businesses, where they can only have a charter if they ACTUALLY serve the general public and prove that they have done so. (and I don't mean throwing some small percentage of money back into a green-washing or other public 'do-gooder' campaign to perpetuate the illusion of how great they are and how nice to give money-- instead of just charging everyone less). If this merger goes through, i will be canceling my comcast and will boycott both. Enough is enough.
—Douglas Steves, Portland, OR

Consumers are better off when there are many companies competing for our money. When big companies are allow to merge into larger companies, the consumer is hurt because the consolidated benefits to the larger company is never passed on to the consumer.
—Jan Book-Meyers, Marina del Rey, CA

I already pay outrageous cable fees to Time Warner. Only more, not less, competition can get me lower fees and better service.
—Roy C. Wilson, New York, NY

Our experience with Comcast in Seattle has been dreadful. This company does NOT deserve to become the Ma Bell of our era.
—Richard W. Alexander, Seattle, WA

As a Time-Warner customer, i am already so dissatisfied that I wish there were an easy way to get out of the clutches of this greedy giant of a company. Merging with Comcast will only make matters worse for the consumer. Look what de-regulation did for our phone service!
—Lori D. Haage, Montclair, CA

Monopoly, empire building, bad, very bad.
—Ellen Tracy, Ellsworth, ME

This merger is not in the best interest of consumers. Please protect us. Do not approve this deal. Thank you.
—Jennifer Vassil, Falls Church, VA

Quit giving the country away to the rightwing fascists!!!! Block this damn merger!!!!!
—john G, Louisville, KY

I ditched Comcast (except for internet) because of overpricing and crappy customer service. This merger is the epitome of a bad idea. Don't do it!
—James McClure, Dunlap, IL

Can we please kick all the Jewish Bankers out at the same time ? Thanks.
—Mark Wilbur, Cambridge, MA

There used to be laws against this, until the big money "free for all" took place…
—Walter Garfield 3rd, bluffton, SC

Thank you for your time and consideration toward this serious issue, and then follow through with the needed steps to block this proposed and overwhelming merger. Again, thanks!
—Mary Margaret Switlik, Wichita, KS

Where are our anti-trust, anti-monopoly laws? Keep affordability and choice in our media. Stop this merger.
—Therese LePage, Newbury Park, CA

Enough Already.
—Travis van Brasch, San Francisco, CA

I thought your charter was to protect competition and fair access to choice by consumers. Please affirm who you are really working for and block this merger.
—Sherrie Carter, Georgetown, TX

Thank you for being responsible for the welfare of the nation. We need uncontrolled information.
—Willean Hornbeck, Port Hadlock, WA

There was a time when the public was protected from monopolistic power and greed. No longer. Our "democratic" government is run by big business, for big business. And the FCC has become a big part of the problem. "If we will not endure a king as a political power we should not endure a king over the production, transportation, and sale of any of the necessaries of life." -- Sherman would not be proud.
—Rodger Renstrom, Sandy, UT

Comcast has the worst service of any cable company and they outsource jobs! Do not allow them to get any bigger!
—Mike Sabin, Gresham, OR

We learned the lesson over 100 years ago - monopolies and big trusts are bad for America.
—Paul Goldschmid, Johnson City, NY

Stop playing games with our lives. NO MORE Mega Corporations. They are BAD for business. Leave net neutrality in place where it belongs. STOP giving away the candy store to these jackoffs. They don't give a rats ass about anybody but themselves and their own bottom line to exclusion of all else and if you can't see it you are truly and completely blind. Stop this NOW!
—Connie Ehrlich, Eugene, OR

Comcast prices keep going up while service quality goes down. To keep helping them build a private monopoly in a market that should be a public utility is anti-American. Just say NO!
—Suzanne Dykstra, Ijamsville,, MD

Also it should be evident that a company voted most hated in the US in 2013, Comcast, should not have its monopolistic power further strengthened.
—James Paul Ludwig, Eastham, MA

Less Consumer choice, less diversity & higher cable bills is exactly what we don't need!
—Terry Rosiello, West Haven, CT

As with ALL other telecommunications mergers of the last 30 years, this merger will lessen choice for consumers and raise prices, which is its only real goal. Comcast is already too large, due in part to its purchase of NBC/Universal (another merger that should not have been allowed under any circumstances). Please do NOT make this same grievous error again! You have the power and the necessity to stop this ill-conceived merger and keep consumers from needlessly paying the price. Follow the anti-trust laws! Stop this merger!!!
—James Fulkerson, Aurora, IL

Please don't allow the merger of Comcast and TWC. If it happens, I will surely find another server! I don't like Comcast's politics.
—Mary L. Jenkins, New York, NY

Disastrous
—Pat Gallagher, Miami Beach, FL

As a small, online business owner, I would be put out of business by the gateway fees such a merger would certainly foster. As it is, Comcast and Verizon are the only broadband options in my community and they are charging outrageous fees!
—Ariane Goodwin, Millers Falls, MA

We need competition, not mergers!
—Carol Teicher, Saint Louis, MO

... monopolies taking over will not sit well with most....
—Marina Vrouvlianis, Newton, MA

No more consolidation....comcast needs more competition not less!
—Talisa Vasquez, SANTA ROSA, CA

An independent media is central to maintaining our democracy. Media giants can control the public's access to info and block the voices considered 'unfriendly' from being heard. This is one more serious step that is being taken in an attempt to wrest control of the country from the hands of the people and put it in the hands of corporations. This attempt to merger is an assault on our freedom. This is serious.
—Helen Muirhead, Roswell, GA

In Florida, Time Warner has already allowed Comcast to take over. Higher bills, less selection, and lower quality were the results. We need healthy competition in the industry - NOT MONOPOLIES!
—Nadine Voelz, Live Oak, FL

Each megamerger takes us one step closer to 1984.....death of an semblance of democracy is lost..... Step up to the plate FCC and restore some faith in democracy

Mega-Corporations have no business controlling what information the citizens of a supposedly free nation are allowed access to.
—Karen Parlette, Eureka, CA

This is ridiculous that this is even being considered. It should be a no-brainer. If anything, Comcast should be dismantled, not allowed to grow. "Comcast already owns NBC, MSNBC, Universal Studios and tons of cable networks. That means that for most of America, Comcast could control even more of what you see and how you see it."
—Zach Goist, Seattle, WA

Our landline has not been in service since May 3. As of May 22, email has not been updated. We've called to report the outage, sent messages, and tried the active chat line. Dissatisfied with Comcast!
—Elaine Krause, Chesterton, IN

I am a 22 year TWC cable customer in Rochester, NY. In our area they are the only broadband provider other than Frontier DSL (very bad, I have to use them for business service). Verizon & ATT are the 2 main mobile providers, however, they both decided not to enter our market for broadband / cable service because of costly infrastructure costs. In my opinion..... The Comcast / TWC deal will make it even more expensive for consumers + their service is absolutely AWFUL with very little options for us to go elsewhere (no competition to speak of). For the past few years (5) my cable / broadband bill has climbed from $120/mo. to $171/mo. (I even cancelled my landline phone service with them last year to try & keep my monthly costs down). Time Warner Cable in our area DOES NOT even deliver true 1080p HDTV cable service (yep... we are stuck with 720 signal for our HDTV's). HOW BAD IS THAT at the price we are paying??? I dare anyone to check & verify with TWC Rochester, they just give us mumbo jumbo why they can't deliver a true HDTV signal. Their customer service representatives are trained not to admit it (it took 10 minutes of verbal jousting with them to get the correct answer). Meanwhile I have been stuck paying more $ each year. Three days after the initial merger announcement TWC Rochester included an average 6% increase of ALL their assorted fees. How much more evidence do we need to prove to our Senators / House representative in Washington this would be terrible for true competition?? I guess if they end up approving the merger it will be further proof of how we REALLY can't trust our government anymore.....
—Richard McDonald, Rochester, NY

Whatever happened to the Sherman Anti-Trust laws? They have been ignored since the 1980's during the buy-outs and mergers (murders of anti-monopoly laws)? Both sides of the aisle have engaged in the formation of huge monopolistic corporations. Part of the cause of the 2008 bankster implosion.
—Cornelia Maes, Denver, CO

this merger means monopoly
—Ronald J Hudson, Camas, WA

The internet and cable industries are a disaster. They provide sub par service at unaffordable prices. You can't have innovation under a monopoly. Without competition, we're right back to the days before anti-trust legislation. Do not let greed hurt consumers. People are hurting enough financially as it is, they shouldn't have to pay more for worse service.
—Meredith Beck, milton, GA

Cable and internet are already increasingly higher in the United States than other countries. Please block this from happening.
—Jeff Peters, Houston, TX

Enforce the Sherman Antitrust Act!
—Charell Wyatt Charlie, Pico Rivera, CA

Far too much media consolidation today and far less independent content. Absolutely not good for democracy.

—Clark Dircz, Edina, MN

—Dennis, Portland, OR

Approval of this merger will create a major public outcry against the FTC. Terrible customer service and pricing practices for both companies should be enough reason to recognize the need for more, not less, competition!
—John McCarty, Louisville, KY

If Tom Wheeler thinks that 4 wireless carriers are good, then so are multiple cable companies. There is already LESS choice with regards to cable provider - allowing the #1 and #2 to become one company would destroy the chances for competition in this market.

—Ashley Rhinehart, Rockville, MD

I do not want higher prices and less choices. To much power is a bad thing
—Bob Ashbridge, Berwyn, PA

The merger will only increase rates and worsen the service.
—Hanoch Guy, elkins pk., PA

Are there not laws that state monopolies are not allowed? If these corporations are allowed to gobble up smaller entities, they soon will become ONE huge business. Comcast could then be eaten up by a bigger corporation, etc. The law on monopolies was put in effect to STOP huge corporations buying up smaller ones so THEY CAN DICTATE what their customers can do respective of that company's goals. Do NOT allow this to happen. Get some common sense flowing regarding this nonsense.
—Ms Kazia A A Macey, Macon, MO

Had Time Warner in Houston, TX. Comcast bought that location saying they would not raise our rates. They lied and did raise our rates! This is a very bad ideal for them to buy Time Warner, it would be just be to much control for Comcast!
—Ojenia Kala, San Antonio, TX

I am a retired scientist/engineer living in an independent living facility located in Torrance, CA. I have had bad experience with both Comcast and TWC. It is likely that the merged colossus will be even more arrogant than its components are individually. . Comcast. My introduction to Comcast was when they bought out the ATT cable company serving 90045. ATT was supplying only high-speed Internet service to me by cable. The price was reasonable. ATT increased the cost before the sale. Upon acquisition, Comcast immediately increased its fee again. I was using my own cable modem. Worse, the increase cost was so high that it was economical to take “advantage” of a tie-in combination of TV as well as Internet service. That was a mistake. The TV available was no better than what I could get by antenna. When I cancelled, they wanted to charge me for my modem as well as for service I did not receive. It was impossible for me to get to a person to dispute my bill. Comcast dinged my credit. I switched to DSL from ATT and was happy with it. TWC. I am now living in Torrance, 90503. It is at Pacific Inn where my rent includes payment for basic cable from TWC. Although FCC regulations require cable providers to make it easy for a cable ready receiver to use cable easily. That does not seem to be the case. My cable scans show channels which TWC names with numbers like 96.1 (Pacific Inn’s channel); there are others with names like 16.104, 101.216, or 78.56. There is no way to find out what the real names of these channels are other than select them and wait for them to be identified. It is true that some of the names are brand names associated with PBS, NBC, or other big brand name stations. It has been virtually impossible to get useful information from TWC. My guess is that they are trying to force people like me to use their set-top box. Summary. Even without consideration of cost, the merger will mean poorer service. Both Comcast and TWC have shown me that large means intimidating.
—PE William W. Buchman. PhD, Torrance, CA

Doing a research project into how comcast is able to successfully lobby the legislature and federal agencies. They have spent almost 300 million dollars in lobbying activities. This has to stop. Fuck you comcast
—Kevin Tovey, Sherwood, OR

Set our Internet free; this is absurd and if the merger goes through, it only shows the incompetence of the Supreme Court, of the corruption from our politicians and the desperate need for a political revolution to ensure that tech-savvy individuals are in place to make these decisions.
—Ian Sean Walsh, Louisville, KY

For the love of God, please stop this madness.
—Anthony Posante, Phoenix, AZ

If these to merge and then they limit their monthly users data access, it will put all of us closer to '1984'. Especially when you add in Real Id / Pass Id - your drivers' license with a trackable chip (This December!) and www.alecexposed.org - the union/network of corporations undoing the people's unions, and voting rights....
—Anita Erwin, Glendale, AZ

We really need more choices as consumers, but more importantly, we can't allow more huge media mergers. Effectively, they've already stifled our access to the information we need to make informed decisions. No wonder our democracy is no longer working for most of our people. It's awful and heartbreaking for those of us who remember when government officials who broke laws were often called to account by reporters who cared. Please do your job, for all of us!
—Vicki Buttery, Woodbury, MN

What the heck are we doing giving the people with money faster and better internet and the little guy gets crap! I a so sick of getting stepped on and the rich keep getting richer and the poor keep getting poorer. My children won't have faster speeds and benefit from it because I won't be able to afford the faster speeds! The kid down the street who's parents can afford it will be able to reap the benefits from faster speeds because why, THEY have money!!!!! Please stop this!!!
—Nicole Lounder, Stafford, TX

Fuck you comcast. Don't you suck enough of our money from us as it is? I know you're a bunch of self serving, money grubbing, evil fucking assholes... But seriously... Wow.
—Rachael Cazden, Boulder, CO

I am extremely concerned, having been both a Comcast and Time Warner customer, to hear of this proposed merger. One of the things I value most about living in the United States is our ability to encourage entrepreneurship and free enterprise, and I feel this merger creates a monopoly in which competition is thwarted and the consumer gets screwed.
—Holly Hollar, Brentwood, TN

They are too big, already. They should split, NOT merge
—Simon Carvalho, St Paul, MN

Hindering competition in the free market also hinders the opportunity for technological advancement and economic and job growth.
—Katherine Garner, Slidell, LA

I agree the merger between Comcast and Time Warner should not be allowed. This would do more harm to consumers than good with continued price increases when other companies would continue to struggle to compete with the two largest cable and internet companies merging who and how are the consumers going to be protected from this monopoly?
—Linda Phillabaum, New Vienna, OH

I subscribe to Comcast and they are one of worst companies I've ever had to do business with. Their customer service is horrible. They've signed me up for services I didn't want, and always seem to end up charging me more than they said they would. Customers are pressured to buy products they don't need and won't use. They should not be allowed to get bigger in any way--they will only harm more people. We need much more competition in Internet, not less.
—Franklin Gibbons, Bainbridge Island, WA

TWC forces me to pay $550 per MONTH for adequate internet speeds. Just sayin'
—Alexander Barber, Los Angeles, CA

These companies have both decided that I, like millions of Americans, live too far from their densely-populated, highly-profitable, oligarchic service areas to be worth considering. We need more competitors, not fewer. We need expanded broadband coverage, not shedding of semirural markets. We do -not- need one cable company to rule them all, anymore than we need a single power company for the whole nation.
—David H. Barr, Claremore, OK

TWC's customer service is non existent now. I was on hold once for almost 2 hours and another time for 36 minutes, and that time they hung up on me. In the past 2 weeks I have made 4 calls on each of 2 days to resolve an issue and their "service" is the same...put you on hold a b d ignore you, if you don't get frustrated and hang up they will just hang up on you. If they act this way now imagine after the merger
—Cheryl Fridley, Churchville, NY

Stop this merger.
—Jeanine Fritz, Boulder, CO

More competition, more options for the people. We don't need a monopoly.
—Kate McAfee, Duxbury, MA

I was first a customer of Comcast and then Time Warner when they swaped metro areas a few years ago. They have already been acting as one company for years, so this merger must have been planed. They both treatt their long term loyal customers badly. New customers are are their focus and are the ones who are treated well. The internet will defeat both and the combined. They are fighting a losing battle! I shut off cable tv but kept internet a few weeks ago after another big increase, and their employee treated me like the enemy, did not speak one word to me when he took the turn off order, just before this he was all smiles and couldn't stop talking to a new customer before me in line. Now t hey are sending me resign up deals they could have offered to me as a long term customer of 15 years, but nooooo! Wait till after the customers completely mad as hell! Sounds very similar to the way a monopoly would behave, doesn't it !!!!! If were going to have a monopoly then sell one to at&t and the other to Verizon. At least we won't have the cable creeps around anymore!
—Thomas A Norton, Dallas, TX

This would be an abuse of power before it even gets started. We need more little guys, not more near monopolies.
—Ms. Christine Linder, West Linn, OR

Monopoly!

Monopolies degrade our freedom to choose which is the cornerstone of democacy.
—Carol Kopsco, Tucson, AZ

How can you even consider this? Huge corporations are most of the reason we're going to hell in this handbasket. Break them up, not merge them!
—Vicki Coffman, Richmond, TX

The cable companies charge too much. I want to cut the cord from cable and watch tv from the internet. But now with the cable companies buying hulu and netflix (or at least being major shareholders), a person can no longer watch tv over the internet....they still need to pay a cable provider to get more content. What happened to democracy and free enterprise. Competition is what needs to happen, not monopolies who just want to rape its customers.
—Paula DiBacco, Hummelstown, PA

Absolutely not!!

—Jim Hogan, San Diego, CA

We remember, approximately 30 years ago, the federal government went out of its way to BREAK-UP monopolies. The reason seemed to encourage competition which helped keep prices down. At the present time, our government is allowing giant mergers thus eliminating competition yet increasing prices.
—Andria May, Fairview Heights, IL

Comcast is one of the worst customer service companies year in and year out, as documented repeatedly by independent customer surveys. The company raises prices at will because there is virtually no competition in the regions where they operate. They can't sustain organic growth rates because their service is so bad and prices are so high, so the only option left is to buy up other companies to gain access to their customers. What is needed is more competition, not less, and as evidence of that, I point to the denied ATT- TMobile merger effort of few years back. T-Mobile has shaken up the cellular industry with new options and pricing, and the other big players (including ATT) have been forced to adjust accordingly. We need that in the cable industry as well, and I implore you not to approve the Comcast-Time Warner merger effort.
—Jerry Wright, Indianapolis, IN

I'm already seeing "Internet Usage Gauges" on my broadband with a private company "Cox Communications" I didn't sign up for any caps on my internet usage; in fact I have the biggest package Cox offers. This "merger" will absolutely create a monopoly on internet access that cannot be allowed. Normally, the government (includes "you guys") allow just about any kind of monopoly to exist and give all of these reasons why it's good for the economy to let big companies merge. This is all bull but with the entire congress in some PAC's pocket, I don't expect the monopolistic policies permitted by the government to change this time. But...here's hoping.

—Cory, Marlboro, NY

Most people's only option in decent internet access is currently one of the two providers. Combined, it would just produce extremely high and unregulated rates for consumers while providing even worse service than is already provided. Monopolization cannot be allowed. Take a stand in this.
—Chris Ayoub, Austin, TX

Google fiber FTW!
—Diego, Cocoa, FL

This puts too much money and power in the hands of the rich and the rest of us pay.
—Holly Bolliger, Troy, NY

I am against the Comcast TW deal as from both personal and business experience I am convinced that this merger will; not improve service to their customers. Both companies deliver sub par customer support The current internet service of both is slow on average and this merger will leave customers with no competition from companies who are true equals to compete. Both companies need to improve on service, support, and franchise authorities need to bring in true competitors before a merger is even considered.
—Connie Pettit, naples, FL

The internet is a beautiful system of communication, and must stay open and neutral so that we all have equal opportunity to business and expression of opinions. Destruction of the Open Internet would damage the economy and violate our freedom of speech. With our lives so dependent on the Internet, we need to ensure our rights come first.
—Alexandra Crane, Chicago, IL

You are our only hope. Please, please, please BLOCK THIS MERGER. If not, you've affirmed a de facto MONOPOLY, and every consumer will suffer! Thank you.
—K Craig, Tuscaloosa, AL

I run a business franchise through online marketing. Net Neutrality will eliminate my income, my ability to support my family, and destroy future entreprenurship that is responsible for job creation. Google and Amazon started with a humble beginning only possible because of freedom of the internet. If you want to collectively see the fall of a society, the destruction of creativity and innovation, and freedom of information, the best place to start is net neutrality.
—Steve Latorre, Corona, NY

It would be another monopoly!
—Robert Yoder, Milton, PA

The marketvis shifting to faster internet providers. Both comcast and time warner are not innovating.

No one company should have as much control as they already do, is it unconstitutional to allow them to have more
—John Matheney, Hilton Head Island, SC

I am a profoundly, PROFOUNDLY dissatisfied client of Comcast because there is no viable competition. It is outrageously expensive, the service is lousy, and its attitude is, "You cannot do anything about it anyway. We own you." The combined company would be an Internet and cable juggernaut with unmatched power to crush competition and hike prices for consumers. In fact, Comcast has admitted that prices will go up. This deal would make Comcast the only traditional cable provider available to nearly two-thirds of the U.S. This deal would allow Comcast to control a third of the cable and satellite market, and half of the bundled video/Internet market. The merger would allow Comcast to use its market power to dictate the terms of broadband openness, cost and access at a time when the U.S. lags well behind other developed nations on each of these measures. With Comcast in charge, we'll continue to sink in the rankings. Comcast is already bloated: In 2011, it merged with the mammoth NBCUniversal empire, putting it in control of Universal Studios, cable networks like Bravo, MSNBC and USA, and 24 local TV stations around the U.S. If the merger goes through, Comcast would control way too much of what we see and how we see it online and on cable. NO NOT ALLOW THIS MERGER. Bust them up instead. They have become a virtual monopoly already.
—Kurt Harper, Shepherdstown, WV

Please stop this! Comcast is much too large as it is. I am a current Comcast subscriber and don't want to see my service get worse! This will be worse service for more!
—Patrick Brennan, Wheaton, IL

I care nothing about cable TV and Comcast has encrypted some of the local channels (only NBC and FOX) in Tallahassee. With that said, I only care about the Internet for reading and watching videos. Mergers must come to an end right now.
—Grayson Peddie, Tallahassee, FL

Stop the merging on all companies! And prevent the monopoly!
—Dakol, Prishtina,

This merger goes against the spirit of American capitalism. It's a terrible idea on a number of levels, both because of the control it would give them and both the cost and awful quality of their service.
—Tori Murphy, Chester, WV

My internet/phone plan with Comcast doubled in cost today and because of the reduction in providers in my area I have no viable alternative provider. This proposed merger will exacerbate my situation and that of thousands of others if allowed to go through.

Consolidation of corporations is unethical. It creates a monopoly in the market place job duplication leads to jobs lost & lives lives w/o consumer price or product choices. and currently have so fee and they aren't competing, All offer almost the same. Comcast wants to buy Time Warner Cable. If approved, this outrageous deal would create a television and Internet colossus like no other. Comcast is the country's #1 cable and Internet company and Time Warner Cable is #2. Put them together and you get a single giant controlling a massive share of our nation's TV and Internet-access markets. No one woke up this morning wishing their cable company was bigger or had more control over what they watch and how they get online. But that's the reality we'll face unless the Justice Department and the Federal Communications Commission do their jobs and block this merger. Stopping this kind of deal is exactly why we have antitrust laws. This merger would put more than a third of all cable-TV subscribers in Comcast's hands and give it control over more than half of the "triple-play" services that combine TV, phone and Internet service. Don't forget, Comcast already owns NBC, MSNBC, Universal Studios and tons of cable networks. That means that for most of America, Comcast could control even more of what you see and how you see it. Putting this much power in the hands of one company is dangerous. This deal would lead to less consumer choice, less diversity and much higher cable bills. This is a fight we can win. Tell the FCC and the DoJ to stop this merger.
—Dr Shirley Canniff, Stoughton, MA

Look up what antitrust laws are designed to do and look at this proposed merger and tell me why alarm bells should not be ringing.
—Mr. Joshua Citarella, Urbandale, IA

Terrible for the consumer in every way possible.
—Taylor J. Valley, Akron, OH

Stop the merger not only is it the fcc and doj's job to do so but its their moral obligation, anyone can see that with this going through it would only be a matter of time before that amount of power over what the american public watches and can be wached would be corrupted.
—Cesar Gonzalez, Anaheim, CA

my bill is already high enough with Time warner. And if they merge with Comcast (who is the greediest of the cable providers). I can only imagine how much worse my service and bills will get. Data caps, bill increases and much more. I get slight increases every couple of years here, but with comcast it is MONTHS. NO THANK YOU COMCAST!!!! YOU ARE BAD FOR EVERYONE!!!!!!!!! not to mention how is it better if you own 53% of the market?
—J B, Ontario, CA

Stop the monopoly! Make all internet providers common carriers, and end the abuse!
—Andrew Becker, Liverpool, NY

I don't know why Government would allow Comcast and Time Warner to merge. Why would you allow a company who has filed bankruptcy in Texas, to continue to be able to become larger and stop taking care of their creditors. They need to be forced to take responsibility. This merge would wipe out a lot of competition and consumers will end up paying outrageous prices. If this merger happens, then Government should allow all companies to service all areas. This way people can pick and choose who they want for their different services.
—Janis Matthews, Mentone, CA

Time warner already runs a monopoly on cable in my state. They charge outrageous fees that grow annually. We need to take the power away from these corporations, not give them more!

The prices for Internet service from Comcast and Time Warner Cable are already very high compared to the costs offered from other modern internet service providers such as those in South Korea or Google Fiber. The speeds they provide much higher than those provided by Comcast and Time Warner Cable and the price for those fast speeds are much less than those offered by Comcast and Time Warner Cable. If the merger happens, please consider how much power this single broadband company will have and how much they can affect the use of the Internet and intellectual development and technological advancement allowed by the Internet.
—Justin, Fredericksburg, VA

Say goodbye to SO many rational and smart customers if you do this.
—Whitney Seabrooks, Binghamton, NY

A free and open internet is the single greatest technology of our time, and control should not be at the mercy of corporations - a free and open internet stimulates ISP competition and helps to prevent unfair pricing practices. Furthermore, a free and open internet promotes innovation and the spread of ideas; drives entrepreneurship; and helps by further protecting the freedom of speech.

—Zach Ostrach, Jericho, NY

Do not allow the Time Warner-Comcast merger. It would give way too much power to the conglomerate.
—Jane Turk, Glenside, PA

To allow this to proceed would create a monopoly and would go against the Clayton Anti-Trust Act. "substantially lessens competition or tends to create a monopoly."
—Julie Nichols, Palmetto, FL

This is a bad idea for the country. Please for the love of god do not let this happen.

I am currently a TWC customer. After TWC bought our local cable company, prices went up and service got worse. I can only imagine how much worse it will be after this proposed merger.
—Jeff Debes, Evansville, IN

The merger of Time Warner Cable and Comcast would create an unstoppable juggernaut of a cable TV and internet provider. It would be bad for consumers and bad for America. America's cable and internet providers already function as an oligopoly and monopolies on a per-market basis. This deal would mean less competition, less consumer choice, less diversity, and less innovation when consumers actually need more of each. Less competition would mean higher costs to consumers and less investment in broadband infrastructure. Please stop the merger.

—Waldo Rodriguez, Orlando, FL

As a citizen of this nation I urge you to stop this merger between Comcast and Time Warner Cable. Can you imagine a bigger monopoly on mass media? Please do your job and stop this before it is too late.
—Ali Villalobos, Miami, FL

Current Comcast customer
—Michel leana, Aurora, IL

This merger cannot happen! Comcast says it's not anti-competitive which is true. All the cable providers have an oligopoly. There is no competition and the prices just keep going up while the service and quality just continues to drop. This merger would give Comcast too much power and throw everything out of balance as well as jack up the prices. If Time Warner wants to sell I say sell them to Google, at least they will actually create competition rather than have closed door meetings to keep pricing exactly the same so they can gauge our wallets and feed us crap. Korea's internet is 200 times faster than what we get for half the price. How does that seem fair?
—Dale Kimball, Center Conway, NH

—Frank Rodriguez, Miami, FL

This commission is corrupt of course, so what I say makes no difference. That said, because if the corrupt nature of cable access and providers in this country, this take over will lead to less competition, worse service and higher prices. I oppose this merger.

I am not an expert but I am very suspicious of mergers like these and how big a monopoly Comcast would become. The FCC should do the right thing and listen to the people but I doubt it.
—Abdulai Bah, Takoma Park, MD

Please block the Comcast, Time-Warner merger. The country needs more competition, not bigger monopolies. No more "too big to fail" companies. Both Comcast and Time-Warner are already too big on their own. Both companies presently hold monopolies (or duopolies in some cases) in their existing markets. The FCC should be trying to break the existing monopolies and bring the American people, better, faster, internet and cable services that compete with other countries. The fact that this merger is even under consideration is frankly appalling. Stop the Comcast, Time-Warner merger. Then go a step further and bring competition to the market.
—Susan West, Lunenburg, MA

Both companies are already immune to customer complaints about service levels. Combining them would make them immune to complaints from everyone everywhere.
—Becky Kline, Fort Lauderdale, FL

This merger would be terrible for me, I am currently an internet subscriber with TWC, if the merger were to go through I would be paying considerably more for the same speeds and would more than likely end up with a data cap!
—Elliott Fenton, Corbin, KY

Please stop the merger. Letting two anti consumer companies merge will not benefit consumers or the public interest.

—Elise Wolpery, West Chester, PA

I'm a current Comcast customer, although not by choice, since they're the only high-speed provider where I live. Block this merge to prevent an already too-powerful monopolistic company from getting even more powerful.
—Francis Fisher, Wallingford, CT

This is the most eggregious example of a monopoly in the making. The two largest communications providers in the country, merging together to form one? For years these companies have engaged to what amounts to price fixing while defining the turf that each operates in to protect their strangle hold on the markets. Those two things alone border on illegal and now they'd like to merge? Preposterous and shameful
—Jason Port, Severna Park, MD

This deal would lead to less consumer choice, less diversity and higher cable bills. FCC you employed by the citizens of this country protect them, not corporate interests and their PACs.
—David Bennett, Raleigh, NC

In my area there already is no real competition. This will effectively kill any chance of future competition.
—Leslie James Gifford Jr., Salisbury, MD

Seriously? The Worst Cable company and Craptastic want to merge and you, the FCC, are the only ones supporting it?!? NO.
—Howard Moon, New York, NY

Kill monopoly ISPs please. :)
—Thomas barley, Accokeek, MD

You will take the Oligopoly the two largest TV and Internet service providers already have and make it the largest in the country. You will reduce competition and make it harder for people to have a choice in services at a decent and fair price.
—Scott Rinebold, New Windsor, MD

Currently Comcast is the only provider offered in my town. Because of this they do not take my concerns that my service is operating well below usable speeds seriously. They just brush me off and say my signal levels are fine despite the techs literally seeing my TV freeze and lock up and my internet speeds awful right before their eyes. The kicker is my Father lives 1 town over from me and has a slower internet package but the service is so much better. They refuse to investigate it any further and I truly believe they don't care because they know they got me as a customer because of the lack of choice in other service providers in my town. I 100% feel this behavior will get even worse if this merger takes place and there is less choice in the market of available service providers. There will be nothing holding Comcast's feet to the fire to deliver quality reliable products and customer service. If this merger does happen, something else needs to be done to prevent services providers from buying off the officials of town or area and locking customers into one service provider. You need to at least force local towns and/or municipalities to allow multiple providers to provide services in any area/town in the united states so that the market can truly be balanced.
—Christopher J. Sorel, Pembroke, MA

I have seen my bill for internet from Time Warner Cable go from $19.95/month to $57/month in 2 years. $57 is almost as much as if I had their triple play package. Broadband access is essential to our economic future, and needs to be regulated. This merger is anti competitive and bad for our country. Do not allow it. This merger is blatantly violating laws preventing monopolies in our competitive market. Don't be stupid.
—J Reichard, Athens, GA

—KSamsel, Seaside, OR

Please stop this merger before what precious little competition in this area is completely lost.
—Shane Smith, Newark, OH

There's little enough choice in cable providers already. Do they really need a BIGGER monopoly?
—Brent U, Mount Joy, PA

Monopoly, I thought this was not suppose to happen. Both companies are already too big and try to control the airwaves, why would we give them more power and control? NO!!!
—John Huser, McHenry, IL

I would also like to add that I would not like to have Data caps put on my cable bandwidth. I am a current Time Warner Cable customer and do not currently have Data Caps for my cable internet bandwidth, but if Comcast buys out Time Warner Cable then this will change since Comcast does put data caps on cable internet bandwidth and charge the customer if you go over. Please stop this merger as I would not like to have to add one more concern about having to go over my data cap and pay even more then I currently pay. This and the other reasons above should be reasons not to allow this merger to happen. Thank you for your time.
—Johnny Lugo, Baldwin Park, CA

additionally I feel allowing this merger is another step in the direction of removing Net Neutrality from a system that should be treated as a common carrier. Do not let this merger happen, it is a bad deal for the majority of US citizens, by allowing the cable companies to become another Bell System which was broken up for a reason.
—Elizabeth Graham-Richter, Portland, OR

This is the reason anti-trust laws are in place. Why this isn't readily apparent to the FCC and the Justice Department is utterly mind-boggling, and raises a great of concern over the intelligence and ethical reasoning of the people making these decisions.
—Richard Gristak, Aurora, CO

This action as with the FCC's plan to abolish net neutrality are not in anyone's interests except those that seek to profit. No one is asking for this. It would be criminal to allow this merger to happen.
—D, Canton, OH

Stop this!

This is not good for the American consumer and should be stopped ASAP.

TWC is bad for Americans and Comcast is bad for Americans, them joining forces will be horrendous. There's a reason they both trade off as the worst company in America almost every year.
—Jonathan Thomm, Milwaukee, WI

Comcast is the worst cable company in America and TWC sucks just as bad. Combining them only makes a bigger pile of crap!
—George Plackmann, Chicago, IL

we broke up rockafeller, the only difference here is that these are much more pervasive companies with millions of shell companies. You have to break this giant up before it gets so large we are unable to tell them what to do. it might already be too late.
—Mark Dullanty, Mill Creek, WA

These two mega corporations are already a duopoly, why not merge and make them a monopoly? Thanks a lot Tom Wheeler, it fills my heart with joy that we have such a unbiased, objective, competent chairman for the FCC.
—Mitch Stehlin, Cincinnati, OH

both companies offer overpriced and under supported services and are acting as defacto monopolies as it is... how this can be beneficial to consumers is beyond me. After learning more about the situation, i feel that cable companies should be treated as utilities and this merger would be a step in the wrong direction towards implementing that.
—Phillip Jeacoma, Charlotte, NC

This merger between 2 companies that are already monopolies on their respective areas merging would very clearly be nothing but negative for the American public and a clear violation of anti-monopoly policy in America
—Tucker Hitt, Moundsville, WV

Both of these companies are already too large! We should really be debating on how many companies each should be broken up into! DO NOT allow them to merge, no good can come from it.
—Brenden, Salem, OR

Please stop allowing these proposals to happen.
—Harry Martin Leitzell, Chicago, IL

The FCC & DoJ should not allow one company to control 40% of the broadband in the U.S. Increase competition, not reduce it!
—Mike Nyerges, Canandaigua, NY

TWC constantly removes helpful features, for no good reason. They do not respond to letters. Their prices are outrageous. I can't imagine what service would look like should TWC merge with Comcast. Please don't let it happen!
—Gregory Reardon, New York, NY

If Comcast is allowed to merge with TWC it would have a majority control of cable access in the USA. Not only control of Internet access but also TV programming which will give them even more control of what we see and how we see it. In mid 2013 TWC was in negotiations with CBS which resulted in CBS blacking out TWC customers until the dispute was resolved. With Comcast owning NBC, MSNBC, etc., the possibility increases substantially that Comcast might choose to not include other major national broadcast stations (CBS, ABC, etc.) as part of their future lineups. Unless there is a legal mandate for open access (similar to Net neutrality), allowing the merger to occur is a very bad idea and can only be perceived to be politically motivated. No one company should have a monopoly in the USA. Back in the 80s, the telephone company (Ma Bell) was split into multiple entities for just this reason. Cable access must not be allowed to become a monopoly otherwise we take another step closer to this country having a single point of access for information. In other words, our free choice will be curtailed. VOTE NO TO THE MERGER!
—Robert Maetzold, Brea, CA

I am a System Administrator and deal with Time Warner Cable on a regular basis. Allowing this would unleash a destructive force on tech Technology Sector that would cause severe harm.

—Ins Jinksen, New York, NY

Stop destroying our generation!!!!!!!
—Scott Pearson, Brooklyn, NY

Please do not encourage this deal
—Rajesh, Dublin, CA

Comcast pricing is piracy. There I'd no viable or comparable competition for internet service where Verizon fios is not available. The government should be for fostering competition not piracy. I'm afraid this will be approved because Brian Roberts has Obama in his pocket. Stop this travesty NOW.
—Richard Krajewski, Lumberton, NJ

Comcast is already a large bloated organization and making it larger will only make things worse.
—Robert J Konell, Portland, OR

I mean really?... Really US government? Get your heads out of your bums and start doing whats right for all the people not just mega corporations.
—Logan Rucker, Abilene, TX

A better trajectory for the country would be to facilitate the building of alternative fiber networks that are open to competition, ubiquitous, and cheap. That direction will align with our overall national interests in economic growth and social coherence.
—Edwin Dolan, Austin, TX

Both companies are the top of their classes in worst customer service. they do not have the track record to even being to offer better service is this merger takes place.
—Denny Santos, Purchase, NY

Both of these companies have famously bad customer service. I fled one of them for exactly that reason. They blatantly disregard their customers, and know they can due to lack of competition in the TV and internet markets. Please do not let them merge at the expense of their customers!
—Timothy Hannemann, Minneapolis, MN bigger is not better for cable customers, or, the public, in general.

In no sane understanding does this merger help consumers. It is blatantly anti-consumer and the very thing that should be blocked.

This merger will stifle innovation and is bad for the country as a whole.

comcast is a terrible company and although time warner cable is terrible too the last thing this country needs is another monopoly
—Grant, Cleveland, OH

One word: monopoly
—Matt Barrett, Cockeysville, MD

As a TW customer I oppose this merger.
—Squire Burke, Anaheim, CA

Please don't let this go through —Ashley Adcox, Louisville, KY

Yes, we need this merger blocked at the federal and state level.
—Troy K. Jones, Binghamton, NY

Stop the merger please
—Ricky Adcox, Louisville, KY

Comcast already charges way too much $. They are greedy and this merger will make it even worse. We should go back to how it used to be and have the bunny ears. My grandmother just passed away last year at 105 years old. She's made to get a cable company after all those years. Why did we ever have to put her through this transition. Its like why fix it when it's not broken. Let others compete for the market. It's like Pac Bell getting all of the phone business. Then cell phones came around which is another very expensive item. Please don't merge!!
—Jacqueline Freethy, Lafayette, CA

The fact that these guys already do not compete with each other should be illegal. There is no way that the consumer wins with this merger no matter what these guys have paid people to say!!!
—Anthony J Marotta, Aurora, OH

This merger will dramatically change the current state of the internet. It will turn not only TWC customers into Comcast customers but also 1.6 million Charter customers. This will mean that millions will be switched and be forced to buy a dubious double/triple play package. The companies say that since there is wireless internet, there will be competition. However, as another cable company, Suddenlink Communications, has said, If the maximum advertised download speed is 10-30mbps, it's customers use on average 59GB. The cost for this much data from a wireless "Competitor" would be $410 (calculated using the Verizon HomeFusion Wireless broadband 30gb plan for $120, and considering the overage fee of $10/GB). This would force consumers back to Comcast as wireless provides no competition as it is too expensive.And whereas Comcast and TWC will argue DSL is still available, at&t and Verizon have already stated that they will begin to kill DSL in areas that have not been upgraded. Overall, this merger is anticompetitive and violates the Clayton Antitrust Act,Section 7 in places such as Patterson, New York where TWC and Comcast overlap.
—Juan Mesta, Azle, TX

Ideally what is needed in this country is not just one big ISP, rather we need more competition. Comcast's pricing are totally outrageous, and you would think that the powers to be would intervene and put a stop to this!
—Anthony Gunther, Merced, CA

Comcast is already a terrible ISP...
—Matthew Nolen, Spring, TX

Stop the merger!
—Jayson, Lancaster, CA

customer service is TERRIBLE!
—Jeffrey Flemons, Southaven, MS

The cable television industry is already a government sponsored and supported monopoly. If you approve this merger you are increasing their monopolistic strangle hold on the consumer.
—Ralph Whisk, Peoria, AZ

The FCC policies favoring Cable & ILEC consolidation have not served consumers as advertised. Stop listening to ILEC & Cable lobbyists, make changes to benefit the consumer, and bring back competition between ISP's. Break up ISP & broadband monopolies. A return to pre-1992 mandated open neutral transport to customer premises should be instituted.
—Macy Hallock Jr, Medina, OH

If the government must intervene, it should be to promote competition and not to consolidate market power among fewer telecommunications companies. As you know Americans have fewer choices for high speed internet and the internet speeds we receive are subpar when compared to Asian and European markets. My concern is that a successful merger would create a Comcast conglomerate just as large and troublesome as the Bell System "Ma Bell" of companies.
—Justin Hysler, Nashville, TN

FCC say NO TO THE MERGE, US need more competition no more monopoly. This merge is going jeopardize US consumers. We should be shame that Europe has more protection to customer and better competition, prices and technology. Vote NO on the Comcast-Time Warner Cable Merger
—Alfredo Ocasio, Hollywood, FL

I am a network engineer and past experience has shown that this merger will result in degraded performance with increased costs to the consumer.
—Patrick Cox, Crystal Lake, IL

If this merger goes through ,we will know who OWNS the FCC.
—Terry Dorsett, Lockhart, TX

High costs and lousy service would get worse with this merger.
—Robert Parsons, Brewster, NY

The cable companies already offer some of the worst service, with the highest prices in the USA because there is no competition. If this atrosity is allowed to happen the 1st and 2nd largest internet providers will merge and drastically reduce market competition. PLEASE STOP THIS!!!!
—Phillip Hairfield, La Mesa, CA

We can't let this company become any bigger than it already is. As it stands right now, Comcast has a contract with the city i live in making it my ONLY choice for high speed internet. We can't let these corporations monopolize in this manner, it's absurd and unconstitutional. Comcast already has a bad habit of raising my bill whenever they feel they can. I con only imagine what they will do if they grow to the size they want to.
—Alan Kisselbrack, Wilmington, DE

I am currently a Comcast customer due to lack of choice. My time with Comcast has been horrible. Rates continue to go up and customer service is consistently horrible. I firmly believe this is due to a lack of competition. Allowing Comcast and Time-Warner to merge will only exacerbate this issue and created a behemoth company with the power to change the market at their will and reduce competition, reduce already pitiful consumer, and force higher rates.
—Christopher Hall, Tracy, CA

Net neutrality is a public good. It is the FCC's responsibility to oversee and protect the net for the public. The proposed Comcast/Time Warner merger is the antithesis of "good for the public." Those who use the net now and those who will use it in the future celebrate its continued development. The proposed merger furthers the interests of these two private companies, not the interests of the public. I hope that the FCC will side with the public in this turning-point decision.
—David Zuckerman, Portland, OR

Please consider helping the people this time.
—Tom Matthews, Cleveland, TN

This proposed merger is of no benefit to customers of either Time Warner or Comcast - just the companies involved getting more control and freedom to raise rates for substandard service.
—Bill Doren, Marcellus, NY

If the merger goes through one company will control half of the U.S. residential internet.
—Mark, Oxford, PA

Why would anyone think a merger between two monopolistic companies is good for their customers is skewed thinking influenced by thoughts
—Philip Higgins, Rancho Cucamonga, CA

If this merger is to happen it would create a bigger problem for those who subscribe to Comcast now. As a subscriber of Comcast, myself... the on going problems with internet service won't help those with Time Warner now nor in the future.
—Bruce Wadsack, Pontiac, MI

The cable companies need to be reigned in, not given even more power to take advantage of citizens.
—Eric Morton, Fishers, IN

The merger of Comcast and Time Warner would be a disaster for consumers. These two companies are some of the worst that consumers have to deal with and it is not hard to find many with the same opinion. Prices from both of these companies to consumers have constantly increased far above normal inflation, and while they claim service has improved it really hasn't. What the industry really needs is either more direct competition (no unequal like AT&T). Most consumers only have 1 option and are their mercy. Years ago the FCC control of these companies was loosened and the result has been greater increases in costs to the consumer. I am all for capitalism but the cable industry is far to monopolistic (kind of like utilities but at least they are mostly controlled). Putting this much power in the hands of one company is dangerous. This deal would lead to less consumer choice, less diversity and much higher cable bills.
—Earl Cocke, Memphis, TN

COMCAST has the worst customer service I have encountered in over seven decades of life. I think it will certainly not improve if you approve this merger.
—Paul Yasenchak, Huntsville, AL

I AM TERRIFIED FOR OUR RIGHTS IF THIS MERGER HAPPENS.
—Wendy Paley, Boca Raton, FL

We can't make a gigantic monopoly over 2 most hated ISP's in America! The internet already has enough problems facing it's future!
—Richard Belken, Mokane, MO

We need to do the opposite--these companies are already much larger than the companies that inspired forming anti-trust laws in the first place.
—Bryan Hockey, Ypsilanti, MI

I currently have Time Warner and I can't have a data cap put on my internet because I have online schooling and it would affect that tremendously.
—Ashley Hamilton, Sumter, SC

This is a terrible terrible idea. There can be no good from a monopoly of this type.
—Chris Webster, Bloomington, IL

I don't see how this is a possibility. Comcast is already too large and probably "too big to fail." Don't make them a further public liability and private monopoly.
—Benjamin Stendahl, Denver, CO

STOP THE MERGER!!!
—Heather O'Connor, Haverhill, MA

STOP the madness
—Larry Cole, Grand Prairie, TX

I see NO benefits to the consumer with this merger, but I do see plenty of opportunities for these companies to push their extremely substandard service level on even more consumers.
—Karen Misner, Saint Simons Island, GA

Please do not allow this transaction to move forward. Comcast is too big for its own good already.
—Owen Bassett, Elmwood Park, IL

More consolidation? There is virtually no choice for cable choices here in Los Angeles as it stands. This merger is only making it worse! NO!
—J Norton, Los Angeles, CA

It is a severe conflict of interest that a Comcast lobbyist has been appointed to head the FCC. I feel that this decision has and will lead to many bad governmental decisions like: (1) condoning corporate personhood, (2) allowing large mergers like Time Warner and Comcast to occur when they are clearly threatening consumer choice. (3) denying other, inventive forms of telecommunications the right to exist, like Aereo. As a consumer, before all of these decisions were made, I felt threatened by my lack of choice for cable and internet provider which is why I turned to Aereo. Now this has also been taken away. I want my rights to choose and I don't feel that the entire country should be run by big corporations - it is just not in the best interest of the citizen and consumer, it is only in the best interest of business.
—Janette Wilson, Maynard, MA

Fuck you TWC
—Daniel, Reynoldsburg, OH

This merger would threaten the competitive nature of ISPs and cause stagnation and inflating prices of what should be considered a necessity (Internet access) and basic utility. Internet access is no longer a choice in this time we live in.
—Travis Bowen, Sacramento, CA get the fk out

—Em, South Pasadena, CA

Monopoly isn't just a fun board game, it is a devastating thing in a market place so please don't let it happen.
—Jeremy Holmes, Spring Branch, TX

Go fuck yourself both of you. Seriously you are both the worst companies i can readily think of. Why haven't either of you been shut down? Both of you have Monopolies. Sincerely, Fuck yourselves.
—Maximilian T Dillon, Rocklin, CA

Monopolies are really bad, don't let this happen.
—Thomas Infante, Livingston, NJ

The thought of this merger fills me with the memories and flashbacks of "evil" corporations that often inhabit Hollywood. A entity this large in control of both cable and internet should never be allowed and should sincerely be considered a monopoly. Comcast is the service I use and I am severely disappointed in the treatment that I receive. I will not have this same treatment carry over into the internet.
—Drew, Inverness, IL

Why would you want the two biggest company's that control the majority shares of that market to merge , when it clearly sounds like a monopoly aren't does illegal in the U.S ?
—Ociel ordaz, Bonita, CA

TWC and Comcast are both horrible companies who don't need more power than they already have —Jun Monroe, los angeles, CA

Monopolies are not good for the economy, competition brings innovation and shrugs off complacency.
—Selena Foster, Olathe, KS

Comcast is already a horrid company to deal with, this will only make things worse.
—Mark, Worcester, MA

Too much power in a company can hurt other smaller businesses.
—Crystal, El Paso, TX

I believe in the importance of antitrust legality.
—George Zimmerman, Portland, OR

I already barely affording Time Warner Cable. I'm concerned that I won't be able to work from home because I can't afford internet - a legitimate possibility if these two companies get together. Also note that my entire building has been monopolized by Time Warner Cable.
—Erin, Los Angeles, CA

This deal is literally .2 centimeters away from creating a monopoly. Please do not let your greed get in the way of what's best for the consumer- the American public. I do not support this merge at all.
—Angie Delk, Lamoni, IA

This is our land. A land of peace and of plenty. A land of harmony and hope. This is our land. Oceania. These are our people. The workers, the strivers, the builders. These are our people. The builders of our world, struggling... fighting, bleeding... dying. On the streets of our cities and on the far-flung battlefields. Fighting against the mutilation of our hopes and dreams. We are allowed that privilege. Some more of this? It's called wine. There are thoughtcriminals who maintain the Resistance is not real. Believe me, Winston... it is very real. Perhaps you are not familiar with how it operates. I'm attentive to the news. Indeed. Perhaps you imagine a huge network of conspirators... prepared to commit any atrocity to demoralize... and weaken the order of our society. The reality is infinitely more subtle. If Goldstein himself... fell into the hands of the Thought Police, he could not give them a list of his agents. Such a list does not exist. They're not an organization in the sense we know. Nothing holds it together but an idea. There is no possibility of change in their lifetime. In the face of the Thought Police... they cannot act collectively. There is truth, and there is untruth. To be in a minority of one doesn't make you mad. Julia, my love... I understand how. I don't understand why. I'm hungry. Let's make some more coffee. The water's cold. There's no oil in it. That's strange. I thought it was full. They say that time heals all things They say you can always forget But the smiles and the tears across the years they twist my heartstrings yet. She's beautiful. She's a meter across the hips. Easily. It's her style of beauty. The future is hers. We are the dead. We are the dead. You are the dead. Remain exactly where you are. Make no move until you are ordered. Now they can see us. Now we can see you. Clasp your hands behind your heads. Stand out in the middle of the room. Stand back-to-back. Do not touch one another. The house is surrounded. The house is surrounded. I suppose we may as well say goodbye. You may as well say goodbye. While we're on the subject... "Here comes a candle to light you to bed. "Here comes a chopper to chop off your head." Pick that up. Thought Police. Smith. Open your eyes. Parsons. Keep away from me, Smith. I'm an agent of Goldstein. I didn't know it myself. Thoughtcrime is so insidious. It just creeps up on you. My daughter found it out. Very proud of her. Very grateful I've been discovered before it's too late. They won't shoot me, will they, Smith? I know I could be very useful in a labor camp. Room . No. Please, you don't have to take me there. Why? There's nothing I won't confess. Nothing. I've told you everything already. What is it you want me to know? Take him instead of me. He's the thoughtcriminal. It's him you want. They got you, too. They got me a long time ago. You knew this would happen, Winston. Don't deceive yourself. You've always known it. The photos of you and the girl will be recycled for proletarian use. Do you know where you are, Winston? I don't know. I can guess. In the Ministry of Love. Do you know how long you've been here? No. Weeks? Months? Do you know why you're here? Shall I tell you why we brought you here? To cure you. To make you sane. That was . You can see that the numbers on this dial run up to . Will you please remember that, during our conversation? I have it in my power to inflict pain on you at any time... and in whatever degree I choose. You know perfectly well what is the matter with you, Winston. You've known it for years, though you've fought against the knowledge. You are mentally deranged. You suffer from a defective memory. You never tried to cure yourself of it, because you did not choose to. It was a small effort of will, which you were not ready to make. For example... which power is Oceania at war with? Eastasia. Oceania is at war with Eastasia. Eastasia. Good. And Oceania has always been at war with Eastasia, has it not? Tell me what you think you remember. I remember... that until only a week before I was arrested... we weren't at war with Eastasia at all. It was Eurasia. That lasted four years, I think. Another example. A serious delusion. Photographs about which you've had hallucinations... which you believed you held in your hand. They never existed. Say what you were about to say, Winston. They exist... in memory. I remember. You remember. I do not remember. Only the disciplined mind can see reality, Winston. It needs an act of self-destruction... an effort of the will. Do you remember writing in your diary: "Freedom is the freedom to say two plus two equals four?" Yes. How many fingers am I holding up? Four. And if the Party says there are not four, but five, then how many? Five. No. That's no use. You're lying. How many fingers, please? Four. What else could I say? Five, or anything you like. Will you please stop it? Stop the pain. How can I help it? How can I help what I see in front of my eyes? Two and two makes four. Sometimes, Winston. Sometimes they are five, sometimes they are three. Sometimes they are all of them at once. Neither the past, nor the present, nor the future... exists in its own right. Reality is in the human mind... not in the individual mind... which makes mistakes and soon perishes... but in the mind of the Party... which is collective and immortal. - Again. - No. How many fingers, Winston? Four. Four, I suppose there are four. I tried to see five. I wish I could. Which do you wish? To persuade me that you can see five, or really to see them? Really to see them. Again. How many, Winston? I don't know. Better. No one escapes, Winston. There are no martyrs here. All the confessions made here are true. We do not destroy the heretic because he resists us. As long as he resists us, we never destroy him. We make him one of ourselves before we kill him. We make his brain perfect before we blow it out. And then... when there is nothing left but sorrow and love of Big Brother... we shall lift you clean out of history. We shall turn you into gas and pour you into the stratosphere. Nothing will remain of you. Not a name in a register. Not a memory in a living brain. You will be annihilated in the past, as well as in the future. Three thousand. This time it won't hurt you. Before we bring this session to an end... I want you to ask me your questions. I want you to clear your mind. Julia. She betrayed you, Winston... immediately, unreservedly. All her rebellion, deceit, folly, dirty-mindedness... has been turned out of her. Does Big Brother exist? Of course. The same way as me? You do not exist. You've not asked me the question that is uppermost in your mind. You know what is in Room . Everyone knows what's in Room . Now... fix your eyes on mine. What country is Oceania at war with? I don't remember. Oceania is at war with Eastasia. Do you remember that now? Yes. How many fingers am I holding up? Five. You see, at least, that it is possible. You've understood the reality of the past... and of the present. Now for the future. A question: "How does one man assert power over another?" By making him suffer. Exactly. Obedience is not enough. Power is inflicting pain and humiliation. Otherwise, you cannot be sure. Power is tearing human minds apart... and putting them together again in new shapes of your own choosing. Power is not a means, it is an end. In our world, there will only be triumph and self-abasement. Everything else, we shall destroy. The past is forbidden. Why? Because when we can cut man from his own past... then we can cut him from his family, his children, other men. There is no loyalty, except loyalty to the Party. There is no love, except love of Big Brother. All competing pleasures, we will destroy. If you want a vision of the future, imagine... a boot stamping on a human face forever. You are thinking that my face is old and tired... that while I talk of power... I'm unable to prevent the decay of my own body. But the individual is only a cell. And the weariness of the cell is the vigor of the organism. - You'll fail. - Why? It's impossible. Hatred, the fear of life. Why is hate less vital than love? I don't know. But somehow you'll fail. Something will defeat you. Life will defeat you. We control life at all levels. We create human nature. Men are infinitely malleable. Or perhaps you've returned to your old idea that the proletarians will arise. Put it out of your mind. They are helpless animals. Humanity is the body. I don't care. In the end, they'll beat you. Sooner or later, they'll tear you to pieces. On what evidence? Goldstein's book. I wrote it. Or, at least, I collaborated in writing it. No book is individually produced, as you know. I just believe it. I know you'll fail. Something in this world... some spirit you will never overcome"... " What is it, this principle? I don't know. The spirit of man. And do you consider yourself a man? Yes. If you are a man, you're the last man. Your kind is extinct. We are the inheritors. Do you understand that you are alone? You are outside history. You unexist. Get up. Come here. Look at you. You're rotting away. That is the last man. If you are human, that is humanity. It will not last forever. You can escape from it whenever you choose. Everything depends on you. You did it. You reduced me to this. No, Winston. You reduced yourself to it. When will you shoot me? Might take a long time. But don't give up hope. Everyone is cured sooner or later. And in the end... we shall shoot you. The law of gravity is nonsense. No such law exists. If I think I float... and you think I float... then it happens. I love you. You have the strength, Winston. You have the whole Party. You are the Party. You're one of us, one of the chosen. I love you. I love you, too. Julia, my love. Get up. Stand up straighter. Look me in the face. Tell me, Winston, and remember, no lies. What are your true feelings towards Big Brother? - I hate him. - You must love him. It's not enough to obey him. You must love him. Room . You asked me once, Winston, what was in Room . I told you that you knew, already. Everyone knows. The thing that is in Room ... is the worst thing in the world. It goes beyond fear of pain or death. It is unendurable, and it varies from individual to individual. It may be burial alive or castration... or many other things. In your case, it is rats. No. Please. What do you want me to do? You will do what is required of you. What? What is it? How can I do it if I don't know what it is? In the proletarian areas, they will attack a baby... and within five minutes, strip it to the bone. They also attack the sick and dying. They show astonishing intelligence in knowing when a human being is helpless. Please. The mask fits over your head, leaving no exit. I press the first lever... and the rats move into the front compartment. I press the second, and the door of the cage will slide up. These starving brutes will shoot at you like bullets. Have you ever seen a rat leap through the air? They will leap onto your face and bore straight into it. Sometimes they attack the eyes first. Sometimes they burrow through the cheeks and devour the tongue. Tell me. What do you want? No, please. I love you. Do it to her! Do it to Julia! I don't care what you do to her, but do it to her! Tear her my face off! Do it to Julia, not to me! Do it to Julia! Not me! A vast military buildup has been reported in the Sahara Desert... in Sectors and of the war zones. That is the end of the announcement. Brother. On the house. Thank you for coming. You are warned to stand by for an important announcement at ... . This is news of the gravest national consequence... concerning the war with Eurasia. ... . Are you worried about the African front? The news is disquieting in the extreme. I've been worrying about it all day. It's not just a question of losing Africa. For the first time, the territory of Oceania itself is threatened by invasion. It's inconceivable. It must have been possible to outflank them in some way. I have an instinct. There's bad news on the way. I told them all about you. I'm only thankful they got me before it was too late. Yes, I told them about you, too. Thoughtcrime... sexcrime, all your treachery. I have a meeting to go to. We must meet again. Yes. We must meet again. I accuse myself of the following crimes... I have seduced Party members of both sexes... I've been to the proletarian areas... I deliberately contracted syphilis in order to spread the disease... to my wife and other Party members. Together with other agents, I have counterfeited banknotes... wrecked industrial machinery, polluted the water supply... guided Eurasian rocket bombs to targets on Airstrip One... by means of coded radio signals. I stand here, a victim of the influence of Emmanuel Goldstein. Guilty on all counts. I'm glad I was caught. I was mentally deranged. Now I am cured. I ask only for you to accept my love of our leader. I ask only to be shot while my mind is still clean. A glorious victory! A vast, strategic maneuver to outflank... the Eurasian Forces on the African front has been successful. Perfectly coordinated, it has resulted in the utter rout of the Eurasian Army. There have been nearly a million prisoners. It has been an utter rout. Waiter? This immense victory brings the war within measurable distance of its end. Wonderful news. I love you.

—Andy, Nassau, NY

Please stop the merger!
—Ethan Montague, Downers Grove, IL

NOPE.
—Mary Burrow, La Crosse, WI

This seems to go against antitrust laws.
—Jennifer Tucker, Houston, TX

Get your heads out of the cable lobby's assholes and think about how this affects the consumer.
—Dylan Guy, Easton, MD

How can the two largest cable companies merge? Competing markets may be fairly low but having 2 companies is infinitely less of a monopoly than having one company. Also, how long until this company has to be broken apart due to antitrust? Why approve this knowing this is clearly going to be a monopoly? If you allow Comcast and Time Warner merge than the door will be opened for any companies to merge. AT&T and Verizon next? Wal-Mart and Target? Think about this for a moment.
—Matthew Maitlen, greenville, OH

Do we really want or need a monopoly? Is that Fair for consumers?
—Caleb Sims, Crosby, TX

Don't let money fool you into destroying America's whole "freedom " thing its got going on, listen to your citizens NOT the damn companies
—Alexandros Antonorsi, Fort Lauderdale, FL

Allowing the merger of these two companies would encourage a monopoly of the Cable/Internet/Fiber industry as the physical fiber/cable involved in data transmission will be owned largely by one corporate entity, ultimately punishing the consumer. It would be an affront to capitalist commerce.
—Calin Caracol, Yuba City, CA

Nope Nope Nope. I HATE that I have to use comcast. I HATE that I ever had to use Time Warner. Both companies suck at customer service. Both companies lie about the services they provide, and when you complain it does nothing because they already have a monopoly. And there is no alternatives to turn to in your area. Please don't let this happen.
—Jefrey Davis, Colorado Springs, CO

I believe that the merger of time warnern and comcast would create a monopoly of internet and cable providers and would cause negative effects on many people.
—Brandon Tingey, San Diego, CA

This gives Comcast far too much control. If you allow the two largest cable and Internet companies in the United States to merge you are effectively giving Comcast a monopoly on the market as no other companies will be able to compete with the amount control and influence Comcast will now have over the market.
—Logan Boehler, Ottawa, IL

Please do your part to respect our rights. Busy this monopoly, just like Theodore Roosevelt once did! Keep justice alive!
—Jordan M., Monticello, IL

Monopolies jeopardize the free-market system we base ourselves off of. There's no denying this large of a merger would create a state of monopoly in this industry, so it must not be allowed.
—Patrick Vorbroker, Mason, OH

This merger will further push ISPs into a small oligopoly. This will lead to slow speeds, higher price, and no options. I'm here to tell you, as a educated network engineer with years of experience, that the idea of "fast lanes" and ISP oligopoly has to stop. Peering laws need to be set to be fair to the content provider, and not allow ISPs to limit speed/connections to content. Classify broadband internet as a Tier-II service and promote healthy competition. Support business and startups by making the internet fast, affordable, and equal as a right for all. The will promote knowledge and communication, and we as a nation are failing at delivering a service compared to our allies. Europeans have progressive internet reform, and are setting the example that the rest of the world needs to observe and apply. The bottom line for all of this: Clean up the new FCC rulings to actually promote growth instead of being a detriment to the nation. After, defend the rules. Don't let the ISPs loophole their way back to an oligopoly, classify broadband as a Tier-II service.
—Keith Adler, Dallas, TX

We need not focus on putting closer men of green hearts filled with desire for nothing more but profits and control. We need to spread them, and build on creating a higher quality service. The technology exists, and an economical level, yet because the monopoly already exists, they do not have to give it out to us. Instead, they simply raise the cost, without improving the service. Would you want me to take your lovely, fancy, silver spoon-ware, only to replace it with cheap, weak, ugly plastic-ware and charge you twice what you paid for the silver version? I think not.
—Steven, Crosby, TX

Monopolies have historically meant disaster, please stop this irresponsible move.
—Elizabeth Setlow, SEATTLE, WA

Keep your customers happy & business will stay fruitful. Anger enough people & watch the numbers fall. Then where will your companies be?
—Ashley Senske, Ashville, NY

The idea of a company creating a monopoly is a very simple idea that everyone has heard about, it is blatantly clear that this is what Comcast is trying to attempt. If this merger happens it will be overall damaging to both the consumer and the company. The consumer will have less choice and higher cable bills and Comcast will not seek to be innovative or offer competitive features and internet speeds because they dominate the market. Don't let this happen.
—Darryl Denzler, Phoenix, AZ

Have you ever heard of a monopoly? This is literally the first step to a monopoly. It's a disaster and it should be stopped.
—Conner Kleismit, White Lake, MI

Most people do not have any choice betwene isp's. This merger would create a huge monopoly and harm the average american.
—Blake c Washburn, San diego, CA

Please listen to the voice of your own people.
—Juan Juarez, Everett, WA

Comcast is the country's #1 cable and Internet company and Time Warner Cable is #2. Put them together and you get a single giant controlling a massive share of our nation’s TV and Internet-access markets. No one woke up this morning wishing their cable company was bigger or had more control over what they watch and how they get online. But that's the reality we’ll face unless you do your duty to this country and block this merger. Stopping this kind of deal is exactly why we have antitrust laws.
—Anthony R, Langhorne, PA

We have too few providers running an oligopoly as it is. US citizens have little to no choice with high prices and substandard service compared to ISPs in other nations. Portugal, for all it's economic woes, has internet several times faster, unmonitored, for half the price that I pay (I know from a friend there). This is unacceptable. The merger will make our services worse.
—C Harding, cave creek, AZ

We should prevent menopolies for reagions and "too big to fail" companies
—Pedro panzardi, longwood, FL

The Comcast and Time Warner Cable merger goes directly against the USA's commitment to ensuring economic competition and protecting the US economy from monopolies that destroy consumer choice and diminish economic competition. Don't let this happen.
—Natalie Happe, Minnetonka, MN

I am very happy with Time Warner Cable and their customer service! And, from what I'm continuing to read and hear, Comcast is going to be a disaster. PLEASE don't take away my Time Warner Cable.
—Linda Buchanan, Durham, NC

This merger effectively monopolizes quality cable and internet connections for many Americans.
—Gary Therrien, Salem, NH

Do Not Let This Merger become reality or everyone will pay for this mistake made by our so called FCC
—Phillip Rathbun, Pawcatuck, CT

Stop this insanity merger! This is comparable to everyone having to shop at only one supermarket chain, you either pay their prices, scan your own groceries, and you take them to the car yourself, or starve. Many schools provide internet access for the future education of our children /grandchildren, as does libraries. Taxpayers are already funding school and library taxes for education, this could potentially cut this funding directly affecting our Country's education welfare, or either impoverish the poor even more by paying higher taxes. I am ashamed that I even have to submit a comment that is woefully prevalent in the eyes of the citizens of this Nation.
—Patricia Egbert, Versailles, KY

The link to the fcc Web site did not work. I would prefer to voice my view to them directly.
—Jimmy, Cape Coral, FL

Why would this even be considered legal or desirable?
—Sylvia Louise Cox, Atlanta, GA

Comcast enjoys a monopoly where we live. We pay $218 for everything, including internet that is nearly 90% slower than that of Japan. This mony goes to investors, not upgrades. This merger is anti-consumer. Service will continue to be bad and prices will continue to go up. It's already a disgrace!
—David Magagna, Grantham, NH

Rates have gone up tremendously with TWC and I am sure this will be even worse with a Comcast-TWC Merger
—Barnett Raff, Fulton, KY

I think we will try and cancel, go to satellite, run up the Comcast bill and let them sue.
—Bob Cohen, Cape Coral, FL

There is nothing in this merger for the citizens of America. Absolutely nothing.
—Carson Fischer, Olympia, WA

Stop this merger!
—Fred Brizzolara Jr., Goldsboro, NC

I cannot stand Comcast because of the way they treat customers, but they are the only high speed internet provider in my area. To allow a company that rapes its customer base and merge it with another giant to give it almost monopolistic power will be a tragedy.
—Tim Pepkowski, Golden, CO

Comcast has the worse Customer service in America they don't deserve to become larger.
—Linda Chambers, Norfolk, VA

I am tired of "money" being the sole consideration of corporate take-overs and the power of the Machine growing ever stronger. We are not as free of a country as we are led to believe and we have the highest Internet and cable costs in the world (I believe). More and more major corporations are taking over small business and ruining the spirit of local creative persons who want to succeed. Most of us feel that the government caters only to corporations and the wealthy. It is time to stop and to consider how much empowerment is being taken from individuals.
—Ms. Cynthia Andresen, Knoxville, TN

This would kill competition of the cable market place such as it is. Causing cable bills to to soar if this merger is not stop.
—Windell M Parker, Chicago, IL

Less competition is bad for consumers !
—Adam lichtman, Brooklyn, NY

I am already stuck with overpriced, and horrible customer service comcast I want more choice not less.
—Michael Gengler, Independence, MO

We have too little competition, or monopolies already. Please, spare us from another to big to fail, and too big to be any good for us. Thank - you
—Karen Dahlstrom, Wautoma, WI

they are very expensive as it is. they have a monopoly if we let this go thru. Please do not let them merge....
—Manny Crespo, Tampa, FL

Hell no. No more monopolies, no more BIG (insert company/resource here), and no more inequality. It's time to put the foot down.
—Tia Broadway, Higden, AR

it is so hard to deal with comcast as it now stand if they got control of time warner the customers would suffer from higher prices bad customer service that already do . I hope the justice dept. does not allow this merger
—Loretta Henriques, Port Saint Lucie, FL

The only ones to benefit from this merger are the CEOs of TWC and Comcast.
—Paul Martin Gray, Pearland, TX

Comcast has been stripping my service and repackaging it and selling it back to me for about a decade. And the FCC has been twiddling their thumbs. Wake up. Most recently was your approval of allowing comcast to control all television through set-top box as opposed to through the home wiring. as a result, hd programming which is broadcast for free now costs $10 per TV to receive because I now have to rent an HD box. When it was free before. They are the most hated company in the country, maybe you can help do something about that?
—Tim Bradley, Finleyville, PA

This "Fast Lane" plan is not fair at all. It will make new, just now starting, sites unusable, and I, like a lot of other people, can't afford the new fees. The internet is fine just the way it is, free and fair. So please, restore Net Neutrality, DON'T destroy the internet (which this will), and for the love of God, STOP doing this.
—Skylar LaFond, Clarkesville, GA

neither principal will endeavor to provide benefits to consumers. They are both money grabbing greedy corporations.
—, Salem, OH

Comcast is the absolute worst ISP I've ever encountered, second only to TWC. Competition keeps everyone honest, drives innovation, and empowers the customer by providing choice in where they chose to spend their money. The customer needs to be able to make their desires known in the only way that matters to business, by affecting where they choose to invest their time and money.
—Allen Gooch, Cedar Park, TX

Comcast is already too big for it's britches. Their rates are out of sigh and this merger will make it worse!
—Ann M. Murphy, SOUTH WEYMOUTH, MA

DO NOT LET THIS MERGER HAPPEN!!!!!!!!!
—Myung, Atlanta, GA

This is a ridiculously BAD idea. Cable companies already have way too much power because they are monopolies due to the way it was all set up in the first place. This is stupid, stupid stukpid.
—, East Hartford, CT

you did it to Microsoft to stop the monopoly...so lets do it to Comcast and TW
—James Thomas, Jonesborough, TN

We need to figure out a way to get competition. Also, we cannot let these companies charge Netflix or other content providers more money in fear of throttling usage. That's my job as a consumer. Do I want to get raped at $70 a month for 10mb throughput or 100 for 20/mb.
—Joshua Wright, Lincoln, NE

We can barely afford internet/cable as is. If this happens so does the freedom to choose its them or nada.
—Perla Verdeja, New Castle, CO

Rubberstamping this merger will negatively effect customers who are already finding it difficult to pay the outrageous fees and costs that each of these companies feel "entitiled to charge" their customers. Please don't rubberstamp this, please do not allow this merger.
—Christopher Malies, Kyle, TX

I am in Las Cruces, NM and Comcast already has a monopoly over here. I pay $200.00/mo for cable service. It is highway robbery! My apartment building does not allow satellite dishes so here we are, all of us poor people stuck with Comcast. My Comcast bill is higher than my rent, if you can believe that. All of us in this building would switch to another provider if made available. There are at least 150 residents here at my building. I am not even getting what I pay for.
—Olivia Sanchez, Las Cruces, NM

I'm going around in circles with DISH, which I thought was the worst possible company until I read about Comcast & TWC! These companies have way too much power and really treat their customers like serfs. No more mergers!
—Barbara Widmer, Santa Barbara, CA

This would be the worst thing for cable subscribers. Unless cable companies are forced to break their tiers down so it is more affordable, the customers will continue to be treated poorly with outrageous price increases.
—Doug Henderson, Crossville, TN

This is a clear violation of anti-trust laws, this sort of monopoly should not be allowed.
—Jenna Sutter, Barrington, IL

Teddy Roosevelt would be ashamed in all of you
—Dan Collins, Satellite Beach, FL

Why do they keep trying to do crap like this. DO YOUR JOB FCC.
—Tristan Ranatza, Adkins, TX

If this deal goes through I'm moving out of this Country. For 3 years I done battle with Comcast about there Internet. I don't have there TV I would never have, all I had was the Internet to run my Phones and it was Constantly down. at least 3 or 4 times a day. and when I called they constantly told me it was not there fault it was mine and it was my Modem (Customer Owned) one of Motorolas best and most expensive. I've sent that Modem in 5 times only for them to send it back and tell me to stop wasting my money that the Modem is in Perfect Condition. Finally in March of Last year AT&T completed there Fiber Optic Network in my Neighbor hood and on March 22nd. I finally switched over to them. Since it was installed My phones have not gone down a single day since March 22nd.13 I can write a 140 page Book about my Nightmares with Comcast but I really do not care anymore since I am not using them. I do not wish this on anyone what I went through the 3 years with them. I strongly oppose the Merger because if it happens then I'm not the only one that has Had Nightmares but thousands of others will.
—Peter T Petropoulos, Fort Lauderdale, FL

The services of Comcast are terrible
—, Newark, DE

Phone, Internet and Cable Service should be affordable!!!
—Ramesh S. Sant, Roselle Park, NJ

Could you not?
—Zach Burnett, seattle, WA

Customer service will get worse. These people have no scruples and dont care about us.
—Jack Gentile, Syracuse, NY

Comcast has to be the worst company in terms of most expensive and terrible service.
—John Cullen, Smyrna, DE

Not only is this an absurd amount of power for one company to have, Comcast is a terrible company in general. They have the worst customer service in the nation, aside from a terribly unreliable service in general. TWC isn't a great deal better, but it's certainly better than Comcast by a large margin.
—William Weaver, Bowling Green, KY

This is bad for America. Just say "no!"
—Dan, Oak Park, MI

We already pay for the highest speed offered by Time Warner Cable, yet we still experience streaming interruptions. We also had a rate hike on top of paying the highest rate. We have no other cable provider to offer competition, so TWC can continue to raise their rates without addressing any issues we have.
—Becky Buchholz, Bowling Green, KY

Stop this merger, before it even starts.
—Eddie Generals, Lorena, TX

The increasing pricing, laughable excuse for customer service, and nickle and diming schemes need to stop. Not only does this merger need to be stopped but both companies need to be broken down. They operate using unethical practices and laugh after stealing hundreds of thousands if not millions a month from hardworking people who don't have the time to fight over the 50 cents a month they steal from each of their subscribers. If an average person did a fraction of a penny to a every single account at a bank they would be arrested and sentenced immediately so why is it ok for a company to do it to millions?
—Stephen, Spring, TX

Please ensure the fact that a diversity of competition in a free and open market is most important to a stable economy.
—Timothy Hall, Crossville, AL

These are objectively the two least consumer-friendly businesses in America. Together, they will only have more leverage to objectify and exploit the citizenry.
—Matthew Meisenhelter, Dumfries, VA

More than the merger, stop the de facto monopoly that internet/cable companies have because they stake out territories for each provider that they have agreed not to compete in. This merger is just another representation of that same problem.
—Christopher Couture, Cromwell, CT

This merger would be bad for consumers and bad for America.
—Jason Sellers, Oakland, CA

As it is the entire cable/broadband industry is clearly a monopoly, which in my opinion is breaking the law to begin with. A merger between Time Warner and Comcast will have dire consequences for the entire country. WE need to have more competition for broadband and catch up to countries that are years ahead of us, the merger will set us back, not bring us forward.
—Gloria Caricchio, Westbrook, ME

Comcast is far too large and powerful as it is. They treat their customers as cash cows and cannot be trusted into the future. Stop this merger.
—Thomas Hasson, Burlingame, CA

Please do not allow this merger. It would create too large a company which would stifle competition by concentrating too much in the hands of one company. Comcast is a very poor provider of services, and no one, except Comcast and its shareholders, would benefit from this merger. Thank you.
—Steve Sprecher, Columbia, MD

If this merger is allowed, it would create a monopoly in our country which will reduce our options. Take Ryan Block, an active journalist who tried to cancel this comcast account. He proceeded to be badgered by the comcast rep who refused to cancel his account. Here is his recording of the conversation: https://soundcloud.com/ryan-bl ock-10/comcastic-service Allowing this merger will cause us all to experience this anytime we want to cancel or change our service with comcast. We will literally have no other options.
—Dennis Phillips, Lynnwood, WA

It's basically a monopoly.
—William Bartlett, charlton, MA

Get it together lads.
—Conor O'Bryan, Portland, OR

Having utilized both services, I know from personal experience that customer service of BOTH companies is already atrocious, and outrageous rates. These two companies have separately shown that their priority is profit, not pleasing their customers. If merged, the companies have even less incentive to consider the benefit to customers, and I know exactly who will lose from this deal (hint: it ain't TWC or comcast).
—Lisa O, Los Angeles, CA

No merger - don't let comcast get even bigger and become (more of) a monopoly!!
—Jeremy Stein, Albuquerque, NM

Internet providers such as Comcast already essentially have their own monopolies in most areas, and this is a large step towards a monopoly of information as well as a monopoly of service.
—Laila Wise, Macon, GA

Comcast already has ridiculously high rates with little competition. Taking away their major competition will create a virtual monopoly already caused locally by contracts with communities "served". Comcast considers service to captive customers somewhat similar to what bulls do to cows. Please forgive the rude but accurate analogy.
—John Gordon, Pekin, IL

Please don't.
—Katie Jones, Grand Rapids, MI

We need more competition--not less.
—Stacey Ferdinands, Fort Collins, CO

Today's ISP/Cable companies are the definition of poor customer service, fully supported by a non-competitive environment. It is not a free market if you do not have a choice.
—Joshua Anderson, Trussville, AL

Why is it that when major business gets together, the general public has to suffer?
—Theodore Lance, Fremont, OH

My internet bills are high enough already (I can't get other service than Comcast), and I can't imagine how this merger would increase competition or help consumers, or workers. And we don't need bigger corporations contributing to the pockets of corporate controlled politics.
—Aimee Fountain, San Francisco, CA

They already have to much power. There needs to be more competition not less.
—Mr. Cid Dennis, Arvada, CO

We will be forced to switch from Time Warner to Comcast if this is approved. That actually means "from bad to worse". BLOCK this merger!!!
—Rodney Lee Smith, Arlington, TX

Monopoly = Death of the Free Market (we did learn this less than 25 years ago, yes?)
—Jennifer D. Lincoln, Nottingham, MD

PLEASE stop the merger!
—Elizabeth Brandt, Los Altos, CA

This is a travesty. Our government is not protecting the rights of the individual.
—Zach Hudnall, Bryan, TX

I have always recognized Comcast as the worst customer service provider ever. This recent barrage is just an illustration of what everybody knows. Do not allow their monopoly on service to grow even greater.
—Alex Morgan, Seattle, WA

Please block this merger and show that America is in the hands of We The People and not big business.
—Shane Henderson, New Kensington, PA

Comcast is already monopolizing the internet/cable business. Almost no one I know even has the option to go with another company. They are overpriced, provide horrible/degrading customer service, and seem to have no interest in making their customers happy with their product. Please don't let this happen!
—Erin Greager, Bainbridge Island, WA

Have you listened to the recording of a man trying to get his Comcast service disconnected that has been making the rounds of the internet? The Comcast rep is obviously very practiced in the techniques of bullying and harrying and just wearing down a customer who wants to leave. It is a unique event only in that it was recorded. DO NOT LET COMCAST DESTROY ANY MORE OF ITS COMPETITION!
—Mr. Roger Perrone, Lexington, KY

It would be ridiculos to let a merger of this magnatude take place with comcasts reputation for poor service and high prices.
—Dennis Shay, East Liverpool, OH

PLEASE DO NOT LET THIS HAPPEN!!!!!!!!!
—Ryan Johnson, Arlington, VA

This will create a monopoly. If the company gets too big, there will be no room for competition. Do not let these companies merge!
—Alisha Bottomley, Del Mar, CA

Stop allowing mergers that kills competition! Comcast is already to big and controls to much.
—Patricia Hunt, Springfield, IL

Considering how almost all of America is against this merger, I don't even understand why this is still a possibility. Actually, I guess I do understand why, which makes it all the more depressing. Please do the right thing and stop this from happening.
—Sam Kellett, Los Angeles, CA

Comcast already sucks at customer Service add TWC then it all goes to POOP
—Jeffrey J Chaves, Manchester, CT

Worst. Company. Ever. Would love to see Comcast crumble.
—Melissa Wilson, Lindon, UT

The fact that many people use their internet service to receive their news, as well as to communicate, there is no way to consider cable and internet as separate categories of services. Our antitrust laws must be applied even if they specifically do not mention "internet", the intent and spirit of the laws are meant to prevent these types of mergers. This merger is unacceptable.
—Heidi Post, Portland, OR

Comcast plus Time Warner cable would only increase the monopoly that we are already in the grips of.
—Lori Johnson, Santa Clara, CA

What an awful idea!
—Jada Anderson, Greensboro, NC

I have both TWC and Comcast and it's hard to tell which one is worse. This merger is a terrible idea.
—Adrienne Auerbach, Bernardsville, NJ

Protect competition in our free market. Oppose this merger.
—Afton January, Salt Lake City, UT

Dear Sirs and/or Madams: In history, tyrants with too much power have floundered under their own weights. I doubt consumers will be able to afford the merger of these two behemoths. If the collected consumer base dwindles, two things could occur simultaneously. The first that occurs is a disconnect between future leaders and the true global pulse of the people. The internet is a powerful tool for learning and connecting with the world at large, a valuable skill in the global economy. Without this skill, many future leaders and workers will be unable to compete in the global market. The second possible occurrence is that the behemoths, now merged as a single leviathan, begins to suffer as their consumers leave their services. It will collapse under it's own weight like tyrants before it leaving a smoldering crater in the jobs market. Services and organizations, likely government-funded, will then need to fill this double-sided economic gap. For the future of America, please take all available actions to block this merger.
—Elizabeth Polk, Lake Panasoffkee, FL

Comcast has horrible customer service, and only cares about their bottom line. They don't care about being competitive, they will only continue to raise prices every year, and give worse and worse service. Not only that, but they want to force content providers to pay them access fees to give their content preferential treatment. We need "Net Neutrality" and We need more COMPETITION ! PLEASE BLOCK THIS MERGER !
—Mike Figiel, newark, DE very bad idea to let Comcast to take over the TWC, Comcast is the worst company I ever know,they have no any respect to they own contracts with customers,we are over charged ,we want TWC in Camden Co. to take over our internet service not Comcast!

—Felix Skubliki Liz, Oaklyn, NJ

Stop merger
—Shahid Hussain, Lansing, IL

Stop the MONOPOLY! Stop the EXTORTION! Stop the UNACCEPTABLE and FRAUDULENT practices that we are subjected to! There already is very little if any choice (in some areas), why is United States DECADES behind Europe and the rest of the world in so many ways! SHAME SHAME SHAMEFUL SHAME!!
—AMatthauser, Collingswood, NJ

AND THEY ARE BOTH THE WORST FUCKING PROVIDERS.
—Keir Sullivan, San Diego, CA

As mentioned earlier this decade, they're "too big to..." well, they're too big. Period.
—Philip Harris, Jacksonville, FL

Since the FCC and the Justice Departments deal with regulation maybe you both are aware that a monopoly is an ILLEGAL enterprise. Please, be the public servants you were appointed to be. Thank you.
—Drew Innenkraft, san rafael, CA

I am a TWC customer. That is harmful enough to me without giving these manipulative, cheating giants more power over me and others!
—Kenneth Black, Milwaukee, WI

The choice between these companies is just like the choice we have to make with voting, the lesser of two evils?
—B Kinberger, Louisville, KY

In Chicago Land, there is no such thing as competition in internet. Let's not take it from a regional to a country wide problem.
—Steven Leonard, Bolingbrook, IL

i have had services from both companies. customer service from comcast is abysmal, and you want to make it LARGER? you are creating a monopoly. if you wanted a truly FREE MARKET, we would be able to choose ANY cable provider in our area.
—Ken Miller, North Charleston, SC

They are horrible and yet there is no alternative in soooo many highly populated areas. WHY?
—Mary Thomas, Santa Maria, CA

Stop this merger. This merger will give this company to much control of the airwaves
—Manuel C Garcia Jr, Chicago, IL

Please stop this horrible merger.
—Joseph Crimmins, Brick, NJ

Please do not let this merger happen. Prove to America that our government is not being controlled by big corporations and lobbyists like Tom Wheeler. It's wrong.
—Kimberly Dull, Belleville, IL

Please stop this merger. I don't see how this will help out anyone. I can see higher cable bills and no way out for some people.
—John crossway, Chittenango, NY

Comcast service is poor and rates are high. A merger will only make them more powerful over consumers. I oppose the merger.
—Ken Herrild, Menominee, MI

A horrible monopoly . The worst possible customer service with no recourse for the customer.
—Michael epstein, Houston, TX

this merger HAS to be stopped because if the deal goes through, comcast will have the power to raise rates and do "whatever" they want to the American people. If you, the FCC and Dept of Justice do not do anything about this, then you too have your hands in Comcast's pocket and getting paid to let this happen.
—Thomas Archer, Florence, CO

stop the greed. please. it's disgusting.
—Erin Schmidt, Chico, CA

Comcast is single handedly the absolute worst company I have ever dealt with in my entire life. I would go without cable & Internet before I ever had service with them again.
—Jason Gray, Maumee, OH

Over one hundred years ago Teddy Roosevelt broke up the last of cooperate giants. Never did anyone imagine this would happen again
—Austin, Lenexa, KS

Stop making our anti-trust laws a joke. Stop putting corporate interests ahead of citizens.
—Samuel, Boulder, CO

Allow smaller companies to grow and diversify the cable market!! This helps each of us including you!!
—Emily Drown, Salt Lake City, UT

This is a bad deal for consumers. Stop the merger.
—Adam Wolkoff, Saint Paul, MN

Comcast is a living example of why monopolies must be controlled and potentially broken. If comcast is allowed to take over more territory / customers. Customers and consumers will lose. Stop this. Lets see if the intersts of the people will override the rhetoric and lobbying.
—Joseph Smith, Atlanta, GA

A merging of these companies would make a huge monopoly, something that should not be allowed or encouraged.
—Noah Kindall, Lakewood, CO

This is not right.
—Pat Bell, Marietta, GA

Antitrust and anti-monopoly laws have fallen to the wayside, and things have gone to shit because of it. Don't help accelerate the process before steps can be taken to fix it.
—Devin T., Adams, MA

Would also be great if you could keep them from not allowing other companies in certain areas.
—Tessa Janes, Denver, CO

As someone who moved out of a Comcast area to get away from their shitty internet service/customer support and landed in a Time Warner area (not much better) let me tell you why I think this merger is a bad idea. First off, the area I am in now including most of Ohio is a TWC area. Neighboring Indiana, Tennessee, Illinois and both Virginias are all Comcast areas. If Comcast were to take over TWC, every state that borders mine would be under control of Comcast. That alone equates to roughly 6 million subscribers, many of whom probably have families and share their line in the household. Most alternate ISP's in those states are sub-standard, non-competitive and can't offer true high speed internet because their infrastructure is too small thanks to the squeeze of the larger companies. In my area alone there is only one other ISP (Windstream) and compared to TWC their speeds are on par with the highest available speeds from 2004. Secondly Comcast and TWC both have horrible customer support, they throttle subscribers during peak hours and charge ridiculous amounts of money 'tech support' that rarely solves the issue, which is essentially like trained monkeys punching a modem until it works. I don't want the two most incompetent ISP's in the nation to become one giant ball of suck. Third and finally, Comcast has bandwidth caps on all of their speed tiers. The amount of bandwidth they give you with a cap is unreasonable in this day and age of the internet. My cap was 450GB of data per month. I average 600GB of data per month. Why so much data? That's just from normal usage, playing/downloading games, using Netflix and telecommuting from home. Comcast at the time charged me $10 for every 1GB of data I used over my cap. They would also throttle my speeds from 50mbps to 15mbps until the end of the monthly billing cycle. After living in a Comcast area all of 3 months, I moved back home from the East Coast just so I didn't have to pay almost $300 a month extra for busting a data cap, which shouldn't even exist in the first place. Comcast claims their infrastructure is overloaded in certain markets, hence the data caps. Why not upgrade the infrastructure then? They have billions in overhead capital every year, yet their reinvestment is minute compared to their net income. Could it be because their CEO earns $40 million dollars per year and their entire executive staff plus board earns 20 times that? Why would you want to encourage these people to line their pockets even more by allowing them to create another AT&T-esque monopoly of the nations internet and TV service? Comcast already owns so many cable properties that if allowed to consume the properties TWC owns, will create the true definition of a monopoly. Just say no.
—Joshua Garrett, Lexington, KY

Keep this near-monopoly from happening
—Amanda Crider, Reynoldsburg, OH

For two years I have had a different price on my bill every month. Only two bills had the same price. No change in what service I had, nothing extra. From $156 to $210!
—Gladys Brown, Waynesboro, VA

Please do not allow Comcast and Time Warner to merge, they are already the two worse internet providers in the country and this merge would make them even more difficult to deal with.
—Wei Cheng, El Paso, TX

Comcast is a force of stagnation in internet service. They move at every opportunity to block fiber in order to remain relevant in a world that has outgrown cable technology. Giving them more power over consumers delays the benefits consumers reap from new technology that Comcast blocks.
—Kenny Chamberlin, Seattle, WA

These companies already hold too much power and charge too much for the services they offer. Please do not permit this merger.
—Stephen Asbell, High Springs, FL

Comcast has no interest in reducing profit margins for its shareholders. The profit from the economies of scale from the merger will only get passed along the top execs in the form of bonuses. The savings will never make it down to the Comcast customers. If the FCC/Justice Dept had approved the merger of T Mobile and AT&T we would have never had the good competition that is currently occurring between T Mobile and the other wireless carriers. Please don't approve this merger. Thank you.
—Robert Guffey, Jupiter, FL

WE need more choices not, more of big business....
—Tracey Matthews, Ocean City, MD

Don't overlook the huge repercussions this merger will have. The US wasn't built on monopolies for a reason. Diversified goods and providers are the best way to keep the people happy since there will be more choices and less manipulation. Already our choices have become vastly limited and this has led to institutionalized corruption with big companies making X amount of donations to campaigns in order to get what they want. Give the people back their voices. Don't continue to drown us out like the representatives that make it entirely too difficult to cancel services. Please do what is needed and stop this merger.
—Natalia Munoz Narino, Gainesville, FL

Consider that the merger would create a giant conglomerate. Aren't there anti-trust laws??? Comcast's customer service is already horrendous; a merger would only exacerbate the problems. A healthy economy requires consumer choices. Allowing the merger, and effectively putting a minimum of 1/3 of all cable subscribers under Comcast's control, is the opposite of having choices. PLEASE do not allow the merger.
—Nicole Zuber, Antwerp, OH

Allowing this merger would be a travesty for consumers. Time warner rates are already ridiculously high & the customer service leaves a lot to be desired
—, Youngstown, OH

NO! NO! NO!
—Tyler Henson, Salt Lake City, UT

Please stop Comcast from having a total monopoly. Their service is awful and they are abusing their customers in every market where they have monopolistic power already. Please don't give them any more of the market.
—Susan Doucette, Aptos, CA

Internet here is already terribly overpriced compared to other countries. Removing competition isn't going to help.
—Patrick Lin, King of Prussia, PA

Greedy pigs.
—Jordan Ramos, Augusta, GA

The greed of communication companies has become an insult to the American sense of decency.
—Dimitri Malaspinas, Indianapolis, IN

I want choices
—Byron, Knoxville, TN

This merger represents monopoly Capitalism. We the consumers need more competition not less.
—Charles Cooper, Sunnyvale, CA

Stopping this kind of deal is exactly why we have antitrust laws. You didn't allow "Ma Bell" to run a monopoly, don't allow Comcast, or Comcast as a merged company or as operating/DBA(doing business as) under any other name as a single HUGE company controlling 1/3-1/2 of all of the United States' cable/phone/internet business.
—Bethe Neitz, Pelzer, SC

Glad to see action being taken.
—Jesse Collins, Rockmart, GA

As a time warner customer and a registered voter, this merger will not help Americans at all. Either through lower costs, more jobs, better service or better competition. If the FTC allows this merger I assume anti trust laws are just dead.
—Phil Bahng, Torrance, CA

In Nebraska there are already established monopolies that prevent competition known as regional franchise rights. Each time a contract expires the city or county opens the geographic area up for bid; however, that bid usually goes to a single bidder that conveniently owns the infrastructures that another company would be required to use and pay for if they were to win the bid. Thus, there is no incentive to improve the rural internet access.
—Zjon Braziel, Columbus, NE

Terrible idea... Comcast is already the worst service provider in the country. For those of us in rural areas the infrastructure is so terrible we have only one viable option for internet. Allow Comcast to merge with TWC will only make a sclerotic company even worse. Why aren't there more choices for local service providers? Why is the FCC and the DoJ supporting monopolies that stranglehold their customers? Are you working for them or for us? We pay your salaries, health benefits and pensions. Why isn't the FCC and DoJ looking out for us, the consumer and taxpayer? Where is Judge Green? We need the FCC and DoJ to block this deal. This is not in the public interest.
—Ginny Nichols, Bodega Bay, CA

Comcast is the country’s #1 cable and Internet company and Time Warner Cable is #2. They both regularly rank at the bottom of the barrel in customer-service surveys. Put them together and you get one subpar giant offering service to two-thirds of U.S. homes. Putting this much power in the hands of one company is dangerous. This deal would lead to less consumer choice, less diversity and much higher cable bills.
—Jose Matamoros, Salinas, CA bad news

—JD Dommers, San Diego, CA

The following, on its face, shows why these obscene regional monopolies should not be allowed to merge into an even bigger thieving, lying, anti-consumer, money-grubbing and bloated behemoth than each already is: https://www.yahoo.com/tech/thi s-may-be-the-worst-customer-se rvice-call-in-history-91851980 684.html Only an idiot would believe that this exchange is not codified in internal policies, as EVERYONE HAS EXPERIENCED IT! (but not everyone has bothered to record it).
—Matthew Kozak, Lehigh Acres, FL

I am a former employee that worked for Comcast for the past 6 years. Comcast has changed dramatically in that internal management has become so corrupt that I went to HR to report what was occurring in the business division I worked in. I expressed the internal fraud and that I feared coming forward because I would lose my job. I was fired 3 weeks after reporting. Do NOT allow this company to merge!! The power hungry upper management wants complete and utter control!!
—Andrea Konig, Colorado Springs, CO

Stop the monopoly, please.
—Peter Hagane, Kristiansand, TN

Stop it!
—Kelsey Smith, East Lansing, MI

PALEEZE do not let this happen! Poor people have no other entertainment than tv and it is already to the point we can only afford basic.Have a decent moment in your life when you care about the less fortunate and not corporate greed, do not allow this merger we need MORE competition not less.
—Brenda Piper, Powell, TN

—Gybitdrktm, Olyphant, PA

From what I've heard about Comcast, I don't want the merger to happen, as I don't like the way that Comcast interacts with it's customers. I like my TWC service just the way it is right now & am afraid that if the merger happens, that I might not get as good of service & also that my monthly bill will go up to the point where I will no-longer be able to afford to keep this service.
—Shana Mueller, Dayton, OH

This consolidation will cause less choice in an already oligarchical market.
—Tom Atkins, Kissimmee, FL

I sincerely think this merger is the creation of a large monopoly and it is the duty of the United States government to stop this from happening.
—Mark Paul Krawczyk, Baltimore, MD

I will do everything I can to avoid big business like this. No one should have this kind of monopoly on anything. Even though there are those that have managed to slip by, I will do everything in my power to keep others from weasiling their way through.
—Rachel Wittschen, cape may court house, NJ

This and other mergers that create these behemoth corporations are completely dangerous for consumers. Consumers like me continue to suffer, high costs, aggressive to the point of offensive marketing and the final steps of no competition lack of substantive choice and rampant greed.I am absolutely opposed to the merger of Time Warner and Comcast, both already overblown corporate entities.
—Judith Gibbons, Champaign, IL

this would be a very large colossus and make competition less. customer service would suffer terribly.
—Lewis A. Barrett, Shelby, NC

This merger would be nothing but bad for competition and for the citizens of the country.
—Kimberly Hanson, Charlotte, NC

I've used the services of both Comcast and Time Warner throughout my life in several different cities. Both companies are pretty terrible at customer service and at offering competitive rates. Allowing them to merge would allow them to become even worse providing fewer options than are currently available. We already have the most expensive internet in the developed world. These companies are the problem. Please stop this proposed merger.
—Elizabeth Candido, Kalamazoo, MI

Please do not let this happen.
—James Craig, Pittsburgh, PA

Please block this merger!
—Catherine Bileti, Rochester, NY

Time Warner is terrible at customer service. I know from experience. Comcast is apparently worse, and the recent 8 minute recording made by someone who was trying in vain to disconnect from the service verifies this and is the most infuriating thing I've listened to in a long time. This merger would be a nightmare for the public.
—Matthew McKenna, New York, NY

No Merger!
—Santo Miceli, Fort Lauderdale, FL

Comcast is already my only option for internet and cable. This will only make things worse. We need to increase competition, not reduce it. Allowing this merger to go through would be a disaster.
—Jacki Coburn, Seattle, WA

If the FCC allow this merger it will be proof they don't care about consumer protection or protection of our communication infrastructure.
—Ben Hicks, Chicago, IL

Down with monopolistic government-backed corporatism.
—Trevor Bell, Merrill, WI

Comcast needs to downsize, not increase in power/size.
—Rachel Nieman, Morgantown, WV

Please stop legalized corruption. Comcast is already bordering on a monopoly, and in many areas, is the only choice for home internet access. This unchecked growth is not healthy for the economy and the people.
—Amanda Durish Cook, Jacksonville, FL

While I am not familiar with TWC my experience with Comcast is not conducive to wanting them to have a larger market share. They are more interested their systems than the needs of their customers.
—Michella Snowden, Philadelphia, PA

I have had Comcast and TWC both provide sub standard customer service. We need more competition in the cable market not monopolies to raise prices and reduce quality of service.
—Craig Herring, Waxhaw, NC

We need competition as consumers to keep prices low and better technology development. Other countries are outpacing us in terms of speed and agility with internet and this merger will just put a chokehold on an already outdated form of communication.
—Crystal Jackson, Fullerton, CA

Stopping this kind of deal is exactly why we have antitrust laws. There is such a thing as being too big.
—Jody Yeates, Saint Louis, MO

This will further destroy competition and in doing so people will pay the price in both cost and quality.
—David Spicer, Purcellville, VA

No monopolies, no restrictions, let freedom ring free
—Rodolfo Gonzalez, Fort Collins, CO

Comcast already has a hold on my town! No competition and they just jack up your rate that are like a car payment! No way should they have more power!Their service suck and they are out of control already! Whatever happened to completion in this country!Companies like this get a bunch of lobbyists and steamroll over congress and buy off these committees that oversee these mergers! Disgusting!This is norm anymore who will stand up and stop them!
—Peter Towns, East Brunswick, NJ

This merger is illegal. If the ideology of this country, or it's people means anything to you, stop allowing corporations to break the law.
—Elea Anita Wright, Chattanooga, TN

I demand the FCC stop this proposed merger between Comcast and Time Warner Cable. Please hear our voices.
—Robert Soto, Round Rock, TX

I'm really concerned about what would happen if Comcast is allowed to buy Time Warner Cable. Already these two companies are too big. We need MORE choices in cable, not fewer choices.
—Christine Young, Moline, IL

This merger is unacceptable. There is already zero competition for services, and it means more cost and less quality for the consumer. I just returned from living in Canada for 9 years, and they have lots of internet companies, including small independent ones. I was able to get superior service for half the cost of what I am forced to buy here for lack of any other options. We have anti-monopoly laws for a reason. If you allow this merger, we will all know that it's because you're being bribed. America should be ashamed of itself. This is not how our nation is supposed to work.
—Susannah Brower, Camillus, NY

Please deny this merger. It will stifle competition and allow a company that already ignores its customers to become even stronger
—Robert H Obermeier, Hillsborough, NJ

The FCC needs to step up and prevent this merger from taking place, lest they subsequently need to become giant-killers when the Comcast/TIme-Warner giant abuses its illegal powers.
—Erich Brungraber, Appleton, WI

Please do not allow this merger! This clearly would create monopoly!
—Daniel W. Kim, Mill Valley, CA

Don't be a dingo!
—Judith Barlow, Nevada City, CA

I live in an area that Comcast has ignored and LIED to us about future services and timing since 2002 when I moved here. I assume before my time as well. Comcast is a monopolistic corporate evil presence. We have no alternatives here and they continue to provide us terrible service and lie to us.
—Annette Merriman, Half Moon Bay, CA

Please protect all Americans from the abuses of these two companies. They are constantly calling the elderly and up selling them services even when they say no. My 80 year old mother has been up sold twice in the last six for services she doesn't want. It takes me days to reverse these up sells and I have to take time off work to visit their office because you can't down grade or cancel service over the phone.
—Todd Radabaugh, Findlay, OH

Comcast's business model is anti-consumer.
—Erika Koster, Minneapolis, MN

I am disgusted that this merger is even being considered by our government. Cable companies provide an essential service, much like Ma Bell did in the 70s, however upon recognizing that fair business practices and healthy competition was good for our economy and that allowing for monopolies like Ma Bell and now Comcast to manage essential services, we are allowing an already bad situation to get worse. Stop this merger and break up Comcast AND Time Warner to ensure healthy competition between service providers.
—Richard P Ulmer, Colorado Springs, CO

Many people I know avoid renting and buying where Comcast is the only service provider because of how horrible their service is. Don't let this happen!
—Dc, Pompano Beach, FL

Here's an example of what we can expect more of: http://www.npr.org/blogs/allte chconsidered/2014/07/15/331681 041/comcast-embarrassed-by-the -service-call-making-internet- rounds
—Roger Harris, ,

The comcast cancelation call that went viral would be worse with this merger. To much power to this company and net neutrality needs to be powered by the public, not the cable companies!
—John Horvatic, San Jose, CA

Less competition
—Tom Smith, New York, NY

I believe that this citizen request will be ignored. Ours was once a constitutional republic. Now it's a soft fascist nation where corporations have more rights than citizens. Corporations have been granted personhood and religious status by an activist Supreme Court, the majority of which looks to the GOP, corporations, and Rome for guidance. Represestation in American government is available only to those who can buy congressional representatives.
—Mary Horneck, Huntsville, AL

Comcast already has monopolistic tendencies and treats their customers poorly. Don't enable them to make it worse by expanding their reach and pseudo-monopoly. I have yet to meet a single person who is satisfied with Comcast, but most people don't have any other options so they have to use them. The lack of competition has already created clear harm to consumers. They are already a de-facto monopoly and should either be broken up or forced to allow other's to use their network (a la sprint reselling their airwaves).
—Don Hayler, San Francisco, CA

Please do not allow this merger to take place. We need more competition, not less, in how America gets access to media.
—Brent Logan, Hillsboro, OR

This merger would be very bad for all consumers. We need more choices for cable TV and internet.
—Thomas Hedrick, Lexington, NC

Please reference the Ryan Block recording of Comcast customer reprentative behavior. Is this how you would want you or a family member treated?
—Dennis Vance, Miamisburg, OH

The company doesn't need to get any bigger or lose any more competition. They already have a monopoly in most cities and provide truly appalling customer service. In both professional and personal settings I have had more unpleasant dealings with this company than any other. I want them to feel some pressure to step up their game. If this merger proceeds they will have slim to none.
—Laura Slaby, Portland, OR

This is going to be a borderline monopoly, which is prohibited under current anti-monopoly laws, which were responsible for the initial break-up of AT&T. There needs to be competition in every field. The Customer Service for both Comcast as well as Time Warner Cable are horrendous, do not need to make it worse for the consumer.
—Scott Cohen, Alexandria, VA

Competition is a good thing in business. I know this; you know this. But, more importantly, and more insidiously, Comcast knows this.
—Nathan Gamache, Waltham, MA

While there is often little to no competition in broadband, this would lower even that narrow market and give Comcast significant power to control American end users of the Internet.
—Chris Casper, Ephrata, PA

This would be terrible for consumers. The only winners would be the corporations and the politicians receiving money from said corporations.
—Calvin Ho, Gainesville, FL

Bad for consumers. Bad for freedom of press. Bad for America.
—Manthan Bhatt, Denver, CO

The monopoly of resources by less than a handful of companies effectively squashes ALL forms of competition in the industry. With the consistent, subpar service offered by internet giants like Comcast and TWC, the public at large is forced to accept horrible service and effectively has ZERO choice of workable providers. These companies should be split up, not piled on top of each other to create even fewer options for Americans who just want to get on the damn internet without being screwed and mistreated by their ISP. This merger would be an antitrust travesty and is entirely in corporations', not citizens', interest.
—Michelle Jenab, Los Angeles, CA

Monopoly is unconstitutional. Simple enough.
—Ashley, Henderson, NV

This is a terrible monopoly. The number of choices in the internet service provider field is already too small.
—LaDawn Davis, Oceano, CA

A monopoly in the internet and television market would a direct threat to the freedom of speech our country prides itself on.
—Steven F., Ann Arbor, MI

It cannot be possible that the FCC and DoJ are considering letting the #1 and #2 providers in a service industry to merge creating a virtual monopoly from coast to coast. Is there nothing that lobbying dollars can't buy now? Please block this following anti-trust laws and principles for the PEOPLE of the United States of America.
—Richard Butler, West Milford, NJ

The only people this merger would benefit are the heads of the company. The people of America want their internet kept the way it is: Net Neutral and free!
—Taryn Cook, Stow, OH

A merger between Comcast and Time Warner Cable would undoubtedly be bad for consumers and and the future of an open and innovative economy based on the internet.
—Casey Burton, Bellingham, WA

Allowing a merger of Comcast and Time Warner Cable is tantamount to ignoring all precedent set by the Supreme Court during the Baby Bell era. I discontinued my service with Comcast, and do not have an internet provider at home, because I so vehemently believe that they are running a monopoly at odds with a free market. Please take this opportunity to take a stand for Americans' rights to have affordable and reliable access to information via the internet.
—Anne Buzzini, Portland, OR

This should not be considered a legal merger by any stretch of the definition.
—Mr. Brett Foster, East Troy, WI

You need to be breaking ComCast up, not making it bigger.
—MMacMillan, Alpharetta, GA

Really, didn't learn anything - 1982 ring a bell?
—Camilla Barrett, Nashville, TN

Time Warner is a much better company than Comcast plus Comcast is already large enough. The consumer should have a say in this since we're the ones affected.
—Beth M. Melton, Palmdale, CA

I am a Time Warner Customer and do not want to see this merger. Comcast does not manage complaints about virus and spam on their networks at all!
—Debbie Mitchell, Oxnard, CA

This merger should not be allowed under anti-trust and anti-monopoly laws that have been long established in this country. It's an abomination that litigation has reached this level. I personally am completely ashamed of this country on so many levels it is really hard for me to fathom anymore, and I am only 28 years old.
—Jordan Potter, Albany, OR

Do not allow this merger.
—Charles W Welch, Lake George, NY

I don't want you controlling what I watch on TV, or what I do on the internet. I literally hate you people with every fibre of my being.
—Raeesa, ,

TWC is ruthless by themselves put them together and we have nothing but BIG TROUBLE!!
—Mike, Tiffin, OH

This is a disaster in the making.
—William Love, Nashville, TN

Comcast has current horrid customer service and charges too much and we have no option for any alternate cable or internet providers in our area.
—Laurie Chaplen, Corvallis, OR

Historically such massive monopolies have never worked in favor of the people, look back to the tycoons of Rockefeller, Carnegie, etc. We cannot allow such a merger to take place, eliminating competition will not make either company better, but rather will allow their customer service, their prices, and overall services to decline in quality.
—Jessica Friedlander, Durham, NC

My cable bill increased 35% this Feb. My services didn't change. I guess someone has to pay for their acquisitions.
—Brian Hurlburt, Philadelphia, PA

After the recording of the comcast customer service call that went viral, it shows how bad it is now; the merger will only encourage Comcast to be worse than they are now
—Tanja Foiles, Simi Valley, CA

I thought this was a country for the people and by the people, not one that only does the bidding of those who 'bid' the highest. This is a sham and is disgraceful. Please, for once, think of the people and not the $$$
—James Edwin, Seattle, WA

Please don't make my internet bills any higher than they already are.
—Zach Olsen, Chicago, IL

Mergers only hurt consumers. We need a true free marlet..i.e., if your business sucks you go under.
—Bettina J. Larsen, Tulsa, OK

I thought Monopoly was just a board game? I didn't realize we were playing that with America as the game board.
—Thomas Brinegar, Columbia, MO

I have had many problems with Comcast TV and Internet service. Their representatives are inconsistent and many times misinformed. I would like to have a competitive provider, but the merger will just create a larger monopoly. They are already too powerful.
—David Ryan, Pacifica, CA

There is no way this merger is good for the consumer. Please do not take any pay offs from Comcast and just once think about the good of the people. Stop this merger and declare that these services are utilities.
—Jim Mac, San Antonio, TX

Please, please, please don't let this merger go through. This country has too much big everything. No consumer that I know wants this, we are afraid of it. We like businesses to have competition.
—Peggy Tiner, Oak Ridge, TN

stop this merger
—Seb Larosa, West Hartford, CT

This merger is bad for consumers, bad for the public good, bad for business, and bad for the free flow of information. It needs to be stopped immediately!
—Jonathon Tucker, Davidson, NC

Please don’t allow Comcast and TWC to merge together, especially if the cust omer service is going to be much worse than it already is. Also with this type of monopoly going on in the US and the ability for this corporation to continually raise prices, we baby-boomers(on fixed incomes) have no where to turn to acquire affordable communications (ie world news) and minimum entertainment which is just the opposite of what Comcast and TWC want from this merger.
—, Morrisville, PA

A joining of the two worst internet providers/ISP monopolies in the nation is definitively not a good idea for the free market.
—Navjot S Narula, New York, NY

Disgusting, criminals in DC allowing monopolies to thrive decades after the Sherman Antitrust Act. I will vote any and all incumbents out of office.
—PHL commercial, Carlsbad, CA

Why do we need a justice dept if these titan mergers continue to be allowed???? This is crWhere is the foresight, it hurts the consumer and pays handsomely to the shareholders?
—Leah Fether, Saint Helens, OR

Why do we need a justice dept if these titan mergers continue to be allowed???? This is crWhere is the foresight, it hurts the consumer and pays handsomely to the shareholders?
—Leah Fether, Saint Helens, OR

A point to ponder!,Remember how the Bell Telephone System was dismantled.
—Bruno P. Wiater, Philadelphia, PA

As a recent employee of one of the company's involved in this proposed merger, I can assure you that allowing this merger to go through will have the opposite effect of what Time Warner Cable and Comcast would have you believe.
—Peter Bucklin, Portland, ME

These are the worst companies for customer service. Also we don't have enough choice as consumers for cable service.
—Albert Byrd, Detroit, MI

There are already far too few choices for internet and phone service in my area. Please don't allow this merger to reduce our choices even more!
—Susan Dobie, Franklinton, NC

Customer Service is Terrible at Comcast and from what I hear at TWC so can you really expect it to get any better by allowing two disastrously bad companies to merge together? God, I hope not!
—Howard Harbottle, San Jose, CA

There's no doubt in my mind that almost no one thinks its a good idea to let these two merge.Yet still it will probably go through.Comcast knows who to pay off.Between the politicians getting money and FCC getting jobs we will see the end of net neutrality and even less choices.
—Edward Giant, Burney, CA

This is ridiculous, prices are too high now!!!
—Jeff L Greenawalt, Chambersburg, PA

The worst customer experience of my life has taken place with Comcast over the last 3 weeks. This merger will exacerbate an already terrible situation by effectively eliminating any competition in this marketplace. A monopoly structure of what is increasingly a fundamental infrastructure in the United States would be disastrous.
—Mark, Boulder, CO

With technology's larger impact on our every day lives, I think it is very important to prevent this type of monopoly. Please enforce some restrictions on Comcast, and perhaps even divide them into smaller pieces like what was done to Bell a while back.
—Eric Nelson, Sterling Heights, MI

Merging two companies with poor service will result in even worse service. We need more competition to create innovation, not less.
—Logan Dean, New Bloomfield, PA

Comcast will not give any better service than it gives now. If their customers are unhappy with what Comcast does now, their dissatisfaction will not disappear should the merger happen. Please! Stop the monopolization of the market place by these huge, isolated corporations.
—James Norris, Madison, AL

Already we receive horrible customer service and increasing costs/less service from Comcast. Please don't give them even more of a monopoly! We want and deserve to have choice!
—Christina O'Guinn, Sunnyvale, CA

Merging these companies will do nothing for the consumer. I thought monopolies went out a long time ago. Neither company serves their subscribers now, what kind of service can we expect with a merger like this? What will become of a free internet when they start favoring businesses that pay them more? Vote to disallow this merger.
—Richard Brna, Washington, PA

I've been a dissatisfied customer of both of these companies, in 2 different residences but with a lack of competition, haven't had much of a choice. They already have little incentive to provide good service at his prices. Now they would have even less which could be disastrous for our nation as high-speed bidirectional internet access is becoming critical for our economy and individual well-being. Please stop this merger.
—Dan Melinger, New York, NY

PLEASE DON'T ALLOW THIS MERGER!!!!!
—Arsenio Alfaro, McAllen, TX

Comcast sucks
—Paul Bradley, Medford, MA

This should not even be open for discussion. A merger of this proportion will create a monopoly. Please shut this down before it can go any further.
—Susan Gray, Orlando, KY

It is already difficult to find a non-Comcast internet provider in Portland, Oregon. The competition is limited. The internet world already seems to be an oligopoly and merging these two giant businesses would (in my humble opinion) create less competition and affect the consumer's ability to take full advance of a diverse free market.
—Liz Oliver, Portland, OR

NO, NO, NO!!!! Do not let Comcast and Time Warner Cable merge! Too much monopoly power in telecom already. I ought to have at least 2 phone internet companies and 2 cable internet companies competing for my business--in any locale. Better to create internet MVNOs (similar to Page Plus, Platinumtel, etc for cellular) that can provide better customer service. We need more competition rather than less.
—Janice Blazina, Fort Worth, TX

It's deeply disturbing that this merger has even a possibility of going thru considering that there is already a lack of competition in this area. The companies that Comcast and TWC put as competition are Google and Apple which are not in the internet provider space at all! How can anyone buy into the marketing blitz which is completely hollow?
—Nirav, Morrisville, NC

Less competition will mean the cost for their programs, which now are too expensive, will go even higher.
—John Makovec, El Paso, TX

Comcast repeatedly scores very low in customer service and customer satisfaction, as made evident through statistical studies and consumer anecdotes. This is not the type of company I'd like to see "take over" the provision of Internet service in most of the U.S. I'd much rather see smaller businesses succeed in this industry that actually care about my customer experience. Reducing the number of options available to consumers and reducing competition among providers is historically not ideal for prices, customer experience, or quality products.
—Anna, Salt Lake City, UT

Let's not forget the troll tolls Comcast is already leveraging against content companies like Netflix for decent routes past peering links they let saturate for content their paying customers request. On top of this, they already cap their internet to protect their monopoly or duopoly in given markets for video to strangle any potential competition. Only big companies like Netflix can afford these unjust peering fees which can easily prevent new players from entering the market and competing. This potentially can stiffle innovation and surely leads to higher prices. The reason Comcast and Verizon, to name another, can get away with this is their control of large markets with captive audiences. TWC and Comcast do not directly compete, but this merger gives Comcast more market control to carry out the public abuse of consumers and content creators that has already been demonstrated.
—Michael J Duclos, Pittsfield, MA

Most dishonest poorest customer service company I ever dealt with don't let them get bigger
—David Moore, Little Rock, AR

Bigger company with poor service values to it's customers. We need competition between smaller companies to win the war on better service and low costs.
—Gale Murray, Modesto, CA

I had comcast. All i got was poor service and my monthly bill just got bigger every month. when i went to cancel, all of a sudden they had this great offer! really??!! too bad ,so sad!!
—Mike Sprinkle, Denver, CO

Break Comcast into smaller companies. It's already a monopoly in many places.
—Shane Aydelott, Beaverton, OR

This merger would put more than a third of all cable-TV subscribers in Comcast’s hands and give it control over more than half of the “triple-play” services that combine TV, phone and Internet service. Don’t forget, Comcast already owns NBC, MSNBC, Universal Studios and tons of cable networks. That means that for most of America, Comcast could control even more of what you see and how you see it. Putting this much power in the hands of one company is dangerous. This deal would lead to less consumer choice, less diversity and much higher cable bills.
—Jeaux Rinehart, Seattle, WA

Comcast is the worst company I do business with.
—Mabel chan, Novato, CA

It's a disturbing trend in corporate America today with corporations growing too large and beyond their means. Interpersonal communication within the organization suffers leading to far too many issues falling through the cracks and in the end, it is the customer who suffers.
—Joe Giunta, Mount Laurel, NJ

Anyone, such as my family, that works in the communications engineering industry know and understand that the only reason Comcast and Verizon do not have enough bandwidth to service all customers at the rates of speed they sell to their customers is that they fail to upgrade and maintain their networks. The world is moving to fast to have companies such as these slacking on infrastructure. We are one of the largest, most powerful and where one of the wealthiest countries in the world. But we are rated as the worst in the industrialized nations for our internet infrastructure. As Comcast and Verizon are the "leaders", read that as largest, in the US it is reasonable to note that the blame for the lack of infrastructure falls squarely on their shoulders. This will not get any better by allowing them to merge. It seems to anyone that has even two brain cells to rub together that to believe otherwise is idiotic at best and criminal at worst. History shows us that companies such as these do NOT improve when you allow them to merge. Costs to consumers do not go down as you destroy competition, not that there is competition now. And poor customer service is not magically rectified by creating an even larger company. History plainly and with absolute honesty demonstrates that costs WILL go up and service will go down.
—Tammy Rummel, Morrisville, NC

This Is A Huge mistake That Will destroy More Jobs And Internet Related Jobs Like mine By Giving the Two Worst Cable Companies To Merge And Make One huge Awful Monster That If not stopped now will destroy T.V. And Internet as We Know It comcast loves to jack up prices and double and triple bill customers into the ground the same goes for time warner put both together and we have a huge problem just look to the first stock market crash for a clue of what will happen or even the fall of the video game market one company to rule them all has always destroyed a market every time it was tried —Thomas Caddell, Spanaway, WA

Just say no!!!
—Brenda McClellan, Knoxville, TN

please no merger for comcast and time warner
—Pam Carter, Hernando, MS

Comcast treated me like scum. This is the worst company. Do not let them take over everything.
—Stephen Lyle, Baltimore, MD

It will become like Mexico if you allow this merge!
—Hilda Duenkelsbuehler, Loveland, OH

Stop the madness. Set customer service/cost thresholds and remove their license to serve unless met
—James W Sherry, Houston, TX

Why would you allow a company with the worst customer service record in history be allowed to create an even bigger monster who refuses to service their customers while charging outrageous prices? Please do your job and say NO!
—Barb and Larry Steketee, Byron Center, MI

My "bundle" cost $190. a month... only to go up. A merger solves NOTHING !!!
—Shirley Emanuelli, Liverpool, NY

Total agreement to much power in one company's hands . Meade review all of the customer company's towards Comcast and you will soon realize it will become the blind leading the blind,
—Bryant Wilkerson, Stafford, VA

I used to work for Suburban Cable when Comcast came in and brought our company so many broken promises this company is the legal mafia. Don't do it!
—Jeanette Shank, Wilmington, DE

This merger is a really bad idea. Block the merger and remove the roadblocks to google fiber.
—John Henderson, Saint Paul, MN

USA is on a monopoly binge ! FCC is only part of the problem.
—Cass Glodek, Waterford, MI

They stink
—Bill Murray, Florence, NJ

I do not believe that this merger is in the best interests of the citizens of this country. Big just getting bigger and giving us less choice.
—Paul Castellano, Lancaster, PA

Comcast and Time Warner equals disaster former Comcast customer in NJ
—William McKnight, Irving, TX

Huge downhill slide to complete Monopoly. Consumers would be huge losers...AGAIN.
—S L. Stone, Lincoln, NE

The media is exploding with diversity and a plethora of new and original options. Surly a monopoly would only serve to squelch all of this for the sake of a bunch of share holders.
—Tom Bourgault, Eugene, OR

As of today I no longer have Comcast Cable. They make promises to get your business and then surprise with your first bill. When you call to get assistance, you get shuffled around from one person to another to tell you sorry too bad. What happened to the American freedom of choice to choose who you want to pay your money to for services. Comcast service is terrible, they misrepresent themselves all the time and their bills are riduculous. Hopefully the SEC WILL NOT APPROVE the merger with Time Warner because that will just create for lack of a better word a lone sharking business for Comcast where they can legally rob the American people because the choices for us are taken away.
—Jody Anderson, Roseville, MI

Please block the merger of Comcast and Time Warner. Regarding internet service providers, locally and nationwide we already have too few choices. Comcast provides terrible customer service. This merger will reward this. We need more options, not less.
—Gregory Filter, Indianapolis, IN

In addition both companies have terrible customer service so the customer would be in an even worse position.
—Jayne Freadman, Umpqua, OR

It is the opposite of helping the American people. It helps two American companies, and disables both customers in choices and diversity as well as possible future companies in the area which would provide diversity.
—Cheyenne McCoy, Stephenville, TX

Don't want a monopoly in television/internet Comcast already too big to handle what they have
—Diane, Chicago, IL

Comcast's customer service is a disaster now - we don't need 2 disasters to combine. Please stop this merger NOW.
—Bill Walker, Richmond, TX

To the Federal Communications Commission and the Justice Department: It IS YOUR responsibility to oversee that proposed actions such as this, are IN THE BEST INTERESTS of the US consumer, and NOT the shareholders as in Comcast and Time Warner. This possible merger smacks of the prior litigation's of Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey v. United States, 221 U.S. 1 (1911) and United States v. AT&T, 1984 Both cases proved out that these companies were operating in a way that was NOT ALLOWING competition to form, and later ruled as a MONOPOLY. The same can be considered with the Comcast Time Warner acquisition and merger, as this WILL limit any outside competition or consumer choice(s). Comcast already owns NBC Broadcasting Corporation. What is to say that if this merger is allowed to go through, Comcast will not try to "suck up" more networks and control news information as THEY SEE FIT or IN THEIR INTERESTS ONLY. Besides becoming what I consider a MONOPOLY, this WILL LIMIT CHOICES to the consumer, as well as be allowed to control prices by whatever COMCAST sets. I had Comcast at one time, but the continual increased costs as well as "POOR CONSUMER SERVICE", made us drop them like a bad habit. THIS DEAL OR MERGER MUST BE CONSIDERED AS ONE OF STANDARD OIL AND ATT ! A MONOPOLY...AND ONE WHERE ANTITRUST LAWS HAVE TO BE GIVEN CONSIDERATION AND WEIGHT. STOP THE MERGER and RULE IN FAVOR OF THE AMERICAN CONSUMER.
—T Reid, Hanover Park, IL

I have literally never met a single happy Comcast customer. They all hate their provider. Why would I want them to be in more places with such an atrocious reputation?
—James Henley, Green Island, NY

This would effectively be a monopoly. You remember what happens when monopolies happen, right?
—Erina M, Columbia, SC

This merger is a terrible idea. ISPs and cable companies are no longer accountable to the public and as a result, service and performance has nosedived. I am a cable professional, and if comcast came to my region, I would cancel my service, quit my job, and live my life under a rock. Two of the worlds worst companies combining to make one GIANT monster is working backwards: we need more competition, not less.
—Daniel Bauer, Lolo, MT

July 17, 2014 Please do not approve this merger. Both Comcast and Time Warner Cable already behave like unresponsive monopolies. Merging the two companies will certainly decrease competition in an industry that provides products (phone service, cable TV, Internet access) millions of Americans use every day. This merger will NOT make things better for Americans. The merger is about greed, not the American consumer. Thank you.
—Peter J. May, La Habra, CA

This is an absolutely awful idea to allow these two companies to merge. Comcast has enough problems with serving their already large customer base!!! Imagine the results if they became even bigger!!!! A major disaster for consumers every way you look at it!!! I, as well as many others, will get rid of my cable before I see this merger happen!!!!!!
—Carrie Schoening, Novi, MI

When AT&T had a strangle hold on american phone service, the forced break up was a direct cause of the surge in innovation in the 90's...and until recently, prices were kept low...As the several has once again merged, prices have skyrocketed...It's the exact same thing in the cable industry....instead of allowing mergers...you should be breaking up these market monopolies
—James Alkire, Heath, OH

DO NOT ALLOW THIS MONOPOLY TO GO THROUGH!!!!!!!!!
—Michael Paris, Monroe, NC

It is time we stop these huge companies from destroying what America was built on, honesty, opportunity, small independent owners and the ability for an individual to have a choice. Not to mention the power they will have over consumers, they have the worst customer service than any business I know of and yet because they do offer the fastest internet (because they have bought out their competitors) we no longer can do anything but take their bullying. Let us have our voice back, consumers should be treated with respect!
—Sheri Oneal, Nashville, TN

We do not need any more monopolies from cable/internet providers! They already overcharge for internet, which really should be public domain. Don't let corporations continue to reduce consumer options and competitive pricing. If anything, Comcast and Time Warner should be split into multiple separate cable/internet companies, not joined into one!
—Megan Morton, Olympia, WA

Our development has had terrible problems with service and follow up with their customer service center. Our development of 901 homes is now calling in other companies for information so Comcast may be replaced for such bad service here.
—Carole Duffy, Delray Beach, FL

Comcast customer service is terrible! Giving them a monopoly over the market will be bad for ALL customers!
—Mike Provo, Nashville, TN

Please do not allow the merger as cable service is bad enough without a bigger corporate monster assuming control.
—Heather, Columbia, SC

FUCK COMCAST
—Brandon Kokinadis, Chicago, IL

Comcast has the worst customer service in the business. They need to fix this before they get any more customers. Time warner is not much better but they are the best choice we have.
—Vernon Hunnings, Kailua Kona, HI

I DEMAND AND COMMAND THAT ALL WE CONNECTED RIGHTEOUS POWERS FOR GOOD GUIDE ALL CABLE CUSTOMERS TO CUT THE CORD. IN JESUS NAME, AMEN.
—Madge Penelope Morgan, Detroit, MI

Comcast is the worst company I have ever had the displeasure of doing business with!!
—Julie carvotta, Goodlettsville, TN

Comcast customer service is already at the bottom of DIRT , why put the public through more crap! !! Do your job , block it and address the terrible service provided by comcast !!
—Mike Daley, Middleboro, MA

Comcast can't handle the customs they already have.
—Flscales, Nashville, TN

Please do not allow this merger Comcast already has too much power and they treat their customers poorly.
—Courtney Behrend, North Olmsted, OH

Why would you let Comcast become a monopoly? That would be absurd. Television is some people's only option at affordable entertainment!
—April Johnson, Huntsville, AL

0 plus 0 equals 0. TWC prevented me from watching the NFL Network until last year. Now they won't carry Bounce TV, which they can get @ no cost. Sports fans and African Americans don't count I guess. Comcast had the worse service in Atlanta metro. Outages all the time.
—Bobby stevens, Durham, NC

Both Comcast and Time Warner Cable are too big as it is. They both need to actually be broken up. To allow them to have a merger is simply crazy. It would be a complete disservice to their customers. The cable industry needs more, a lot more, competition rather than mergers and acquisitions. I implore you, please, side with customers, and not with big business on this merger.
—Ryan Bernstein, Austin, TX

I am a long time Comcast subscriber. I have been dissatisfied with my service for quite some time. Because of where my home is located, I can't get satellite service. Being that Comcast has bought out all of the smaller cable providers, they are the only game in town. I strongly oppose any additional consolidation. Lack of competition has created this subpar level of service!
—Jim Jackson, Delray Beach, FL

As a resident of North Carolina I gravely fear this merger because living in the Triangle's market (Raleigh, Durham, Chapel Hill) we are relegated to very few options when it comes to internet access. We have TWC, ATT,DSL, and satellite internet connectivity. DSL and satellite offer such inferior service in comparison to cable lines that it is laughable that you could even put them in the same discussion. If Comcast takes over TWC you would be improving my service by allowing me the privilege to upgrade from the 2nd worst customer company in America to the 1st. When Comcast institutes its arbitrary data caps (the reason I had to leave my ATT service) I am left with no other options than to curtail my own personal choices to appease a company who is only looking to nickel and dime it's customers. None of us believe that when they institute data caps on all of us any of our bills would be reduced for finding ways to punish power users like myself. I do know this is a self-serving request, but without any competition in our specific state I don't know where I could turn to to even have the same quality of internet I currently have now (which I am not particularly happy with).
—David Williams, Garner, NC

This is just a stupid merger.
—Caleb Cook, New Carrollton, MD

Please do the right thing.
—Sean Duffy, Oxford, OH

We don't need a monopoly. Seriously the agreement between comcast and timmewarner is bad enough, where they won't compete with each other, but to merge them will remove competition. Thank goodness for google fiber.
—Jeff Blake, Orem, UT

TWC already has a monopoly in my area. Their service is terrible and the price keeps going up but I have zero other options. The idea of a Comcast/TWC merger is a NIGHTMARE.
—Shaylyn Blackburn, Newport Beach, CA

Stop this merger. The service, content and pricing maze of both of these companies are poor as is. With less competition they have no incentive to improve services. I'm only hoping this deal is halted and a "David" company, with a new technology comes along. DO NOT LET THIS MERGER HAPPEN. The public does not need to pay overpriced services to these companies. Its bad enough we pay for the service and still have to watch commercials for products. They obviously figured out how to dig a little more gold out of everyone.
—Michael Cunningham, Iowa City, IA

Don't let PAC money influence any decision. Better yet, since that is impossible, write a law for full transparency for campaign and political donations, and undo the laws that give corporations rights of humans.
—John Gage, Windham, NH

We need more Internet options, not less. I oppose this merger.
—Richard Paxton, Cincinnati, OH

This attempt by Comcast to buy out Time Warner is no different than when Microsoft tried to corner the market with Internet Explorer or when AT&T had full control of the Bell System... the US Government put a stop to that, and they should put a stop to this as well. Monoplies are not against the law, but one of the US Governments key responsibilities is to prevent monopolies from eliminating competition -- creating a Trust. If this merger were to succeed it would essentially KILL every other company in the market and the consumers would pay the ultimate price. This merger must be stopped just like the Antitrust suits against Microsoft and AT&T.
—Troy Leck, Colorado Springs, CO

There will be higher bills and probably less service.
—Sandra Mack-Huff, Saint Helena Island, SC

I'm a long time customer with no alternatives in the market place. Comcast has made my life miserable on many occassions with their Gestapo tatics on upselling and rude behavior from "service representatives". PLEASE DO NOT LET THIS MERGER HAPPEN!!!
—David Wood, Missouri City, TX

Seriously violates anti-trust laws!
—Peter Mendelsohn, Independence, MO

Seriously violates anti-trust laws!
—Bill & Judith Deacon, Independence, MO

Please stop Comcast and Time Warner merger. Comcast treats customer bad and pricing is bad with no choice to customer for internet speed. 4G cannot give cable speed and cable coverage. 4G is just along highways and major cities.
—bankim Shah, Downers Grove, IL

This is not only a bad idea, but has to be one of the most terrible of the modern days. Oil companies were broken up to prevent exactly what this merger would create, which is price control. To allow this merger to happen would be devastating on consumers.
—Jacob Hirsch, Houston, TX

I already have little enough choice in who gets my hard earned money please stop this now.
—Marcia Disbrow, Newport, RI

No NO and NO Effing NO! Just say no to monopolies and quit screwing us over.
—Timothy Weldon, Saint Paul, MN

Preserve Net neutralit. Don't charge companies like netflix for ISP network flaws.
—Alden Joyner, Longmont, CO

STOP THEM. Remember Rockefeller and how he created a crazy monopoly? And then the antitrust act was made to stop these kind of shenanigans? You're supposed to stop this kind of thing, not just sit around fat, dumb, and happy and watch a disaster happen right before your very eyes.
—Chris, Miami, FL

more competition is needed in this area, not less
—Walter Rumberger, Tenino, WA

Please block the comcast Time-Warner merger. Our internet is horrible and this could make it worse.
—Benjamin, Fort Lauderdale, FL

These companies already have monopolies over their respective coverage zones, and do everything they can to block competition. If this merger goes through, it basically tells the American people that the antitrust laws are no longer valid and are no longer effective at protecting consumers from corporate giants.
—John Vasko, Chicago, IL

Monopoly anyone ? I cant believe we are even considering this and making a petition, this merger should have been stopped before it was even considered.
—Krasimir Konov, Houston, TX

I do not approve of this merger meant to eliminate all true competition in the cable television market. Comcast will raise prices and dominate the market in such a way to prevent competition in total. Please do not approve of this merger. It does not serve the public interest of the people. Thank you.
—Tony Williams, Detroit, MI

Do NOT allow this to proceed. I don't want big business running everything. No merger.
—Mrs. Pamela Warren, Troy, MI

No more monopolies!
—Roger Pence, San Antonio, TX

This would create a disgusting monopoly that would control a large amount of Internet and Cable.
—Brian Flaherty, Pearl River, NY

I'm sure the FCC is filled with intelligent folks who don't need anyone to state the obvious: cable companies already have no competition in most areas and they behave quite badly because of that fact. There's no need to make a bad situation even worse.
—Laura Nuno, San Bernardino, CA

Please do not allow this merger to happen. Consumers deserve options and a merger between Comcast and Time Warner Cable will only result in higher prices and horrible Customer Service for everyone.
—Jaime Tafoya, Durham, NC

I vote so watch out
—Stephanie Ryan, windsor, CT

I do not believe it is fair for them to merge. They already have a monopoly in most areas, no need to make it worse. The recent recorded phone conversation is just the tip of the iceberg about how bad their customer service is. Don't let it continue.
—Derick Davis, Cordova, TN

I live in Virginia and have no choice but Comcast and the customer service is terrible. My new order has been canceled twice and I have no options because FiOS not available
—Robert Everling, Arlington, VA

They are continually allowed to take over smaller cable companies, advertise amazing services, without ever upgrading their new aquisitions. How come I had service with Comcast 10 years ago in Northern California and my service now in Palm Beach County Florida is not as good. Do not allow them to aquire more customers, until all their customers have the same quality of service.
—Corey Persky, Delray Beach, FL

Don't allow Fox to buy Time Warner either. If you want to do the customers justice you would see that any city has more than one cable provider to choose from.
—Sharon Nelson, Huntington Beach, CA

The abysmal state of customer 'satisfaction' with cable/internet companies is legendary. Given their virtual monopolies, there is little if any motivation to actually provide SERVICE -- they get their money anyway, because there is effectively nowhere else for the consumer to take their business. A merger between these two would legitimize both their monopoly and their wretched treatment of their customers. It is categorically AGAINST the public interest to allow such a merger to take place.
—Deborah Rutherford, Seattle, WA

Lack of competition has led to incredibly poor customer service, as well as a sub par product. This is the United States. We should not be forced to buy an inferior product because there is no other choice. Consumers want choice above all else. Approving this merger would remove more of our choice. Block the merger.
—Matthew Roberson, Columbus, OH

Lack of competition has led to incredibly poor customer service, as well as a sub par product. This is the United States. We should not be forced to buy an inferior product because there is no other choice. Consumers want choice above all else. Approving this merger would remove more of our choice. Block the merger.
—Kayla Roberson, Columbus, OH

It is clear to a regular middle class citizen that this is a bad idea. Watch the block video, that rep did exactly what they are meant to do.
—, Warren, MI

My personal experience with Comcast has been a plethora of poor customer service, games with charges and since they have an essential monopoly in the county a less than stellar attitude. Please consider the long term ramifications of this merger.....NO choices...higher fees and crappier service....REALLY is this your intent ?
—Alan Kadish, Corvallis, OR

Isn't this the very definition of monopoly? You either get your choice of one cable company or have go with the satellite companies which can't provide the internet speed cable companies can. Why are you even considering expanding it?
—, Eudora, KS

I should not be forced to have something I don't want. I live in a condo and will have no choice but to accepect the fact I will have to have comcast. If I could I would change to Dish network or Directv. Thank you, for reading this.
—Roger Gentry, Pinehurst, NC

I want more broadband option not less. Currently I live in Arlington, VA and the only company I can get broadband with is COMCAST. The value is terrible but I have no alternative. This merger will only reduce competition.
—Tung Ly, Arlington, VA

I refuse to support a monopoly.
—Sergio Razura, San Antonio, TX

Thank you to anyone who reads this. Please stop this merger, there is few choices as it is in some places and no choices at all in others without this merger. We need more diversity not less, as we have learned from nature in order to take on problems from different angles and situations. More and more I am dissapointed with the government and big companies and corporations not helping those that they ought to serve and help. If we wanted single points of control and monopolies we could have that with China and North Korea. Thank you and good day...
—Mr. Jerry Ortiz, Stockton, CA

Comcast is already a monopoly in my area with deceptive business practices. I recently called about an internet service billing issue and was unknowingly signed up for cable TV service that I do not want. Afraid to call them again to resolve issues.
—Jeff Daum, Losantville, IN

Freedom cannot be meted out by the amount you can pay for ! Equality is Justice = Freedom!
—Jon Charpentier, Covington, LA

Comcast is already robbing the public and holding us hostage two of them together will cause a something ugly stop the madness while you can .
—Sheila Malryp, Gaithersburg, MD

The option of a merger between these two companies should not be an option in the first place; the whole thing smacks of the type of corporate hegemony and political/public subservience that one would expect to find in other countries with completely different political systems - not a democracy. Stop this ridiculous merger now and put America back on the path to a representative democracy, ensuring that "government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."
—John Garrigues, Chapel Hill, NC

This merger plus the loss of net neutrality (if you allow that also) will be devastating to free flow of information in America. The combination of the two across the nation will be no different than when Ma Bell completely controlled the telephone.
—Margaret Bonner, Montgomery, TX

Comcast and Time Warner are already each too large. To combine them into one mega-company would be disastrous to consumer choice/protection.
—Kimberly Barnhart, Woodstock, VT

Block this merger! It cannot happen!
—Melanie Eldridge, Tucson, AZ

Wheeler as head of FCC is the fox in the chicken house -- or as has been said, the dingo with the baby.
—Rebekah Berger, Northridge, CA

As a developed country we are behind in internet access. Reducing competition even further is a poor decision and only furthers the cable monopoly. We, the people and consumers, are hurt by this. Don't allow it.
—Doug Zeffer, Ann Arbor, MI

I don't have a landline phone, and don't subscribe to cable television. However, the internet service in my apartment comes courtesy of Time Warner Cable, and I depend on it all day, every day for my university studies and for my job. That said, I strongly oppose the Comcast/Time Warner merger as a consumer. The two companies are notoriously anti-consumer. Allowing them to merge will signify that the United States' regulatory agencies, set up with the intent of protecting the consumer, are fine with letting two colossal, money-hungry companies join forces, giving them an unbelievable amount of control over the telephone, television, and internet service industries. In capitalist economies, the consumer is given a choice of who to give their money to for a particular product or service. Removing these choices by allowing this near-monopoly to happen directly violates this concept. I sincerely hope that you do the right thing, and stop this merger from happening. Thank you, Tim Kautsky Cornell University, Class of 2015 Software, Web, and Mobile Development - ProMetrics, Inc.
—Tim Kautsky, Chester Springs, PA

Monopolies are out of control in this country.
—Jane Kepros, Boston, MA

Please do not approve this merger. It is not good for the country or democracy. The merger will basically say you have to use this company if you want cable tv. How is that freedom of choice? How can it be a good thing for the country to allow one company to have a monopoly on Cable Television? They should be refused based on their idea of customer service alone. I would rather do with out tv all together than deal with Comcast again! Please don't approve this merger.
—Tiffany Davis, Houston, TX

We need more competition, not less.
—Peter Wurr, Long Beach, CA

The recent viral audio of the Comcast employee badgering a customer trying to cancel his service is all the more evidence that large corporate mergers need to be kept in check. The government is allowing too many oligarchies to exist in the US. Deny this merger.
—Kevin Sutton, Dallas, TX

No more monopolies.

Citizens lose!!
—Michael Nyez, Hartford, CT

This is a monopoly! Bust those trusts! I want more choice!

Look we have just about had it with what the people who are currently running the government are doing. Did you miss the Snowden message completely? Stop this country from becoming a autocracy both economically and philosophically. I am not a "Tea Party" member. However, their basic point about our Republic is true. You are not my parent! Luckily, I was taught critical thinking and what you are allowing to happen to our communication channels must stop! The French Revolution was not that long ago. I am 62 so I probably will not be around long enough to see you " brainwash the entire nation, but you are doing your best to do just that! Keep your hands off my ability to learn the facts about our very complicated world. You have allowed me a fine education. Let me use it!
—Susan Sonja Shea and Hanson, Sausalito, CA

—Beverly Anderson, San Francisco, CA

Comcast already behaves as if it were a monopoly. Lets not make it one. We need all the choices we can get.
—Sandra Palmer, Santa Rosa, CA

I had Comcast in another state and it's customer service was abysmal! I now have BrightHouse - a Time Warner company - and have been extremely happy - except for the cost, which is expensive. Please do not allow the merger of these companies, a monopolistic gigantor monster would be created. THis merger will NOT help internet neutrality or customer service. Please STOP the proposed merger.
—Leslie Hall, Hudson, FL

It's bad enough that I essentially have to have TimeWarner internet access, because the other possible provider Cincinnati Bell will not spend money to upgrade the neighborhood services. Internet service should be considred an utility to be regulated, just as telephone and electric utilities were during their intial formation. It's mind-boggling that the richest country in the world ranks near the bottom of the developed world in internet speeds.
—David Kobza, Cincinnati, OH

Alan Specter tried to facilitate a merger between Dish Network and Direct TV but Congress said it would be a monopoly and stopped the merger. So what is the difference between that and the merger between Comcast and TWC?? Makes no sense.
—Nadine Hibbard, Greensburg, PA

Everyone knows this shouldn't happen. Lobbying (bribes and favors) still don't make it right. Act accordingly.
—Barry Manning, Hope, AK

Competition is healthy, near monopoly is not!
—Herbert Plott, Lexington, SC

Time Warner Cable Servicer is atrocious. I can only imagine how much worse it will be if it is allowed to merge with Comcast. The bigger a company gets the more removed from customer service it gets. This merger is only in the best interests of of the stockholders, not the customers. Please protect our interests.
—Lawrence Neely, Little Falls, NY

PLEASE don't let this merger go through. Consumers will suffer, there's already not enough competition to help keep costs to consumers down and no matter how they try to use different names this will be a massive company with entirely too much power.
—Charlene Fulmer, Lexington, SC

I live in Dallas Texas, where Time Warner Cable already holds a monopoly as the sole residential internet service provider. Local phone companies and ATT u-verse are restricted in Dallas, a city with a population of 1.2M. I currently pay $58 for standard internet. 36% of Dallas households lack internet service. Texas ranks 48th in access. I am convinced these exorbitant prices are a major contributor to the situation. The Comcast-TW merger will surely exacerbate the price gouging.
—Crystal Read, Dallas, TX

Please STOP this Merger! Thank You. Kent and Ghary Hartley Kent and Ghary Hartley
—Kent Hartley, Fayetteville, GA

Please don't let this happen!
—Brad Hess, Brooklyn, NY

I am a TWC subscriber and from what I hear, comcast is even worse. Why exactly would I want a merger? Earn the trust and satisfaction of consumers and then I will support it.
—Kurt Dudash, Fairmont, WV

We have ANTI-TRUST LAWS to Stop This CONTROL over our TV Services
—Elizabeth Hamilton, Warren, MI

Too much, guys. Too much...
—Serena Long, Camden Wyoming, DE

Oh man, Comcast is horrible enough as it is. Their "customer service" is a prime example of what not to do when dealing with customers.
—Dan Thomas, Delray Beach, FL

This is bad for the economy and for consumers. These companies already have unfair monopolies in every market they operate in and to extend these monopolies further is ludicrous.
—Bryan Brindeiro, Albuquerque, NM

Stop this merger.
—Ramiero Valdez, Gastonia, NC

What Comcast is being allowed to do is create both a vertical and horizontal monopoly through its ownership and control of both the content that consumers seek and the means of delivering the content to the very same consumers. Competing content providers, technologies, and delivery services are being crushed. Consumers are paying higher and higher prices for bundled products and services that they don't want or need. Finally, the Sherman Act and all of the other antitrust legislation of the last 100+ years seems to have been forgotten along with us little guys in favor of big corporations, their K Street lobbyists, and their huge campaign contributions. Who represents and protects "We the people..."?
—Rick Ruth, Shippensburg, PA

Both TWC and Comcast are unresponsive and arrogant (witness recent viral audio of Comcast customer pleading to cancel service). PLEASE block this merger!
—George F Rice, Arlington, TX

I say we reinstate the 30% customer base cap and declare broadband a public utility while were at it.
—Estil Parks Jr, Fedscreek, KY

This merger is a short term gain for two very powerful companies at the expense of longterm global changes around how people will access needed information to conduct their daily lives. This merger will effectively make Comcast and Time Warner the sole providers of information at their political discretion. Information access will continue to become limited to those that can pay already excessive fees. The internet should be free to all people or treated like a utility just like electricity, gas and water. Please make a longterm choice to make the world better.
—Katrina Larrabee, Monroe, WA

this constitutes a monopoly and can not be allowed
—Kitty Craley, Red Lion, PA

This merger is not good for anyone except Comcast.
—Jay Peet, Toledo, OH

Stop the merger and reclassify the internet.
—Robert Maxwell, Miami, FL

Comcast must not be rewarded for poor customer service through a merger that completes control of the cable system in America. Instead Comcast should be broken up and regulated, treated as a public utility with meaningful citizen input.
—Mike Cole, Berkeley, CA

Please keep 'real' net neutrality
—Raymond George Johnson, Eugene, OR

I don't want slower speeds, worse service, and horrible tech support. If I wanted those things, I would have signed up with Comcast in the first place. The bigger they are, the harder they fall. If you allow to these 2 companies to merge, I'm going over to Verizon FiOS. And A lot of people will too. Which will lead to expansion of the already fast growing FiOS network, and the end of Comcast. Watch your step.
—Eshwar Muneshar, Floral Park, NY

This deal would lead to less consumer choice, less diversity and higher cable bills.
—Mark Wilson, Murfreesboro, TN

This would create a huge monopoly. Competition is a good thing. It promotes better products. Do not allow this to happen!
—Christopher Bray, Moreno Valley, CA

Comcast's customer service is HORRIBLE. After suffering at their hands for 15 long months, I have been able to come out of their clutches. Will never go to them, even if they offer their services for free. They are the WORST organization, I have come across.
—Ramesh Mehta, Sammamish, WA

I believe that together we have the knowledge, resource, and solutions to meet these unnecessary challenges. Please, take the necessary steps to block this merger and promote open, free press.
—Colin Williams, Long Beach, CA

Comcast is the WORST company is the US. Please don't allow them to grow any more powerful and abusive than they already are.
—Brad Vance, Erwin, TN

Monopolies make for bad economies. This is a terrible idea.
—Zak Makiva, Sonoma, CA

Monopolies are bad in any field - especially where access to critical information is involved
—Frank R Brown Jr, Durham, NC

If this deal takes place, it will only hurt us by giving Comcast and Time Warner an immediate "Monopoly" over television and internet services that result in less freedom and even worse service for all consumers. Monopolies are illegal and if this is allowed to continue than it just proves that the "FCC" and "Department of Justice" do not give a damn about the rest of us that live here.
—David Rothstein, Los Angeles, CA

This deal will not be good for TWC or thier customers.
—Rm, Lincolnton, NC

Media consolidation is bad for democracy!
—Mr. Stephen Senatore, South San Francisco, CA

I am STRONGLY OPPOSED to this merger. Not only should this merger be stopped, but Oceanic Time Warner Cable ("OTWC") should be provided closer scrutiny and increased regulation. They should be required to improve their equipment, reliability, customer service, and management, before they are allowed to even contemplate a merger. OTWC HAS LOUSY EQUIPMENT, LOUSY RELIABILITY, LOUSY CUSTOMER SERVICE, AND LOUSY MANAGEMENT. I have had to replace my DVR many times. I am on my ninth one right now. Tomorrow, I will be forced to waste my valuable time and effort to obtain my tenth DVR. I have had the ninth one for only a few weeks and I am forced to reboot every morning to get it to work. These DVRs require excessive numbers of reboots and work poorly even when they are working. Often functions of the DVR freeze, or do not work at all. The DVRs have significantly less recording capacity than those from Hawaiian Telcom. Even well before they are 100% full, they do not allow additional recording. The DVRs also fail to record scheduled shows and have lost (deleted) a number or recorded programs. The recordings are often of poor quality with excessive pixilation, freezing, and, at times, lack of synchronization between the sound and picture. OTWC reliability is also very poor. This poor reliability includes internet service and email service through Roadrunner. Frequent dropped signals require a reboot of the modem and router. Frequent inability to access emails (both send and receive). Internet speed is incredibly slow at times and is unable to support continuous streaming of services such as Netflix. OTWC customer service is a joke. Of particular concern is their online chat. OTWC's chat personnel are poorly trained and not very knowledgeable. Their standard "assistance" apparently consists of reading from a one page, cheat sheet. "Check all of your connections." "Reboot your DVR." "I am sorry, I can't help you, you will have to exchange your DVR." "I will have to schedule a technician, the earliest time is [one+ week from now]." Similarly poor customer service occurs when you call them. When you do schedule a service call, you have to wait at least a week, and stay at home all day waiting for them. The "fix" is then temporary, at best. This is ridiculous. Finally, OTWC management is the worst. They do not respond to emails. They do not respond to complaints. And, rather than spending money to improve their equipment, reliability, and customer service, they waste it telling everyone how wonderful they are and advertising additional, unlikely-to-work-well services. "The American Customer Satisfaction Index has pegged Time Warner Cable Inc. as the nation's most unloved company. Based on phone and online surveys, it rated Time Warner Cable's Internet service as 236th out of 236 companies in customer satisfaction – a list that included Coke, Campbell Soup, Nissan, Allstate and Verizon Communications. Time Warner Cable's TV service rated 25th. Comcast Corp.'s Xfinity Internet service placed at 234 out of 236 and its TV service landed at 232 in the list released in May." (http://www.pressherald.com/20 14/06/05/time-warner-comcast-i nternet-services-vie-for-botto m-of-list/) When you merge one large, lousy company with another large, lousy company, you get an even larger, and lousier company. DON'T LET THIS MERGER HAPPEN. FIX Oceanic Time Warner Cable.

The internet was initially funded by our tax dollars. It spread across the scientific and academic community and matured with public and commercial use. It is vital for entertainment, research and business, and for the growth of this country. To turn this over to the control of corporations with their primary purpose (make a profit) does NOT prioritize for the public good. THAT is a problem for our country and the future of this planet. PLEASE, do not make that mistake.
—Malcolm Steinberg, Hastings on Hudson, NY

As a Comcast customer, I can personally vouch for years of poor customer service. It's obvious to our family that the only thing on Comcast's mind is our money, and not for caring for us as customers. Please do not give such a greedy, corrupt business more power than it already haves.
—Mary Skene, Dewitt, MI

no doubt monthly charges would increase. we have no other cable company in my area that is available
—Jack Newman, Somers, NY

TWC already has a monopoly on the Los Angeles area. I can't see how this could possibly benefit the consumer, or our nation. I honestly would love to see TWC hit by a meteorite...and now you want to give them more power? Fucking ridiculous.
—S Wadzinski, Reseda, CA

Both companies have some of the worst consumer complaints in the country, so if they are combined not only is A HORROR MONOPLY, it will make them the WORST anti-consumer company in the USA. FCC stop them NOW!!!
—Judith Wesslen, Spangle, WA

Please.
—Ryne storey, gurnee, IL

Net neutrality is the First Amendment of the Internet, the principle that Internet service providers (ISPs) treat all data equally. As an Internet user, net neutrality is vitally important to me. The FCC should use its Title II authority to protect it. Most Americans have only one choice for truly high speed Internet: their local cable company. Many rural communities are still not connected. America deserves competition and choice. Without net neutrality, a bad situation gets even worse. These ISPs will now be able to manipulate our Internet experience by speeding up some services and slowing down others. That kills choice, diversity, and quality. Without a level playing field small ISP startups will be a thing of the past. Many communities where the demographics do not support Mega-Corp development will suffer. Broadband ignorance is a serious concern for the USA of the future. It also causes tremendous economic harm. If ISPs can speed up favored services and slow others, new businesses will no longer be able to rely on a level playing field. When ISPs can slow your site and destroy your business at will, how can any startup attract investors? My friends, family, and I use the Internet for conversation and fun, but also for work and business. When you let ISPs mess with our Internet experience, you are attacking our social lives, our entertainment, and our economic well being. We won't stand for it. ISPs are opposing Title II so that they can destroy the FCC's net neutrality rules in court. This is the same trick they pulled last time. Please, let's not be fooled again. Title II is the strong, legally sound way to enforce net neutrality. Please consider using Title II to enforce net neutrality. Failure to get this under control now will end the revolutinary technical advancements, and kill off the little guy. Please keep us moving forward and keep the bad old days of Ma Bell monopolies in the history books where we can learn from history....not repeat it. Thank you Commisioners for your service and consideration.
—W Eaton, Tallahassee, FL

Just because there is no reduction of competition in small markets does not make this any less anti-competitive on a national scale. There can be no doubt that this merger reduces consumer power and benefits the corporations involved at the expense of the public good.
—Alex K, Astoria, NY

I can barely afford my bill now, and having just one cable company doesn't seem like a good idea what-so-ever.
—Brittany, Hemet, CA

I live and Massachusetts and Charter communications is swapping with Comcast to ensure this merger. Millions of customers are being forced to swap internet providers because of this mess. In addition to the internet losing its neutrality and people suffering from the possible censorship time Warner will wage on everyone ruining the internet we are being forced to not know whether or not we will have to face higher internet bills. Make this stop please. This is is about money and not about the good of the people.

TWC is awful by itself. Merging with Comcast will make it twice as bad. Those of us in apartment complexes are held prisoner until we can convince our landlords to make a change to another provider, and many landlords don't want to go through the expense. Please don't let this merger happen. It will get more expensive, despite what they say now, and the service will not improve - it will get worse. TWC has already dropped services, without notice, and I'm sure there's more of that to come. STOP THE MERGER PLEASE.

Comcast is number 1 in bad customer service now. If they are allowed to merge with Time Warner, they will never have to listen to the customer. Letting these two companies merge would give Comcast to much control and they could charge wharever price they want to subscribers..Please block this merger to protect the end user subscriber...Please stop the merger!!
—Michael Jones, Myrtle Beach, SC

I oppose the merger my privacy as a subscriber of TWC would be violated. To hand over all my private information to Comcast is wrong. So many people would be layoff and jobs will go over seas. As a subscriber I don't want to pay for this merger.
—Susan Jones, Clinton, NY

Internet Service Providers are already few in numbers, I am concerned that this would further reduce choices customers have in selecting a service provider. marketplace diversity is important to maintain here so that people have choice.
—Bryant Eadon, New York, NY

Money, power and control are the only reasons for this union. NO NO NO I dont want to be under watch more that I already am.
—Siomara Narvaez, Brooklyn, NY

New Hampshire has already been dumped by Verizon, National Grid and now, Comcast. Please stop this deal which is about as close to a monopoly as can be proposed, anything more would be laughable as to its' chance of approval and they would not try; they are pushing the trust to its' absolute limit. Al Franken has got it right.
—Mark Leblanc, Pelham, NH

I don't believe the system structured as the way it is currently in the United States, and for the present and future welfare of the country in which we all live, should or can have any one company, that's part of a system structured primarily for profit motivations, that is allowed to have such a monopoly on any resource on which a mass percentage of the population depend on. In my own view for the present and future prosperity of all...it just does not make good sense.
—Eric, Wheaton, IL

This is monopolization.
—John Horton, Omaha, NE

STOP THIS MERGER!
—Michael Fleming, Newark, OH

We should be breaking up monopolies, not give more power to them. We are already at the mercy of the Comcast monopolism. They continue to raise prices every year. Many of us are retired people living on fixed income and can't afford to make the already rich RICHER!
—Alcea Sprung, Bishopville, MD

Comcast already has a hand in too much. They must be at least slowed
—Alex Berns, washington, IL

Comcast is a terrible company and the merger would give comcast too much power
—Ashwin Swami, Boston, MA

This is unfair for other companies to compete. In fact, there will be no room for other companies to compete. Antitrust Laws must work for other companies to succeed to expand to have more jobs for us to make a decent wage. If this merger is approved the control will be overwhelming, price will skyrocket and they have not proven that their price will go down. Their intentions of creating a "cap" on internet service will mean more money because they will charge you again for what you are paying for. This merger will have control of what we view. My freedom will be gone. I say No, No, NO, NO this cannot be a reality. What are they offering to the consumer? Abso
—Rose, Brooklyn, NY

We have gone from 50 tv companies to 6 in 50 years. This isn't the free market system our founding fathers had in mind when they signed the constitution. This is a monopoly already.
—Erik Vermullen, Blackwood, NJ

Time warner was physically blocking this webpage. I actually had to do roundabout methods. to even get here. It's already happening and it needs to stop.
—Brandon Mark Sternburg, Manlius, NY

Both Comcast and Time Warner already have local monopolies in many areas they provide. Comcast also holds monopolies on many apartment complexes through agreements with property management, shutting down any local competition in states that allow it. A merger between these two companies would only make things worse as they would have a nation wide monopoly on cable and broadband internet. They need competition.
—Adam Ettenberger, San Mateo, CA

This is like Att/Verizon trying to merge please really think this over you'll hurt a lot of Americans as well as free TV
—Guy Lowe, Austin, TX

Don't let them buy you TWC, I'm really satisfied with your service and WOULD NOT LIKE this merger to EVER happen.
—Fran Garcia, Raleigh, NC

I hate Comcast.
—Abraham Flores, Salt Lake City, UT

There is no possible benefit to consumers.The main statutes of the Sherman Act 1890, the Clayton Act 1914 and the Federal Trade Commission Act 1914 need to be upheld. We consumers need the government to recognize it's responsibility and prohibit mega-mergers which create excessively powerful monopolies that significantly reduce the options available to consumers.This merger could substantially lessen competition at an absurd cost to the American people. Competition is what keeps creativity fed and costs in check.
—Linda Kaszczuk, Webster, NY

After looking into the horrid customer service and how Comcast treats their customers I would like to see this merger stopped. Comcast up sells everything instead of fixing the issue, they give their technicians only 1 hour to fix any issue to matter how big, The RYAN BLOCK call (granted a single instance) is a great example of how Comcast will do anything to help themselves keep a customer as long as they sell something.
—Chris Recktenwald, Nicholasville, KY

Please do not hinder competition in the internet and television by blocking this merger from occurring. Consumers all across the United States would be much happier.
—Gabriel Castillo, Los Angeles, CA

We already pay almost $3,000/year for Comcast at home and have repeated service and customer service issues with Comcast. We are good customers and always pay our bill early or on time. Comcast customer service is often a nightmare to deal with and getting to corporate Comcast to finally try to get resolution is not easy. I think they have it set up this way so most people will just give up on resolution. We are in the middle of yet another customer service issue with them right now. One quick example, 12-hour time windows for service calls are ridiculous and then no one called or showed for us. We have also been outright hung up on by Comcast customer service during repeated rounds of phone calls. I have pages of notes on customer service issues. I cannot image paying Comcast any more money, or having even worse customer service resulting in more un-necessary stress and wasted time for their customers, which is bound to happen if this merger is allowed. Comcast already has too much power and is already too big and different departments already do not work well together as it is, so please do not let this merger happen.
—Ann Richardson, Madison, TN

Stop this merger, the US already has small regional cable monopolies or oligarchies, the last thing the US needs is a national monopoly.
—Tyler Hovanec, Vienna, OH

Do the right thing and block this —Glenn Holmes, Republic, OH

It is shameful that you are allowing this to happen in our country. Do you have no regard for the future of our economy?
—Seth, Huntington Beach, CA

This would be a huge mistake for the FCC. This is the definition of a monopoly. If this goes through the FCC should be ashamed for breaking up the Bell Companies.
—Robert Suter, Lewis Center, OH

Your monopolizing cable so you can charge even more for lousy service
—Trevor Stephan, Valparaiso, IN

This is by far one of the worst organizations around. Lack of marketplace competition has allowed both of these Companies to remain unaffected by poor customer satisfaction. DO NOT be swayed by a "low income" service offer in order to sweeten the deal. Although admirable, and completely necessary, this does not affect 90% of their customer base and does nothing to solve the problem. They financially "gut" those that actually pay for their bill. People want to see increased customer service, more provider options and competitive pricing. Also, Comcast wants to control internet streaming providers who have quickly gained a significant amount of marketshare as a result of Comcast's dismal service. This is in fact the opposite of what is needed. We need a free market for entertainment in which competition thrives. However, the playing field must be level for all participants. When consumers decide they no longer want the traditional product and instead want the new product, that signals that it is in fact time for that old product to die. Not be helped along on life support or allowed to change the rules of the game to better their own market position. America needs diversification of media delivery, not consolidation.

—Smithk849, Falls Church, VA

Comcast already controls too much and has the worst customer service on record. This merger will make that worse. I have gotten all of my TV from the Internet for years. This merger will threaten that as well. Please stop this merger which would essentially constitute a monopoly.
—Paul Langfield, Windsor, CO

Competition is what keeps America healthy. There is nothing good for the consumer through the approval of this merger.
—Ryan Hammond, Round Rock, TX

I have personally experienced the worst CUSTOMER SERVICE imaginable from both COMCAST & TIME WARNER. When has MERGERS EVER BENEFITED the consumer & why hasn't the WHITE HOUSE LISTENED? EVERYONE IS SLIPPING THE GREEN!
—J Quinlan, Palm Beach Gardens, FL

I am supremely against this merger that will give too much power to an already powerful company that will not benefit consumers!!!
—Dante Velasquez, New York, NY

I am disabled and tv and internet are my few enjoyments. I can barely afford it now, I'm sure I won't be able to afford it at all should this merger be allowed.
—Joann C Givan, Hillsboro, IL

I am a time warner customer, they already take advantage of me enough, I can't imagine if they are given even more power.
—Michael Utt, Charlotte, NC

I am aTWC subscriber, but will switch to Verizon, should this merger happen. Comcast is terrible company.
—Klaus Ottmann, New York, NY

No. just no. a 60% market share is not ok.
—Nicholas Edward Lockwood, Allison Park, PA

We need more competition in this market, not less. There is no way a more monopolistic cable company would be more responsive to customer needs.
—Matthew Durnford, Dover, NH

I know this is a pointless exercise considering Mr. Wheeler's background, but I had to at least make the effort.
—James Ryan, Littleton, CO

screw Comcast cable sucks
—Ben Dover, Schenectady, NY

Please DON'T even think about letting this move forward. There is no choice in cable. There are only territories. I cant get another cable company to replace the one I have. We NEED Competition
—Phillip Howe, Orlando, FL

Comcast has recently become the worst company in my area!
—Bryan de castro, Hialeah, FL

I've never experienced a worse example of customer-comes-last service than when I was with Time Warner, and what I've heard of Comcast is worse. Without competition, there's no reason for either of these companies to care about us, because they know we can't go anywhere else. America's been screwed by monopolies before. You'd think we might have learned a thing or two since then.
—Max Moore, Cortland, OH

I'd normally be against government interference in the private market place. But since they can't leave well enough alone, I'd at least like them to interfere to stop comcast from running the country (and who runs the internet, runs the country). Please. Don't let this happen.
—Murvis Dewayne McCollum, Meridian, MS

Comcast is already abusing their customers due to its monopoly power. A prime example is the encryption of limited basic channels so that they can force you to rent a digital adapter from them for each TV you have in your house. That is the same tactic that AT&T used back during their monopolistic period when they did not allow the customer to buy their own equipment so that they could require their customers to rent phones from AT&T .
—Mark McCathran, Frederick, MD

Please no monopolies!!
—Susie Weinstein, Island Park, NY

Please no monopolies!!

This is clearly a monopoly

I make minimum wage, and internet culture has just started to sprawl. DON'T DO IT YOU BOUGEOISE PIGS!!!!
—Conner Burkholder, Lubbock, TX

Comcast raises its rates 2 or 3 times each year. We need more competition -- not less!
—Suzanne Rodriguez, Sonoma, CA

we need more competition not less. The US already pays some of the highest bills among the industrialized world, and both companies have horrendous customer service.
—Dave Counts, Albany, NY

THIS MERGER WILL DRIVE COST EVEN HIGHER THAN IT ALREADY IS —Arthur Laferriere, Portland, ME

This will cost more American jobs.
—Alissa Heath, La Quinta, CA

Please do not make corporate American any more powerful.
—Sharlene Aviles, Buffalo, NY

Regulate these greedy corporations. Comcast is BAD. Corporations should dictate policy. The people should!
—Peter Alexander, PALMYRA, MO

The combined company would be an Internet and cable juggernaut with unmatched power to crush competition and hike prices for consumers. In fact, Comcast has admitted that prices will go up. This deal would make Comcast the only traditional cable provider available to nearly two-thirds of the U.S. This deal would allow Comcast to control a third of the cable and satellite market, and half of the bundled video/Internet market. The merger would allow Comcast to use its market power to dictate the terms of broadband openness, cost and access at a time when the U.S. lags well behind other developed nations on each of these measures. With Comcast in charge, we'll continue to sink in the rankings. Comcast is already bloated: In 2011, it merged with the mammoth NBCUniversal empire, putting it in control of Universal Studios, cable networks like Bravo, MSNBC and USA, and 24 local TV stations around the U.S. If the merger goes through, Comcast would control way too much of what we see and how we see it online and on cable. DO NOT approve of this merger.
—John Dutchins, San Diego, CA

Please block this merger to keep the internet fair.
—Tracy D Hawkins, Mapleton, UT

We all have a right to know what's going on in the world without bias 1
—Randy Knight, Roscoe, IL

What!? How is this not a monopoly again? I'm confused?!
—Jason A. Gorski, Berkeley, CA

We need to get the TRASH off the TV . Just think, we are raising a bunch of children to want to live as seen on the tube. What a mess, I am two days away from canceling this filth and gang stories. It stinks to high heaven. and what would our Lord say?
—Karen Smith, Warsaw, MO

TWC already has a monoply on high speed internet in n new hampshire. This merger should not be approved
—Thad Fuar, Littleton, NH

This can't be done, it definitely is too much power for one company, and honestly too much power for anyone or any company always leads to greed and corruption and that means I have to pay more than I should.
—Santiago F Perez, Pasadena, TX

This is precisely the type of monopoly that should be avoided.
—James P Pennell, Beaufort, SC

we have enough control over cable
—Richard Kern, Vero Beach, FL

Oligopolies are just as bad as monopolies, which cable service and telecommunication services should have other options. Don't let this turn into the energy industry all over again.
—Jeremy Martin, Glen Burnie, MD

Block this merger.
—Sean Boon, Artesia, CA

Comcast has proven time and again how bad they are at customer service. This merger will remove all competition and is bad for the consumer at every level.
—Chris Beeman, Oxford, OH

This deal would be a free pass to not care about customers at all, more so than already.
—Eric Jackson, Santa Barbara, CA

This company would be too big and too powerful if allowed. The company would hold internet access and rates over a third of the country not to mention pay-TV.
—Dan Bennett, Hudson, OH

this should absolutely not happen!! Is just wrong for these money hungry CEO's to wanna stick it to the very customers that keep their pockets fat! -.-
—Shannon VanZandt, Coeur D Alene, ID

STOP TRYING TO CONTROL OUR MINDS!!!!!!
—Lindsay Hoychick Arabie, Alexandria, LA

If this merger goes through I will be cancelling my Time Warner contract and signing up for Dish TV or something similar. Comcast is awful for customer service and no company should have such a big monopoly!!
—Jane Rice, Cincinnati, OH

This would be a disaster! This is how Hitler came to power.....by owning the media!
—Dyann Kominski, Shoreham, NY

The paying public needs MORE cable choices not LESS. More creates competition. Less creates a monopoly who end up screwing the paying public.
—Peggy Schrader, Paradise, CA

Please stop the merger. It will be bad for consumer. Prices will go up and the level of service will go down. Thanks
—Terry Sonnier, Bulverde, TX too much control of media in one company...

—Ronald J Egan, Clarksville, MO stop the merge of comcast and time warner cable this would be a disaster

—Charles Berry, Nancy, KY

stop this merger
—Steve Finley, Media, PA

Comcast's horrible customer service will only get worse if the merger goes through —Bruce Dean, Maple Valley, WA

Lets merge companies with the worst customer satisfaction & hope they will get better? Get real! TW & Comcast have proven again & again they only care about the bottom line. The TimeWarner speeds in town have SUCKED, & suddenly when Google fiber chooses my city TimeWarner increases their speeds? Why was it so impossible before? NO competition. Competition drives prices down. A with no real competition in 2/3 of US market would be a disaster! Why would they ever have incentive to increase speeds? The US is horrifically behind compared to the rest of the civilized world, & we invented it! Please FCC get off your buts & legislate. 2/3 rds is tantamount to a monopoly. the situation for customers will NOT improve with the merger. & while you are at it, regulate the internet as a common carrier. It may not have made sense to the FCC before, but with so many vital services on the net now, & phone calls. Stop lying to yourselves & open your eyes. The internet IS a telecommunications service. Regulate it as such. NOTE the following: The federal appeals court that struck down the FCC's net neutrality rules didn't dispute the FCC's authority to impose common carrier obligations if it were to reclassify broadband, and the court said that anti-discrimination and anti-blocking rules are common carrier obligations. You have the authority USE it. Block the TW-Comcast merger, Re-classify broadband as a common carrier. Thank you for your time.
—Brian Blake, Austin, TX

This will take away competition and raise prices.
—Howard Cameron, Mount Prospect, IL

We already do not have much of a choice and to allow a "mega" cable company to control our choices unregulated to just plan wrong!
—james Mays, Rutherford, TN

Reclassify broadband internet as a telecommunications service.
—Erin Tenney, Laurel, MD

I am 100% against this and I am a long-time TWC customer.
—Rohit Prakash, Austin, TX

This merger in no way helps the American people. The people the FCC is supposed to protect.
—Stefan Diehl, New York, NY

We need honest competition.
—Gene Gammon, Saint Petersburg, FL

I am adamantly opposed to the Time Warner Comcast merger. It will create an anticompetitive behemoth. Pricing competition for internet and cable content will be substantially reduced. Further, it will be likely that diversity of political thought will be dramatically harmed if this merger goes through. The consumer will gain nothing and will end up on the short end of pricing, selection and ideas and thought if this goes through.
—James W Greenawalt III, Spokane, WA

Do not allow this monopoly! These two giants already have the worst customer service and highest prices.
—Matt Evans, Erie, PA

Antitrust laws were put into effect to stop exactly these monopolies from forming. Please stop the merger!
—Jeffrey Wotowiec, Arlington, VA

Please stop this merge of time Warner and Comcast. This is a monopoly! America needs to have choices, not more control.
—Kathy McElfresh, Villa Ridge, MO

WE NEED MORE CHOICE--NOT LESS. Do not let this merger move forward.
—Beverly A. Rodeheaver, Aurora, OH

Both of these companies have the worst customer service, channel selection, and pricing options on the market. I can't see how merging them would make anyone's life better besides the CEO'S.
—Tyler Williams, Buda, TX

I already have little choice in TV and NO choice other than Comcast for internet due to a monopoly in my area by Comcast. To further limit choices by allowing this merger would be a travesty.
—Peter Ramirez, Aliquippa, PA bad for competition, bad for the customers, simply bad policy for free market

—Mike Tanksley, Columbus, IN

It would be better if the USPS was sold to FedEx. COMCAST can't do anything right and you should not allow them to grow.
—Gary Cook, Cornelius, NC

How can the FCC as the guardian and protector of the public when it comes to communication even consider the merger? I urge the FCC to tell the companies no merger serves the publics best interest!!!
—Barbara Broiges, Staten Island, NY

Customer service already sucks and prices are too high. This is only going to make it monumentally worse. Can you say Monopoly? I thought those weren't allowed in this country?
—Don Rugh, Pittsburgh, PA

This is not good for the consumer. We Will be without choices. Keep completion alive.
—Gene Gore, Myrtle Beach, SC

Time Warner service is abismal from my personel experence via Bright House and my in laws have Com Cast in their home town they have as well had the same poor service and high cost as I experence through Bright House-Time Warner. We do not need a even larger pill of excrement by combining these two corperations. The service will not improve nor will the cost drop or even come close to remaining the same. What is needed is for both of them to be broken up into smaller units to stimulate compettition and better service..
—Walter Golston, Apopka, FL

Wouldn't the merger be a monopoly? At least a disaster for consumers
—Alice E. McCrave, Rochester, NY

Anti-trust laws any one?
—Linda L. Winks, Westerville, OH

Monopolies have rarely ever proven good for consumers and the public. It is even more frightening to have a monopoly over a huge portion of information available to the public.
—Scott Hughes, Martins Ferry, OH

they are too big already —Mike, Apison, TN

companies are getting too big, too wealthy, too cold
—Sheila Kay McDonald, Cornelius, NC

Comcast is terrible with awful customer service. They presently have a monopoly in my area (Colorado) and they provide awful service. If competition were available they would have to improve or be out of business. NO MERGER!
—Ed Jennings, Erie, CO

No amount of money is worth allowing an incredibly harmful monopoly to control American customers.
—Jared Pharris, Germantown, WI

Stop the merger!
—James Millstine, Aurora, CO

Comcast has terrible customer service. I can't imagine how much worse things would get if this was allowed to happen.
—Craig McGonigle, Nashville, TN

This is anti-American. This creates a huge monopoly.
—Travis, Clover, SC

I hope I am not too late at stopping this from happening. There used to be a time when we fought against monopolies, I'm not sure what happened that belief.
—Anthony L., Columbus, OH

I'd be wary of giving even a company I trusted this much power, but Comcast is just about the worst option possible to be taking over the cable market. It's so lousy at looking after customers that it's almost a parody of itself-- but sadly it's very real. Please don't allow this Disney villain of a company to grab even more power and influence.
—Kat Dixon, Virginia Beach, VA

Cable prices are already outrageous in areas like mine where Comcast has a monopoly.
—Joan Peterson, Factoryville, PA

Please, do not allow this merger to happen. These companies already offer terrible service, products, and prices. They do not care about the consumer and merging them will only hurt us more.
—Matthew Braun, Fullerton, CA

i would like spend the time to write one of the reasons why i think the comcast / twc merger would not be allowed to go through. this letter will be about "APPLE TV" and "ROKU" and "Google Chromecast" . these are small set top boxes they sell in stores for $35 to $99. they allow the buyer to connect them to an internet connection and watch free and paid content. channels like Netflix, Hulu, WWE. HBO and Showtime are freely available. there is even live tv available on roku, such as SCCTV, Seattle Community College Television. Two of the channels widely Available is TWC and HBO GO. TWC allows you to watch TWC tv on Roku devices. there is no extra charge and some of the channels available are here. http://www.timewarnercable.com /content/dam/residential/pdfs/ apps/twctv/TWCTV_Channel_List. pdf HbO go has movies that are currently playing on HBO. there is no extra charge for this, its what you get as a bonus when you subscribe to HBO now Comcast blocks HBO GO on Roku Devices. (reference) https://www.techdirt.com/artic les/20140305/14254626446/comca st-still-blocking-hbo-go-roku- now-playstation-3-incapable-ex plaining-why.shtml this is what comcast says : "With every new website, device or player we authenticate, we need to work through technical integration and customer service which takes time and resources. Moving forward, we will continue to prioritize as we partner with various players." this has been going on ever since the release of the HBO ROKU app in 2011. if Comcast is Allowed to purchase TWC then i think they will pull the plug on the TWC app. if you are a Comcast subscriber and you want to watch HBO Go you have to watch it on an iPhone, Ipad, and if you want to watch it on a ROKU or similar device, you have to use your friends ISPs Login from another company. they will not allow you to watch HBO GO using your login information, you have to use someone else's login information , like AT&T uverse there are two reasons why they are allowed to do this. one is because people are letting them getting away with it. the other reason is to force consumers to pay fees to rent the official comcast receivers. people who rent Comcast Set Top Boxes pay Comcast $10 for each Television set. this is a lot of income and Comcast does not want to lose. they are afraid of people buying Google Chromecast and Roku devices for $35 to $99 and using those devices to watch HBO using their PAID HBO Subscription instead of paying $120 a year in Cable Box Rentals for each television set in the house to Watch HBO on Demand. more and more cable channels are becoming available on iPhones and iPads. channels like CNN, HLNTV, CARTOON NETWORK, and ADULT SWIM have their own apps that allow you to watch their tv channels on your device for free using the Email account associated with your Uverse, Comcast or Satellite account. Comcast's ongoing policy to BLOCK hbo go on other set top tv boxes except their own should be illegal and they should be ordered to stop.
—Matt Fox, San Jose, CA

This isn't just about Net Neutrality. This is about ensuring a fair and competitive marketplace. In many locations, residents are forced to use Comcast or Time Warner for Internet service as they are the exclusive providers available to those areas. To allow a company which is already the lowest in the nation in customer satisfaction to acquire another ISP would mean almost no option for consumers, who would be forced to pay whatever is asked and abide by whatever regulations comcast decides to put on their service, as there will be no other provider options.
—Nancy Moyers, Austin, TX

DO NOT ALLOW these two to merge. Comcast is the single worst cable provider in the nation, and would ruin what few traits of TWC that it has held so far. Time warner is at least upping speeds at no cost to consumers, and from my experience, was not too difficult to get help from. Allowing Comcast to take over would effectively bring about another true monopoly in the cable industry, and ruin what few hopes there are of a competitive market. Concast (yes, concast) has conned far too many people and is an extraordinarily abusive company. Dumping consumers into the Concast control would only make the situation worse.
—Cody, Ontario, CA

A merger would be more than damaging, it's criminal!
—James Roberts, Memphis, TN

Prices will rise and quality and service will fall.
—Carrie Linerode, Florence, SC

It is preposterous to think that combining the two largest media companies into one giant entity would result in a net benefit for the consumer. That would be government support of a monopoly.
—Randall Richter, Fredericksburg, TX

Stop the Merger!!!!!
—Doug Stewart, Ogden, UT

DO NOT be the ones to let Comcast bribe their way into a mega-company. The country is built on competition. Your failure to block this grab will be noticed.
—Peter Discenza, Saint Paul, MN

We need more competition and regulation in telecom!
—KeriAnn Wells, Dorchester Center, MA

Too big! Competition equals opportunity.
—Carter Dye, Portland, OR

As a Comcast subscriber, I have experienced the apathy with which this company treats its customers. Comcast is the largest provider in the industry only because its customers have no other choice. To approve this merger would only leave more people without a choice. I am no activist, however, I feel that this has the potential to effect the entire country and could not, in good conscience, ignore the opportunity to speak up. This merger is a disaster for us all. Please do not allow it to go forward. Thank you, PK
—Phillip Kuperman, Shreveport, LA

This is a huge problem for Net Neutrality.
—Tristen Leonard, Hamilton, NJ

Competition is key. This would lessen competition and hurt consumers. Doesn't take a genus to figure that out.
—Andrew Heil, Savage, MN

I urge you to not approve this monopoly! Uphold our country's free-market principles. That is what's best for the public!
—George Rod Horlings, Grand Rapids, MI

Comcast is a disaster of a company.
—Kip Owens, Cut Bank, MT

Illegal monopoly , period..
—Sheryl Robinson, Montclair, CA

I just want my favorite channels like hallmark station and the hallmark movie station. i don't want them to go away. and i personally like time warner cable. so please don't merge.
—Wendy, Cedarburg, WI

Please do not allow this merger to go through. Comcast already has too much power. It's time for more competition, not more of the same mediocrity.
—Jason Cabezas, Cumming, GA

STOP COMCAST FROM BECOMING AN MONOPOLY, IT'S ILLEGAL!! http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/M onopoly#Law —Justin Kussad, Lawrence, MA

Hell No
—Dave Schiavoni, Ware, MA

To: The Commissioners of the FCC Your proposed path would open the door to widespread discrimination online. It would give Internet service providers the green light to implement pay-for-priority schemes that would be a disaster for startups, nonprofits and everyday Internet users who cannot afford these unnecessary tolls. I urge you to scrap these proposed rules and instead restore the principle of online nondiscrimination by reclassifying broadband as a telecommunications service.
—Matthew Lucas, spartanburg, SC

Comcast already has little accountability to its clientele; this merger would only exacerbate the situation.
—Eric Stobbe, Milwaukee, WI

Monopolies are bad
—Josh Brandt, Bell Canyon, CA

This merger will cripple middle and lower class america even more then we already are —Levi Root, Aurora, CO

The merger between Comcast and Time Warner cannot happen.
—Harry Greer, Marina Del Rey, CA

THIS WILL CREATE AN ILLEGAL MONOPOLY!!!!!!!!!!
—Alistair Herz, Studio City, CA

I do not agree with this based upon the pretense of a monopoly. Will this recreate a monopoly? Ma BELL was dissolved by MCI b/c Ma Bell was a monopoly! Although they have recovered, that company is not a monopoly! The company does & has proved that competion is good for AMERICA! What might this merge bring? They set the price/ speed of your connection? Is this what President Barack Obama stated for affordable broadband connections for rural America?
—Brett D. Hensley, Ashland, KY

This would cause TIme Warner and Comcast to become a monopoly in many places. Do not allow this. It will have a negative effect on competition and the free market.
—James Levick, Shorewood, WI

I pay $127+ per month for only "high speed internet". Last week I needed repairs done and Comcast had a wait of "96 hours" to have a service apt scheduled. This is asinine. If they cannot provide better service now, how will they do it when they are bigger and are/will be cutting costs to cover the merger costs? Their service is already horrible. It takes hours to get any relief from their "OFF SHORE" Philippines center. The service tech came today to the house "after 96 hours of waiting" and replaced one of "their wires". It took 20 minutes. Rather than do a full replacement, he spliced the wire (to save time?) and while my internet is back up it is slower than what I had been getting and SLOWER than what I am paying for. This Merger will only make their service worse.
—Michael Cumbow, Houston, TX

we love what we have WE DO NOT WANT LESS CHOICES.
—Jonathan Woodruff, Sound Beach, NY

What TWC and Comcast are doing is just wrong, it's taking away from other tv and internet providers making them weaker and not as sustainable. Not to mention if the merger does happen that's a monopoly and last time i checked there are laws against such monopolies like this.
—Nick Scott, Lancaster, OH

As it is, cable bills are already outrageous. These mega-corporations already have monopoly status in my area. I have two choices for cable - AT&T & Comcast - really no choice at all. My bill has doubled in the last 5 years!
—Angela Catallo, Houston, TX

last week dealing with Comcast I spoke to 12 different people trying to resolve an issue. Was disconnected, transferred to the wrong dept and left waiting for long durations and each time the same questions. Account name, address, last 4 digits of my social and what the issue was just trying to get tech support. 4 hours later I learned my Comcast box went bad and they would not charge me $65.00 as long as it wasn't my fault. REALLY. Sighs
—Terry Crossen, West Palm Beach, FL

Good grief!! Let the two worst companies merge and have more control? Shut them down do not let them merge!
—Tony Arens, Otis, OR

We do not need a merger of two huge companies. We do not need lobbyists ruining your policy decisions. We need an open entertainment platform based solely on merit and free market... but if you have to relate it, do your job and stop this money and power grab that is against the public's general interest.
—Steve Kimble, Clifton, VA

No, no and no!
—Elizabeth j, Cincinnati, OH

This merger is bad for freedom of speech. This is a corrupt deal with the comcast executive giving laish partys for the chair of the FCC. We will find out just how corrupt our government really is.
—David Summers, Fort Myers, FL

Comcast exec. throwing lavish party for the Chairman of the FCC. Let's see how corrupt our government is. This merger would STOP choice, for instance Comcast will not carry Blaze TV because they present a different point of view, these people have a agenda and are corrupt.
—David Summers, Fort Myers, FL

Atrocity happens Americans fail to act in their best interests!
—Zee Zembry, Tipp City, OH

Comcast last time that I looked around we live in the United States of America what you are not large enough I say No to the merger. FCC the ball is in your court do the right thing vote No the merger Thank You.
—Richard A. Smith, Cleveland, OH

This would be a monopoly in every sense of the word. We as the people have a voice; we must be heard and hold corporations accountable
—Patrick McDougal, Elk Grove, CA

Stop this Merger! This a Monopoly, plain and simple. Do the right thing and your job and protect Net Neutrality and Innovation..
—Kevin Kittredge, San Ramon, CA

This will be a monopoly and the media is already controlled way too much by a small number of companies or people
—, Huntington, WV

NO TO MERGER!!!!
—Hector Gonzalez, Trenton, NJ

American Internet affects the world. This is obviously an anti-trust issue. Stop the merger!
—Jeremy Steinhilber, ,

This would create too big a company, in my opinion. And, what happens when the service is poor or even less than poor? Who fixes that problem? What happens when prices rise -- everyone else's prices eventually rise also!! Too much is spent already on cable connections. No merger like should ever happen.
—Kay Skawienski, San Bernardino, CA

Stop supporting Comcast with your wallets people! Cancel your services, go to a competitor! Hit Comcast and Warner where it hurts!
—Smith, Dover, DE

ENOUGH is ENOUGH with allowing these HUGE companies to form monopolies and then charge high fees for very poor service and extremely poor customer service too boot! IF a merger of this size if it isn't illegal IT SHOULD BE! As a retired American living on a small fixed income I watch my cable bill go up and up and up each year and the level of service go down and down and down each year. Without cable I cannot watch TV, period. After my monthly rent my cable bill is the next biggest bill that I pay. I watch every penny. Time Warner cable's service and customer service is very much lacking. I have to call them almost every week for issues, usually TV channels not coming in or my home phone not working. I pay them thousands of dollars off the top of my social security each year for the privilege of paying for services I do not get and for being on the telephone with them all the time getting the run around. Time Warner rips retired Americans off now each and every day! Time Warner is too big already. Comcast is too big already. Please do what you were created to do and protect us consumers instead of helping BIG MONEY control EVERYTHING! There is a reason monopolies were illegal and SHOULD BE.
—Lori Siver, Little Falls, NY

This will raise costs!
—Terry McCoy, Henrico, VA

This merger has the possibility of causing less consumer choice, service, and countless problematic issues to state. No cable company should be this huge. It gives one company way to much power & control.
—Joann Smith, Knoxville, TN

Stop the merger! I oppose the merger of Comcast and Time Warner Cable. I don't want higher prices and fewer choices and bad service. Stop the merger!
—Sharon Kirkham, Cordova, IL

Comcast's service is already terrible, I just called to them for some packet loss issues. The first agent transferred me to a 3rd party support (The agent never asked or told me they were doing this) that said I had to call Comcast back. The 2nd agent did transfer me up to Tier 2 who then proceeded to hang up. This all has taken about 1 hour of my time. These type of services are required for modern TRS equipment.
—Mr. Jordan Packham, South Jordan, UT

The Comcast and Time Warner merger should be blocked. Despite being the largest cable company in America, Comcast hasn't made enough of an effort to expand their service area or improve their service. Their business is built upon local monopolization, trust like avoidance of competition, and defensive business practices to protect their antiquated business model from threats such as Netflix.
—Bradford Brill, Chantilly, VA

I fear that this deal if it is allowed to go through will create a oligopoly. Count me as a Time warner customer who will drop my service if this merger is allowed to go through..
—John R. Williams, Athens, PA

The merge between ComCast and TWC is monopolist and that is violation of some rights how is the consumer suppose to have options when those two companies merge it would be either them or AT&T and ppl know that AT&T is not everywhere but I would definitely change and pay more just as long as am I not a customer of ComCast.
—Jonathan, El Paso, TX

DO NOT DO THIS PLEASE!
—Darlene Kittredge, San Ramon, CA

NO MORE!!!!!!
—Brandon Brady, San Antonio, TX

With customer service already dreadful, allowing this merger would only allow Comcast to tie the hands of consumer's who have issues. 2nd, you can't have price competition I'd there is not multiple company's offering services.
—Anthony Donabedian, Anaheim, CA

I don't have much personal experience with Comcast, but I do with Time Warner. TWC is the number 2 most HATED company! Because of the fact that they have cornered they market on internet, cable and actually a lot of individual Channels. So, if you move to to another Cable company it almost like you have to buy every individual channel you want to watch! Not only that- my latest experience with TWC was unbelievable! I had a small branch break my cable line from my house to the power line. This was on 07/14/2014. I quickly call TWC because the line was laying in my driveway. [I luckily live next to a fire fighter. I had him come look at the "wire" laying on the ground- he was able to identify it was a cable line. However; it was wrapped around the main line. (I am well aware cable lines use AMPS and power line use Watts & Amps cannot shock you.) The fire fighter did tell me that when it was yanked out it could have pulled the main power line along with the plastic wrapping around the wire coils and copper- if so the wires could touch and then shock and kill someone if not handled properly.] I tell you all of that because when I called TWC on Monday, July 14th, 2014. I explained the situation to the Male Assistant. The gentleman on the phone actually told me, and I quote, "We won't be able to come out there until THURSDAY!" I explained how it was in the middle of my driveway and I needed it moved. Then asked if I should call the fire or police? The Assistance on the phone told me to, quote ""Pick it up with my hand." In the news two weeks earlier a TWC lineman was just putting up cable lines. NOT power lines. But the weather had pulled the main power line covering away from its base. SO, while he was working in the 'bucket' doing his job perfect, this man was electrocuted and killed. I brought that up and the assistance on the phone completely ignored me and gave me the entire speech about AMPS vs WATTS. I then stated this was unacceptable & I expected someone to be out here by the end of the day. Again TWC stated it would have to be THURSDAY the 07/17/2014. (I was currently on the phone with him Monday, July the 14th, 2014.) He stated that they had workers out at a large 'Outage' that was... again i am quoting him, "In my area." By this time I was furious, but cooler heads prevail. I simple pointed out that maybe the outage was from my line being down... Again ignored and told, "We can send someone out there Thursday at 10am is that good for you?" I stated, "No it is not! I need to speak with your manager or supervisor." After 15 minutes on hold he came back and said he was 'busy' but "Would certainly give me a call back within 10 minutes." I am still waiting on that call... I waited 45 minutes. Called back. I told this DIFFERENT assistant to please just listen to what I had to say and mark it in the notes. She said, "Yes Mama." I told her these exact words: "I made sure to take pictures of what my property looks like and I too was recording the conversation I was having earlier with the assistant. Not only did he put my life at danger- he is exposing your company for a lawsuit if anything is to catch fire. Which the fireman I did consult said, was a possibility. Make NO mistake it will not be Thursday before I get this fixed. Because first thing tomorrow morning I am going to Fox 8 (That is our local New Station just so you know) and share with them how negligent this company really is. I am also filing a claim or notifying the Better Business Bureau. I know they would be interested in the actions of this company and all the many ways it has neglected it responsibilities to it customers that is in it's CONTRACT that we BOTH are tied to. I still got no call back it was 8:30pm when I had left that "Note" in my account. [When referring to 'he', 'him', 'gentleman' or a male reference that is not further identified, I am referring to this Assistance whom I spoke with threw out this ordeal.] _____ _____ _____ However; I may not have gotten a call back, still to this day! That next morning I had someone knocking at my door to fix my cable line! (Guess they don't want bad press!) Funny thing is- they have a rule when coming out for any appointments. The Worker calls twice, if no answer he does not go to the house and moves on to the next appointment. (Well I didn't answer because my house phone was off (bc i had no service) and my cell phone was on silent.) I asked him, then why did you come? The Worker told me that on my profile it said- if no answer GO ANYWAY! I knew it was not the Workers fault. They don't handle customer service. I told the worker about the situation and he was even mortified. He said, "we had plenty of people around. I was working in this area and wasn't that busy!" -The Worker also told me that because of Comcast taking over they were ALREADY forcing many men into early retirement. Replacing them with younger men with NO EXPERIENCE. (Id rather have experience and knowledge. Wouldn't you?) That means we are going to have to pay for their training. However they wont be making as much as the men who are being PUSHED into earlier retirement. (But some of those men who are being forced into early retirement still need to work because their families need the money. Like the Worker I had come out. He was quick, efficent and actually wiped his boots off before coming into my house! Do you really think that my generation is going to be quick OR efficient? And courteous?! We don't even know what that means! Yes I'm putting my own generation down!!) They just want to pay them less. Merging to bad companies isn't going to make a good one...It's a BAD IDEA! (Two piles of crap = One HUGE pile of crap... not GOLD!) This information came from a worker that is still with TWC. Sorry so long but this is disgusting behavior to me. ASK YOURSELF: -Do we really want someone like that to corner the market? -Along with the 2nd most hated internet provider? -They are going to do NOTHING but make it harder on us and HIGHER prices! PLEASE let me know if there is a way to help STOP this!!! I know they still need the FCC and US Department of Justice to complete it..... can "We the People" do anything to help stop it?! If so email me back and i'll help with online and social medial and spreading the word. hope my story helps and I do have proof of the entire incident I just told you about.
—Kasey Yates, Thomasville, NC

Comcast can not manage by any stretch of the imagination their current monopoly position. Customer satisfaction with Comcast is ridiculously low, and I believe that if any reasonable choice existed, especially for high speed internet, Comcast's market share would fall dramatically. Giving Comcast more monopoly power is certainly not the right thing to do. The FCC and the DoJ need to send a clear message to Comcast that until they fulfill their commitment to provide reasonable customer service at a reasonable price that they need to focus on their operational problems, not on extending their monopoly.
—Gerald Dittrich, Oakland, MI

I believe this merger is a real bad idea. There will no longer be any competition and the new conglomerate of Comcast will dictate prices and terms for all other communication companies that want to use their services. The bottom line is the customers will get the worst end of the stick.
—Donald Jones, Del valle, TX

Block the Merger !
—Chris I, East Greenbush, NY

Time Warner also provides internet service for $14.95 a month (basic service). If the merger goes into effect, the price could go up, caps on bandwidth in place and those who are disabled and need to work from home in order to make ends meet will be priced out of internet service (and have to lose their jobs and thus homes) if rates increase significantly. Comcase taking over Time Warner would give them the power to hike up internet rates, and only families with children could get a decent rate for only 6 months. What about disabled, no kids, work from home 12 months? There will be some who will simply cease to afford internet, which helps so many disabled people. Internet access is becoming too expensive as it is. Please block the merger and so that Time Warner doesn't become one less option for low income people who have no kids.
—Tika Carr, Rochester, NY

I have three specific concerns above and beyond what I have already mentioned, based upon my personal experience. First, Comcast is already lacks the ability to accomodate the reasonable return of leased equipment. They lack sufficient resources, both brick and mortar and personnel, to accomodate the increased demand that would result from this merger. Second, As a member of the military I personally have struggled to terminate contracts that, by law, I am permitted to when I move from one base to another. I know other servicemembers who have had equally frustrating experiences. Comcast repeatedly acts in bad faith towards it's servicemembers and the SCRA. They do not put the necessary resources, both legal personnel and customer service representatives, to meet their legal obligations. Third, both companies refuse to provide diverse channels - providing unpopular channels with a liberal slant while refusing to respond to the requests of a tremendous number of potential viewers. Look at the numbers and this bias will bear itself out.
—David Wendell, Salem, OR

Allowing corporations to charge whatever they want because they are the only service available shouldn't happen. There is already a wide enough gap between the haves and have nots. I can not afford what I have now. Without cable and the internet I would not know what is going on in the world. I would be that much further behind in the tech. That is already available today.
—Colleen herrick, Oak Harbor, WA

Another monopoly, this time one that has power over one of the remaining bastions of freedom in the world, is not what the people need. Please prevent this ominous merger.
—Rafael Estrada, Canyon Country, CA

The American people don't want this merger. I can't afford any more money going out of my pocket. They will be way too big and powerful and we have enough of that with this administration.
—L Koontz, Helena, MT

We get screwed enough on speed and price compared to other countries.
—Mike Kauffmann, Melbourne, FL

And keep free over the air tv
—Frank Diego, Tampa, FL

Besides the fact that Comcast has the world's worst customer service record, this merger would be disaster to choice and variety of content.
—Michael A. Minner, Bakersfield, CA

In addition, all the large ISPs should be put under Title II FCC classification.
—Charles Dahlberg, WEST SIMSBURY, CT

Today, neither Comcast or Time Warner can effectively service their customers. Take the time and effort needed to ask their customer base to determine if my words ring true, before considering the merger. Together the company will ride even more roughshod over their customers. Before considering such a merger, ensure there is competition available in both Comcast and Time Warner's service area. Ensure competition and watch the rats depart the sinking Comcast and Time Warner ship. AT&T competition in my area has really hurt Time Warner.
—Phil Muhlfelder, Willoughby, OH

We are stuck with Time Warner cable in Beaufort County SC. My rates have nearly doubled in the last two years. My service has not improved. I'm forced to subscribe to many channels that I don't want or need. I am forced to pay extra for access to HD broadcasts (which are free on the airwaves). I'm forced to pay large monthly fees for a box in each room where I want service. I live in an area where I cannot get a satellite signal because of tree cover (and they are protected from being cut down), so I have no options. In Atlanta I had Comcast and their service was as bad or worse. Their pricing is no better. I don't believe that this merger will result in lower costs or greater choice for the average consumer. I oppose such a merger.
—William R. Mumpower, Hilton Head Island, SC

We need choices.
—Ruth Mather, Waxhaw, NC

We do not need Comcast and Time Warner Cable to merge. We need to keep costs down. If the merger would promise to lower costs, then maybe they should merge. But no merger, we do not need it.
—Rosemary Markham, Morehead City, NC

No mergers of Internet providers should be allowed until the FCC has actively regulated these providers for at least three years.
—Joe Narun, Chicago, IL

Too big to be efficient. Stop the merger.
—Oscar Harbin, Saluda, NC

This will create a big monopoly and the consumers will be the ones getting a bad deal.
—Clair Gohean, Downingtown, PA

I side with those who believe under the same rules as telephone companies, wireless providers, and the like. Enforce Title II
—William Barnes, Augusta, GA

Comcast started out charging me $17 per month and now charges me $107 per month. Allowing Comcast and Time Warner to merge will create in effect a monopoly resulting in even higher cable charges to consumers. Monopolies also have no incentive to innovate, and they love to limit the expression of dissenting views.
—Charles Smart, Troy, MI

This merger will be a disaster for for us, the consumer
—Calvin Reames, Cecilia, KY

Please, please do not allow this merger. Thank you.
—James Moulds, Bemidji, MN

We need more competition, especially in the cable business, not less. Please do not allow this egregious concentration of power.
—Michael Hamilton, Birmingham, AL

Stop. Think. Do we really need two mega-companies who have a history of shamelessly providing terrible customer service and products to merge into one giant mega-company with even less competition? How is this good for the American people? Please prevent the merger.
—Clayton Raybourn, South Lyon, MI

The proposed merger of Comcast and Time Warner Cable must not happen; it would serve no useful public purpose!
—William Wilson, Durham, NC

We do not need, nor is there any reason to let this monopoly be created in the communications industry. We need more competition not less. This merger is Very bad for the consumer!
—William Morgan, Clover, SC

we will all lose if these behemoths join forces. they will raise prices which are already too high - check the prices globally for what we get, we are already being gouged for lesser speeds.
—TD Hickerson, Westerville, OH

Remember the so-called telephone monoply of years ago? Now it's cable. NO-NO
—Howard Lee, Ft. Myers, FL

Please leave these companies to compete!
—Albert Haines, Mc Intosh, FL

These are two of the most despised companies in the USA.. Do not let them merge, that would be the end of any thought of customer service in the cable industry.
—Joe Pickett, Murrells Inlet, SC this is bad for the consumer, we will not benefit from it. it will only allow comcast to charge us more for there service.

—Robert Brown, sunnyvale, CA

This merger is insane. We need more competition, not less. We also need more alternatives. These politically supported local monopolies are costing consumers more and more for poorer and poorer services. This merger would just accelerate that process.
—Jim Hawley, Boring, OR

Internet access is already in the hands of giants and getting more expensive. This merger would only make it worse.
—John Richardson, Albuquerque, NM

STOP THE MERGER!! SAVE FREE OPEN INTERNET!
—Josh Fraggetta, Norman, OK

Remember why AT&T was broken up in the 80's, when we knew it as "Ma Bell." How can there be any doubt that the Comcast-Time Warner Cable merger is anticompetitive?
—Rob Rudnick, Nobleboro, ME

I'm a Comcast customer and do want this merger to be approved. Remember there was a reason the monopoly of AT&T had to be broken apart.
—Mr. Mark Spencer, Melrose, MA

Stop this merger! The U.S. does not need a single giant controlling a massive share of our nation’s TV and Internet-access markets.
—John Howes, Providence, UT

There already monopolies in their own right
—Dennis Richardson, Fair Oaks, CA

TV is a corrosive addiction; overall it has no scientific studies to show that it improves life or health. As a doctor I remind patients that most ads are for things they don't need to consume: fast foods, alcohol, chips and sodas. Long live public TV! Make commercial TV a Schedule III drug and require a prescription! (My wife and I don't watch TV, other than an occasional PBS opera or gardening show on our antenna-driven set. My wife sometimes watches a football game, and I worry about her.) For the health of our nation, DO NOT allow this merger.
—Steve Watson, Richmond, VA

PLEASE STOP THIS DISASTER !
—Dave Duran, Pueblo, CO

Considering this to be legal is ridiculous. For consumers everywhere, prevent this merger. Comcast is already a regional monopoly and it is not in the best interest of the consumer to allow this action. My zip code is 87111 and I will be happy to go protest on my congessman's doorstep.
—Daniel A. Pritchard, Albuquerque, NM

I already pay too much for sub standard Comcast tech support that has been outsourced to Asia. Comcast is big enough, don't let them get any bigger! They can't maintain what they have now, service and support suffer because of it. Using the 'triple play' if I stop one service I am penalized with higher prices for the other two, makes no sense.
—J Tinsby, Lancaster, PA

Monopoly, monopoly, monopoly.
—Donna Roeser, Bend, OR

Stop this merger now. The American people have enough on their plates. Don't add to it. Thank you.
—Rodney & Sandra Farren, Apple Valley, CA

The more companies in a field the more competition there is and the better it is for the consumer. Economics 101
—William L. Wilson Jr., Houston, TX

This would be a disaster and lead to higher prices, fewer choices and a monopoly regardless of what either says.
—Wryker, Nashville, TN

Stop the merger!
—Donald Empson, Stillwater, MN

The reality of allowing this to happen wil not strength America.
—Curtis Carneke, Bullhead City, AZ

Their attitude and heavy-handed tactics are already beyond the pale. And they want to be even bigger? No!
—Fulton Martin, San Diego, CA

Please BLOCK this merger! Stopping this kind of deal is exactly why we have antitrust laws. This merger would put more than a third of all cable-TV subscribers in Comcast's hands and give it control over more than half of the "triple-play" services that combine TV, phone and Internet service.
—Alelio, Canastota, NY

Please protect consumers from these corporate giants who are already in many ways controlling our digital content delivery and increasing our costs!
—Jean Goldsborough, Reading, VT

Comcast is the worst company in the US to do business with now because of the monopoly - why make it even worse, if possible. More competition, not less is what the consumer requires
—Sheldon J Feibel, The Villages, FL

Bigger is NOT better. It just makes Too big to Fail bailouts.
—Donald Leon Spradlin, SARASOTA, FL

Comcast is the worst company in the USA for customer service.
—Thomas Lewis, Bowling Green, KY

If comcast take over twc i will have all my services cut off and go with dish network.Does this company know they will lose valuable customers that been with them for many years now...Come on twc don't sale to them!!!!!!!
—Carol Flanagin, Hillsborough, NC

I believe media companies have already been allowed to consolidate too much.
—Robert Cook, Seattle, WA

Here in Philadelphia, Comcast provides horrible service to its customers and continues to raise prices simply because it knows we have no other real options. This proposed merger would only reduce options for more people and make horrible service the norm. In a time when the internet should really be considered a public utility, Comcast is keeping access from many (especially the poor), and this merger would only keep more of our nation's poor away from access to information. This merger must be stopped.
—Tyler Horst, Philadelphia, PA

This merger is manifestly not in the public interest.
—Peter Melvoin, Redmond, WA

My cable bill is already too high from Time Warner, I don't need it still higher if this goes through. Please put a stop to this kind of merger! Thank You.
—Randy Medors, Columbus, OH

Stop corporate greed .
—Jennifer Bitterman, Cheektowaga, NY

Promote Competition, BREAK UP THE MONOPOLIES
—Charles Mullin, Downingtown, PA

I object to this merger because it creates a trust. Our antitrust laws in place to protect us from corporations who would take control of the things that we depend on. Personally, I can live without television. Internet however, has become critical for our communication with other members of society, not to mention making and finances. I believe that Comcast and Time Warner are already too big. These company should be broken down into smaller entities. It is evident that there is already a monopoly. There is no significant differences in prices for services either the two entities. Often there is no other providers to choose from.
—Jack Spence, ,

We do not need any more monopolies. These two giants are already too rich and powerful.
—Jo Ann Lovingood, Greensboro, NC

Time-Warner likes to say, " thank you for choosing Time-Warner." What a joke! There is NO choice of cable providers in our area - if you want cable, you have to pay TWC. They don't offer contracts, just 'plans' that constantly edge up in pricing $3 - $5 with every bill. PLEASE don't let this monopoly merge with yet another monopoly.
—Patricia L. Gardner, Whitehouse, OH

I will cancel my TWC service if they merge with Comcast. Immediately.
—David Krause, Charlotte, NC

More competition is always the answer to lower prices and better service.
—Darlene Borlik, Granger, IN

More competition is always the answer to lower prices and better service.
—Tom Borlik, Granger, IN

I suppose it will be just as easy to cancel a Comcast acct. The US ranks 26th in the world for cable service bang for the buck. This merger aint gonna help. As always,"money talks", especially to you politicians.
—Frank J Flatley, Mount Vision, NY

Don't let it happen!!
—Virginia DeSeta, Holly Springs, NC

We need more choice not less!
—Bret Miller, Upland, CA

Dont let this happen, monopoly.
—Ricky Boulder, Providence, RI

Seems like these colossal companies should be broken up, like AT&T years ago - let's get some competition, rather than a bigger monopoly.
—Patrick Malone, Findlay, OH

It is YOUR JOB to protect us from this kind of corporate abuse.
—Casey McCarthy, Kimberton, PA

The prices are out of sight.
—Kathleen Shaw, East Longmeadow, MA

Stop this horrible merger.
—Joseph G. Zulevic, Seattle, WA

This is not good for the consumers at all. Must be stopped!
—Carol Wyatt, Windermere, FL

Stop this deal. We do not need a private "Big Brother" watching our every move. This idea could infect Canada!
—Arthur C Cordingley, Mississauga,

Adam Smith warned that in the absence of competition, the free market morphs into what he called oligarchies. In this case, the merger would be less an oligarchy than a simple monopoly, headed by a man with a clearly defined political agenda.
—Robert Maxwell, Deming, NM

I do not believe that merger this is in the best interest of their customers. Neither company has demonstrated that they care about their customer base. I was living Topsham, Maine when Comcast bought out Suscom Cable Company out of York Pennsylvania. The company dictated what my cable package would include, customer service went down, and of course the price went up. The people in Southern Maine were no happier with their service from Time Warner. Both companies are where they are now by customers purchasing their cable packages. The should value what has gotten where they are. You do not allow the merger of two companies that are absolutely lousy at providing customer service
—Genevieve D. Beard, Moncks Corner, SC

I cannot imagine how Comcast could get any worse. They've done nothing but put me on hold when I've called to get a problem resolved. My hold times (twice!) have been over 3 hours! Then you switched from one CSR to another CSR to another CSR and each gives you different information. After over an hour on the phone your problem is still not resolved and the CSR tells you there is no supervisor available at the time so someone will have to call you back. Of course, you never hear back from Comcast. Before Comcast merges, they need to fix the problems they have now. The consumer needs additional choices for cable, not a bigger Comcast.
—Debra Kell, Sandwich, IL

Competition will keep the truth and all information available to everyone--freedom of speech.
—D.R. Schindler, Red Lake Falls, MN

Stopping this kind of deal is exactly why we have antitrust laws.
—David Vigus, Cincinnati, OH

I live in both the US and the UK. At present, I pay $50/mo for 8gb Internet in NY compared to $40/mo for 70gb speeds in the UK. By approving this merger, it would be extending the monopolistic and anti-competitive control of the 2 companies who already have no incentive to improve service or reduce prices. This is not only hurting customers that US laws are hopefully meant to protect, it is also damaging to US competitiveness globally. As a proud American, I have been very dismayed to find that citizens in many other countries, especially in Europe, have much better access at lower costs. The US competitiveness is already falling behind in terms of education and global awareness and information. Hopefully our competitiveness technologically won't be diminished as well by poor government policies and decisions such as approving this ill-advised merger.
—Ruth Hereford, Las Vegas, NV

Don't allow them to do this merger!
—Holden Gray, Waterville, ME

I am opposed to the Comcast/Time Warner merger. Comcast has already proven that they have complete disdain for their customer base by delivering some of the worst customer service in the cable industry. I've experienced it first hand as a former Comcast customer who has since moved to AT&T. I can see no good coming from this merger and believe it will only continue to reward Comcast for poor service and allow them to expand it to Time Warner customers. In addition, by allowing these two giant ISPs to merge, access to the Internet will most likely not improve and will continue to become even more expensive.
—Ron Lockhart, Boca Raton, FL

Please do NOT approve the merger between Comcast and Time Warner Cable. They already have too much power individually.
—Diane Riffitts, Mullica Hill, NJ

Competition is always preferred over big monopolies. Why did they split AT&T (Ma Bell) into many smaller companies?
—David Woodard, Raleigh, NC

Not only are Comcast and Time Warner #1 and #2, respectively, in size, they rank in the same order for having terrible customer service. A merger would just make customer service and pricing worse. Please block this merger.
—Chip, Rhome, TX

stop this injustice to us the american public —Steve Haraldson, sweeny, TX

I pay too much already —Bruce Robertson, Plainfield, IN

Please don't allow this!!! We can't deal with this kind of monopoly!
—Brittany, Colorado Springs, CO

This reeks of the days of the telephone company monopolies . Comcast and Time Warner are big enough separately. The American public should be heard and their wishes acted on not these giants. This merger IS NOT in the best interest of the people. Stop This Merger!!!
—A Lewis, Lombard, IL

I share some of this articles concern your company.
—Clarence Saunders, Jamaica, NY

Protect the free market!
—Jacqui shoholm, Saint Paul, MN

I believe this merger will result in a decline in the quality of service and fewer choices for consumers. It gives Comcast/ TimeWarner the power to control media outlets and content.
—Timothy Slegers, Fountain Valley, CA

Please block the merger of Comcast and Time-Warner. Too much power in the hands of one company is bad for business and bad for the nation.
—Kenneth Hallenberg, Austin, TX

Please stop whoring for the huge corporations!
—Joeyboey, gulfport, FL

If this is done, they will use their power to shut down free speech on the internet for anyone who can't afford to pay extra to //speak//. Please. Save us.
—A, philadelphia, PA

This merger will not expand options or the free market in media for customers. What it will do is consolidate more of our overly consolidated media. These companies must be required to prove that such a merger will benefit all Americans instead of only CEOs
—Thomas Varner, Lewisberry, PA

This merger is bad for consumers. Prices for cable will go up while content availability will go down.
—Brian Larson, Parker, CO

All Comcast customers already despise their monopolistic ways. PLEASE PLEASE do not strengthen their monopoly by allowing them to combine with Time-Warner
—M Teich, Boston, MA

Comcast is an EVIL company that cheats its subscribers. DO NOT LET IT EXPAND FURTHER.
—J Robinson, Boston, MA

A humble request to the FCC – Please do not approve the merger of Comcast and Time Warner Cable. I am a customer of Comcast and I am forced to use their service as there is no one else in the area. I have the lowest price package for internet and TV as cannot afford anything else. The service is very bad I never get the internet speed promised. When I have called the call center they refuse to believe that I have issues with their service and say that they can send a technician out to check but at a cost to me and they will add the cost in the next bill. This year they raised the rate of my package by almost $20.00. My humble request is to help more companies set up internet services rather than create a big company that will force customers to pay more and more and give less and less. Please do not approve the merger of Comcast and Time Warner Cable.
—GIt Din, Southfield, MI

The concentration of "information power" into a few hands is not good for the American People. The large ISP's like Time Warner and Comcast are alrready known for their poor quality, substandard service, and "milk them dry" approach to pricing. They cannot do a good job with what they currently control - why would anyone think they can do a better job as one large company? We need more competition, not less.
—Robert Lazarow, Huntington, WV

PLEASE STOP THIS MERGER. TWC IS A GOOD COMPANY, IF TAKEN OVER BY COMCAST THEY WILL BE ABLE TO RAISE OUR RATES WITH NO STOPPING THEM!! MY BROTHER HAS COMCAST AND THEY ARE TERRIBLE!!! Please stop this merger!!!
—Debbie Whitney, Statesville, NC

I oppose this monopoly-creating merger.
—Frank Gebauer, San Francisco, CA

if you want a free market and the right of choice to survive then we must stop thees mergers from tacking place compaction is what has always given use a better product and service
—Scott Dickenson, Bellflower, CA

also live in CO where Comcast is sole cable and act like the monopolist with dreadful service when there is an outage!
—Paul Robinson, Boca Raton, FL

Does anyone look out for consumers anymore? How uncompetitive/monopolistic does a merger have to be before you stop it? As a long time Comcast customer, I can attest that they are, by far, the least customer-oriented company I have ever dealt with. They happily take your money and put you through an unbelievably tortuous process to resolve any issue. This will give them more power to monopolize prices and services while giving them even less incentive to provide any level of customer service. PLEASE STOP THIS COMCAST-TIME WARNER MERGER!!!
—Dan Darnell, Fort Lauderdale, FL

Large corporations do not have a right to make money at the public's expense. Please do not allow this purchase. It will bode poorly for the American people.
—Sam Christo, Rock Hall, MD

In modern America, access to information and services via the internet is similar to having access to electricity during and after the great recession. High speed internet should be treated as a utility. It is the responsibility of the government to ensure what only a governmen can - that citizens have access to public resources for the public good. With no alternative to large corporationsproviding broadband access, we must regulate their actions to prevent abuse.
—Brendan Moss, Nashville, TN

If I had another option, I would not have Time Warner Cable. Unfortunately, it already has a monopoly in my area. Please do not make the monopoly bigger. The service provided by this company is terrible and very over-priced.
—Debra Scott, Kyle, TX worried about price fixing due to less competion

—Jeff Johnson, Minneapolis, MN

Putting this much power in the hands of one company is dangerous. This deal would lead to less consumer choice, less diversity, higher cable bills and threatens progress in innovation.
—Josh Baez, Pittsburgh, PA

Please stop this merger, no one should have this much power. It will become a form of brain control that panders to those in power at Comast and Time Warner. Stop this before it robs every unknowing watcher of their freedom!
—Isabel Skarzynski, Sandy Hook, CT

Stop the merger. It's not good for anyone except Comcast and Timewarner.
—Kristen Ratlliff, Parker, CO

Decreasing our internet choices will do nothing but keep our service prices high and customer service deplorable!
—Jarrell Planck, Richmond, IN

TW is already horrible, Comcast is already horrible, why enable two horrible, consumer-scamming companies to merge and be even more horrible and leaving us with fewer choices? This is bad, bad business for consumers.
—Lisa Wallace, Frankfort, KY

This merger is bad because they want to block The Blaze TV from being added to our channel line up and programming package! This is wrong, immoral and insanity!
—Gregory, New York, NY

When a company (Comcast) spends millions of dollars "donating" to public officials, it is common sense that something is very wrong. They are using money to secure a merger that in no way should happen. If their intentions and results would truly benefit the consumer, they would not need to spend money trying to skew the opinion of public officials.
—Roberto D. Olivares, Rochester, MN

Please stop this merger. This conglomerate will be able to unfairly set prices.
—Alena Sullivan, Casselberry, FL

The RFDTV channel has been dropped by both companies and other channels are not available. Independent producers of content will have to pay more or follow quidelines put out by Comcast.
—Carl Vandevender, Lafayette, IN

please don't let these company's merg
—James Gilbert, Port Richey, FL

Stop the merger
—Ashlee Davis, Overland Park, KS

We cannot allow this merger. Consumers will be crushed under the hell of this mammoth company if it merges and comes online. As it is customers already have little to no choice on cable companies, but the fact that the 2 biggest have to fight against each other for the battle to be the worst company is the only thing that makes either company treat its customers like the people paying them money. If allowed to merge why would either company ever fix any of their problems, they will not have to ever and will continue to get worse. Please block this merger.
—Tyler Coburn, Durham, NC

This merger will hurt the economy, it will hurt the strength of American competition. This merger is a universally bad business decision
—Denizhan Pak, Cordova, TN

Stop the cable duopoly.
—William McPherson, Denver, CO

Don't we have enough evidence in the former soviet union that monopolies are a disservice to humanity?
—James Goettsche, Federal Way, WA

This move is anti-consumer, anti-competition, and if this is approved, I hope we've found a way to generate electricity from how fast Teddy Roosevelt will be rolling over in his grave.
—Ryan Meray, Ferndale, MI

I am a subscriber of Time Warner and a former employee for Comcast subsidiaries and cannot express enough how this merger SHOULD NOT BE ALLOWED. Neither companies care about their service nor their customers (our TWC internet regularly goes on the fritz) and I can't see how this merger would benefit anyone that isn't get their pockets lined.
—Geoff Swett, North Hollywood, CA

ISP monopoly in a market that is already has controlled monopolies and little to zero customer choice. No thanks.
—Joshua Kahelin, San Diego, CA

I've had timewarner cable at different place's I've lived along with fios, different dsl providers, and comcast. No matter the problems had technically with with the internet and technologies provided by similar companies, monopolies can't exist if we are to remain a democracy. This is a direct quote form an email recieved to me by timewarner: "On February 13th, Comcast Corporation and Time Warner Cable announced that Time Warner Cable will merge with Comcast. This letter is to tell you more about the announced merger and what we expect in the months to come. This combination will create a world-class technology and media company - - with the ability to deliver groundbreaking products on a superior network - - that will provide a best-in-class experience for our business customers. As an added benefit to our business customers with multiple locations, our merged company will have much greater network coverage and reach, as the combined company will have a major presence in 23 of the top 25 DMAs (designated market areas). This will be a significant benefit to multi-location businesses as we offer advanced services like high-performance point-to-point and multi-point Ethernet services. For our customers of all sizes, we'll continue offering you the best and most reliable services that you've come to expect from us." They admit they will have a major presence in 23 of 25 of the top Designated Market Areas. This will allow them to bundle services to push out competition and increase revenue. This should be a blatantly obvious anti-trust case.
