Re: AT&T Services, Inc. v. Local Exchange Carriers of Michigan, Inc. et al., File Number EB-14-MDIC-0003

Dear Counsel:

On behalf of our client, AT&T Services, Inc. ("AT&T"), please find on the enclosed disc AT&T's production of documents in advance of mediation. The disc contains non-privileged documents that were identified on the document log that AT&T supplied in connection with its Formal Complaint in the Great Lakes Comnet matter, which include documents related to Local Exchange Carriers of Michigan (and thus that would be included in the log on any forthcoming formal complaint). The documents bear Bates numbers ATTProd_0000001 through ATTProd_0002042. The disc is encrypted, and a password will be provided separately via e-mail.

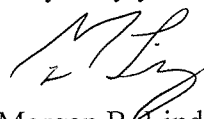

◆ ◆ ◆ ◆ ◆

Per the Protective Order in this matter, you are bound to honor AT&T's right to confidentiality concerning these documents, all of which are marked "CONFIDENTIAL," as that term is used in the Protective Order. In the event that this material, or any portion thereof, is or becomes the subject of a request for disclosure, AT&T requests prompt written notice of the request, as well as a reasonable time in which to object to disclosure, as provided for in the Protective Order.

Please contact me if you have any questions about the foregoing or the enclosed materials.

Very truly yours,
