Case Description

Description	I received my appeal notice for BEN 137079 , Form 471 Application #989105 today (October 1, 2018) stating I did not file an appeal within 60 days of First notification. The first letter I received was on August 21, 2018 which was a Demand for Payment of Debt owed to the United States. I believe I provided all the correct documentation that provided evidence we did what we were instructed to do by USAC based on the letter attached below. We never received notification in June as the appeal states our first notification happened. If I had, then we would have filed an appeal immediately because we feel as though we did everything according to instructions provided in August of 2017 as the attached notification states. We ask that you take this into consideration in your appeal decision. As far as we can tell, we did everything correctly as per USAC letter instructions except receive the initial notification on June 18, 2018. We did file an appeal after talking with USAC for directions on what to do on Sept. 9, 2018. We thought we were within our 60 days of initial notification. We were under the impression Aug. 21, 2018 was our first notification. Thanks for your consideration in this issue.
