Office of the Secretary

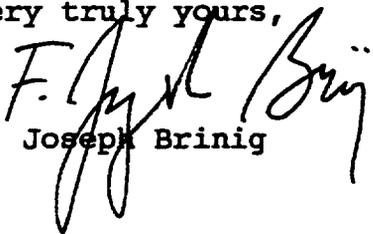

Dear Ms. Searcy:

On behalf of Missionary Action Projects, please find attached an application for a new noncommercial educational FM station on Channel 210 at Alexandria, Louisiana.

The applicant is a nonprofit corporation which will utilize the FM station for educational purposes. As a noncommercial application, there is no filing fee tendered with the application which is filed with the Office of the Secretary in Washington, D.C.

Should questions arise pursuant to this application, please contact this office.

Very truly yours,

F. Joseph Brinig

The applicant will seek to develop relationships with schools, educational institutions and other traditionally, educationally oriented charitable and public service organizations.

The applicant will utilize the facilities of the station to support the educational programs of the community: by broadcasting instructional programming, by broadcasting programming of substantial educational value to the whole community, particularly seeking to present materials the applicant determines to be needed to bring balance to the educational needs of the community, and by utilizing the station as appropriate for training students in the skills necessary for service in the broadcasting industry.

The applicant proposes to offer instructional, talk, music appreciation, news and family oriented programs.

ASSOCIATION OF EVANGELISTS OF THE CHURCH OF GOD

Anderson, Indiana

PURPOSE STATEMENT

The purpose of the Association of Evangelists of the Church of God, with general offices in Anderson, Indiana, is as follows:

1. To promote fellowship and counsel with persons who sense and respond to God's call to serve as full-time evangelists in the ministry of the Church of God;
2. To enhance the role and function of persons engaged in evangelistic work through proper recognition of their calling and ministry;
3. To share information with pastors, congregations and state leaders regarding the qualifications and availability of evangelists who are capable of filling a variety of needs in the Church of God;
4. To assist evangelists in the planning and scheduling of meetings in such a manner as to optimize their talents and best serve the evangelistic needs of the Church of God;
5. To work toward a more equitable plan of financial support in order to adequately compensate persons doing evangelistic work and thereby assure the continuance of their ministry;
6. To utilize more effectively the skills and talents of evangelists in the planting and development of the Church of God in new fields;
7. To encourage the exemplification of the principles of Christian ethics in the practice of professional evangelism;
8. To promote and encourage the work of revival and evangelism in the local congregations of the Church of God.
