Dear Mr. Stockdale and Ms. Harris:

The State of Colorado, by and through its Attorney General, is investigating the proposed acquisition of Sprint Corporation by T-Mobile US, Inc. to determine whether the proposed acquisition violates federal or Colorado state antitrust law. For purposes of that investigation, and pursuant to its subpoena powers under the Colorado Antitrust Act of 1992, § 6-4-101 et seq., Colo. Rev. Stat., the State of Colorado is seeking access to information contained in the Numbering Resource Utilization and Forecast (NRUF) reports filed by wireless telecommunications carriers and to disaggregated, carrier specific local number portability (LNP) data related to wireless telecommunications carriers.

The State of Colorado will not voluntarily divulge any documents or information it receives pursuant to this request, except in connection with a legitimate law enforcement purpose or a judicial proceeding. If a request is made under the Colorado Open Records Act for the disclosure of confidential information, the State of Colorado will assert all applicable exemptions that the Attorney General in good faith deems appropriate under applicable law. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions about this matter or need further information.

Sincerely,

FOR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
