I support net neutrality. The internet should be a free and open forum for all, not just those that can afford to pay for higher bandwidth. Please don't continue to let large corporations and big money corrupt America.