RENEWAL OF MUST CARRY COMPLAINT

Mauna Kea Broadcasting Company, Inc. ("Mauna Kea"), pursuant to Section 614 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and Sections 76.7 and 76.61 of the Commission's Rules, hereby renews its Complaint requesting that the Commission order Oceanic Time Warner Cable LLC and/or its subsidiaries and affiliates ("Spectrum") to commence carriage – immediately – of commercial television station KLEI-TV, licensed to serve Kailua-Kona, Hawaii (the "Station") on each and every one of the cable systems ("Systems") which: (a) are operated by Spectrum and (b) serve communities located within the Honolulu, Hawaii Designated Market Area (the "DMA"), including without limitation systems serving Oahu, Maui, Molokai, Lanai, Hilo and Kauai. Such mandatory carriage is in accordance with the Commission's must carry rules and policies and with the Commission's Memorandum Opinion and Order, Mauna Kea Broadcasting Company, 27 FCC Rcd 13188 (Policy Div. 2012) ("Carriage Order").

The Station's right to carriage throughout the State of Hawaii has been unequivocally established in the Carriage Order. The only factor relieving Spectrum of its carriage obligations vis-à-vis the Station was the fact that, in 2012, the Station did not deliver a good quality signal to Spectrum's Honolulu headend, from which, Mauna Kea understands, Spectrum feeds all of its systems throughout Hawaii. That problem has since been eliminated, as Mauna Kea expressly notified Spectrum by letter dated September 28, 2017. See Attachment A. The Station's signal is now carried on a multicast subchannel of Station KKAI, Kailua, Hawaii, which delivers a good quality over-the-air signal to Spectrum's Honolulu headend. Since the Carriage Order mandated that Spectrum commence carriage of the Station within 60 days of delivery of a good quality KLEI-TV signal to Spectrum's headend, the Station was entitled to carriage no later than November 27, 2017, i.e., within 60 days of Mauna Kea's notice to Spectrum.¹ Spectrum failed to initiate carriage by that date, and has failed to do so continuously since then.

In its September 28, 2017 notification letter to Spectrum, Mauna Kea also advised Spectrum that Mauna Kea was electing mandatory carriage of KLEI-TV for the next three-year carriage cycle commencing as of January 1, 2018. Spectrum has failed to honor that election, in plain violation of both the Commission's must carry rules and the Carriage Order.

Mauna Kea is, simultaneously herewith, sending Spectrum a letter demanding carriage pursuant to Section 76.61(a)(1) of the Commission's rules. Mauna Kea understands that, ordinarily, Spectrum would have 30 days (pursuant to Section 76.61(a)(2)) within which to respond. In the circumstances presented here, though, Mauna Kea submits that immediate intervention by the Commission is warranted. Spectrum has, after all, been subject to a specific order to carry KLEI-TV for more than five years already. Mauna Kea has satisfied the one condition to carriage set out in the 2012 Carriage Order.

Spectrum should not be permitted to shirk its well-established carriage obligations by forcing Mauna Kea into a re-run of procedural delays which Mauna Kea already suffered through more than five years ago. Further delay will merely reward Spectrum for its continuing unlawful failure to meet the rudimentary requirements of the Communications Act and the Commission's Rules. Rather, the Commission should act now to enforce the longstanding Carriage Order by requiring Spectrum to immediately commence carriage of KLEI-TV on all of Spectrum's systems throughout Hawaii in the same manner in which those systems carry other local over-the-air broadcast signals.

Equal treatment for all similarly-situated over-the-air stations is important because of the disparate treatment that Spectrum has historically accorded the Station. While Spectrum has carried KLEI-TV on its Kailua-Kona system, it has (as the Commission is aware) refused carriage on its other Hawaii systems because the Station supposedly did not provide Spectrum a good quality signal. But Mauna Kea offered to make arrangements through Hawaii Telecomm to deliver the station's signal to the Spectrum headend by fiber – as other stations reportedly do – and Spectrum declined, insisting instead that any such fiber connection would have to be arranged through Spectrum's own facilities, subject to ridiculously onerous terms that made it practically unfeasible. If Spectrum does not impose similarly onerous terms on other must-carry stations and other program suppliers, it should be barred from doing so with the Station.

Additionally, the means by which Spectrum has historically delivered must-carry signals to its subscribers have, in Mauna Kea's experience, been curiously disparate, and recent announcements by Spectrum suggest that that may continue. In the past, Spectrum has enabled viewing of some, but not all, local television signals without the need for a set-top box; subscribers not needing a set-top box could access those channels simply by plugging the cable line directly into their television receivers. KLEI-TV has not been among the stations accessible without a set-up box.

In 2017, Spectrum announced that it was planning to convert its service to “a 100% digital format”. See Attachment B. Subscribers were advised that, because of that conversion, they would be required to acquire and install a “Spectrum Receiver (or set-top-box) on each TV” in their homes by November 15, 2017, or they “will lose the ability to view a number of channels”. Id. The channels that would no longer be available included the multiple local television stations that have, according to Spectrum’s notice, historically been available to subscribers who simply plug the cable line into the back of their receivers. According to one Spectrum subscriber on Oahu, however, as of January 30, 2018, Spectrum programming is still fully accessible by running the cable line directly into the television.² See Attachment A.

Since the cost of each Spectrum Receiver is expected to be approximately $10 per unit, and a separate Receiver is required for each separate television set, the additional cost to subscribers is likely to be considerable.³ Obviously, if any local television stations may, notwithstanding Spectrum’s promotional materials, be accessed by plugging the cable line directly into the television without any intervening Spectrum Receivers (or other equivalent devices), such access would be competitively advantageous to those stations (since such access would come without the added monthly cost of one – or, more likely, multiple – Spectrum Receivers). Reliance on disparate means of delivering local must-carry stations to cable subscribers is contrary to the overriding goal of the statutory must-carry system, i.e., to provide all local television stations a level playing field through which to reach potential viewers. Accordingly, Mauna Kea strongly urges the Commission to take appropriate steps not only to require immediate carriage of KLEI-TV on all Spectrum systems throughout the State of Hawaii (as contemplated in the 2012 Carriage Order), but also to require that KLEI-TV's signal be delivered to Spectrum subscribers in the same manner as all other must-carry stations.

² A later notice from Spectrum set the date by which Spectrum Receivers would need to be installed as February 13, 2018. See Attachment C.

³ A special, temporary offer from Spectrum will, for a limited time, make a single Spectrum Receiver available for free for one year.

CONCLUSION

Mauna Kea is clearly entitled to mandatory carriage of the signal of KLEI-TV on cable systems operated by Spectrum in the Honolulu DMA. Mauna Kea has properly elected mandatory carriage – twice – and has notified Spectrum that the one condition to carriage specified in the Carriage Order has been met. Spectrum has not provided any response to Mauna Kea since its receipt of Mauna Kea's notification on September 30, 2017, forcing Mauna Kea to renew its 2012 Complaint (and initiate a separate complaint process for 2018). For the reasons set forth herein, Mauna Kea hereby respectfully requests that the Commission order Spectrum to immediately commence carriage of the Station in accordance with the must carry rules and policies and the Carriage Order and consistently with its carriage of other over-the-air broadcast stations in the Hawaii DMA.

Respectfully submitted,
