Re: Notice of Ex Parte Presentation

Petition of Charter Communications, Inc., for a Determination of Effective Competition in 32 Massachusetts Communities and Kauai, HI

MB Docket No. 18-283; CSR No. 8965-E

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On February 12, 2019, Maureen O’Connell of Charter Communications, Inc. (“Charter”) and the undersigned on behalf of Charter met with Evan Swarztrauber of Commissioner Carr’s office regarding the above-captioned matter.

During the meeting, we summarized the legal and policy arguments in support of a determination that DIRECTV NOW satisfies the LEC Test. As detailed in Charter’s Petition and Reply to Oppositions in this proceeding, we explained that DIRECTV NOW meets the LEC Test because it is a comparable video programming service that is offered directly to subscribers “by...means” other than direct-to-home satellite. We explained that the requirement that a LEC affiliate offer service “directly to subscribers” is nothing more than a requirement that the LEC affiliate must have (or offer to have) a direct customer relationship with consumers in the franchise area.¹ We also explained that, contrary to respondents’ contention, the LEC Test is not limited to video programming services delivered over LEC facilities.² Finally, we reiterated that the need for a broadband connection to receive DIRECTV NOW is not an impediment to the offering of DIRECTV NOW in light of the fact that more than 80 percent of households in Massachusetts and Hawaii subscribed to broadband in 2016, a number that has likely risen since then.³

Please contact the undersigned if you have any questions about this matter.

Sincerely,
