STATEMENT EXPLAINING HOW THE COMPANIES' OPERATING PROCEDURES ENSURE COMPLIANCE WITH THE FCC'S CPNI RULES

Onvoy, LLC, Minnesota Independent Equal Access Corporation, VoIP360, Inc., Voyant Communications, LLC, Broadvox-CLEC, LLC, Broadvox, LLC, Layered Communications, LLC and Onvoy Spectrum, LLC, ANPI, LLC, ANPI Business, LLC, Common Point, LLC, Inteliquent, Inc. (collectively the "Companies") have established policies, practices and procedures designed to ensure that they are in compliance with the Federal Communications Commission's ("Commission") rules regarding the use, disclosure and access to CPNI. The Companies provides this statement pursuant to Section 222 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and the Commission's rules pertaining to customer proprietary network information ("CPNI") set forth in Sections 64.2001-64.2011.

The Companies do not use or permit access to CPNI to market any services outside of the "total services approach" as specified in 47 CFR §64.2005. Nor do the Companies allow affiliates or third party access to CPNI for marketing-related purposes.

Consistent with the Commission's rules, the Companies use, disclose and permit access to CPNI without customer approval for the purposes of: (1) billing and collecting for services rendered; (2) protecting the rights and property of the Companies, other users, and other carriers from unlawful use; (3) providing inside wiring, installation, maintenance, and repair services; and (4) providing or marketing services that are within the same class of services to which the customer already subscribes.

The Companies have designated a CPNI Compliance Officer who is responsible for: (1) communicating with the Companies' attorneys and/or consultants regarding CPNI responsibilities, requirements and restrictions; (2) supervising the training of the Companies employees and agents who use or have access to CPNI; (3) supervising the use, disclosure, distribution or access to the Companies' CPNI by independent contractors and joint venture partners; (4) maintaining records regarding the use of CPNI in marketing campaigns; and (5) receiving, reviewing and resolving questions or issues regarding use, disclosure, distribution or provision of access to CPNI.

The Companies have implemented procedures to provide law enforcement with notice should a breach of CPNI occur. After notifying law enforcement and unless directed otherwise, the Companies will notify affected customers. The Companies will maintain a record of any CPNI-related breaches for a period of at least two years.

The Companies provides training concerning CPNI procedures. All employees of the Companies are required to maintain the confidentiality of all information, including customer information that is obtained as a result of their employment by the Companies. Employees of the Companies who do not abide by these policies or otherwise permit the unauthorized use or disclosure of CPNI will be subject to discipline, including possible termination.

The Companies disclose or release call detail information to customers during customer-initiated telephone contacts only when the customer provides a pre-established password. If the customer does not provide a password, call detail information is released only by sending it to the customer's address of record or by the carrier calling the customer at the telephone number of record.

The Companies permits customers to establish online accounts, but requires that an appropriate password be furnished by the customer before he or she can access any CPNI in his or her online account. Passwords may not be based upon readily obtainable biographical information or account information.

The Companies have adopted a policy that it does not and will not use, disclose or permit access to CPNI in connection with Companies' initiated marketing of services to which a customer does not already subscribe from the Companies.
