Re: In Reference to §63.71 Application of AT&T Corp d/b/a Lucky Dog Phone Co., WC Docket No. 18-163.

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On May 15, 2018, AT&T Services, Inc. on behalf of its affiliate AT&T Corp. d/b/a/ Lucky Dog Phone Co., filed the above-referenced 63.71 application to discontinue Lucky Dog Long Distance Service. This application was automatically granted on June 29, 2018 pursuant to the WCB's PN.<sup>1</sup>

On February 5, 2019, Kimberly Jackson, of the Wireline Competition Bureau, contacted AT&T and provided AT&T a copy of a comment that was filed in response to the WCB's PN. Specifically, a customer in Eugene, Oregon wrote the Commission seeking assistance to identify replacements for AT&T's Lucky Dog service. Shortly after receiving this comment, an AT&T representative attempted to reach the customer using the phone number provided in the letter by placing two calls on February 8th and one call on February 21st. The AT&T representative left a voicemail on February 8th, which included her name, contact information and informed the customer that the purpose of the call was to assist her
