Dear Sir,

Subject; WC DOCKET #18-155    Regard; Updating the Inter-carrier Compensation
Regime,

I am a minister in the Nationwide Mennonite Church. We have churches all over the US and Canada with a membership of around 6,000 people.

The "conference calling" service that we have been using for quite a long time is serving a very good purpose. In all of our churches we do not have the radio or TV. And this phone conference service has provided a good way for sharing the news such as Weddings, funerals, death notice, and other important news.

Please do not take this service away from us.

Thanks, Ezra Martin,

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

As a taxpayer, and a free conference calling client, I ask you to please reconsider acting on WC Docket No. 18-155. My free conference calling services are currently at risk of being completely eliminated and costing me, millions of others and our businesses.

I am urging you to refrain from eliminating services that I and millions of other Americans use regularly.

Long-distance carriers will not be negatively affected, financially or otherwise, if free conference calling services are left alone. In fact, they stand to gain upwards of $80 million.

However, if the FCC does decide to remove these services, I and millions of other American citizens and American businesses will be immediately and negatively affected. We will no longer be able to use these services for free and will instead be forced to pay for conferencing services provided by the long-distance carriers if we want to reach our non-profit organizations, our families, our churches, singing calls, news calls, prayer groups, support groups, board meetings, committee meetings, startups, schools, and global corporate communities and their families.

Widows and other lonely individuals are finding comfort in this type of free conference calling.

Do not take away my free conference calling services and further line the pockets of major long-distance carriers.

I ask the Federal Communication Commission to refrain from proceeding with its rulemaking in WC Docket No. 18-155.

Signed,

Your Name:

Eva Klabin
