

We are a small rural community in Iowa and our WiFi usage is very important to us. On any given day at least 10 people are using our WiFi to obtain job applications, look for jobs, print resumes, check email, Skype/Facetime with friends and family or just to play games. Without this service, our library would suffer immensely.