Re: Spectrum Bands Above 24 GHz et. al., GN Docket No. 14-177, IB Docket No. 15-256, WT Docket No. 10-112, and IB Docket No. 97-95

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On October 20, 2017, EchoStar Satellite Operating Corporation and Hughes Network Systems, LLC, (collectively “EchoStar”); Inmarsat, Inc. (“Inmarsat”); SES Americom, Inc. (“SES”), and O3b Limited (“O3b”), and The Boeing Company (collectively, and including Intelsat Corporation, WorldVu Satellites Ltd. d/b/a OneWeb, and Telesat Canada, the “Satellite Broadband Companies”) met with staff of the International Bureau and the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau regarding pending petitions for reconsideration and the pending further notice of proposed rulemaking in the above-referenced proceeding.

EchoStar was represented by Jennifer Manner, Senior Vice President, Regulatory Affairs, and Brennan Price, Senior Principal Engineer, Regulatory Affairs. Boeing was represented by outside counsel Bruce Olcott of Jones Day. Inmarsat was represented by Giselle Creeser, Director, Regulatory. O3b was represented by Will Lewis, Regulatory Counsel. SES was represented by Philippe Secher, Senior Manager, Spectrum Management and Development. Ms. Creeser, Mr. Lewis, and Mr. Secher joined the meeting by telephone.

International Bureau staff present in person were Jose Albuquerque, Chip Fleming, and Diane Garfield. Jennifer Gilsenan of the International Bureau staff and John Schauble of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau staff joined the meeting by telephone.

In the meeting the parties discussed Satellite Broadband Companies' joint letter filed in the above-referenced dockets on October 19, 2017, setting forth a proposal for a fair and spectrally efficient balance between the needs of Fixed-Satellite Service and Upper Microwave Flexible Use Service operators in the 28 and 39 GHz bands that addresses concerns raised by terrestrial interests throughout this proceeding. The proposed framework is also suitable for sharing in the 47.2-48.2 and 50.4-51.4 GHz bands.

Pursuant to the Commission's rules, this notice is being filed in the above-referenced dockets for inclusion in the public record. Please contact me should you have any questions.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Brennan T. Price
