Re: Expanding the Economic and Innovation Opportunities of Spectrum Through Incentive Auctions, GN Docket No. 12-268; and Incentive Auction Task Force and Media Bureau Seek Comment on Post-Incentive Auction Transition Scheduling Plan, MB Docket No. 16-306

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On March 30, 2017, representatives of T-Mobile USA, Inc.<sup>1</sup> ("T-Mobile") met with representatives of the Federal Communications Commission's ("Commission's") Incentive Auction task force ("IATF") regarding the above-referenced proceedings. The following individuals participated in the meeting on behalf of T-Mobile: Steve Sharkey, Chris Wieczorek, Cody Hogan; Mark Combs, Ilona Lindsay, Dan Urrutia, Shannon Reilly Kraus, and Dan Wilson (by phone); and Davina Sashkin, Fletcher, Heald, and Hildreth, PLC, counsel to T-Mobile. The following individuals participated in the meeting on behalf of the Commission: Gary Epstein, Jean Kiddoo, Erin Griffith, Blaise Scinto, Jennifer Tomchin, Charlie Meisch, Brian Smith, Mark J. Colombo, Kevin Harding, Hugh L. Van Tuyl, Geraldine Matisse, Matthew Hussey, Melissa Dunford, Hilary DeNigro, Evan Morris, Barbara Kreisman, Joyce Bernstein, Sasha Javid, Erik Salovaara (by phone), and Shaun Maher (by phone).

During the meeting, representatives from T-Mobile discussed the status of broadcaster and vendor preparations for the Post-Auction Transition and T-Mobile's engagement with various stakeholders to help identify and resolve transition hurdles. T-Mobile commended the IATF for its tremendous efforts in shepherding the Incentive Auction to conclusion and the tireless and creative work of the team in designing the Post-Auction Transition plan and procedures. In particular, T-Mobile noted that, based on transition data assembled by T-Mobile for more than
