

I believe that when applying for a new call sign from a call zone, that those living within the call zone should get priority over those living outside the zone. It's very unfair that a station applying for a W1 call sign and living in Texas would get the call sign instead of someone from New England where that call originates.