RE: Commercial Mobile Alert System Election – PS Docket No. 08-146; Wireless Emergency Alerts – PS Docket No. 15-91; Amendments to Part 11 of the Commission’s Rules Regarding the Emergency Alert System – PS Docket No. 15-94

Dear Ms. Dortch:

As part of the clarification on WEA participation as defined in the Wireless Emergency Alerts Second Report and Order, Cricket Wireless, a subsidiary of AT&T Inc., hereby clarifies that it is participating in the transmission of Wireless Emergency Alerts to its subscribers through the “in-part” election of Commercial Mobile Alert System (“CMAS”). In a prior submission to the Commission,¹ LCW Wireless License, LLC d/b/a Cricket was an independent company and filed a participation letter indicating that it was participating “in whole.” This letter is being filed to clarify Cricket’s current CMAS participation status.

Pursuant to the Commission’s rules, a copy of this letter is being filed electronically in the above-referenced dockets. Please do not hesitate to call me if you have questions.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joseph P. Marx
Assistant Vice President, AT&T Communications, Inc.

¹ See Letter to Marlene Dortch, FCC, from Suzanne Toller, Davis Wright Tremaine LLP, Counsel for LCW Wireless License LLC, PS Docket No. 08-146 (Sep. 8, 2008). Cricket’s election is now consistent with the election of AT&T Mobility. See Letter to Marlene H. Dortch, FCC, from Joseph P. Marx, AT&T Services, Inc., PS Docket No. 08-146 (Feb. 14, 2013); Letter to Marlene H. Dortch, FCC, from Jim Bugel, AT&T Services, Inc., PS Docket No. 08-146 (Sep. 8, 2008).
