PR Docket No. 92-119

To: Administrative Law Judge Joseph Chachkin

MOTION TO CHANGE PROCEDURAL DATES

The Chief, Private Radio Bureau (Bureau), by his attorneys, and the respondents, Charles P. Pascal and Sandra V. Crane, by their attorneys, move to change procedural dates, as indicated below.

No. of Copies rec'd 0+6

1. The procedural schedule adopted by order of the presiding administrative law judge calls for completion of discovery by August 24, 1992, and for submission, in writing, of the Bureau's case in chief by the same date.

2. The deposition of the principal Bureau witness, Christine McElwain was begun on August 4, 1992. It was not, however, completed on that date because of its length. Because of scheduling problems, the continuation of the deposition can not be scheduled until August 31, 1992.

3. The parties are in agreement that in order to accommodate completion of the McElwain deposition, the deadline for completion of discovery should be extended until August 31, 1992. The parties are also in agreement that, in conjunction with this, the date for submission, in writing, of the Bureau's case in chief should also be extended until August 31, 1992.

4. The movants respectfully request adoption of the proposed changes in procedural dates.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles P. Pascal
and Sandra V. Crane
