Re: In the Matter of USTelecom for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

For the last 50 years, I had been living in blissful ignorance under the false delusion that AT&T was actually comprised of human beings with actual families. Contrary to my deluded state I found the meaning of contentment under Sonic.

Over 50 years, I had attempted to have a satisfactory relationship with AT&T all to no avail. Ten years ago, having advanced in age, meaning is money scarcer than it was 50 years ago, I began seeking other choices for communication needs. Considering my numerous conflicts in phone bill charges, internet, bundles, overall discrepancies, and introductory offers which were only available for specific lengths of time, in small print, from AT&T, I was led by the grace of God to Sonic. Finally, I have found a company where there is no variance in month-to-month charges. All the fees are affordable, I believe Sonic considers me a person rather than a number to enlarge their profit. The people are benefited when there is competition. Please bear this in mind during your final analysis.

Sincerely,

LaVada James
