Re: In the Matter of Petition of USTelecom for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

My husband and I are homeowners who switched to Sonic about a year ago after experience with both Comcast, Verizon and AT&T. We have been thoroughly satisfied with the service Sonic provides and its cost - the same services provided have cut out bill in half. They don't require multi-year contract. On the other hand, we were appalled by the arrogance, the "service", and the lack of options provided by Comcast, Verizon and AT&T. We will NEVER go back to cable.

Competition for the consumer is critical in all fields - but particularly in this field you regulate. Its services remain relatively new and continue to morph and expand every day. To diminish competition in any way in this field is anti-competitive, un-American and a total disservice to the American public.
