Re: In the Matter of Petition of USTelecom for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

I am a customer of a business that is claimed to not exist (a small broadband provider making use of these rules to provide a competitive service) and paying for a product that it is claimed is never used (DSL via my small broadband provider). I used to be a customer of the big carrier behind my service but they jerked me around and treated me like I had no alternatives. Fortunately, I did. And my small service provider gives me competitive rates with far superior customer service.

Do not throw me back on the mercy of these giant corporations who dont have to give a crap about me in order to make a profit. My current company is currently working to install fiber and become less dependent on the big network, but they will be severely hampered moving forward if you make the WRONG decision here.
