Re: In the Matter of Petition of USTelecom for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

I receive DSL internet from Sonic.net, a competing telecom carrier in northern California.

I use Sonic.net over AT & T because Sonic has better prices and better service.

If the FCC moves to limit Sonic's ability to serve my needs, I will end up paying more money for worse service from AT & T.

If AT & T wants my business, they should be working to perform better than Sonic and competing on price. But instead they are lobbying the FCC to kill their competition.

Is the FCC really going to give in and let them do that?
