Re: In the Matter of Petition of USTelecom for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

If you do anything that forces me to go back to AT&T or the evil empire of Comcast I will be more than a little upset. As a consumer I have given both of those companies adequate tries and they were awful. I finally started using a small local DSL company, Sonic, and the service is SOOOOO much better. I actually get to talk to someone local when I call who wastes WAY less of my time solving any problems I have with their service. That is important to me. People who work there, stay there, which speaks volumes. You rarely have to deal with a new employee that doesn't know what they're doing. If you do anything to compromise the service that I enjoy you are definitely not acting in the best interest of the consumer.

Sincerely,

Dawn Matheson
