To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in reference to Docket No. 92-90, Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991. As a residential real estate sales agent for Concept 100 Real Estate, Inc., Lancaster, PA, I rely heavily on the telephone for person-to-person solicitations for both marketing as well as my business development. Imposing restrictions on my ability to use the telephone for my business would create a severe hardship in my ability to do a good job for those who hire me to market their properties, as well as in developing my own business.

I implore you to consider the importance of my being able to use the telephone without restrictions on person-to-person solicitation of residential properties when drafting your regulations to implement the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991.

Sincerely,

Re: In The Matter Of The Telephone Consumer Protection
Act Of 1991; Docket No. 92-90; Adopted April 10, 1992

Dear Secretary:

The undersigned Realtors would like to address the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991 (TCAP).

We are a group of hard working independent contractors in San Diego, CA. The vast majority of our phone calling is met with respect. When an answering party does not wish to talk about real estate, we politely excuse ourselves and terminate the conversation. Unlike electronic solicitation, or computerized calling; we do not call back. This should be evident by the few complaints you have received on this matter.

We ask you at this time to please leave unrestricted use of person to person calling just that way. It will allow us to earn income and pay taxes.

Thank you for the opportunity to approach the Commission.

Respectfully,
