Re: Consolidated Applications of XO Holdings and Verizon Communications Inc. for Consent to Transfer Control of Licenses and Authorizations, WC Docket No. 16-70

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Verizon Communications Inc. (“Verizon”) submits its first production of documents responsive to the Wireline Competition Bureau’s (“WCB”) Information and Document request (“Information Request”) dated June 22, 2016 in connection with the above-referenced transaction and in accordance with the Protective Order in this docket.¹ Because Verizon is producing documents that contain information that meets the requirements for treatment as “Confidential” and “Highly Confidential,”² Verizon is filing these documents pursuant to the procedures established in the Protective Order and in the Information Request. Enclosed please find a CD containing the Relativity load files associated with this production of documents, containing items tagged as “Highly Confidential,” “Confidential,” and “Public” in accordance with the Protective Order in this docket.

Verizon has made diligent efforts to ensure that none of the material it is submitting herewith is privileged under the attorney-client privilege or attorney work product doctrine. To ¹ XO Holdings and Verizon Communications Inc., Consolidated Applications for Consent to Transfer Control of Domestic and International Authorizations Pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, As Amended, Protective Order, WC Docket No. 16-70, DA No. 16-567 (rel. May 19, 2016) (“Protective Order”). As discussed with Commission Staff, Verizon will produce additional documents responsive to the Information Request on a rolling basis.

² Consistent with the Protective Order, id. at ¶ 3, Verizon obtained written approval from Commission staff to designate certain material as Highly Confidential.
