Re: MB Docket No. 17-179, Media Bureau Establishes Pleading Cycle for Applications to Transfer Control of Tribune Media Company to Sinclair Broadcasting Group, Inc. and Permit-But-Disclose Ex Parte Status for the Proceeding

Dear Ms. Dortch,

Enclosed please find the comments and petition signatures of an additional 30,754 Free Press members telling the Federal Communications Commission to reject the Sinclair-Tribune merger.

The petitions read:

To the Federal Communications Commission:

Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune should never be allowed to merge. If this deal goes through, a single company would own more than 200 local-TV stations reaching more than 70 percent of the country. That's far beyond the legal limits on media ownership and far too much power in the hands of a single company. Sinclair has evaded FCC rules, received FCC fines for airing propaganda, and drawn wide criticism for airing politically slanted content on its stations. The FCC should block this merger and restore policies that encourage a diversity of local media owners and a wide range of viewpoints.

The FCC must deny the Sinclair-Tribune merger. Sinclair has consistently proven itself to be an unworthy steward of the public airwaves — promoting racist commentators, spreading Trump propaganda, slashing newsroom staff, and forcing bigoted must-run content on local stations — and should not be rewarded with a merger that will allow the company to double down on its bad behavior. If the FCC approves this deal, Sinclair — already the biggest broadcaster in the country — will reach more than 70 percent of the U.S. population. The FCC had to slash nearly every existing media-ownership protection to make this merger possible — a major shift the agency made without providing any chance for public comment. We urge the FCC to listen to communities and block this despicable deal.

We're depending on you to reject the Sinclair Broadcast Group's bid to merge with Tribune Media. There's no way a single corporate voice can speak to the local realities of more than 70 percent of the U.S. population. Right now, you have the power to stand up against corporate forces that want to monopolize broadcast airwaves — a public resource that should reflect the rich diversity of cultures and viewpoints that makes our communities vibrant. Please deliver the ethical leadership we deserve. Stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger and restore our faith in your commitment to the public interest.

We urge the FCC to listen to communities and block this despicable deal.

Best,

Candace Clement

Local control of media is fundamental to democracy in the United States, and this proposed merger is not in the interests of the American people.

WHAT YOU CAN DO: It’s Easy: File a comment with the FCC about the Tribune Sinclair merger: Step 1: Link to the express form. Step 2: In the field labeled “Proceeding(s)”, type 17-179 . That will bring that proceeding up. Step 3: Fill out the rest and send. Need verbiage? Here you go: “Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune should never be allowed to merge. I believe we regulation that keeps individual media companies from having too much influence. I also am against the loosening of ownership rules allowing this. In effect I am AGAINST the Sinclair-Tribune merger.

—Christopher Gossett, Howe, TX

This should NOT be allowed to happen in America! This is taking us to a dictatorship with propaganda news!!

—Kathy Dennis, Denison, TX

One company should not be able to reach 70% of the country.

—Alice L. Lee, New York, NY

Freedom of the press is a fundamental principle in this country. Any move that results in the loss of local control over news reporting is dangerous and undemocratic.

—Janet L. Flowers, Hillsborough, NC

this is a horrible violation of every aspect of democracy.

—Bryna Levin, New York, NY

I am advocating the boycott of all Sinclair stations and advertisers.

—Rhonda Tinsley, Spring City, TN

I am strongly opposed to this takeover. If it is allowed to go through, we will lose our local news and viewpoint.

—Kathleen Hernandez, Munster, IN

We are approaching a very slippery slope with respect to local news stations being used as a tool for propaganda and not unbiased reporting of the facts should we allow the Sinclair/Tribune merger; a merger that will control over 70% of local tv and radio stations. For the poor and rural areas of this country where for many, local stations are the only way to view news and current events, this proven biased ownership will have the ability to shape opinions i.e. through propaganda should the owners decide to do so and apply significant pressure to local stations to present one point of view. The FCC should reinstate efforts to disallow the formation of monopolies. Do not be a part of repeating the tragic histories of the propagandizing of one party, one viewpoint over others. That heightens the dangers of forming dictatorships given the power and sway media can have to shape opinion.

—B Devine, Jefferson, GA

Please don't let socialism take our freedom. A few telling many what to listen to and watch. Our forefather never would allow this. DON'T let this merger happen.

We need to hear many viewpoints and not have a monopoly on the news by one company that broadcasts propaganda.

—Scott T. Miller, San Jose, CA

The gutting of regulations to insure a spectrum of opinion and prevent unchecked FAKE NEWS over the last several decades (especially the Fairness Doctrine) is a danger to Conservatives, Liberals, Alt-whatever, Christians, Jews, Atheists... basically, everyone. The FCC needs to insure no one can take over the airwaves - what if Apple or Google ended up owning Sinclair as Bezos (Amazon) owns the Washington Post...?

—Scott Munsey, Arlington, MA

Dont allow this take over .

—Ann murphey, Rolla, MO

No! Do not allow Sinclair Broadcasting Group to take over Tribune. Uphold free speech and the importance of independent press and encourage diversity of media. This consolidation is not good for our local communities!

The FCC was largely a conservative founded institution designed to protect "delicate sensibilities" from having to deal with the "Crazy Hollywood Liberal Elite" who wanted to discuss things like interracial marriage, evolution, free speech and other crazy anti-civilization notions. So I guess it isn't really a surprise that you are willing to violate (or suddenly change) so many of your own rules when it's a right wing media outlet that wants to basically become a monopoly. Shame on you.

We're seeing an absolute tyranny take over this country which is extremely hostile to the free press. We're in imminent danger of losing our democracy if such mergers are allowed to take place. This is a red alert from coast to coast.

Sinclair's attempt at controlling the media to push conservative propaganda and the FCC enabling this expansion of that behavior are shameful. At a time when America is so divided, we do not need more attacks on truth and integrity.

—Kelly Hartman, Haddonfield, NJ

We need to keep our media free and with diverse viewpoints. Allowing a company like Sinclair media to own such a large portion of media outlets will be a step backwards in regards to America having a true "free press." We need our media to hold people in power accountable and not just rubber stamp any of the ideas they are promoting. Please vote against this merger. We cannot have one company with this much power to influence. Thank you for your time. Ken Leventon San Jose, CA

—Kenneth Leventon, San Jose, CA

Our local ABC affiliate stations, Channel 7 and 4 in Traverse City, MI are under attack and in danger of being absorbed into Sinclair broadcasting. No media company should have this much influence on the public and our right to unbiased information. Stand up for the public's right to know.

—Carole Mann, Macon, GA

The FCC is challenged to prevent any one media company from controlling a large percentage of media coverage. Do not allow Sinclair Broadcast Group to take control of Tribune.
—Marilyn smith, Petoskey, MI

Our democracy is strengthened by free access to information. Sinclair has been shown to attempt to undermine public confidence in other news sources. The consolidation of media into a few private hands poses a great risk to an informed citizenry.
—Laurie Mecham, Salt Lake City, UT

Sinclair Broadcasting is a monopoly and should not be allowed to expand
—Chris Noyes, Hillsdale, NJ

People that only hear one side of “ Trump friendly “ news have corrupted opinions about it, it’s clear! Most people are followers ,very few leaders! So it is upsolutely necessary to limit exposure to such a gigantic network of many deliberately false news reports and their opinions! This should never be allowed and we all need to speak out against it, it’s common sense to keep our democracy!
—Ingrid W. Eichenbaum md Eichenbaum, New York, NY

KOMO Seattle is a Sinclair propaganda station.
—Donna Joyce Musgrove, Stanwood, WA

Heck no, and the propaganda literally produced by ex-Russian TV producers that Sinclair is forcing on their stations has no place on American TV, and certainly not across such a broad swath of channels in the USA.
—Colby Allerton, Venice, CA

We do not need to have a President with his own “state tv”! We are not Russia or at least not yet!!
—Cindy Cohen, Thornton, CO

Local news is important and it should remain local. It should not become a propaganda machine.
—Linda Deacy, Carson City, NV

The Free Press of the USA is enshrined in our constitution. But we Cannot let this Sinclair merger go through. Otherwise, this threatens or could probably independent and local media which holds the people in power accountable for their actions. What happened in Putin's Russia is Putin destroyed independent media and propped up propaganda of his, and now Russia is full-on dictatorship. The USA is a constitutional democracy, with a freedom of the press, and this Sinclair merger serves a potential existential threat to our free press, and action must be taken to stop it!
—Kevin Kljyan, Astoria, NY

We need diversity not monopolies on the media. Say no to this merger!
—Lisa H, Gilbert, MN

I am vehemently opposed to the pending takeover of the Tribune by Sinclair. There should be limits. We used to watch a local cbs station until something very weird was reported. I checked the story and found that Sinclair bought the station and was basically running the so-called news. We avoid that station's news and will diligently watch for any new mergers in our viewing area. By the way, I'm one of the so-called over 65's that will never watch Trumptv, fox or Sinclair owned tv.

—Karen Hausner, Central City, IA

We are a DEMOCRACY Stop this NOW!

—, New York, NY

Propaganda needs to stay out of our news. Sinclair Broadcasting has clearly already crossed the line on this end.

—Belinda Greb, Vida, OR

The fact that Sinclair forces its local news affiliates to run stories and read editorials pushing a political agenda, rather than controlling their own reporting and editorials is anathema to our nation's long and proud tradition of press freedom. The FCC and/or Congress should ensure that trusted local reporters and anchors are not treated like party stooges and mouthpieces. Not only should this merger be blocked, but the FCC should fine Sinclair Broadcasting directly anytime it forces its political or ideological agenda down the throats of its affiliates' employees and viewers. Sincerely, Joshua Saulle

No one source should have control over disposition of and reporting of national and local news. This would weirdly bias and totally cloud the honesty and transparency of events. Sinclair is way on the Right of Conservatism...basically becoming Trump Tv. SERIOUSLY... NO ONE SOURCE SHOULD CONTROL THE NEWS. PERIOD. THIS COUNTRY IS TURNING UPSIDE DOWN. Pathetic leadership, unaccountability, responsibility ALL lacking in our current State of our Union. Sinclair gets the nod to merge into a media monster, the People will suffer that consequence of undermining our freedoms of speech. AMENDMENT NUMBER 1

The mandatory inclusion of one-sided political commentary in the guise of local news is a blatant example of Sinclair's abuse of its ownership power, aimed directly at corrupting our political process by undermining the legitimacy of local news coverage. —Sasha Restrepo, Garland, TX

This needs to stop now.

—Mr. Kevin Treine, columbia, MD

Putting so much power into one group who will control what is communicated to the public is totally very dangerous for a free and democratic society especially when untruths and negative news is broadcast throughout the country and thus cause great division in our country. This will not make America Great but put us on the road to a dictatorial society controlled by a few. Is that what we want????? This union should not be allowed if we wish to have a free and uncontrolled media. If we wish to go the way of Russia, China, Turkey, etc., approve it. But I hope common sense prevails and people see the danger in allowing this union to happen. Bless America and God save our country from those who wish to destroy it one step at a time, which I believe in many ways is already happening.. Please stop this union for all our sakes. .

—Megan Spencer, Syracuse, NY

Have you been watching how Sinclair already has been playing Big Brother with its current 200 local TV stations? Journalism professionals are required to parrot corporate bias and present it as actual news content. In the process, communities across the country are deprived of the kind of free and unfettered journalism called for in the constitution and protected by court rulings over more than 200 years. Permitting Sinclair to absorb Tribune properties, making this biased and Orwellian conglomerate capable of reaching 70 percent of American households, is unthinkable. On the contrary! The FCC should investigate whether Sinclair already owns too many TV outlets, because Sinclair is already threatening American freedom.

No private media corporation should have the ability to push their agenda on massive numbers of viewers. This was illegal not too long ago until Reagan era vulture capitalism. No media outlet should be able to deluge us with propaganda. Sinclair and other broadcasting groups should be forced to divest and to be less influential. You should represent what's best for American citizens, not corporations.

Is this the US or Russia?????

—JoAnn Snader, Ellicott City, MD

I want news, not a script cooked up in unison with some right-wing think-tank. Only independent stations can deliver it. Stop the mega-merger.

—Tom Peters, Eureka, CA

Control the Message Control the People

—Julian Parks, Rego Park, NY

Please do your job. Search for integrity, your love of liberty, anything that will assist you to do the right thing. This is a democracy. If you want communism or a dictatorship, I am sure that we can find a more suitable country for you. If not, the free press is an essential component.

—Roberta Davis, Henrietta, NY

I'm very against this Monopoly merger. Tv's will burn if this happens..Bigly, Yuge, trust me" =selling garbage.

—Ron Ross, Santa Margarita, CA

Sinclair is putting the First Amendment at risk.

—Sondra Yoshikane, Fountain Valley, CA

Stop the idiotic madness of politics ruling news!

—Price M. Cook, Everett, WA

I strongly oppose Sinclair taking over local news. I strongly oppose these right wing jerks from taking over more stations. They will do the Pavlov brain hack on the public. Do not allow Sinclair to merge.

—Cecilia Ponicki, El Paso, TX

If they are going to force local news to read scripted news opinions without disclosure - that should be illegal.

—Jack Agnew, Atlanta, GA

We need a free press. Not one run by the president like a dictator.

—Maria E. Grant, Tucson, AZ

This must not be allowed to happen in America. Please stop The Sinclair/Tribune merger now.

—Pat, Albany, OR

Stop Sinclair from buying WNEP-TV, we don't need their propaganda here.

—Anthony Valenzano, Archbald, PA

It is thoroughly anti-American that any broadcast owner would be granted ownership of three quarters of the TV news market. The merger of Sinclair with Tribune must not be approved. If this merger is granted, harm to the FCC's mission credibility would be grave and the backlash fierce and resolute. Don't cross so egregious a line.

—Larry Head, Sun City, AZ

The consolidation of more media companies under one ownership is a depressing blow to our country's foundation of a free and INDEPENDENT press! This merger will lead to more fake, politically influenced press.

—Frederick Rogers, Santa Rosa, CA

I have grown up with all the major news stations and am 70nyrs old, and now trump is trying to say that media is “fake”? Fuck him and his oligarchs!

—Sandi Rhodes, Keaau, HI

Don't merge.

—L, Houston, TX

Fight for democracy!
—Sandy St John, Weaverville, NC

Allowing a company that has made a deal with the current administration - a quid pro quo - interviews and access to the candidate in exchange for "positive" coverage of the candidate. Check Russian, Chinese, North Korean and Hitler's German control of the media. 70% owned stations across the US -is a severe monopoly - and has the potential to violate constitutional freedom of speech and press. DO NOT ALLOW THIS MERGER!
—Gail Talbott, Cocoa Beach, FL

Come on - open your eyes, and take a stand for democracy in the United States! Trump is a liar and a manipulator, and if you can't see that, then wake up! Things are going in the WRONG direction with this country, and please do not help Trump push his discriminatory and self serving messages to the masses. He has no integrity, and he is scary. Look at the facts - all of the WH firings, and the fact that no respectable lawyer wants to represent him in the Mueller investigations...because he is "a bad hombre" as he so frequently likes to say! HE IS BAD NEWS. DO NOT AID HIM IN PUSHING HIS AUTHORITARIAN MESSAGES!
—Sally Bishop, Parkville, MD

This must be stopped. No conglomerate should have more than 1/3 of the media control in the country.
—Michael Lowder, Denver, CO

This is an outrage! What can I do? Who has the power to change this? Thanks
—Florie Lehrburger, Denver, CO

This represents a dangerous escalation of single source media
—C Axell, Santa Rosa, CA

Stop the Sinclair Merger with Tribune. Trump and Kushner shouldn't control the news.
—Jennifer Hiam, Tacoma, WA

Do your job to protect the First Amendment. Mr. Trump just underscored the unconstitutional relationship between Sinclair Broadcasting and the Executive Branch, treading dangerously close to state-run media, having already crossed the line into state-sanctioned and state-endorsed media. This proposed monopoly, combined with this week's blatant attempt to impose a political stance on previously independent journalists is a threat to fundamental American principles.
—Laurie Pessano, Clovis, CA

The recent simultaneous, mass "statement" by news anchors of all Sinclair stations demonstrates conclusively that Sinclair is anathema to "local" news programming. The monopolistic concentration of "local" news into one private provider must not be allowed.
—Paul Weeks, Bangor, ME

Stop Pravda America. Make America Free Again!
—Robert Johnson, Medford, NJ

37% of the country gets its news locally. Sinclair is a huge -company with 72% penetration. It is ruled from corporate MD. with must runs that are slanted, even as it bemoans "fake" news. This is not local news--it is controlled. DO NOT BE THE FOX guarded the HENHOUSE. Think DEMOCRATICALLY and LEGALLY.

—Todd Larsen, McKinleyville, CA

The FCC should be looking at protecting the integrity of news media by discouraging large mergers. Companies like Sinclair have insidiously demonstrated how they use their affiliates as propaganda machines. This is frightening and an attack on free press. What is our democracy without a free, independent press? I urge you to protect our country and vote against the merger between Sinclair and Tribune.

—Marion O Arnold, Ellsworth, ME

Sinclair is clearly deceitful in it's desire to profit and push the nation to the extreme right. Massive media consolidation and deceit is not in the public interest.

—David Agnew, Wellfleet, MA

stop this horrible, biased network!

—Thomas Booth, Caldwell, ID

Sinclair Broadcasting and it's "must air" policies and practices MUST be stopped. These practices do not belong in a democracy.

—Carol Kreider, Avon, IL

I believe that the Sinclair Broadcast Group has proven itself unworthy of the responsibility of providing truthful news to Americans. This was most recently demonstrated by its forcing news anchors to read a prepared statement claiming to represent the anchor's own views on "fake news" by other providers. This is dangerous and un-American.

—Mark Delligatti, Alexandria, VA

Journalism should be free. It should not be dictated by corporations or politicians.

The "must-run" about "bias in news" and "fake report" they imposed on local news stations is hypocritically the very thing they are supposedly railing against. Please stop this merger. Democracy is founded on freedom of the press and having a "Big Brother" regulating content is a step towards totalitarianism and the end of democracy.

—Bonnie Akimoto, OAKLAND, CA

Save American democracy by BLOCKING the Sinclair merger!

—Erika Jones, Santa Fe, NM

Sinclair owns Fox News, Fox News Sean Hannity had been perpetrating a conspiracy theory about the Seth Rich murder on his nightly Fox News show. He continued this horrendous story for weeks claiming Seth Rich was involved in the email leaks, reason for his murder. This was a complete and utter lie, yet Fox News has no shame about perpetrating this lie about an individual that was murdered, no empathy for his family, Sean Hannity just wanted to push a conspiracy theory at anyone's cost. This is not news, this is \propaganda and if this merger happens, their News outlets will be "BrainWashing" the American Public with false hoaxes and conspiracy theory's instead of the Factual News. You must Block This Merger for our Democracy!

—Neal; Stianson, Springfield, OR

Allowing a biased news outlet to have access to 70% of the American people is an atrocity. The merger of Sinclair and Tribune should NOT be allowed in a free America.

—Jean Hepner Jack, Woodstown, NJ

This merger should not be approved. The FCC should stand up for democracy and block this merger.

—Denise Caruso, Pittsburgh, PA

We must stop this Orwellian takeover.

—Ms. Terese Svoboda, Greenport, NY

The FCC is supposed to be an independent agency that oversees holders of broadcast licenses in a manner that benefits the public interest, not a political group or any individual, regardless of their position.

—Anne Boyd, Rancho Cordova, CA

This merger would lead to state-run media. Local TV stations should be relied upon to provide unbiased news coverage, not be required by its owners to present a specific, biased message. What a disaster this would be. Opinion newscasts should be identified as such and not be permitted to insinuate into our local broadcasts. STOP THIS MERGER.

—Pam Hendrickson, Great Falls, MT

The FCC is supposed to support democracy, not oligarchy!

—Leslie McClure, Seattle, WA

Upon knowing the already planned strangle of free press, the socialist statement anchors forced to read, who need to feed families, you should not approve this merger. Can you recall such actions taken during wars and conflicts, Korea and Vietnam, with POW's forced to choose between confessions or immediate death and torture? Such tactics also are continued today. And the strangle would not stop at this statement. Also have you looked at how laws against illegal monopolies would be broken with this merger?

—Vee Scotty, Independence, MO

NO NO NO thank you!

—Annie Costa, Penn Valley, CA

Diversity ensures the 1st amendment. Monopoly is what leads to Fascist dictators - We will NOT stand for this!

—Connie Ehrlich, Eugene, OR

You are supposed to protect the citizens of this country ... so do it!

—Lisa Uhlenbrock, Saint Louis, MO

Free press is the cornerstone of democracy.

—J Kathleen Andrews, Freedom, PA

It has been said a lot lately, but some people need to hear it again and again. Hitler perfected the dismantling of the right to speak freely and have any balanced news. A merger such as this is just one step to taking away the freedom of unbiased speech. (in other words: purchased bias to enrich the 1% and eventually put the boot on the necks of the masses. It happened before, it can happen again.

—Judith Jensen, Santa Rosa, CA

What Sinclair Group is doing is what is bad for democracy. All Americans should be scared out of their wits! Please don't let this continue.

I don't want to see a pro-Trump/conservative broadcast stations, but independent stations!

—Kenneth Adams, Radcliff, KY

—Dell Goldsmith, Portland, OR

Hypocrisy ABOUNDS! To ignore the fact that Sinclair is already attempting to dupe and divide the American public (that would be propaganda and a danger to Democracy), I would say is grounds to fear.

—Robin Hunter, Dayton, NV

This is extremely dangerous to our democracy!

—Violet Martin, Fenton, MI

Don't allow propaganda to erode the First Amendment!

—Christine Lemarier, Conroe, TX

Dear Mr. Pai, I'm a voter from North Syracuse, NY. SINCLAIR Broadcasting merger with Tribune Media is a threat to our democracy. Co much consolidation of media in one company prevents alternative views from being heard. Especially since Sinclair is known for pushing its own ideology on the stations it owns. I'm writing in opposition to the merger of Sinclair Broadcasting and Tribune Media. The merger will expand Sinclair's reach beyond its legal audience cap of 39% to a massive 72% of US households. The FCC should not bend rules or roll back regulations in order to grow Sinclair's pro-Trump, right-wing messaging. Free Press is vital for a healthy democracy, and the scripted, forced messaging into our local news is over the line of ethics. In the fervor to protect the 2nd Amendment, we forget how to protect our Free Access to information without the political taint of bias, and in my opinion, the First Amendment is much more crucial to the survival of our Democracy. Thank you,

—Edward Pospiech, Syracuse, NY

The rural south has much to fear.

—Kay Pruvich, Oakland, CA

The American people need access to a wide range of viewpoints in order to make informed decisions.

—Carolyn Hamilton, Weaverville, NC

This is astounding, though not surprising. Beguiling us with bullshit...not gonna work on me or millions of others who are informed by facts.

—Pamela Hayes, Loveland, CO

Because the 2016 election was rigged and was such a sham we are now in dangerous times created by putin, trump and their oligarchs who are now trying to continue to control the minds of the gullible, low informed and racist voters. This is the game they play and russia continued interference is their ACE card in the 2018 elections. Please do not allow this merger by sinclair broadcasting group and Tribune. It would be a continuing disaster and attack on our democracy and freedom.

—Eloise Jones, Lemon Grove, CA

This cannot be allowed to go through! Stand up for what is right!

—Janice Jones, Walled Lake, MI

Please stop the Sinclair Broadcast Group from owning 42 stations! This latest broadcast on Sinclair is propaganda!

—Maureen Culbert, East Springfield, NY

I don't get how the 12-12-12 rule can comport with 200+ tv stations being owned by one company. Oh right, I almost forgot. We live in a corrupt, lawless so-called democracy now. And the FCC, right behind P-Trump and the head of the EPA, is leading charge.

—Debra Dresbach, Los Angeles, CA

This is unacceptable and has been every time it has been proposed over the last 10 years!

—Kathleen Lavery, Essex Junction, VT

tRump is a liar and every other immoral character trait you want to call him, therefor he does not deserve a platform to shout his lies and distortions from. He(trump) will end up in prison.

—David Ballou, Missoula, MT

This merger borders on monopoly in the local media business, keep locally media independent.

—Richard White, Saint Leonard, MD

Block this merger!!!

—Mayor Jeremy Harris, Anahola, HI

Why does the FCC entertain this? Oh, right, Trump!

—Nancy Socha, Hackettstown, NJ

Sinclair's simulcast of an attack on true press/journalists would have our news coming from one autocratic source if left to their own devices, much like China, Russia, North Korea. This has happened before and should be something every American should vigorously resist. Please do not permit their merger with the Tribune.

—Dale & Mary Erdmann, Austin, TX

Sinclair is too propagandistic already. NO MORE!

—Katie Johnsonius, Eureka Springs, AR

The proposed merger of Sinclair and Tribune is totally NOT acceptable. I personally have stopped watching KOMO-TV in the Seattle broadcast area because of not just the message the anchors are forced to make, but also because Boris whoever he is spewing propaganda. I would hate to see one of my favorite local stations go under due to boycotting the advertisers because the people at the station don't deserve this, and I know they don't agree with the BS spewed by Sinclair.

—Phyllis Wilbourne, Everett, WA

We are staring the death of democracy in the face!

—Chester Johnson Jr, San Antonio, TX

Let's stop them. They are the king of fake news!

—Lorraine Airey, Point Pleasant Beach, NJ

Spreading propaganda is NOT journalism.

—Ronni Gerstel, Lake Worth, FL

Having the highly partisan Sinclair media merge with media giant Tribune would be dangerous to the free press of the United States.

—John Balash, New York, NY

Stop this additional take-over. This is State Media. Researching for all advertising sponsors and will BOYCOTT!

—Rebecca Kitchings, Riverside, CA

We cannot allow one company to have so much power over the news that people never hear the facts!

—Barry Huntley, Winston Salem, NC

Do not aid and abett this current dictatorship. Freedom of the press is essential to the survival of a democracy

—Penny Burley, Camarillo, CA

This isn't Nazi Germany yet but if this deal goes through the USA will be dangerously close to becoming a Nazi state with no turning back. That's not where I want to Be! Don't let this deal go through.

Please stop this Sinclair take over it's not right.

—Philip brown, oak brook, IL

please don't authorize this takeover

—Patricia A Thorn, Henderson, NV

Unbiased news is one of the cornerstones of our democracy. Sinclair is FAKE news. We will stand up to this.

—Sharon Vatne, Redmond, WA

No! Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune should NEVER be allowed to merge!

—Diane Lombardi, Valhalla, NY

We need real news, not propaganda.

—Jeannine Clark, Spanaway, WA

Allowing one group to own more than 170 local TV news stations across the nation unscrupulous. I am especially offended by their "gestapo" like tactics telling their broadcasters to say exactly the same words and then warning them not to talk to the public. Should we expect them to raise their right arms and salute? Please don't allow this.

—Linda Yuhas, Coram, NY

NO TRUMP TV!

—Daniel Boggs, Chincoteague Island, VA

Just say no to a corporate takeover of tv and radio stations. We do not need to broadcast myopic editorials catering to the one percenters . We the PEOPLE want intelligent, diverse journalism and reporting. He who destroys the free exchange of ideas and information destroys our nation.

—Donna Schwichtenberg, Bethesda, MD

This sounds incredibly like a monopoly aiming at ending a "free press," replacing it with cuddly Trumpian state TV. We need to have real research and reporting, like I was taught by my teacher way back in high school when I was taught I had to have facts that supported my stories, like journalism. This recent robot forced reading across Sinclair media points out the problem with allowing one person gobble up all the local stations. Please, America relies on a free press. Without it, we will become just another Russia/China or any other country where the truth is no longer available to its people. Yes, that sounds crazy, but so is doing nothing about the wannabe-a-dictator occupying the White House. Sincerely, Susan Cypher

—Susan Cypher, Grand Junction, CO

Please do not let Sinclair Broadcasting add more stations and increase their media ownership! They are too big already. Just say NO.

—Jeannine Griffin, Portland, OR

The loss of a true free press will be devastating. Stop this!

—Richard Butler, Bay City, MI

Please get trump the dump out of office also!

—Gerard Stokes, Ellicottville, NY

I am very disappointed in the under handed way that Sinclair forced KOMO to bow to the Trump way of thinking. News should be fair to both sides and not try to fool people with fancy threats and manipulation. Just say no to merger please.

—Sandra Bolender, Gig Harbor, WA

Have stopped watching any Sinclair affiliate

—william Browne, Bigfork, MT

If there are no laws against airing propaganda on the Sinclair stations there should be. Do not allow this company to get any larger. They are a menace to democracy.

—Daniel C Davidson, Metuchen, NJ

THIS IS PERVASIVE PROPAGANDA AND MUST BE STOPPED. DO NOT APPROVE OF THIS MERGER.

—Chris Stafford, Snowmass, CO

This is abominable and must be stopped. We've allowed a snake into the garden, kill it quick.

—Jennifer Dvoranchik, Park City, UT

Please continue to allow diversity in local broadcasting

—Michael Rossman, Sacramento, CA

Ajit Pai needs to be investigated for his actions in promoting the Sinclair Tribune deal that promotes fake news.

—Lucy Post, Hobe Sound, FL

We must assure the fourth estate is free from monopoly. Clearly, Sinclair has demonstrated their need for everyone to speak with one voice. If I want opinion, I'll read the editorial pages.....and just when our country had forgotten about McCarthyism and loyalty cards.

—Jo Chrisco, Greensboro, NC

The Sinclair-Tribune merger is wrong for a country that claims to be a democracy.

—Scott Miller, San Jose, CA

Stop the Sinclair Tribune merger!!

—Laura Sandell, Sammamish, WA

The video of all the local anchors reciting the Sinclair corporate talking points as if they were their own words the scariest thing I have ever seen.

—Sarah Delaney, Olympia, WA

This merger scares me. Sinclair Broadcast Group makes me think of an Orwellian society.

—Cathie Marshall, Germantown, MD

A merger between Sinclair and Tribune threatens a free media and the public interest.

—Lori Schwenzer, Denver, CO

FCC please deny this merger and stop this monopolistic behavior. Dangerous for our democracy!

—Gregory Ellis, Bellingham, WA

I am alarmed by Sinclair Group's actions targeting local news for ridiculous and misleading stories. This is an affront to our democracy. Regulatory approval will place far too much influence over the public giving Sinclair access to over 70% of U.S. households. The founding fathers of this country understood the importance of a free and independent press. Approving this merger would turn that idea on its head.

—James McLean Esq., Cincinnati, OH

Block this merger! Restore policies to encourage diversity of local media! Maintain a wide range of viewpoints!

—Laura Lee, Schenectady, NY

"If you want to make a difference, lobby your lawmakers to have them stop the Tribune deal from going through, because that is what is dangerous about this."⁶ It's dangerous for any company to own as many stations as Sinclair does. Healthy competition is a good thing."

One company should not control more than one media source in the same media area.

—Wallace Kirk, Waxhaw, NC

STOP THIS TAKEOVER

—Richard Gagnon, San Francisco, CA

I don't want Sinclair in Los Angeles!

—Bryan Fahrbach, Los Angeles, CA

This deal is clearly making a monopoly for Sinclair Broadcast Group which uses its local station's anchors to push its conservative agenda. It has the anchors present opinion as fact by the way it is presented in the broadcast. That should be enough to cancel the merger. But the reality of Sinclair Broadcast Group creating a monopoly in the media is unacceptable for freedom of speech in America.

—Elizabeth Aladham, Pacific Palisades, CA

Sinclair is promoting something that I would expect to see in Russia, Iran or North Korea. Not in the United States of America. They are propagandists rather than journalists and the fact that Trump and Pai are supporting this blatant propaganda machine is a sad commentary on the state of our allegedly democratic republic. I object to this merger in the strongest possible terms. This is an illegal circumvention of checks and balances that were put in place to protect the American public from systematic dissemination of disinformation. Neither Trump nor Pai are worthy of positions of public trust.

—Thomas Hickok, Alexandria, VA

Please fight this from happening.

—Mr. Ron Horvitz, San Diego, CA

STOP THIS DEAL!

—Matt McGovren, Brooklyn, NY

Please, please, please put a halt to this expansion. The effects of which will be felt for years and years. This is not what our forefathers envisioned when the concept of "freedom of press" was created. Whether it is right or left wing, I would protest either way. This is too much. This is a monopoly and the people that get hurt by those are the little folks...the majority of Americans. Please stop this!

—Sandy Stamato, Seattle, WA

The Sinclair-Tribune merger must be stopped at any and all costs. Forcing hundreds of TV stations to adhere to a centralized script filled with outrageous right-wing propaganda does not adhere to the Democratic ideals of a free society and will only serve to create a platform for bias and partisan policy for the future of a free and open press.

—Mr. Scott E Cromwell, Seattle, WA

No more media mergers - reinstate the Fairness Doctrine. We must maintain a Free Press and independence in programming. Otherwise we turn into State Run / Propaganda Pushers. This is not Cuba or Russia.

—Karen Llera, Fort Lauderdale, FL

Sinclair should not be able to monopolize our local news stations with conservative propaganda. I want real journalism that represents independent views based on real news.

—Douglas Carden, Henrico, VA

This deal would give a company too much power and reach with little competition.

—Ann Cox, Bronx, NY

I would be just as averse to a media monopoly airing liberal slanted commentary. Keep local news under local editorial control.

—Sam McNally, Santa Cruz, CA

Stop this proposed merger! It's dangerous for democracy and bad for our country!

—Nancy Losey, San Francisco, CA

This is NOT East Germany! This is America where we have our First Amendment right freedom of the press we will not stand for tyranny and fascism!!!!!!!!!!!!

—Bruce W Chapman, Bountiful, UT

Please, for the sake of our democracy and children, do not allow this merger

—Joesph Ferro MD, Asbury Park, NJ

This kind of concentration of ownership is never a good idea, but especially so with this outfit! No merger!

—Paul Kitzerow, CALISTOGA, CA

Our Democracy can't stand with only one source of news aligned with one political party!!!

—George Relles, Eugene, OR

Our Free Press is not for sale

—John Meyerson, Philadelphia, PA

Mergers like this plus the gerrymandering that has already been allowed to happen is exactly how Republicans cheat and steal elections. This merger can not be allowed to take place they have already proven how dangerous they can be with their " must run" demands of local TV stations highlighted by Deadspin. Action must be taken to not allow WE the people to be misrepresented again!!

—Kevin Hewitt, Takoma Park, MD

NO WAY

—Holger Baeuerle, Haddonfield, NJ

We don't need a propaganda machine to threaten our democracy. Letting this deal go through would be reckless.

—Kelly Costello, Wilmette, IL

Free speech, not propaganda

—Gordon Johnson, Alexandria, VA

We need more independent news based strictly on verifiable facts

—Eric Burke, Gurnee, IL

No to Sinclair. Save free speech, Vote!

—Suzanne, Jenkintown, PA

It is time to beat these propaganda machines back to the fringes where they came from.

—Lynn Carlberg, Warren, PA

Our democracy is at stake!

—Maryll Moon, Naperville, IL

Unbiased, balanced journalism is vital to our country's media. Trump's agenda to own, influence, and control the media in this way is fascist, and straight out of Orwell's 1984.

—Kelsey Rankin, Saint Charles, IL

The consolidation of media is a threat to democracy. Please block this merger.

—Ariel Young, Ben Lomond, CA

We don't need another monopoly that pushes "must run": segment to local channels and can spoon feed the television watching public their agenda driven drivel.... Less media competition is NOT a win for the public, and further inhibits the candid and necessary discussions Americans need to be having about everything from politics to police brutality...

—John Mosko, Las Vegas, NV

Please protect our country from the Sinclair propaganda machine by stopping their Tribune purchase!

—Donna Rentsch, Pennington, NJ protect our free unbiased press-stop this right wing propaganda

—Mary Ann Shuker, Nampa, ID

Local news should be local news. You don't want to hear it but bigger is badder. Can we stop with the mergers already!

—Peter Miesler, Hesperus, CO

Do the right thing and stop this. Sinclair is running "gaslighting" programs like "The Bottom Line" which presents counter-narratives and misleading reports to "actual" truth and news. THEY are the real fake news. This MUST be stopped.

—Robert M Wasserman, Cumming, GA

This would create an unthinkable level of media consolidation by a company that's used the public airwaves to push a conservative political agenda.

—Jeffrey Thornton, Norfolk, VA

I hope this support helps end this biased undemocratic programming fooling locals who in the dark about the "truth" being aired.

—Robin R Riesner, Phoenix, AZ

Stop these Russian Bots.

—Roy Laber, Belleville, NJ

STOP THIS NOW

—Barbara Rendleman, Evansville, IN

Stop Sinclair!

—Richard Wurtz, Princeton, WI

Unbelievable! Close Sinclair down!

—John Artz, Garden Valley, CA

The last stronghold of a Democracy is a FREE PRESS

—Dennis Bennett, Birmingham, AL

There is no good reason why any single broadcast company should own so many stations. Allowing this merger would give Sinclair Broadcast Group an unfair monopoly over local news stations and stifle the free exchange of ideas. Allowing any company to amass so much control of public airwaves is indefensible.

—Juliana Woodhead, Pasadena, CA

what in hell happened to anti-trust laws?

—Mugg Muggles, Oakland, CA

It is obvious Sinclair is more intrested in pushing its propoganda than supportihng free press. Shut them down now.

—Joan Costa, Gardnerville, NV

Please...Let's think of America's children and pray for our Constitution

—Karlotta J Rosebaugh, Seattle, WA

Just like Russia, the powerful control the media and the message. Don't let Sinclair purchase/merger with Tribune

—David Weller, Palm City, FL

This merger creates too much of a monopoly on local broadcasting from an irresponsible company which threatens free thought, democracy, and quality of life on Earth.

—Benjamin Robert Warnke, Chicago, IL

Don't want them to own and ruin WGN in Chicago where I live.

—Terry Ross, Lombard, IL

This is terrifying! If this merger goes through we will lose a major portion of our free press and have robots providing propaganda!

—Doris Spies, Escondido, CA

No news organization should have this much power to push it's personal agenda. Stop the Sinclair-Tribune Merger! They use the claim that other organizations are using fake news to deflect the fact that, in actuality, it is Sinclair that is perpetrating fake news and hysteria. Authentic news is a cornerstone of democracy. Sinclair has a different agenda that will hurt democracy and it is not understandable why the Tribune has become partner to all of this. Stop this merger.

A company that provides biased scripts and forces it's journalists to read them does not respect journalism or truth. Sinclair should not be allowed to peddle propaganda disguised as reporting. —Pat Brown, Los Angeles, CA

This is wrong on so many levels. Keep our press free and clear of corruption.

—Matthew Connor, North East, MD

Local news should remain opinion free and simply report on events. Allowing the promotion of any political opinion-regardless of the position-through local stations is a slippery slope. Protect freedom of speech

—Martha Brown, Fort Worth, TX

Sinclair is not to be trusted-especially after they recently used their powerful position of trust, to force local news stations to parrot their propaganda This is DANGEROUS for our DEMOCRACY and they should have even fewer stations than they do currently. Do your job and restrict them from further media consolidation.

—Debra Fredrickson, Kelseyville, CA

Please do not allow Sinclair to acquire more news outlet stations. This country needs to have multiple and varied narratives in order for democracy to thrive. Thank you.

this is a country where we have freedom of the press guaranteed. Stop the merger so that all may be heard. Freedom of the Press is guaranteed in our Bio of Rights.

—Judith Mata, Bremerton, WA

I live in Seattle where Sinclair owns KOMO. I have seen some of the scripted 'must-runs' and am appalled at the obvious breach of ethics.

Not to mention the content aligned with far-right conspiracies spouted by the incompetent administration in Washington and other conservative outlets determined to dismantle democracy. Do the right thing and block the merger! Defend America from these domestic hate-mongers.

—Benjamin Dahlman, Maple Valley, WA

This MUST NOT stand

—Jason Wartinger, Buffalo, NY

Pure mews needs multiple view points not one scripted version repeated across the nation.

Why do they allow an ad that goes against these statements to play right after?

—Myah Frederick, Baltimore, MD

Sinclair is utilizing all kinds of propaganda. PLEASE STOP THEM!!!!

—Ms. Cathleen Flynn, Centreville, VA

This is not the type of fight I usually get involved with. In fact I often watch the local Sinclair affiliate in Baltimore. But every week there seems to more evidence that the station(s) have moved away from news and into propaganda. I especially think they should be barred from localities without significant other news sources.

—Bill Temmink, Joppa, MD

The recent outrageous and sick on-air statements of Sinclair pundits should make the proposed a clear and present danger to our country. We all are watching. Do the right thing. Respectfully, Laddie Scott Odom

—Laddie Scott Odom, Baltimore, MD

We need to restore the "Fairness Doctrine." No media company should own more than 20 radio and tv stations without guarantees that diversity of media and a wide range of viewpoints. They must stand for truth in media.

—Irene S. Mitchell, Antioch, IL

This merger is a threat to fair local broadcasting and so obviously biased, and should not be allowed.

—Katherine Baird, Oak Harbor, WA

As noted on the FCC's own website "current FCC regulations do not allow Sinclair to hold both licenses. The combined company would have a national audience reach in excess of the FCC's current regulations." It further indicates that Sinclair "intends to take such actions as are necessary to comply with the Commission's rules to obtain FCC approval of the applications" but does not describe those actions. Sinclair should be made to comply with existing regulations which exist to ensure we have a free and fair press and monopolized by no one entity. The FCC should block this merger.

This must be stopped. These jerks want to dictate what we can and cannot say. If you are going to allow these clowns to forget what the 1st amendment is about, why not bring back Mussolini? Fools!!!!

—David Pomerantz, Pikesville, MD

It's especially deplorable the way WBFF-TV in Baltimore couches the ad opposing the merger between two seemingly magnanimous blurbs explaining how fair they are being by accepting the opposition advertising, then winding up the segment hoping that viewers don't "buy into the hysteria." Ironically, this is precisely how Sinclair invades our home with their fake news blurbs, inserted in actual news reporting so that the general public can't discern news from editorializing. Stop Sinclair!!!

—Jeff Paskett, Tacoma, WA

As an American Citizen I still have the right to free speech, to offer my opinion.. The merger of Sinclair Broadcasting will become a monopoly in this country if the 70+ percent ownership of stations is true. Goes against the very fundamentals of Democracy. This merger should be stopped for the preservation of promoting free speech and reporting the REAL news as it occurs, not how Sinclair wishes to offer it up to the American people.. FOX NEWS already tells lies over and over again. I will no longer be a viewer of any news channel that is owned by Sinclair Broadcast Group. This country is in a world of hurt with the current Administration and it's hatred for race, principles, integrity, honesty, trustworthiness etc. Instead of draining the SWAMP, they have just polluted it with more disgusting and crooked individuals. We have a moroon in government.

—Phil Strong, Marysville, WA

FCC, I still recall the little McCarthy inspired ditties on the TV back in the very early 1950s. I would think that we should have learned our lessons back then about the serious issues associated with the self appointed thought police of the far right. Sinclair (or any other broadcaster) which forces their political agenda upon large swaths of the population does not serve my community and seems to have angered many communities in this country. Perhaps one of the most outrageous of their actions is to FORCE their employees to broadcast Sinclair political opinion word for word, with dismissal awaiting those broadcasters who choose to honor that pesky little thing called FREEDOM OF SPEECH. I urge you to use all of your power to stop this propaganda machine from gaining any further footholds, and to bring suit against what I believe to be a serious freedom of speech issue. Sinclair is already showing how it deals with views it doesn't like by the way it is book-ending the ad currently running on KOMO to oppose the Sinclair-Tribune merger: it is extremely condescending to viewers basically saying we are not capable of evaluating an ad ourselves. This bid by Sinclair seems, to me, to be taking advantage of regulations recently changed by Chairman Pai in order to allow a media monopoly to take effect. Let's not take the step backwards. Media independence is as important as ever in today's political climate.

—Alexander Keipper, Brooklyn, NY

Such an important issue! Hope you will do the right thing and keep media independent.

—Elizabeth O. Karolczak, Los Altos, CA

The public cannot make well-informed decisions when fed only one version of the news. With Sinclair continuing to grow in size, we approach a large percentage of US households being told what is important by an obviously biased, propaganda pushing company. Please block the Sinclair and Tribune merger.

—Alora Wgosland, Atlanta, GA

Free press is essential for a free country. Thank you.

—Korrie Kashuba, Castle Rock, WA

We are sinking closer and closer to Fascism. Please put a stop to this!

—Gayle Meredith, Phoenix, AZ

Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune should not be permitted to merge. If they are allowed to, Sinclair would own more than 70 percent of the stations in the country which would be too much consolidation and power given to one single media business. Sinclair broadcasts politically biased pieces on its stations that it presents as unbiased, which deeply hurts the reputation of local media stations and journalists. For these reasons, I believe the FCC should do its job and block this merger in order to ensure a wide range of viewpoints are presented to Americans across the country.

—Kristen McCann, Brookline, MA

Media is strongest when it is corporately and politically independent. Sinclair and their aggressive monopolizing is neither. For the sake of the country and an informed populace, oppose the Sinclair-Tribune merge and don't allow them to continue pushing their partisan agenda onto the American public!

—Joshua Evans, Chicago, IL

FCC chair Pai said it best: A free media is vital to our democracy. But we have already seen that Sinclair Broadcast Group wants anything but a free and independent press. The federal government has taken stands against monopolies time and time again -- Microsoft is just one that comes to mind; AT&T another -- and this proposed merger would consolidate the news media further in one company's hands. I oppose this merger and hope that both Democrats and Republicans realize how dangerous this consolidation is for the entire country and the future of freedom of the press.

—Susan Karp, San Francisco, CA

Propaganda is a sign of a nation that is veering dangerously away from the principles of democracy. The FCC should consider the true interests of our country and refuse to allow a monopoly to one point of view, especially one that does not hesitate to promote untruths and slanted, bigoted opinions as news.

—Susan Katz, Elkins Park, PA

Sinclair made a deal With Trump campaign to air exclusive interviews with Trump giving his campaign free air time. They now want a deal for that air time delivering Trump to millions of local viewers. That is to close to a campaign deal for special consideration later.

—Nicole Nelson, Seattle, WA

Please pause and consider our democracy.

—Susan Stark, Berkeley, CA

This absolutely must NOT happen. Please stop this dangerous merger!

—Carol B Gass, Davis, CA

This is not something a people who value truth should tolerate.

—Sara Reitz, Longmont, CO

Too much power for one media group is dangerous. Please block this.

—Lisa Feriend, Chicago, IL

Think twice about this. First, it shows that "liberal" media is a lie. Second, what do you think will happen if the left wing of this country takes power back? I can already hear the crying about how unfair it is for the other side to flex their muscles using this tool, because it would be, just like it is right now. Don't let Ajit turn the FCC into a corporate tool (more than it already is).

Stop state TV!

—Brook Mendez, Bemidji, MN

Sinclair Broadcasting has shown significant and misleading conservative bias that is obscure to the local markets it owns and operates, but patently obvious on a national scale. Its potential merger with Tribune would give it, as a single corporation, a influence over so large a portion of the country's broadcast markets as to constitute a monopoly, and one that is even more dangerous for its impossibility for local citizens to discern from their living rooms. Do not let this merger go through.

—Alexis Gunderson, Upper Marlboro, MD

The potential Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune merger is a frightening abuse of power and actively diminishes our freedom of communication in the United States. We cannot allow this sort of monopoly on our communications and news.

—Emeline, Brighton, MA

—Gina Sucato, Seattle, WA

In essence this would be a monopoly! Stop this action. Consumers will suffer from a centralized media agency.

—Mary, Omaha, NE

This merger should never happen. This is a free democracy with freedom of the press and the Trump and Sinclair propaganda is unethical and unAmerican.

—Johnson, Denver, CO

This is a disaster for our democracy. It will come back and bite everyone, including those who have done all they can to dismantle the ideals on which the US is based.

—Roger F Fisher, Newton, IA

The continued concentration of media outlets into fewer and fewer corporate controls is an extreme danger to the very concept of democracy. There NEEDS to be an arena of public discourse to exist that includes differing viewpoints instead of silencing them.

I ask that you take the complaints regarding the lawfulness of must-run segments and investigate thoroughly. The Sinclair-Tribune merger should not be approved. I am opposed to it because it negatively impacts freedom of the press.
—Marie Sweetman, Ypsilanti, MI

The type of media monopoly proposed as the Sinclair-Tribune merger will have a negative effect on democracy. It is un-American. Under no circumstances should the merger be allowed.
—Greg, Santa Ana, CA

I'm concerned that Sinclair has shown its willingness to use its local TV stations as the mouthpiece of its political agenda. Local news should be trusted and its viewpoints should be left to the discretion of the local station. Please block this merger.
—Jacob Rosenberg-Wohl, San Francisco, CA

No to politically motivated owners that demand editorials supporting their right wing insane views be read. No merger.

Why is it okay for one individual (the head of Sinclair) located thousands of miles away from me to control how my local journalists report stories? I already avoid televised news. This reaffirms that unbiased facts are muddled before they reach viewers, like a perverted game of telephone. How can I trust any source of information anymore? As I go through my twenties, I am just stunned by the degree to which politicians and government organizations representing their constituents' needs and protecting them is a lie.

—Laura Seimetz, Dekalb, IL

FCC should block this merger as it clearly places too much power and influence in the hands of one company. In addition, the FCC chairman is being investigated for his role in this merger. This merger is not right and is another instance of the Trump administration chipping away at our democracy.

—Lori Bagi, Glenside, PA

One corporation should not be able to control such a large portion of local media outlets and poison the airwaves with their right wing manipulations and hysteria. We have the Sherman Anti-Trust Act, I say we use it to break up this monopolistic terror.

—Elaine Hammes, Sigourney, IA

Please protect democracy and free speech. You know this is wrong.

—Stephanie Tolliver, Saint Louis, MO

2 Sinclair stations are in my broadcast area (Syracuse, NY). They regularly end news broadcasts with a "terrorism alert," which reports things like a man was arrested in Europe with bomb-making materials to instill fear and panic in uneducated Americans. Sinclair is encouraging division and hatred in America and forcing local news organizations to run pieces that are misleading at best and mostly lies. I can't remember when any other news organization has done that except in dictatorships. Sinclair is State TV for the Trump administration. We live in a democracy and MUST have a free press.

—Corinne Buterbaugh, Skaneateles, NY

A free press is paramount to a democracy. If only one viewpoint is allowed to dominate the local TV markets we will destroy our countries freedom for openness to ideas and for the exercise of critical thinking. If the FCC is okay with this merger because the people responsible for making the decision are in agreement with the philosophy of Sinclair Broadcasting, you would be wise to consider how you would feel about the merger if their philosophy was opposed to yours. You should also remember that you are making decisions for everyone in America and not just half of us.

It is unthinkable to have one interest own and control so much of the media. This is a terrible situation and MUST be stopped, if America is to retain the free press. —Melissa Lowe, Ft Mitchell, KY

Please do everything you can to stop this merger! To have one interest own and control the media in this way is unamerican and strongly against the free press. Please stop this horrible merger.

—Deborah Green, columbus, GA

I urge FCC to block the Sinclair-Tribune merge. I want the local TV stations to remain independent from the influence of the corporate forcing the TV stations air the “must-run” segments that includes terrorism alert desk, some of Trump’s closest aides and advisers spewing misogyny, racist, Islamophobic, anti-immigrant, antigay, and antitransgender rhetoric which is designed to fuel hysteria. I object this mandate that Sinclair currently impose to their current TV local stations. This would lead our country to become the new North Korea/Russia, which the local news media is controlled by the owner that forces the news station to run propaganda segments aligned by the owner’s political views, which this owner’s known political views is far right. I will not allow this at all! I strongly believe the local news stations should stay independent from the influence of the owner’s political alignment. This is how the local TV stations should operate and it is successful for many years in keeping our democracy in this country. If the Sinclair-Tribune merge go through, I will lose my trust my own local TV stations. I do not want Sinclair-Tribune merge to be approved at all! Again, I urge FCC to block the Sinclair-Tribune merge. Thank you for your time reading this brief, but important comment.

—John Pivovarnick, Dunmore, PA

Local news coverage is meant to be just that - Local* It covers issues unique to individual communities and, if it fails to be objective, it does so in a way that is also unique to its local communities - there is by definition no "must run" story that should run on almost every local news outlet that would not be better covered by a regional or national outlet. The US already has a broad and healthy range of mass media, both purely objective and with some sort of partisan slant. Local media Must stay separate and independent.

There should always be limits and standards for how much local media can be owned by one company. That's common sense and a necessity for a thriving democracy.
—Nancy Gerson, South Dennis, MA

Why won't the FCC follow its mandate to serve the "public interest"? Concentration in media ownership is only good for corporations, not local publics which are denied diversity in news coverage when one company is allowed such great monopoly power. And why won't the FCC allow the public to comment on this proposed policy for yet more massive deregulation? The public should be able to voice its objections to an even greater share of Sinclair control over local media markets. The proposed policy is not an exercise in free market competition; rather it is regulation in favor of greater corporate control over media markets at the expense of local communities!

—C Williams, Wayne, PA

I wouldn't use the word despicable, but it's obvious that it's dangerous to put too large a segment of a country's information resources under one command. AntiTrust laws were well conceived, and should be restored and reinforced. That's what I think. eileen

—Eileen Osmond Savdié, Sandy, UT

this is bad news, we ask that duty be done in the interests of the country.

—Warren e. Leming, chicago, IL

Control of the news is a precursor to fascism.

—Gary Stimeling, Freedom, ME

Giving Sinclair a near monopoly over local television stations is unacceptable. Please cancel this deal.

—Jesse Harz, Arlington, VA

We don't want or need this despicable monopoly of the air waves. A better idea - - get rid of Sinclair.

—Margaret Richards, Pensacola, FL

For the people, not corporations.

—Raymond E Bellamy MD, Tallahassee, FL

Do the right thing for the American people.

—Joyce H Dixon, Dallas, TX

TV should provide a diversity of programming and editorial content. Megabroadcasters are not appropriate for democracies. They work better in North Korea and Venezuela.

—Samuel Pearson, Saint Louis, MO

Please allow other options than to see Trump's face and hear Trump's opinions on the television. Please keep Free Press options for all reporting. Please keep the minds of our people in this country open to more than one way of thinking and getting information so they can think from all sources. Otherwise, we become like Germany complete with ethnic cleansing, the Holocaust, and War. It could happen here. Please stop the action by keeping our pressed free and our minds open. Thank you.

More Dangerous: Donald Trump suffers from a malignant case of pathological narcissism: he is paranoid, delusional and incompetent as President of the United States.

—Dan M Ingall, Lake Odessa, MI

Limitations on free exchange of information threatens the very basis of our democracy. Do not sell this country.

—Dr. Pam Botts, Lawrence, KS

I have seen the "must run" segments which are asserted to be news but are actually opinion pieces - propaganda style "news". Minimum standards for a licensee is to serve the public interest and these segments violate that standard at every Sinclair station every time they are broadcast.

Allowing a standards violator to expand is illegal and unwise.

—Brian Paddock, Cookeville, TN

Please, for the American people do NOT approve this merger.

—Rosalie McMenamin, Chicago, IL

Your primary mission as an agency of the United States should be to protect and champion the foundations of democracy. A vigorous free press, carrying a diversity of viewpoints, and not dominated by a monopoly, is crucial to the protection of all the freedoms protected by our Bill of Rights. The merger under consideration would undermine those protections and the viability of democracy itself. Please block this deal.

—Leah Rachel Killeen, Niantic, CT

Stop ignoring the constituents of the untitled states of American and block this monopoly.

Competition is at the heart of our Freedom!

—Aline Hommes, Washington, DC

How is this allowable? Trump changes everything to suit his wants. Isn't he supposed to be doing what the majority wants.

—Phillip R Hlavac, Mount Dora, FL

NO to this merger. It will allow Trump and cronies to have a personal station to spread their SHIT and LIES

—Mrs. Mary G Dowd, East Bend, NC

Stop the madness.

—David Victory, Nashua, NH

All this merger is going to accomplish is to transform American tv even more into a mirror like image of Russian state tv. The ease by which what Putin dictates gets broadcast will easily be matched by the facility with which Sinclair will be able to dictate to its local affiliates what commentary should be broadcast and when this is to occur. We have already seen this in operation in Seattle. The merger will only amplify its effect. Local control over editorial content will soon wither on the vine. This poses a grave and real danger to civic society, a concept that Pai seems to have great difficulty understanding.

—ben Lichtin, rochester, NY

You work for the people of this country. Our freedom and system of government are under attack and you can help protect both by doing your jobs legally and honorably.

—Robert Wilson, Pueblo, CO

Look ahead, five to ten years in the future. We are literally witnessing Fascism on the march. This message to American legislators is one act of defense. I certainly expect to be prosecuted if they win, like the Abraham Lincoln Brigade of American volunteers fighting Nazism and Fascism in Spain, anticipating World War II. Fight this degeneration of democracy now, to deter an inevitable crisis.

—Daniel Oconnor, Norwood, MA

Monopoly television station ownership suppresses democracy.

—Larry Buckler, California, KY

Do the anti-monopoly laws bring anything to mind? You CAN'T permit this merger to happen. It'll kill off broadcast TV quicker than soap opera re-runs!

—Mr. James A. Davis, Berea, KY

STOP!!!!!!

—Bev Kelly Ph.D., long beach, CA

Dear FCC, Please cancel the Sinclair merger with Tribune. Limits on how much local media any one company can own are there for a good reason. Please protect our chance to have a functioning democracy, we don't want an oligarchy of special interests "news". Thank you.

—, Honolulu, HI

Cancel the Sinclair mega-merger. Right now, you may think the deal will help you and your conservative allies. But remember, the powers that be can change -- thus in the near future, local news from an opposing political stance could be the "dangerous agenda" we all need to be wary of. Don't allow any one faction to run ramshod over the news available to Americans.

I urge you most fervently to stop this over reach of power consolidation within the media system of informational disbursement for the greater good of the American people. Thank you.

There are too few broadcast corporations already, too few to maintain any genuine "competition" and hence progress. Democracy relies on a free press with multiple, diverse opinions being voiced so the electorate can debate and decide which candidates and policies to support. Do not increase the trend to monolithic propaganda sources. Keep limits on the number of media outlets that can be controlled by one entity.

—Christopher C. Parke, Katonah, NY

There's a physical law of the universe that to every action there is an equal and opposite reaction. Allowing the systematic twisting of news broadcasts into right wing editorial commentary will surely bring back the mandated equal time rule. Sinclair could find itself broadcasting commentary about the benefits of homosexuality, the welfare state, pschelelic drugs, and man-boy love. But by all means, move forward and exercise your plan with certitude. Could there really be a backlash?

—Greg Olson, Ironton, MN

We have been in dire straits before and we will be again. We always, thank G-D, manage to get through. Right now it is the evil and greed of the Trump administration that we have to contend with. You, Mr. Pai, are a willingly enthusiastic player of this dishonorable and wickedly self interested organization. I truly hope we can stop your efforts to take our internet freedom and hand it over to the wanton grip of soulless corporate executives. Saving that we will just have to wait until we remove you from office and repeal your terribly greed motivated initiatives. Hopefully, we will be able to put a lot of you trumpsters in prison. Be careful what you do. Your actions will have consequences.

—Steve Keplinger, Edmond, OK

Tragically, these people are not concerned with the opinion of the majority who have already spoken about blocking net neutrality and Sinclair's dominance! How is it that Trump is being allowed to dissect this countries bureaucratic institutions which have maintained the underlying protective structure for the 99%!

—Kenneth J Garcia, Bethpage, NY

We already have way too much media consolidation, and now that Donald Trump is trying to make himself Dictator-in-Chief, an independent media is our best defense against fascism. Now more than ever, we MUST make sure that Trump doesn't gain any additional influence over the media and protect the media from monopoly/oligopoly. Please do your jobs: STOP this dangerous merger in its tracks and do everything in your power to protect independent, diverse, and locally-owned media outlets.

—Lisa Petrie, Carolina, RI

Unbiased, true, not one sided not news, this is the form of reporting we should have

—Frank Curley, Middletown, NY

Have you people gone Mad?? As I see it, with potential rulings like this one, this country is moving forward to a country which could and would be considered fascist/oligarch. Those who have gone before us have given their lives to prevent decisions like this and to preserve our free democracy. By passing legislation like this you are moving toward a complete revolt by the freedom loving citizens of this country. Do NOT pass this legislation.

—Mitchell Gordon, Charlotte, NC

FCC: this is important for America's democracy. Do not allow the merger to go through.

The fewer media companies there are and the bigger they are, the less chance we have of hearing the truth rather than the propaganda they want to spread. This happened in Germany in 1933 and led to the rise of the Nazi party.

—Kathleen M. Melvin, Malden, MA

We've already got biased, propaganda networks to deal with such as Fox News. We don't want to expand on the problem.

—Jeff Roberts, Sacramento, CA

WHAT WAS THIS COUNTRY FOUNDED UPON???????????

—Ron W, Santa Cruz, CA

Not long ago, we had dozens of independent media companies, which helps allow for a plurality of perspectives, more media options, and a range of prices. Now that we're down to five or less companies that own almost all our country's media outlets, we're at the point of a media oligarchy and an anti-trust situation. This needs to end. We should work towards expanding the organizations that own and decimate our news and not create an echo chamber where only one very conservative... even racist voice is heard, with little to no opportunity for public comment back.

—Victoria Stanislaw, Arlington, VA

We must not let our local stations be taken over by racists and bigotry!

—eva Zucker, New York, NY

A free press is essential to democracy. Monopolies created by unlimited mergers deny freedom of the press.

To allow media control by only a few deprives Americans their Rights to open and honest journalism. That type of control will diminish our ability to function as a democracy.

—Daniel j klein, Moseley, VA

Not in the interests of a democratic country.

—Eric Arnold, Ann Arbor, MI

You must NOT go through with this merger. It would be devastating for the American people and our Democratic Nation - it would undermine all people - Republicans and Democrats alike. I am, frankly, frightened over the idea of pushing/forcing networks to air what as known in the industry as "must run" segments. This is what can happen with consolidation of media such that the same thing appears on every network. PLEASE, do NOT remove the limits on how much media can be owned by one company.

A free news media is a necessity in a Democracy. This merger sets up a media outlet that is unfree and biased supporting racism and fascism. It must not be allowed to happen. Once they have this station/network they will begin to outlaw the free ones and end up like every Fascist country with one news outlet broadcasting the Fascist propaganda.

Media consolidation is ruining television, (just like it did radio) Sinclair as made no secret that it has a political agenda and will exploit their power to influence voters. A really bad idea. Reinstate the fairness doctrine instead.

Freedom of the press is part of the bedrock of American values and our way of life. Allowing Sinclair to have such a huge market share and promote biased content under the name of news is a serious threat to Americans' access to accurate information. I demand that the FCC do its job as the steward of communications in this country and block this monopolistic merger.

—Leverett K Woodruff, Sandy, UT

I have seen the biased commentary on a Sinclair station in Springfield, MA. Instead of informing the public so they can develop opinions based on facts and make accurately- informed decisions in elections, the Sinclair sponsored commentary is directed at misleading viewers into believing a specific point of view. If entire communities will be deprived of contrasting information to the Sinclair propaganda they will have been deprived of a free press.

Please think of the future !!
—Audrey Samelson, Coconut Creek, FL

Our nation is in the middle of the greatest division we have experienced since the Civil War and Sinclair acerbates and encourages this division. They promote propaganda and lies. If this goes through you will be responsible for destroying fair journalistic coverage for America.
—Marcia Ramirez, Burnsville, NC

A free press is the hallmark of a democracy - we must preserve the freedoms we still have!!!
—Mrs. Laura Parra Codina, San Antonio, TX

I have stopped watching the Sinclair channel in my city even though, before Sinclair ownership, it was my favorite news channel.
—Lloyd Johnston, Seattle, WA

Public corruption is defined as not following government procedures such as public hearings, so that an entity or individual can gain when not merited. We ask the FCC not to go down the pathway of public corruption activities.
—Pamela & Ralph de Liz, Santa Monica, CA

Freedom of press! No one company should own a majority of the press.
—Megan O'Neill, Seattle, WA

Don't let our news outlets become organs of a dictator!
—Beth A Pensiero, Hendersonville, NC

BLOCK the Sinclair-Tribune merger.
—D halpern, Rockville, MD

This is wrong for so many reasons. But I am sure you will approve this, because this administration calls freedom of the press ,fake news. Approving this, will provide this country with very real fake news. In other words, lies. First step to a fascist country.
—Wanda Hamilton, Lincoln, NE

Nazis controlled the media
—Jessie Nichols, Fairfield, IA

Please do not let this happen.
—Job McKee, Stillwater, OK

A competitive press is essential to democracy, just as competition is best for business. When the Bell Telephone Monopoly was busted up, innovation resulted. Don't allow this to happen.
—Mary Matzek, Murphys, CA

Why do you want to destroy independent media? Are you afraid of independent thinking?

—Steve Buechler, Brooklyn Park, MN

Don't You. DARE. The Sinclair/Trib merger only aids the illegitimate, traitorous, Russian-infiltrated Trump administration -- which is facing en masse federal jail time as you read this. Help Them create their GOPutin Propaganda Channel with this monopolistic merger, and We the People will make sure Mueller investigates and jails YOU NEXT, for your DISservice to our great nation and REAL, honest journalism.

—US expat in Austria Beth Jones, Monticello IA and Salzburg AUSTRIA, IA

Please protect our democracy!

—, Immokalee, FL

We must maintain freedom of the press!

—Patricia R Copeland, Ruston, LA

Consolidated press is an aberration to a free society. NO merger please.

—Paul Norberg, Portland, OR

A dispicable deal it is. Trump gets quite a enough coverage via his TWEETS. God help us.

—George E Hitz Jr, Sudbury, MA

Stop the merger! This is unexceptable and it's completely against the morals and values of America, a free nation of diversity, not white sapremaists .

—Christopher Schreiner, Chandler, AZ

Dominance over media, regardless of stance or agenda, is never freedom. If you take the existance of this country's constitution seriously, you will never support an idea like this.

—Joseph Allen, Warren, MI

The officials that support this catastrophe in the making will be remembered years from now as those who attempted to sell America.

—Bruno Barletta, Port Orange, FL

A free, independent press with a variety of voices heard is foundational to a free society. I hope freedom is still a priority at the FCC.

—Rod Richards, San Luis Obispo, CA

This only encourages the dumbing down of America. Mergers of this magnitude need to be curtailed

—Anne thompson, Nashville, TN

It is horrifying that the real hard work of investigating and report is being replaced by schlocky lies. Please look to our future and defend us from this dangerous kleptocracy and the self-promotion of greedy looters.

—Susan O Anderson, Boston, MA

He and his Administration is Horrific!

—Meghan Follansbee, Arlington, MA

This is a dangerous increase in the already concentrated ownership in broadcasting. How can we have a democracy with such a large propaganda machine?

—Berry Ives, Albuquerque, NM

The Sinclair Mega-Merger needs to be cancelled immediately!!!!

—Rita Large, Asheville, NC

Don't allow this to happen. We need unbiased, accurate news rather than more partisan views.

—Brian D Gregory, Tahuya, WA

Cancel the Sinclair Mega-merger!!!!!!!

—Mary Ruegg, West Milford, NJ

No more fascist TV. Fox is bad enough !!!

—Joseph Finelli, San Diego, CA

—Joseph Swindle, Mission, TX

Another “in the pockets” ASSHOLE, looking to score bigly with “BIG MONEY” TURDS!

—Robert Herzog, Sun Lakes, AZ

FCC Stop The Hate!!! You Are Against The Freedom of The Press!!! Stop the Merger!!!

—David L Clark, Gainesville, FL

We must not allow our press to be dominated by anyone, of any persuasion. The press must be free, and that includes being free of big money ownership.

—Hugh McFadden, Bozeman, MT

This is so incredibly dangerous to our democracy, state sanctioned lies, as news and truth... NO THANKS!

—Sj jordan, deerfield beach, FL

The continued monopolization of America's media is the final act in the dumbing down of our citizens. We are being propagandized by the control of right wing news and fake news. Shame on you Mr. Pai.

—Rand A. Martin, Denison, TX

The real 1984 is about to happen. NO to this monopolizing merger!!

—Nancy Busacca, Pasaena, CA

Freedom of the press means more than just allowing news companies to speak out, it also means the ability for citizens to access a diversity of views. The FCC chairman seems to be an enemy of democracy, hoping to destroy diversity of news content by allowing station monopolies. Pi needs to be curtailed. He does not act in the best interest of democracy. He is a champion of the oligarchy and should not be allowed to serve in the government for the people.

—Ms. Jennene Christine, Everett, WA

We need to protect our local news sites. As well, no single company should be allowed so many stations. Very worrisome if this is allowed.

—Ellen Zarter, Bellevue, WA

We get enough of His Henious already...say NO NO NO to the sleazy Mercer family ASAP!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

—Mr. B Erich Richards, Beaverton, OR

Trump needs to be stopped!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! !!! Talk about a Hitler, Trump is following Hitler.

—Diane Aranda, Albuquerque, NM

The first amendment right to free speech is ultimately in danger here..

—Christine Corrado, New Providence, NJ

Please work prevent information monopolies!

—Diana C Trachtenberg, Glassboro, NJ

Monopolistic and Disgusting.

—David Daniels-Lee, Ocean Shores, WA

Why only side with the rich? This is more class war. Are you a running dog of the wealthiest? Have you no person integrity at all?

—Richard Creswell, Lakewood, CO

I live in rural area, and get several local stations. It is painfully obvious which ones have total local editorial control and the two which are Sinclair owned. The two Sinclair channels feature Sinclair 's canned editorials. In addition attentive viewers are able to clearly pickup on other more subtle editorial bias in news stories - even of local matters. This is abhorrent to strong professional news programming.

—John Piper, Paris, IL

Please be a decent human being and stand up to this nonsense. A free press is one of the most valuable attributes the United States has. This merger would add allow the blatantly biased Sinclair group to keep spouting their agenda under the guise of news.

—Tyler Carpenter, Mission, KS

Wtf, Monopolys are not ok!

—Peter Hindes, Longmont, CO

No trump TV. Block this nightmare merger

—Cassandra Church, E. Montpelier, VT

Please! We already see enough of the orange gelatinous blob every day.

—Robin Brewer, pgh, PA

Futher consolidation of corporate media giants is not good for Democracy, if you indeed care about maintaing some illusion of Democracy in the US

—David Osinga, San Rafael, CA

For sure way to make me cut the cord. I WILL NOT PAY A SINGLE PENNY EVER FOR THIS KIND OF PROPAGANDA TV.

—Patricia Ranstrom, Vashon, WA

Consolidation of media outlets is not good for our country.

—Joel Brown, Oak Brook, IL

NO MORE MONOPOLIES

—Stan DOUGLASS, Tacoma, WA

I'm 89 and remember Goebbels and Adolph. We are NOW Déjà vu Nazi Germany, 1933!

—Luther E. Franklin, Issaquah, WA

Do not allow Trumpist propaganda to have a major voice in our Nation. It already invokes the worst impulses within us and gives them free reign. It has no other place in a free society than as a very minor voice that is easily countered by sanity. Do your job and prevent this monopoly of our airwaves and its cooption of our thoughts!

—Donna Newman, Raleigh, NC

This would be a grave mistake leading to a massive consolidation of media influence. Should not happen.

—Tim A, Arvada, CO

TRUMP AND PAI ARE NOTHING BUT 2 NASTY INCREDIBLY STUPID AND SELFISH INDIVIDUALS NEITHER OF WHOM SHOULD BE IN CHARGE OF AN OUTHOUSE LET ALONE A DEPARTMENT OR FAILING TO RUN A GOVERNMENT! STOP THIS NASTINESS NOW - STOP WHORING TO BIG CORPORATIONS LIKE SINCLAIR! BIG DONOR TO TRUMP!

—Maggie Schafer, Boulder, CO

Free press is not trolls, oligarchs, cookie cutter opinions. It is investigative, honest and interested in the distribution of facts. Do not take that away from America. If anything bring back the fairness doctrine. Propaganda doesn't get it done. The IQ on Fox is about 12.

—CJ Oliver, Eatonton, GA

We don't want nor need this.

—Mr. Carl Jerry Vasconcellos, Honolulu, HI

If you let this happen, We the People will find Max Headroom and let you deal with it.

—Frances F Goff, Pasadena, CA

Do the right thing!

—Sarah Champlin, Los Angeles, CA

The airwaves by law and longstanding practice belong to and are owned by the people of the United States, and not by private corporations. For too long the people in government that are trying to bring total monopoly ownership to the PUBLIC airwaves are subverting the peoples right to free access to many points of view. If this democracy is destroyed, of which this action if it succeeds will be a major move in that direction, then we will soon become a failed state, and we all know what chaos results in failed states. It happened to the mighty Roman Empire; don't for a minute think it cannot happen here. In that case, history shows that the rich and powerful are the first ones to get the ax. Review the bloody French revolution if you don't believe me. Take action to preserve our freedom to know - that is your moral obligation.

—Richard & Jeanne C. Placone Sr., Palo Alto, CA

Please put the citizens first and do not allow this merger to happen

—Nathan Klein, Anaconda, MT

Sinclair is trying to acquire almost 3/4 of the tv news outlets. This will may cause a skewed opinion presented on the news. No company should control that much of the market.

—Anna Sasser, Santa Cruz, CA

I am appalled at this obvious takeover of our free press. You should be ashamed

—Donna Twoomey, Naperville, IL

The FCC should reinstate the Fairness Doctrine if 70% of the population that will be subjected to right wing and bigoted content on local stations to hear another side. Fox/Faux News has led to the dumbing down of its listeners.

—Kasanow Martha, Philadelphia, PA

Do not take away our right to watch whatever we want to watch on TV. DO not allow the Trump agenda to overtake television.

—Carol Wood, Phoenix, AZ

You have to be out of your minds.

—Kevin McCarthy, Henderson, NV

Chairman Pai is highly corrupt violating all the FCC merger rules...Sinclair is a highly corrupt news organization...

—Elmo Dunn, Longwood, FL

No to Trump's authoritative actions! This is America! How dare Ajit Pai try to tamper with what we have set in place as a Democratic society!

—Deborah Gostin, San Diego, CA

We have already dealt with Russian interference in the past election via social media, the last thing we need is forced political views on local news nationwide

—Nathan Cochenour, Fort Worth, TX

There is no good reason to approve this merger. We do not need a more monopolized media. This merger is a profound danger to our very democracy. This merger is so bad for local communities that the FCC would have to slash nearly every existing media-ownership protection to force it through — a major shift the agency is making without any chance for public comment. I urgently implore you to deny this merger. I thank you for your time and consideration.

—Allan Fix, Albany, CA

Trump has swamped the USA with Fake News and personal BS. Where do we draw the line? The press has enough problems trying to find the truth without some blowhard bobble-head polluting the talking points with attacks on facts and anybody that might challenge his propaganda.

—Vincent Metzger, Clearlake, CA

It's so wrong of this company to come in and give out information to try to direct someone toward a specific person and that is what Sinclair is doing on our local ABC affiliate.....it's wrong!

—Laura Gordon, Anderson, CA

Please stop this!

—Odinaka Ezeokoli, Chicago, IL

Please CANCEL the Sinclair merger with Tribune Media. It is dangerous for us to have what will be Trump TV rather than diversity needed in media. This will not result in a free press and media. PLEASE do not allow this merger to happen.

—Charlotte Jones, Elmhurst, IL

Sinclair controls my local TV station now. It hasn't been an improvement. Far from it. I only watch it for weather reports anymore. Do not empower this conglomerate any further. Americans need investigative reporting, not biased mini-reports or ridiculous "human interest" stories — endlessly repeated. But of course I have heard that you are just a rubber stamp for Sinclair. Guess I'm wasting my time here pleading with you. How embarrassing.

—Annie McCombs, Kalamazoo, MI

Stations are still licensed to serve the public. This merger fails that criterion.

—Bill Russell, Eureka, MT

Please, No more FOX and Trump TV.

—Clay Scott, Warsaw, NC

It's enough already. We are a democracy. Not a wealthocracy!!! STOP giving our country away to billionaires. They have enough in their pockets. They don't have to worry about how to pay the medical bills. Stop.

—Norma-Jeanne Hennis, Williston, VT

This is a threat to our democracy!

—Bruce Dobson, Langley, WA

Radio and cable news are already infested with way too much extreme right-wing supporters of Donald J. Trump. Please block this deal!

—Joan Bowers, Seattle, WA

This must be blocked and outlet very programming should not be owned or managed by one particular company this is bad for the American people!

—Joe Schreiner, Chicago, IL

Block the merger. Keep TV news more balanced —Mr. Donald E Tuck, Sanger, TX

This merger would carve another large chunk from the already damaged cornerstone of democracy--a free and unfettered press. Please deny this proposed merger--it's the right and patriotic thing to do.

—Cynthia J Kimball, Sparks, NV

Arguments are what built US democracy and fortune. Don't let anyone limit our ability to disagree, debate or argue.

—John Brown, Tucson, AZ

We need you to block this!

—Anne Deming, Glen Mills, PA

In a democracy we need free press, not a monopoly to be used as propaganda to corrupt government. Stop the corruption- this is corruption, corruption, corruption. Selling our democracy is not what we are.

—Mercedes Suarez, South Pasadena, FL

Please keep some semblance of varied view points in our media.

—susan Lyngstad, Sacramento, CA

This is the beginning...or should I say, the next step, to the end our country as we know it. Don't let this deal go through!

—Rory Robinson, Leesburg, FL

This is communism...and an assault on the democracy and freedom of the American Constitution. My father was an Korean War Army veteran. He died young with the stress of that experience and being an NYPD for 17 years. He did not die protecting our communities and our nation for his children, grand children and now great-grandchildren to be denied the freedoms he cherished. He was a great man. The "males" pushing for this monopoly are NOT men at all, nor worthy of the attention or schemes of American citizens. Communism is here with this crazy deal. Crazy.

—Virginia Eagan, Chico, CA

Please listen to US and do not let this go thru!

—Tanya, Grants Pass, OR

Sinclair has already purchased two television stations in my city. Their propaganda is broadcasting everyday. Americans need unbiased news.

—Pat Hanbury, Reno, NV

Block the Sinclair mega merger-- it will be bad for America!

—D White, Windsor, NY

Independent news or no news

—Autumn Brook, BROOK, ME

This is Putin style media takeover.

—Patsy Dan Kelley, McCall, ID

As a Republican, I would hope that you would act from the standpoint of local control, as opposed to top down edicts. The Sinclair merger means that local stations will be forced to use Sinclair programming and Sinclair news. The Sinclair organization has a right wing orientation. This means that instead of unbiased news, we will be subjected to only one side. This is not good for our country or for democracy

—Barbara Clark, Burlington, WA

Simply, keep our airways free for all. Deny Sinclair steps to monopolies! No Trump TV.

—Garry James, Eugene, OR

This would be a terrible move for the public, who would have greatly reduced news information. Block this deal!

—Barbara Lyall, Mesa, AZ

Public Free Airways forever!

—Garry James, Eugene, OR

No more propaganda and lies from the Trump crazies.

—Patricia Sullivan, Seattle, WA

Stop the corporate takeover of America. #NoPai

—David Paul, Turlock, CA

The Sinclair merger is a fascist merging of state and corporate power that enables the oligarchy and undermines democracy.

—Stephen L Blake, Clemmons, NC

A free and open press is the hallmark of a democracy. This merger has the potential to seriously damage the freedom of the press that is so important to our country.

—Frances Barbagallo, DEMING, WA

Hitler, Stalin, and every other despot in history did the same thing to media outlets in their respective countries. If you truly care about American values, you will stop this merger before it gets started. If you vote in favor of it, you will be labeled a traitor to the American people.
—Erick Hedrick, Danville, IN

It is imperative our news sources are apolitical; if a Trump dominated Company owns a news source, obviously, they'll only report a pro-Trump news bias. We, the American people, deserve news/ opinions that doesn't "pimp" for a political party/politician. Hitler/Nazi's controlled the news during WWII to the detriment of the country & it's people leading to the Holocaust. Learn from history & try not to repeat it's disasters.
—Judith Dacey, Worcester, MA

Stop favoring corporate interest. Be accountable to the free people of this country.
—John Shatzer, Lake Oswego, OR

The broadcast industry is getting bigger, while the number of players is shrinking. Fewer means that one or two media giants could control what we see and what the content will be. They can skew the truth with false facts. ENOUGH IF THAT!
—Darby Tarr, Harrisville, NY

FCC Chairman must cancel Sinclair mega-merger. Our local news must not be trampled on by Trump - that's our needed information for any local news and is pertinent to us - DAILY.
—Janet Zehnal, Lady Lake, FL

Trump is crazy this is not 1940
—Linda Campbell, Casselberry, FL

I want normal local news. NO TRUMP CONTROLLED NEWS. Please no Sinclair-Tribune merger.
—Cynthia Allen, Hicksville, OH

Trump TV? Really?? Isn't FOX Trump TV or just GOP TV?!
—Lisbeth Applefield, Portland, OR

We must not allow monopolies, whether national or local, in the news industries. I am a conservatively-minded voter who believes all voices must be heard in order to make sound decisions based on facts. Allowing biased organizations to dictate what we see and hear, and how we see and hear it, is outrageous and frightening.
—Ken Godwin, Lawrence, KS

No one should own the block of US communication!!!
—Bruce Eikenberry, Renton, WA

If Sinclair wants national distribution of their views and programs, let them start a network. The right to own local stations is a privilege that is subject to the local community, not the FCC; which is seemingly being controlled by a Trump appointee.
—Tony Formichelli, Fairfield, CT

We don't need Trump TV at all, we don't, we don't!
—Robert Miland Taylor, Clearlake, CA

NO, NO, NO. BLOCK THIS.
—Geri Taran, Lawrenceville, GA

having some insane single owner own too much of the public airwaves is antithetical to democracy.If this goes through ,Here we go into the worst era of Fascism the world has ever seen.Is that what we want for our country to prosper?Or is it just a short sided money grabbing scheme?

—John R. Mahoney, Wasilla, AK

We need more choices and not less! Americans are NOT all Right Wing Conservatives and I don't want that type of Media thrust upon me!

LONG LIVE DIVERSITY, not cookie-cutter news!

—Doreen Charest, Woodbury, MN

We are a Country whose Founding Principles are worth fighting for! Do NOT allow this merger! DO NOT make FCC stand for "Freedom Cannot Continue"! Trump WILL NOT last forever, and when he's gone, YOUR NAMES as supporters of this Trump Atrocity will be remembered forever, to shame your Family Lineage for all time.

—Kathryn Hugenschmidt, Colorado Springs, CO

Please keep our deeply held beliefs of a truly democratic society by not letting our country's free press be overrun by fewer and fewer media companies. This is extremely dangerous to the America I grew up loving.

—Mr Richard S Fay, San Diego, CA

you cannot allow such a domination of the communication market that virtually ends Free Press and is against our First Amendment rights. please protect our rights to have independent news and information sincerely Laurie M Lee

—Laurie M. Lee, Longmont, CO

Sinclair's behavior is an outrage.

—Elizabeth Macklin, New York, NY

Monopolies are always bad. And this proposed merger is no exception.

—Stephanie B Hammer, Coupeville, WA

Diversity of information sources is necessary to the functioning of democracy.

—K Hill, Malibu, CA

No political party should have access to the air waves in preference to another. That would be completely against our democracy!!!

—Laurel Hughes, Lynnwood, WA

This is a really, really bad deal for our democracy. This would be the end of unbiased broadcast journalism for many areas of the country. This merger should be rejected outright!

—Larry E Bathgate, Mill Valley, CA

Prevent this disaster from happening.

—Roberta Smith, Roswell, GA

I have been forced to watch their bias reporting, the local reporters are great but the Sinclair provided segments are highly biased.

—Richard Tucker, Lincoln, RI

Many of our problems today stem from the increase in corporate mergers... please, don't let this be yet another step in the "dumbing down" of America

—Denver Davis, Captain Cook, HI

I hope the FCC will say no to Sinclair.

—Carolyn Banks, Bastrop, TX

this is the last thing we need. the less trump, the better

—Bernadette Zupan, Tamarac, FL

We must block all "state propaganda" media machinery that the Sinclair-Tribune merger represents. AMT must not be allowed to control the airwaves. Block this merger!

—Ralph Sanchez, Santa Cruz, CA

Has the GOP destroyed The Sherman Antitrust Act? The fascist regime of Trump and most GOP lawmakers is coming to fruition and the only way to stop it will be civil war; the poor against the wealthy and the poor far outnumber the wealthy. Even the military will not always stand against their fellow Americans just to butter the bread of the wealthy few. The day is rapidly approaching.

—Donia Connell, Anthony, FL

STOP MERGER!!!!!!

—Michol Ford, East Troy, WI

Can you do something?? Or is this bought & paid for?? Hummm

—Riks welsh, cambridge, MA

As a journalist for many decades, I deplore this mega-merger!

—Beverly A. Eckman-Howell, Grants Pass, OR

—Daniel Wright, Tumwater, WA

Do not further this dangerous agenda!

—Kris Severns, Oak Harbor, WA

DESPICABLE & DEPLORABLE!!! HELL NO !!! Don't touch our FREE PRESS !!!!

—Marchal Sean Silver, San Francisco, CA

we have the right to free press/news - not this propaganda forced on us by a Hitler-like dictator who is never truthful.

—Carol L Neill, Overland Park, KS

As an independent producer of TV programming this merger cuts me out of the Sinclair market due to my philosophical objection to the merger. Not everyone respects their take on Democracy for profit.

—Peter Dixon, Malibu, CA

We need not only freedom of the press, but diversity of the press. Please do not approve the Sinclair purchase of the Tribune TV stations. Thank you for defending a democratic and diverse communication system and free press.

—Michael J.Holtz, Boulder, CO

No more media mergers. We need diversity in media ownership, not consolidation.

—Mary Shesgreen, Elgin, IL

There is already far too much consolidation in the US media. Please, do not approve this merger.

—Sean Kennedy, Healdsburg, CA

This country is a democracy or at least it was. You want to make America great? Preserve democracy. Level the playing ground.

—Patty brotman, Bala cynwyd, PA

This merger should NEVER take place. A Republic needs the press greater than ever before. The press is a part of the peoples right to know.

—Leonard Cook, ATLANTA, GA

I'm sure the FCC is well aware of the dangers of media crushing out open discussion of critically important political issues, key to protecting democracy itself.

—Diane H. Fabian, Fort Atkinson, WI

Save the free press!

—Elaine Davies, Morrow, GA

There is already a RW propaganda channel (Fox News), we do NOT need another in America. There are, also, too numerous to mention, RW radio shows, blogs, etc. People who just repeat the same lies over and over again until their listeners believe it's FACT. Really--is this what we want America to be--a nation of brainwashed, mental-defective, sheeple? Maybe the #GOP does, but I can guarantee, REAL patriots, who believe in their freedoms, don't. In so many other places, shows aren't allowed to label themselves "NEWS," if they aren't telling the truth, if it's actually "OPINION." We need to reach higher, expect more, expect the truth from our news sources--journalistic excellence.

—Joanne Robrahn, Palm Coast, FL

No to a Hitler-like move to block REAL News from us .. SAVE OUR DEMOCRACY !!

—Rev. Glen Glen Thamert, jemez springs, NM

—Carol Campbell, San Rafael, CA

Trump's marching to Putin's drum. Are you all blind or just brain dead? Wake up and smell the putrid danger to our democratic way of life.

—Bob Barth, Austin, TX

That this is even being considered now shows how far we've fallen as a country. Unbelievable. Pai needs to know he not only doesn't have a free pass, but his egregious actions as chair will have consequences.

—Laura Park, Lawrenceville, GA

If this merger were to go through, it would be the first step towards a massive state-sponsored propaganda outlet. This is not something that is in the interest of any American, and flies in the face of the Constitution. I am writing this bottom comment, because I am sure you will get many of these emails, but I want this one to stick out so you truly realize how much people care about this issue. The First Amendment must be protected, and if you allow this to happen, it will surely be ruined. I urge you to take this threat seriously, and not cave to lobbyist demands, but listen to the voice of the people. Thank you for your time. --Austin

—Austin Orth, Meyersdale, PA

—Ms. Melissa Hathaway, Gresham, OR

Sinclair is a threat to democracy.
—Patricia M. Williams, Lewes, DE

It is unacceptable to have Americans force fed content by hard right liners without their editorial stance and source being openly identified. This is tantamount to a cover influence campaign and should be not just not approved but made illegal!
—Art Keller, Moreno Valley, CA

we will have some influence in the net election and will not forget
—Mary MacVicar, columbus, OH

This proposed merger will allow one political voice to monopolize the airwaves and be a major propaganda channel for a relative small percentage of the US public.

—Patricia Rovik, ,

The FCC must deny the Sinclair-Tribune merger
—Dean S, Short Hills, NJ

Did you take an oath? Are you sincerely looking out for the welfare of this nation? A free press, really? What kind of people are you? Nations that go down this path often die a slow painful death. A well informed public is what guides us. And higher concentrations of power in any industry stifles competition and future creativity. You are too smart for this kind of action. Do your job for the welfare of this nation. Benjamin Franklin said, "A Republic, madam, if we can keep it". Are you the reason we can't keep it? Are you the weak link that destroys our nation? History will remember you for what you do in this situation. You will be remembered for your deeds!
—Mike Mavis, San Diego, CA

It is fascist to try to control news outlets with your message. Give speeches, don't propagandize.

—Robin Guy, Cedar Falls, IA

We neither need nor want this. Local news must remain local, and the "must-run" rule is incompatible with free speech.

—Marlene Puaoli, Novato, CA

This merger ought to be wholly illegal, especially in its underlying intent to propagandize our nightly news without our permission.

—Bruce Johnson Johnson, Olympia, WA

We still believe in Truth.

—George A Pope, san mateo, CA

Our media has been consolidated to the point it is worthless propaganda. This merger makes the problem worse.

—Gordon Lange, Kihei, HI

Stop the propaganda machine!

—Bruce Gordon, Lebanon, TN

The American public needs protection from biased, incorrect information. This amounts to a monopoly for political conservatives, and more access to voters than any other point of view. It is strictly n-American.

—Sue Ann Zimmerman, Chestertown, MD

Are you freakin' kidding me?? How can you do this? Separation please!

—Kathe Stander, Yachats, OR

This country is built on competitive business. Monopolies strangle free markets. Mergers like Sinclair-Tribune not only strangle competitiveness, they thwart growth and give filtered information. Bad idea on so many levels.

—Rebecca H. Walding, Cerrillos, NM

No more monopolies like FoxNews.

—Deborah Smith, Columbus, OH

Look at what Hitler did before you approve this. A really bad step

—Karen Archer, WIMBERLEY, TX

We get enough of this narcissist. We will all be basket cases with 24 hour broadcasting.

—Ruth Hosek, Chicago, IL

Every day I see articles like this that clearly denote that Trump is doing everything in his power to turn this once great democracy into one of Communism. I'm shocked that Comcast, and the other telecommunication companies will stand for this. Why, because no one is going to pay for this type of restriction and garbage.

—Suzanne Wood, Three Rivers, MI

If this deal goes through, we are one step closer to a Trump dictatorship. THIS CAN NOT HAPPEN!!

—Jane Lang, Santa Rosa, CA

This proposed move is in an attack on our democracy. Please come down on the side of democracy and block this move.

—Barbara Lynch, Pleasant Hill, CA

This could be the end of democracy as we know it.

—Jane Moosbrucker Ph.D., Acton, MA

Enough is enough!! One day (not too far in the future), the Trump reign of lies, bluster and daily scandals will be over. How far will we have gone? How far will we have drifted from the norms of representative democracy and a free, ethical press? Will we have the framework of a dictator-style propaganda channel, courtesy of the Sinclair-Tribune merger? Will we be living in a fascist state that resembles the dystopic novel 1984 much more than the America we used to know? As the gate keeper to determining what the FCC deems acceptable to broadcast, you hold an incredible amount of power in your hands. Power tends to corrupt, and this situation is no different. The America people are watching you, and we will hold you accountable if the limits that now stand in the way of this merger from Hell are lifted in order to further enable our mentally & emotionally unstable "leader." DO THE RIGHT THING!!! Side with sanity and TRUE conservatism. Keep this Frankenstein hybrid of Fox News and RT where it belongs... only in Donald Trump's deranged, power-hungry imagination.

—Elizabeth Talev, Tucson, AZ

FCC folk, no matter what side you are one, you know making this merger is WRONG

—Ms. Canary Burton, Wellfleet, MA

Keep our Media unbound!

—Barbara Piszczek, Oxnard, CA

We need diversity, dialog, and facts in our news. That comes when there are a variety of networks presenting news from their point of view. Do not limit our access to a variety of news presentations by granting Ajit Pai the power to limit news coverage to mega-media consolidations.

—Ingrid M. Cook, Joseph, OR

Media monopolies destroy democracy.

—Robert Pulie, Chippendale,

This must be shut down! Please cancel the Sinclair mega-merger! Please shield our local news from Trump's dangerous and deranged agenda!!! Enough is enough!!!

We want a free unbiased airwaves. Stop this merger

—Deborah LaPlace, Mount Angel, OR

Monopolies lead to undemocratic activities.

—David Ira Kagan, Jersey Shore, PA

The American people have already voted on monopolies - we do not want them in ANY business, particularly in mergers that would promote only one company's agenda. We need our news journalists to be able to work on the stories we need to know about - stories which may not be to the liking of Sinclair. We need a balanced news and a balanced television system - and Sinclair will not provide that. Do not allow this merger to go through.

—Sharon J Smith, Evansville, IN

No one company, no matter its political leanings should be permitted to control such a large segment of communication outlets. The public airways were meant to be public and to allow all voices to be heard. This merger will give one loud voice and rob too many of their right to be heard.

—Dr Richard Ely, Florence, MA

We need more competition in media not more consolidation. The Sinclair Mega-Merger is bad for America.

—Donald Harland, Candler, NC

If you don't stop this merger it'll be worse than 1984...we must have a free press and not indoctrination propaganda news

—Ms. Pat Benabe, Lawrence, KS

Truth is vital-these people are way too biased.

—Diane Brewster, Houston, TX

We don't need any more "fake news" channels or divisive Rump propaganda!

—Janet Zaccarelli, Ridgefield, CT

Don't let the media become monolithic! Preserve democracy and freedom of information by increasing, not decreasing the number of stations owned by a single entity or company . Do NOT approve the Sinclair -Tribune merger. Yours sincerely, Nancy Hosay

—Nancy Hosay, Menlo Park, CA

Since day 1 this brutal regime has moved towards corporatist totalitarianism, and this is yet another outrageous example of this regime's seditious contempt for the entire idea of "democracy"

—Richard Blake, chelsea, MI

At every step President Trump and his appointees have placed their business interests and associations in positions to obstruct a free and open media, often for their own personal gain. This is unethical and the FCC should be standing for free and open choices not imposed by allowing content to be forced upon citizens. Take strong action to stop this.

—Alvin Blaustein, Houston, TX

Enough of self-entitled rich people calling the shots in our democracy. Enough!

—Linda Monroe, BLUE HILL, ME

Sinclair already own over 100 stations. It is probably already illegal and if it isn't it should be. The change in ownership is obvious and I've stopped watching those stations as we all should.

—Ms. Brandie Lynn, Ashland, OR

The first steps to tyrannical control and dictatorship is controlling the media and manipulating the news. When corporations gain control of the majority of business, there is not objectivity. It should be obvious when the only way to do this is to slash existing legislation, that is designed to protect the consumer, that this is not something that is beneficial to the people of this country. Please protect our right to be given objective news, untainted by personal agendas.

—JoAnn Haasler, Milwaukee, WI

"TrumpTV" would have to be unconstitutional, or at least, a bigly bad idea!

Do the job the FCC is supposed to do. You are not there to promote a monopoly that pushes hate speech, bigotry, and lies! Cancel the Sinclair mega-merger now!

—Adele Gladstone-Gilbert, Amherst, MA

Your mission is to regulate so corporations can't run rough shod. Regulate. We know that power corrupts. Too much media power in the hands of one conglomerate is not good for local interests, local needs, and diversity. do the right thing. Keep existing limits on how much media one company can earn.

Access to information from different viewpoints is critical for democracy, and further consolidation of communications media is dangerous.

I'm sure Mueller will have something to say about something that is so definitely to benefit Trump. Although the Republicans whose job it is to control the Executive Branch and which they are not doing, wouldn't do it anyway because after all the Republicans are in control. Control of the zoo that was once a democratic form of government but is now a dictatorship, or at least an oligarchy.

—Sandra Brady, Pinellas Park, FL

On the FCC's web page this statement is found: The National TV Ownership rule does not limit the number of TV stations a single entity may own nationwide so long as the station group collectively reaches no more than 39 percent of all U.S. TV households. If my math holds, 70% is significantly more than 39%. Therefore, according to FCC rules, there's no way that the Sinclair company should be allowed to merge with Tribune. Follow your own guidelines, FCC.

Mr. Pai, The consolidation of media companies completely goes against the idea of free market capitalism and competition. It is unfair to the American people to reduce this competition or their access to diverse viewpoints through media mergers. Please do not authorize the Sinclair deal.

Local news has a local agenda and content - period
—Peter F Brazitis, Hansville, WA

The Sinclair-Tribune merger will promote propaganda and not free speech in America. This is not what our forefathers intended for a true democracy. Its a monopolization of the media to support hate speech against minorities/poor people, spreading falsehoods and not facts, and promoting news only rich interests can afford. It could turn our country into a fascist country with a few winners and many losers who do not have access to true information to protect themselves against abuse and economic and political inequality.

—Sue Whitlock, Somerset, KY

Absolutely NO plutocratic mega-merger-monopoly!!!

—P Johansen, Walnut Creek, CA

How far down this steep descent must we go before breaks are applied? We've (by that I mean FCC and "a few other institutions who's responsibilities have been forsaken) plummeted towards the monopoly cliff for some time. Will we go over that cliff? Or do you stop with this latest step toward the brink? Yes the language is a bit dramatic. But monopolies have failed society and general commerce many times over history. Let's not forget lessons learned and repeat past mistakes. Thanks.

—Benjamin A Ward, Portland, OR

My great uncle Clifford Durr was the first chair of the FCC who was responsible for the reservation of broadcast wavelengths for NPR and PBS which is a legacy that is treasured by generations of Americans. Chairman Pai please do not make your legacy one of unacceptable and long unlawful media concentration which is directly at odds with the preservation of the means of diverse voices being heard which whether one likes each of them or not are overwhelmingly accepted as necessary to the survival of a vibrant democracy which has only become more important to the survival of this nation as intended by the Founding Fathers and enshrined in the Constitution in a world where it is imperative the United States for the well-being of the countries and peoples of the planet remain an example of the absolute necessity of a diversity of vibrant voices for the long-term survival and prosperity of a nation. Please do not bend to transitory special interests but endeavor instead to take actions at the FCC keeping in mind that long after those special interests are gone your legacy will live on. Please make it one of which you and future generations can be proud. Thank you, Martin Pesaresi

—Martin Pesaresi, San Francisco, CA

The FCC is the Commission we support with our tax dollars to protect our interests. And one of the most important is FREE PRESS. Sinclair is trying to create a Media News monopoly with Fox. We cannot accept to be treated as people who do not deserve to watch as many opposing ideas as we want to. We do it today. We will not be able to do it if this merger is approved. I hope the majority of Commissioners are not manipulated by Chairman Ajit Pai placed in that position just to destroy our freedom of the press. Chairman Pai actions remind me of what happened in Germany. Yes, I am old enough to remember how we watched the same destruction from here and my parents questioned it. My parents were right. Those manipulations destroyed Germany. I do not want to see America suffering this progressive elimination of all our rights. Commissioners are you accomplices of Chairman Pai in removing our free press? Think carefully what you are going to do because your actions will be repeated in every school history book as perpetrators of this despicable deal!

—Graciela Huth, Los Angeles, CA

Local news is important and so is diversity in reporting.

—Thomas Esposito, Sparks, NV

The FCC should protect the public's trust and interest by allowing the preservation of diverse media in all forms. Local news stations and small businesses are being adversely affected by decisions which favor the largest and richest corporations to dominate the news cycles. This does not allow for the public to receive information which should be accurate, truthful and diverse. Monopolies should never be controlling our news in the U.S. If this occurs, we no longer have democracy but fascism. It must be stopped.

—Sherrie Pizzo, Elmira, NY

Too many domestic enemies, as President Kennedy and April 27, 1961 warning about the takeover of news services and information services by domestic enemies working for foreign enemies

—Gail Foster, Corvallis, OR

I thought there were laws against big business monopolies. This is a really bad idea. I'm not particularly against President Trump, but we need to keep free speech free, whether people like to hear it or not. I did not write the rest of this email, and although I don't agree with its fanatical elements, I do agree with the basics.

—Barbara, Roseburg, OR

I, for 1, will boycott Sinclair. I will others to also boycott Sinclair.

—Harvey Jones, Rainier, OR

It's the job of the FCC to prevent monopolies like the proposed Sinclair-Tribune merger. For the sake of our great country deny this request.
—Kathryn K Day, Edmonds, WA

The merger violates the FCC's national ownership cap -- having a 72% market share is well over the FCC cap. Sinclair-Tribune fails to meet the FCC's public interest threshold, where Sinclair's requirement for local stations to politicize local news is unheard of, and potentially as frightening as state-controlled media. For the merger to truly pass the FCC would need to severely bend the rules and that does not serve the public interest. Ajit Pai's clear motive to jettison decades of established law is not in his purview. He should take that request to Congress, not bend the rules on his own to allow Sinclair to take over our news.
—Kurt Baumgarten, Lincoln, NE

This is contrary to the first amendment intent and undemocratic.

—Gina Chalkley, Cincinnati, OH

Freedom of the Press is vital to democracy. The airwaves are owned by the People. Allowing one voice to monopolize them is unAmerican and unethical. You work for We the People, not the Administration. Do your job!

We do not want a United States of Venezuela where the president dictates what the media reports.

—Ami Weaver, Holt, MI

How does this benefit the nation as a whole. Considering the Nation as a whole is currently divided.

—Roberta Shoemaker Beal, Wimberley, TX

I additionally feel as though there are a lot of conflicts of interests at play here, which do not favor the people, just the corporations, and the avaricious overlords who control them.

—Duncan Fong, Naples, FL

In what way does changing the rules to allow this concentration of control SERVE THE PUBLIC INTEREST?

—Mr. John Seidman, Kingston, NY

This can't be allowed to happen! We needed unbiased news not TrumpTV aka Sinclair Broadcasting! We the people Demand to be heard!!!

—C Rupani, Wappingers Falls, NY

Our local radio has already been monopolized. They were advertising for a weekend church camp retreat for the whole family to practice using firearms complete with 2 worship services and all meals provided, for $35 in Lexington, KY! Is this the New America?! Stop the madness!

—Jean Cheely, Crossville, TN

Ajit Pai is yet another Trump Mafia ReTHUGlican, trying to ram conservatives' unpopular, 1%-coddling bullshit down hard-working citizens' throats. SHAME on the Republicans for trying to recreate a pro-Putin, GOP-Pravda in OUR democracy and Shame On the FCC for even considering this unAmerican, fake news factory!

—B L. Jones, Cedar Rapids, IA

This merger would seriously jeopardize our free press and endanger our democracy.

—Beverly Errede, Chapel Hill, NC

Our democracy is already threatened by attacks of “fake” news. This merger would be one more, serious, assault on our access to facts and unbiased broadcast journalism.

—Dorothea Theus, Colleyville, TX

There are rules in our country's media world. Those rules are clear about the level of concentration of media ownership (across print, radio and TV) that is acceptable. These restrictions have served much of our country well over time. The Sinclair merger violates those rules. NO to the merger. We are a very diverse country geographically. No one company should be able to control the news/messages from media to so much of the country. To have a license to broadcast, objectivity and accuracy are needed components. Sinclair's history of broadcasting content presently shows it should not have any licenses for its less than objective canned segments. Sinclair is NOT a trusted or objective source and should not be allowed the merger. Further, Sinclair should be monitored by the FCC for its current content where it does broadcast. NO MERGER!

—Stacy R, New York, NY

Independent local press, controlled from their own newsrooms, is a requirement for informed democracy.

—Vincent Ferri, Middletown, NY

I prefer real news. Do not want local channels to force political propaganda on us. If I want to see this I can tune in to Fox News. Otherwise I can tune in to real news at msnbc or cnn, which I do.
—Ludi lozano, San Antonio, TX

We need MORE, not less, media outlets. And we certainly do not need any whose main purpose is to propagandize the current White House administration.

—Audrey Brownell, Phoenix, AZ

There is NOTHING good about this merger. In fact, it will be harmful, without a doubt as this is not a "neutral" outlet- it peddles divisive and disingenuous material. PLEASE don't allow this merger.

—Cheryl Orr M.D., South Lake Tahoe, CA

This potential merger is taking us in exactly the wrong direction. We need to be moving back to the doctrine of Equal Time--not has Trump has spouted about it, but as the original regulators of the airwaves intended--that these public airwaves be regulated for and in the public interest. Mega media consolidation is NOT in the public interest, and instead moves us closer to place where one party or person's propaganda can literally be broadcast to all without any factual counterweight. Such a shift brings our democracy closer to its demise.

—Mrs. Anne Hanson, Craftsbury, VT

Mr Pai- you need to reverse your march and LEAVE NET NEUTRALITY ALONE! THE Sinclair-Tribune merger also needs to be STOPPED!!!!!!

—Dana Couey, Santa Rosa, CA

We do not need more media outlets for lies.

—Jordan E Young, New York, NY

Please block this merger.

I'm a 17 year veteran teacher and I cry nightly at the thought of Sinclair taking over local broadcasts. This is not the freedom of press I teach my students. You'll erode our democracy. Please think of the working Americans to whom Sinclair will spread propaganda so they'll vote against their own best interest. I'm devastated at how Sinclair will spread hate in my sweet community and I'll be very scared to leave my home because of my skin color.

—Rima Dakhallallah, Travelers Rest, SC

To go forward to this is treasonist

—Ann Piekarz, Berkeley Heights, NJ

Allowing monopolies on local media is unconscionable. Do not destroy the laws that protect our right to hear a variety of voices.

—Daniel Erdman, Lancaster, PA

This is dangerous.

—Barbara L Wagner, Denver, CO

Having too few broadcasters is dangerous to our democracy.

—James Daniel Bernstein, Santa Monica, CA

Please stop this craziness!!!

—Elizabeth Mihalevich, Houston, TX

Please stop this deal!

—Donna Rochelle, Douglasville, GA

This is one of the first steps dictators seek to achieve. What does this say about the person who occupies the White House, but who was not the winner of the vote of the people of this country?

—Dr Earle Lewis, Manor Travis County, TX

This is unacceptable to allow merger to happen. It's against our constitutional right of free and unbiased press.

—Amy de la Cruz, Fort Worth, TX

This is an incredibly irresponsible deal that actually threatens our democracy and national security. Please. Stop it.

—Buonanno Anna, Yorktown Heights, NY

Straight after his deplorable pro-business, anti-citizen war against net neutrality, Ajit Pai is again playing king-maker with the again pro-business and anti-citizen Sinclair-Tribune merger that will consolidate media power into the hands of right-wing zealots to spread our sociopaths president's lies and fake news. You people are simply despicable. STOP THIS MERGER.

—Steven Chabra, New York, NY

FCC it is your job and duty to all American citizens to protect us from abuse. Sinclair media should not be able to control 70% of local news outlets. This is close to a monopoly! Also Sinclair does not share complete truthful news to viewers and promotes far-right wing, Russian and Trump propaganda! Please do not allow this. It is a threat to our democracy!

—Rhoda Posey, Carson, CA

Nooooope! Absolutely not!

—Aurea Anthony, Inglewood, CA

We must stop Fake News Networks like Sinclair and Fox. They are spreading false propaganda to keep the minority Republican Party in power and wrecking our democracy.

—Ilene Kilbride, Denver, CO

We need free dissemination of the news. One company owning several outlets, especially in one market, limits our right to information.

—Tony Mattson, Albuquerque, NM

NO NO NO NO NO NO

—Kathleen Sites, Pittsburgh, PA

I've worked in TV B'casting all for 35 years and am dismayed by how partisan TV news has become. It is imperative to limit single corporate ownership of the public airways... one of the important functions of the FCC.

—Robin Buerki, woodinville, WA

My local station, WGN, is a superstation that would put Sinclair's biased content in millions of homes via cable and local news. America does not have State TV, which this station would quickly become. Do not allow it!

—Sherry Krsticevic, Chicago, IL

Stop Sinclair. Save our country from this despicable and unfair deal!

—Barb Terry, Aiea, HI

Protect our rights. Repeal the the Telecommunication Act of 1996. This merger is not constitutional.

—Martha R. Armas, Elmhurst, NY

Big money should not speak louder than truth. Stop the merger.

—Kathe Buricj, San Francisco, CA

Sinclair Broadcasting does not meet the standard of non-politicized reporting. Please do not allow them to further their undemocratic agenda. FCC stand up for us!

—Vicki Blaauw, Vanderbilt, MI

I like my T.V. as is !!! I guess Ajit Pai will need a new job when no one watch T.V. any more. Are those in Government be looking for a new job because those in Government will not get Vote to stay in Government . That right the Wealthy People will keep them in Office like they do now. This again will show you the Wealthy People will pay to get their way in Government.

—Jeff Waters, Ocala, FL

SHUT. IT. DOWN.

—Kevin Blythe, Lawrenceville, VA

Trump's version of free speech is a serial killer's version of tough love. Don't let the already faltering mouthpiece of local news become like Turkey's broken state system of broadcast "news"....

—Charles V. Kremenak, San Francisco, CA

Please don't let this happen!!

—Charles V. Kremenak, San Francisco, CA

I am concerned about the widespread broadcast of "must-run" statements promoting any agenda, which it appears this merger may bring.

—Sidney Bounds, Seattle, WA

The FCC is supposed to keep our air waves clean of political maneuvering. The air waves are public property - it is not for politicians' private agenda. Everything Ajit Pai is doing subverts the FCC's purpose. Bring back the Fair and Balanced Act!!

—Maryellen H Cameron, Massillon, OH

Serve the people! Stop massive media mergers!

—Daniel, New York, NY

There is no reason for this merger except to drive out legitimate news. The Sinclair people already force people at their stations to report false news and lies as though they are true. Fox News does this regularly. We already have a fake news network. We don't need another plus, this goes against anti-trust laws already in place. I know this administration doesn't care about the law, the Constitution, or anything but their own power and how rich they can get, but the rest of us need to stop them. They are not patriotic and do not have America's best interest at heart, only their own. Stop the merger. It helps no one but a few lying fools and we don't need to be supporting them. R.Sheets

—Ruth Sheets, Brookhaven, PA

Do not aid & abet the orange menace in undermining our democracy. It is he who is fake & the enemy. Freedom of the press. Do not conspire with racists & bigots. Do the right thing.

—D Figge, Pensacola, FL

This isn't a monarchy or a dictatorship.

—Aleta Payne, Willingboro, NJ

This is unacceptable. We are not a dictatorship or communist country. This merger would enable and promote the already despicable behavior of fake and dangerous propaganda. Please save the free press and stop this merger!!

—Deanna Wolf-Jones, Loomis, CA

The Sinclair station in Springfield has decreased local news coverage and replaced it with national stories about Trump propaganda, so our market is missing out on community news, which is what local TV was founded on. This needs to stop!

—Ruth Slottag, Springfield, IL

Changing the rules to allow a partisan media monopoly is exactly what the FCC should not do or allow.

—Neal Snyder, San Leandro, CA

Stop this merger of Sinclair & Tribune

—James Nicholas, Syracuse, NY

A free, non-monopolized, press is a must for a true Democracy.

—Roscoe Born, New York, NY

Now is the crucial time to protect and preserve independent local media outlets. We need to know where our news is coming from, not to be fed veiled propaganda from a biased conglomerate that has a specific agenda.

—Joni Bullock, Lewiston, ID

We need independent media in every community. It is how the "Third Estate" keeps a check on the other two...

—Alexandra Heder, Binghamton, NY

I've had enough of Trump and America should wake up and realize he is a president that is impeachable. No more Trump News!! Fake News!

—, Bessemer, MI

We urge the FCC to listen to communities and block this despicable deal.

—Mercy M, Saint Paul, MN

Doesn't serve the public interest. Extreme exceptions should NOT be made. DENY this merger.

—Cynthia Wheeler, Black Diamond, WA

Since when do we rubber-stamp monopolies? Since when does the FCC actively promote them? Since the era of the Trump administration, and the desire to end true and objective journalism in favor of corporate disinformation. Shameful. Ajit Pai should step down - unworthy of the role his job represents in fairness and truth. He appears to be a bought and paid for tool of the big companies...

—Janis Swalwell, Freeland, WA

Why do we even have anti-monopoly laws when no one wants to use them? Pai is in the back pocket of big media. Do not allow him to create Trump TV with this merger.

—Sara Crane, Seattle, WA

WE do not need more consolidation of media outlets. WE need less consolidation and a breakup of monopoly like mergers

—Michael Dague, Spokane, WA

Americans deserve unbiased reporting. This potential mega-merger does NOT allow for unbiased reporting. I, and many others, oppose this merger. It's your responsibility to listen to what is best for Americans - and this merger is NOT it.

—Gerri Foley, Louisville, CO

No Sinclair, Deny the merger!

—Liela tracy, Cranston, RI

A lack of journalistic integrity should not be awarded with a bigger mouthpiece.

—J Willis, Lake Oswego, OR

This merger should not even be considered. Sinclair already holds too much market share and does not respect free speech or balance in reporting.

—Michael J Lambert, Mahomet, IL

This is one of the largest mergers in recent history and would give Sinclair an unhealthy share of the television market! DO NOT allow this merger to be approved, for the sake of America!

—Carol Ring, Schererville, IN

Also we need to make and keep the Internet a neutral service. Thank you.
—James A Damiel, Sterling Heights, MI

Do your damn job. No news monopolies!
—Dan Roberts, Seattle, WA

The survival of a free society depends on diverse voices in our local media. This merger is the antithesis of a diverse local media. Please cancel this merger.
—Harry Lewis Michaels Jr., Fort Collins, CO

No to state run news!!!!
—, Los Angeles, CA

Do not approve this mergers
—Virginia Emly, American Canyon, CA

Never have I uttered a more heartfelt, hardy "fuck you" than now, Mr. Trump.
—Gabe Gibbons, Madison, WI

It's unbelievable that Pai is planning on playing fast and loose with the airwaves he should be regulating and supporting.
—Elise MacDonald, Nashua, NH

No Trump TV! The U.S. President shall not have favored access to the PEOPLE.
—Karen Ingenthron, Oakland, CA

Local news stations must maintain independence. One company must never be allowed to own 70% of American households. This is not news, this is propaganda! Do we really want our country to become authoritarian? The only way to keep our Nation democratic is to respect independent news and freedom of speech. Do not indoctrinate our people merely to insure that things go your way. Our founders did everything in their power to insure that we are a democratic nation. Respect independence in the media. Sinclair is too big already, break it up. Do not allow it to get bigger.

—Sue Addison, Santa Cruz, CA

Independent Local News stations are essential for our democracy! A Sinclair Mega -Merger must be strongly opposed!

—Elliot Bronwein, Newhall, CA

We see what you're trying to do. This is the United States, not North Korea.

—Diana Cimino, Saint Paul, MN

We don't need any myopic pseudo monopoly damaging our local televised daily news. This proposed merger is a borderline criminal proposal with no merit for the people and very profitable to just one corporation. It must be stopped.

—Roy B Tansill, Corpus Christi, TX

We are becoming a dictatorship fast enough. PLEASE SAY NO!

—Jacquie Hedtkamp, Ferndale, WA

Say no to the Sinclair monopoly of the airwaves

—Janna Crews, Reno, NV

The issue at hand is whether or not any media company has the right to promote a biased representation of the "news". If the rationalization is that viewership is, to the largest extent, a result of private investment in the broadcast spectrum, I will argue that all access to the consumer delivered by a private corporation is predicated by substantial expenditures financed to the largest extent through public taxpayers. Therefore, until such time comes that a wholly independent delivery system is in place, "News" and "opinion" broadcasts must therefore be neutral w/ regard to political ideology. An equal playing field will provide the balance to allow a consumer to make their decisions regarding representation based on a level playing field, not a perceptively skewed representation of said platforms. The issue at hand is what happened to the Fairness Doctrine? How is it that there is no longer any standard for representation of political content? Tell me what you believe, Let someone else tell you what they believe... I'll make up my own mind. Thank you for taking the time to read this...HA HA HA... like that's gonna happen.

—Kelly McKay, Ferndale, WA

Will you contribute to the spread of hate fear and violence or stem the tide?

—Margaret Gallegos, Santa Monica, CA

I am appalled that this merger is even under consideration. It should be promptly and fully rejected.

—Bruce Torrence, Ashland, VA

Drain Pai's Big Media "swamp." Americans demand diversity among broadcasters that use our airwaves.

—Thom Fistner, Bethlehem, PA

Please save our country from mis-information at the hands of Sinclair!

—Ms. Mary Becelia, Fredericksburg, VA

Don't make your country worse, follow your own rules don't make them worse for power or money we want to live here not die here hate breeds hate

—Danny L Campbell, Madison Heights, MI

This is quickly becoming a monopoly. We need a variety of News organizations in order to protect our first amendment rights. No State Run Media!

—Dusti Brooks, Strawberry Plains, TN

Please prevent the takeover of Tribune Media, which includes one of our local stations, by the Sinclair group. Sinclair represents the worst aspects of our society. We don't want this in Richmond, VA.

—Daniel fortuna, Henrico, VA

A Sinclair-Tribune merger would establish a virtual monopoly on the news by some extremely dishonest characters.

—David Diamond, Dover, NH

We do not need a propaganda network in the United States of America.

—Doreen Stratton, Doylestown, PA

Mega-Corporations = Monopolies, and ANY monopoly should never be trusted.

—Jay Howell, Ithaca, NY

The people will loose with this merger.

—Gary Albright, Snohomish, WA

I INSIST YOU SUPPORT PEOPLE LIKE ME AND EVERYONE ELSE, NOT CORPORATIONS NOR TRUMP!!! UNDERSTAND?!

—Jacob Price, Vancouver, WA

We need more protection from media saturation by powerful elites, not less. Local news should be under local control, preferably with fair coverage of stories and issues. This merger would prevent even the possibility of that and inches ever closer to right-wing aligned corporate fascism. This merger must not happen.

—Nancy Foster, Myrtle Beach, SC

Very bad move...

—Coul Colt, Key West, FL

Enough!

The rules are in place for a reason, and for some reason these people think they're above the rules. They aren't. This merger is not good for America, don't let it through.

—Jason D McDONALD, MIDWEST CITY, OK

Proven Liers

—Andre V Holmes, Santa Fe, NM

We must reverse the trend to raise diversity, angst and violence among our citizenry and unite America. This merger is another stone against a peaceful humanist union.

I certainly don't ever want to hear anymore blowhearts on this tv station: I don't want trump tv: EVER!!

—Deborah Doolittle, Wakefield, RI

Without a diversity of media our country's democracy is doomed!!

Sinclair is actually worse than Fox News, and FCC Chairman Ajit Pai is a criminal!

—Theodore S. Cochrane, Madison, WI

We need to reestablish the rule of law back in this administration! !!!! Get the family out!!! Tell trump he's NOT the only one that matters, and colluding with a foreign government to win an illegitimate election! !!! HILLARY IS OUR PRESIDENT, LEGALLY!

—Kathleen Brower, New Port Richey, FL

Seriously. The news is meant to check the government, not support it. When the news supports the government, it's called 'propaganda,' instead.

—Esther Taxon, Santa Barbara, CA

You are trying to turn this country into a Trump news, double-speak country in which this president and his underlings speak with forked tongues (a real American expression!). There's a limit, you are nearing it, and there will be hell to pay. We rose up against tyranny before and will do so again if pushed too far. Read and heed Chapter four of Barbara Tuchman's "The March of Folly"!!!

—Robert DeMars, Madison, WI

this is the opposite of free speech!!! Must be stopped!

—Celia Bressack, New York, NY

ENOUGH!! No Pravda here.

—Linda R Devendorf, Sunnyvale, CA

Please protect us from a growing propaganda machine.

—Alex Schwartz, Studio City, CA

Media monopolies lead to propaganda and fake news.

—Donna, Malvern, PA

When one conglomerate owns the news there is NO freedom of speech only censored news. Do what is right block this merger

—Dorothy Bach, Honolulu, HI

Ajit Pai knows he has a tremendous amount of power and he doesn't care what the majority of the American public wants. He's supposed to help protect 'Free Speech' but, his actions support big corporations for their $$ benefit, not our free rights. This is a big step to take over of our democracy. It begins with shutting down the 'free press' which this Sinclair merger does. History has shown that controlling the press, controls elections. Stop FCC Chairman Pia from pushing his and Trump's agenda.

—Christine Brown, Redmond, WA

State TV is not an American value.

—Ben L Howe, Seattle, WA

—del Ericson, n collins, NY

I strongly oppose the Sinclair-Tribune merger. I think it would erode accurate news reporting. It's time, Ajit, to think of your heritage in history and if you want to go down as just another stooge of Donald Trump, bent on destroying American freedoms.

—James Martin Verberkmoes, Roseburg, OR

Making America into a 3rd world country. NO to Thrump TV.

—S K Davis, Bristol, CT

Please act now. Our free press is part of our nations founding and it must be protected.

—David Garcia, Austin, TX

Stop this!!!

—Peter Spurr, Joshua Tree, CA

You guys would love that, wouldn't you? Big Brother in the personage of a monster dictator. No doubt you think you'll somehow financially benefit and it will keep all the TV viewing rabble in line, with your FCC honchos at the helm cracking the whip for the dictator. Just a reminder: it could all backfire very easily -- for you, too. The day might come when no one will guarantee your own job or your own staying out of prison -- or worse -- for disagreeing with a tyrant. Just a thought to mull over. A country turning into a dictatorship plutocracy always starts with propaganda through the media. Do you really want to be responsible for it?

—Laura Demilio, Pittsburgh, PA

STOP FORCE FEED MEDIA DEVICES.

—Waker George, ,

No group/person should be able to own 70% of the media news citizens view. This merger is a bad idea and would give Sinclair too large of a majority creating in effect a monopoly. Freedom of the press is guaranteed, and when one person owns this much of a majority, it's becomes too easy to control what is reported and how it's reported.

—C Wilson, Spokane Valley, WA

If you pass this, it will be an act of war against us, We, The People!!

—LaWren Giesbrecht, Thief River Falls, MN

Pruitt has greatly expanded his security detail; have you, Pai?

—Gary Pischke, Roseburg, OR

FOX NEWS IS BAD ENOUGH SPEWING HATE AND LIES IN THEIR SUPPORT OF TRUMP, PUTIN'S PUPPET! WE CERTAINLY DO NOT NEED MORE OF THESE TYPES OF TRUMP TV!

—Deborah Alexzander, Arroyo Grande, CA

Does the FCC work for Russia now? Or the Koch brothers, el al.? Chuck Schumer referred to the hard right in a recent interview. Is this what the hard right really wants? Control over our media, free press.

—Stephen Smith, Little Falls, NY

Dear FCC I'm writing on my behalf in concerned about this merger between Sinclair broadcasting and Tribune. It will create a monopoly and I urge you to say no to this merger.

—Michael, Smithfield, NC

Please stop the Sinclair-Tribune Merger. We don't need any more propaganda disguised as news.

—Julie Herrick, Santa Ana, CA

—Ro Lewis, Lockeford, CA

Stop allowing Sinclair to grow with no limits. It is dangerous and harmful to our country!
—David Young, Burnsville, MN

No Trump TV. No more "conservative" that's in the tank for this president, who manipulated and co-opted Fox and other outlets to sell his brand. This attempt to give a propaganda artist his own media outlet is a sham. Americans should be wary of who and what comes in to their homes on TV and radio. There is no real "fair and balanced" when "conservative" media screams conspiracy theories as "news" 24/7.
—Mark McKennon, Brooklyn, NY

You must cancel the Sinclair Tribune mega merger. They broadcast lies and dissention across their tv stations and Americans who watch, thinking they are hearing the truthful facts, end up with misinformation. It is propaganda just like in Russia. Cancel the Sinclair Mega Merger for the sake of our democracy.
—Patricia Roche, Mountain Home, AR

Now more than ever we need to limit monopolistic control of the media outlets!
—Gary Fisher, Glen Arm, MD

We need local stations. We are against any kind of merger like this.

—Dee Noblett, Mechanicville, NY

Consolidation is dangerous to democracy!

—James Clark, Lake Stevens, WA

no-no-no-no! NO DEAL! More than despicable!!

—Marina Vrouvlianis, Newton, MA

We need diversity of thought on local news. This will not be possible if the Sinclair-Tribune merger happens. One news organization should be not able to monopolize and cannibalize most of the local news stations in America. I am vehemently opposed to the FCC decimating media ownership rules to do so and with no public comment period. Shame on you Ajit Pai for even considering this right-wing information grab.

—Cathaleen Riley-Bishop, Tampa, FL

Stop the madness

—Loretta Nathan, Los Angeles, CA

the USA should never become the DPRK mirror.

—John Wilkins, La Center, KY

Stop the Mega Mergers...NOW!!!

—Daniel, Salida, CO

NO media corporation should be allowed to own radio and/or TV stations and/or cable TV systems that reach more than 49% of US households. But if they are allowed to do so, the media companies must meet rigorous rules that inhibit political speech. The First Amendment has cut-outs for other types of speech that could endanger human lives, and the power wielded by media mega-corporations must be reigned in, regardless of their ownership or historical stances on political matters. Oligarchy, fascism and other forms of mind control using fear, partial truths and fake news have no place in a democracy when there is little opportunity for balanced speech in the face of a monopoly on local broadcast media.

—Gregory EplerWood, Burlington, VT

Mergers eliminate jobs due to duplication among other reasons. Market consolidation is already dangerously high in this market. Allowing the market to become more consolidated will harm consumers.

—Brian Lorenz, Tallahassee, FL

Chairman Pai, why don't you ever take a running leap off a high cliff?

—Judy Edgar, Phoenix, AZ

Enough is enough. I deserve news that is news, not brainwashing.

—Martha Scoppa, Liberty, NY

We need to break up more of the TV, radio, and cable monopolies. I realize we are headed towards 2 of each so the FCC can pretend that there is competition, but this is already a lie. Stop making things even worse. Or be fucking honest and have only one state run program for each.

—I have given up on freedom in America, Bay City, MI

This is not acceptable. What happened to the anti-trust act? Republicans are supposed to be for competition!

—Jill Grieson, South Glastonbury, CT

I support freedom of the press!

—Janice Hoff, Glastonbury, CT

It is essential to our democracy for a range and variety of attitudes and beliefs be freely expressed. We cannot tolerate monopolistic news. Maintain the longstanding limits on how much local media one company can own and control. Thank you for recognizing the need to support active democracy.

—Andrea K Allen, South Glastonbury, CT

Keep FCC protection of the public interest intact!

—Martin Kluger PhD, South Glastonbury, CT

Local communities MUST have multiple choices for the source of news. We undermine our republic without this safeguard.

—Harriet B. Mathis, Fort Lauderdale, FL

Please cancel the Sinclair mega-merger

This is so unconstitutional!!!!

—Monica Anderson, San Antonio, TX

A free and independent press and media are must have for us to be a free society.

—William B Corfman, Seattle, WA

Say no to the merger!

—Jason Ryan, Cedar Rapids, IA

Absolutely ridiculous. One more way hes trying to take away freedom of the press. This HAS to stop.

—Sarah Harber, Paw Paw, MI

This merger will only lead to the dissemination of more lies in the service of the authoritarian fascist Trump administration.

—Robert Obeid, Bakersville, NC

Allowing giant media the only say is absolutely anti-American!!

—Victoria Smith, Parkville, NY

This is disgusting, and a massive abuse of power and public trust. You have a duty to represent your race, @ajit pai, show some fucking shame

Trump is ruining this country. Shame on all of you who are helping him destroy us.

—Gloria Mack, North Fort Myers, FL

Why are the anti-trust laws being ignored?

—Arlene Zahn, Cedarburg, WI

They want to use these networks to spread propaganda Congress should not allow this, if it is approved then Democracy is Doomed then we will be a third world country

—James Mace, Neptune, NJ

I'm a Democrat who voted for Trump, a white, male, privileged, educated, and was working on the internet before most. We need to protect the internet from being subverted. Anyone who wants to control it will be on the wrong side of history.

—Jack Moore, Lawrence, PA

Cancel the Sinclair mega-merger. This country should not be subject to one company that will control the majority of news content that people have access to. Don't play a part in limiting people news content to a conservative point of view. Put a halt to the Sinclair merger.

—Dirk Dickens, Los Angeles, CA

I don't really know how to go about addressing something like this. The fact is that information distribution will be changed forever if this goes through, and if we allow that to happen than I believe that an already doomed country will be . . . ignorant, and irredeemable. I am no nationalist, I believe that America has fallen from the grace that it originally held in spite of its flaws. It was great at some point, when our founding fathers created The Constitution and The Bill of Rights - granted it wasn't meant for everyone - it was a good start for a country that prides itself on the concept of freedom. Over the last century the internet has changed outlook on the world, because of the internet we can communicate with people who're different from ourselves, other cultures, governments, and people both good and bad. I believe that the internet is a good thing, but if this merger goes through . . . it'll be ruined. Please, we don't want a good thing to be ruined.

—Camryn Minor, Canton, OH

My father worked for a Sinclair station. I witnessed the slow poisoning of his worldview and how he began to idolize Rupert merdoch. A complete take over of our airwaves by one voice no matter the message is dangerous. Do not allow this merger.

—Carol Couturier, Grand Rapids, MI

A FREE PRESS is key to democracy! Ajit Pai and his agenda must be STOPPED!

—Dick Cole, Boulder, CO

Come on, FCC. My friend can barely pay for her own technological services as is. She uses sites like eBay to sell her old stuff so she can gain more money to actually pay for her life, and by making her pay to use those sites would send her into homelessness. It's crazy how you think this is okay. Fuck the profits you get, think about the people, the millions who will be broke trying to pay for tv, internet, and even food. The millions more who will starve trying to access the internet for kids, jobs, and other things. The many who will lose their jobs simply because they can not pay for Google anymore.

—Amy, Dallas, TX

STOP. THIS IS THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, LAND OF THE FREE AND THE MELTING POT. WE ARE A DEMOCRACY. We are a democratic country, and showing propaganda and everything sounds like the opposite of the foundations of what America was supposed to be. Also, as we are known as the Melting Pot, stop being racist. In conclusion, STOP.

—Lydia, Cumming, GA

We can't allow this merger to happen it can't be allowed to further divide people at the hearth of America. The homes and households of Americans it is immoral to spread fear and discourse through people who people trust and are only saying things to keep a paycheck it is demeaning and undermines basic human values.

—Ian Newton, Arlington, VA

Let's keep whatever freedom we can. No monopolizing one of the best forms of info and communication we have. Don't take away our freedom of speech.

—Lauri Riordan, Medford, NY

Stop Sinclair from taking over the media. It isn't right for one company to control what 70 percent of the population will watch on TV. It is ridiculous how much they already own. Don't let them take over.

—Shelby, Batavia, IL

NO To Unethical News

—J, Dunellen, NJ

DONT TAKE AWAY OUR INTERNET!! NOT EVERY THING IS ABOUT MONEY

—Rachel Divine, Pasadena, CA

The control Sinclair has over the media is the actual end of our democracy, now the American people will only see the messages that Trump wants them to have access to.

—Gregory Lyon, Knoxville, TN

With moves like this the FCC is rapidly becoming the servants of those they were meant to defend us from. This is a disgusting abuse of power.

—Jack Van Sullen, Eastpointe, MI

Stop/Block this merger that will create a monopoly in many areas of our country and eliminate the access to various points of view and a multitude of news stories.

—Phyllis Horn Liparini, Evanston, IL

Like the internet ... WE WANT FREE AND OPEN NEWS/INFORMATION. WE DO NOT WANT YOU OR SOME OTHER KNUCKLE DRAGGER MAKING DECISIONS FOR US OR GIVING US ONLY WHAT YOU WANT US TO SEE AND HEAR!

—Marlisa Griffith, Hot Springs Village, AR

We are allowing the United States to be run by a man who wants to filter the information we receive to make himself look sane. Are you kidding me?

—Paula DiSipio, Manahawkin, NJ

—Richard Barber, Detroit, MI

Do not allow Sinclair or any other entity to become a monopoly.

—Mary Alice McMahon, Naperville, IL

My name is Usman Ferozpuri, I support Net Neutrality and I minor in political Science at NVCC. I am person of low income. If we the people lose the ability to view what we want at the right speeds. People like me will have a hardtime to function in real life. Its 2017, majority of people today relay on the internet! For everything school, work etc For example small businesses can't afford to spend over 100 dollars on a bill just to view a site. Its not fair to the American people and goes against freedom of press. Think about it. A kid needs to do homework on a special website but his parents ISP package doesn't include the website access. What do you expect the kid parent's to do magically have 100 dollars and more for one site or let their kid fail the assignment because of their income. I just feel Ajit Pai doesn't see the logic we are in 2017. Taking away these regulations will destroy the American people- we are in a technological era without access people have to change their life style at least for low income whereas the rich will benefit. After all he worked for Verizon. Even in a old interview Tom Udall U.S senator argued how Pai proposal had no evidence to back up why Net Neutrality needs to be removed for market advancement.

—Usman Ferozpuri, Arlington, VA

Regardless of political party affiliations, allowing one private entity majority control of the media is irresponsible and dangerous. Free, unfettered and unaffiliated media is and always should be the goal of democratic nations. Please stop letting greed be the defining characteristic of the United States---make our country something we can be proud of and trust again.

—Heather Brister, Los Angeles, CA

Chairman Pai - in your short, temporary occupation of your office you have single handedly violated the freedoms of communications that we the people are entitled to. I look forward to the end of your occupation and you can continue your conflict of interest full time career as a corporate whore for Verizon. Fuck you and fuck Verizon!

—Adam Karapandzich, Twinsburg, OH

Shit Pai, And Dry Hump have no morals or class.

The current regulations regarding ownership of media in our country should be restricted even more. The danger of one company owning a great percentage of media outlets has been historically proven to be the exact opposite of a democratic republic. I urge the FCC to block this dangerous assault on free press in America.

—, Waukegan, IL

This is mass brainwashing... not independent news.

—Carol Shuckra, Traverse City, MI

Local communities deserve locally produced media that meets our needs — not cheap cookie-cutter coverage that spreads propaganda and pads profits for an unscrupulous media empire.

—William Gittlen, Traverse City, MI

The monopoly of media sources is a necessary ingredient for totalitarianism, either right wing or left. The extreme right wing is attempting to eliminate or diminish the most important part of a democracy, a free press including other forms of media.

—John McDonald, Traverse City, MI

No way. Stop this merger. We need non-partisan news.

—Berta Meserve, Lake Ann, MI to even consider this is shameful

—Carl Kuzmich, Long Beach, CA

Time to have a return to the free airwaves (voices, speech?) that is what a democracy must have. Otherwise, we are a laughable "banana republic."

—Danielle L Greene, Falls Church, VA

The Sinclair deal stinks. Cancel it.

—Roseann Dudrick, Santa Cruz, CA

This is disgusting .. we dont want "state" run media.. this isnt the ussr.. yet

—Kathryn serra, Seminole, FL

Sinclair media should not be able to violate the existing rules. 39% is a fair percentage of Holdings. And they should not be allowed a loophole of a shared agreement. That means they could control all the news in the area and they can't ain't it anyway they want. From what I've read about them they do that a lot. I actually found out which stations were Sinclair mini around me there are two but a third station carries some other news. That seems irresponsible. At least I'm aware of these stations that are manipulative and propagandist. Not everyone else is that's what the government's there for to protect us.

—Frank Papp, Fort Mill, SC

I am already appalled at the prevalence of TrumpTV in my home state of Iowa. Family and friends there do not have enough choices in media as it is! I hear Rush Limbaugh spewing his hate in every car and home I enter there, and Fox news in on every TV screen in bars and restaurants all across Iowa. Clearly this is NOT "fair and balanced"!

—Debra Marks, SAN DIEGO, CA

Because of you, KUTV2 News is now state run propaganda! I'm disgusted!

—Brady Tate, Grantsville, UT

—Jessica Rios, Lakeland, FL

We do not need corporate dictated news!

—Tracy Wade, Browns Valley, CA

Sinclair Broadcasting is propaganda for trump, the alt-right, and everything that is wrong with America today. This is not Russia, keep America propaganda free!

—Theresa Roeske, Wellsville, NY

Sinclair is bad for journalism.

—Elizabeth Bradley, Hinsdale, IL

It is essential for Americans to get a variety of news from different news organizations not owned by the same corporation. 70% ownership in broadcast and print would be a monopoly and let a corrupt corporations set their own agenda

—Jeff Toppins, Portsmouth, OH

Please do not let Sinclair have this much power in media.

—Maggie, Saint Louis, MO

Forcing local news anchors to read the same, biased scripts to their audiences is not democracy; it is state-run TV. This becomes all the more obvious and alarming when you consider that Sinclair had hired Kristine Frazao, who had been a reporter and anchor for the Russian-government funded news network RT. For the good of the United States and for our democracy as set forth by our founders, you must cancel the Sinclair-Tribune merger. To do otherwise is to betray this country.

—Elissa Malcohn, Beverly Hills, FL

Please block the Sinclair- Tribune merger. It is a horrible deal for this nation.

STOP SINCLAIR NOW!! This is FASCISM

—Debbie Braswell, Shelby, NC

What we've seen of Sinclair so far proves it is not responsible partner in the goal of preserving the goal of a free and just America. History will judge you more harshly than any FCC ever if you permit this merger to go through.

—Mr. David Flores, Bronx, NY

It's vitally important that we have a free and fact based media where differences of opinion are strongly encouraged AND the facts are irrefutable. The consolidation of power and control of so many markets by the Sinclair-Tribune merger are extremely detrimental to the health of our democracy. I urge you to block this bad deal.

—Debra Farb, Berkeley, CA

This is the United States this can not happen, too many people are easily lead by the media. Please stop this propaganda machine now!

—Carey OConnell, Albuquerque, NM

200 stations Kushner involved with for propaganda -NO, he can't get Security ! US veterans did not serve and die, for a Trumps son in law to tell us how to think Free press, bought and paid by sacrifices of our veterans

—D Skelton, Sioux Falls, SD

I realize the FCC I am writing to is headed by a person who likely agrees with the opinions Sinclair would force & use its influence to drive its local stations to broadcast. I would ask that the FCC leadership consider how they might feel if Sinclair were owned and operated in the same way by Barack Obama or Hillary Clinton, and act accordingly.

—Kathleen Overton, New York, NY

Do not force state propaganda on local stations. Sinclair merger is dangerous and un-American and should be stopped

—Leslie Rich, Island Park, NY

—Jennifer Passarelli, Staten Island, NY

Dear FCC Voting Members, Now is NOT the time to allow further consolidation in the broadcasting industry. We know that our democracy and public speech is imperiled by such conglomerations. Do not vote to allow this merger of Sinclair and Turner. You know that such a vote is a vote to make Americans more susceptible to propaganda and more ignorant of current affairs. A democracy can only thrive when its citizens are knowledgeable. You know this and it is your responsibility to govern in the interests of the American people. Do the right thing.

—Alice Bullard, Washington, DC

The recent script reading mandate by Sinclair News should be adequate evidence of the danger of a media monopoly. Do what is right and deny the deal. Protect our access to all views! This isn't communist China, yet.

This mega-media consolidation is equivalent to Pravda in the United States and should not be permitted, especially while the chair is under investigation, Ajit Pai, for this very type of operation.

The FCC must deny the Sinclair-Tribune merger. Sinclair has consistently proven itself to be an unworthy steward of the public airwaves — promoting racist commentators, spreading Trump propaganda, slashing newsroom staff, and forcing bigoted must-run content on local stations — and should not be rewarded with a merger that will allow the company to double down on its bad behavior.

—Jane Smith, Salem, IL

I say No to State Run Propaganda....

When Sinclair threatens employees to read their propaganda or else, we are all in trouble. Making them robots that spew their bias views makes them a dictatorship.

this merger would not be good for America. The same as if all content were Far far left. I Would protest that also. We need responsible, intelligent unbiased (if there is any) balance in media

—Ronni K Rosenberg, Miami, FL

This deal is just another part of Russia's coup attempt to destroy what makes our democracy work. We will not benefit by numbing our brains or taking away our voices. Democracy demands we challenge any and every way of thinking. Forcing propaganda on people (& forcing staff/media to robotically repeat these deviant messages as acceptable) would result in no separation between the US and every autocracy that currently exists. This merger needs to STOP in its tracks! As a society, we need to value & elevate ethical behavior in business and in politics.

—Jennifer Cummings, Phoenix, AZ

Monopoly media serve no one well. The Tribune is a conservative organization that nevertheless does excellent reporting. Sinclair has just proven itself to be in the business of propaganda. We, the people, do not want to lose diverse voices to media monopolies. If we believe in free markets, it must start with ideas and fair flows of information. Stop this merger now please.

This is America! We need a free press to survive as a free nation. OUR LIVES DEPEND ON YOUR ACTION

—Jeanette Amodio, Pompano Beach, FL

I strongly oppose any merger of Sinclair with the Tribune companies! In fact, I would like to see the Fairness Doctrine brought back in some form to help stop propaganda and the autocratic tendencies of some political special interest groups.

—Kevin Neilan, Poway, CA

FCC Pai you are truly undermining America and your cultural upbringing has not brought you up as an U.S. Citizen in the belief of serving the U.S. Constitution and protecting the U.S. Citizen. You will be creating a caste system in the U.S. and you have already showed your beliefs when you repealed Net Neutrality. You should resign, as your name and reputation in History will prove you are a traitor to the United States Of America and it's Constitution. Resign!

—Mary Coates, ,

A news agency that does the president's bidding is a vile act of abusing the public trust, not to mention conflict of interest, etc. Where are our elected officials and why are they doing nothing to reign in this administration?

—Patricia Fekete, Somerset, NJ

Please break them up into very small pieces.

—Gary DeVaan, Hopkins, MN

Stop the fake news!

—Kristin Nelson, Poulsbo, WA

—Toni, Grapevine, TX

This country needs diversity in voices more than ever and this merger will damage that

—Susan Schuldes, Waukesha, WI

It is dangerous to democrat to allow anyone corporation to control so much of our airwaves. If this is approved it will be obvious that it was because you wish to further conservatism by controlling the national narrative.

—Paul Leslie, Burbank, CA

I live in a country that allows free press. This group and Trump are trying to get rid of that.

—Carol McDonald, Miami, FL

We need to stop this merger. "This is a threat to our Democracy." As said on the propaganda dialog. Thank you
—Joan Duran, Des Plaines, IL

Sinclair would own an unfair monopoly. It would go against every single rule of law that governs monopolies as well as giving a much louder voice to the most hate filled group in this nation. Follow the rule of law & do not allow this merger to go through.
—Lois McDade, Forest Grove, OR

PLEASE GET PROPAGANDA OFF OF TV NEWS STATIONS
—Terri Spencer, Pittsburgh, PA

We must let people know how many local news outlets are controlled by Sinclair in their area & also make people aware of what they are doing, forcing the news outlets to air lies, fake news & propaganda for Trump & GOP.
—Carol Skanning, Waltham, MA

The FCC must return to its duty to regulate the public airways in ways that are beneficial to the American public and to the common values of the American culture. That means the FCC must reject all attempts to allow mega-media consolidation that would put the same cookie-cutter content on every channel and destroy local control over content. The Sinclair mega-merger would allow one entity to reach nearly 70 percent of U.S. households and replace their local news control with Sinclair's central control. This is unacceptable in a democracy and the FCC must not allow this merger to go forward.
—Chloe Fessler, Missoula, MT

If you don't want the FCC to be seen as completely in the pocket of Big Business and Billionaires, you'll block this.
—Elizabeth Hinnant, Sanford, NC

An independent Free Press is the Bedrock of our country. Local and community-based news outlets need to inform and serve the communities in which they serve. Not serve up propaganda. We do not need state-sponsored television we need Free Press consistent with the First Amendment.

—Audrey Heffner, Naples, FL

Stop this merger!

—Jeff Kwit, Elmwood Park, IL

Having a single corporation own so much ability to control the message sent to US citizens, is a risk made ever more clear by Sinclair's scripted "editorial" message sent out as a forced communication through all their channels.

—, Redmond, WA

No merger, too much consolidation

—Anne Fauber, New Port Richey, FL

This is America. We don't deserve what is essentially state/oligarch run media as a source for our news. If that's what we want, there are plenty of choices on the internet.

—Beth Lang, Kemah, TX

—Lisa Cates, Reading, PA

We cannot let Trump, wanna be dictator destroy our democracy, he & all those helping him must be stopped asap.

—Sheila Monge, Oakdale, CA

This is a Trump/Russian Propaganda . It is not news, we need to protect the #FreePress in this Country, now more than ever! Fox News is bad enough, nothing but propaganda and conspiracy theories, enough is enough!

—Marilou George, Port Orange, FL

This is a disgrace. We as a country are better than this. It's a danger to our democracy. Why would this be allowed??

—Lynn Stussy, Pennsville, NJ

It is an extremely bad idea for any media outlet to have as large a presence in local markets as would be allowed by this proposal. This has the very real possibility of forcing competition out of the local markets due to station owners not being able to compete fairly for revenue.

—Jim Bilderback, Purcellville, VA

Stop the merger

—Barbara Wendling, Virginia Beach, VA

This is the most frightening thing happening in our country today. I shudder at the thought of what this will do to our nation.

The American public relies on the FCC to foster independent media. It is your responsibility to disallow the merger of Sinclair-Tribune.

—Donna Robin Lippman, NY, NY

This is hideous and it's undermining our democracy.

—Charlotte Tancin, Turtle Creek, PA

Stop giving already-huge companies even more control over information in this country. Stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger!

—Kyle Joggerst, Perryville, MO

The propaganda being spread by Sinclair media outlets is terrifying and needs to be stopped. If this merger proceeds, it will create a privately financed and owned far right wing state media propaganda outlet. Please stop this merger.

—Jennifer M Hansen, Moline, IL

A free and open press is essential for our democracy. What Sinclair Media is after, is the most existentially dangerous type of monopoly... exactly why we have anti-trust laws. FCC, do not let this continue. Take action now.

—Ryan Bond, Santa Cruz, CA

This is appalling and should not be allowed. It will destroy our democracy.

—Nita Sembrowich, Cambridge, MA

This is deplorable .

—Randall S Blanchard, Kennett Square, PA

Free speech and free press MUST be protected

—Lea Harth, Trafford, PA

Stop the formation of Trump's Ministry of Truth!

—Gerald Leslie, Richmond, TX

I'm disgusted by the amount of people calling themselves journalists who are only paid hacks to spread propaganda just because they love money over truth and humanity!

—Susan Boyce, Myrtle Creek, OR

I will be boycotting all services and products that advertise with any Sinclair affiliates.

—Tedd Ammann, Minneapolis, MN

I don't understand why this is a good idea; allowing them to control 70% of local news outlets doesn't make sense

—Steve Santellano, San Diego, CA

Stop this potential monopoly now!

What's next? Nazi Germany? Shame!

—Pam Rubitsky, Citrus Heights, CA

I'm an advocate with a voice who's listened to by a whole lot of other passionate advocates!

This is not Hitler's Germany and we don't want it to be! We must have "free press"

—Cathy Motsinger, WINSTON SALEM, NC

Goebbels would have been proud of the Sinclair Broadcast Group and the FCC. This is propaganda magnified a hundredfold. Must the NAZIS take full power in America before we wake up?

—Arthur L. Friedman, Rego Park, NY

Urge the FCC to cancel this dangerous merger and #StopSinclair now

—Sarah Weathersby, Rolesville, NC

This is a frightening scenario that we simply must stop, for our lives and our democracy depend on it.

—Vanessa Y. McClinchy, Newtonville, MA

—Nancy Diskin, Eugene, OR

This is nonsense. If I want State TV I will move to Russia. Completely unacceptable.

—Pamela Wheatley, Saint Cloud, FL

Propaganda is anti-democratic values. Sinclair is fully a propaganda-spewing agency. The nation's air space belongs to the people. Sinclair values are not about serving us the people. Sinclair spews right-wing talking points. Cancel their broadcasting license.

—Phyllis Riley, Costa Mesa, CA

Too much control

—Manuel Sanchez, Laredo, TX

STOP the Trump/Sinclair fascism!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

—Glen Anderson, Lacey, WA

Just imagine the ensuing outrage from the GOP if Obama or Clinton let CNN buy up 70% of news companies, and ran simultaneous broadcasts saying essentially that Fox is biased and lies constantly and never listens to what they have to say.... this has ABSOLUTELY NOTHING to do with political position, it has to do with hypocrisy. Why is this action okay for one side of the aisle but is "communist, fascist takeover" when the other side does it? It is either okay all around or biased takeover all around? Why does the result of this question require the answer to the question "Which party benefits?" be available before making decisions? This is clearly wrong on all fronts, and those that are pretending otherwise should be ashamed they are selling out truth and decency for mere pennies. Either they are completely uneducated about the office they hold (FCC) or they are willfully doing this, and I am not completely convinced as to which is worse.

—James Swafford, Mustang, OK

End Citizens United

—Britt P, East Long Beach, CA

Sinclair's forced "fake news" messaging goes against basic journalistic integrity standards and should be stopped. They should also be fined and suspended.

—Terry Hockett, Gurnee, IL

—Alexander Lewin, Rockville, MD

After watching award winning journalists leave Sinclair bought stations, due to their policies, I too flee the station and find another home. Unfortunately they are all being gobbled up by Sinclair. Soon their will be no other opinion except for theirs. Sorta like Fox.

—Lynne Karson, Vienna, VA

Sinclair's consolidation of the information pipeline is bad for the United States, regardless of the company's political affiliation. Diverse and local news sources are essential for supporting independent journalism and political conversation, and Sinclair's proposed merger would make it even more difficult for small companies to compete in the media market.

—Kellan Moorse, Washington, DC

This is unconscionable in a democracy. Why are you trying to destroy our democracy?!

—Ella McGow, San Antonio, TX

I encourage the FCC to react a rating system on all news media (akin to the food safety rating system that Restaurant must post...Grade A-F). There are several non-partisan groups that rate news stories on truthfulness, they could be the graders of the news feed. With accountability on the line, I think we'd find less "fake" news

I have seen Sinclair forcing their agenda on our local station. I find this highly disturbing.

—Carol Ebinger, Conway, AR

How can you pretend to be the FCC and ignore the blatant propaganda of Sinclair and the republican state.

—Mike Michael Kelly, Huntington Beach, CA

I am sick and tired of Propaganda News, I want to know the whole truth, not twisted lies.

—Voyce Richards, Monroe, LA

This must be stopped. We do not live in Nazi Germany or Russia.

—Keith Shaw, Mount Laurel, NJ

Keep the local stations on a level playing field for information and local events. They should not be bound by a monopoly owner.

—Sue Swezeny, Egg Harbor Township, NJ

Stop the Sinclair propaganda machine and do not continue to legitimize brainwashing on our airwaves.

—Jeanette Hupp, Norfolk, NE

The FCC should be in the business of expanding broadcast outlets in communities, NOT consolidating ownership of outlets over many communities.

—Doug Sweet, Portland, OR

Allowing such a poor custodian of the nation's airwaves to expand by acquiring Tribune Media and expanding their dishonest and corrupt opinions to over 70 percent of the nation is unconscionable. Instead of allowing this expansion, the size of ownership footprints should be shrunk.

—Greg Sparks, Shelbyville, KY

Disgraceful like Russian TV

—Barry sinrod, Delray Beach, FL

This is state run propaganda. If this widens to included more stations our country will continue to spin down the drain. Please say no to this merger.

—Alex Moore, South Charleston, WV

A democracy does not have a "State TV". If you're not a fan of democracy, please relocate to a country that doesn't have it, instead of trying to destroy ours.

—Linda Colyer, Maryville, TN shameful...no merger...

—Penelope Poehlmann, Fort Mill, SC

This merger would be a horrible thing for the concept of a free press and for our democracy, which is already under seige.

—Lary Korn, Greenville, SC

Sinclair needs to be broken up. They are deadly to democracy.

—Jim Wissick, San Jose, CA

Sinclair is propaganda. This needs to stop!

Stop this stampede to authoritarianism through destruction of the truth.

—Anthony Turco, Absecon, NJ

NO WAY. NO STATE TV

—Darwin Johnson, Tampa, FL

No. Just no.

—Marie Warfle, Laurel, DE

Sinclair is forcing employees to lie. That should be grounds for kicking them off of the airwaves, not the privilege of near monopoly.

—Linda Ogren, Deerfield, IL

I will not watch TV stations, with this evidence of coordinated broadcasts, it is a very small leap to have Sinclair control information. The irony is, this very evidence show THEY are the threat to democracy. Frankly, I don't have to watch TV.

—Richard Tisinai, Lafayette, CO

This merger would be "extremely dangerous" to our country---just as trump is "extremely dangerous" to our country and the people. Well, except for his idiotic rich cronies!!!!

—Patricia Pippin-Emanuel, Panama City, FL

Do not allow this Orwellian nightmare to happen.

—Scott Rainey, Vancouver, WA

The FCC and Ajit Pai are betraying the American people by changing the ownership rules in order to pave the way for Sinclair to purchase the Tribune TV stations. This is corruption at its highest level - Sinclair has a deal with Trump & Kushner to spread their propaganda. WE WILL NOT STAND FOR THIS. And, we will be watching closely to see if Ajit Pai pulls another fast one with fake comments like he did to sabotage net neutrality. Ajit Pai is a pariah and a demon - why is he so hell bent on subverting the very democracy and country that welcomed him from India? We need to investigate Ajit Pai and get him out of OUR FCC.

—There Kellar, Crest Hill, IL

The US is a democracy and the constitution protects our rights to a free and open press. This is unconscionable that every station is given instructions from this white house on what to broadcast or not broadcast.

—Phyllis Levin, Philadelphia, PA

Trump TV is perfectly made for a Putin style leader, but not for our nation's love of liberty...

—James P P, Surf City, NC

This merger is a bad idea.

—Jennifer Giannone, Lithia, FL

With the addition of the demise of MHZ and its international news coverage this just continues the propaganda war against the rational, scientific method civilized views I hold.

—Ronert, Lorton, VA

We cannot allow our news sources to spread compete propaganda. If a station wants to have a running bias based commentary they should have to notify consumers that these are opinions and not fact.

The majority of Americans know what Sinclair is doing and rather than following the Orwellian novel script, stop this propaganda machine. Reinstate the Fairness Doctrine, so we can stop this TrumpTV absurdity and bring back true journalistic integrity!!!

—Barbara Avila-Crawford, Clarkston, GA

Please block this vile scary racist propaganda vehicle- Sinclair should be taken apart/ broken up and the parts burned- it's a horrible company

—Tina Hill, Leicester, NC

I am not okay with this.

Sinclair keeps local news from actually being local. Requiring local stations to deliver identical propaganda is antithetical to our American values.

—Catherine Parker, Lake Tomahawk, WI

Local programing is intended to be local and diverse. Putting all these local under one national organization is unhealthy for our democracy.

—Angela White, Rochester, NY

Simply selling a broadcast/print outlet to the highest bidder IS NOT a means of protecting the right of Americans to a free press.

—Don Group, Pittsburgh, PA

This is unconcionable and the type of behavior to explain why we are now an oligarchy.

—Sabrina Wojnaroski, Pittsburgh, PA

"Freedom of the Press" does not include telling all your broadcasters to read the same "NEWS"!

—Nancy Youngblut, Pasadena, CA

Please stop the merger. No news company should have even 1/4 of the market much less the 1/3 Sinclair has currently. It is absurd that one company can control the news for 2/3 of the country. This is a threat to our democracy!

—Rob Rathke, Alburgh, VT

Sinclair, Inc. Is monopolistic and should not be allowed to control and dictate propaganda to local stations!

—Timothy Swilling, Spokane, WA

This merger would be a threat to democracy in any case, but the fact that Sinclair stations are forced to broadcast news scripts that are not contradicted anywhere else in each community demonstrates clearly that Sinclair already presents a monopoly with an unfair advantage and a negative impact on the community. This is lethal to a pluralistic society.

—Kira Signer-Romero, Albuquerque, NM

This CANNOT happen! Stop it NOW!

The people of the USA do NOT want this mega-merger of Sinclair-Tribune. 70% of our population does NOT want to be subjected to #TrumpTV. This mega-merger will benefit no one except the large corporations, meanwhile the little guy is going to get screwed. No mega-merger of Sinclair & Tribune!

—Stacey Hood-Marchig, Philadelphia, PA

At least when you all face charges of treason in court, we'll have these 1984ish recordings to show that you knew what you were doing when you tried and failed to overthrow our democracy.

—Deborah Dinzes, Kirkland, WA

Here's what we just witnessed on Sinclair stations: Local TV News anchors looked into cameras and read a script written by a distant corporation. The local news anchors were even advised what to wear while recording this message. And what exactly was the message? It was a well-crafted message that was meant to obscure the truth, not elucidate it. It was a message that accused others of doing what Sinclair, and now these local news stations, are doing. These trusted local anchors were not engaged in journalism, they were engaged in propaganda. The exact same propaganda message was delivered across America via the local news anchors on every Sinclair station. This is Orwellian. This does not belong in America. This is the way despots and oligarchs wrest power and silence dissent. This is the way despots and oligarchs misinform the citizenry so they can control and oppress them. The longstanding limits America once had on how much local media one company can own must be reinstated. The FCC Commissioners must take their sworn oaths seriously and reject all attempts to consolidate power like the Sinclair-Tribune mega-merger. Cancel the Sinclair-Tribune merger. Protect the diversity of thought and content that informs the American public via the airways they own. Limit the amount of local media one company can own. Cancel the merger.

—Oren Sachs, Rockville Centre, NY

This is setting up to be a very dangerous situation, where an extremely biased company, that is not bound to any ethics rules to tell the truth, can be used as a propaganda tool by Trump, it has all ready started. We are the United States of America, where we demand and deserve a free press, not a conglomerate of t.v. and radio stations that parrots the president, we don't want a U.S. version of RT. FOX is doing that enough, we don't need several hundred more like that.

—Chris Stahl, Toledo, OH

Sinclair Broadcasting has recently directly subscribed to newscasters talking exactly with Donald Trump's words. This is not journalism or objectivity. This is paid political advertising masquerading as journalism. It is damaging to transparency and accountability and ultimately to democracy itself. No merger for a bigger Sinclair Broadcasting non-journalism.

—Lynne Kane, Chapel Hill, NC

Please retain severe limits on mass media ownership. Anything less is extremely dangerous to our democracy.

—Dan Greaney, Redding, CA

Keep news reporting independent!

—John Carter, Oceanside, NY

Sinclair Broadcasting and their desire to own as many new outlets as they can enabled by the FCC's shortsighted plan to ease restrictions on ownership is the real threat democracy. No one voice should be that powerful. If the FCC wants to achieve its mission to protect the public from media companies, then it should do the exact opposite of this and block the Sinclair/Tribune deal and strengthen restrictions on the number of stations media companies can own instead of relaxing them.

—Christopher N Miley, Chicago, IL

I don't know about urban areas, but here in rural Oregon we have no local television stations, one high-school-student-run radio station, and one local newspaper that rarely prints the news that people are asking for. Our 'local' TV news comes via satellite from an urban area over three hours drive away that rarely reflects anything happening here where we live. We need more CHOICE, not a massive conglomeration of TV news. PLEASE ...

—Mary Anne Orlich, Chesterfield, MO

I dont watch local news anymore. This is so sick.

—Nancy Snyder, Clarkdale, AZ

Journalistic organizations must never become instruments of official propaganda. Time to take a close look at Sinclair's FCC licenses, not to mention possible anti-trust actions to end their attempts at monopolizing local broadcasting nationwide. The FCC's enabling legislation clearly states that broadcast bandwidths are public property and as a member of the public I will not surrender them to predatory corporation with an obvious political agenda.

—Ira Steven Levine, Los Angeles, CA

I am frightened that FOX News is all propaganda and and uneducated people will believe untrue facts and society cannot exist in that way. Fox news and Sinclair sound like a pirate network that proclaim real facts when in fact they are lies. How can culture survive is half the people are learning that $2+2=5$. We cannot allow this recklessness to continue in our daily lives. Thank You, Cordially, Joel M Storin

Keep our news channels free of ownership, politically biased propaganda. Stop the march toward dictatorship.

—Winifred Silvers, Knoxville, TN

The free press should be free from political propaganda from either party. It should be unbiased.

—Ms. Kimya Z. Banks, Dallas, TX

Local news should not be beholden to a single entity in another state to tell it what its content must include. Sinclair's practices are dangerous to the establishment of free press, and are antithetical to the premises of fair and honest journalism. Their must-run segments that they already force their stations to run have a history of making information that hasn't been proven true seem as though it is factual, and that should concern each and every American.

—Nicole Frederick, Florence, AL

—Shawnee McCartor, Woodinville, WA

This is SERIOUSLY frightening-and dangerous to our democracy-FOR SURE! STOP THE MERGER!!

—Helene Mertz, houston, TX

This Sinclair Fiasco is disgusting. Please stop the purchase.

—Beverly Ann Conroy, Oak Park, IL

We don't need any more right-wing propaganda news...Fox News is already really good at spewing crap.

—Donna Winslow, Marysville, PA

Sinclair is not a news agency; it is propaganda and the specter of a merger of such proportions endangers the concept of NEWS. Today in America we desperately need to hear a variety of news sources, especially when so many get their news from Facebook friends with foggy credentials.

—Patricia Montee, CHARLOTTE, NC

Please stop this hellish nightmare. It seems the New folks act like reading a script. Many, and mean Many Americans are worried and confused.

—Jean Duffy, Carlsbad, CA

—Cheri Velto, Clinton, PA

The freedom of expression is a keystone of our democracy. Our first amendment must be upheld and protected!

—Alison Lamothe, Edwardsville, IL

What was required reading is propaganda. Our free press is under attack by Sinclair. They are a major step to a totalitarian regime under Trump. History is repeating itself. You must stop it.

—Dalia Adeina, Canyon Country, CA

The FCC should prevent media monopoly and protect FREE PRESS. Sinclair-Tribune Merger will take us closer to authoritarian-controlled media and Trump State-run propaganda as the only source of information for millions of Americans. This merger and the actions of FCC chair Ajit Pai are un-American at the core.

—Rachael Riggs Leyva, Columbus, OH

This merger, like everything associated with this administration is evil. Please spare us more of the Putin style propaganda.

—Theresa Lauro, Matthews, NC

Our Constitution, country, and way of life is threatened.

—Gary DeCamp, Eugene, OR

Stop the Sinclair merger!

—Cristal Juarez-Henderson, Portland, OR

This is the most serious abuse of the public airwaves I have yet heard of, and Sinclair should have its licenses revoked. This is not supposed to happen in a free country. Say no to this merger.

—Nanette Carnes, Albany, NY

Stop this destruction of our democracy now!

—Jay &Cathy Harter, Susquehanna, PA

Sinclair wants a extreme right propaganda machine that's NOT FAIR andNOT BALANCED!!!

—Richard Skidmore, Gainesville, FL

This merger is dangerous to our democracy and is the reason ownership rules for Broadcasters should not include one owner having access to 72% of American households. We need more diversity in the information we receive. We don't need state TV.

—John Dale Fakess, Winter Park, FL

This flies in the face of our Democratic rights to Freedom of the Press! Please don't be the ones history would see as giving away a fundamental pillar of what the United States is all about. Freedom and Liberty matter. Please support our democracy. Thank you.

—Margaret Maximenko, Laurier, WA

Please enforce the original law. Giving one company so much control is dangerous

—Elizabeth Chacich, Cloquet, MN

This is probably a done-deal given how close Pai and Sinclair are, but it is definitely terrible for democracy.

—George Gibbs, Phoenix, AZ

This is despicable. If this country doesn't wake up soon and get that damned Trump et al out of the White House, we're going to be in for it, and then it will be too late to shout! Disgusting!

—Barbara H. Vinson, Winton, MN

The way that Sinclair controls the content of stations they own is antithetical to a free press.

—Shari Kelts, Saint Louis, MO

A dedication to telling the truth is an essential part of journalism, and Sinclair has displayed a singular disregard for the importance of conveying the truth to the American public.

The FCC is supposed to take into account the public interest. The chairman is obviously involved in sleazy back room deals with Sinclair, so the rest of the commissioners must vote against this terrible merger.

—Kevin Wildermuth, Seattle, WA

A monopoly in media is a dangerous step toward singular, unrestricted news control. No, no, no to this proposed merger.

—Kossoff Arlene, New York, NY

The Sinclair network is possibly made up of the old soviet union using tv outlets to spread proganda like on facebook twitter and instagram and other social media accounts. Plus they we are newspapers and watch our own television as well to learn what American are thinking and watching. Propaganda at is worst like fox news.

—Jacob Richards, Carlsbad, CA

We deserve and need real news, the facts, truth.

—James Melloh, S Portland, ME

The people must be educated with factual news in order to maintain a democracy!

—Christine Rohde, Youngstown, OH

This is beyond Handmaid's Tale, 1984, Brave New World, etc. God, please stop those who would destroy whatever is left of our world.

—Gail B. Boyd, Washington, GA

They want us to check facts first, ok. Here's a fact: Sinclair is like the American version of RT (Russia TV) the media organization operated by Putin and his government which spreads nothing but lies and propaganda. Putin, 4 days after he was inaugurated as president of Russia, he first destroyed independent media, and established the propaganda outlets. We Cannot Sit Idly by, because we value our sacred, constitutional democracy and we respect the facts, but We must take Action Now, to Stop this deal Sinclair is trying to make with the FCC.

—Kevin Kljyan, Astoria, NY

The Sinclair / Tribune merger is the kind of deal that will kill democracy. We need more voices not less

—Dave Bradley, West Liberty, IA

When all stations MUST present what amount to political propaganda then the free press is gone and we are living in George Orwell's horror of 1984. Please block this awful undemocratic deal from happening.

If anything, force Sinclair to break up the near monopoly they already have. We need LESS Putin-esque control over our media--not more!

—Timothy Simmons MD, Charleston, WV

Yes, this the most dangerous threat to our democracy. There must be room for the fair dissemination of news. Only one view presented to the public will destroy us.

—Sherman L Guth, Bloomington, IN

Are we going to have an American version of Pravda for our news source?

—Greta Buckman, Knoxville, TN

Ajit Pai, we're watching you and your slimy dealings

—Carol Mohr, Pittsboro, NC

This shouldn't be happening - and you need to put an end to it.

—Cheryl Kallenbach, Winchester, ID

Having numerous independent venues for news is the cornerstone of a vibrant democracy. Sinclair stations reach into 2/3 of the local markets in the US, and Sinclair has demonstrated its intent to control content on those stations, coordinating statements across their network. It's inappropriate to allow them any larger share of local TV outlets. Their application should be denied to maintain an independent medium free from corporate control.

—Dr. Michael Mislove, New Orleans, LA

Please support a free & open press for our democracy.

—Beverly Headley, Franklin, TN

The Sinclair-Tribune merger must not go forward! Sinclair's recent news script sent chills down my spine. America is now resembling China, Russia, and other authoritarian governments. Orwell's 1984 has arrived - just 34 years late.

—AG Gilmore, Walnut, CA

The airwaves must be available equally to other points of view - not predominantly the conservative point of view.

—Richard Chogyoji, Los Angeles, CA

News should be based on hard facts, not sensationalism, exaggeration, and hyperbole. That is known as yellow or tabloid journalism which truly is "fake news". "Real" news should also be free of political/partisan bias and propaganda.

—BC Shelby, Portland, OR

THIS COUNTRY NEEDS A POLITICAL CIVIL WAR TO STOP THESE CONSERVATIVE SCUM ONCE & FOR ALL!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
EVERYONE ASSOCIATED WITH THEM ERADICATED!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

—Ron Ives, Lebanon, CT

Public Air Waves belong to the people. You need to give us a more varied and fair media.

—Jeanne R. Thatcher, Chico, CA

We have FCC multiple ownership rules for a very good reason and what Sinclair is doing is the epitome of what such rules are intended to prevent.

—Art Glick, Renick, WV

We cannot let one biased company to be allowed to deliver news to 72% of Americans. They are a propaganda organization. We used to have anti-trust rules. No company should be allowed to own 72% of an industry but ESPECIALLY one that delivers news. No No No! It is wrong!

—Mary Geraci Levesque, Santa Fe, NM

Democracy can't exist without independent journalism.

—Dennis Bock, Sammamish, WA

This is an attack on real journalism.

—Ms. Renita Greenberg, Solana Beach, CA

Regardless of any political bias on the part of a media company, the expansion contemplated is not healthy for a form of government which depends on voters who have the opportunity to evaluate competing views and determine their factual basis, if any.

—Jerald Kinnamon, Iowa City, IA

Keep our local news stations free and not controlled by Sinclair Broadcasting Group

—Dennis Brennan, Elmhurst, NY

Save us from this dangerous merger!

What happened to the Congress voted rules of 39% ownership of stations across the country???

—Mary G Smith, GRAPEVIEW, WA

This is repellent. Block the merger.

—Linda Theberge, Cranston, RI

STOP SINCLAIR, you fucking idiots!

—Suzy Charnas, Albuquerque, NM

Why on earth would any sane person support the party that 1) is setting up a system that is guaranteed to make it impossible for poor children to go to school, 2) plans to take away the Social Security and Medicare by ANY means possible, that millions of Americans paid for, over many years, and leave them destitute and without health care in their infirm older age, 3) wants a nuclear war, 4) wants to lower wages and to take away benefits from the hardest working Americans, 5) wants to use billions of our tax dollars to build a wall over 1,000 miles long using the money of people who do NOT want the wall, 6) are rigging the economy so only the very wealthy 1% receive huge tax breaks, while deductions for people with lower incomes are taken away so that they shoulder the biggest burden of taxes, 7) is actively making laws to further pollute our water, air, land, kill bees which pollinate our food crops, so all Americans become more ill, and more of their food crops die off, 8) a party that has alienated all other countries in the world and made the U.S.A, virtually spit upon by the rest of the world, and more acts guaranteed to turn U.S.A, into a bedraggled third world country consisting of slaves and a handful of super-wealthy overlords. Think about the end results of the repugnicans' horrible plans. And, oh, yes - we can all legally have RPG launchers in our back yards.

—Karen Sinclair-Smith, Colorado Springs, CO

The FCC is suppose to be protecting the people; especially from lies!!! And you are allowing the orange idiot in the white house and his cronies to take over. FOR SHAME ON THE FCC!!! STOP THE SINCLAIR TAKEOVER!!!!

—Anthony Aranda, Albuquerque, NM

This is exactly the problem the original laws limiting media ownership of TV, Radio & Newspaper companies. To prevent monopolies and information restriction. It matters. Regardless off party or affiliation.

—Kenneth Alexander, Sparta, WI

If all competing networks are owned by the same company we will have all the information from one point of view only. We need to protect our freedom of speech by getting our news from different sources not just one big conglomerate. Don't allow this merger.

—Ann I. Aurelio, West Sayville, NY

The consolidation of media under unitary ownership is an evil that we had thought relegated to the past. Allowing this merger to go through would bring those days back as well as abrogate the responsibilities of your agency to serve the PUBLIC'S interests and not that of a wealthy few.

—Mr. Michael Hishchynsky, Middletown, VA

We do not need one company controlling most of the news stations in this country. It is a very bad idea.

—Lee Winslow, Mason, MI

Outrageousness is eminent

—Michael A Madson, Ames, IA

Please do not allow this merger to take place..., we need a free press ... and free intelligent voices, to be heard by the people

Let's face it: A dictator coup is being implemented as we watch! Do you really want your democracy subservient to the tweeter twit and his gang?

—Louise B Brown, New York, NY

No corporation should dictate what a journalist must say.

—Linda Witt, Wheat Ridge, CO

I am saddened and appalled by the "news" that reminded me of broadcasts that came out of the Soviet Union during the cold war. Any company that cannot allow its journalists to report the truth is not acceptable. We need real truth at all times with facts, not so called "facts" that are made up to tell lies. As a thinking Americans can easily see the difference, and I refuse to watch the news by such companies.

—Sandra Maddox, Midlothian, VA

We MUST hold on to our free press, which includes local news. News people from 200+ stations shouldn't all be reading the same script. Please BLOCK this Sinclair/Tribune merger. It will KILL our free access to true information.

—Sandy Schuckett, Los Angeles, CA

The merger is ridiculous. Whatever happened to the government stopping monopolies.

—David Michael Cray, High Point, NC

Diverse media is NECESSARY for the America of the many ideas to be out in the open so the people can choose the best of them. Consolidation is what fearful wannabe dictators do to keep power. We are better and brighter than that.

—Katherine Weber, Highland Lakes, NJ

Local news should NOT be used to spread partisan propaganda. Local news should be free of interference and should try to be objective and free of bias.

—Dean Robb PhD, Plainfield, NJ

Why do we even have to deal with this? STOP THESE SCUMBAGS! !!

News?? More likely highly scripted propaganda designed to persuade rather than to inform.

—Lew Warden, Big Bear City, CA

We need journalism not a propaganda machine cranking out FAKE NEWS like Sinclair. Stop this Un-American attempt to control "news".

—Diane Mostad, Kelliher, MN

For shame!! Another blow to democracy performed by corporations.
—Jody Joy, Charlottesville, VA

the fools who foment this fascist movement are clearly unaware of the ultimate affect it will have on themselves and their families. Nothing good can come of this.
—Richard Aurili, Dayton, WA

I THOUGHT I NOTICED SOME STRANGE STUFF ON THE NEWS.
—+Allen lieberman, Morrison, CO

I request that you listen to the voice of the people. We do not consent to allowing a merger between Sinclair and Tribune. Monopolies are never a good idea. We do not, and never will, consent to the probability of any kind of propoganda-spreading state run media, or any other form of forced communication. This merger makes such an alarming possibility likely! This is America. We can not ever allow a dictatorship to be a part of our country. No merger!!!
—Karin Barger, Sullivan, MO

How can you allow this to happen when chairman Pai is under investigation for improperly pushing for this merger in the first place? Don't allow corruption and authoritarianism win out.
—Annie Wang, Chicago, IL

Goebbels would be proud of Sinclair. As is Putin.
—Robert Challender, Tuckerton, NJ

—Dianne Sullivan, Modesto, CA

A "free press" in the "land of the free"? Why would we need that?

—John de Forest, San Francisco, CA

I read 1984 in high school. Now 50 years later I am watching it happening in real time. The scene of the hundreds of news spokespeople reading the same script in nearly the same voice is truly terrifying. Stop the weaponization of local news!

—Lee Christensen, Salt Lake city, UT

I need to stop this about FCC's Sinclair-Tribune about Television and Radio Stations. —Maxwell Bogie, Livermore, CA

Give us a break!!

—Thomas D Rose, Portland, IN

We the People deserve to have various new sources at all times. The limited propaganda as pushed by Sinclair is not good for the people. The People deserve to be able to make up their own minds and not have opinions shoved upon them like North Korea, China, and Russian citizens.

—Timothy K Boughner, Dodge City, KS

Hasn't the FCC fucked Americans enough? We're still sore from the repeal of Net Neutrality. So now we have a couple news sources and they'll all be run by Sinclair.

—Gina Ronyak, Warren, OH

This is worse than 1984

—Sharon Cornelius, Houston, TX

Trying to brainwash the whole country - Disgusting

—Virginia O. Maher, Las Vegas, NV

Stop the nightmare, block the deal.

—William D. Rizer, Carlton, OR

We cannot survive as a nation without a free press. Please stop the madness!

—John Goga, North Royalton, OH

Too few companies already control far too many media outlets. Allowing Sinclair to swallow even more media outlets would seriously prostitute freedom of the press to Big Business. Sinclair has already shown it is willing to shove its script down the throat of every station it owns. This is not allowing stations it owns to exercise freedom of the press, but forcing the press to do its owners bidding. This merger would be terrible for the American people and for a free press that fearlessly reports the truth. It would be unconstitutional, as I am sure a law suit would show once it reached the Supreme Court.

—Timothy R. Woodruff, Wilmington, DE

This is becoming like the propaganda machine of the “state”. Very threatening to democracy and must be stopped.

—Maurice Corrigan, Saint Michael, MN

Please block this deal!!

Censorship of the flow of information will not be tolerated in this country any longer. We are watching you, and you will held be accountable.

—Doris McCarthy, Averill Park, NY

Please Stop this travesty

—Jill Hoch, Bushnell, FL

We will ALL lose free speech.

—Pamela Lyn, Charleston, SC

Sinclair is a threat to the right of free speech by mandating lockstep news commentaries that are often highly biased to downright untrue. This isn't news, it's propaganda, an attempt to control political speech and thought. Given Sinclair's near monopoly, it's dangerous, and I would say, un-American. We deserve better. We deserve the fairness doctrine to be reinstated!

—Kathleen S Burgess, Chillicothe, OH

I'm horrified. Are we already controlled by Russia and Pravda?

Never. This is not Russian state TV. No Sinclair.

—Marsha Cline, Las Vegas, NV

Monopolies. No competition and pushing conservative narratives down our throat.

—Velda R Smith, Sun Lakes, AZ

Our local news is already abysmal because, they're paid to focus on a handful of issue. If this despicable deal passes, our situation would worsen. I urge you to do your job and stop this.

—Lauren Tucker, Tallahassee, FL

I majored in Radio-TV & Film Production (i.e., Broadcast news) at Indiana University, B.S. 1968... and what we stressed more than anything was objective journalism, fair coverage and not media monopolies, so that the public airwaves were truly public... not run by oligarchs, autocrats, corporations, or authoritarians, as seen in many other non-democratic countries. This would destroy the free press in America and needs to be stopped!

—Lavonne Johnson, Willingboro, NJ

The merger is what is truly a threat to democracy.

—Romney Ryan, Windsor, CA

Having newscasters read politically biased corporate scripts is not the news. It's the slippery slope to oppression and totalitarianism. I would think the FCC would protect 'we the people' from that.

—Margaret MARGARET Shafer, Hamburg, NY

This is NOT ACCEPTABLE. We are engaged and empowered, and your decisions matter to the public welfare. Do YOUR job for US.

—Mary Luchini, La Grange, IL

Sinclair is coordinating far right propaganda and should be stopped

—Jeanie Waddell, Berkeley, CA

IF this proceeds to decimate the First Amendment by propagandizing media , you'd damn well better take the Second, along with it!

—Stephen L. Phillips, Two Harbors, MN

It is vital to have an open and diversified press with different view points in a strong democracy.

—Ron Moniz, Tiverton, RI

We do not need conservative propaganda repeated on ALL formerly local stations! The airwaves are supposed to be for the common good, not the common $$$$ bias!

—Carol Frechette, Shakopee, MN

We want real news, not propaganda.

—Nelleke Bruyn, Indianapolis, IN

What is extremely "dangerous to our democracy" is the attack on responsible journalists - termed "national media outlets" - that expose the lies, ignorance, deception, irrationality, and corruption arising in the executive branch of our federal government. Responsible journalists, apparently utterly threatening to the Sinclair propaganda machine, are the hope of our democracy and the chance we might survive this time in our national history without total catastrophe.

—Edward Mikel, Brier, WA

PLEASE STOP THE SINCLAIR MERGER!

—K Cunningham, San Marino, CA

It's become more clear than ever that relaxing restrictions on how many broadcast stations a single entity can own has been a disaster.

Additionally, the elimination of the "fairness doctrine" and the "must carry" rules have caused further damage. It's long past time for the FCC to re-assert itself as the guardian of America's airwaves for the public good.

—Joshua Dubnick, Hopatcong, NJ

Shameful, we are not your minions.

—Alberto L Velazquez, Winter Garden, FL

Sinclair operates as a Trump propaganda machine almost as bad as Fox. We want fair and impartial investigative journalism on nightly news, not fascist state TV.

—Paul and Judith S Fardig, Portland, OR

Why is my government allowing this kind of activity in America?

—B Paul Horne, Boynton Beach, FL

We are a democracy. Sinclair is clearly propaganda. Help!

—Kay Meyers, Doylestown, PA

Which one is Pai creating, Izvestya or Pravda? It couldn't possibly be anything else. Shame.

—James Farrell, Yanceyville, NC

This is despicable! This is NOT how America works and is a violation of the First Amendment to the Constitution, guaranteeing Freedom of the Press!

—Alyssa Freeman, Henrico, VA

I am not happy with the FCC taking away open internet to people etc, please get after the FCC because we can not let him get away with this.

—Gene schedlo, Stratford, WI

There is nothing worse for democracy than consolidation of media into a few hands. The stunt Sinclair pulled the other day by forcing anchors of their stations to read the opinion of the corporate office as their own words was too much. That's how democracy dies. Just say no to the Sinclair-Tribune Media merger.

—Sharon Herman, Wadsworth, IL

This is horrible. Shades of 1984!!!

Our democracy depends on individual points of view shared with the public!

—Carol Rubenstein, Ithaca, NY

Right wing propaganda should be labeled as such and not allowed to use the term "news."

—Susan McDonald, Nashville, TN

Media consolidation has been a serious problem for years now. The sheer size the current consolidated entites are reaching, and the particular perversions of journalistic integrity by Sinclair and of political integrity by Pai, Trump, et al., make this consolidation especially egregious. This must stop now if meaningfully functional democracy is to survive.

—Ted Kantardjieff, Los Angeles, CA

A near-monopoly ownership of local TV stations is dangerous for democracy.

—Philip Rees, Chapel Hill, NC

We live in a democracy. Let's keep it that way.

—Amber Wing, Portland, OR

This script is extremely dangerous to our democracy. And you might be prudent to recognize what a tool you might be of larger forces at play. Gaslighting doesn't flush with folks for long, however. Behold, humans have thinking capabilities; the US has a particular history of being independent thinkers when push comes to shove. Cultivate diversity not this creepy Orwellian view.

—Ann Sutton, Houston, TX

Stop the Sinclair takeover of our Media
—philip H RANDALL, Bend, OR

Sinclair broadcasting passes off lies to the public, that should not happen for we need an informed public of the truth not propaganda.

—Wanda Jane Burlinson, Raleigh, NC

One more step toward autocracy is state control of media. In this case, super majority control by a state-sympathetic organization. This must be STOPPED!

—Carol M Ashley, Akeley, MN

Ajit Pai is under investigation. No vote on this merger while that's going on!
—Jan Churchwell, Winnetka, IL

What the hell is happening to local news is right! Good God, as if a huge % of Americans weren't ignorant enough, low on critical thinking skills, and gullible to top it off, we have to keep feeding their heads with lies. My heart goes out to the gullible, ever the helpless and defenseless except in white rage.
—P Perron, Seattle, WA

I believe such a merger is bad for the community as a whole and is tantamount to a monopoly. This would violate well established rules that, for good reason, have been in place for decades!
—John Panek, Long Beach, CA

The proposed merger is a bad idea for so many reasons, it's hard to tell where to start. But common sense and anti-trust law alone would take this deal down in a heartbeat. Please, do your job. Put this merger in the trash.
—Patrick Bosold, Fairfield, IA

A free press is essential to a democracy. It must be protected and no speech should be forced!
—Holly Freeland, Louisville, KY

—Sophia Fatouros, Bloomington, IN

This merger must be prevented.

—John McCarty, Downingtown, PA

A free press is the foundation of our republic. Reducing that by allowing such overwhelming concentration and in light of BAD behavior already documented would be a travesty. STOP IT.

—Kenneth Gentner, Glen Rock, NJ

Looks like a monopoly to me. Very frightening when we have a President who is mentally ill and is trying to create an autocracy. He wants to be just like Putin.

—MED; J John W. Kelley D., Holyoke, MA

Democracy requires a free and unbiased reporting of the facts A Democracy requires an unbiased reporting of what is happening with our local, state and national communities. I reiterate, Sinclair has consistently proven itself to be an unworthy steward of the public airwaves — promoting racist commentators, spreading Trump propaganda, slashing newsroom staff, and forcing bigoted must-run content on local stations — and should not be rewarded with a merger that will allow the company to double down on its bad behavior. I urge the FCC to listen to the American people and block this very bad deal for the citizens of the USA!

—Thayne Taylor, Kalaheo, HI

We must not accept techno-feudalism. this is how democracies die

—Audrey Ross, tucson, AZ

Do not take away our freedom of speech and our right to hear all sides of an issue through all types of news outlets. Don't turn this country into a dictatorship.

—Frances Young, Plainfield, NJ

Regulatory capture, rampant political corruption, state sponsored propaganda that outright pushes lies and false narratives. I guess this means war.

—Ives Stoddard, Somerville, MA

Nothing like a whole bunch of robots parroting crap!

—Tobey Thatcher, Sahuarita, AZ

1984 anyone?

—Andrea Floresta, Babylon, NY

Hey, FCC, stop this merger. Thank you for preserving our freedom of the press.

—Patsy Burnett, Kearney, NE

The Sinclair-Tribune merger is one step on the road to destroying our free press. I should not be allowed to happen.

—Monroe Rabin, Amherst, MA

This is extremely dangerous to our democracy.

—Lynna Dhanani, New Haven, CT

If this is not considered problematic, why do we have an FCC?

—David G Brower, Vestavia, AL

The merger is not ethical on any level. Please deny the merger.

—Jason Cross, Berkeley, CA

This Country is not the Trump Organization press room. As a taxpaying citizen, I would hope that the FCC would refuse to allow a merger to proceed. Donald Trump is hell bent on spewing his fake propaganda through media outlets which only showcases his agenda, and further propels his false facts of events. Donald Trump is an ignorant individual whose mental capacity is severely diminished. The American people deserve better than to have a media organization further his agenda and outright lies.

—Arden Grant, Richmond, VA

This is sick! If the propaganda was going the other way, there would be riots.

—Mark Carlton, Bloomington, MN

Looks fun!....

—Tim Jouet, San Luis Obispo, CA

This happens in autocracies, not democracies. But I don't want to live in a dictatorship so stop this merger.

—Marjorie Stuhrke, Vienna, VA

No one media organization should have the power to control local stations content so drastically.

—Devyn tamblyn, Cupertino, CA

This merger does not make for or promote a free and independent press. It does create a propaganda machine, that if approved, will mesh with Fox News and destroy the real mainstream news organizations that have and continue to serve us so well. No less than our very democracy is at stake.

—Ronald R Hammersley, Palm Bay, FL

Please do NOT destroy America's FREE PRESS. I don't believe that the America we are used to, could survive this CALAMITY!

—Harold L Wakefield, Woodland Hills, CA

This merger would "be extremely dangerous to our democracy." PERIOD.

—Richard S. Withers, Sunnyvale, CA

Ban this Merger of Trump's dictatorship propaganda machine.

Is the USA a dictatorship ?

—Lincoln Bruce Justice, Seymour, MO

Don't think for a minute that I haven't notices for a few years now that local news changed. More Hollywood, less news. And continues to change. Don't you even think it. I'm on to you, Sinclair. Or would you prefer, Big Brother?

—Marianne Sippel, Nevada City, CA

This is so dangerous to our democracy.

—Michal Regunberg, Cambridge, MA

I don't listen to these news shows usually. I do oppose Sinclair-Tribune taking over because the news is supposed to remain unbiased and most certainly S-T is not.

—Susie Rock, White Sulphur Springs, WV

this will fuck up local news reporting, influence the masses negatively, and just be downright awful monopoly with one biased side of the story. No, just no

—M.R. (initials), Mercer Island, WA

A Free Press is NOT a partisan propaganda organization. Stop sucking up to drumpf et.al.

—Mrs. Susan C. Acosta, Inglewood, CA

this is so blatantly wrong...Sinclair already has flooded local media with their political agenda...we can't let this merger happen

—Christopher Olson, Saratoga Springs, NY

Is this the future you want for your children?

—Les Eller, Saint Clair Shores, MI

Listen up, FCC. This is a despicable deal.

—Irene O'Neill, Wheaton, IL

Please protect our democracy.

—Amy Bayer, Marathon, FL

This merger certainly is extremely dangerous to our democracy.

—Rebecca Kilicaslan, Holyoke, MA

The news should be non partisan. Any political commentary should be stated as such. NO PROPAGANDA.

—Mariko Yannacone, Palm Bay, FL

We already have Fox News, so we don't need another Pravda-like 'news' outlet.

—John and Nancy Clark, Bergenfield, NJ

We need fair and impartial news

—Lillian Hyland, Lake Worth, FL

I never thought I would live long enough to see the downfall of our free press. Tell them to take their Communist Manifesto back to Russia. I would say heaven help us all, but even the evangelicals are Communist.

—Pamela Bateman, Perry, KS

Propaganda is unamerican. Stop these shills and stooges.

—John Lewis, Denver, CO

The media must be independent of any political bias, it must be independent, and Sinclair is not capable of this. The fact Trump praises them as his supporters is concern enough. We are not an authoritarian government and should not have a state tied media/propaganda machine

—Thomas Duda, West Dennis, MA

No more of Donald's dictator drivel designed to distract during the Trump family's destruction of our democracy to enrich themselves, please.

—Louise B Brown, New York, NY

No Monopolies of our Airwaves. Please block this Merger.

—Derek L Wilkins, Saint Petersburg, FL

Ajit Pai is corrupt and he is behind this. When all of his advocates and protectors are removed he will account for these actions and all will know.

—Corey Hines, Mendota Heights, MN

I support "free press", not fake news.

—Cynthia Marrs, Junction City, OR

The right-wing propaganda manufactured by Sinclair has the potential to inflict doom and destruction on our access to truthful and honest journalism in the media. Ajit Pai is a Trump puppet who has no qualifications to be involved with the FCC.

—Dr. Michael J. Collier, Oakwood, GA

This is a monopoly!

—Troy Bishop, Pompano Beach, FL

WE MUST HAVE A FREE PRESS. DEMOCRACY CANNOT EXIST WITHOUT IT.

—Michele Passarelli, Bradenton, FL

#FireAjitPai #SaveDemocracy

The free market requires competition not monopoly. We should be going in the opposite direction and breaking up the media conglomerates.

—Robn Diekow, Schenectady, NY

Diversification is vital to a free media.

—Roger H. Kofler, Milwaukie, OR

I can't believe Sinclair thinks they can control our free press.

—Mary Johnson, Seattle, WA

This is dangerous for democracy

—Craig Troutman, Commerce Twp, MI

Stop this deal which is helping to make America into an authoritarian regime.

—Marjorie C Picard, Scotch Plains, NJ

The press needs to have many different voices, not many saying the exact same propagandist thing.

—Alison Cobb, Los Angeles, CA

FCC - free the airwaves --- Local broadcasters - gets some guts, tell comrade Sin clair to stuff it!

—Richard Bahler, Fairfax Station, VA

I'm not a fan of a major media company telling local news stations how to spread right wing propaganda

—Miguel Flores, Villa Park, IL

Please listen!!

—Paul Morris, Nashville, TN

"This is EXTREMELY dangerous to our democracy."

—Courtney King, Cross Plains, WI

Now I remember why I ditched cable 18 years ago and almost never watch TV.

—Richard H Sparkes, Grand Blanc, MI

No state control over the airwaves. This is supposed to be a democracy.

—Annette Poole, Santa Fe, NM

The press must have the freedom to report what is happening in our country and in the world. Regurgitated messages are "extremely dangerous to our democracy." Sinclair puppets were right when they said that!

—Kelly McMahan, Alameda, NM

A free, muscular press – including many local voices – is essential to democracy and the preservation of the United States.

—Jo Mancuso, Portland, OR

We need more competition, not less.

—David Scrimenti, Ansonia, CT

The only "fake news" is Fox, Sinclair, and trump's twitter account; anyone with any level of intelligence knows that. The only people who believe trump's whine about news being "fake" are the dumbest, most brainwashed drooling idiots who voted for it and still support it. I'm calling trump an "it" because it doesn't deserve to be called "him" or "he". It's a disgusting creepy monster. It also doesn't deserve to have its name capitalized or be called the president, so I refuse to do that, too.

—Christina Williams, Los Angeles, CA

Breakup Sinclair!

—Jane Whiteside, Woodridge, IL

We need less media concentration and more diversity.

—Rosalind Bresnahan Ph.D., San Bernardino, CA

I support a greater diversity and variety of different viewpoints in media, because I believe we are better and stronger for considering these diverse perspectives. This merger, which I oppose, would create a reduction in the availability of choice of what to view, listen to, or consider. Please oppose this merger. America is about opportunity, not monopoly.

—Caroline Lunsford, El Cerrito, CA

I have always found it to be terrifying to even think of media monopoly. This is similar to things which have happened before. Those who choose to forget history are doomed to repeat it. This latest merger attempt cannot be allowed to go forward!

—Clu Carradine, Solvang, CA

With Trumps man at the helm of the FCC I'm sure this is in vain but I'm going to practice my civic responsibility to speak against government wrongs. This merger would be a terrifying step toward state-run media.

—Joshua Queen, Poughkeepsie, NY

The only thing that is "Dangerous to Democracy" is Donald Trump ACTING as POTUS and, with the help of his evil multimedia conglomerate cronies, poisoning Freedom of Speech and controlling Freedom of the Press. Stop this madness NOW!

—Jessica Lawrence, Schenectady, NY

Isn't it time to break out the Hammer & Sickle as the national flag?

—Paul R Albrecht, Philadelphia, PA

The Sinclair merger would eliminate ALL media choice for millions of Americans. The merger will make some wealthy, while Americans lose freedom to choose.

—Bruce O'Brien, Mpls, MN

Please do the right thing.

—Mark Bryant, Newark, DE

Obviously you're in the pocket of the Trump family but just for a moment think of the good of the country... please!!!!

—Greg Weiss, Sunnyside, NY

Obviously this broadcasting group already has too many local news channels and certainly does not need more to spout their propaganda. STOP this MERGER NOW.

—John & Shirley Valney, Reno, NV

First Amendment! A free and independent press! Our liberty and freedom depend on these. Sinclair is the antithesis of democracy and is dangerous for US.

—Pauline Wasser, Goshen, KY

This sidestepping of the First Amendment by one corporation must not be allowed by our own Government.

—Robert M Profitt, Salem, OR

Sinclair is what's "extremely dangerous" to our democracy.

—AE Ellen Tuomey, El Prado, NM

AMERICANS WILL NOT TOLERATE AN "ORWELLIAN" AMERICA !!!

—Sharlee Moore, Redondo Beach, CA

Sinclair is already way too big. The air waves are public and Sinclair should not have been approved to get so big to begin with. The public has the right to have the air waves fairly distributed with no entity becoming so large as Sinclair already is. Thank you in advance for acting in the public interest.

—Virginia K. Adams, Rapid City, SD

The viral video of local news anchors across the nation reading from a Orwellian script was terrifying, and it will only get worse if you don't act now to stop Sinclair. Please stop the madness.

Awful. Unamerican!!

—Miki, North Kingstown, RI

The Sinclair-Tribune merger is illegal and not in the public interest. Block this deal!

—Greg Jump, Moline, IL

I am sick and tired of news being treated as entertainment and fast and loose with the truth. This merger will just continue to undermine the public's trust in mainstream news. The 5th Estate holds a very vital and key position in restraining run away government and keeping the people informed. This merger is a direct violation of that covenant and should not be allowed.

—Glenda Klein, Hightstown, NJ

I don't know how many people still remember when, in 1938, the radio show, "War of the World's", penned by Orson Welles, caused nation wide panic and even suicides when it hit the airwaves. A work of fiction presented as if it's reality can cause massive destruction in its wake. There simply has to be some consequences to deliberate obfuscation, omission, and falsification of the facts, but organizations that CALL themselves news, like Fox and Sinclair, are seldom brought to task for their propaganda and lying to the public. It used to be that integrity was the watchword and that legitimate news sources maintained impartiality. It should remain that way for any and ALL sources that represent themselves as news. Deliberate falsification or manipulation of the facts by an alleged news source should be enough to discredit and censure the guilty parties, as should the slanderous and unsubstantiated use of "Fake news". by government employees. In instances where "fake news" is leveled against legitimate news organization for the purpose of obfuscating facts, the accuser should be held responsible for the burden of proof or publicly and formally make a retraction. It is time for public figures, especially in these times, to be held responsible for deliberate misinformation.

—Jackie Critser, Wilsonville, OR

America is NOT buying what you're selling Sinclair

—Shirley Watts, Harker Heights, TX

I am 66 years old. When I was in second grade we received a little publication called "OUR WEEKLY READER". It came to each student in our small Catholic school in Indiana and we read it together in class. I particularly remember the description of how the Communists would "take over". First they would take over the news, I remember it said, in comic book form, by way of propaganda.

—Fred Lavy, Harrisonburg, VA

If there is a shred of hope that anyone in power at the FCC cares about the general public instead of a state sponsored agenda (like so many countries decry by the USA), please do not approve this deal. Allow communities the variety of input they deserve so that they can make fair assessments regarding what is going on in the world.

Bring back the limits on media ownership to protect the population from the focussed, biased, propaganda that passes for news these days.

Sinclair has egregiously promoted racist commentators, has spread lies & propaganda for Pres. Trump and forces bigoted, required segments on local stations. This is not American. What Dan Rather tweeted about Sinclair: @DanRather "News anchors looking into camera and reading a script handed down by a corporate overlord, words meant to obscure the truth not elucidate it, isn't journalism. It's propaganda. It's Orwellian. A slippery slope to how despots wrest power, silence dissent, and oppress the masses." 12:54 PM - Apr 2, 2018 I agree 100% Victor Cummings 2340 NW 119th Ave Portland OR 97229

Hitler and 1984 here we are.

—Nancy Wallace Nelson, Mendocino, CA

This is the furthest thing from a free and fair press. Please FCC, prevent this merger.

—Robin Bergman, Arlington, MA

Don't.

—Andrew Garzon, Federal Way, WA

The FCC needs to listen to communities. Hear what people are saying. People have the right to diversity among the news stations. Sinclair does not write the laws but this administration is rolling back protections for the citizens to have the right to know what is happening here and in the world at large. Stop breaking rules and rolling back laws which protect the rights of Americans.

—Paula Morgan, Hollywood, FL

No Merger! It is illegal!

Chicago Viewers of WGN-TRIBUNE Broadcasting CH9: Ask City Council to BLOCK Sinclair takeover of OUR Market-- Trib Brdcast. I'm TUNING-OUT WGN if Sinclair sale goes FWD.

—David Milligan, CHICAGO, IL

USA is not a communist country. We should not have state sponsored tv stations.

—Susan Betancur, Visalia, CA

Is this about open and free speech? Or is it about blatant abuse of power to promote propaganda? Sinclair is not in the best interest of the public. But rather promoting whoever has the most money to push their own agenda. Something is terribly wrong here.

—Randy Juras, Homer Glen, IL

You are already on a slippery slope FCC. Do not add to your growing list of charges. This merger is not in America's interest and they are fully aware of your actions. America is asking you to stop this merger.

—Th, Asheville, NC

Come on, i believe the word is "monopoly"? In America we have the FCC to prevent this type of situation.

—Karen Smith, Burbank, CA

Do we need Sinclair?

—Vivian Burg, San Francisco,, CA

This is extremely dangerous to our Democracy.

—Dr. Jeffrey Paul LaGasse M.D., Freeland, WA

It's bad enough that the President of the United States is subverting our free press by calling stores that he doesn't like "fake news" one of his biggest supporters, the owner of the Sinclair Media empire is now forcing the anchors of the news stations he already owns to push this same dangerous message. Even George Orwell would be frightened by this. Please do not allow this deal to go through. Please. Thank you

—Chance Rearden, West Hollywood, CA

Let's separate news from opinion, conjecture and outright propaganda.

—James Greve, Chicago, IL

This is SO WRONG! This merger must be stopped. Sinclair must be STOPPED!

—Harley Armentrout, Chino Valley, AZ

It doesn't matter what your particular beliefs are. You don't want media consolidation- after all, it could be the Dems next. We need a diverse media. I don't care what the message is; when 100 voices say it in unison from 100 different platforms, that's bad "news".

—Bernie Sirelson, North Hollywood, CA

NO to Sinclair's plan for TrumpTV or propaganda TV.

—Victoria L Singer, Albuquerque, NM

Sinclair has consistently proven itself to be an unworthy steward of the public airwaves — promoting racist commentators, spreading Trump propaganda, slashing newsroom staff, and forcing bigoted must-run content on local stations.

Drain the swamp my butt! Ajit Pai is performing cannonballs in it. Everyday these grifters chip away at our Democracy to line their pockets, while advancing the hardline conservative agenda, they themselves do not believe in. Instead, they look for every opportunity to exploit the disadvantaged and struggling middle class, shamelessly peddling fear and malarkey most 12 year olds would dismiss as utterly preposterous and nonsensical. Ajit Pai is quickly becoming the Martin Shkireli of telecommunications.

—Shelby A. Baumgartner, Perry, MI

Sinclair has too much power already.

—Judith Butler, Hope, ID

Really? Do Americans really have to put up with such perfidy? I want my country back! I want to live in an Democratic Republic that supports all of its citizens. I do not want to live in an Authoritarian Kleptocracy where all resources are treated as spoils for disposal by a select few. Share!

Ridiculous. FCC should not aid propaganda.

—Ray Crump, Florence, OR

There was a time that companies were not able to merge to become a monopoly, this should not change now or ever. To slash existing media ownership protection so this can happen for Sinclair is wrong and should not be allowed.....

—Mary D Thorpe, Van Etten, NY

This is plain evil. A continuation of an ongoing intent to destroy America and everything we stand for. The FCC is obliged to act on our behalf. —Megan Hobza, Whittier, CA

This is OUTRAGEOUS! Have some CHARACTER and STOP this insanity!

—Jim Harrison, Portland, OR

The FCC is collaborating in the destruction of a key tenet of the 1st amendment : the free press. SINCLAIR IS NOT A NEWS ORGANIZATION WHEN IT DICTATES TO ITS ANCHORS TO READ A STATEMENT IMPUGNING THE REST OF THE MEDIA AS FAKE NEWS. FCC: put a stop to Sinclair which is, in fact, biased political propaganda masquerading as news.

—Linda G. Traynor, Fresno, CA

Enough with the RWNJ propaganda!

—Thomas Tickner, Albuquerque, NM

Sinclair echos the dangerous false statements by the current POTUS and his puppets about valid, ethical newscasters and their investigative reporters. This hazard to democracy must stop ... we the people must squelch these false statements about "other" newscasters!!! NOW!!! It would be anti-American, anti-democracy to allow this Sinclair-Tribune merger to progress. Disapprove now AND in either case, we the thinking voters will boycott ALL Sinclair owned media!!! I started that boycott today as the Sinclair organization has had the nerve to underestimate the voting public by pushing this trash on the statement on our commercial media outlet newscasters!!! Shameful AND dangerous!!! NO DEAL on this proposed merger!!!

—Gary L Higgins, Houston, TX

I often wonder that if Republicans or Democrats were able to capture complete power for the foreseeable future, just how long would it take them to realize just how horribly they had disgraced our Constitution and our country.

—Patrick Toney, Middleton, WI

Pai.... Stop the mega-merger. You remember what happened to MaBell, Don't you? Monopolies under any other name are just as criminal and rank. The last thing Americans need is a 'state-run propaganda media group. NO! We'll take it down anyway ... so just don't even allow it. Diversity is a life force that will win. It always does. God's plan, ya know.

—David Bryan, Carmel, NY

You are helping to kill democracy.

—Robert Bucher, Killen, AL

This is unbalanced, scripted, anything but local and is dangerous to democracy. The market is SATURATED with Sinclair stations. This media consolidation was initiated by Kushner to provide more flattering coverage for Trump. REAL NEWS doesn't exist to provide flattering coverage for a potus. Free press is not Sinclair a conglomerate. Block the deal.

—Dale Staley, Roseville, CA

FCC must prevent Sinclair from acquiring more firepower to degrade and sensationalize American discourse. The acquisition and consolidation of media organs is not an ordinary market transaction, justified by the mere fact that it is economically profitable and rewarded financially by consumers. Instead, media is an essential infrastructure of democracy, and it must be governed by ethical standards radically different from the standards of guiding eyes to the most remunerative advertising, and the adrenaline-pumping content likely to retain eyeballs while weakening critical faculties. Sinclair is eminently guilty of these sins, and of converting the ideological preferences of the owners for the ethical standards of ownership. Such transmutation of money into power over our democratic discourse must not be allowed by FCC to spread further. Sinclair is a propaganda machine whose purpose is to titillate, provoke, misinform, and ultimately shrivel the brains of millions of Americans. This bid to acquire mass distribution power illustrates exactly the danger to American democracy, and to Enlightenment rationalism itself, of placing the infrastructure of journalism at the service of those with the money to own it. The production of disinformation and propaganda, ordered up by corporate headquarters and piped to stations around the country, violates the sacred obligation of journalists and their employers to report truthfully to their audiences.

—Jim Steitz, Gatlinburg, TN

Sinclair owns KOMO in Seattle. I often watch the 11am news while working at my computer. That is until the Sinclair commentator comes on. This is opinion, not news. I want unbiased local news but question if I am getting that.

—Rebecca Hirt, Kirkland, WA

Sinclair's demand that their newscasters all read a prepared script at their stations is truly frightening, anti democratic and threatens freedom of the press a tenet so valued and not allowed in so many countries in the world. I urge you to speak out and deny support for the Sinclair merger which would give the enlarged company many more platforms to deliver questionable or even blatantly false information! Their goal is not in keeping with the freedoms we value.

—Sara Roderer, Henrico, VA

FCC: HAVE SOME SPINE. WHO are you standing with? Only the president and his cronies. Or for freedom for local communities across America to meet the needs of THEIR own communities? Americans don't want or need bigotry and racism and Trump propaganda shoved down our throats. LEAVE OUR COMMUNITIES ALONE, PLEASE.

—Tim McKeown, Hillsborough, NJ

You cannot let this happen. Free press is a key element to democracy.

—Margaret Stofsky, Eureka, CA

Sinclair Broadcasting does not allow it local stations to conduct themselves or present news content in a fair unbiased manner as is reasonably expected of a local television station. They force local anchors and on-air personalities to read pre-packaged scripts from corporate headquarters under threat of termination and unreasonable punishment in the form of financial penalties paid to Sinclair, deceiving local viewers into believing opinion segments are news or public service announcements by taking advantage of the reputations those local personalities have spent years building and earning. Sinclair essentially converts the television statiins it buys into Fox News-style "entertainment" at the local level while still promoting themselves to local viewers as a trustworthy news source.

—Thomas Gregory, Chattanooga, TN

This the scariest thing that's happened since trump became president. I don't want one huge company owning most of the TV stations and telling us fake news about trump. This reminds me of living in Russia. Stop this!

—Danette Roark, Albuquerque, NM

This is fake news Trump is always blubbering about and trump is mostly responsible.

The Trump administration wants to control all the local news, they are very worried about the mid term elections, so Trumps Republicans want to make sure all the local news is censored with lies, propaganda, and disinformation only favoring Republicans, corporations, and the rich. Honest reporting is the foundation of democracy. Don't let one news source own the information people have access to.

—Linda Griebisch, Greenland, NH

This is becoming dangerously close to an authoritarian 'big brother' nation -- and I thought America was supposed to be a guiding light upon a hill for freedom and engaged citizens who believe in democracy. Media monopolies are not conducive to an informed and free-thinking citizenry. Stop this heretical grab for power by the corporate oligarchy that has no concern for an authentic democracy. The FCC should be doing its job to maintain our democratic government and society, no to undermine it and throw all of us under the bus of consumerism and a misguided white-men-rule-best mentality.

—Mr. Carl Spagnoli, somerville, MA

You must stop this merger. It's bad for America.

—Ken Cohn, Dayton, OH

Mergers of large businesses are largely not in the interests of the public. Due to lack of competition, people pay more for less. Workers are paid less and are more restricted by company demands. It gives the resulting company too much power and everyone else no say in the matter. Besides these issues, mergers of media are particularly bad, because they can and do psychologically manipulate what people think. Consolidation of media limits ideas that are considered, especially when, as in the case of Sinclair, the company requires that all of their anchors read the same script. You can see how this would not work well for a democracy or any other representative group. It is part of the FCC's job to protect against consolidation and the resulting manipulation.

—Bonnie Harzewski, Dixmont, ME

Can we all say RT? This is frightening!!

—Susan Kollar, Westlake, OH

NO ONE should be scripting the news for our nation...No government, not industrialists or owners of stations. The news should be the truth, fact-based and not editorial

Americans have lost many radio stations already, and we urge you not to allow monopolistic actions by corporations in the TV broadcast networks either. —Dan Kelly, Centerville, IA

This is an obvious desperate attempt by Republicans and the Trump administration to hijack the free flow of information to the public. Well, this is the icing on the cake of moving towards a communist regime in America. This will become the US's Pravda at some point. If those interested want to keep our great country the free democratic society that is was intended to be, then they wouldn't be pushing for this. Everyone has a right to their side of a story, that's what free speech is about, but when you keep condensing that free speech into one speech with one faction creating the news, then say hello to communism!

—Caitlin Kelly, New York, NY

Especially with the overacting on many stations, this was reprehensible. Newscasters are not meant to be left or right leaning, but completely factual. Sinclair has gone way over the bounds of acceptable behavior. and their monopolistic ownership should be illegal. Some networks are putting news under entertainment to avoid the laws.
—Carin Barbanel, New York, NY

I will NOT have hate speech in my home and to hear it from my local news people is horrific. Stop the the bad behavior and the mergers.
—Rose Giggie, Monroe, ME

So they all drank the red koolaid? They agree with their boss or will they loose their jobs? It is Country wide, unless you have a vpn you can't find the truth on Americas web
—judy Boehm, Jupiter, FL

This is a ploy to eliminate the little guy.
—Gainor Tomokiyo, Honolulu, HI

Please do not allow Sinclair to purchase additional stations to broadcast Trump talking points enmass. It's wrong!
—Rose Buckingham, Omaha, NE

People in a free society need to have access to news that does not all come from a single source or point of view. Stop further consolidation and undo that which had already occurred. Our minds must not be sold to the highest bidder.
—Wendy Ebersberger, Front Royal, VA

Are we to become a “state” run press? Local news needs to stay in their lane, and if they feel the urge to editorialize, say that, and that “they are not the expressed views of this station or corporate ownership”.
—Bob Johnson, Lansing, MI

We need local news & a diversity of voices from the left to be heard, not just manufactured news. We need authentic investigative journalism
That's what democracy is all about!!

—Joanne Oleksiak, Cherry Hill, NJ

This is exactly what an authoritative regime has: a state run media company. It is beyond the pale that a country that gets all up in arms about part of the Constitution would ignore another, Freedom of the Press!

—Denise Hameister, Niwot, CO

Monopolies are bad for democracy!

—Victoria Neff, ANN ARBOR, MI

Democracy thrives - and can truly only exist - in a free marketplace of ideas. Corporate monopoly ownership is a threat to democracy and our country.

—Eileen Becker, Lebanon, OH

This is a perversion of our first amendment!

—Angelene Flowers, Jamestown, CA

This merger is anticompetitive and antidemocratic. Don't let it go through.

—Carol Chowdhry, Charlottesville, VA

Sinclair Broadcast Group are a very dangerous broadcast group....they use their power and in many markets their near monopoly to create a very dangerous situation with their very right wing approach to news and information. The FCC seems to ignore the public's concern for a fair approach to news and for advertisers a competitive market place.

—Brian Fernee, Pacific Palisades, CA

Bust this up!

—Sherry H, Dripping Springs, TX

Sinclair Group is extremely dangerous to our democracy!

—Kate Prociuous, Pittsford, NY

My public comment ... The FCC should never approve this merger !!!

—Jean Cassels, New Orleans, LA

Ajit Pai does not want us to live in a democracy. I hope the remaining commission members do.

—Katherine Showalter, Portland, OR

The threat to our nation and its constitutional form of government is so great that this is clearly either a well planned conspiracy or the result of the inimical infiltration by a hostile foreign power.

—Thomas Wm. Hamilton, Staten Island, NY

free speech doesn't mean much if it can't get out

—Joan M Ferrante, New York, NY

STOP THIS NOW!!!!

—Heidi Peterson, Hastings, MN

A 'monopoly' over public 'news' is not Public news ... it's privatized and 'scripted'

—Jenefer Ellington, Washington, DC

The country needs balanced reporting, not propaganda.

—Victoria Pendragon, Paw Paw, WV

The FCC exists to PROTECT the public and their local media ownership. DO YOUR JOB! The promotion of the expansion Sinclair and its ilk calls for a Congressional investigation.

—Kristen Reilly, Buffalo, NY

Sinclair Broadcasting is an Orwellian threat to our Democracy and should not be allowed to acquire any more broadcast outlets.

—Paul Williams, Greenwood Lake, NY

Broadcast news needs to be government funded so it doesn't require advertisers.

—Robert and Kristen Rothrock, Cottonwood, AZ

No merger, protect our new!

—Pam Gillman, Miamisburg, OH

Fox should also lose their license. Lies, lies, hateful lies.

—Cheryl Storm, Henrico, VA

Stop this monopoly from happening. How will True free market happen if you allow Sinclair to take over all of the smaller TV stations.

—Omega Finney, McDonough, GA

No state propaganda tv!

—Vic Bullard, East Flat Rock, NC

Sinclair Broadcasting's practices and corporate philosophies do not comply with our Constitutional rights to have unbiased news sources. Also, further buyouts by Sinclair will violate fair-trade practices; i.e., prevention of monopolies. It is your duty to comply with the US Constitution!

—Dr R A Fuller, Woodbury, MN

Please FCC, stop Sinclair from turning our country into a fascist state!

—Sarah Barrett, Downers Grove, IL

We need to stop monopolies in our news organizations. Break up Sinclair.

—Tom Sahlin, Gray, TN

I recommend reading "How Democracies Die," by Ziblatt and Levitsky

—Bob Fankhauser, Portland, OR

Elements of the news media should be treated just like any other monopoly.

—James Hudson, Rapid City, SD

Consolidation of news media in the hands of the wealthy few serves Oligarchic rule by restricting the public access to unbiased news. The FCC has a responsibility to protect the interests of the people. This merger is not in our interest.

—Gregory Gregg, Salem, OR

MAKE IT STOP!!!

—Michele zapotny, Trabuco Canyon, CA

—Alvin Howard Hankins, New smyrna beach, FL

Sinclair is fascist. They must be stopped.

—Deb Klipper, Bradenton, FL

This is big brother on the TV. This is Russia controlling its news stations. But this is America-How can we put this much power in the hands of just a few people?!!! Sinclair already has too many stations, and are forcing their anchors to say things supporting a specific agenda. Unconscionable!

—Bess Morrison, Jersey City, NJ

This is insanity. You need to stop this propaganda immediately. The future of a democratic US depends on it.

—Andrea Marcus, Largo, FL

First propaganda, next Brown Shirts, next trains to camps for anyone who disagrees with the power - Please, NO!

—Orrin D Miller, Petaluma, CA

We the people stand for the 1st Amendment and see what Sinclair and Trump are doing as a dangerous affront. Please reject this merger!

—Laura Danette, New York, NY

America cannot allow one company to broadcast our news it's a danger to free speech.

—Jacqueline Bowers, White Hall, MD

The fact the chairman of the FCC, Ajit Pai, has a Conservative agenda is very concerning as well.

—Jasper Lucas, Sicklerville, NJ

Stop the propaganda machine while we still have a shred of democracy left.

—Karen Reisdorf, San Clemente, CA

Most TV News is clearly biased to right of center, but having a network put the same script in the mouths of hundreds of broadcasters isn't fake news, it's fake opinion and a massive propaganda operation. This is not what freedom of press is about.

—Geoff Dutton, Belmont, MA

America doesn't need any more Faux News on our airways.

—Jo Osmer, Salisbury Mills, NY

1984 = Double Plus Ungood / propaganda.

—Michael G., Cripple Creek, CO

For a democracy to work properly we need more than one point of view. Therefore I am totally opposed to concentrating all the news into one powerful far right organization. Free press is essential to the survival of our democracy.

—Miam McLeod, White Rock, NM

I will never watch a Sinclair station if this merger is allowed.

—Linda Bailie, Berwick, ME

Time for trust-busting and anti-monopoly decisions--what is the matter with you people??

—Sandy Longley, Delmar, NY

ABSOLUTELY NO TO PROPAGANDA TV!!!!!!!!!!

—Katie Brennan, Grover Beach, CA

trump's fake news is misleading the country he was sworn to protect

—Nola Palmer, Sault Sainte Marie, MI

Mega-media mergers stymie competitive news. Block this merger as it's worse than the proposed tie-up between AT&T and Time Warner. Such mergers are also job killers, as they always lead the merger company to shed workers.

—Matthew Killmeier, Montgomery, AL

And we used to laugh about the "liberal media"! Sinclair is no laughing matter.

—Michael R Marquardt, Whitewater, CO

Forced propaganda is not news. As the Bible says, "You will know them by their deeds." Sinclair has demonstrated its unworthiness and should be denied any further media reach. Do the right thing.

—Dave Ninehouser, Ambridge, PA

Stop propaganda
—Mh, Dublin, VA

I am strongly against this merger. Sinclair is a very Orwellian entity that is a danger to our democracy. Please block this merger. Thank You.
—Norman Flasch, Skokie, IL

If it is true as was reported on MSNBC that Sinclair provides its journalists with script identical from one station to the next, not only must the merger be disallowed, but the broadcast licenses of Sinclair's stations must be revoked.
—Oliver Seely, Lakewood, CA

Stop State Propaganda :::::FREE PRESS CONSTITUTION DEMANDS IT
—Debra Wiley, Dover, NH

It is JUST WRONG to weaponize local television news.
—David Nevin, Rochester, NY

We cannot let this happen we are going down a very slippery slope and it must be stopped.
—Audrey Ledgerwood, West Richland, WA

My husband and I watch the local news every night, as we count on it to be local. We don't want Sinclair providing scripts to our local news and insisting they read them. We don't want Sinclair telling our local newscasters what is news and how they are to report on it. Save our local news!
—Ruth Fink-Winter, Wheaton, IL

Sinclair is a biased propaganda source for the ultra-right wing parties and as such can not be trusted as a steward of the airwaves. Any merger with Sinclair must be scrutinized with this in mind and denied on that basis.
—Richard England, Beaverton, OR

Please, do not approve this merger, if you do, another piece of our freedom of press will be gone and we'll be one step closer to state tv.
—Helen Kenney, Bozeman, MD

This is creepy and too much power for a veiled corporation.
—S F, Olympia, WA

No company should be allowed to become a news monopoly!
—Margaret Anderson, Boise, ID

Is this America, a government of the people, by the people, for the people, UNDER GOD? Or is it a dictatorship, controlled by the wealthy and their corporations? The answer is quite obvious, the latter is becoming very quickly a stark truth!
—John A. Bochnak, Kewanee, IL

save Freedom of the Press and Freedom of the People to Know and Understand what is happening in our world!
—David Atwood, Houston, TX

Protect the first amendment!
—Leslee VanWinkle, Austin, TX

Allowing the Sinclair-Tribune merger would be extremely dangerous to our democracy. A country as diverse as the United States needs a diversity of media outlets to allow those voices to be heard.

—Karen Zill, Washington, DC

Stoo the Sinclair merger now.

—Ricky Nguyen, Seattle, WA

I just hope I live to see all the damage that's being done during the Trump administration repaired by true patriots. Resist the end of democracy!

—Dianna Osborne, Martinsburg, WV

"This is extremely dangerous to our de-mock-racy..."

—Kimberly Cresic, Parkton, MD

Stop these liars, they are fake news.

—Catherine Arnett, Fairmont, WV

Please do not let this dangerous merger go through. We need local news from local sources.

—Amy Larkin, Kennebunkport, ME

This is frightening! This is not what a FREE press should look like!

—Dee Boyle-Clapp, Amherst, MA

Think about what you are about to do. Sinclair serves Trump, and who does Trump admire? Putin and Kim Jung Un just to name two. Taking control of the media, is generally the first step in changing a Democracy into a dictatorship. Then who is the dictator? Trump or Putin?

—Mara McManus, Acworth, GA

deprogram sinclair and fox channels from the TV set.

—Cady Cadwallader, Corning, CA

No single media outlet like Sinclair must ever take over the media sources of news!!!! Sinclair is a danger to our Democracy!!!

—Roxanne J. Fand, Oceanside, CA

Aspiring authoritarian? I hope freepress isn't amnesiac enough to think any of our presidents were not aspiring authoritarians. (I don't see much aspiration, just authoritarianism.)

—Susan Siens, Unity, ME

We DO NOT need (or want) a telemedia version of Rockefeller's Standard Oil. It is time to "trustbust" again in the USA!

—John K Erskine, Holland, MI

No matter the company or its biases, this merger is a threat to our democracy.

—Me Beth Brubaker, Kansas City, MO

No more State Media. Try reading the Constitution

—Kerry Ramsey, Sacramento, CA

Mr. Pai should be made aware that as a public official, he works for the public good. Sinclair Media Group does NOT represent the ideals of free press, and should therefore not be allowed to move further toward monopoly in the local broadcast sector.

—Nathan D. Rice, Ypsilanti, MI

Enough of this nonsense! I demand unbiased reporting!

—Marc Mercer, Peyton, CO

Sinclair is like Stepford + Orwell. This is not American. Trump is trying to control the free press.

—Julie E king, Playa del Rey, CA

This is horrific that anyone has allowed our freedoms to be sold and controlled.

—Kimberly Rondy, Norwalk, OH

This is a frightening issue against our democracy. Reminiscent of Nazism. This trend must be stopped.

—Susan A Surman, San Antonio, TX

This is not free speech it is a merger for a national propaganda machine and mind control that is more like Russian State TV than American free press. To mandate to local TV hosts to say the same extremist twisting of the truth in a script and even at the same time is not within any boundaries of an American democracy or free press. FCC do your job and stop this Trump dictatorship.

—Janet London, North Truro, MA

Please protect unbiased, fair and balanced news originating with local journalists.

—Abigail K Alcott, Lakewood Ranch, FL

DO NOT allow the Sinclair-Tribune merger. We have enough of the propoganda news with FOX News. We don't need Trump's BS lies on every station!!

—Terri Morrison, Munster, IN

It's "free press", not "state sponsored press"

—Scott Trombetta, Tucson, AZ

Of course the FCC wants the public mind controlled. Especially the ones who scoff at the idea, since they're the most controlled of the lot. I guess we'll see what are breaking point is.

—Jason Levitt Levitt, Los Angeles, CA

i work in broadcasting - we've had far too much deregulation and mergers already. it doesn't serve the public.

—Sybil McGuire, Clermont, FL

A monopolized media is not a free press, and a Free Press is essential to a democracy. Prevent this anti-democratic merger!

—Jim Garrett, Brooklandville, MD

Aren't they supposed to be there to keep us informed of what our out-of-control moneyed interests are trying to do to gain total control? Or am I wrong, here?

—Yara Mello, Yelm, WA

The mergers of Sinclair and Tribune Media would be a curse to the freedom of information which is news Sinclair's single goal as a media outlet is to control and limit information. This is hardly free speech but rather an impediment or obstruction of information to curtail the ability of the American public to make a free and reasoned judgement of information, knowledge and truth. Over the Easter Weekend I saw the frightening site of the beast of Fascism rearing its ugly head on my television 200 television stations stating line by line a single script and a single message and no local or opposing opinion or fact. Fascism is a political philosophy or movement that advocates the total control of people by the suppression of information, social interaction and strict economic control. When you see 200 news outlets issue the same singular statement you no longer have a free press. What you have is the limiting and suppression of information which is oppression. No more fascism. when I watch local news I expect news and information of my distinctive local community. Make my local news locally staffed and locally owned.

—Scott Jorgensen, Olathe, CO

This is political propaganda and an affront on our democracy! START ENFORCING ANTI-MONOPOLY LAWS NOW OR BE VOTED OUT!

—Matthew A Foster, Bremerton, WA

If you're not embarrassed to allow Sinclair to continue its state sponsored content, you're a complete joke FCC

—Michael Flaherty, Holmdel, NJ

THIS IS 2018, NOT 1984!!!!

—Tiffany Alfonso, Dover, FL

Mind control coming to the United States as it has in Russia?

—Virginia Curtis Lee, Salt Lake City, UT

What? Since when is local news even 'fact-checked'? You're allowed to say whatever false thing that fits the corporate agenda and delivers the desired effect. Most smart people know not to get their news from the 'news'. #StopSinclair now

—Ambrosia Danu, Carson City, NV

Stop this form of propaganda that undermines our constitutional protection of an independent media.

—Kathleen McQuillan, Cook, MN

This is a free country and there is no place for propagandized media! The Koch's need to stay out of politics and their puppets.

—Cheryl Schillingowski, Manitowoc, WI

This is an unmitigated disaster for local news - Free and Fair and Truthfulness along with Integrity should be the mantra!! Down with this Merger!!

—Marianne Shouse, Prairie Village, KS

CORRUPTION AT THE HIGHEST LEVELS!!

—Paula Gerosky, Scranton, PA

We are not Russia, nor do we want to be!

—Pat Hartman, Durango, CO

Stop the crazy

—Francine lubera, Owings Mills, MD

We NEED more transparency not less.

—Jessica Gerdau, Garden City, MI

Sinclair has proven itself to be unworthy of trust and deals in bad faith with its own employees.

—Douglas W Davis, Goldsboro, NC

Don't let Sinclair dictate the news! It against our Amendment 1 .

—Beverly Mitlin, Canton, MA

This activity is reprehensible and should be called out as a crime against humanity. This scenario is beyond Orwellian. It is the script to a nightmare from which we may never wake up. Please act responsibly and reject this merger.

—Sylvie Reichmann, Oneco, FL

The airwaves belong to the citizens of America, stop the propaganda machine from monopolizing our airwaves. This proposed merger is not good for the American people. Just say no, this deal should not go through.

—William Haley, Tye, TX

This is extremely dangerous to our democracy.

—Bill Hayden, Salem, OR

We are a Democracy!

—Kaeser Kim, Fort Myers, FL

I gre up in a town of 35,000 and I understand how a community depends on the local channel for news. We need to allow options. An FCC license is a public trust, a commitment to fairness, not a blank check to promote one side of issues and vilify those with a different perspective. Teddy Roosevelt, a true Republican understood that monopolization of an industry or service corrupts and is a disservice to the community

—Mona R Pastor, Shell Beach, CA

Sinclair's behavior is only not illegal in the sense that they have bought the regulation out of existence. This is unacceptable and, as has been pointed out, a threat to our democracy.

—Sean Sooter, Church Road, VA

This is "1984" come to life.

—Christine Elaine Bruce, Elyria, OH

Let's see--how is this different from those terrible commies our freedom-loving government has spent trillions of taxpayers' dollars to defeat so that they couldn't bombard us with their political propaganda? Just asking....

—Tom Wheys, Pioneer, CA

This merger is a threat to American democracy as well as what appears to be a violation of Anti-trust laws.

—Faith Steinfott, Cinnaminson, NJ

Stop this merger!

—Greg Bodovsky, Hillsboro, TX

This deal is bad for America. Listen to us.

—Michelle peterson, Long Beach, CA

Our democracy can not afford a company such as Sinclair Broadcasting monopolizing the local TV markets.

—Laurie Anderson, Georgetown, TX

Media consolidation has been an affront to the public interest. The airwaves are owned by the public.

—A J. Honoré, Seattle, WA

The FCC is supposed to protect the public interest and this merger is clearly NGT in the public interest.

—Dorothy A Bruce, Tucson, AZ

Enough is enough.

—, Rockwell, NC

A free, independent press is absolutely vital to the survival of democracy. We have seen examples for decades of how dictators and autocrats use demonization of the media to gain control of their citizens and overturn democratic ideals.

—Cindi Kestrel, Loveland, CO

This is terrifying. Sinclair made its anchors read from a script charging "fake news" from our only good honest sources?! Good god. Thought this was America.

—Elaine Richard, New York, NY

We don't need a vile crapheaded broadcast group plying its lies and right wing garbage taking over our media. Stop Sinclair dead in its tracks... NO MORE media takeovers by this foul propaganda organization!!!

—Ralph Meyer, Bakerstown, PA

We must continue to have discretion in what/whose news we hear. Sinclair must not be allowed to take over all these broadcast stations.

—Carol Truitt, Fort Worth, TX

Morons are everywhere. What a major rational for abortion. These people should have never been born.

—Roger Simon, Jamaica, NY

Sinclair Broadcasting, especially if they take over Tribune Media, is extremely dangerous to our democracy.

—Robert Stanley, Highland Park, IL

Um, 'er, if enough of our population is ignorant and or hateful, we can vilify Sinclair, but put efforts into changing the above. Hopefully, to a variant per the old "what if they had a news show and nobody listened."

—Ellene Shapiro, highland park, IL

Local Fox News is becoming the REAL FAKE NEWS! LIES! LIES! LIES!

—Richard F. Mcgrain Jr., Charlottesville, VA

..this is extremely serious.. and dangerous !!! ..and MUST be stopped !!!

—BJ Arias, Henderson, NV

Clear the air(waves) - reign in Sinclair.

—Steve R. Marquardt, Lake Lillian, MN

SINCLAIR HAS ALREADY BOUGHT MY FAVORITE TV NEWS STATION. ENOUGH WITH THE TRIBUNE MERGER!!

—Sandra Cantrell, Eastland, TX

Please stop this from happening!

—Patricia LaFever, Cookeville, TN

This transaction would be a HUGE mistake. Not only would it create a near monopoly of local TV station ownership, but real journalism will be damaged by the dictates of corporate propaganda required of its employees. DO NOT allow this to occur. To do so could create a greater divide in this country.

—Deborah Henderson, O Fallon, MO

WE are all stunned at how fast our democracy is being stolen from us. Please do your job and STOP this corrupt, criminal, traitorous "administration" from screwing us all into the ground. Does anyone in Washington have the guts to stand up to tyranny? We'll find out, won't we? We WILL fix this. You can bet your asses. It may not be during this criminal administration, but we WILL will fix this...

—Darryl D Edington, Medford, OR

Do not allow this merger. It is contrary to the interests of a free and democratic society.

—Stephen Griffin, Peoria, AZ

Media outlets are already so polarized. Free press and unbiased news sources must be free—not told what to say. This is a democracy, please preserve it. Thank you.

—Lauren Davis, Northfield, MN

This is extremely dangerous. If it were not so frightening, if we had not been living through this very real threat to our free press, if the President of the United States had not been insulting and undermining our press every day -- this video clip would be almost comical. The video looks as if it is a clip from a movie. But, unfortunately, it is a real threat, one we have witnessed since the moment Donald Trump entered politics. This president attacks our press and thus, our freedom, every day. We now know that democracy is fragile. A free press is the most important protection we have against authoritarianism. However, if the head of the FCC, Ajit Pai, is a tool of the president and his agenda, and is willing to break all the rules in order to let this media merger through, other branches of the government, along with public outcry, must intervene. Sinclair is a threat to free speech and to our institution of a free press.

—Monique Viator, Beaumont, TX

As a journalist, this is embarrassing for this country.

—Bev, Hollywood, SC

Hell no! No state media!

—Chris Olsen, Santa Rosa Valley, CA

This is NOT how our media is supposed to work! Media should not be allowed to amass into a conglomerate with a single message -- that is fascism! Deny the merger!

—Monique Dubos, Minneapolis, MN

We need unbiased news and if Sinclair merges with Tribune we will not get this in our local news channels. They must be stopped. They are already spreading their biased news stories in much of the country and we need to stop them from gaining a monopoly!

—Sherlynn Miller, Pine Beach, NJ

Sinclair has demonstrated intent to mandate local news anchors read its disputable editorial views without an on-air challenge. The line between TV news and opinion has been blurred, even crossed. Further consolidation guarantees further manipulation of viewers - antithetical to the mission of the FCC and the ideal of an informed citizenry.

—Stephen R. Sikora Jr, Duquesne, PA

This should be a crime, this is appalling

—Gabriel angel, Coloma, MI

Fox News and Sinclair have done more to ruin the USA than any other networks. It is against the law for a foreigner to own a news corporation inside the USA, so why did Rupert Murdoch get a broadcasting license? I bet #Mueller would investigate if asked. The USA public is sick of these companies in case you have not noticed all the protests.

—Darrell Lee Wright, Livingston, TX

Fuck Sinclair

—Richard Mckendry, Lyons, MI

We have Fox News, the Trump/right wing propaganda station. We had Boris Epshtyn all during the campaign spouting the Trump message and refusing to allow others to even disagree with him. He is the last person we need to hear daily, nationally, parroting the Sinclair message. Local news programs are to be local, not to have to repeat a message from Baltimore or from any other place. That is exactly how Fox began and continues to be. Ajit Pai has his own legal troubles, and he is trying to change FCC rules to ensure Sinclair will control the airwaves of over 70% of our citizens. That is patently unacceptable. The IG needs to complete his investigation of Pai before anything further is allowed to proceed. We need an American message, a diverse media market. Trump wants a Sinclair market that will play to his message as his son publicly stated during the campaign. And he got it then. No more!

—Mrs. Kay Merica, Hope, ID

How is this debate even still alive?

—Takeshi Kaneko, San Jose, CA

Down with Trump TV and break up Sinclair

—Mark Zschiegner II, Jacksonville, FL nazi germany all over again!

—Kris Hughes, Coral Springs, FL

There is too much corporate influence in newsrooms now, we don't need Sinclair pushing propaganda. Stop this merger!

—Elaine McAuliffe, Elmont, NY

We need freedom of the press, not mindless manipulation.

—Hazel Landa, Delmar, NY

Having one news source in small towns all across the country removes local independence in reporting political events. There is no one to address to change dishonest or slanted reporting. Whether you complain it is too liberal or too conservative, decidedly racist or anti white... the locals have a reason try harder to keep things more neutral. Now it is all controlled by a group that doesn't care about fact checking or cyberbullying. Nazi Germany did this. Russia does this. China does this. WE CANNOT LET THIS HAPPEN!

—, Minocqua, WI

I don't want news to be controlled by xenophobes with authoritarian agendas. I don't want news to be censored.

—Jasmine, Converse, TX

Local news must be local, not corporate propaganda! Monopolies are harmful for any industry, especially where we get our information.

—Brandon Gregg, Burlingame, CA

One of America's greatest presidents, Teddy Roosevelt, knew the risk of monopolies to democracies. In a capitalistic society, mergers can be antithetical to democracy. By restricting choice, the public is forced to certain viewpoints or products they might not be inclined to pursue in the first place. And if you let a company force a large segment of the public to their product the end effect is a chilling of democracy. That should not be allowed, especially in regard to the Sinclair case.

—Patrick McEvoy, New York, NY

This is an overt abuse and should not be allowed.

—Noel Sufrin, Enola, PA

Please protect freedom of the press by cancelling this proposed merger.

—Judith K Hingle, Manassas, VA

Sinclair's shenanigans have recently reached epic levels with the help of — you guessed it — aspiring authoritarian Donald Trump and his FCC lackey, Ajit Pai.

—Kevin West, Amarillo, TX

I worked in TV news for almost 20 years. I know first-hand how corporate ownership of local media is absolutely destructive to the three objectives stated in the creation of the FCC. I suggest you read the FCC charter.

—Earl Frounfelter, Santa Maria, CA

Sinclair TV is State sponsored, right-winged, hate TV. They already one of these channels – Faux News.

—Janis Barns, Jacksonville, FL

Stop the corruption of our airwaves by the slashing of longstanding, good sense regulations. Please stop this merger!

—Garrick, Santa Rosa, CA

Stop making ridiculous efforts to convert this free country into a parochial one. This is absurd.

—Anita Clos, Ann Arbor, MI

All authoritarian governments like to have control of the news. Remember Pravda in the USSR?

—Gertrude Reagan, Palo Alto, CA

It is dangerous to our democracy to have one company have the kind of power over a large portion of the media that Sinclair already has. To approve this merger and allow Sinclair power over 70 percent is completely unacceptable, particularly because Sinclair is using its power the way communist governments use power. This is not who we are in the United States, it is not who we want to become. Please block this merger with Sinclair and Tribune Media to keep our democracy in place and avoid a propaganda style brainwashing of our citizens.

—Debi Hoffman, El Dorado Hills, CA

STOP this attack on the Constitution. If you love the US, you will stop the merger.

—, Albuquerque, NM

Keep our press FREE from political bias! Deny the Sinclair-Tribune merger!

—Ann Cambre, Havre de Grace, MD

This merger does NOT serve the public. Kill it now!

—Perry Ogletree, Murfreesboro, TN

Yes, Sinclair "IS extremely dangerous to our democracy"!

—Chris Wiren, Rocklin, CA

Please stop Sinclair from taking over the US media.

—Kandy Brown, Snohomish, WA

Local news stations need to reflect and serve their localities.

—Chris Betit, Brunswick, ME

I am not a bot! And I'm terrified of the impact of Sinclair becoming a local media monopoly. Please reject this deal.

—Stephanie Cohen, Arlington, VA

STOP ALLOWING greedy, avaricious people to break the law!! Attempting to control free speech is a Constitutional violation. And there are still laws prohibiting monopolies! If you don't stop this, YOUR job is on the line!!!

—JJ Johnson, Rodeo, CA

I am strongly opposed to the Sinclair-Tribune merger. Sinclair is already too big!

—Sue Gleiter, Greensboro, NC

Enough is enough. Already there is too much media consolidation. Only by political deal making are these mergers are permitted to proceed. Stop this one!

—Jeffrey Sturm, San Leandro, CA

Goebbels would be proud of Sinclair - and that is NOT hyperbole.

—James Shuta, Dickson City, PA

Do we really want Pravda in the US?!!!!

—Laurie Smyla, Sloatsburg, NY

Excessive concentration of power in any field, especially economic fields, is antithetic to a democratic country. I was taught that by strongly conservative faculty members in graduate school. But neither political party has put the emphasis on that fact that it deserves. And especially so in the market for information. "This republic will rise or fall with its press" (Pulitzer)...

—James R. Fancher, Naperville, IL

Expanding the Sinclair broadcast empire with the Sinclair-Tribune merger would be -- in their own words -- "extremely dangerous to our democracy." I urge you to deny the request.

—Kae Bender, Lancaster, CA

We need to bring back pre-1996 Telecommunications Act boundaries!

—Christine Earles, Greenwood Lake, NY

STOP YOUR PROPAGANDA NOW!!!!!!!!!!

—Linda Jorgenson, Racine, WI

just stop!!!

—Debbie Schmidt, Lancaster, CA

We deserve better! End this dangerous merger now!

—Sue Braden, Traverse City, MI

This is getting frightening.

—Dawn Rohner, Greenwood Lake, NY

don't let the legitimacy of media killed by money and power greedy establishments like Sinclair.

—Dinmani Savla, mountain view, CA

I DON'T CARE WHO'S BEHIND THIS OR THE PARTY BEHIND IT, IT IS NOT RIGHT! WE HAD ENOUGH OF IT WHEN IT WAS ALL ABOUT WHAT THE LIBERALS DICTATED, THERE'S NO DIFFERENCE! BOTH STINK!

This is Orwell mixed with Putin and a direct threat to the first amendment!

—Jeffrey Evans, Wintersville, OH

Sinclair is dictating to local news media what documents and viewpoints they must read to their audiences. That leaves out local news and any objective news reporting. What Sinclair is doing is a huge disservice to viewers of local networks swallowed up by Sinclair.

Look it folks, let's get real here.... The only realistic comprehensive solution to today's "status quo" is an absolute demand by the electorate to
1. Repeal all laws regulations etc enacted by our elected congress /senate at least since trumps swearing in as president,2. immediate and passage of a new law eliminating corporate involvement especially eliminating all financial contributions to political campaigns at every level, alongside application of verifiable public electorate choices to all rules laws and regulations, ie elimination of electoral College and manage of representative voting reflecting the absolute desire of the electorate. It's time to stop the I'm voting for your best Good and start the I'm voting for your specific intentions as your elected representative! Hello! Just saying!

I remember when a prominent local family was no longer allowed to own both the TV station and newspapers in our city. How is allowing one company to own so many local stations AND forcing them to promote a political agenda now considered to be in the best interest of the public?
—Mickey L. Glick, Lancaster, PA

why do we even need to emphasize this! Scary times!
—, Belmont, MA

"The FCC had to slash nearly every existing media-ownership protection to make this merger possible..." This is wrong. This merger should be blocked, and Sinclair should be held accountable for the dissemination of dishonest propaganda, just as Fox "news" and any liberal media outlets should be as well.
—Steve Rockhold, Louisville, KY

Freedom FROM the free speech of others is also a right under our constitution.

Read your Orwell. This is the "Ministry of Truth" in action. Goebbels would be ecstatic about this.
—Steve and Adrienne Osborn, Camano Island, WA

The FCC must deny the Sinclair-Tribune merger.
—Doug Wolters, Silver Spring, MD

Sinclair is already engaging in a propaganda war on its currently owned stations. This by itself should be illegal in our country, and a disqualifier for purchase of additional stations. Giving one radical control of 72% of all local stations is no different than handing the White House keys to Putin. DO NOT approve the Sinclair-Tribune merger. We should not turn our independent news stations into propaganda puppets.

—Nancy Beigel, Beltsville, MD

Sinclair's misinformation campaign is a danger to Democracy.

It has been the responsibility of the Federal government to protect the public from monopolies. This merger should not be permitted to take place as it undermines competition so essential for capitalism to flourish and the consumer choices.

—Joe Mastrangelo, Holliston, MA

Approval of the Sinclair-Tribune merger is approval of fascism in America. When fascism controls a country, the country's citizens' only recourse is armed rebellion against the traitors responsible.

Free Press must remain free and impartial. Sinclairs's stint this week is the perfect demonstration of their intent: hide the real news. I beg you to put a stop to this loss of freedom for the press. Free speech would be next, once we have lost our sources of impartial news. Kindest regards,

And while you're at it, go to youtube and watch the intro to the 1960's sci-fi show called "Outer Limits". And then watch "The Stepford Wives". And then tell me how you can sleep at night.

—James van Sickle, CANYON COUNTRY, CA

NO, NO and NO. This merger would kill any semblance of unbiased local news. Sinclair actually writes and forces his TV stations to read and present his right wing Breitbart/Mercer/Koch viewpoint and propaganda version of the "news". It is as and maybe even more bizarre than that of Fox news pundits. This would truly destroy Democracy in the USA because viewers would be hearing lies and exaggerations from their local news channels.

—JoEllen Rudolph, Petoskey, MI

A free and open press and communication system are essential to the maintenance of a democracy!

—Erna Bates, Lockbourne, OH

We are guaranteed a free and independent press here in the United States. Sinclair's takeover threatens that freedom. Do NOT allow that to happen. You are now responsible for it.

—Linda Hamil, Marshall, MI

I believe that Sinclair's forced, canned content is actually a violation of the U.S. Constitution, and is certainly against the American ideal of a free press.

—Kyri Freeman, Barstow, CA

The highly shared "news" script that Sinclair recently mandated it's national TV news teams to broadcast serves as proof that the company is too large, has too much power and is using it to manipulate the American people with propaganda. We deserve better from our news media and from our industry regulators.

—James F Kerler, Lake Mills, WI

I DO NOT want my local news people spouting Sinclair propaganda anywhere, or at anytime.

—Pamela Kjono, Grand Forks, ND

At this rate one might infer from the FCC's actions that a monopoly of the air waves isn't far off & will be legal. Is this what OUR DEMOCRACY is about?

—Dave Scanlon, Saint Paul, MN

The American Public deserves better.

—Lina Braunstein, Sacramento, CA

The Best Local news is from Local people, researched, written and delivered by local people who know their listeners.

—Sarah E Yergin, Gig Harbor, WA

The FCC should put consumers and the public's welfare first. Protect the public interest not that of corporations like Sinclair, AT&T, Verizon, Comcast or New Charter. The FCC should revoke its recent order undoing Title II Net Neutrality rules put in place in 2015 and enforce Title II Net Neutrality as intended. The FCC should also oppose the Sinclair Tribune merger not be supporting it. Already Chairman Pai is being investigated by the FCC's own Office of Inspector General the FCC OIG for his corrupt practices. Listen to the public and no corporations are not people.

—Maneesh Pangasa, Tucson, AZ

Stop this monopoly of our media please!

—Joe Marra, Wilmington, DE

The FCC and trump are colluding to run "restricted media!" What a joke!

—Mary Easton, Cosmopolis, WA

Please block this merger. No need for this monopolistic deal. Sinclair content is propaganda, not news. This puts USA broadcast journalism on a dangerous path toward Pravda or Izvestia--neither of which are trusted by their target audience.

—Ann Gaul, Hoffman Estates, IL

We need a return to truth in broadcasting. Between Sinclair and Fox, we have people with an agenda spouting propaganda.

—Judithanne Westrope, Kingman, AZ

It is unacceptable for any news organization to reach 72% of households in this country. That is monopoly, plain and simple, and flies in the face of the bedrock principle of a constitutionally protected free press. To allow a company that requires its anchors to recite homogenized scripts that frame stories in a very partisan way, is even more egregious. It so obviously goes against the constitution. There is no way that is what the founders had in mind with the first amendment. You must prevent this merger. Local news should be local news- not a script determined by one central source. Extremely dangerous to our democracy indeed.

—Michelle Belanger, Winston Salem, NC

Please stop this madness.

—Melissa D Davis, Seattle, WA

this scares me - as much or more than everything else in our scary time! i don't watch much tv news but it should be open not controlled.

The USA is becoming a totalitarian country run by billionaires. It is a sad state of affairs.
—Anne Zimmerman, Sherman Oaks, CA

Stop Sinclair
—Jeb, Manhattan, KS

We are ruled by global corporations assisted by congressional allegiance to Wall Street instead of Main Street. Our local media have been taken over by hedge funds and billionaires allied with one aim: profits gotten from complete control of the MSM.

Do not let one organization, of any political leaning, control over 70% of the national network market.
—Deirdre Suddeth, Glen Burnie, MD

Speaking of fake news.....!
—Barbara Hanst, Boulder, CO

We have already seen significant changes in local news coverage due to large corporations buying what were once local family-owned TV stations. Please do not allow the Sinclair-Tribune merger.
—Catherine Carbone Rogers, Seattle, WA

Without a free press and lively media, NOT scripted, democracy dies. I urge you to take your responsibility to this great experiment very seriously. I presume you don't want to be remembered as the FCC team that allowed democracy to die.
—Vicki Schoettle, Seattle, WA

Sinclair's acquiring Phila17 should not be allowed
—Stan Basickes, Elkins Park, PA

The proposed Sinclair-Tribune merger is not in the best interest of the people, only the Sinclair Broadcasting Group. This should not be allowed.
—Randy Friter, Lafayette Hill, PA

The introduction of unprecedented propaganda techniques ushered in Hitler's authoritarian regime and horrors of WWII and the Holocaust. Now Would Be dictator Trump and his Ajit Pai led FCC are trying to do the same thing by allowing partisan Sinclair Broadcast Group to dictate the messages heard on our local news. Trump and his servant Pai pose a greater risk to the long-term survival of our democracy than the Muslim terrorists Sinclair loves to scar us with. FCC, cancel the proposed Sinclair-Tribune Media merger NOW!

—Peggy S Beck, Wallingford, PA

Don't let the Sinclair merger to proceed.

—Leonard Michaels, Huntingdon Valley, PA

Please block the purchase by Sinclair of Philadelphia local TV station Channel 17. The community needs this station and not less competition in the market

—Frank Plantan Jr., Drexel Hill, PA

What Sinclair is doing and the dereliction of duty by the FCC are and should be labeled as unconstitutional. News, at all levels, should be free of any political spin regardless of party affiliation. If not, it is simply propaganda, and a serious threat to our democracy.

—Dan Weber, Bluemont, VA

Block the deal!

—Joseph Rumsey, Harleysville, PA

National and local television stations/networks should show both sides of a political issue fairly. Americans need the truth and facts not conspiracy theories and lies to be reported. Sinclair Broadcast has turned into a government run monopoly.

—Tonya Bell, Lancaster, TX

This growing monopoly on our news media must be stopped!

—Sherry Wolkoff, Marlton, NJ

Please stop Sinclair from meddling with our free press!

—Mark Wolkoff, Marlton, NJ

The FCC has a responsibility to keep American media trust and monopoly free. The Sinclair merger represents a dangerous shift to a system of state-controlled media and information control. It's not fear-mongering - this has happened in other countries, always for the worst. DO NOT let it happen in America.

—Rain Gass, Las Cruces, NM

Such monopoly in media, with its inherent biases and weaknesses when having such monopoly, is terrible for our communications in society and democracy. DO NOT approve this destructive merger!!!!

This is the proper action for the FCC to protect the public airwaves from private takeover!

—Shirley Harned Kelley, Davis, CA

America is watching. If you allow this merger - you will continue to contribute to the death of broadcast journalism! This is wrong. Your job is to protect the public. What you are about to allow is the closet thing to state-run media - this country has ever seen. Do what is right and DENY the merger!!!

—Darren Schmidt, Austin, TX

our founding fathers did not want our press to be controlled by anyone's bigoted views but rather be the watchdog of the American people, reporting the truth and uncovering corruption and unfair and illegal practices.

—Georgi Edwards, Palm Desert, CA

Please do not allow this merger as it concentrates control over the content and reporting of the news which harms the public's right to a free press.

—Carol DiGiovanni, Chico, CA

Deny the Sinclair/Tribune merger. This would create a monopoly. I thought we had laws against these kinds of mergers. Public airwaves should remain open and free.

—Adele Oechslein, Philadelphia, PA

Stop the merger, guarantee the country a free press.

Save what little of Freedom Of Press that we have, Monopolies and Nazi Propaganda have no place in America

—Leslie David Hudelson, Cedar City, UT

If the American public wanted propaganda, we'd vote to make the U.S. a Soviet-style Russia. Oh, wait, is that what this is? Shame on the FCC.

—Annie McCombs, Kalamazoo, MI

Our democracy is best served by many independent media outlets. Sinclair's insistence that its media outlets read their script - no matter what it said - shows their disrespect for their outlets and their audience.

—Marjorie Engel, Studio City, CA

—Bartley Deason, Darby, MT

Sinclair's top down approaches to news reporting will stifle diversity of opinion that is essential to a democracy.

Republican bottom-feeders had better wake up to what is actually happening to this country. Regardless of which side of the political spectrum, allowing the diversity of sources of news and journalism to be reduced any further is extremely dangerous to our democracy.

—William D Noble Jr, Edmonds, WA

This merger is completely unacceptable. We need to restore the fairness doctrine & re-establish limits on broadcast outlet ownership within major markets to restore independence of thought & coverage in the news & opinion. The American people have worked too hard to implement democracy and freedom of speech and thought to let greedy corporations and politicians wipe it out with false, misleading or one-sided orchestrated reporting.

—Trenna Thomas, Champaign, IL

There is no need for an official administration propaganda outlet, no matter which party is in power. Industry consolidation allowing a thumb on the scale of truth is definitely not in our national interest. Please oppose the Sinclair-Tribune merger.

—Jay Spearman, Bremerton, WA

Monopoly is a game, not an economic plan. No one company should own speech

—Mara Obelcz, Hatfield, PA

There were good reasons for limiting control of local tv stations. Stop ignoring them.

—Robert Robbins, Saint Paul, MN

Sinclair's blatant propaganda is extremely harmful to the United States.

—Mr. Ron Garrison, Denver, CO

This is the continuation of control of media and control of minds. We have seen what can happen when voting is harmed and reasonable voices are unheard.

—K Ede, Milwaukee, WI

We need to stop Sinclair as he is trying to make our news media state controlled like Russia and North Korea and countries that have a dictatorship regime not an open democracy.

—Jolene McKee, Federal Way, WA

We do not believe in State TV, nor web content being controlled. This is anti American and must be stopped. Sincerely, David Kosewick

—David Kosewick, Chagrin Falls, OH

So I see America is turning into North Korea, where our freedoms are just taking away. The government is nothing more than a giant failure, who cares more about the one percent than the ninety nine. This needs to stop and Trump needs to be removed from office before he ruins this country any further.

—David McNickle, Hampton, CT

Media consolidation undermines democracy.

—Claire S Perricelli, Eureka, CA

You are responsible for stopping this merger, and stopping fascism, which has now invaded America.

—Joyce Niksic, Hammond, IN

We must stop the FCC and restore our faith commitment to the public interest! #StopSinclair

—Brad Benjamin, Bowie, MD

It is imperative to stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger immediately. This merger sets the tone for an autocratic government and not a democratic one. Putin is smiling as this is what he's wanted and he's found a man, Trump, to set the path. Very dangerous.

—Carol Kessler, Wilson, WY

State RUN?

We should be breaking up these megaliths not combining them. Competition is the life blood of a good economy, monopolies are not what we need or want. No merger.

—Robn Diekow, Schenectady, NY

Thank you

—Rev. Allan B. Jones, Santa Rosa, CA

This is completely disturbing.

—Mark Harrison Jr., Bedford, IN

We need a wide range of differing views from our news sources in order to form a thoughtful viewpoint. By allowing Sinclair to form a monopoly will be promoting propaganda not allowing a thoughtful viewpoint. This is bad for our country especially now that we are so divided by politics. The truth usually lies somewhere between a few news articles.

—Sherlynn Miller, Pine Beach, NJ

Serve the public interest not the corporate interests!

—Raymond Kalas, Columbia, NJ

We loathe Trump and all of his slimy friends .Fox Is bad enough and we NEVER want Sinclair .

—Karen Lozow and Will, Bloomington, IN

Free internet and net neutrality insures a comprehensive Democracy! No personhooded fictional commercial element should pull favors in this important US economy! Leveling power to include all people who now depend on self care in this age of free information is a key right we cannot give away to rich corporations - their theft of our way to inform ourselves will deteriorate USFabric of leadership in the world! Do not let local broadcasting be taken over recently by being stolen by one- voice imposing broadcasting- it takes away education, self sustenance, much better health and ability to maintain livelihoods! We need our internet not violated by clunker broadcasters who are really only propaganda machines! Take action to restore Net Neutrality immediately!

—Ms. Coco Gordon, Lyons, CO

The bottom line: Trump's FCC is moving swiftly to silence voices that are independent, diverse, and actually serve and care for local communities.

—David W. Stanley, Champaign, IL

Local news is for local news not nazi propaganda.

—Marsha Shaiman, Seattle, WA

No propaganda TV!

—Mark Scardello, Petaluma, CA

Our democracy depends upon your action.

—Janice Palma-Glennie, Keaau, HI

Sinclair has already demonstrated that they want to control the news and the slant of how it is presented. Don't give them control of an even greater percentage of local news to use for their one-sided view!

—James Hudson, Rapid City, SD

The independent local free press is the bedrock of our democracy, NOT a giant corporation controlling our local free press!! Reverse this unfortunate merger and restore our local free press!!

—Cameron Mosher, Salt Lake City, UT

Stop fascism.

—Neill Smith, Cortez, CO

The rules at FCC were clear- the % of ownership of media in this country was strictly defined- and with a good reason- competition and the fact that ALL voices need to be heard. Ownership should NOT be concentrated in media (tv, radio or print) precisely because of something like a Sinclair buy up of stations. THIS IS UNAMERICAN! The rules that served us so well for a very long time must be returned to their previous position and they must be strictly enforced. Sinclair SHOULD NOT BE APPROVED

—Stacy R, New York, NY

Show that our T.V. news is more than just a propaganda machine. Sinclair is leading us out of democracy and toward fascism.

—Mayellen Henry, Bellevue, WA

One company should not own that many news outlets, It amounts to censorship by the corporation. Without free speech all our other freedoms are at jeopardy.

—Keith Welshinger, Duluth, MN

How are people supposed to know the truth with news programs being forced to read pro Trump propaganda? Truth must prevail if democracy is to be saved.

—Jeff Witt, Kansas City, MO

the FCC needs to Stopinclair and End the Runaway Media Consolidation That's Silencing Our Communities! The FCC MUST reject the Sinclair-Tribune merger and get back to the business of serving people.

—Jay D Lefkowitz, Valley Glen, CA

If the FCC at all wants America to survive and be healthy it has to reject Sinclair's propropaganda and it has to break up Sinclair, save America, to hell with Sinclair.

—William F Smith, Anchorage, AK

Free open and fair press and media. No to propaganda

—Donna Egan, Oakland, CA

Forcing local stations all over the country to repeat the same propaganda creates an atmosphere where multiple points of view are silenced. The FCC must return to the media-ownership limits prior to 2017 to provide a diverse set of opinions in all markets. The FCC must not allow huge companies to interfere with information access and sharing. The FCC is the voice of the citizens and needs to again speak for all citizens.

The Sinclair-Tribune merger would allow Sinclair to cover about seventy percent of the US Nothing that big should be allowed. This attempt at a near monopoly needs to be rejected

—Karl Meller, Minneapolis, MN

The FCC has managed to remain a respected guardian of integrity and balance in the media. This merger will obliterate FCC's reputation for fairness and integrity.

—David Connor, Montpelier, VT

Just because Sinclair is a private company doesn't mean it's not functioning as a "ministry of truth" a la "1984." Just as was the case in the the infamous book, Sinclair's version of "the truth" has NOTHING to do with truth! Do NOT allow them to spread their lies any wider than they already are. REDUCE their ability to do so instead!

Local news should remain local without corporate opinions being forced on them. With the Tribune merger Sinclair would become a de facto national news provider undermining the principles of a free press that allow our democracy to function properly.

—Susan, San Diego, CA

Please allow open competition in the market. Disallow, bar, or restrict market dininance by a single force.

—ML Rhodes, Raleigh, NC

The message that Sincclair is delivering locally, on Channel 10 in Providence, is biased and lacks any kind of balance. Public Broadcasting makes it a practice to air both sides of a question, but Sinclair does not, which is why it should not be allowed to have a monopoly over 70 percent of television broadcasting in the US. We are a democracy and we have a broad range of views on the topics of the day; that range of views should be aired, not be silenced by a corporate merger.

—Deborah Del Gais, Providence, RI

We have no faith in your willingness to serve the American people fairly, and protect us from propaganda on a massive scale. Please prove us wrong by representing our interests over corporate media--thank you! :)

This would be a real good time for you to start demonstrating an interest in a diverse media landscape with multiple viewpoints. The proposed merger would take us in exactly the wrong direction. Please stop this merger.

—Patrick Bosold, Fairfield, IA

Sinclair must NOT be allowed to merge with Tribune Media. Sinclair is nothing other than a right-wing propaganda outlet and this merger will stop this garbage from monopolizing the media as they want to do. This must NOT be allowed to happen.

—Ralph Meyer, Bakerstown, PA

Sinclair has become a propaganda outlet for Trumpism. It's attack on real news organizations is bizarre.

—Robert Van Arsdale, Tucson, AZ

This is antithetical to all our country stands for.

—Jennifer Swearingen, Bozeman, MT

Sinclair broadcasting is quickly turning into a monopoly when it comes to public broadcasting. This fact alone is alarming, but combined with the fact that Sinclair has a clear bias in its reporting makes it all the worse. Please prevent Sinclair from gaining a larger percentage of the public broadcasting.

—Ryan Thomas Sheehan, Normal, IL

Consolidated ownership of local media makes no sense. This is antithetical to the public interest and an abuse of public airwaves. You must reject the Sinclair Broadcast Group's bid to merge with Tribune Media.

I want more independent view points, we are headed to emulate China, Russia, and other countries that have few independent views.

—Butch Blawd, Minneapolis, MN

We do not need more media consolidation, we need less! The video I saw of Sinclair "news" anchors forced to read the same biased script was chilling, more like Russian State TV than anything a U.S. broadcaster should be producing.

—Michael R Marquardt, Whitewater, CO

I have watched the video of numerous news anchors across the nation reading from the same script. It is profoundly disturbing and seems impossible to have occurred in our country. This is what will happen more frequently if the Sinclair-Tribune merger is allowed. Please stand for democracy and diversity and do not allow the merger.

—Kris Phelps, Houston, TX

Fuck Trump and all the trumpsters

—Beth Bowling, Pottsboro, TX

The U.S. is going to be no different that those Countries who are led by DICTATORS who CONTROL ALL MEDIA. It TRULY would be a SHAME if this were allowed to happen here in the U.S. It is getting to the point where I do not even recognize what USED to be my WONDERFUL COUNTRY.

—Patricia Christensen, Cape Coral, FL

How's is it we're allowed to be boldfaced lied to by "News" outlets who we assume trust worthy. Even though the people who are forced to relay these lies KNOW they are lies. And the FCC does NOTHING. We pay you to control this sort of blatant misuse of trust. You can either do your job or disband the FCC as a waste of Taxpayer money.

What happen to the days when the USA had a free press? That was something dictatorships and communist countries didn't have....We are suppose to have a democracy and a free press not one controlled by people with an agenda.

—Tammy Bransford, Middletown, CA

Stopping the Sinclair-Tribune merger isn't enough! Break up Sinclair--it's already a monopoly in many regions.

—Timothy Simmons MD, Charleston, WV

I remember in my youth Americans were scornful of state controlled media in communist countries. Since we now have a leader who would like nothing better than to turn this country into a third world style dictatorship we are in danger of going down that same route. It seems that today there are too many Americans who have a "it can't happen here mentality".

—Trent Adrian, Tampa, FL

The Sinclair/Tribune merger is a danger to our democracy.

—Kelly Piatt, Diamond Bar, CA

Large monopolies should not dictate what is covered in local news. News should be accurate and without bias. Journalists should not be forced to make scripted propaganda by owners. If the owners want to spread propaganda then use their own skills and not compromise locally known new anchors.

Stop this onerous assault on free and unbiased press! Hands (pockets too) off!

Stating or reporting that the Earth is flat doesn't make it so, we know better! Trump is an idiot!!! NO SINclair!!!
—Debra phillips, Bakersfield, CA

When I heard that 'message' that Sinclair forced the newscasters to repeat, it had an incredibly chilling and alarming affect on me. It resonated as a dictatorial state-run media message! This is extremely concerning to me. I am a lifelong Republican with a family which is largely journalists. Our cousin by marriage is Bob Schieffer, and we have family members who have been city editors, real estate editors and copy editors for large urban and mid-size community newspapers. As a proponent of the free press on all sides of the political aisle, this appears to be a clearly attempted takeover of the free press. I find that very alarming from any side of the political aisle, and urge you to block this merger.

FCC Must defend American Democracy, stop this merger and restore faith in America systems to work for ALL citizens!

We the People are revolting Against PROPAGANDA!

—Susan Boyce, Myrtle Creek, OR

The only way you can have free speech is to have free speech in the news and media. When one company becomes the only voice in multiple cities, then they can skew the news any way they want and you would have an effective monopoly. The proposed Sinclair Tribune merger would make an effective monopoly. I urge you not allow this merger. It's not in the best interest of communities, we need access to unbiased news and information.

—C Wilson, Spokane Valley, WA

Sinclair owning MORE stations is a dangerous threat to democracy in the US. Do not approve this merger!

—Kevin McGrath, Van Nuys, CA

It is morally wrong for the Sinclair-Tribune merger to take place. It certainly seems like there's a movement to destroy our country and I want it stopped.

No broadcaster group should be permitted to own more than 70% of the public airwaves. To allow Sinclair to acquire Tribune would be harmful to our democracy. STOP THE MERGER. STOP THE MERGER!!!!!!!!!!

—Eileen Kennedy, Abington, PA

Media consolidation is a serious threat to a healthy democracy.

—Mike Perry, Nevada City, CA

This is indeed a monopoly of the American news media and should not be allowed. Sinclair has a record of forcing local news stations to broadcast a particular point of view. Doing that to stations that serve over 70% of the American population is wrong, wrong, wrong. We need diversity, not conformity in our news.

—Jacquelyn Coven, Valparaiso, IN

—Joel Quaintance, Huntsville, TX

ABSOLUTELY NOT, NO WAY, NADA! No media company should dominate any single market. No media company should be permitted to buy a second outlet (tv, radio or newspaper) unless there is a competitor in that format.

Free press and a diverse array of information and opinions is WHAT NEWS is supposed to be about!! AAnd NOT a canned script repeated by parrots that are paid by a republican lobbyist with millions of dollars who feeds us LIES!!! I am disgusted with Sinclair's actions to buyout news stations, then script out statements that are fabricated lies!! This is a DEMOCRACY!! AND WE DEMAND REAL NEWS!!!

—Tom Kennedy, Winfield, AL

A truly free press is essential to maintaining a democracy. I am deeply disturbed at the potential control of media voice and loss of varied local input that would be enabled by a merger between Sinclair and Tribune. Please reject Sinclair's Bid. Thank you.

—Rebecca Mueller, Dixon, NM

Unbelievably wrong...this is how Hitler was able to come to power and how Putin survives! This is so very wrong for a democracy!

—Marilyn Davis, Evanston, IL

I know local media compares to your local auto dealership when it comes to buying & selling a car, but we need to tell the FCC to demand that they stop the Sinclair/Tribune merger because it's a bad thing for consumers & local businesses. If this merger goes through, it would be bad for the public & it would also hurt diversity the most. That would mean more hate speech, which is terrible. That's why we demand to tell the FCC that they reject the merger now.

—Derek Gendvil, Las Vegas, NV

Wouldn't this be a monopoly? I thought that was illegal!

We depend on independent local news that we can rely on to give us unbiased fact driven news, anything else is dangerous to our democracy.

—Linda Tift, Chapel Hill, TN

Come on! This isn't North Korea! What's happening to freedom of speech and freedom of the press?

—Richard H Sparkes, Grand Blanc, MI

Please reject this merger! We need diversity in our media and this company does not provide that.

—Kathleen Kobak, Palos Heights, IL

There is a reason this country has opposed monopolies, and strangling opposing voices is just wrong.

—Barbara Lee Raymond, Durham, NC

This is unconscionable and dangerous.

—Kay D. Nelson, Richfield, MN

The spreading use of propaganda, and that's what a nationally mandated script-reading is all about, is insidious. It's one more example of the desire on the part of corporate media to subvert democracy. Sinclair's arrogance makes them unfit for a larger role in society.

—Norm Cimon, LaGrande, OR

Sinclair is a disgraceful excuse for a media company. It must not be allowed to propagandize more media markets.

—S Fleck, Chapel Hill, NC

PLEASE! Look at the far reaching detrimental impact of this merger. Capitalism, by itself, without some oversight, concentrates power and wealth. Not necessarily a good thing.

—Ben Hulet, Sonora, CA

The destruction of diversity in American media/news is incredibly dangerous for democracy,

—Mr. Robert A. Deckert, Bellingham, WA

Whatever happened to anti-trust laws to stop monopolies?

—Karen Carney, Spencertown, NY

Propaganda-information, especially of a biased or misleading nature, used to promote or publicize a particular political cause or point of view.

—Edwin J. McGrath, Burlington, NC

Please stop the replacement of honest reporting by partisan political propaganda.

—Susan O Anderson, Boston, MA

We need diverse voices reporting on news, not one single big propaganda machine.

The 3 BOOBS that sit in it' Entertainment newsroom at Fox Is disgraceful!!!!

—Virginia Linstrom, Lacey, WA

This is dictator's tv.

—Mary Mark Munday, New Oxford, PA

We need a really truly FREE press.

—Alice Artzt, Princeton, NJ

Those uniform commercials for the right wing are part of the TRUE danger to democracy: lock-step, ordered from the top propaganda instead of independent thought and open debate.

—Tom Rollefson, Lame Deer, MT

Protect a free press! Stop the merger.

—Kate Connolly, Lynnwood, WA

Sinclair's propaganda in the blatant guise of "news" is an outrage; if it is not reined in there will be a terrible price to pay and our democracy could suffer irreparably.. If you really value our democratic values, you must put a stop to the Sinclair-Tribune merger.

—David P. Miller, Elkton, MD

no mind control please

—Carolyn Norr, Oakland, CA

Sinclair has already proven they are not a truthful media service for the ordinary people of the world or the United States. DO NOT allow them to try to force the opinions of the conservative upper crust onto the normal working people. A diverse media is a necessity in a democracy.

—Timothy K Boughner, Dodge City, KS

We need a free press, not Nazi dictators for our news.

—Sharon K. Baker, Palmer Lake, CO

Boldly disgraceful!

—Roslynne Reed, Shelton, WA

The people have the right to have access to honest, unadulterated news.

—Daniel L. Hulseapple, Middletown, NY

Control of the media is the pathway to facism. Trump admires Hitler and is modeling his regime in a similar fashion.

—Harriet Smartt, Isle of Palms, SC

It's too late for some of our national monuments, but no too late for our free press. Please don't stand idly by while Sinclair-Tribune hack away at our press and make it untrustworthy. For most of us, the press is all we have to ascertain the truth and make judgements.

—Barbara Laffan, Venice, CA

Not only do I want you to oppose the merger between Sinclair and Tribune, I want you to put back in place media ownership restrictions.

—Kevin Allemann, Harrisburg, MO

This is fascism.

—Paul Scott, Ann Arbor, MI

ENOUGH!!!!

—Eggers J., Addy, WA

This will be the end of democracy, if one platform will distribute its message only - and there are not other platforms.

—Louise McClure, Princeton, NJ

This is a sickening abuse of the first amendment, as well as an embrace of a monopoly of the media. We need a FREE PRESS and NET NEUTRALITY!

—Christine Lemarier, Conroe, TX

The destruction of Net Neutrality and diminution of limits on media ownership pave the way for the destruction of healthy politics in this country.

—Linda Faulhaber, New York, NY

This is an audacious breach of the public's confidence that relies on these officials to protect the right of all voices in our society.

—Corry Dastur, Petaluma, CA

This whole power grab, by Sinclair, stinks of corruption and distinct possibility of government control and censorship of the media.

—Katie Woodland, Olympia, WA

Agit Pai wise up quick you make some people very disappointed in you man of putrid corruption. Sad!

—Martin Pesaresi, San Francisco, CA

This “news” is not local but it is faked!

—Evelyn Pezold, Huntington, NY

How could you consider this cynical ploy to allow Sinclair Broadcast Group to have access to more than 70% of the American public on what are supposed to be independent local stations?

—Karen Hibbs, Keller, TX

Another nail in the coffin of our democracy -- utilizing a state-run propaganda media source is not good for us.

—Faith Franck, Las Vegas, NV

I consider Sinclair's “Terrorism Alert Desk” and other fake news to be harmful to the public.

—Karen McConkey, Knoxville, TN

Through our egregious policies we are slowly achieving third world status... Employment is the greatest economy booster there is; and jobs, not fences make good neighbors. Instead of destroying our ecology we should work together to make life better for everyone. What makes America great and keeps us moving forward and not backwards is, politicians and people at every level, laborers and corporations working together innovatively to make life better for everyone. Problem is most men and women in our legislature realize its ineffectiveness, but it has become obscenely profitable and dumped unlimited monies into the political system silencing advocates in every party and the silence is deafening. Political lobbyists flood the process with unlimited resources and corrupt the progression with egregious ads and propaganda that pervert the process and compounds the problem. To make bad matters worse, our courts dignify the process by defining corporations as people and have opened the floodgates to monies from questionable sources. The sad truth is that America will never reach her potential if we cannot accept criticism and allow peaceful protests. This merger of Sinclair-Tribune would be like one of the final nails in the demise of democracy and create a puppet media and progressive implosion silenced through the FCC voting to repeal Net Neutrality...

—James Perkins, Los Angeles, CA

We need local stations to speak with an individual voice.

—Barbara Shaw, Boxford, MA

tell that piece of shit ajit pai to do the peoples business rather than sucking the cocks of his buddies at sinclair, or send him back to the gutters of mumbai where he comes from

This is even worse than the AT&T/ Time Warner merger that you have been so against. Please don't let this atrocity happen. Thank you.

—John Bair, York, PA

—Audrey Ross, tucson, AZ

Do your job! Sinclair is NOT for everyone and we don't want it forced down our throats!

—Christopher Lawrence, Spokane, WA

Sinclair is not a news station; it's a dangerous propaganda machine. And you are seriously considering expanding their toxic reach?!?!?!?

Journalism and the News need to be independent of political interference!

—Barb Martinez, Denver, CO

Where are we in a dictator lead country? He is the worst grifter, con. Yeah, America is really falling fast. Everyone sees the truth now. No one is asleep anymore. Corporate is trying to get all the control of the population to protect the few with money at the top. Someday it will all crumble and fall down because they don't want to share. Corporate doesn't care about the people. They want to take away access to information and education to dumb us down. But this will not work. It will just further rip this country apart.

—Donielle Workman, Stuart, FL

—Kelly McConnell, Tigard, OR

This company is against against American values of free dissemination if information. What a shame.
—Barbara Hughes, Las Vegas, NV

Local media reports need to be written and produced locally, not by some faraway mega-company. Sinclair owns too many media outlets already. They must not buy additional ones.
—Betsy Smith, Brewster, MA

Sinclair is not a journalistic organization. It is plainly and simply a political advocacy propaganda organization whose goal is to control the television media market. It must not be allowed to do this by taking over our free and open media!
—Richard Cruce, Atlanta, GA

Your naked support of Sinclair is not in the public interest. The only way to change this corrupt policy is by voting for different Congressmen and women. Chairman Pai is a paid hack and never should have been appointed to the F.C.C.

Don't let your politics supercede your logic. Sinclair-Tribune is too big to merge.

—Marilyn Goldstein, New York, NY

This is a shameless move toward communism.

—Patsy "truth rules" Shafchuk, New Port Richey, FL

You cannot allow this to become a bigger monopoly. the people should have choices of what they hear. they should hear news not propaganda.

I will no longer watch the local channel 2 News because the news is scripted and slanted to favor the views corporations.

The American People deserve, and want Real, unbiased news from Credible, reliable news outlets. Sinclair Broadcasting is Not an unbiased, reliable news outlet. Sinclair Broadcasting is a Prpoaganda Pusher.

—Kate Considine, Camarillo, CA

You do a tremendous disservice to Americans by allowing this corporation to monopolize our airwaves with its propaganda. You can't fool us. You're supposed to promote democracy. If you don't, we'll vote in public servants who will appoint patriots to serve us.

—Wendy Block, Ventura, CA

—Leanna D. Loomer, Newington, CT

Outrageous!

—Donna Murphy, Portland, OR

Public interest is the most important. Stop the merger.

—Jeffrey W. Wildman, Marlton, NJ

Information sits at the heart of government... and news from multiple points of view sit in the soul of democracy. As stewards of our government, you are obligated to assure that sources of public information are not owned/controlled by a single source. Sinclair Broadcast Group has openly demonstrated its goal to homogenize its messaging according only one point of view, and thereby it disqualifies itself from controlling 70+ % of Americans' local/regional/national news. This is not a question of interpretation if one believes in democracy and vales its perpetuation. Your responsibility is clear; deny the merger of SBG and Tribune Media.

—Jodie Felice, Midlothian, VA

Net Neutrality MUST be reinstated!

—Darvel Lloyd, Portland, OR

We are not North Korea or Russia. As citizens we neither need nor want only one news agency controlling the vast majority of the narrative and deciding what we will or won't be told, and with what flavor of propaganda such "news" will be delivered. Combined with the repeal of internet neutrality (which 87% of Americans vehemently opposed), we are seeing more and more of our content censored, blocked, throttled and delivered by fewer and fewer independent voices. Speaking with the overwhelming majority of the American people, we don't want our own version of Itar-Tass acting as a corporate and / or government mouthpiece in what is supposed to be the land of the free. Good grief, why should we even need to face these threats and have these conversations in a country that was founded in large part on the free exchange of ideas?

—Kristen Bartell, New Underwood, SD

This is the worst case OF PROPAGANA since Goebbels.

—Phil J. Breen, Little Rock, AR

Free speech is what we should all stand up for...

—Penelope Poehlmann, Fort Mill, SC

Sinclair is NOT the free press.

—William Schaffer, Las Vegas, NV

A free press is the cornerstone of democracy. It's obvious that you believe in neither. Do what's right: reinstate Net Neutrality protections and reinstate rules that limit monopolies from taking over our airwaves.

—Monique Dubos, Minneapolis, MN

This is not communist/propaganda US TV. Sinclair MUST go!

—Rhonda H Berger, Espanola, NM

The consolidation and corporatization of media is dangerous and unnecessary.

This recent assault upon the senses, in an attempt to confuse people, is not in the best interest of Americans or the USA. It's not what the founders intended and it insults the intelligence as well..

—Bonnie Angelie, tucson, AZ

—Eric Alabaster, Brooklyn, NY

Will NOT watch/listen to anything emanating from RWN-propaganda outfits like Sinclair!

—Kathleen A. Mireault, Jamaica Plain, MA

This merger SUCKS like the stinking 'president' and violates "freedom of the press." That is NOT how i would normally express my opposition to this merger but it does appear to be the only language the govt understands. Whatever will work to stop this is worth trying.

—Roselle Weiner, West Hartford, CT

arstarst

—Kendall Spears, New Orleans, LA

Sinclair Broadcast Group is in hot water over their hostile, abusive contracts, and their corporate must-run propaganda. They already own too many media stations, and don't need their total to break two hundred twenty-five television stations. A corporation that is hostile and abusive to employees does not deserve to acquire more; it deserves to lose more. A corporation that controls through fear will eventually fail, and does not deserve to be saved.

—Marshall Winslow, Richardson, TX

The FCC is willing to give a stronger voice to the hate speech of major corporations while silencing the voices of the many communities across the country. The FCC has a responsibility to the general public not major corporations.

DO YOUR F#%&*G JOB AND PROTECT OUR CONSTITUTION...!!! NO MORE MERGERS/TAKE OVERS/CONSOLIDATIONS...!!! PATHETIC SCUM BIDDING trumps AGENDA....!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

—John Prybylski, Buffalo, NY

The Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune Media must not only be prevented, we need Sinclair found unfit to own a media broadcast company. Sinclair said it himself, He is a danger to our democracy! We need Sinclair Broadcast Group broken up as a dangerous monopoly, and because Sinclair is dangerous to our country be prosecuted as such, and made to sell his holdings.

—Vivian Korneliussen, Shoreline, WA

Sinclair is forcing local stations to carry propagandists and conspiracy theorists Boris Epshtein and Sebastian Gorka. They do not report the news.

—Lorraine Shirkus Moore, San Antonio, TX

Big Brother is a monster.

—Frankie Harvey-Shea, Redmond, OR

American democracy is founded and dependent on a free press and free exchange of ideas--NOT on a forced monopoly of thought.

—Martin Wolf, Colorado Spgs, CO

One of the pillars of our democracy is having a free press. The monopolization of local television news that organizes it to promote propaganda and false information is not a free press. If this is not addressed the pillar of the free press will be broken and our democracy along with it.

—Richard P. Fehr, Sharpsburg, GA

The media should not be monopolized especially with fake news.....

—C Nichols, Chandler, AZ

Have you ever heard of the Anti-Trust Laws? There was a reason for them, you should become familiar with the reasons and you should respect those reasons.

—Thomas Peterson, Windham, ME

I am sorry to watch the FCC, one of the last bastions of independent news, selling out to the highest bidder!

—Dolores Farrell, Sitka, AK

End the Runaway Media Consolidation That's Silencing The Voices Of Our Local Communities.

—Brad Feigenbaum, Kirkland, WA

When I was growing up our local newspaper in Kansas City, MO (the Kansas City Star) had to divest from its ownership of the TV station because it was perceived to be a monopoly. What happened? Why is it now "OK" to be a monopoly and gobble up local reportage, and replace it with standard-brand one-size-fits-all propaganda? This is NOT freedom of speech and it is NOT how America works! STOP THIS MEDIA CONSOLIDATION and SUPPORT FREEDOM OF SPEECH!

—Joyce and Doug Dillenger, Bellingham, WA

Forcing trusted local voices to spew propaganda is not an American value.

—Larry Kimball, Cotopaxi, CO

The dumbing down of our people will not make us great again

My Local station KOMO 4 has had turmoil in their news department of this. Many employees feel they are being forced to promote propaganda no facts.

—R S McClain, Seattle, WA

This is UNACCEPTABLE

—Jake Chandler, Peoria Heights, IL

Sinclair is the opposite of local news.

—Peter Friedman, South Pasadena, CA

This sort of single-POV "journalism" is just not acceptable. Americans demand bias-free reporting from huge networks like Sinclair and Tribune.

—Jack Bohnhoff, Brooklyn Park, MN

Stop them from ruining democracy!

—Sanja Futterman, Seattle, WA

We need Free Speech not half truths, out right lies and propaganda.

This merger is a dangerous step for democracy. DO NOT ALLOW IT.

No Merger No Merger

—Josh Heffron, NYC, NY

You represent the people of the United States not the whims of our unhinged president.

—John Conway, Lakewood, OH

Freedom of the press under the First Amendment -- not Putin-Trump propaganda via Sinclair Broadcast Group.

—Virginia Curtis Lee, Salt Lake City, UT

This is THE cause of FAKE NEWS.

—AE DeWitt, Atlanta, GA

AMERICANS need REAL NEWS. NOT "TAILORED" NEWS WHICH LEADS ONE TO INESCAPABLE CONCLUSIONS. IF A MONOPOLY ON NEWS IS CREATED (BY THE GOVERNMENT) IT IS ONLY TO BE CERTAIN THAT ONLY NEWS FRIENDLY TO THE GOALS OF THE ADMINISTRATION IS AVAILABLE TO THE MAJORITY OF AMERICANS. This is flawed. What makes us great IS different viewpoints, which can only be advanced by REAL news from sources with different biases.

—Stan Lindskog, SEATTLE, WA

FOX is not a news channel, but local television news, should not use propaganda to brainwash people. People don't know what to believe with all the comments about fake news and real journalism. This is a tactic of dictators. We must fight this to save our democracy and liberties that our service men and women fought for.

—Sandra Cullen, Dubuque, IA

What's "extremely dangerous to our democracy" is monoliths like Sinclair interfering with what the First Amendment is there to protect: free speech. If Congress cannot abridge "the freedom of speech, or of the press," then a corporation that reaches into Americans' homes certainly doesn't have that right.

—Roberta McNair, Gig Harbor, WA

We want and demand free and honest news.

—Robert Curry, Cheney, WA

Keep local news local. We don't need propaganda forced upon us.

—Lily Aguilar, Issaquah, WA

This is an assault on democracy and the integral importance of the press.

—Leslie E Jenkins, West Orange, NJ

This is Nazi "controlism." Eliminate the voices contrary to your own. No one gets to choose. It is totally unfair and undemocratic to let the money always rule. Please serve the general public with true right-to-know. Thank you.

—Robin Guy, Cedar Falls, IA

The mandatory reading of the "fake news" script is an excellent example of why media consolidation is dangerous and contrary to the public interest. Sinclair's use of "must run" packages that are presented as news is dangerously close to propaganda.

—Coeli Hoover, Dover, NH

Independent, free press is vital to democracy. We need many sources for news, not a monopoly like Sinclair. We are a democracy!

—Ardis Johnston, Stoughton, MA

Hey, Nazi's - what the hell you think you're doing?

—J K, Saint Louis, MO

...and to the Plutocracy for which you stand...

—Mitchell Diamond, Sunnyvale, CA

It is very sad, those who cries about the death of Democracy are the enemies of the System that many people on both sides gave their lives up for while teaching us how to uphold that Pledge. Sinclair camouflages as a defender of Democracy but like FOX ORGANIZATIONS are just a mouthpiece of Lies and propaganda to support the #GOP Agenda. Ajit or whatever his name is a stooge of the #GOP.

—Paul O. Akinjo, Lathrop, CA

This smacks of a potential violation of the Sherman Anti Trust act. Please keep our media outlets, all of them, away from such blatant mergers. Alice Heath life long voter.

—Alice Heath, Rockford, IL

Sinclair appears to be a very corrupt company.

—Steve Oakland, Ames, IA

At the very least, Sinclair should not mandate "must-run" segments for their local outlets.

—John C. Wiesner, Castro Valley, CA

A Free Press does not mean the monopoly of one company over a majority of markets in the United States!

—Alan Kendrick-Bowser, Auburn, NY

If the Sinclair journalists are reading from the same script, the stations are not performing a public service. Their licenses ought to be revoked.
Stop Sinclair!

—Oliver Seely, Lakewood, CA

This is propaganda and we must take a strong stand against it We should learn from history nazi Germany is the closest example

—Fran Ransom, Lakewood, NJ

We can see what the game is now. Stop it in time, Democracy requires honest news and media, not monopoly.

—Edward Lang, East Brunswick, NJ

I boycott any products that advertise on any sinclair channels.

—Jan, Discovery Bay, CA

stop the propaganda

—Linda Gillaspy, Reno, NV

Boycott local news reports on Sinclair stations. Alert advertisers to your boycott.

—Karen Anderson, Yakima, WA

We know what you are about FCC. Still, I add my name and my voice to try to stop you. Short-sightedness leads to poor decisions, and all humanity suffers for it. I realize that you are only concerned with your own comfort, so this is most likely futile, but if there is any spark of decency left within you, you will do what you can to stop this tide of evil.

—Randy Cromwell, Lancaster, CA

No More Monopolies!!

—Mike R Andrewjeski, San Francisco, CA

Sinclair already has an overly large chunk of the broadcast outlets, as evidenced by the recent video showing local newscasters reading the same script about "fake news" - and the last thing we need is to double that echo chamber. NO to government-controlled media! YES to free and independent press!

—Debra Slater, Portland, OR

We need more independent media not more consolidation of the media.

—Diana Brunswig-Bosso, Arnold, MO

Shameful tactics being employed by Sinclair, enough is enough!

—Mary Graham, Everett, WA

This so-called government is a travesty. This is NOT DEMOCRACY. GTFO!

—Donald Miller, Aurora, CO

THE MINISTRY OF PROPAGANDA IS NOW IN PLACE, ENJOY SHEEPLE!!!!

—Terrence Ward, midlothian, IL

This nation prides itself on its free press. Without that we would be become an authoritarian state. This MUST NOT BE PERMITTED. We, the people, deserve better than that. I beseech you to do what's right for the country. Not just for its president. FREE SPEECH is what makes this country great.

Monopolies harm everyone except those who own them!

We need a new modern fairness doctrine.
—Lisa Coolidge, Doraville, GA

President Trump is running America into the ground. He's supporting brutal dictators, targeting Muslims and other minorities with hateful policy, and bringing out the very worst divisions in us. It terrifies me to see President Trump make America more like those corrupt dictatorship regimes through out the world. I've watched him fire officials investigating him, launch a full-scale attack on our free press, and even call for his political opponents to be locked up in jail. He's praised the world's most violent dictators -- and he's even suggested his term as President should be made permanent. I've never seen the kind of all-out assault on democracy that the Trump administration has unleashed over the past year. His administration has targeted immigrants and refugees, disabled people, communities of color, LGBTQ people and more. These attacks go beyond battles over civil liberties and civil rights; they are attacks on basic tenets of democracy -- checks & balances, the rule of law, and separation of church and state. All lawmakers in all parties who do nothing to stop Trump MUST be voted out of office.
—Dale Boyco, Ojai, CA

Trump keeps harping on about "Fake News" and this is the exact reason for it. You allow a select few to control the narrative they want to send out and you get "Fake News". Allowing these mergers is a huge mistake.
—Lee Roling, Fort Worth, TX

I am concerned about the monopolization if the media, be it towards the left or right, we need a diversity of opinions for the truth to get out.

Change the rule so that one group cannot mount what amounts to a Russian style misinformation campaign. I don't care what the viewpoint is or weather or not I agree with it - we need fairness and oversight.

—Richard Kasputis, PARKVILLE, MD

Would you prefer that we become more like Russia and China?

—John de Forest, San Francisco, CA

We must keep our news outlets free to create their own content with no outside interference from those wishing to tilt the truth one direction or another. A free press is our strength and vital to protect!

—David Young, Burnsville, MN

We need fair and balanced news - not slewed to one way or another. We do not need a mega-corporation running over 40% of the news stations in the United States.

—Sharon J Smith, Evansville, IN

Again Sinclair has demonstrated its policy of skewing news sources and, beyond that, providing false information to the public with its latest script that anchors were required to read and ostensibly stand behind. Their contract requirements and this type of behavior should warrant taking their communications off the air entirely. The United States must not be a purveyor of propaganda.

—Mary Davis, Eden Prairie, MN

The press is supposed to be as unbiased as possible.

—Robin Patten, Oklahoma City, OK

Please save our free press! Don't allow one corporation to dominate the air waves!

The job of a leader is to look out for the well being of the people they lead. All of them. And the job of the FCC is to protect free speech from monopolization. If you don't do your job, then you won't be allowed to keep it. Do your fucking job.

—Maxwell Scott Toshach, Fletcher, NC

I spent 30 years in the broadcast business...where the FCC held tightly to on-air conduct. Stations could be no more than 7 in total ownership, and no more than 2 AMs and 2 FM stations under single ownership in single market. Licenses were revoked if politics came into the mix. We can never go back...but we can certainly prevent the merger between Sinclair and Tribune....a monopoly that would be unthinkable 25 years ago. Stop this from going further! Bill F.

—Bill Failing, Portland, OR

Sinclair isn't News. It's fake news and LIES! Please stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger. It destroys Democracy! Thank you Please, we have had enough of the Trump administration's half truths, fake news and propaganda. Please, I hope you are willing to return to being committed to the public interest.

—Eleuthera Paulina du Pont-Passigli, Alstead, NH

Sinclair has proven beyond any doubt it will act in its own interest and not that of the local community they broadcast into. Protect freedom of the press from interference by big money interests with a political agenda of their own. The constitution says we the people- not we the rich.

—Dr Ian M Bird, Madison, WI

—Barbara Caso, rocky hill, CT

A monopoly of our news media must be a resounding NO.

—George Edward Spillers, The Villages, FL

Sinclair only controls a couple of stations in our (Milwaukee) area (COMET, one of the oldies TV stations and MAYBE a news outlet, but I'm not really sure about that), as far as I can tell, but I saw by the lists that it seems to control affiliates for ABC, NBC, CBS and FOX in SOME MARKETS, like North Carolina and Texas. I don't understand how the major media outlets can allow that to happen. I thought those were separate media outlets.

—Mrs. Kay Merica, Hope, ID

Monopolies are bad. Monopolies are un-American. Monopolies of the media destroy even more. Media monopolies destroy democracy. Media monopoly in the hands of a racist is pure evil. Bad, bad, bad idea.

We want more diversity and we do NOT want Sinclair forcing journalists to read us propaganda!
—Barbara Setzer, Woodinville, WA

Given their recent propaganda barrage, Sinclair's motives in this merger must be seen as quite suspect. As a public body your duty is to serve the common good, where corporate agendas must be seen as only one perspective on what serves the larger public interest. And typically a very narrowly financial perspective that serves relatively few of the total body of citizens.
—Edward Mikel, Brier, WA

This is not a journalistic system worthy of a democracy. Do your job and stop this monopoly, please.
—Elise MacDonald, Nashua, NH

We do not need forced propaganda messages. Sinclair should be denied acquisition of the Tribune stations, and should be forced to relinquish the stations it owns.

—Paul R Albrecht, Philadelphia, PA

—Tika Bordelon, Seattle, WA

The public interest demands that you prevent the corporate forces that want to monopolize the broadcast airwaves--the Sinclair group--that would swallow up local stations and bar local voices from being heard!

—N Devine, Mountain View, CA

The FCC is not Ajit Pai alone. Regulators of conscience must continue to do the job that he gleefully refuses to do. Please show me you are a government entity with some integrity.

—Angela B. Quinn, Metairie, LA

Part of what keeps America a democracy is freedom of the press. Sinclair wants to take control of our freedom and replace it with their political propaganda. they have already begun.

—Donna Kinsey, New Port Richey, FL

Companies like Sinclair are test-driving the role and function of a communist-style state media apparatus. This should be against Federal law.

—Timothy Hurley, Hampstead, MD

No employee in public broadcasting should be forced to say anything which violates their sense of misrepresentation or skews the truth!!!

—Michael Bivens, Indianapolis, IN

This attempt to silence diverse viewpoints will blind us to the alternative perspectives which enrich us.

—Christopher Coen, Fargo, ND

I had already stopped trusting mainstream media for news back when I could see how biased it had become when bush jr. became president. I only read the news online from a source I know I can trust. Sadly, most Americans get their news on TV, and many of them are gullible and susceptible to propaganda, and Sinclair knows this. It's sick. Allowing Sinclair to turn TV into 1984-style Big Brother propaganda will kill what's left of our democracy.

—Christina Williams, Los Angeles, CA

Freedom of the press must not be destroyed by this administration by replacing it with favorable propaganda.

—Marilee Meyer, Port Angeles, WA

Dear FCC we encourage you to stop with the Sinclair Broadcast Group this is dangerous to democracy leave the local news NOW. the networks are screwed up enough as it is .this action will limit our resources for reliable news ,which we dont get now .most of the news we get is lies covering up the dirty deals going on in our government

—Michael W Folk, Pahrump, NV

Sinclair is a propaganda machine whose purpose is to titillate, provoke, misinform, and ultimately shrivel the brains of millions of Americans. This bid to acquire mass distribution power illustrates exactly the danger to American democracy, and to Enlightenment rationalism itself, of placing the infrastructure of journalism at the service of those with the money to own it. The production of disinformation and propaganda, ordered up by corporate headquarters and piped to stations around the country, violates the sacred obligation of journalists and their employers to report truthfully to their audiences.

—Jim Steitz, Gatlinburg, TN

Do you really hate what little bit of a democracy we have left?

—Lorna A Paisley, Lake Balboa, CA

Genuine local news is essential to people in all areas of the country. Monopolization of news sources and content is dangerous and not in the interest of democracy.

Please return to our American values of free speech as is mandated in the 1st Amendment of our Constitution!!! This dangerous trend must be stopped immediately before it infiltrates true broadcasting! Please act now. Thank you!

Reject the Sinclair-Tribune merger and get back to the business of serving the PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTRY!!!!!!!!!!.

—Karen Laakaniemi RN Laakaniemi, Pensacola, FL

Sinclair, ominously, exposes itself as practicing media like Russia Today. The public can only watch one medium of information at a time. They're not likely to see this propaganda onslaught in an array of sources, so it simply sounds like the one source they trust simply looking out for, quote, 'our American democracy'. Meanwhile representative American democracy is under assault, by the Russians, according to seventeen U. S. Intelligence Agencies, and from within by infiltrators of state governments, passing ALEC laws making it harder to register and harder to vote, state governors and Secretaries of State moving polling places out of neighborhoods, putting too few machines in polling places where thousands of citizens are registered, gerrymandering to nullify voters who don't vote for the party drawing the maps, denying a President appointees to federal benches, including the Supreme Court, declaring a Republican Tax Edict, with no hearings, no debate, just a declaration that this IS the new tax law, and enabling dark money to support/oppose candidates and issues by declaring corpora ficta, fictitious 'beings' given 'life' by incorporation are people and have Freedom of Speech, ironically, under the Constitution they are decimating. That right then falls to the owners of the fictitious beings. You could have an equal right if you had as much money as the fictitious being had, and filed articles of incorporation. And 100 million Americans could not match the spending of one Exxon or Monsanto or Goldman-Sachs or Perdue-Pharma. Sinclair already has too much power to mislead the American People into places and conditions they don't want to be in. A merger that broadens their propaganda success even further is collusion by traitors in government in the Republican Declaration of War on the American People and the U. S. Government.

—Gary E. Andrews, Portsmouth, OH

—Margaret McBride, Greenfield, MA

Sinclair is PROPAGANDA - not news!

—Joseph Jabonaski, Athol, MA

If this merger goes through, most of us will be subjected to propaganda rather than news. That's the stuff of dictatorships, not democracy. My newspaper is owned by the Tribune company; if the merger goes through, I will have to cancel my subscription. I will not tolerate propaganda.

—Winfield M Carson, Poway, CA

This is giving a monopoly to propaganda-driven "news"! Actually, they should lose their station licenses.

—Darold K Smith, Greenville, TX

Absolutely do not allow Sinclair-Tribune merger!

—James R. Hildebrand, Mobile, AL

Additionally, you should treat your employees better! This is shameful, as are your contracts.

—Theresa Melof, Hillsboro, OR

Sinclair Tribune are KOCH SUCKERS

—Dave Bilski, Perrysburg, OH

Stop the merger and force Sinclair to divest 90% of its stations

—Jeffrey Davis, Charleston, SC

What ever happened to facts and the Rule of Law?

—Linda Farwell, Germantown, MD

This is not freedom of the press and equal protection of the law!

—Eh Estes, Mountain View, CA

We deserve real news not politically inspired BS!

—John Grosklags, Marietta, GA

We already have one Putin/Trump propaganda channel. We don't need another fox channel to spew lies all day long.

—Charles Gibson, Hopkinsville, KY

We need a range of journalism to understand our local and global news. We appreciate news outlets of all kinds. Why not help build and maintain a vibrant free press as our forefathers wanted and as they insisted on protecting? The freedom of the press is enshrined in the Constitution, because of the dangers, proven throughout history, of only having one bullhorn, not multiple views. Do the right thing. Support the needs of all the people of the United States to receive many divergent views through many sources. Thank you.

—Beatrix Gates, Brooksville, ME

This will only aid in destroying our democracy.

—Jay & Cathy Harter, Susquehanna, PA

We Are Not A "One Sided" Nation

—Roy Pearson, Estancia, NM

By allowing the Sinclair take over of Tribune you would be taking a giant step toward dictatorship and a propaganda loaded media. This merger never should have been considered. It represents all the worst in what is left of our "Democracy".

—Winifred Silvers, Knoxville, TN

We need multiple sources of a free press! It is VITAL to our democracy

—Nivo Rovedo, Lagrangeville, NY

We need multiple owners of our media so we can have diverse opinions.

—Elizabeth Boynton, Temple Terrace, FL

Sinclair is trying to establish a private monopoly on the media. DON'T LET THIS HAPPEN.

—David Starr, Westbrook, CT

FREE speech! FREE press! NO monopoly! NO merger!

—Anne Halpin, Corvallis, OR

As a local TV journalist for over 30 years, no local tv ownership group should be allowed to be as large as Sinclair is now. Stop this insanity and the Sinclair-Tribune merger.

—Duke Frye, Mission, KS

Free Speech is dead under Sinclair media ownership.

—Joseph B Earnshaw, La Plata, NM

Monopolies are not in the public interest.

—Susan McRae, Olympia, WA

Keep our television and radio airways open and free - reject Sinclair's attempt to control the airways.

A free and vibrant media ,in all its forms,is invaluable to a free,informed and vibrant society!! Blessings all!! :)

—Will Agee, El Cajon, CA

This is the worst kind of monopoly.

—John D. Venter, Wallingford, CT

This is like a communist country's efforts to control media.

—Richard Tisinai, Lafayette, CO

Have you ever heard of a monopoly? DO YOUR JOB AND STOP THIS!

—Steve Croutcher, North Platte, NE

A democracy depends on a free press, and Sinclair Broadcast has demonstrated that their interests are to undermine that foundation. Do NOT let the merger go through, it is not in the interest of the public.

—Jody Joy, Charlottesville, VA

Sinclair has been scary for a long time. They've been allowed to get way too big already. This merger is a really bad idea on many levels.

—Rhonda Posey, Mount Shasta, CA

This is a criminal act!

—Ron Ardia, Littleton, CO

The propaganda scripts that Sinclair forces its station personnel to deliver and the mandatory "comments" by extremist Boris Epshteyn are clear evidence that Sinclair is nothing like a responsible, civic-minded media-outlet owner: it is closer to the media operations of Orwell's Inner Party or Stalin's Gosteleradio. Sinclair's conduct is frankly and objectionably un-American. We need vigorous, rigorously fact-checked, diverse, and independent journalism, not a right-wing equivalent of Pravda. I urge you not only to block Sinclair's proposed merger but to bring back the Fairness Doctrine, which once served to keep the airwaves open to all citizens' voices, not merely those of arrogant, unaccountable, dishonest plutocrats.

—William B. Millard, New York, NY

I will not listen to purposely biased news and Sinclair's attempt to hijack that is corrupt.

—Lynne Karson, Vienna, VA

Sinclair is extremely dangerous to our democracy!

—Cary Phillips, Lawrence, KS

We have MORE THAN ENOUGH BULLSHIT MEDIA! Sinclair is at the top of trump supporting ASSHOLES, WHO WANT TO SPREAD THEIR PROPAGANDA TO THE ENTIRE AMERICAN POPULATION!

—Robert Herzog, Sun Lakes, AZ

This will result in North Korea-style media. This is not democracy. This is totalitarian. The media ownership rules existed for a reason - this.

—Phyllis Anastasio Stackhouse, Dresher, PA

Sinclair is a very large company. It does not need to monopolize the local markets'

—Margaret Barry, Pasadena, MD

Too much of a monopoly.

—Dr. Jill Berkowitz-Berliner, Mount Kisco, NY

Now more than ever we need to preserve the free press and allow multiple voices to reach the American public. We do not need an Izvestia-style news service in this country. Not in our democracy!

—Dr. Ronnie Schenkein, Coudersport, PA

Don't go there!

—Casey Carroll, Silverton, CO

We need a diverse free press. No Sinclair-Tribune merger.

—Ms. Hazel Wheeler, Portland, OR

Monopolies on news media, propaganda, a lack of Net Neutrality, are all taking us on a very slippery slope to a Fascist society.

—Joanne Robrahn, Palm Coast, FL

Monopolies are bad for our Country!

—Mark Hughes, Rio Vista, CA

Because the FCC slashed its longstanding media-ownership limits in 2017, corporations are now allowed to swallow up more daily newspapers, TV outlets and radio stations in a single market. Also last year, the FCC voted to repeal Net Neutrality — the rules that barred companies like AT&T, Comcast and Verizon from interfering with our ability to share and access information of our choosing. The bottom line: Trump's FCC is moving swiftly to silence voices that are independent, diverse and actually serve and care for local communities. This action of media consolidation by the FCC belies transparency demanded by our democracy. STOP THE NONSENSE!

—James Sheehan, Laguna Niguel, CA

We can't become a fascist state with all the media being run by the government

PUT A STOP TO THIS NAZI PROPAGANDA, THIS WHAT ADOLF HITLER DID TO GERMANY.

—Dr. Jay Gross, Johnstown, PA

End the fascist madness now!

—Michael C, Exeter, NH

Scary moves that endanger our democratic and most necessary open information system. Prevent this move toward autocracy.

—MJ Cittadino, Redondo Beach, CA

Sinclair Broadcasting even worse as it becomes the league leader in Third Reich PROPAGANDA!!!!!! Fox News is jealous and will attempt to out PROPAGANDA Sinclair Broadcastint but must likely won't succeed as they won't have as many outlets as the 72% or so that the Sinclair Broadcasting merger with Tribune Media will accomplish!!!!!!

—Kenneth Fingeret, Bethpage, NY

Domination of any entity is anti-trust. Allowing this merger would be illegal under any circumstances. Do not allow it.

—Wally Minnick, Hagerstown, MD

Americans need and want a free press. How can we stay free without one?

—F Tyler, New York, NY

We used to have the most independent forward-thinking TV stations in Seattle. Prize-winning new coverage. If this goes through, we'll have two-cookie-cutter Sinclair stations, one of which will be sold to another politically conservative owner, that will script news to their right-wing agenda. Stop this please.

—Eric Zoeckler, Seattle, WA

This is the USA not Russia. Our FCC needs to operate with integrity or we will replace you with people who will. Sinclair is corrupt.

—Mr. Robert Ciavatta, east stroudsburg, PA

STOP!!!! The merger is a dreadful idea.

—Cynthia S. Story, Point Lookout, NY

We need local news to be truly local.

—Jerry Garcia, Rochester, NY

Protect our democracy. Do not allow one voice to corrupt our democracy.

—Madlyn, Santa Barbara, CA

Thank you for your time.

—Amity Johnston, Minooka, IL

This is just one more step toward Trump's goal of dictatorship. When one company runs all the news outlets, then people can be brainwashed and left ignorant of the actual truth. This is very, very dangerous and MUST be stopped! Do NOT allow the Sinclair-Tribune merger!

—Amy Sternstein, Albany, NY

This merger is a direct attempt to undermine journalistic freedom which is a core foundation of democracy. Do not open the doors to tyranny.

—Jody Joy, Charlottesville, VA

We need HONEST news, not skewed to the right.

—Mandi Woronowicz, Brookfield, IL

I don't want to live in a right-wing fascist state with managed news.

—Chris Saia, Brooklyn, NY

This MUST NOT BE ALLOWED in our country. do your job; stop this unethical merger. To give Sinclair more power would be heretical...no one should tell the media what to say...that happens in Russia. a Trump coincidence? please drop this merger.

—Georgia Gillespie, Baldwinsville, NY

Intentionally lying to the public and dictating what constitutes "news" are clearly contrary to the public interest. A merger would extend this harmful business practice further. It should be rejected.

—Eric P Godfrey, Ripon, WI

A free and impartial press is the cornerstone of our democracy. Do not allow these corporations with their own agendas subvert our constitutional rights.

—Carol Freese, Kennewick, WA

The title of this petition says it ALL...stop Sinclair, Robert Mercer and Jared Kushner!!!!

—Mr. B Erich Richards, Beaverton, OR

Please reject this bid to monopolize the news!

—Lugene Wyland, Milwaukee, WI

Monopolies are against American law. DON'T DO IT!

—Roger Shaff, Fremont, CA

Sinclair has already shown a proclivity for homogenizing their stations' newscasts to reflect one, central point of view. This goes against the FCC's duty to protect local media and their independent voice, and as such is a dangerous threat to the diversity and freedom the press.

—Mr T Lozaw, Charleston, WV

Telling radio announcers what to say is totalitarian. Horrifying!

—Dr Nora J Klein M.D., houston, TX

Anyone publishing false information should have a disclaimer written right across it! We have failed to educate our populace and many of them simply believe what they see. There should be a way to police media and put those who make a business of lying out-of-business. Obviously we do not want to merge giants who publish false information. Neither of them should be allowed to be on the air!

—Gale and John Bromelmeier, Willoughby Hills, OH

This is very scary business and the type of thing that leads to Ukraine and Russia and all of the other places in the world that don't have independence of the press. I pray that you all see the reason behind this and stop it. This is so important for all of our future generations and to ensure our democracy in the US. Thank You.

—Shannon Dasgupta, Issaquah, WA

Diversity of news is in the public interest. Monolithic organizations, that speak with one, overwhelming voice is not good for democracy.
—Vincent Alvarez, Milwaukie, OR

KTLA has been a valued source for local news. If it becomes part of Sinclair, it will be a useless propaganda house.
—Mary Stewart, Wilmington, CA

Thank you for your service, not to corporate interests only, but to ALL American citizens.
—Tracy Harris, Asheville, NC

Our democracy functions when we have a real market for competing ideas. Sinclair is gutting the concept of competition by buying up so many stations. Don't allow this.
—Kathryn A. Burns, Austin, TX

I know that this is a waste of time because you are owned by Sinclair, you piece of garbage.
—Rita E. Larkin Sr., Addison, IL

Sinclair - Tribune merger should be stopped...freedom of press is being put in danger!
—Joann Serena-Wayman, Dewey, AZ

Sinclair's act of forcing it's news anchors to read a clearly biased script is propaganda at it's worst. We are getting closer to state run media everyday!!! Please help stop Sinclair broadcasting from grabbing more market share and therefore becoming more powerful.
—Jefrey A Schneider, LAUREL, MD

The Third Estate is being cop-opted. We need MUCH less consolidation of media. FCC - wake up to your role in Democracy!!

Sinclair merger is a possible soviet style system of media coverage desgin to brainwash the populace through media coverage and social media which started with facebook that allowed other nations to interfere with our elections to help trump win and also the merger goes against monopolys laws.

(((STOP THE TRUMP DICTATORSHIP BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE!))

A vibrant, diverse and independent mendia is our best defender of democracy and pur strongest wall against authoritarianism and tyranny. It is clear that the Republican party by attacking net neutrality and allowing its propaganda arm Sinclair Broadcasting to monopolize the media, is paving the way for an authoritarian system where opposition voices are not permitted to be heard. We must take action!

—Dave Posmontier, Melrose Park, PA

I can't imagine how anyone would think having an irresponsible company owning and operating more than 1 media outlet in a single market. I know it looks good for you Republicans and conservatives now, but what if the tables were turned and it were the liberal media that had such adccess to Americans. I can hear you yelling and crying "unfair." So is it unfair just because it would be liberals or because it is fundamentally unfair to have ANY company, group, or individual running their brand or news in a market with more than one outlet? I suspect you only think things are unfair if you are not on top. Doesn't that make you guys hypocrites? Of course it does and I guess you are proud holders of the title "Hypocrite" just as Mr. Trump's supporters were proud to hold the title "BVasket of Deplorables." as you and they are proud to stand against every moral construct that gives anyone else a chance. Shame on you all. R.Sheets

—Ruth Sheets, Brookhaven, PA

—Donald Clark, Winkelman, AZ

Do the right thing and stop this!

—Jessica Gerdau, Garden City, MI

I have written a book titled Offshoring The Corporate Road Map To 1984 found at Amazon. It shows that the capital from offshoring and tax breaks are not creating jobs or revenue income in the U.S. and is rather being used to promote corporate agendas and to manipulate society to think in terms of corporate ideals. National Geographic has been purchased to stop the pictures of man made global warming and its effects. Newspapers that are going out of business are being purchased by wealthy corporate-minded individuals to promote corporate interests and now this, a clear monopoly that should be considered for anti-trust action. We are heading toward corporate 1984 and it is being facilitated by off-shoring capital by corporate interests that are no longer in the U.S. and are likely unAmerican in interest.

—Glenn Meyer, Owings Mills, MD

Let's not turn our nation into the USSR!

—Jerry Cecere, Folsom, CA

America requires objective, substantive reporting, not politically slanted mimics of one view. This merger would lessen even more the chance for diverse political reporting.

—Lynne Kane, Chapel Hill, NC

Legitimizing a clearly propoganda-based entity to control such a vast local news network is not in the best interests of the country and our democracy. That mandates would be put on local news stations to regurgitate centralized political views or slant coverage in a "preferred" biased manner on a regular basis is abhorrent to the principles of a free press.

—Timothy Wallick, Huron, OH

Greed don't stop with money, fame fortune, no they want everythingggggggggggggggggg.

Sinclair's objective is a single, totalitarian propaganda source. You must stop the merger to limit the size of this danger.

#StopSinclair

—Kevin Howley, Bloomington, IN

Sinclair represents an outright attack on Free Press.

—Caere Dunn, Prescott, AZ

Handing Sinclair a media monopoly is a violation of the people's trust. We own the airwaves an the FCC should be a watch dog not a lap dog. The proposal would give Sinclair 3 broadcast stations in St. Louis market. Makes no sense.

—Byron Clemens, St. Louis, MO

Too Much consolidation.

—David G Bridgeman, Keizer, OR

In signing this petition, I will go along with the fiction that the FCC is interested in the public good, and that anyone who has a chance of affecting this merger will ever read these comments. Ajit Pai is a weasel, among the very worst of all living humans.

—Jeff Campbell, houston, TX

A more sinister prospect I can't imagine.

—Annabelle Herbert, Portland, OR

Please do the right thing for the people, media diversity, and not the bidding of corporate overlords. Thank you.

—Chris Stockinger, Loveland, CO

Where is the public benefit?
—Eric West, Port Orange, FL

If you let this go through this will be the end of our free media. There is nothing that sounds like propaganda state media then Sinclair. Let our local news keep their voice. I live in Cleveland market & if Fox 8 moves in this direction I will no longer be listening/watching to their broadcasts which I have since I was a child.
—Todd Kukoleck, Akron, OH

The ownership of so many local tv and radio stations by one owner who demands that it's extreme right wing dogma be aired daily is wrong and corrosive to our democracy.

This is the propaganda of a dictatorship which is what Trump is doing. It must be stopped

This is an issue about transparency in the media. Considering how many people get information from the local news, and hidden propaganda is sure to sway public opinion. What we need is honest, unbiased reporting.
—Greg Klein, Seaford, NY

Sinclair is a direct threat to our democracy. This merger greatly increases this threat.
—Malinda F Briggs, Tucson, AZ

No propaganda machine disguised as news here! We are not North Korea!
—Sarah Parr, Towson, MD

There has always been the policy that no one person or company would be allowed to control too much of the news media. They could not own more newspapers, radio stations and TV stations that would limit what information the people could get

Free the press

—Sharon Moss, Iowa City, IA

We've already seen that Sinclair seeks to push its corporate agenda into every market and every home. We don't need another right wing propaganda network...we didn't need the one we've had. We need editorial independence...not a single nationwide voice that would be contrary to maintaining peace in a diverse populace.

—Robert Mihaly, Lakewood, OH

We must stop this. Trump is moving us closer to a dictatorship.

—Mary Higgins, Beverly, MA

I cannot believe this merger is even being considered!

—Patricia Doyle, Burr Ridge, IL

—Jeff Ball, Sacramento, CA

Local news should be local. Locals should determine what national/international/regional news should be broadcast. This administration will continue its dictatorial ways unless we stop them!

—Dianne Kennedy, Dallas, TX

I don't want to hear ONE voice!!!! There are numerous ideas and opinions that must not be silenced and Sinclair is trying to do just that!!!! It's called a monopoly.

—Jill Rizk, Florence, OR

We need ethical reporting, not "FakeNews."

—Lisa S Matthews, Madison, NJ

I know I don't have to say it, but a free press is pivotal to our democracy.

Let's have the Truth!

—Richard Chogyoji, Los Angeles, CA

Media monopolies are not free. All monopolies are about eliminating competition, control and profit. They are opposed to both free markets and free speech.

—Joseph Bridy, Philadelphia, PA

Enforce U.S. anti-monopoly laws. A free democracy requires competition among both products and services.

—Molly Butler, Lakewood, CO

We dot need an ever bigger propaganda machine. We need honest reporting, not pontificating.

—Brenda Uhler, Landisburg, PA

Why would I think you have the vision and foresight to stop the dissemination of sponsored (and false) news. You seem to be someone with no interest in a healthy democracy, only profits for stockholders.

—Abigale Wool, long beach, CA

Mr. SDD. It is not who gave Sinclair permission, it is who is going to stop them. Mr. SDD

—Mr. Shelley D. Dahlgren PhD, Sammamish, WA

Sinclair is deceiving viewers into thinking their opinion pieces are news stories. They also force their local news personnel, who are trusted members of the local community and have spent years building their reputations within the community, to read the opinions of upper management, under threat of termination and subsequent lawsuit, as though those opinions were their own. That negatively affects the standing and reputation of those on-air personalities and deceives the viewers into attributing those prepared statements as the political positions of those personalities. It is a well-planned, highly orchestrated effort to deceive viewers, especially without an appropriate disclaimer. To allow this merger and the resulting growth and propagation of Sinclair's tactics is a violation of the trust placed in the FCC by the American people, a violation of government ethics and journalistic standards, and a violation of each local FCC license issued to a NEWS outlet.

—Thomas Gregory, Chattanooga, TN

Companies like Sinclair use local news anchors to force hateful stories into our communities. "They swallow up large swaths of local media, making it nearly impossible for local voices to be heard." Voices like mine and other citizens at large, voices that are independent, diverse, and actually serve and care for local communities.

—Theodore S. Cochrane, Madison, WI

No one needs to own that many stations. This is just more corporate greed. The tide will turn and the next president will change what you think you have. It will happen.

—Shirley J. Harrington-Moore, Sioux Falls, SD

Earlier in our history, monopolies were outlawed because of the dangerous and deleterious impact they had had on our economy and nation. Where the free press is concerned and providing ample points of view is necessary, common sense says that the Sinclair-Tribune merger would be a disaster for our nation. Deny this merger; do NOT approve it. Thank you.

—Karen Gardner, Pelham, NY

News should not become a national propaganda machine. This is dangerous to our republic and limits the nature of a free and comprehensive debate.

—James R Wilson, Fort Collins, CO

Stop these trump-patsie from undermining our democracy

—Peter Peier, Dalton, PA

Yet another monopoly that goes unaddressed? No single entity should control more than 20% of a market. Competition is goo. Competition is good because it not only allows for a free flow of ideas and debate, but it also ensures a higher quality of News and Entertainment that is severely lacking in today's Media corporations. It's not just broken trust that makes people reject Corporate State Media. It's that the quality of their productions are devoid of substance and even humanity. There is very little worth watching, even at the theatres. The "News" never covers what's really important to the majority of our Nation, for the rich and poor. The "News" personalities, politicians and pampered celebrities are too busy talking about and celebrating themselves, whilst the issues that are on the People's struggles, rampant corruption from City Hall to Washington are constantly neglected. Just say no, no to any more monopolies.

—Paul Judy, Van Nuys, CA

I am not a robot. I am not a company. I am a person. This ruling affects ME. DO NOT allow Sinclair to consolidate and continue obfuscating truth and news. Wake Up!!

—Rick Wegner, Moscow, ID

Sinclair does not appear to be a free and independent news source. It appears to be propaganda machine with a specific agenda. Please do not allow them to get bigger.

—Ryan Hose, Garrison, NY

Controlling the media is an elementary lesson in Fascism 101. This needs to stop immediately.

—Ms. Leslie N McDonald, Eden Prairie, MN

The people of the United States have multiple viewpoints, and those should be reflected in the media--the airwaves are for us all.

—Patricia Martinak, Riverwoods, IL

If the present officials of the FCC can't see the danger presented by Sinclair, I hope they have plans for early retirement because I, for one, will do everything I can to see that they retire quickly - willingly or not.

—Dr. Robert J Moffat, Los Altos, CA

Further consolidation of news media would be against the public interest. We are already a poorly informed and misinformed public. Do not enable further consolidation of news sources.

—Spence Guerin, Melbourne, FL

Sinclair has proven itself unwilling to present fair unbiased news to listeners and viewers. Allowing it to dominate airwaves would be a miscarriage of justice, an abomination to the rationale upon which the FCC was founded, dereliction of your duty to serve the public and honor the principles upon which our nation has been successful for centuries.

—Alexander Lewin, Rockville, MD

Please FCC, there is no place for this type of monopoly in a great democratic republic like ours! Do the right thing and do not allow this. This decision will be historical no matter which way it goes. Let our children and grandchildren read that the better angels and good conscience of the FCC prevailed. Thank you.

—Stephanie Chen, Saint Marys, IA

Our democracy depends on a free and independent media

—Eileen McCorry, Pittsboro, NC

We cannot allow blatant, coordinated propaganda to masquerade as news! Do NOT let this merger happen.

—R Shandor, San Diego, CA

Sinclair Broadcasting's use of opinion statements that are not represented as editorials and advertorials show an intent to subvert the reporting of unbiased news. They should not be allowed to acquire local news stations. That acquisition would create a monopoly that will endanger our country by silencing free speech. The varied input that a plethora of local sources can bring to reporting the news is a safeguard for democracy in this country.

—Paula Mate, Oradell, NJ

Gaining control of the media is all part of a sinister attempt to create an exclusive society through deregulation and privatization. We don't need to be swimming in the hateful rhetoric of a Joseph Goebbels and have our minds polluted with toxic bullshit.

—Jeffrey Cody, Chicago, IL

Sinclair is a massive right-wing propaganda machine that masquerades as a news organization. They are poisoning the unsuspecting public with lies and hate. They should not only be stopped from expanding, THEY SHOULD ALSO BE BANNED FROM THE AIRWAVES FOR MALFEASANCE, AND THEIR OWNERS BANNED FROM WORKING IN NEWS MEDIA.

—Alan B Cormack, Cary, NC

The FCC has a responsibility to protect ALL Americans from such a monopolistic merger. Please consider the voices of all of us, who currently have the right to pick what news they listen to or view. Stop this merger!

—B Hoover, Dallas, TX

So you work for "we the people" or corporations? Stop media consolidation!

—Nancy Lemmon, Austin, TX

I should be blatantly obvious why this needs to be stopped. We're getting closer and closer to being either a communist country or a Nazi country. No decent human being should want this for our children and grandchildren much less ourselves. There's way too much suffering in this country already and it will only get worse.

If the Tribune sells to Sinclair we will immediately cancel our subscription. Have been reading the Tribune for 50 years and are willing to find a substitute.

—Margaret Bowman, Glenview, IL

Doesn't this reek of fascism to you?

—Mrs. RN Carol Farina, Lakewood, CO

Sinclair has already proven that they're not interested in independent investigative journalism. We need more unbiased and independent news, not less. And some of those stations will make up entire markets, leaving little to no diversity of opinion.

—Gloria Pearson, Greenwood, CA

Stop this now.... If you think you can control us and make us slaves to your brainwashing you don't know SHIT about the American people.... fu(k off

Each region has its own news and ideas. The stations in a region should be able to talk to their listeners about what interest them and should be able to trust that the news is theirs and verifiable.

—Dixie Edwards, Longview, WA

Recent revelations of how Sinclair Broadcasting has forced its "news" departments to broadcast Sinclair's propaganda is a good example of why we as a democracy (?) don't need more media monopoly.

Allowing this merger to go forward would be reckless and dangerous to democracy. We have a corrupt and treasonous president who is an authoritarian and a fascist. He would like nothing better than to have this consolidation and the opportunity to control the media to further his agenda. No! Hell, no! This merger must not go through.

—Jean A. Thompson, Kennebunk, ME

Please do not allow this to happen. Fox News is destroying the US just so Murdoch can make money from citizens addiction to fear and anger. NO MORE LIES.

No one news corporation should be allowed to have close to a monopoly on how they decide what the public should be allowed to see. The tried in Germany and the results were disastrous.

Sinclair has shown their propensity for propaganda so you need to show them we will not tolerate it!

—Kristyn Reid, Choctaw, OK

Unfortunately Sinclair Broadcasting is not simply a news business, it is a propaganda business and the FCC should continue the current rules to prohibit overwhelming ownership of access to the airwaves by a single group.

—David Bakkila, Pittsburgh, PA

This takes freedom of press away and to me is unconstitutional.

—Arline Goodman, Quincy, MA

I know this will end up in Ajit Pai's fire place but here's hoping that someone else gets to read this, and the many other complaints people have for this insane, twisted monopoly 1 company has over news outlets across the country.

Best to halt the slide towards the old USSR / Pravda stile of media control.

—Benjamin A Ward, Portland, OR

Please stop this awful merger! We need you to stand up and commit to upholding the public interest. Thank you!

—Sandy Parbury, concord, CA

The public airwaves deserve protection. Having one media giant controlling >70% of media outlet's editorial content is not healthy for democracy

—Karen Herwig, West Des Moines, IA

The merger is simply another step toward the US becoming a dictatorship.

—William W HAY, Estes Park, CO

Broadcasters should serve the public not serve as propaganda outlets! Revoke their broadcast licenses!

—Carolyn Kittle, Alamogordo, NM

—Rick Foster, Altavista, VA

Bring back fair and balanced broadcasting the is based upon facts, as opposed to opinion and/or propaganda as we are seeing with Sinclair's recent actions. Fox News is another example of what I am talking about.

—Lowell Young, Mariposa, CA

We don't need another Nazi Germany propaganda machine. Are you forgetting we live in America?

I care about our country and the people in it. Country first. This is illegal and must not be allowed to happen!

—Adriana Hall, Pacifica, CA

This potential merger is so very wrong and is absolutely an assault on our Constitution and our right to an open press. It reminds me of what occurred in Germany by the Nazis. I will fight to protect my Constitutional rights.

—Janice Ehrenhaft, Mount Vernon, IL

It's time that anti-trust was imposed to keep the media channels free and competitive. The Sinclair operation illustrates what big money thinks it can do. Stop them.

—Mr. Leo Jeffres, Cleveland, OH

You're public servants, remember?

—Mr. Michael S. Callaway, Upland, CA

State Media? Sounds like Russia.

—Kenneth Winston, Sonoma, CA

Sinclair is afraid of the truth. Just like trump.

—Henriette Lieb, pipersvill, PA

Sinclair's takeover/merger of the Tribune is unacceptable on ALL LEVELS. Time to break up monopolies (as required and set forth by Congress long ago) rather than allow them to continue to undermine democracy, which is EXACTLY what this merger will do. Trump and the extreme right wing agenda is attempting to silence any diversity and free and independent thinking that actually serves this country's communities. The merger is unthinkable and untenable and must be stopped immediately.

—Pamela S Overholtzer, Quail Valley, CA

It is time to serve the American people, not monopolistic Corp.

—Rita Requa, Seattle, WA

Just say no!!!

—Rebecca H. Walding, Cerrillos, NM

sounds like a monopoly. is't there a law against that?!

—Suzanne Narducy, san clemente, CA

Your commission is a shining example of regulatory capture. It's disgusting and you should be ashamed of the Orwellian structure you're allowing for onbe constructed. May your names be forever marked with the indignity you so justly deserve.

—John Gram, Pickerington, OH

Dump trump and his tea-party lackeys!

—Jerry Calhoun, Lakeside, AZ

No freedom of the press=no democracy

—Beth Call, Walla Walla, WA

The public airwaves are supposed to be used for the public good, not to push propaganda from big-money corporations intent on pushing their own agendas. They do that already on cable TV - don't sell out our local, independent media outlets to become their mouthpieces as well!

—Kathryn J Riss, Piscataway, NJ

I guess it is official---we no longer assume we are a democracy

—Irene Bolden, Austell, GA

What Sinclair is doing is Un-American.

—Patricia Dow, Tucson, AZ

The propaganda monopoly must stop. America keeps stepping closer to becoming a dictatorship, and Americans deserve - in the name of America, freedom, and TRUE patriotism - news diversity.

—Ken Puglisi, Cathedral City, CA

May I remind you: This monopolization of media is not democratic!

—Mr. David Szilagyi, Vancouver, WA

Too big for their britches. The news produced by this country is garbage we don't need info on anyway. Who knows what real and what's fake.

—Bill Kamann, Bonita Springs, FL

STOP THE sinclair-tribune merger NOW!! The FCC needs to put back in place its media-ownership limits so corporations like sinclair-tribune can't swallow up newspapers, TV & radio outlets in a single market! This is a POWER PLAY!! UNAMERICAN!!

—Diane C Huigen, Spokane, WA

Please do the right thing.

—Martin Roth, Norwalk, CT

This is NOT the America i grew up in. A disgrace to news coverage and fairness.

—Jan Mauch, Camp Hill, PA

We need independent local media coverage now more than ever. Please stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger and encourage smaller local media coverage of broadcast news.

—anthony Hart, Auburn, NY

Time to block the Sinclair scum.

—Jeffrey A White, Forest Grove, OR

Let's support the people you work for and let the FACTS sort themselves out. We the people do not need to have lies fed to us. Act like grownups and do your job

—Scott and Cathleen Weston, Post Falls, ID

Totalitarian, third-world country where free speech and truth is buried by mega-money from unlimited oligarchy. That's where the FCC has been taking us since repealing the Fairness Doctrine in 1987. Corporate control of radio is complete and with propaganda purveyors like Sinclair buying controls in more and more markets, the fate of television will soon be the same. And with the impending loss of protection afforded all citizens by "net neutrality" rules, the Internet will not be far behind. STOP IGNORING THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE AND END THE CORPORATE GIVEAWAY OF THE PUBLIC AIRWAVES.

—Russell Stein, Cocoa, FL

We need more independent news organizations, not fewer. Approving this merger limits freedom of the press.

—Earl Houseman, Pontiac, MI

This amounts to constrained speech!

—Richard M Tetley, Eugene, OR

We don't need to listen to the very same drivel or fake news on all our stations and that's exactly what will continue with this merger.

—Ms. Rose M Riker, Sioux City, IA

Your job is to serve us, the American people and to protect our rights to a free press. Your job is NOT to serve corporate interests or lobbyists who give money to loyal politicians! DO NOT allow the Sinclair-Tribune merger.

—Brenda Moot, Winterport, ME

This sounds like the beginnings of fascism.

—Elizabeth Schaeffer, Exeter, NH

Forced "editorials" does not allow freedom of the press.

—Kathryn_munnell@hotmailco Munnell, Baltimore, MD

Our media is condoning propaganda which ethical leaders knew in the past was dangerous to Democracy & why they enacted Fairness Doctrine to stop propaganda and use only facts to keep citizens informed with them to make informed choices. Please don't destroy our country, let's go back to when we were a great nation before the CIA took control over our government. I'm NOT referring to Trump's vision of making America great, I'm referring to post WW2 leadership before our government became corrupted as it is today.

—M Kathleen Thomson, Bloomington, IN

It's difficult to imagine anything scarier than a press which is not a free press, and nobody should need to remind anyone that to undermine the freedom of the press is one of the most un-American things imaginable, particularly when the President owns the media company.

—Dan Ling, Middle Grove, NY

Sinclair is totally unacceptable !!

—Edwin Rogers, Ballston Lake, NY

Since Sinclair acquired our local KOMO-TV 4 station, a visible right-leaning bias has begun to appear in its news coverage. Conservative - or liberal - biases have no place in news reporting.

—Julie Holtzman, Snohomish, WA

Enough news monopolies

—Brenda Kriegel, Rehoboth Beach, DE

If this merger goes through, it may cause the current FCC to implode and maybe that would be a good thing....It may just be what is need to get rid of "Pie."

—Susan von Manske, Los Angeles, CA

Sinclair actively works to subvert Democracy in U.S.A. SBG's market share must be REDUCED, NOT EXPANDED!!

—Judy and Lester Hoyle, Cave Junction, OR

What is going on? This is textbook fascism! We will not accept this.

—Morgan Shepherd, Charlottesville, VA

This is completely unacceptable in a democracy. We all know where the fake news is really coming from. You cannot have this much control over so much of the local media. Break up the monopolies!

—Ronald, Ellicott City, MD

The citizens of this county are entitled to objective news coverage-not propaganda.

—Frank J Bryant, E Islip, NY

Cloaking free press suppression as free press representation is a sin.

—Yolanda Stern Broad PhD, Indiana, PA

Stop them now. The Constitution demands it, the people of this country demand it.

—Joan Slezak- Slezak-Fritz, Park Ridge, IL

I want unbiased local news, not some anchor being made to parrot a particular script.

—Thomas Esposito, Sparks, NV

Propaganda has no place in our news media and that is what Sinclair is trying to do with this merger Shameful - Reject this merger

—Paula Bacolini, Glastonbury, CT

Local news needs to be independent and reflect the diversity that exists in the real world, not be homogenized and packaged by some huge corporate conglomerate. This merger will not be in the public's best interests.

—Sarah Remme, Sparks, NV

The only interest this merger serves is Sinclair's, not mine or my neighbors' or the citizens of this country's.

—J E Esposito, Sparks, NV

Consolidation of media is the opposite of freedom of the press.

—Rob Scott, Seattle, WA

This is really an important issue - the FCC should reject the Sinclair-Tribune merger!

—Ms. Deborah Hunsberger, Omaha, NE

no way anyone company should control anymore then 30% of a given market. Sinclair already controls too big a share of the market.

—Bill Gawne Jr, Riverside, IL

F.C.C. - Do your damn job!!!

—Gerald and Mary Lou DeVane, Palm Coast, FL

This monopolistic deal is a disgrace. It must not go through. The previous FCC media ownership limits must be reinstated or we will all be subject to propaganda: 1984. Justice _must_ oppose this.

—Judith Arnold, Shelbyville, KY

Democracy requires a free and independent press, while fascism depends on controlling it.

—Rick Dworsky, Brooksville, FL

I say Hell NO to the Tribune-Sinclair Merger, local news is not political, and should not force their employees to be parrots...

Media monopolization must be avoided, especially when one potential party is accused of parroting any administration's line.

—Lana R Eisenberg, Bloomington, IN

Save our first amendment

—Suzanne, Jenkintown, PA

We are angree, a free press does not mean no cost, weather by paper or air.

—Roderick Brown, San Diego., CA

Apparently mega mergers and monopolies are the results of a system run amok.

—Cady Cadwallader, Corning, CA

Sinclair is spreading right-wing propaganda - so obvious, and so much like Fascism! This must stop now!

—Eva Goss, Sandwich, NH

I know this probably means nothing to you. You might not even read it. But please, all I ask of you is to just this once do what is right and not what gives you more profit. Just. This. Once. That's all. Thank you for your consideration.

—Toby R, Plattsburgh, NY

Please stop this infringement to the first Amendment!!

—Maureen Culbert, East Springfield, NY

No octopus!

—Sara Katz, Oakland, CA

Do not allow a radio/TV monopoly that is dedicated to supporting the Trump administration with propaganda. This is an affront to truth and transparency in media.

—Patricia Abbott, West Palm Beach, FL

Allowing a fraudulent media group to shove their bull shit down and unsuspecting public's throat is unacceptable. It's time to hold our malevolent minority-elect president accountable and quit enabling his Ministry of Propaganda to get away with the lies and deceptions. It's also time for the FCC to quit enabling it too.

—Bill Lindner, San Rafael, CA

Trump automatons in government bureaus work counter to the well-being of the public. Reject the Sinclair-Tribune merger.

"Fascism should more appropriately be called Corporatism because it is a merger of state and corporate power." - Benito Mussolini (author of the doctrine of fascism). If you can find a Republican who doesn't subscribe to this doctrine I would be very surprised.

—Arnold Strang, Mountlake Terrace, WA

Too bad there are so many unsalvageable sheep in the GOP.

—Kirk Taylor, yelm, WA

I'm already alarmed at how condensed our local news sources are compared to when I was a kid. We don't need to go further down this road.

—Clarice Hargrove, Nashville, TN

Allowing the merger of Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune Media would be "extremely dangerous to our democracy". A free and independent press is essential to a healthy and vital democratic society. Ours is already under severe and multiple threats. Please deny this merger. Thank you!

—Lynna Dhanani, New Haven, CT

This sounds like Russia

—Joni Marie Kusnierz, Ventura, CA

Sinclair smacks of fascist propaganda and Putin's control of news!

—Cynthia Putt, Poulsbo, WA

Do not allow this merger. It is anti-American.

—Theodore Polychronis, Glendale, CA

This proposed merger looks like an illegal conflict of interest whereby President Trump is influencing a government agency to approve a merger that will be of financial/political benefit to him and will lead to further consolidation of our news media and a further threat to our democracy. Kushner's "deal" with Sinclair for "straighter coverage" smacks of corruption. What ever happened to our anti-trust laws???

—Montie MJ VanNostrand, Hacker Valley, WV

The existing media ownership limits make perfect sense. Leave them alone.

—Doug Abbott, Silver City, NM

All-propaganda-all-the-time is NOT American. Have we become a Banana Republic - or Russia? NO MERGER.

—Ms. Melissa Hathaway, Gresham, OR

Sinclair & Fox are propaganda fake news. Biased journalists. Support the right to "free speech."

—Harriet Ann Elders, Kent, WA

the strength of our nation is protected by having a strong independent press that reports the truth. Sinclair seems to want to propagandize their way to power.

—Philip Henderson, Irvine, CA

Where are our anti-trust laws? It is about time to invoke them in order to stop these mega-mergers which do nothing but hurt the American consumer.

—Eugenia A. Patterson, Poulsbo, WA

The termination of Net Neutrality and the Sinclair merger are part of the plot by certain pRties in the 1% to control every aspect of American society to lock down their hold on power, commerce, and the economy. The Koch brothers are at the forefront of establishing an oligarchy in America and Trump dreams of himself as dictator. Suppression of the free press is one of the linch pins used in establishing a dictatorship and the is EXACTLY what Sinclair is all about, even to the point of forcing newscasters to read a statement denigrating and attacking other news stations. This tactic is used in EVERY dictatorship in the world and should NEVER, EVER, be permitted in this country. Do not allow the Sinclair monopoly to happen and RESTORE Net Neutrality. Freedom of speech should never be in question in America.

—Jackie Critser, Wilsonville, OR

FCC should end the Media consolidation by Sinclair. Thank you.

—Connie Beck, El Cajon, CA

Please help preserve the integrity and independence of a free press. I can't think of anything more alarming than a media company telling its staff what to say -- that is antithetical to the principles of a free press and a democratic society.

Sinclair is evil - plain and simple.

—Lew Douglas, Oakland, CA

Do you even listen to us??

—Riks welsh, cambridge, MA

—Barbara Bacon, Albuquerque, NM

The press is threatened by Trump and big mergers. Restore Press freedom.

—Joel S. Trupin PhD, Marshfield, VT

There's already laws in place to keep any one communications company from owning 70% market share! Why should an exception to the law be made for a RIGHT WING FASCIST ORGANIZATION LIKE SINCLAIR BROADCASTING?! This merger is PATENTLY ILLEGAL, and completely IMMORAL!

—Dana Stickney, Mattapoisett, MA

I do not want Sinclair anywhere in Chicago. They are propaganda not a news agency

Companies like Sinclair are using trusted local news anchors to force hateful stories into our communities. They swallow up large swaths of local media, making it nearly impossible for local voices to be heard.

—Martha Glock, McLean,, VA

No one company should own 72% of local news stations. This is an extreme danger to our democracy!!!!

—Janis A Kinslow, Aston, PA

—Diana Saxon, Salem, OR

while in the short term beneficial to a power centric ethos, the rule allowing UHF programming to count as half the demographic reach of VHF is clearly a partisan kludge to favor a specific company, Sinclair, and does not fall within the intent of the rule due to the reach of cable TV. While targeted political content will drop ratings a little, it is found effective in aligning goals and issues towards a particular bias in communities and therefore allowing one broadcaster to operate in more than 70% of US communities is not in the public interest nor is it in the interest of the FCC as a regulatory agency.

I am suret what political party to trust, and am at the point of thinking that our whole political, legal, and governmental system worldwide is an elaborate charade against the average voter, orchestrated by the world central banking cartel, with the help of greedy political shills to create a dictatorial monopolistic oligarchic/plutocracy ruled by the banking system after their planned world bankruptcy. I just hope that, like Jesus turning over the money changers tables in the synagogue, and an earthquake to follow, for good measure!

Reject this Sinful - I mean Sinclair-Tribune merger. It is clear that this most dreadful administration and this Congress have no use for democracy. What bit we had left of a democracy is being tossed out, stamped upon, decried. Those in charge laugh at the words spoken by Justice Louis Brandeis that a country can choose to be a democracy (citizens actually represented) or you can choose to be a country whose wealth is concentrated at the top, but you cannot have both. Many are well aware of what this government is, and we choose to fight for democracy. Having the public airways dictating one particular view and no choice - we all know it doesn't get much clearer what this country, this government has devolved into. May God (in whatever form) give us the strength and will to restore our former democracy.

—Paula Cronin, Hooksett, NH

First thing the Fascists did in the 1930's was to take control of the German and Italian media. Smart and despicable move, one that Stalin followed when the Communists took control of Russia. Today's FCC/Sinclair collaboration points to a government-controlled silencing of independent voices. First step toward a Fascist dictatorship.

—Robert C. Simmons, Bellingham, WA

—Marianne Flanagan, Des Plaines, IL

—Michael Boshears, Crestline, CA

It is absolutely necessary that you reject the Sinclair/ Tribune merger. Free press, free media has been the hallmark of American democracy, a source of great national pride. With one group monopolizing the media sources, we have lost a main ingredient for American democracy-- we are veering dangerously into a single-source corporate-run media system, the corporate equivalent to Nazi Germany and Stalin's Russia. It is not over-blown to say that the future of American democracy is in your hands. Please deny this horrific merger.

—Zann Jacobson, Indianola, WA

—Chapman R Clark Jr, Houston, TX

Local news controlled by Sinclair has been proven to be propaganda, with news commentators forced to read scripted news. With the merger, that would mean Sinclair controlling 90% of local news broadcasts. I have to say that this country was never meant to be a dictatorship and scripted propaganda news reports IS something only dictators would do. If Sinclair can't stop how they report the news, then no merger should take place.

It's the saddest thing I've seen this is a Scam where this current administration is trying to profit for their own benefit to get rich. While putting many at risk at losing everything they work so hard for! Do not pass this Scam Tax or Repeal our health, social security. If you want to make America Great then do something for the People not Corporate companies. They are putting Lives at Risk. It's sad to see someone who claims they are successful to go around being Bitter from something that happened in your past, possibly starts from his mom who wasn't always present in your life doesn't give you the right to destroy other lives! The whole Trump Administration Should be ashamed of themselves Playing with People's Lives. They have gone over board Corrupt Criminals in the White House. Never have seen such Disturbing acts! For those who Discriminate they should reverse roles and live the lives of the ones they discriminate see if they like being treated that way! Sad how Trump has gotten away with everything No Boundaries, gives him what he wants like a spoiled child makes him think he's above the Law he can do as he pleases. If it were a Minority as President or Democrat he would've been long gone impeached! We Have Criminals in the White House who are getting away with everything that Others Wouldn't! Local news channels should not be majority owned by one corporation. This is a monopoly of what is supposed to be a free and open media. —Christopher J Croke, baltimore, MD

We are reeling from the proliferation of fake "news" but it's not the media Donald Trump is calling "fake." It's the proliferation of shady news outlets claiming to tell the "truth," when, in fact, they are created precisely to subvert the facts and lead their readers/listeners to believe lies. It is threatening the very fabric of our country and undermining our Democracy. American citizens rely on the media to report news and events as objectively as possible. There is so much biased, skewed and blatantly false information paraded as "news" and "fact" that it becomes extremely difficult to determine the truth. Factual and unbiased reporting of the news is a vital part of citizens' abilities to weigh issues and discuss options and can only come when the media is free from corporate monopoly.

State propaganda run media, one sided media, Has no place in this country. Sinclair should NOT be allowed to take over and swallow up more daily newspapers, TV outlets and radio stations in a single market, forcing their narrow opinions down everyone's throats. This is NOT what our country is about, unlike Russia, North Korea, China and all countries with dictators.

—Romona Czichos-Slaughter, Hollister, CA

Brave New World? It's happening in front of our eyes and what will we do to stop it? The least is to vote my disapproval in a petition. I have stopped subscribing to cable TV and will continue to dig deeper into a story than what a single article recounts as the "official" story.

Remember elitism is fascism and we are in the most polarizing decade and "de facto" fascism since the WWII era. How can we change the outcome? We must revolt against the capitalist trappings of modern society.

—Val Sanfilippo, San Diego, CA

The recent chilling event of almost 200 Sinclair-owned local TV stations directing their anchors to read a Sinclair-supplied and Sinclair-mandated script of basically, Sinclair's political propaganda is a perfect example of the FCC's failure to prevent dangerous media consolidation. Sinclair already controls far too many TV stations and should clearly not be allowed to acquire any more,

Stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger

—Angelica A, Silver Spring, MD

It is clear to millions of Americans that the management of Sinclair is confused about the difference between propaganda and news and is therefore unworthy of any trust or loyalty in the eyes of millions of Americans who are disgusted by its practices. You cannot possibly say that you are acting in the best interest of the American people if you go against our wishes. stop this merger now! I do not want our soft news station KTLA to turn into an evil Sinclair Borg clone and will join with millions of Americans in boycotting as many advertisers on Sinclair as possible until it reconsiders this merger. And Ajit, if you have not yet recused yourself, you should do so as if you stand to benefit in any way shape or form from a merger. Ethics are important. You will not long get away with violating them. Administrations do change and people in Congress do as well.

Local news is important.
—Ralph Haltiwanger, West Chester, PA

This is a short cut to control of the public airwaves by politically oriented private corporations with deep pockets. This is too scary for words. It must be stopped. Do your job to protect us. Remember that mandate?
—Sharon furlong, Feasterville, DE

All I can say is George Orwell 1984. Freedom of speech is the corner of a free society.

—Robert Ruffin, Columbia, SC

The overreaching consolidation of media ownership must be stopped - and reversed.

—Edward Greer, AMBLER, PA

Please stop the sale of Philadelphia's PHL17! We want local programming in the Delaware Valley. Thank you.

—Karie Diethorn, Lansdowne, PA

We can have one company own this many stations, especially when they push extreme propaganda.

—Jacqueline Grant, Philadelphia, PA

I ALWAYS VOTE

—Frances Kullmann, Philadelphia, PA

Local journalism should come from local stations. What Sinclair did reflects my greatest fear - money and power controlling our media. I urge the FCC to reject the Sinclair-Tribune merger by supporting our community voice.

—Barbara A Penny, Collegeville, PA

Please resist these obvious attempts to control our media

—William klotz, Riverton, NJ

Keep local news independent

—Scott Goldman, Philadelphia, PA should advertise this very important cause on billboards along busy highways

—Robert W Morgan, philadelphia, PA

Deadspin video should have been shocking.

—Constance Salazar, Wyncoye, PA

I want less concentration of ownership of news outlets of all kinds. The country especially needs a diversity of ownership (and therefore a diversity of perspectives) of local news outlets.

—Ronald Wiener, Gladwyne, PA

Monopoly of the airways is a threat to Free Press as guaranteed by US Constitution vote down Sinclair's purchase of Tribune's stations.

—Stanley s cohen, Philadelphia, PA

Prevent one company from monopolizing the airwaves & prevent the Sinclair Tribune merger. We don't want to become like Russia

—Bernie Coley, Thornton, PA

Do not allow Sinclair to buy more TV stations

—Lou Lessen, Dresher, PA

Our airwaves. Local news, local community voices. Keep Sinclair out of Philly.

—Rich Renner, Collingswood, NJ

Obviously, this is wrong, that Sinclair should own so many media outlets. Media needs to be independent and unbiased.

—Steven Stallone, Fallsington, PA

Keep the free press that is guaranteed in the First Amendment free for the people. It doesn't belong in the hands of billionaires who want to control the press.

—S Schwartz, Millville, NJ

we need to stop Sinclair from taking over smaller stations and make media consolidation a important issue in the midterm elections

—Richard Schultz, Willow Grove, PA

Stop this merger and leave our Tribune-owned Philadelphia channel 17 free of biased journalism! Sinclair does not speak for me or the majority of people who watch this local station!

—Beth Greenspan, Ardmore, PA

One owner insisting on one prepared message invites the end of democracy in the publics airwaves, especially when spread throughout our country is not healthy.

—Ivan Stern, Mt. Laurel, NJ

Broadcasters pledge to air local news and voices from the community — exactly the opposite of what Sinclair does.

—Larry Elveru, West Grove, PA

Our Nation was built on the right to have a free press. Sinclair is deny that right.

—Joan M Reeves, Philadelphia, PA

No on should ever own this many stations let alone any additional and, never more than one in any geographic area

—Robert Marcy, ambler, PA

Planned takeovers of info sources as Sinclair has been doing and proposes is antithetical to the values of our democracy. Trading access for type of coverage demeans what free press means.

—Joan Weiner, phila, PA

Keep the new neutral!

—Linda Young, Philadelphia, PA

Actions like this tend to stifle outlets with other points of view. For our democracy to work, we need diverse views and opinions.

—Stephen J. Koniers, Elkins Park, PA

This centralized media conglomerate is a danger to our democracy.

—Jeanne McFeely, Downingtown, PA

Don't give it away

—Demetrius Bagley, Philadelphia, PA

Please stop this dangerous merger.

—Lani Bauer, Henrietta, NY

To the FCC: Please stop Sinclair from stifling a free press. I rely on independent journalists being able to express their own views.

—Christine Todd, Malvern, PA

The current misuse of Sinclair stations to force them to broadcast the same political message is plenty of reason to stop the expansion.

—Janet Kaye, Gladwyne, PA

Too much influence from Sinclair—do not support Tribune merger! No company should have monopolistic power—stop it!

—Susan Catherwood, Bryn Mawr, PA

WE NEED LOCAL STATIONS FOR LOCAL NEWS AND EVENTS. SINCLAIR WILL HAVE A MONOPOLY. BAD!!!!!!

—Natalie Blum, LANSDALE, PA

Sinclair is nothing more than a propaganda platform which is the antithesis of a free and independent press.

—Kathie Roy, Oxford, PA

How could the FCC possibly allow the media consolidation sought by Sinclair? 200 "local" news broadcasts saying exactly the same thing.

This is shameful conduct from the agency.

—Nathan Harling, Redwood City, CA

Maintaining a free and independent press is the cornerstone of our democracy. Sinclair is using their platform to promote propaganda like they do in Russia.

—Noel Roy, Oxford, PA

Save our free press!! Sinclair is state-run media.

—Carolyn Matkowsky, Wilmington, DE

I oppose the consolidation by Sinclair and its use of the media to promote an agenda instead of reporting events without bias.

—Kathleen Lieberman, Newtown, PA

The loophole Sinclair is trying to use is no longer relevant and they're creating a monopoly. This kind of precedent is bad for America's economy. Don't choose a monopoly instead of local businesses and representation.

—Mb, Cambridge, MA

We need accountability for the news. People are not aware that they are being fed a lot of lies. The people calling it fake news are the ones producing the fake news. There are too many lies that are not being exposed. Something must be done or our Democracy will be a total failure like so many other countries. What kind of a country do we want to pass on to our children and grandchildren.

—Janice Shreffler, West Chester, PA

Please respect the will of We the People over the desire of special interests.

—Jacques Gordon, Devon, PA

One company should not be allowed to gobble up so many stations, please stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger and help save our local news and voices of the community

—Joh, Moorestown, NJ

173 stations is enough. No more for Sinclair.

—Eric Schott, West Grove, PA

The FCC needs to remember that the air waves belong to the people not a single, large, dominating corporation.

—Jean Elkin, Yardley, PA

Stop this merger

—Jacqueline Fahey, DOYLESTOWN, PA

I am very concerned with the ability of one broadcast group to control more than one TV station in a single market. This sets an alarming precedent.

—Catherine Poynton, Havertown, PA

After that stunningly robotic episode of right wing propaganda perpetrated by Sinclair stations across the country, it is imperative that you stand up and defend freedom of the press and a truly unbiased news media. Sinclair shoes, graphically, that they are spreading falsehoods in the name of news and they must be stopped. The first step in undermining democracy is taken when the press is manipulated to reflect the philosophy and the bias of one particular segment of society. I urge you to stop the proliferation of this dangerous practice.

—Elisa Sheronas, Glenmoore, PA

We need objective, local reporting--not political "must reads" from outside corporations.

—Bonnie Van Uitert, Wynnewood, PA

Guard against the over consolidation of the broadcast industry and the limiting of diverse viewpoints

—Jim Harnett, Egg Harbor Twp, NJ

Save our democracy. Too many lives have been sacrificed to sell the rest of us out.

—Carolyn Thompson, Philadelphia, PA

Not in my city

—Judith C McKeon, Philadelphia, PA

Local news is super important. And media ownership limits are an important protection for independent local news. Please remember that when reviewing mergers.

—James Green, Newark, DE

Because I don't want a dose of fascism along with my local news.

—Brian Daly, Plymouth Meeting, PA

We do not want Sinclair in Philadelphia!

—Andrea Stern, King of Prussia, PA

I agree with Mr. Bunch of the Philadelphia Inquirer -- local journalism from local stations

—Maryann Healy, Philadelphia, PA

Stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger! I value a free and independent press. Keep our PHL17 channel local.

—Sharon Eastburn, Glenside, PA

News media should be controlled by diverse interests and not centralized to a minority interest---very important.

—Allan Pepper, Voorhees, NJ

This smacks of "the thought police" and is characteristic of fascism. Keep the media in all local markets independent. It's what the Founders intended, as guaranteed in the First Amendment.

—Gregg Feistman, Blackwood, NJ

enough is enough. NO monopolies on my TV sinclair is trying to take over the airwaves. this is the USA

—K Hope Stelweck, phila, PA

I never thought I'd live to see the day that we would face such a thing as Sinclair poses to our democracy. Please oh please reject the Sinclair-Tribune merger!!!

—Patricia A. Carty, Kennett Square, PA demand hearings to stop sinclair from gobbling up all stations

—Elaine McNamee, Philadelphia, PA

Media monopolies that force extreme political agendas over their newscasts are certainly not in Americas interest.

—John Carr, Centerport, NY

This merger threatens our democracy, founded on a "free" press.

—Laura Hanks, Milwaukie, OR

Save our democracy!

—Christine Champine, Langhorne, PA

Groupthink kill free speech. Concentrated ownership of media disallows dissent. Party line or none at all.....what's good for Sinclair is not necessarily good for America (free speech/thought)

—Dennis Klosterman, Florence, OR

No broadcasting company should control more than half the broadcast market - no matter what the politics. This is not a partisan issue - its a free speech issue. At this rate the US will not look any different than Russia which offers only Putin TV and radio to its people.

—Gail Hauptfuhrer, Philadelphia, PA

I celebrate diversity and community and use critical thinking to search for truth. Please stop Sinclair Broadcasting from "swallowing" our interest in local & city news that matters and say a loud NO to this propaganda machine.

—MSW John E. Litzke Jr., Philadelphia, PA

It is time for government agencies to remember they work the American people not partisan groups

—Mary Ann omaggio, Bensalem, PA

Keep media independent, not more propaganda like Sinclair is already doing, overtly. #STOPSinclair

—Ianto Anglesey, Lubbock, TX

so important

—Phyllis L DaParma, Collegeville, PA

173 fake news stations is enough for one owner.

—Joseph Krier, Feasterville, PA

We do not need state-run media in the U. S.

—Richard R Eynon, Villanova, PA

#StopSinclair Our media is too critical to our democracy than to let only a select few control the networks and broadcasts to the American people. What makes this country great is our FREE press. If one analyzes the current conglomerates that own large groups of radio and television it is rather clear that the broadcasting is biased. Our past election is a good example of why we need free unbiased new reporting.....not Fake or invented news stories.

—Patricia Dehan Williamson, Bensalem, PA

It is a dangerous course to allow one company to dominate broadcasting

—Barbara barrett, Richland, NJ

we can't let an autocrat that is now our president consolidate any more power to lie to the american people.

—Daryl Kezell, Newtown Square, PA

consolidation of media outlets is how russia and china both manipulate the public trust in leadership. This is America, no monopolistic companies!

—Joe Kezell, NEWTOWN SQUARE, PA

Especially concerned about any reduction in local control.

—Georgianna Moore, Media, PA

Don't let Sinclair take over WPHL channel 17.

—Raymond Bunting, Folsom, PA

Stop Sinclair's illegal takeover of our local tv stations.

—Alice Petrochko, Medford, NJ

An independent press is essential to our democracy. Varied opinions can't be viewed when there is a conglomerate dictating the "party line". Delegitimizing the news media is the first step to defeating a true democracy.

—Sa Falco, Broomall, PA

Stop SINCLAIR from buying PHL17 and other local TV stations. They are becoming a monopoly.

—Thomas and Janet M J BROOKS, Morrisville, PA abide by FCC rules, pre-Trump, and block Sinclair's media monopoly.

—Kare Kane, Sacramento, CA

This is truly horrendous, a terrifying threat to our democracy. Please take action to limit consolidation of media market and stop this attempt to silence all voices.

—Ronnie Ray, Voorhees, NJ

The FCC should be FOR the people, not for emperor trump.

—Nancy Entwisle, Collegeville, PA

PHL17 is a community resource that must not be given over to a media conglomerate!

—Susanna Davison, Kennett Square, PA

Stop propaganda

—John Szulewski, Del Haven, NJ

please by all means stop nascent fascism

—George Santoni, Saratoga Spgs, NY

Thank you for fighting this awful monster

—Terry Walsh, Collegeville, PA

Do not approve the merger of Sinclair Broadcasting and Tribune Media because it would give them control of too many TV stations. It's especially important since Sinclair forces anchors to read corporate scripts that are propaganda for the far-right, which is not local news.

—Linda Titanich, Audubon, PA

Block the sale of Sinclair of Tribune, especially in Philadelphia, Pa area.

—Lou Teodoro, Boothwyn, PA

We need a variety of voices in our press. Media consolidation leads to monopoly. Remember, some day the voice that is silenced by monopoly could be yours!

—Andrea Knox, Swarthmore, PA

Please stop this takeover by Sinclair Media and force the FCC to follow its own precedents. These are the airways for all the people. Not just the conservatives or the liberals. There are limits to ownership of media for a reason.

—Timothy Phelan, Yardley, PA

I strongly oppose Sinclair Broadcast Group's merger with Tribune Media. Tribune owns a channel in my region, PHL17, which I watch and which I do not want to see controlled by a media company that is mouthpiece for the authoritarian-leaning administration that now controls our country.

—Andrea Shafron, Hatboro, PA

This merger would be another step towards fascism in the Trump era. A free press is essential to democracy.

—Norman R. West, Lake Ronkonkoma, NY

I've seen the video Deadspin created and it's disturbing to say the least. Allowing Sinclair to gain access to 72% of TV viewers in the U.S. is beyond unacceptable, it's just plain terrifying. No company should have that much power. Not now and not ever. For the FCC to ignore this maxim is to essentially put one's head in the sand and try to pray that things will be hunky-dory (that never ends well). I will say that history will never look kindly on the likes of Sinclair and their enablers. That also applies to those who ignored huge, huge public opposition to the deal and let it go through. P.S. I'd also like to add this little comment: I have come up with a response to those who say that the FCC ownership rules that were formed in the mid-1970s are out of date because broadcasters are now competing against streaming services like Amazon Prime, pay-TV companies, over-the-top services like Hulu and internet companies like Google and Facebook, and that the rules were, as they would put it, clearly meant for another time. My response to that argument is what I think is a doozy: if as they say the FCC media ownership rules meant to ensure diversity are out of date in 2017, then how do they account for the fact that some of the broadcast networks (and to some extent station ownership groups) also have a stake in some of those other services they say they're competing against? If I remember correctly, that fact in and of itself undercuts their claim that there are more choices than ever in what some would call "the media marketplace" For example, 21st Century Fox, the parent company of the Fox Network, also owns the Fox News and Fox Business cable channels as well as the Fox Sports regional cable networks among others, and even owns 30% of the Hulu video-on-demand service. Another stakeholder in Hulu is Comcast, which owns NBC as well as cable channels like MSNBC, CNBC, USA, SyFy as well as regional sports networks. It should also be noted that 21st Century Fox and Comcast also own free OTA TV stations in some of the country's top media markets. The same also applies to Disney, which like Comcast and 21st Century Fox owns broadcast OTA stations and has a stake in Hulu. Not only does Disney own cable channels like ESPN, ESPN2, and ESPN as well as the Disney Channel among others, but is also starting a streaming service of its own, somewhere along the lines of Netflix. And let's not forget that Sinclair also owns a cable channel: the Tennis Channel. So in summation, the fact that broadcasters own stakes in cable channels and streaming services essentially puts a lie to their position that the FCC media ownership and diversity rules are out of date. And more to the point, not everyone in the U.S. has access to cable services and streaming services too, a fact that also puts a lie to their claims too. That's about as definite a conclusion as you can make, and that's something you can take to the bank. You can count on it.

—Michael Dobson, Ballwin, MO

Who needs dictated fake news? Who needs a virtual media Monopoly, a Dangerous step towards Trumpian propaganda adoption as the utter Truth.

—André Marier, Westbrook, ME

No to Pravda Amerika! This merger cheats local communities of true and factual news coverage and churns out propaganda.

—Rosalind Holtzman, Elkins Park, PA

I see you.

—Shoshanna R Krall, Portland, OR

Say no to Sinclair's/Tribune merger which is extreme and control and not for America but all for Trumped Up News.

—Martha O. Cano, el paso, TX

Sinclair is a threat to professional journalism, truth, integrity, and, ultimately, to our democracy.

—Kelly A Gullo, Pleasanton, CA

Please do NOT allow Sinclair to become even bigger. They are a virus on our population.

—Kerri Cox, Whitestone, NY

Sinclair has way too much as far as media influence and stations to influence American minds with their one sided views.

—Eric Frederick, Windsor Mill, MD

I am adamantly against the proposed tribune merger with Sinclair. The merger represents a breakdown of freedom of the press, a growing state of media monopoly over the mindshare of the American people, and a massive reduction of competition and choice. It endangers the tenants of our constitution by endangering the free press, restricting free speech, and limiting the type and quantity of information made available to the public. Please stop this merger at all costs.

—Tyler Poelstra, Edna Bay, AK

This is what happens when the interests of the average working Joe is ignored, and special interests and corporate interests are given more attention. It gradually results in the silencing of independent media and force propaganda and hate into our country. This is the U.S.A., a constitutional democracy, Not a dictatorship, like Putin's Russia, where there is virtually no independent media or diversity of voices, and only state-controlled propaganda. People need to be aware of this, and ensure that this deal between Sinclair and Tribune is denied, so we ensure that our independent local news is intact and allowed to bring diversity in voices in informing the public.

—Kevin Kljyan, Astoria, NY

Companies like this shouldn't exist. #StopSinclair

—Elizabeth de Béthune, Yonkers, NY

FCC please stop Sinclair tribune merger and protect jobs and entertainment thank you.

—Keven Ayala, Manassas, VA

Democracy is founded on the principle that the voices of the powerless can get through to the masses. The Sinclair-Tribune merger is a direct threat to this, as it will make the media more on-sided and stop the voices of minorities desperate to get out.

—Elissa A Donlan, Dorchester, MA

I've never liked mainstream media. I always preferred to watch what I like. With rules like this, I may as well go back to buying box sets and physical movies. I also hate how it creates inequality in our communities. I see this kind of stuff at work, as well. More and more customers at my place are turning toward physical media than digital platforms, the opposite of what most think.

—J, Morton Grove, IL

We need a free and diverse press. We just do.

—Kimi Brooks Wei, Fair Lawn, NJ

I also would like to ask that the SBC members involved with forcing the propaganda on the public to be terminated from their jobs, preferably with no severance pay.

—Paulette Mccullar, Tampa, FL

Disgrace.

—Karen Guarino Spanton, Philadelphia, PA

Companies like Sinclair are using trusted local news anchors to force hateful stories into our communities.² They swallow up large swaths of local media, making it nearly impossible for local voices to be heard. Voices like yours. This action cannot stand in today's America.

—Valerie Ann Nemeth, ENCINITAS, CA

It's bad enough that truth standards in the media have eroded to the point where certain media outlets can outright lie and not face any kind of punishment for it. It's creating a sector of the American public that is incredibly uninformed and misinformed, as shown by several studies and surveys. State sanctioned propaganda is only going to make us dumber.

Sinclair does not know our community. Sinclair has no role in setting community priorities, concerns, or interests. If Sinclair is going to gain primary status in a majority of areas, there is even more reason to stop their preaching to us from their corporate scripture.

—Ms. Gail Whitaker, Media, PA

Sinclair is an attack on our democracy. Trump would like nothing better than to not abide by the First Amendment and to rid us of our free press. Of course the FCC has become part of the trump cult so what are we to do?

Also, stop Sinclair's forcing of propaganda on local channels. Because of things like this, I haven't considered TV news relevant in quite some time. It is corporate controlled. Changing that to state propaganda is not better. Somehow, others do think it relevant. Probably why the government is such a mess.

—Bonnie Harzewski, Dixmont, ME

Democracy needs CPR, Donald is destroying democracy with his totalitarian regime due to republican and russian collusion. putin will eat them all when he takes over but they are too blind to see that because donald made them rich and they don't realize he will take it away as soon as he becomes supreme ruler, this will only last till putin eats him. If there is any patriotic bone in the FCC's immigrant body, show America that you meant the Oath of Office you took, donald should not be financially making profits off businesses while he is president, he should not be allowed to have monopolies of the press or we won't have a free press anymore! At 76, I remember feeling pity for the people of Russia who had to live with government propaganda instead of a free press. Now, we are losing the free press and are no longer a beacon internationally. We are becoming ruthless, gutless, and the symbol of all of monopolies' evil. Will you do your job? I hope you love our country more than money.

Disguising propaganda as "news" is not in the best interest of the public, not matter the political ideology. This is too much, please stop them from pushing lies by going back to local reporting to being independent.

—Anthony G Franklin, Bedford, OH

Why shouldn't we be promoting competition instead of allowing 1 or 2 broadcast companies to dominate the airwaves? Approving the Sinclair merger would only further exacerbate the situation. No, I do not want my FM/AM programming to come from one source. I prefer competition to a monopoly and if there is a monopoly on the airwaves I probably would tune out pretty quickly as has been the case with broadcast radio already with the shrinkage in competition and local ownership. This merger, if allowed to go thru, would probably cause the end of FM/AM radio as we know it and that is not a good thing

—Kevan Scott, Colorado Springs, CO

Sinclair's attempt to control all the media in the country is but one more step towards Trump's becoming the dictator he has repeatedly stated and shown his desire to be. Both Sinclair and Trump must be stopped before we become the next Nazi Germany. Trump and Sinclair both equal nothing but LIES!!!!

—Janalee Roy, Tacoma, WA

'I don't know what country I 'm living in! "This is extremely dangerous to our democracy!"

—Madeline Shaw, Slate Hill, NY

This dictator will be your dictator too. How long do you think those special privileges will last?

—Susanna Askins, Portland, OR

I find the consolidation of media sources under Sinclair to be a dangerous practice and tool of fascism. If you persist in allowing such propaganda to be forced upon the populace, you are Fascist, too. Think twice about what you want to support and the world you want to create.

—Emily G. Smith, Salt Lake City, UT

Stop surrendering the public airwaves to profiteers. Further, stop the profiteers already there from consolidating into a monopoly. Further, stop the monopolist from controlling the national dialogue. It's bad enough that you've given up our public interest. It's bad enough that you destroyed any semblance of competition. Now you are hell bent on destroying our democracy.

—Dr. Leonardo Leonardo Legorreta, Neponset, IL

Why are they doing this to our country?

—Viola Nicholson, Littleton, CO

We now live in the equivalent of Nazi Germany and the moneyed people of this world are very happy because the spineless and bought and paid for Republican party is that - spineless.

—Anne W. Winkle, Kenosha, WI obscene....do your job for the best interest of our nation....

—Mary Duvall, Clatskanie, OR

Sinclair's tactics are FASCISM AND TOTALITARIANISM. Sinclair's disgusting defense of Trump's CHILD-ABUSE policies must be stopped. Pediatricians, psychiatrists, and ALL normal people know that kidnapping children from their parents and holding them in 'detention' centers can cause LIFELONG trauma and result in criminal behavior in adulthood. WE'VE HAD ENOUGH CRUELTY AND FASCISM.

—Mrs. Jin Emerson-Cobb, Memphis, TN

How awful will the future of the entire world be if this is the way we are going to raise the children of this nation. Biased and hateful rhetoric will only lead to a world of despair and tears. Stop being selfish with your actions and realize that the only way this world will continue is if we find common ground to live with each other and use that as a way to determine the future of the planet.

—Cortez Taylor, Sterling Heights, MI

Pravda here we come. Or... here we are! If you want to make our democracy a fascist society, you're headed in the right direction. If you don't stop this now, it will only get worse until it's too late. But, maybe that's the plan.

—L Bock, Massapequa, NY

Americans deserve a quality Fourth Estate that is monopolized by a megacorporation's point of view!

—Jacqueline Barden, Alameda, CA

And contribute to the restoration of the free press. It's a hallmark of our country and what it stands for. Trump and his advocates are trying to take control of the freedoms of our country because they know full well that they can't make it in a democratic system without first trying to tear it down. In other words, the only way they know how to bolster their false persona, lies, and fear monger it. Getting rid of net neutrality opens the flood-gates trump's truths. Which are not truths at all—just lies. There's where the real fake news rests. Sick, sick, sick.

—Christine Fearing, Apex, NC

Please just stop. Just stop pandering to corporations.

—Irene Claiborne, Milledgeville, GA

Propaganda can not be treated as free speech if free speech is to survive.

—David Palmer, Newport Beach, CA

FUCK TRUMP!

—Bruce Hartman, Cape Coral, FL

Those stations cannot justify using the term "news" in the legal sense. Pull the plug on them.

—Charles Fox, Santa Monica, CA

Trump and his administration are determined to end our democracy/republic. He is violating the Constitution in every way possible. We are no longer the free people that the original settlers came to this country to form. The Republican do-nothing Congress should all be imprisoned for accepting their paychecks and not performing the tasks that they were elected to perform. They are cowards and only interested in furthering their own positions. We are a disgusting nation with the election of Trump, of course that would never have happened if the Russia operatives spewing out false information. Sinclair is supported by the billionaires who are only interested in putting forth their views on what is going on and truth has nothing to do with what Sinclair is putting out. If we had a "normal" FCC they would be booted out but that is not our country today. If the Republicans had a conscience they would be ashamed but they do not. Psychopaths do not have feelings, therefore they do not know what shame or guilt is. Welcome to Trump America!

—Sandra Brady, Pinellas Park, FL

Once again, the Trump FCC is ignoring their responsibility to the protect the American citizen and media consumer in order to further the agenda of a small number of large, rich, and powerful corporations. Where do you draw the line in your attack on free speech and democracy? Allowing this merger is "a serious threat to our democracy" not the biased media that these shills are trying to blame.

—Matthew E Davies, Cambridge, MA

We are NOT having this. We are NOT North Korea and the American public should not be subjected to blatant propaganda calling itself news. NO Media monopolies!

—Pan Welland, Florence, MA

How to identify Sinclair station?

—Frank Decola, CHESTERTON, IN

Well... some folks might be "depending" on you to do what's right and constitutional. Many of us are not so optimistic about your ethics. Get on the right side of history, or look to history to see what societies do to people like you who would oppress their people wholesale.

—Amelia Manlove, Hillsboro, OR

Raw politics shouldn't be forced down to local network affiliates.

—M Davidson, Henrico, VA

Our nation depends on real, local news. It is a restriction of my free speech when the speech of newscasters is dictated and demanded by their employers.

—Mark R. Kissinger, Golden Valley, AZ

This is the real fake news.

—Philip Schulman, Sacramento, CA

My beloved local news team is caught in the middle of this propaganda nightmare!

—Bev Price, Jefferson City, MO

Hitler also was able to control the media. Didn't turn out so well, did it?

—Jenny Kastner, Cambridge, MA

I have had it with Pro- Trump news!!!! Tell the truth NOT lies!

—Elizabeth Werner, Hamden, CT

SINclair is a plague against FREE SPEECH, and is "extremely dangerous and mocks you and me!"

—G Casey, altadena, CA

You're emulating the late Joseph Goebbels and his fellow practitioners: lie, lie and lie, and repeat the lie often enough and many of those hearing it can't help but start to believe it's the truth. THIS IS A GRAVE DISSERVICE TO OUR NATION.

—Mark McKennon, Brooklyn, NY

Sinclair stations need to be registered as political entities, not news stations, if they continue to be forced by Sinclair to run extremist partisan information. The Terrorism Alert Desk is an outrageous example of Sinclair inciting fear in its viewers in order to foster its xenophobic opinions. The FCC must take action.

—Elizabeth McClure, Phoenix, AZ

WTF IS HAPPENING

—Laura Hansen, Ames, IA

The American public has the right to truthful, fact based news. Independently owned radio, tv and print outlets are important to freedom, not the monopoly concocted distortions and lies from Sinclair and Fox news. So called "alternate facts" are lies. I don't know about all religions but the Christian Ten Commandments say "you shall not bear false witness" which translates to: YOU SHALL NOT LIE.

—Dr. Edwin Fox, Nokomis, FL

The public airwaves are for information, education, analysis and entertainment. It is a blatant misuse of the public airwaves to widely promote a political agenda by fiat to the individual stations.

—P A Savagian, Lone Tree, CO

What we don't need in this democracy is one single voice speaking to the majority of all Americans. We are a diverse country. Our news needs to reflect that entire variety of opinions.

—K Laurence, New York, NY

News stations should spread facts, not propaganda.

—Christina J Gollapally, Simi Valley, CA

This is not free speech nor freedom of the press. If Sinclair has an opinion, let it be clearly, publicly noted that it is opinion, and NOT necessarily the opinion of those employed by the company. Do not force employees to "read" or otherwise endorse opinions that are not their own. To do so would be illegal in any other workplace, as is pressuring employees to support a specific candidate or political stance, particularly in editorial publishing and broadcasting.

—EC Goller, St Petersburg, FL

Where is the anti-monopoly protection that Americans used to enjoy? A free press demands multiple voices to ensure balance and objectivity.

—Susan Rogers, Grass Valley, CA

Free Press and not Trumpian faux news is important and must be sustained.

—Gloria Cisneros Lenoir, Austin, TX

Propaganda will lead to fascism. Stop this merger.

—Donald Sawyer, Canon City, CO

This extremely dangerous to our democracy! LOL

—Richard L. Cahail, Des Moines, IA

We either need to bring back the Fairness Doctrine that Reagan infamously killed or start prosecuting these people for knowingly spreading false information that impacts our state security.

—Sam DeLeo, Denver, CO

I am very concerned about the direction in which our country is headed. A free and impartial press which is what net neutrality implies is an absolute necessity to inform us so that we will not be overtaken by dictator-like actions by our government. In my opinion, that is what is now happening and all of us need to be made aware. The press should be an "arm" for keeping us informed.

—Peggy Mitchell, Hurst, TX

When Sinclair takes over a local station, it means the END of local news from that station.

—Robert Silverberg, centerville, MA

Protect unbiased. accurate reporting of the news, and our First Amendment Constitutional freedom of the Press and Speech. STOP the Sinclair-Tribune merger!

—Richard Shannahan, Lutherville Timonium, MD

I demand information re: radio or tv stations and their ownership. It is very difficult to find.

—Janet Dales, New Orleans, LA

Please stop this propaganda; that is the FCC's job!

—Peter Houser, Seattle, WA

It's been shown that the Sinclair Broadcasting Company wants to fill its news with right-wing propaganda. They are partial to Donald Trump who lies continuously. We don't need that kind of news. We need the truth.

—Mariab K Gamble, Sleepy Hollow, IL

We need you to help save our democratic system. Even if you don't want to do so, do you really want to go down in history as the heartless people who helped destroy this country?

—Reverend Sandra Mackie, Gettysburg, PA

Propaganda is not news. Get this vaudeville act off the airwaves!

—Susan McDonald, Nashville, TN

Yes, please stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger and "restore our faith"! Your killing of net neutrality sure didn't help my faith!

—William H Clarke, Missoula, MT

we are now russia

—Susan Vogt, Fairbanks, AK

[Disclosure: I am an old white man] #ENOUGH #NeverAgain Say "No" to NAZIs!

—Jon Sheehan, Bell Gardens, CA stop it

—Aurora Insurriaga, CHICAGO, IL

The lack of independence in our media goes back to the repeal of the Fairness Doctrine. Print, broadcast, and now internet sources MUST NOT be forced into a propagandistic parroting. I would very much like to see the reinstatement of the Fairness Doctrine, and far more scrutiny of mergers & acquisitions that are diluting the voices of the majority of journalists and citizens. I must say I'm not especially hopeful, given other recent decisions by the FCC. A pleasant surprise would be nice.

—Sadie SullivanGreiner, El Cajon, CA

We need diversity of opinion in broadcasting. Sinclair speaks one message through many voices.

—Jeanne Szczechowski, Bay Saint Louis, MS

Sinclair edicts stop local news. Block the merger. Thanks you

—David Raiklen, Santa Monica, CA

Sinclair is NOT news!!!!

—Alejandro Sabre, Wallace, CA

In Nazi Germany Hitler controlled everything, that included all Media. It still amazes me when I see pictures of thousands of people standing and pledging loyalty to this one person as if he were God. We don't need any more of that so the wise thing would be to have good, honest, truth-telling reports in newspapers, radio, TV, and not limit our ability to hear the truth. The FCC needs to control media-ownership so we can have the truth. If they are unable to do this, then it's time for the ones in charge to step aside (resign) and put people in their place who aren't afraid to stand up for what is right.

—Florence Portell, Sun City, AZ

Call out these Fascists for what they are

—Martin Riley, Corona, CA

How much closer to Big Brother can we come???? When broadcasters across the country are spewing the same political message, and net neutrality has been neutralized, we are living in SCARY times. This country was founded on free speech. It needs to stay that way.

—Ann FP Somers, Brookline, NH

This form of fascist propaganda has no place in a society that strives to be a world leader. News networks should communicate fact, not work to spread corrupting lies across the population.

—Brendan R Kelley, Fort Collins, CO

When you teach people to listen to only one message, or deny them access to different points of view, you demonstrate that you no longer represent citizens of the United States of America, only the corporations. Please remember that you are meant to serve the American people, not the President, not the companies (which represent only a small fraction of the population), and not yourselves. Similar to teachers and social workers, you are in a service position - your primary goal is to serve and help as many people as you can. If you are in it for the money, go work somewhere else. Sincerely, Gwynedd Rzegocki

—Gwynedd Rzegocki, Seattle, WA

Sinclair is a threat to our democracy!

—Kristin Thompson, Madison, WI

Lies are not in the public interest!

—Ms. Frances Vinnacombe, Saint Louis, MO

—Stephen Bond, Olympia, WA

Quality reporting MAKES AMERICA GREAT!

—Glenda Adkinson, austin, TX

This is an example of the many ways democracy is being crippled in the U.S. Bring back the Fairness Doctrine.

—Rebecca Alwin, Middleton, WI

Regime propaganda is overtaking real journalism in America. Democracy will not survive the control of the media by a single biased source. What happened to the rules that stopped monopolies? Right wing groups have no problem exploiting and outwitting the few regulations still in place.

—Sharlene Beck, Salt Lake City, UT

FCC sucks dog dick yo

—Chance Watts, Lorain, OH

What good is the FCC if they allow the exact opposite of what the free press was intended to do? Are they unaware of what they've already allowed to transpire with Faux News and not having the Fairness Doctrine? Sinclair is obviously just an extension of the money now allowed into politics and what it has caused oh so quickly.

—Jerry Clark, Durango, CO

Propaganda isn't news.

haven't had a television since 2009, but this is still reprehensible behavior on their part...UGH
—meredith C ryan, kingwood, TX

#StopSinclair
—Susan Allen, Raleigh, NC

This goes beyond unacceptable. Stop the merger and help provide censure for spreading lies as "news."
—Dr. Tristan A. MacAvery, Syracuse, NY

We don't need propaganda. We don't need our reporters and anchors to be actors. We need the truth. The FCC needs to ensure that the public knows what is really happening, not what Sinclair wants us to know.
—Kelly McMahan, Alameda, NM

That is our right to have a free press. Stop all of this consolidation of papers and communications.
—Mary Lawless, Washington, IL

Sinclair is evil when they tell views the situation with immigrant children is not true. How can you let this continue & still sleep at night or look your children/grandchildren in the eye.
—Vickie M Fouts, Coarsegold, CA

Come on- I want substance, news, not entertainment.
—Nancy A Melton, Seattle, WA

Monopolization of our local media is antithetical to our American free speech principles. Resist this power-grab.
—Betty A Brendel, Lock Haven, PA

This, like numerous other issues (climate change, food labeling, gun safety, immigration reform, prison reform, education reform, short-term lending regulation, healthcare reform, banking regulation, opioid regulation) remains a vexing problem primarily due to corporations' ability to curry favor with elected officials. The corrupting influence of money in our political system is undermining our democratic traditions and discouraging Americans from voting and/or running for office. This ominous development may well end our experiment in representative democracy unless we alter this decades-long trend. For the sake of the republic, we must amend the US Constitution to state that corporations are not people (and do not have constitutional rights) and money is not speech (and thus can be regulated by state and/or federal campaign finance laws). Short of accomplishing this, no other reform of significance will be achieved. The moneyed interests will turn any reform to their benefit, often at the expense of the nation as a whole.
—James Klein, Corpus Christi, TX

We cannot confine the purveyance of lies and propaganda to viewers in the guise of news. These blatant actions must be stopped. By permitting further consolidation of media, our need will not be reliable as news.

—Richard Wissler, Middlebury, VT

News should be unbiased and factual, not opinionated and hateful. Ban the merger!

—Halorie Walker-Sloss, Redmond, OR

Some of the false information, which Sinclair is spreading, is in the same category as yelling "Fire!" in a dark and crowded movie theatre. This should end.

—George G. Stradtman Jr., Elkins Park, PA

While I am using this letter composed for me, I assure you I agree with all of these statements and criticism of the idea of news stations being forced by their corporate owners to broadcast information presented as news which is blatantly biased and untruthful. It is fine if the corporate owners want to broadcast their OWN interpretations and opinions, but then label them as such. False statements and untruths written by the corporate owners should not be forced on individual newscaster to parrot to lend credence to fake news and self-serving corporate interests. It is a travesty . Media should not be restricted or censored by takeovers and big corporations. Good, unbiased, fact-based media is what keeps politicians in check and gives facts by which to analyze political statements and policies. It is what makes democracy sustainable.

—Nancy Hosay, Menlo Park, CA

Please serve the people over corporate interests

—David Copson, Shipman, VA

Media is too consolidated as it is, and it leads to exactly what we're seeing from Sinclair - a political and ideological agenda, disguised as news. Further consolidation will only make this worse.

The American People, Have Had Their Fill of Fake News From Fox. The FCC; Must Act in the Best Interests of the American People, and Step In To Stop the Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune Media from Its Proposed Merger. An Unprecedented Media Monopoly Will Be Created, Which Will Result in An Extremely Damaging Blow To Freedom of Speech and Freedom of the Press in This Country.

—Shawn R. Sargent, WEST YARMOUTH, MA

Don't enable the sins of Sinclair!

—Don Ogden, Leverett, MA

Prevent the monopoly of local news by Sinclair Media. Stop it's proposed merger withTribune.

—Beth Davidson, Incline Village, NV

Sinclair News cannot be allowed to monopolize local news organizations and still be expected not to push its organization's own agenda which has leaned too far left to be considered independent coverage. It has forced its subsidiaries to put out new items that have been proven false time and time again. There is a time to stand up against large corporations buying up smaller ones to gain a foothold on the public and the way it perceives independent local news.

—Michael Scott Moyers, Willmar, MN

Journalist integrity is nearly non existent in the news today. CNN's news panel bullshit, Fox and Sinclair news is evangelical republican bullshit, all local news is nothing more than car accidents, gun shootings and the weather. How did we get here? I had a front row seat. The advertising entities for the news sold out journalism for clicks for profits. Any questions?

—Ernie Looney, Santa Clarita, CA

Whatever happened to antitrust laws? Sadly, our democracy is being diminished from all sides by this corrupt administration.

—Ms. J Cohen, beachwood, OH

It's approaching the levels of the ministry of truth from George Orwell's 1984. We need sources and critical inquiry in our media today, so when one company gains this much influence it is a danger to not only our Democracy, but to truth itself. We need warning labels for our news outlets (all of them) which give warning to people watching that these are opinions.

—Alexander Swift, Las Vegas, NV

Sinclair is just propoganda

—Gregory C Peterson, Fairfield, CA

Right wing extremists news network? Remember Nazi Germany? Free Press, not bought and paid for press! America will die because of this.

—Eric V Tait Jr, New York, NY

Sinclair is grossly stupid. They are trying to destroy the USA, which will eventually destroy them!
—Richard Bahler, Fairfax Station, VA

Enough attempted destruction of our government, Free the news so we may vote as an informed society.
—Patricia Hamilton, Mill Valley, CA

I am horrified by the unethical reporting what is going on in that FOXNews and Sinclair broadcasting throughout our nation that is missing forming our country. As a veteran, it disturbs me deeply. The public has a right to know and the media has the responsibility to report the difficult subjects of corruption within our government even when it reaches our president, and his cabinet. It may not be a comfortable subject to report on however, it needs to be reported on ethically and honestly. And not used as his means of propaganda. I am a well-informed, and well educated student of history, psychology, sociology, government, economics and I can read the writing on the wall. My question is can you? I'm a Natural Dean's Honor, and the only reason I'm telling you this is because I want you to be aware that I understand and have full knowledge that I am NOT being swayed by emotion but it is by my understanding by my education and what I see that history repeats itself and I can see what is occurring in our country and frankly it is quite disturbing and concerning. That is why I decided to act. Thank you in advance for taking the time to listen. But I thank you even more for taking action.
—Jeannie Teske, Kansas City, KS

The attack on our free press is an outrage! Sinclair has no right to force Republican lies onto the rest of us. Please stop this insanity!!!
—Karen Wilkening, Encinitas, CA

Sinclair isn't free press--it is unadulterated PROPAGANDA. Stop it.
—Jay Cardinal, New York, NY

C'mon! This is crazy. Stop these people from taking over the airways. The FCC is designed to keep us safe from Despotic media.
—Bernie Sirelson, North Hollywood, CA

I don't need Sinclair to tell me what's going on. I know cover-ups and lies when I see them. NO ONE should force their employees to repeat a forced script. If Sinclair is so proud of THEIR propaganda, then their company president or the owner of Sinclair should make their "Fake News" announcements. I guess they don't want the general public to see their faces. Cowards!
—Sandra Hixson, Seattle, WA

Astounding. You can't yell fire in a theater but it's apparently OK if you are supporting the right right politician and party. How can a democracy remain democratic if one party controls the message. Approve this one and you get the George Orwell award for excellence in authorianism and one man rule.

Media consolidation yields corporate fascism yields political fascism. Didn't this country fight a successful war in the mid-20th century to end fascism?

—James Zapalac, Millington, TN

This violates every basic tenet of journalism, news, and democracy. The Sinclair Group stands opposed to everything the United States believes in. News must be preserved. Not only do we need to stop them, but pass more laws to keep news unbiased and based on the truth.

I am so tired of the lies trump spreads like manure. I do not want to hear more lies on the news. I'd like to remind FCC employees that they're being paid, in part, by my tax dollars. And that reading the Constitutional First Amendment is a reminder that this country was NOT founded by treasonous dictators. Please do your Constitutional duty and do not allow our current autocracy to stray any farther from the Constitutional rights granted to the Free Press. (The U.S. is not - yet- Russia or North Korea.).

“Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.”

Goebbels would have been proud of this manoever on the part of our current fascist government!

—Peter Rocke, Middlefield, MA

Licensing propaganda machines that spew fake news over the airwaves does not serve the public interest and should be investigated by the FCC. Hopefully you are not infested with Trump loyalists that objectivity is no longer possible.

—Terry Kelley, Jacksonville, FL

Stop extremist right wing propaganda from turning our lives into an Orwellian nightmare.

—Luke Oines, San Francisco, CA

We are becoming a nation ruled by a tyrant. Trump said he wants to be like North Korea's tyrant. What sort of kickback is Sinclair getting?

—Donna Hanley, Bryant, AR

America should not ever move toward state run media. A truly free press is integral to our values.

—Jeffrey E Pogue, Los Angeles, CA

I question whether any of the Sinclair-Tribune employees have integrity and ethics. THEY are extremely dangerous to our democracy!
—Arlene Roth, Red Wing, MN

I am tired of Goebbels TV airing on the public American airways. Propaganda (while allowed by the Constitution) does not have legality on the FCC (thus publicly) owned airways. Furthermore, I reject the Sinclair-Tribune merger on the grounds of consolidation of broadcasting media as well as the concept that this merger not only limits competition; but also intensifies un-American propaganda dissemination.
—Frank Hardy, Dallas, PA

We need to stop this propaganda; the uneducated are getting brainwashed. This is despicable. I never thought our nation would stoop to this level with this illegitimate president who has thrust hatred throughout our nation!
—Deb Deveney, New Castle, DE

This forced fake news is anti-American.. This is like Nazi propaganda it should not be allowed.
—Robert Borchert, Felton, CA

Free speech is a cornerstone of our Constitution and our democracy. That should include allowing local broadcasters to decide their own content which goes out over the airwaves. I most vehemently object to the idea of the parent company dictating to local affiliates what must be broadcast. How is this different from the "party line" of dictatorships? I am becoming more and more alarmed at the loss of freedoms in our nation.
—Theresa Kardos, Cortlandt Manor, NY

There should be strict guidelines for any printed and broadcast media that uses "news" in their self-identification to adhere to ethical standards based on truth. Strict penalties should be known, and publicly enforced when levied.

—Debbie Martin, Atlanta, GA

The question was asked sixty-four years ago this month [of another Republican]: "Have you no sense of decency sir, at long last? Have you left no sense of decency?" (Joseph N. Welch to Senator Joseph R. McCarthy, June 9, 1954, the 30th day of the Army–McCarthy hearings.) Now, as then, the answer to that question for every Republican on the FCC — if not virtually every Republican office holder across the land — is a resounding, unequivocal and absolute NO.

—Matthew Eckman, Glen Mills, PA

We the people have the right to freedom of speech and press; the current situation of net neutrality and the Sinclair-Tribune merger prevent these rights from being exacted in full. To exploit these rights to promote partisan policies and discrimination is disgusting. Censorship such as this is not okay. Furthermore, as humans we have the right to humane conditions and while we understand that the government is under pressure at the border, they must take better action. Collect information from illegal immigrants and create a database that will allow families to find each other, improve conditions in holding facilities, inform illegal immigrants of their rights and provide them with legal assistance, and hire more border patrol officers. All of these suggestions would be infinitely more useful than a wall that would cost billions of dollars that we do not have, and would probably be more cost efficient. While we cannot take everyone seeking asylum, we must do our best as a country to assist them to the full extent of our abilities. At this point, it is not a matter of partisan politics, it is a matter basic human rights and the upholding of American values, not Mr. Trump's. The United States of America was founded by immigrants and built by immigrants. Why are immigrants so discriminated against when they are the foundation of our very country? Why does the Trump administration not extend the core American values of Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness to all its dealings? While each administration has its own views and opinion, they cannot ignore the opinions of the people and I know that a large number of us are unhappy with the Trump administration's actions regarding net neutrality, the border situation, and general xenophobic and unprofessional tendencies. The Trump administration seems to be running the government for their own benefit, and not the American people. We have voices that will be heard, no matter what they try to do to restrain us. The government's authority comes from the consent of the governed-it has a responsibility to the people it rules over, and when a large majority of the people are being ridiculed and have their opinions ignored by the government, then there are serious issues that must be resolved.

Sinclair is just a propaganda machine for Trump. Don't allow this egregious mistake.
—Marsha Shaw, Georgetown, TX

The Clayton and Sherman antitrust laws were passed and put on the books to keep us from having one news outlet dictating "facts" that are really in the best interests of the Stations and corporations broadcasting them. Lets stick to the law and not go to court over it, after the damage is done. Sinclair Media is a monster and needs to be stopped from buying up TV and Radio Outlets in the U.S.A.
—Mr. David Fulwiler, Milwaukee, WI

If this happens we will be one step closer to a dictatorship. There will be no freedom of the press. This does not represent American democracy. Please reject this merger. This is right extremism at work.
—Barbara Gaylor, Brookline, MO

One of the Constitutional basis of our Republic is freedom of press, expression of ideas and the ability to protest this government.
—Sally York, Brighton, MI

Media consolidation and monopolization are simply bad for democracy. The FCC has lost virtually all of its credibility under its current leadership. If you care at all about how you appear to the American people, you must reject the merger between Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune Media.
—Geoffrey Marsh, Santa Rosa, CA

This is state-run propaganda and has NO place in news media.
—Elizabeth White, Seattle, WA

Sinclair Lewis wrote "It Can't Happen Here" on the 1930s. It is a terrifying story of the destruction of our democracy. Do not approve the Sinclair Lewis merger. Don't let it happen here, don't let these stations become the "Tass" of the Trump administration.

—Najai Knox, Temple Hills, MD

Mergers of this type make a mockery of "Public" airways since their "must runs" are clearly designed to benefit one party. Having one cable "news" network, Fox News, as the propaganda arm of the Republican party is more than enough.

This forced biased "reporting" is outrageous. It is an example of why the merger of Sinclair Broadcasting with Tribune Media should be rejected. I urge you to do so and to support vibrant local journalism.

—Katherine McHale, San Jose, CA

No one should have that much power. The US was based on hearing many voices but that with corporate takeovers/mergers that is ending. Sinclair is run by bigots and they in particular should not be allowed to monopolize the media. This country is falling into an abyss from which it may not arise.

—Kate Kenner, Brattleboro, VT

We're not really expecting you to do anything, considering your love affair with corporate America and you ruling against net neutrality. But we thought we may as well tell you what we think is the right road to take After all, if this country ends up like the dictatorships of the mid-twentieth century, you don't want to be saying you were just following orders. Right?

—Jimmy & Susie Foot, McKinleyville, CA

Free and independent news media are critical to give citizens the information needed to make rational, informed decisions. As media outlets are consolidated into large conglomerates, it is easier for the information we receive to be twisted by bias. Please do not continue to foster this.

I firmly believe in the power of local news to stimulate the minds of one another and to hold the potential to strengthen a community and would like to petition to keep its information and power resting in the hands of those who reside in those communities. I find it very disrespectful that a company like the Sinclair broadcast with a transparently biased world-view are seeking profit in the corruption of what I value most in local news, the news of the people. When I watch the local news I see a reflection of the humanity around me, whether it be something political, criminal, social, or humanitarian. Whether it be a story of a local artist inspiring the youth of my neighborhood or the news of a high school music teacher sex offender awaiting trial I respect my local news for at least capturing what my community is. Sinclair would much rather waste time pushing an agenda than keep my community and its people represented properly. Choice is a very important thing to me and should Sinclair succeed in merging with Tribune Media I can assure you that I will choose to do everything in my power to boycott and or reject all forms of media representing anything other than the news of the people of my community, even if it means canceling my TV services and simply asking my friends and family what's happened in town recently. As a voter I will also do what I can to try and use what power I have to choose the right representation to protect my community from the senseless game of a political agenda be it republican or democrat. In Summary, I value the freedom to watch my news without fucking Anderson Cooper or Bill O'reilly yelling an agenda in my face, and if you make it so that I have to sit through this dip-shit company shoving the trivial misunderstandings of Boris Epshteyn I'm going to do everything I can to change that. Thank you for your consideration and excuse my coarse language.
—Emanuel Castro, Rialto, CA

PLEASE..you hold the power to keep this kind of unethical propaganda from being aired in American homes. It's up to you to do what's right for our country and STOP this merger! The citizens of this nation deserve the TRUTH..broadcast THAT!!!

—Bradley K Poe, Champaign, IL

I am a retired print journalist. I firmly believe that freedom of the press extends to all types of news, including television and radio. To require stations to run politically slanted segments violates the 1st Amendment of the US Constitution. This is especially egregious when Sinclair owns the only station available in a given market. If people want their local news, they must watch the propaganda as well. This is not freedom of the press!
—Caryl Bigenho, Pray, MT

Mandated propaganda is unacceptable! The Sinclair merger cannot be allowed.
—Neil Fisher, Sand Springs, OK

What you have allowed and are allowing Sinclair to get away with is nothing less than the sovietization of American society. Sinclair is nothing more than a propaganda machine that spews out disinformation as regularly as Fox. That you seem blithely indifferent to this is beyond shameful and borders on the treasonous. Stop it before it is too late.
—ben Lichtin, rochester, NY

If Trump continues to be supported in the media by people who believe his boldfaced lies and share his horrifying agenda we will soon be living in Nazi America and people who protest will be silenced by being sent to American Concentration Camps. America will cease to be America entirely. Think about it. Is this really what you want?

—Caroline Thomas, New York, NY

To the Federal Communications Commission: We're depending on you to reject the Sinclair Broadcast Group's bid to merge with Tribune Media. There's no way a single corporate voice can speak to the local realities of more than 70 percent of the U.S. population. Right now, you have the power to stand up against corporate forces that want to monopolize broadcast airwaves — a public resource that should reflect the rich diversity of cultures and viewpoints that makes our communities vibrant. Please deliver the ethical leadership we deserve. Stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger and restore our faith in your commitment to the public interest.

—Matt Rosa, Philadelphia, PA

We used to have laws against propaganda. Let's have them again.

—Laurinda Conyers, Orangevale, CA

Stop this horrendous, monopolistic merger of Tribune with the odious, totalitarian Sinclair Broadcast Group, which is already FAR TOO Big, as well as being a corrupt propaganda outlet for the Trump administration. Sinclair has been caught red-handed using trusted local news anchors to force hateful and false stories into our communities. Now, they want to swallow up even larger swaths of local media, making it nearly impossible for local voices to be heard. Voices like ours. We will not stand for this. We need and demand a media system that is owned by many, telling the stories of all. That means diverse ownership of platforms, both digital and traditional. The FCC needs to restore our faith in its commitment to the public interest by rejecting this terrible merger. In addition, you should remove Sinclair's broadcasting license for the grotesque violations they have already committed.

—Donna McKee, Lederach, PA

This News Commentary is awful for local communities and divides the nation instead of brining it together. This is not what makes America great.

—Ethan Walseman, Camp Hill, PA

A merger of this magnitude will be a further disgrace to our weak democracy. Please say no. Stop it on its tracks!

—Ana Lois-Borzi, Austin, TX

Ajit Pai -- is possible for you to see that you are really helping the U.S. to go down the sewer? Do you think the millions of bucks you'll get after fucking the FCC's mission is going to save your reputation and soul? Hah!!!!

—Leigh Hill, Felton, CA

If Sinclair would refrain from forcing affiliates to air certain "news segments" even against the will of key personnel who disagree, I would not be urging you to restrict its holdings... but since it does force them to do so, I am urging you to disallow the proposed merger, for the sake of a free and fair press. Thank you for taking action that can help preserve our democracy.

—Ms. Jackie Lowell, San Diego, CA

We shut down restaurants for being overrun by rats and cockroaches to preserve the integrity of the food we receive; likewise, we should break up Sinclair to preserve the integrity of the journalism we receive.

—J Willis, Lake Oswego, OR

There was a concerted effort by the current administration to prevent the merger of the TimeWarner properties because “there are too many overlaps”. That was a waste of taxpayer money because the two companies were completely different, however this is putting a huge amount of this country under the purview of one man’s political views because local stations are required to air this “commentary”.

This is not new, it is propaganda and lies. Please don't allow this to go through. Things are bad enough.

—Robert R Whiteley, Fairfax, VA

This is UN-AMERICAN !! It is NOT how freedom of the press was designed to work. It amounts to "forced speech" and so violates 1st amendment, How is this NOT a violation of anti-trust rules?

—Joel Sparler, Redmond, WA

Respected FCC, companies like Sinclair have already demonstrated that media conglomerates wish to spread the messages of their owners. This totalitarian messaging is harmful to public discourse, and democracy in America. I urge you to block the proposed merger between Sinclair and Tribune so that America is not subject to Sinclair-style propaganda coast to coast, and medium to medium. "One nation under media conglomerate propaganda" is no America to believe in.

Clones walking like dead persons; heartless, Sinclair. The FCC was made to have fairness and lawful use of The People's Air. These days the FCC makes airwaves unfair!

—Sarah Bellem, Felton, CA

Sinclair broadcasting is in the mold of Hitler's Nazi Propaganda tool, much like North Korea's State run TV spewing lies and praise for the Supreme Leader. This merger brings America one step closer to a Authoritarian Regime.

—Danny Mayle, Bolivar, OH

News programs are supposed to report the truth, not spread unfounded claims. Once companies start telling their people what to say, it's no longer news. It's puppetry. Sinclair must stop using its show hosts to spread false information, and stop abusing and frightening its hosts into cooperating. This is neither Russia, nor North Korea. This kind of foolishness must not be tolerated here.

—James Steele, South Paris, ME

This cannot be helpful to anyone in America to let this media company dominate the airwaves. We are falling apart at the seams as a country because of these monopoly institutions which is against our constitution. When does the craziness end? Hi FCC...you are not stupid. So sit and take a deep breath. Now start to think of a time that lasts longer than next month. Do you see it? The thing that is going to bite you in the "sit-down area". No? Really look, and try to see beyond the current hoopla. Being the laughingstock is not something you really want to be.

The United States is being taken over by a few propaganda machines. The public is being manipulated. Sinclair should not even be allowed to own one TV outlet and certainly should not be allowed to merge with anybody else and be able to brainwash even more people. Joseph Goebbels would be proud of such a propaganda machine but you at the FCC should be ashamed.

—James Petterson, Truckee, CA

To: FCC With do respects, Lady and or Gentleman. Please, Do #StopSinclair and End the Runaway Media Consolidation That's Silencing Our Communities. FCC to reject the Sinclair-Tribune merger and get back to the business of serving people. Customers, and viewers are very important for the economy. FCC you voted to repeal Net Neutrality — the rules that barred companies like AT&T, Comcast and Verizon from interfering with our ability to share and access information of our choosing. Today in the internet we are bombarded with announcement of products , no chance to read to see what we want. It takes us out instead of of keeping us in the websites. Companies like, Sinclair are using trusted local news anchors to force hateful stories into our communities. We do not like nor appreciate to view or hear hate;where the children learn hate . We want our communities to change for the sake of the children and the new generation.. Peace, respect and caring to be respected , respect and not become push into violence,disrespect towards others. FCC Please, Stop Sinclair and End the Runaway Media Consolidation That's Silencing Our Communities. Thank you for your time , and your responsible action. Sincerely, Ms. Maria Celia Hernandez 6-27-2018

—Ms. Maria Celia Hernandez, Boston, MA

Stop allowing Sinclair to silence voices that are independent, diverse, and actually serve and care for local communities. Announcers who read the same script on hundreds of stations is undeniable evidence of the pushing of propaganda, not honest reporting. I want the FCC to absolutely REJECT the Sinclair-Tribune merger and get back to the business of serving people. Companies like Sinclair are using trusted local news anchors to force hateful stories into our communities.

Too much propaganda already infests our society, all in the name of "fair and balanced"--more is NOT desirable!

—Catherine B Carpenter, Cambridge, MA

Stop the lies, tell the truth, the country will vote you out.

—Paul Cronin, Jamestown, RI

It's bad enough when newspapers mix news and propaganda, but TV "news" too? Sinclair should not be allowed to monopolize the news industry and instead be restrained

—M O'Brien, Savoy, IL

We want news!!! without slant of a right wing propaganda filled agenda!!! I will simply stop watching & I can assure you, I am not the only one.

—Deborah McCoy, Portland, ME

Seems to me these sinclair ASSHOLES appear to have quite a few media outlets to spew their garbage, Aren't there anti monopoly laws in this country to prevent just that thing from happening?

—Edward Reiss, Burnsville, NC

You must put our foot down on those that would draw terrorism where there is peace.

—Sam Rudloff, Cooks, MI

America was built on free speech and free press. Having "must run" propaganda dumped into local news programs is NOT free speech, it is the opposite. Tell Sinclair that they can not choose the news.

—Larry Nelson, Albert Lea, MN

we recall a silly thing called the "Fairness Doctrine". Is that a relic of our past? Are we moving toward an authoritarian government a la Turkey? Will Sinclair policies aid in moving toward that slippery slope? You have the power and the duty to help our country maintain our democratic system. Please exercise it for the sake of our future. Thank you.

—Gale & Florence Reid, Lansdale, PA

Please stop these monopolistic practices by Sinclair! These are dangerous grounds we are moving on to. One party controlled all the media in Germany in the late 1930's and millions of innocent people paid the ultimate price for that in the years after that. This is not an exaggeration. It's part of history!! Think about it!

Your job is to protect our airwaves from monsters like this, Ajit Pai. You are corrupt and your just rewards are past due.

Stop Corporate Scripted Propaganda

—Gerard Timmons, Daytona Beach, FL

An FCC shamelessly and unabashedly puppeted by media corporations is not an FCC at all. A democracy without free and diverse press is not a democracy at all. Do your job and stand up for the people of this nation instead of filling your own pocketbooks.

—Luke Chandler, Birmingham, AL

Sinclair affiliated stations organized a national propaganda campaign masquerading as genuine news. It was dishonest and deceitful. the FCC should deny Sinclairs merger bid. Let them publicly contest the FCC's decision, and require them to publicly defend what was done with that propaganda script. Isn't honest, open discussion of the Media the primary role of the FCC? You're a COMMUNICATIONS commission The FCC should require that Sinclair verify that it behaves as a communications business, ot a propaganda business, deliberately deceiving the public.

—Daniel Oconnor, Norwood, MA

Most of what I get from my local news, other than coverage of local crime, local militarism, and local weather, is propaganda. There is no questioning of press releases, no alternative viewpoints, nothing other than the cheesiest reportage.

—Susan Siens, Unity, ME

this is not free press. this is a deliberate abuse of power and yellow journalism as propaganda machine for the GOP

—Brendan Aylesworth, Kennesaw, GA

In my entire lifetime as a full-time tent red professor and a journalist, I never dreamed that we would have so corrupt a man in the US presidency that he could take solid aim at destroying democracy. This is a man who has never read the US Constitution, who ordered guards at the Pennsylvania Convention Center to throw me out “on her ass” for asking him to speak about his casino bankruptcies and fumed and pounded his podium because the guards would not move at his command. He sees himself as having Hitler’s powers. Why are we encouraging him? The last thing we have left is journalists. Otherwise, it is over.

It's clear that Sinclair is serving as our 'wannabe Hitler's personal 'Ministry of Propaganda', and is inciting all that is wrong with him, and his followers. People are dying already, and History will not look kindly upon the U.S.

—Rick Weddle, Honokaa, HI

Mega mergers in the Media should NOT BE ALLOWED! America is being dumbed down by hearing a limited amount of "information" from limited sources. This is, frankly, un-American.

—Jan Wilson, Seattle, WA

Whatever happened to anti-trust rulings that used to protect consumers? We urge the FCC to stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger and stop Sinclair from requiring propaganda to be read on its TV stations. Our democracy relies on a free press/media. By allowing Sinclair to broadcast any kind of political propaganda-Republican or Democratic- the FCC is enabling the dismantling of our democracy. Sinclair's behavior is assuredly un-American and un-democratic. The FCC has the power to stop this, and we urge you to do so in the name of democracy. I am a political refugee from Cuba that came as a minor in 1961 and I feel compassion and distress for Trump's action. We need a free press, Thomas Jefferson said that a free press was the cornerstone of the new republic.

—Lourdes C. Garcia, Torrance, CA

We must not allow our local media outlets to be owned by one mega-conglomerate with one political point of view. Sinclair is gaining far too much market share. Many people don't even realize their trusted local news station - or stations - have been taken over by a right-wing corporation.

—Susan Jacobi-Johnson, Warwick, RI

Propaganda, instead of news, serves special interests, not the public interest.

—William M. Ammerman, Clearfield, PA

This is not North Korea or China is it? Are we really faced with our own version of some Putin-like propaganda machine cranking out false non-news? Has greed taken a back seat to Democracy and a free and accurate press? This is pure insanity and will be yet one more nail in the coffin for a democratic form of government. It is a slap in the face to us verterans who served are country to protect the constitution and a democratic form of government where ALL people could live free. Sinclair's broadcast group is pure hate and pure propaganda and is NOT something this country needs right now (we need it never). Enough is enough.

—Wayne Moyer, Norge, VA

Monopolization of knowledge is dangerous and deadly to a democracy. So the FCC has s special obligation to ensure that we have many media outlets that allow a full spectrum of reasonable and responsible opinion all the time, even at the cost of business profitability. Knowledge and information cannot be so totally sacrificed to profit as the Sinclair and Tribune merger portend. Further media consolidation is not supporting our nation's democratic principles.
—Robert Sacco, Greenwich, CT

It is beyond reason why you do not attempt to impose a modicum of fairness in controlling the unending stream of ideological drivel and big lies emitted daily by the central committee of the Soviet Sinclair Network, worthy descendant of Pravda and Soviet TV. Your unwillingness to do this has led to massive propagandizing and spreading of utter nonsense, disinformation, and pure lies. It is time you change this foolish and self defeating (for the health of the democracy) laissez faire hands off policy.
—Ben x Lichtin, Rochester, NY

We can do better in the need to hear many points of view.
—Jane Hamilton Mader, Hillsboro, OR

Anything coming through Sinclair's media should be required to pass through a "Febreze Anti-Stench Fllter." Blatant racism like that characteristic from Sinclair Broadcasting has NO place in our multi-cultural country.
—Del Gundlach, Fremont, CA

Good God is there NO DECENCY left in government?! We want Net Neutrality, free press, diverse ownership, free access to REAL news (not Fox), strong Public Radio and TV. We do NOT want a monopoly or oligopoly. We do not want Trump to strangle out independent and diverse sources of programming and to make our TV and Radio and newspapers into a Putin or Banana Republic version of state controlled or virtually state controlled media. We refuse to go into Trump's desired Dark Age. Stop Sinclair and Trump's FCC from destroying our country. Where is your patriotism, your decency, your love of science and truth? If the FCC allows this Sinclair Tribune merger, the FCC might as well buy brown shirts and arm bands to at least be truthful with the American public which they are betraying completely. Do the right thing for our people and the whole world right now!

The threat of “The Military Propaganda” is real for this country. We need to be sure there are plenty of media outlets. Preferably with the sole goal of telling the verified truth. Please...examine your role in this next step. Brick by brick we are giving our democracy away.

—Lizabeth Healy, Napa, CA

More right-wing crap. They can't win the hearts and minds without buying them.

—Dave Lyons, Fortuna, CA

If you allow this merger to go thru like the AT&T Time-Warner Merger, in which AT&T is already raising prices. Then the entire country is doomed to one sided views in every city. Fix everything that you have broken since Mr. Pai was put in charge. This country is going downhill faster than someone on a snowy slope and the FCC started it.

—Paul Sharritt, Athens, AL

WHAT COUNTRY IS THIS? TRUMPLAND? STOP THIS STUPIDITY! SHAME, SHAME ON YOU FOR FOLLOWING TRUMP/PUTIN TV GUIDELINES! UNREAL! JUST FREAKING UNREAL!

—Mrs Murl and Anne Borts, Nevada, IA

It would be nice to occasionally have some more or less independent television to help those of us who are not so retarded as to believe that Donald Trump gives a damn about America, humanity, or the future. For a low grade imbecile, he's doing the best he can, but TV should be marginally better.

—Samuel Pearson, Saint Louis, MO

The FCC must reject the Sinclair-Tribune merger and stop forcing local stations to air propaganda.

—Maria Sundquist, Medford, MA

Clearly the FCC is a deeply corrupt institution and will not lift a finger to do anything about Sinclair, regardless of public opinion, or this petition. The only action they might take is to invent fake bot pro-Sinclair 'support', like they did for the net neutrality destruction. The FCC is a despicable piece of crap. Hopefully, Pai will be tossed in jail one day. He is a pathetic excuse for a human being.

—Andrew L Jarrett, San Diego, CA

It is shameful that we are enabling full-blown right-wing propaganda in this country.

The Sinclair-Tribune deal might be the sad ending of American democracy as we know it. But if the late broadcasting greats and publishing magnates like Henry Luce, Walter Cronkite, Richard Threlkeld, Mike Wallace, Jerry Dunphy, Joseph Benti, John Chancellor, Hal Fishman, Edward R. Murrow as well as retired broadcasting greats like Paul Moyer, Mike Parker, Ted Dawson and John Beard as well as the late great Jess Marlow were still alive they might tell viewers to tell the FCC they oppose this kind of horrendous merger between Sinclair and Tribune and that we do not want to dishonor those men as well as Hugh Hefner if he were alive today the Playboy founder would say he too opposes this deal and this is not angelic folk much because of what people like Beth Hunt, Chris May and Erin Hawley are doing this to ruin themselves in the eyes of the majority of Americans and that is why stations like KATV are being ruined much because of what Sinclair runs with ridiculous false ads and their promo Sinclair Cares as compared to other top TV stations that do not promote smear and hysteria in the new waist land now known as Sinclair as compared to Tegna whose TV stations are doing very well in many of the top 40 TV markets all over the country. Let us hope that the FCC does not allow this kind of merger because it sounds like the Evil Empire of the Star Wars films and that Atjei Pai ought to resign over his relationship with Sinclair. Let us who are local Independent people win this battle over Sinclair stupidity.

—John Huerta, Warren, AR

This is PURE PROPAGANDA...Pravda AND Isvestia...this continuing kind of LIES & Bullshit is further dividing this nation...Failing to stop this will hasten the downfall of our nation

—Michael Zagaris, San Francisco, CA

Hey FCC! How about the independent protection of media that maintains a Democracy? Allowing Sinclair to gobble up our news and media does not a Democracy make!

—D M Berns, Tucson, AZ

America is still a free country and the Freedom of Speech is still standing and guaranteed by the Constitution. Sinclair is ordering journalists to say the exact same thing all over the country on local affiliates. That is what happens in dictatorships, not in America. Stand for the Laws of this land. Stand for the Constitution. Stand for Free Speech and Freedom of the Press. Stand for Democracy and not for the Republican Party.

Calling CNN and MSNBC “fake news” is an attack on our American tradition of a Free Press that holds the president and the government accountable, and it will not stand! The FCC salaries are paid by taxpayers not Trump Inc. The FCC needs to represent and work for regular citizens, not the Trump dictatorship. Democracy is failing in this country, and the news media is at the core of the information we all receive and so shapes opinions. Sinclair has become the state sponsored megaphone for Trump at al, including and especially Steven Miller, the white nationalist, who is apparently running a large part of the White House. Fix this. Stop Sinclair from solidifying itself into the equivalent of the Nazi Reich Propoganda Ministry. From the OUR National Holocaust Museum "The Nazi Propaganda Ministry, directed by Dr. Joseph Goebbels, took control of all forms of communication in Germany: newspapers, magazines, books, public meetings, and rallies, art, music, movies, and radio. Sinclair is making America look more and more like a two bit third world totalitarian dictatorship with a self serving propaganda wing. Sinclair Broadcast Group is an embarrassment for America and really for democracy itself. It's biased racist propaganda must be regulated and stopped.

—Devon Black, salt lake city, UT

Sinclair is a propaganda machine. We cannot have this in a free society. In many markets, they own all the stations. This cannot stand.

—James Pomeroy, Papillion, NE

All this lying is truly disgusting.

—Kathy Carroll, OAKLAND, CA

A slave press isn't a free press.

—Nina Wouk, Menlo Park, CA

Stopping this take over!

—Claudia L. Schaffer, Gardena, CA

Stop Sinclair Broadcasting now.

—Rebecca Bandy, Oberlin, OH

This is wrong. Like Nazi propaganda wrong! Do the right thing!

—Patti Edelman, Austin, TX

Our founding fathers never meant in shape, form or fashion that moneyed power brokers could usurp our freedom of speech and freedom to access free speech. To allow the merger of Sinclair Broadcast and Tribune Media is tantamount to a government backed take over of core components of our true American way of life and a dangerous gun to the figurative head and heart of the US Constitution. The Nazis and Communists could hardly be any more effective in shackling a free people. Why is this corporate coup even possible? If you, the FCC, allows this, then there's the answer to that question. David Moore, Arab, Ala.

—David Moore, Arab, AL

Bro! WTF

—Manjeet Singh, Elk Grove, CA

This is already very close to authoritarian rule pushing propoganda through its state owned media. Nothing Trump does is normal and we need to stop normalizing it in the media. There is no way any sane objective person can say there is anything but a conservative bias in today's media with everyone tip toeing around Trump's delicate little fee-fees. He can incite violence and everyone turns a blind eye but if one person criticizes him, how uncivil, how rude, how gasp Liberal! How dare open minded, kind, educated people criticize Nazi like behavior by our President and the Republican leadership. Sinclair to the rescue to reframe abhorrent behavior as not Trump's fault when that's a blatant lie. Stop the lies. Stop the propaganda. Stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger. They already have too much influence.

—Krista Owens, Middlebury, CT

No ONE viewpoint reflects that of the entire people of this country. It never will. Forcing the opinions and rhetoric of one side down the throats of more than 70% of Americans with no check to fact or accuracy is fascism. This cannot stand. Reject this merger. Do your job.

corporate political comment should not be added to the nightly news which is normally presented as politically neutral.

—Richard Kolber, Vancouver, WA

If stations & their news departments are not allowed to speak truthfully & independently, to serve the public, perhaps they should not have access to public bandwidth. INSIST that Sinclair back off station newscasters & reporters.

—Michael Gnat, Brooklyn, NY

Killing free press = killing democracy. Please don't allow this merger.

—Rev. Mindy M. Yanish, Katonah, NY

We already have FOX News — and Hannity, for God's sakes. We don't need any more propaganda lies disguised as "news." America deserves a real Free Press, not this crap!!!

—Lynn Starner, Vacaville, CA

We are not a nation where a corrupt government dictates television programming and content and opinions.

—Blase J Gallo, Boston, MA

Sinclair and Fox are the same Republican brand. Distortion and lies.

—Lee A Robinson, El Dorado Hills, CA

Nationally managed local news is not local; local news is in the public interest -- therefore, no Sinclair-Tribune merger. thank you-

Stop broadcast monopolies!
—Terry Bitzel, Anton, CO

The USA deserves better than a unified State propaganda machine that this merger would create.

—William Swatos, Palm Desert, CA

1984 is coming just a bit late!
—Richard Marcley, Albany, NY

Your disgusting efforts to allow corporate and plutocratic rule in this country are leading us down a dangerous path that leads to either a dictatorial kleptocracy and/or a violent revolution. These are both unacceptable outcomes!! Stop this media consolidation, where we only here the voice of the haters, the con artists and the thieves and stop the hateful propaganda that is tearing America apart!
—Robert Pound, Concord, CA

Truth rather than "scripted" falseness THANKS
—Forrest Green, Asheville, NC

The Sinclair-Tribune merger should not be approved. One of the things that makes America the great country it is is that all kinds of views have a place on the public airwaves. If Sinclair is allowed to combine with Tribune Media, they will continue the practice of forcing TV stations to broadcast their racist point of view on various issues and disguise it as local news. This is wrong. A corporate monopoly should not control or influence our way of thinking or looking at important issues and concerns that effect our lives. Please reject this merger. Approving it will be a direct insult to the freedoms we cherish and democracy in general.
—Lawrence Stoler, Stamford, CT

Orwell was prescient in his novel, "1984." Just give us unbiased news, not propaganda.

This is not news...it is propaganda! Enough!

—Susan Mackenzie, Grants Pass, OR

The nation needs independent new reporting. It was important enough for the founding fathers and it is more important now. Enough "State" media. No more consolidation. In fact these mergers should be treated as Anti trust cases.

—Fred Monick, Chicago, IL

Yeah, Ajit, I know you're a Trump tool but you might as well do some good things before you both go to prison for life.

—Steve Cain, Aurora, IL

This is not really news, it is entertainment—that is, if you enjoy seeing little children cry when separated from their parents.

—Shirley Withers, Borrego Springs, CA

Local news should be just that--LOCAL. What I hear in San Antonio should be reported on by people who live down here, and what I hear when I'm visiting my rural Northwestern Wisconsin hometown and watching Twin Cities TV should be coming from people based out of the Minneapolis-St. Paul area. Even national news is going to affect different parts of the country differently, and the news NEEDS to reflect those differences in my opinion.

—Elizabeth Evenson, San Antonio, TX

Freedom of speech means freedom from 24/7/365 propaganda. The Normal Rockwell image of a lone citizen with an independent voice making a speech from atop a soapbox in the town square is quaint but inevitably negated when all broadcast stations in the nation blare the same one-sided propaganda script pushed into every corner by corporations with a political agenda.

—J B. Wilson, San Francisco, CA

Sinclair is a monopoly that threatens the free press by delivering propaganda instead of news.

—Michael Janover, Eugene, OR

As a former broadcaster who followed the old fairness guidelines of the old FCC, as well as the guidelines of the NAB, I am disgusted by today's lack of regulation and the encouragement of sheer propaganda. In my view it is this right wing extremist propaganda, which actually is the original "fake news", that has contributed the most to the sorry, divided state of our country today! Stop the exclusive monopolistic voice of these conglomerates before it's too late!

—LH Davis, Newberry, SC

NO monopolization of the public airwaves!!

—James Jacobson, Eugene, OR

Please do your damn job!

—Mr. Erwin Earnest, Bluefield, VA

Local news should be just that, not opinion pieces that force one point of view.

—Jennifer and Carey Mason, New Britain, CT

Must-air segments that support the current administration's positions sound eerily similar to state-sponsored television. We can do better than this in a democracy.

—Michael V Spoonauer, Mamaroneck, NY

These stations need a label indicating Propaganda coming at the listener!

—Charles R Utt, Dixon, CA

Sounds like Ford's Dearborn Independent: anti-semitic rants distributed for free across the U.S.A., supporting Hitler, fighting Unions, brought down by a Lawyer, Sapiro.

—Robert Clear, Berkeley, CA

Government is supposed to work for the citizens; not the fake news pushers.

—Donna Briggie, Seattle, WA

You are not journalists, just lackeys for the GOP and Trump. You only fool their feebleminded followers!

—Patricia C. Bleha, Carlsbad, CA

This is blatant propaganda. -“If you tell a lie big enough and keep repeating it, people will eventually come to believe it. The lie can be maintained only for such time as the State can shield the people from the political, economic and/or military consequences of the lie. It thus becomes vitally important for the State to use all of its powers to repress dissent, for the truth is the mortal enemy of the lie, and thus by extension, the truth is the greatest enemy of the State.” Joseph Goebbels, Nazi

How does it feel to be a slave? I mean, sure, you collect a paycheck, so maybe indentured servant is more appropriate than slave, but you get the point. You have no actual power. They have the power and you do as you're told. Land of the greed and home of the slaves. Murca!

Nazi propaganda is not allowed in American media. Sinclair's licenses to the nation's airways should all be revoked, immediately. Nazism is anathema to all that is democracy under the Constitutional Republic.

—Richard Morgan, BELLINGHAM, WA

Shame on You! Not buying products from advertisers who allow this to happen. Did you really forget about consumer power? We are watching!

—Loretta Moore, Brentwood, CA

The FCC's inaction on this issue will make your agency complicit in the consequences of this kind of nonsense being allowed on the air.

Monopolized news media is un-American. It's something that is only done in countries ruled by fascists, communists, nazis, and other dictators. Keep America free!

—Clare Deucher, Ashburnham, MA

Net neutrality must be brought back immediately!

—Willoughby Smith jr., Lilburn, GA

Any station that spreads nothing but lies and propaganda from one source is not a "news" station. Any station that forces its "journalists" to spread the same message across the nation is not a "news" station. We have freedom of speech in this country (at least for now), so fine - let them spread their propaganda, but then they should be called and advertise what they are - right-wing, conservative opinions and should not be allowed to call themselves "news".

—Cheryl A Byrd, Albuquerque, NM

The killing of free enterprise. The killing of democracy. The birth of fascism.

—Helmut Zitzwitz, Ponte Vedra Beach, FL

Sinclair is not fit to run any broadcast television station. They should have the same punishment that General Tire (RKO General) had when they were unfit to hold their broadcast licenses in the late 1980s due to the deceptive practices of the company.

—Christopher Hamby, Walkersville, MD

We need increased diversity of opinion, not an attempt to shut down divergent opinions.

—Linda Donnelly, Apex, NC

We need to have trust in our media source, this isn't possible with Sinclair using it as a propaganda tool for Trump and his flock.

What Sinclair is doing is NOT news even though they have disguised it as such. But the American public is being lied to and it is in the FCC's purview to stop it.

—Jeanne Moenk, Chardon, OH

We already have "Trump TV" in Fox News. We do not need more in the form of Sinclair!

—Paul Kitzerow, CALISTOGA, CA

We especially don't need a media conglomerate that doesn't know the difference between editorializing and reporting, as Sinclair doesn't.

—Pam Blake, Freeport, ME

Right now Sinclair even before they have merged is forcing its affiliates to express news in a specific format which easily approaches propaganda. If this is not in violation of any particular rule then at least require these news releases To be labeled that which they are editorial comment by management of the Sinclair system

—Duke Pavliger, Santa Rosa, CA

So much for freedom of the press, media, etc. Eh??

We do not have an Office of Propaganda. Sinclair would be it if we let them merge with Tribune. We trust our local news. We need information, not propaganda.

—Marsha McCroden, Fairview Park, OH

Do we live in Russia now? China? Will Trump make himself president for life next, with his own propaganda wing to sell it to us all? We are becoming a fascist state, and manipulation of the press, along with threats to truly free press, are a huge warning sign of further erosion of democratic liberties. You are aiding and abetting the demise of American democracy!

—Ms. Kelli Gilbert, Conifer, CO

Let's have another go at having a country before we turn it over to the corporations. They are unfit to govern, as are all 3 branches of government at the moment. Do your job. Stop this takeover by evil. I love our constitution. Too bad you can't read it.

Stopping this merger is of the utmost importance!

—Judith A Conoyer Ph.D., University City, MO

We can't have a Democracy when heavily funded interests make a habit of spreading lies to their listeners.

—Susan Spengler, Palatine, IL

Sinclair's policy is not in any way in the public interest.

—Jeff Granger, Chicago, IL

We need independence in our news and this will attack that independence in the worst way. Sinclair should not be allowed to have any further control; instead, their influence should be reduced to no more than 15% of the population of this country. They are a scourge on this country as is!

—Curt Frederick, Cedar, MN

The USA is NOT a third world country run by a dictator - although we do have a wanna be dictator. STOP this propaganda

—Penni McDaniel, Ellijay, GA

We depend on you to keep the free press alive and well! Please take action and stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger.

—Joan Harless, Columbus, OH

Forcing propaganda on to the free press is the first step towards fascism.

—Lynn Cascio, Huntington, NY

Do your job and protect the public interest. Monolithic media at best stifles intelligent discourse by limiting the voices involved. When it's Sinclair it's nothing more than partisan propaganda, presenting lies as "news".

—Carolynn Ruth, Sherman Oaks, CA

Truth Matters.

—Marcia Braun, Miami, FL

How long will you let this shameless propaganda spread? You are on the wrong side of history if you do not act now to reject the Sinclair-Tribune merger.

—Claude Guillemard, Timonium, MD

We are becoming like the countries Trump admires - NK, Russia, Phillipines, - with his pushing for State TV, State News. All Trump, all the time.

—Greg Nelson, Gallipolis, OH

Trump Media, Propaganda, is EXTREMELY FRIGHTENING! This needs to stop!

—Linda Szwedo, New Hope, PA

Free press includes broadcast tv. Local stations and journalists need to be free to broadcast the truth based on facts not politics. Stop Sinclair from total control of the news.

State news , an authoritarian control of the media

The consolidation of media hurts consumers, limits the voices of people, and drown out issues of local concern. Additionally, inserting the bias that Sinclair does into it's broadcasts is harmful to our democracy.

—Birdi Batastini, Redondo Beach, CA

Democracy must have local newspapers inexpensive enough for the majority to subscribe. As is the behemoths with thirty or forty papers go in, fire reporters to the extent they can no longer afford to give coverage to local and state issues. That is the beginning of the end. I speak as a DENVER POST subscriber. The hedge fund that bought then fired 30 reorders,

No owning company should be allowed to require a written statement be read to the audience without their right to rebuttal.

—Carol Truitt, Fort Worth, TX

The kind of fear-mongering, xenophobic, hive-minded propaganda and rhetoric that the Trump administration is actively promoting and aims to forcibly shove down the throats of the public via the Sinclair-Tribune merger is unacceptable. This will do nothing but further divide us and take away from the voices of the oppressed, of the unheard, of those who already feel powerless, forgotten, and stepped on. Minority only in name, the oppressed include families, mothers, fathers, children, people just like us. Human beings that we can not and must not dehumanize. This must stop. The kind of message that Trump TV seeks to push has no place on our televisions, in our homes, or in any mainstream or local media. It is hurtful. It is hateful. And I firmly believe that it is further weakening us as a nation, tearing us apart and turning us against each other. This kind of message should least of all be coming from our nation's highest office, as a result of ignorance, fear, lack of knowledge and self-interest. Set aside the corporate interest. Think on an individual scale, on a human scale. Our beauty is in our diversity, our acceptance, and the American dream that anyone can build a life here and live a peaceful, safe, and worthwhile existence. That is the America we all deserve. We are a country of immigrants, and united we stand. Reject the Sinclair-Tribune merger and reject Trump TV's message of hatred, division, and discrimination.

—Michael Shea, Vancouver, WA

Monopoly control of the airwaves is totally wrong. We need net neutrality & a broad range of reporting, opinion, & news, not propaganda.

—Holly G Cohen, Brewster, NY

When net neutrality is repealed and there is no limit on Media ownership by a handful then the voices of the poor, weak, the minorities, those more diverse than the mainstream will not be heard. We inch ever closer to a totalitarian government. We know the dangers of totalitarianism from history stop the FCC from sending us back to those dark days. America is about freedom and the worth of each person please stop the few from grinding the many into the dirt.

—Elizabeth, Neosho, MO

—Dala Lucas, Glenview, IL

"If Adolf had his own broadcasting outfit (and what a really, really Great Guy!), then "The Don" ought to be able to Make America Germany Again..."

—John David Oakes, Scott Township, PA

Sinclair Media media consolidation and propaganda is extremely dangerous to our democracy. They are using their platform to help an autocratic oligarch continue inhumane policies that are anathema to our democracy. Have you seen the messaging that they are making all of their news stations regurgitate?

—Holly Mosher, Santa Monica, CA

This will be one of the biggest mistakes the FCC ever makes in its history. I am from a generation that has the ability to get their media from a variety of sources. This merger will not work, their attempts to deceive us are fruitless. This cannot stand. The world is laughing at us because if this merger goes through, democracy has died.

—Lisa Espinosa, San Diego, CA

This is supposed to be a country with a free press-not a Corporate dictatorship. This is treason against our country and its people

—Jeanne G Stancil, Raleigh, NC

Take action and start the steps required to avoid the violence being sought by the Trump's administration and the rabidly stupid who support him. Each time you fail to act the world gets darker and more likely to descend into ignorance and cruelty.

—Paul Boros, Port Hueneme, CA

Smash the tv

—Riley Zamora, Sacramento, CA

With Sinclair Broadcast Group, we can have the same government controlled information and programming as the Russians, China or North Korea. Go America. Be Great.

—Linda Sparks, Lakewood, CO

It is two days before the Fourth of July, when we celebrate the foundation of American liberty. We in the US don't have Soviet-style propaganda imposed by the state; however we now suffer from an equally pernicious privatized version, where Sinclair scripts the views purveyed by its radio stations that local viewers think — wrongly — are "independent." Such shameful behavior is a crime against freedom of thought in a free country, and should be against FCC rules.

—Jeffrey B Spurr, Cambridge, MA

The people deserve the news in a fair and balanced way. We also deserve to hear the truth, not state sponsored or privately owned stations who keep repeating over and over (mind control much ?) lies, half-truth, propaganda, spin, etc. A great Reporter or Journalist asks the important questions regarding important issues and doesn't censor or lie about what should be a fact check on governmental power. Thank you for reading my opinion.

—Sherrie Pizzo, Elmira, NY

I have been boycotting Sinclair stations for awhile

—Alice Cottrell, burnsville, NC

If there is not a law preventing politicians from owning radio and TV stations there should be!. Stop your blatant, racist lies.

—Kathryn Zimmerman, Fort Oglethorpe, GA

Stop Sinclair now! Bring real news back to local stations, and allow healthy competition amongst reliable news sources, instead of the Sinclair corporate line. Stop the Sinclair fakery and forgery.

—Bud Miller, Dripping Springs, TX

Sinclair Broadcast Group is becoming a monopoly of propaganda for the extreme right and is broadcasting "fake news" as real truth. It is time to assert our free press rights. Please stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger. It is bad for democracy.

—Mark Gordon, Santa Fe, NM

When reporters are forced to spout the "party line" there is no free press. Without a truly free press, there can be no democracy. I will not watch any Sinclair station as long as this is happening and will encourage others to do the same.

—Caroline Hair, Columbia, SC

The sun is setting on American democracy. R.I.P. It was a good run.

—Gary Alderette, Santa Rosa, CA

Let's stop Donald Trump and stop Sinclair

—Gavin Godbey, Carrollton, TX

Sinclair's actions are complete B.S. Stop their ability to spread lies that are cast as the truth. Reject their attempted merger with Tribune Media

—John Drevicky, Farmers Branch, TX

We trust our local Salt Lake anchors and news reporters. FCC members, please direct Sinclair to cease bullying and extorting its local television station employees. Remind Sinclair principals they do not own the broadcast spectrum freely allocated them by the FCC with an obligation to operate in the public interest. We the public own the air waves. FCC members, it's your fiduciary responsibility to insist Sinclair cease the draconian on-air demands of its owned and operated television stations nationwide to air politically biased and hateful messages in support of deceitful presidential policies.

—Tim Larson, Salt Lake City, UT

I am 87 years old and have seen many changes in my lifetime. Now, we are heading towards a dictatorship with one-sided political messages masquerading as news. Please do not let this happen.

—Bernice Duhl, Antioch, CA

This is not news its propaganda, please STOP this!

—Tlaloc Tokuda, Kailua Kona, HI

Sinclair is violating all principles of a free press by serving as an unmitigated propaganda arm of Trump and the Republican party. This is not journalism, or news, and this cannot stand.

—Giana Gelsey, Madbury, NH

Sinclair is using authoritarian state tactics to make it compulsory that all of its stations broadcast identical propaganda appear to be "news." In this case they are justifying forcibly taking children, toddlers and babies away from parents who are seeking protection via asylum from known perils in their home countries and placing them in cages all around our country, some of them thousands of miles away from their parents and with little planning in a way for reunifying these fellow human beings. I agree with those who say that our country is committing crimes against humanity. Sinclair is misusing its first amendment right of freedom of the press.

—Gordon Osterhoff, Muncie, IN

When people stop worshipping the rich and worthless, perhaps they might see the trap that has been laid for them. Due diligence WAS NOT performed when the king of vile rhetoric performed at his worst. Hopefully, some might wake up and put a stop to this nonsense.

—John Thurber, Tacoma, WA

Sinclair is an affront to everything we hold sacred; its amoral, unethical, paranoid, hate-filled agenda is being spread like a rage virus to normally civil, truth-respecting broadcasting stations. It should be banned from any mergers that allow them to further spread their ignorance embracing diatribe. They are a threat to the body politic, a clear and present danger to all who embrace truth, our Constitution and the word of Christ.

—Lewis Bottomly, Glendale, AZ

FCC - reject the Sinclair-Tribune merger and get back to the business of serving people. You work for the people, not the corporate likes of Sinclair.

—Mary Lynn Shirshac, Madison, WI

Sinclair should have it's license pulled. They are acting like a state media outlet. Despite Trump, this isn't Russia... yet.

—Dave Mount, Saint Louis, MO

Fascists - that is what Sinclair & it's FCC allies are - always use the BIG LIE technique to create fear and loathing among their core (the ignorant and white supremacists) to fire-them-up and encourage them to go after the effete elites who they indoctrinated to believe it was the liberals who were responsible for their downfall from good paying jobs that had enabled them to provide their families a middle class life. For them it was the immigrants who the Democrats allowed to illegally come across the borders that led to their downfall. Of course the truant then give their jobs to these immigrants who were willing to work for far lower wages; of course this eventually led to undermining

—Richard Smith, Highlands Ranch, CO

You are supposed to work in the public interest, convenience and necessity.

—Edh Stanley, Sacramento, CA

The Fascist pussygrabbing racist has no right to force his agenda on us!!!

—Neil D. Hunt, West Hollywood, CA

Trump has and is doing more damage to America and our democracy that we can handle and we can't allow Sinclair to spread his vitreal and hate along with lies.

—Samuel Croft, Washington, DC

This is not what a democracy is about -- we need a free press!!!!

—Marilyn Parsons, Urbana, IL

I no longer watch my local news. Shame on Sinclair for spoiling it. Why did you let them get away with this? Stop them!

—Norine Duncan, Pawtucket, RI

Protect the American people

—David P Long III, croydon, PA

A free and unbiased press is critical for democracy to flourish. The first thing a dictator does is seize control of the press and turn it into a propaganda machine. We must not go down that road!

—Shanti Fader Whitesides, Hartford, CT

We have an Oligarchy Mafia style organized crime government, ruled by the corporations and the Billionaires. Trump is using Sinclair media to broadcast lies, Propaganda, and disinformation. The FCC is part of the Trump crime family, the FCC is destroying internet freedom, by destroying net neutrality, and will do whatever Trump wants them to do, they are his lap Dogs.

—Michael MacPherson, Milbridge, ME

THE TRUMP GOP IS MAKING ME ASHAMED TO BE A REPUBLICAN!

—Paul Mayer, Livingston, TX

Propaganda is not news and ever has been!!

—Kitsy McNulty, Pittsburgh, PA

—Ann Gehring, Plantation, FL

Sinclair makes us one step closer to state run TV. Stop this abomination

—Mary Margaret Murphy, Spokane, WA

Sinclair, proud to outshine Pravda

—Robert W. McAdoo Jr, Port Richey, FL

Paraphrasing G.W.Bush: a free press is absolutely essential to a democratic government. Sinclair will essentially become the propaganda arm of D Trump. Essentially moving us closer to a dictatorship

—Annette buranosky, Prestp, PA

WHERE ARE WE?! this is NOT ok!

—A Shouse, Ithaca, NY

Sinclair is UnAmerican. To promote lies and propaganda just like what they do in Russia, What kind of America do these traitors want?

—Diane White, Athens, GA

This is not Germany, and trump is not Hitler. This attack on Democracy needs to end now.

—Mandy, Bloomfield, NY

Act like Americans, not tRump repuglinazis.

—Mike McCampbell, Pgh., PA

We need more diverse media ownership. This shows what happens when a media owner has too much power and too many stations.

—Teresa Priem, Northridge, CA

SStop allowing "party run news". It is outrageous that a rich man can buy a news networks and dictate what and how to report what he calls "news"! End Media Monopolistic consolidations!! Bring back and Enforce the Fairness Doctrine!!

—Paul Abraham, Bangor, WI

the news should not be scripted to promote an owners agenda politically.....an informed public is the back bone of our democracy

—Eben Ross, Hamden, CT

Why does the FCC hate the cornerstone of democracy? Enough of this divisive, party-pandering bullshit.

—Brendan, Portland, OR

Let's stop this Nazi like move now!

—Lynda Horn, Waukesha, WI

Oligarch control of our once free media is killing our democracy...only Congress can stop the Putinizatvon of America. Do your sworn duty to protect and defend our Constitution.

—Jeffrey J Stewart, Igo, CA

Unamericanour Democratic Country need to be protected, not undermined with cheap voices....!!

—Sue M. Berggren, Dul., MN

Do you follow our American values or Putin's values. Prove it!

—Patricia & Daniel Driscoll-Shaw, Huntley, IL

This is how the Nazis pushed their propaganda. Have we really fallen this far?

—Ann McGarry, Rye, NY

What's the definition of a monopoly? No agency should be able to manipulate the populus disguised as truth. Where's accountability gone? Our founding fathers must be really proud of the country we've become.....

—Thomas Dee, Wheaton, IL

Encourage and support investigative reporting that seeks the TRUTH.

—Barbara Paeth Paeth-Haas, Durango, CO

These propaganda news organization got the creature form the Fox Lagoon elected, divided our country and encourage politicians like Mitch McConnell to run this country like a dictator who thinks everyone should abide by his beliefs and only his beliefs.

—Cindy Durrwachter, Saint Peters, MO

1930's history is repeating itself.

—Donia Connell, Anthony, FL

A free press is Absolutely essential to the survival of democracy. To allow Sinclair to monopolize our airways is to give them permission to destroy our country! don't do it!

—K J Stevenson, Oracle, AZ

We want fair and balanced journalism! Stop this propaganda attack, now!

—Darryl Gibson, Spring Lake, MI

Brain-washing, mind-fucking asswipes need to be dealt with...

—Darren Catalanotto, Marrero, LA

Stop it now.

—Jeanne Shaw, Denver, CO

A free press is one of the most important tenets of our Constitution and of our democracy.

—Jaima Roberts, Berkeley, CA

Keep the free press free.

—David Oreol, Pueblo West, CO

This is truly disgusting and a clear prelude to enslavement of our minds.

—Mr. Stuart M. Chandler, Los Angeles, CA

SICKENING!!!

—Janet Fraidstern, Brooklyn, NY

Just report FACTS!!

—Nancy Kovach, Stow, OH

I go to the news for information.as should be the case in America--Not for propaganda...bad enough that our information is censored, which is why I also go to sources out side of u.s.a. for my information...stop this facist behaviour of "news" distribution

—Sharyn Wisdom, Mesquite, TX

We already receive this slanted news during local newscast. This is destroying America, please put a stop to it.

—Michael Parker, Iowa City, IA

We need a free and independent press not something programmed by the Trump administration.

—Nadra McClain, Hawthorne, CA

Sinclair has it wrong & I know longer watch our local stations that are owned by this corporate hate monger; in fact I don't have any respect for our local anchor people for not walking away from these statements but suspect they are waiting for contracts because they also have bills to pay!

—Laura Esparza, SAN ANTONIO, TX

Propaganda should not be allowed on the news....

—Tina L Mizhir, Port Chester, NY

Stop the propaganda

—Suzanne, Waterbury, CT

The real fake news.

—Jennifer Lorenz, Bothell, WA

Stop this fascist propaganda now. It has no place in a decent society.

—Ivy Rose Nightscales, Seattle, WA

The free press is an essential component of our democratic system. That it is being attacked by our present administration is very alarming.

—Susan Singh, Tulsa, OK

most important issue. stop state run tv. this is fascism!

—Liz Agnello, hendersonville, NC

This is not a news station.

—Diana Crispi, Los Angeles, CA

Please support alternative voices like RT News as well while you are disparaging Sinclair.

—Adam Davis, Lansdowne, PA

I thought television stations were supposed to be "Owned And Operated In The Public Interest". Not so with Sinclair. They aren't even interested in the truth.

—Carl A. Seibert, Costa Mesa, CA

This has been outrageous. Is it now the FCC's job to enforce government propaganda? What country is this, again?

—Barbara Labinger, San Francisco, CA

Truth... the factual account of events. Partial truth is a lie. Exaggerated truth is a lie. There can be no alteration to make it less horrible. We learn from the ugly truth to make our future choices better. Embrace the truth for all it is.

—Racheal Terel, Ballston Spa, NY

LET HIM TELL HIS OWN LIES AND EVENTUALLY ANSWER FOR THEM!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! !!

—Cindy Janac, Sevierville, TN

If there is one thing we don't need, that is a monopoly on news networks. We need independent and free media sources not beholden to corporate interests.

—Evan Banks, Atlanta, GA

FCC Please do something fast to stop giving D. Trump the power he wants to destroy the FCC and all other forms of television news that disagrees with him.

—Sheila Dabiri, Stillwater, MN

The media should be a guiding light for it's communities, not a machine to control the thoughts of the populace.

—Jeremiah Jensen, Mason, OH

Journalists are not enemies of the state and should not be called this...we need to know what is happening and not just from Fox News point of view...

—Annie Welch, Bellingham, WA

Continuation of the media merger mania is detrimental to this Nation - elimination of independent media ill leave the nation with ONE CORPORATE VOICE -- A THREAT TO DEMOCRACY!

—Michael Blundell, Dallas, GA

The FCC has fallen asleep at the wheel OR they have turned coward.

—Richard F. Mcgrain Jr., Charlottesville, VA

All I can say is evaluate your values and if truth is one of them, think about what serves the people with honor.

—Nancy Haines, Albuquerque, NM

I'm a now-retired veteran of two newspapers and one television news operation -- all competitors -- and I prize genuine competition to prompt more thorough newsgathering from a variety of perspectives

—Don O. Noel Jr., Bloomfield, CT

Truly local news and opinion makes our communities strong. There is no place in our USA for corporate powers to inflict their opinions on local broadcasters nationwide. That is treasonous to our federalist traditions.

—Beth Tamminen, Duluth, MN

Why would the FCC ever allow such a merger? The spread of propaganda to over 70 percent of American households disguised as news by an organization that forces local channels to broadcast lies is a sad state of the Union, indeed! The FCC is supposed to support the good of the citizens, not corporations!

—Rebecca Hogle, Tucson, AZ

There is fake news and then there is forced news. Pathetic!

—William Holmes, Enon, OH

Sinclair and Fox, bastions of the true "fake-news" epidemic. Put a stop to it!

—Richard England, Beaverton, OR

FCC, you have a task to protect the public airwaves. We don't need and do not want one voice speaking at all channels. Have this nonsense stopped. It sounds idiotic.

—Ms. Anne del Prado, Freeport, TX

This is a no-brainer !

—Don McKelvey, Euclid, OH

Stop silencing independent voices.

—Karen J. Duby, bradley, CA

This is way too much control of the airwaves by one company! This merger needs to be stopped! Why are all the rules being broken with this ownership? No one company can own this much television percentage and this needs to be stopped now!

—Mary G Smith, GRAPEVIEW, WA

Donal Trump is a liar an very evil- his propaganda must be stopped. ASAP

—Jacqueline J. Cleveland, Columbia, IL

Please stop this insanity- be on the right side of history

—Catherine McClenahan, Topanga, CA

ugly, ugly propaganda.

—Michael Cahill, Grand Rapids, MI

It is astounding that Americans are so willing to give up their free press for one that resembles Nazi Germany, Soviet Russia, Hussein's Iraq, Mussolini's Italy...

—Kathleen Rueppel, Mc Kees Rocks, PA

Please keep news reporting honest and unbiased!

—John Boyd, Huntsville, TX

We do not want Pravda in the United States of America

—Dennis DeFoer, Bellingham, WA

Please stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger.

—William Westermann, Fort Worth, TX

Democracy suffocates under right wing corporate censorship of the news.

—Napita Nanette Ippolito, Ashland, VA

We need nationwide independent media voices -- not monopolies!

—John Kavalunas, Elgin, IL

We already have one Sinclair TV station in our area-we don't need more...

—Susan Delles, rogue river, OR

Please curb the propaganda.

—John Ephland, Kalamazoo, MI

One, or nearly only one voice giving us the news fits the definition of propaganda . Since when do we live in Russia?

—Rikardo Jahnke, Gays Mills, WI

Stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger and restore our faith in your commitment to the public interest, NOW!!!

—John D Smith, NY, NY

The dangers of corporate conglomeration of media are already well understood. Conglomeration only benefits the business stakeholders to make excessive profits. Conglomeration stifles local 1st amendment reporting. Further, such conglomeration promoting narrow shaky unconstitutional messaging from a national executive leadership that impinges on the freedom of all USA citizens and the guests in our country.

—Stephen Medaris Bull, Greenport, NY

Journalists free voice important!

—Christine s. Peters, Presto, PA

Sinclair's acquisitions will favor one sided reporting, and perhaps lead to a state influenced and controlled media. America values equal access to content, stop consolidations.

—Elaine Parsons, Ashland, OR

Free the internet

—Gary Hartwig, Mansfield, OH

Equal time for lies?

—Dana Westover, Somerville, MA

So far, the FCC has not demonstrated that it has the greater good at heart. But this is an opportunity for you to change that perception. Doesn't the Constitution prevent this sort of manipulation of the press/media?

—Dr R A Fuller, Woodbury, MN

Stop State-run propaganda, i.e. lies to the American people.

—Janis Barns, Jacksonville, FL

Free press is a constitutional right. Stop this Trump Sinclair bullshit. I want to hear real news and not Trump's fake news.

—Lucas Suarez Field, New York, NY

Our representative democracy cannot survive unless the diversity of its people's voices can be heard. This takeover of our media, especially our news media, is a dangerous move away from our ideals of liberty and justice for all.

—Gloria Polites, Hudson, NH

ALL VOICES should be heard, not just the ones Trump owns, right? THIS IS AMERICA, land of the free and the brave...so back off ...FCC please defend our rights to ALL news!!

—Sandra Castro-Nguyen, Kalispell, MT

The government and the Free Press should remain distinct.

—Dawn Turner, elkton, MD

Our democracy only functions when news is independent and truthful about its content, resources and authors.

—Benjamin Harris, Santa Rosa, CA

Is there anyone left in the FCC who still believes in the freedom of the press? Even communities in our states can no longer receive their OWN LOCAL NEWS! Governors are having to respond. We do live in a democracy - but it requires our attention and action, or money will speak literally louder than words - ie, free speech.

—Janis Swalwell, Freeland, WA

I hope in the future that we don't see a few large corporations controlling all of media. It is very disturbing that Sinclair tells its news media outlets what to say!

—Carol, Tucson, AZ

Dictatorial news is unamerican

—Ron Weagley, Downingtown, PA

Right-wing media outlets such as Sinclair have become nothing more than a mouthpiece for the Trump administration. Media consolidation such as the Sinclair merger only serves to reduce the diversity of voices that Americans will be able to hear.

—Richard Moore, Irvine, CA

By accepting the bid for this merger the US is getting even further away from a level playing field between those who have and those who do not.

—Jill Walsh, Woodridge, IL

Preserve OUR democracy while we still can!!!

—Deborah Crocker, Spring Park, MN

You have a job FCC and it is not working for TRUMP, your work should be keeping the media in all its forms, supporting the people of the US, not the few. Sinclair is unwelcome and we are not a Dictatorship - no State TV, which this clearly is. We are watching and will hold the FCC accountable.

—Brenda Boudinot, Painesville, OH

I am so tired of vested interest political propaganda masquerading as local news. Please maintain an independent fourth estate! P.S. I am a real person, NOT a "bot" who is submitting this message, just like I did in support of net neutrality. Please listen this time.

—Jennifer McKnight-Lupes, Blair, WI

The free press is a cornerstone of successful democracy.

—Rebekah Carmichael, New York, NY

As a former small-town journalist, I can attest to the vital need for this country to continue to have independent news media, free from the control of Sinclair or any other monopoly that dictates what we hear, see, or read.
