

Please leave the internet and the regulation thereof in it's current state. Continuing to try to pass this unfair regulation of this type of action not only wastes taxpayer money but it shows how much you are in the pockets of big business who is the only entity to gain anything from the passage of the bill. I thought the first time we told you know you listened but it is becoming more and more obvious that the peoples voice no longer matters. KEEP NET NEUTRALITY!