

I'm writing to support the preservation of net neutrality as it stands. Its my belief that if this country is going to say we believe in the right to freedom and take all manner of action to preserve that right then, we must stay the course and take action to preserve this very fundamental right of fair access to the greatest equalizer of our time.

Joyy Norris

Evanston, IL

Sunday, July 16th, 2017