

I oppose this merger because it will reduce competition and give a major advantage to this merged company, by creating, essentially, a monopoly; which is exactly what customers and consumers DO NOT want. I encourage the FCC to see what is best for the consumer; not what is best for these two companies. If they are allowed to merge, one or both of the other competing companies will not be able to compete with this new mega phone company.