Re: WC Docket Nos. 10-90, 96-45, 16-405 and 09-133

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On July 26, 2017, the undersigned counsel to Pacific Network Holdings, LLC ("PNH"), together with the three founding principals of PNH – Robert J. Maloney, Kenton Eldridge and Albert H. Pleus – met with Lisa Hone, Associate Bureau Chief of the Wireline Competition Bureau, Rebekah Douglas and Gilbert Smith of the Wireline Competition Bureau, Deputy General Counsel Michele Ellison, Sally Stone, Neil Dellar and (by telephone) Jim Bird of the Office of General Counsel, Ryan Palmer, Division Chief of the Telecommunications Access and Policy Division of the Wireline Competition Bureau, to discuss ongoing Commission proceedings involving Sandwich Isles Communications, Inc. ("SIC") in the above-captioned dockets.

The topics of the discussion included (a) the Commission's recent Memorandum Opinion and Order, FCC 17-85, released July 3, 2017, preempting the exclusivity provisions of the telecommunications license of SIC holding issued by the State of Hawaii, Department of Hawaiian Home Lands; (b) the potential impact of that ruling on potential competitors to SIC; (c) the Commission's pending proceeding in WC Docket No. 10-90 as to whether the Commission should terminate the 2005 study area boundary waiver granted to SIC to be treated as an incumbent local exchange carrier service the Hawaiian Home Lands for purposes of receiving high-cost universal service support; (d) the potential impact of a ruling in that proceeding on potential competitors to SIC; (e) the ongoing investigation of the Universal Service Administrative Company ("USAC") concerning SIC's receipt of universal service fund support; (f) the potential impact of that ruling in that proceeding on potential competitors to SIC; (g) the Commission's ongoing investigation into whether it should revoke the FCC authorizations held by SIC; and (h) the potential impact of a ruling in that proceeding on potential competitors to SIC.
