Re: Consolidated Applications of XO Holdings and Verizon Communications Inc. for Consent to Transfer Control of Licenses and Authorizations, WC Docket No. 16-70

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Verizon Communications Inc. (“Verizon”) submits this further response to the Wireline Competition Bureau’s (“WCB”) Information and Document Request dated June 22, 2016 in connection with the above-referenced transaction and in accordance with the Protective Order in this docket.¹ Enclosed please find a CD containing additional data responsive to Request 12 in Exhibit 12-2.

Because Exhibit 12-2 contains information that meets the requirements for treatment as “Highly Confidential,”² Verizon is filing the exhibit pursuant to the procedures established in the Protective Order and in the Information Request. Verizon will also file a copy of this cover letter, bearing the appropriate confidentiality legend, in the FCC’s Electronic Comment Filing System.

Verizon has made diligent efforts to ensure that none of the material it is submitting herewith is privileged under the attorney-client privilege or attorney work product doctrine. To the extent that any privileged materials may have been inadvertently produced, such production does not constitute a waiver of any applicable privilege. Verizon requests that any privileged materials inadvertently produced be returned to Verizon as soon as such inadvertent production is discovered by any party, and reserves all rights to seek return of any such documents.

If you have any questions arise concerning this submission, please contact me.

Very truly yours,
