Re: Notice of Ex Parte Presentation, CG Docket No. 03-123

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Pursuant to Section 1.1206 of the Federal Communications Commission's ("FCC" or "Commission") rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206, Clarity Products, LLC ("Clarity"), by its attorneys, hereby submits this letter summarizing five ex parte meetings in the above-referenced docket.

On August 5, 2019, Clarity's Beryl Bucher and Clarity's counsel, Scott Delacourt, met with Michael Carowitz, Office of Chairman Ajit Pai. On August 7, 2019, Beryl Bucher and Scott Delacourt met separately with each of the following individuals:

- Arielle Roth, Office of Commissioner O'Rielly;
- Michael Scurato, Office of Commissioner Starks;
- Joseph Calascione, Office of Commissioner Carr; and
- Travis Litman, Office of Commissioner Rosenworcel.

The substance of each meeting was identical. Clarity reviewed its history of serving the deaf and hard-of-hearing community and producing amplified phones. Clarity also discussed its innovative Automated Speech Recognition ("ASR") product, describing how it works and the various use cases it supports. This discussion was followed by an explanation the benefits of ASR over other forms of Internet Protocol Captioned Telephone Service ("IP-TCS"). Clarity provided a brief demonstration of its ASR solution during these meetings.

Finally, Clarity discussed its pending IP-CTS certification application¹ and emphasized the importance of expeditious review to facilitate the distribution of Clarity's innovative ASR product to individuals with hearing disabilities.
