Re: MB Docket No. 17-197, Media Bureau Establishes Pleading Cycle for Applications to Transfer Control of Tribune Media Company to Sinclair Broadcasting Group, Inc. and Permit-But-Disclose Ex Parte Status for the Proceeding

Dear Ms. Dortch,

Enclosed please find the comments of over 16,000 Free Press members telling the Federal Communications Commission to reject the Sinclair-Tribune merger.

The petition reads:

To the Federal Communications Commission:

Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune should never be allowed to merge. If this deal goes through, a single company would own more than 200 local-TV stations reaching more than 70 percent of the country. That's far beyond the legal limits on media ownership and far too much power in the hands of a single company. Sinclair has evaded FCC rules, received FCC fines for airing propaganda, and drawn wide criticism for airing politically slanted content on its stations. The FCC should block this merger and restore policies that encourage a diversity of local media owners and a wide range of viewpoints.

Best,

Candace Clement
Campaign Director
Free Press

I am deeply troubled by the FCC decision to permit the Sinclair Broadcasting Group to take over Tribune Media. St a time of great national and international change and challenge we need a rich, varied media landscape to receive a diverse flow of information. Consolidation of media has not worked and is harming the nation and degrading the public discourse. I expect the FCC to support a broader range of news not a narrower, less inclusive and limited public dialogue.

—Mark L. Taylor, Genoa, WI

Media consolidation is killing American democracy.

—Paul McCarthy, Farmington, MI

This is an outrage!

—Mr. William Payne, Oakland, CA

Monopolies are not representative of a capitalist economy, they indicate state-supported takeover of industry. This is not acceptable in our country.

—Mrs. Laura Dravenstott, Centennial, CO

Enough with the gargantuan conglomerates.

—Martin Saitta, OKC, OK

Please don't rewrite the rules to allow this to happen. It mega-consolidation at its worst. We need a free and independent press!

—Marilyn Parsons, Urbana, IL

We cannot let this happen!!!!

—Linda Matychak, Huntington, NY

Trump Does NOT Deserve to have TV or ANYTHING

—James R Hector, Braidwood, IL

No way

—Kenneth R MacDuffee, Oldsmar, FL

NO! NO! and NO!

—Harriet C. McCleary, Minneapolis, MN

This is wrong and bad news for democracy in the United States. Do not allow this to happen.

—JJ Frankel, Chicago, IL

Time to stop rubber-stamping everything he wants - stand up and say NO!!

—Corrine DiMarco, Orlando, FL

Scandalous. Conflict of Interest.

—Christopher Flett, ,

Outrageous corporate power grab.

—M Langelan, Chevy Chase, MD

Unacceptable.

—Sasha Samuels, Portland, OR propaganda tv? stop this now.

—Debbie Schmidt, Lancaster, CA

Horrible thing! No merger should be allowed.

—Sarah Champlin, Los Angeles, CA

Yep...."waiting for it" all the time now; and the "it" is the constant erosion of democracy under this 'leader'.

—Linda Monroe, BLUE HILL, ME

Is it 2018 yet?

—Gene Burshuliak, ORANGE, CT

Allowing this merger would be stupid and despicable!

—Charlie Bergstedt, San Francisco, CA

NO WAY to this idiocy!!!!

—Carla G. Weil-Martin, Prescott Valley, AZ

This is bad for the over all media, information distribution and capitalism.

—Rebekah Smith, Bessemer, AL

The coup is happening at this very moment!!! WTF!

—Don Faia, Aptos, CA

Stop media consolidation! We need diversity and independent voices. We certainly don't need monopolies on what people can hear and see.

—LJ J Ruede, Fort Worth, TX

Where's the Law???? I say NO! NO! NO! to this!!!!

—P M, Chicago, IL

Help!

—Lilinoe J Smith, KALAHEO, HI

One more step toward dictatorship for Trump. Has everyone forgotten how important a free and equal press is to democracy?

—Nancy O'Hagan, Portland, ME

Just one more horrifying act to undermine our democracy by Don Trump and Swamp Appointees!!

—Lillian Olmsted, Gloucester, MA

All media groups are already to large and need to be broken up not made larger. This merger is criminally irresponsible and therefore needs to be stopped.

—Randall Morris, Yucaipa, CA

Time to invoke antitrust laws and break up this monopoly.

—Peter Veits, Burnsville, MN

Facism begins with the suppression of free speech.

—Michael Sixtus, Santee, CA

We need diverse voices in our media, not the same ones heard everywhere. Stations should reflect the communities they serve, which will not be true if this merger is allowed. Allowing this merger is allowing Sinclair to evade following rules. Do not allow this travesty.

—Sandra J. Carrubba, Buffalo, NY

We need a free and independent press. This merger will cripple that objective.

—Andy Dee, Savage, MN

Please stop this madness!

—Amann Amann, Port Orange, FL

Sinclair is exerting right wing editorial control over KOMO. Do not give them greater market control than they already have.

—James Strichartz, Seattle, WA

there is way too much consolidation in the media sector - number one reason I do not watch or listen to mass media. Big media conglomerates need to be broken up, not encouraged further

—Linda Inness, Philadelphia, TN

Broadcasters are public trustees. Don't forget this.

—Earl Rexrode, Charlottesville, VA

Public airwaves are just that--PUBLIC--and should not be allowed to be taken over by profit-driven private enterprises!

—Carol Dodson, Elgin, SC

We need MORE independent, non- corporate media outlets, not less. No more media mergers- it destroys democracy

—James Tait Elder Jr, Olympia, WA

There needs to be far less media consolidation, not more. But of course, this radical administration knows media manipulation is the only way it was able to come to power.

—Wendy Schmidt, Chicago, IL

Conflicts of interest aside, this should be stopped.

—John E Brennan, Portland, OR

We need more diversity in media, not less.

—Karen Fletcher, Waynesboro, TN

So this is the Trump Gang's quid pro quo to Sinclair for the stellar work they did propagandizing Trump's campaign last year! You damn frauds are so obvious it would embarrass a real nation. Good thing the U.S. isn't one any more.

—Steve Ditore, Seattle, WA

Those guys are all about propaganda. No mergers please. Let's keep objective free press!

—Sanja Futterman, Seattle, WA

There is no way the Sinclair Tribune merger is legitimate. The current FCC rules must never be violated and a merger of this magnitude is not legitimate as it would cover 70% of the country.

—Elmo Dunn, Longwood, FL

Show some backbone and leave the news alone. We don't need to become China.

—Marilyn Ferdinand, Skokie, IL

Today's choice of legitimate news channels is sorely lacking. This would only exacerbate the problem. Please don't allow this nearly illegal act...

—Janet Bautista, University Pl, WA

It's a monopoly.

—Chris Wrinn, Milford, CT

Absolutely terrifying

—Sharon Koogler, Brookline, MA

No, no, no. No more consolidation and outsourcing of local news. This country is being ruined by the lack of voices in reporting - don't add to it by allowing this greedy merger.

—Mark Anders Melin, Seattle, WA

PLEASE DECIDE TO "DO THE RIGHT THING" REGARDING THE FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION!"

—Ernestine P. Mosley, Orlando, FL

This is Crony Capitalism at its worst.

—David K Yates, Toledo, WA

NEVER!!!

—Gordon R Lent, Eugene, OR

You've got to be kidding me. The LAST thing this country needs is more media consolidation. This proposed merger is an obscenity in every sense of the word.

—James Robert Stapp, Reno, NV

Pretender Trump is using his illegitimate installment in the White House SOLELY for self-aggrandizement and self-enrichment. He needs to be removed from office, along with his entire Reich.

—Susan Hathaway, Pico Rivera, CA

This is ILLEGAL! This should not take place. You should NOT change the rules to allow the Sinclair-Tribune merger. Geesh!

—Diane Rosenberg, Fairfield, IA

This is ridiculous! A free and independent press is an essential pillar of our democracy and should not be a monopoly. Our airwaves must be free to all, not serving a few masters. Do the right thing! Everyone knows that Sinclair has a singular viewpoint. Democracy first!

—Carol Sperry, Lancaster, PA

I Oppose and Resist Trump. I will rejoice when he is sent to prison

—Michael Thorne, Eugene, OR

We now live in a dangerous era of propaganda and this merger exacerbates that threat.

—Jennifer Brinley, Encinitas, CA

WHATEVER HAPPENED TO COMPETITION?!

—Peter Curia, Scottsdale, AZ to lose tribune to sinclair would be a real loss for news in major markets

—Armao Terri, arlington, VA

Come on Man. Are you asking for an all out revo?

—Wendy Cano, PASADENA, CA

I'm sick of seeing Trump on TV tell Trump he has bigger things to deal with then television

—Joshua Fredrick Kendall, Leominster, MA

STOP THE SINCLAIR MERGER IN ITS TRACKS!!

—Gina Bates, Apple Creek, OH

Public air ways belong to the public. No private entity should be allowed to control them. . . owning as large a share as Sinclair will kill the "public" in public airways. It's a corporate sell out and a betrayal of the American People. In the Class War that corporations are waging against the American People, allowing the S-T Merger is an Act of Treason. Ajit Pai and Donald Trump are traitors and must be face charges under the Sedition Act and the Espionage. The two more than any other spy-traitor deserve the death penalty. Death to Traitors.

—Dr. Leonardo Leonardo Legorreta, Neponset, IL

Stop the insanity of monopoly!

—Tom Nieland, Alamo, TX

NOt only NO to Sinclair...to tRump as well

—Tom Stark, Colo. Spgs, CO

Do not add this to the list of issues this narcissistic egomaniac is getting away with.

—Beth O'Brien, Auburn, WA

We have enough media consolidation already. What we have should be broken up

—Alan Olson, Randall, MN

This is unamerican.

—Jillian Portelance, Portland, OR

This merger is outrageous. We want more choices, NOT FEWER CHOICES. Do not let this merger go through. Are Think ahead to the future. Are more dollars to a few people at head of merged companies worth the loss of audiences, integrity, and, most of all --- VOTES IN THE 2018.

—Audrey Brownell, Phoenix, AZ

We need to have more independent news on the air.

—Jo Stevenson, Fort Collins, CO

Say no to this merger! Please. This Country should always be about We The People and not We The Corporations! Corporations are not people, they simply lead, ultimately to the destruction of mankind!

—Randall Hughes, Alameda, CA

Are we a country of laws? or a country of Putin-blessed goons? Der Herr Drumpf is the clearest possible answer.

—Clifford Slayman, Hamden, CT

Don't even think about giving Trump a propaganda platform. We're not Nazi Germany circa 1933-1945.

—Archie Henson, Searcy, AR

Stop the insanity!

—Carolyn B Nieland, Alamo, TX

Russia is not our friend. Neo-nazis are not our friend. Right wing propaganda is not our friend.

—Robert Carroll, Austin, TX and to the plutocracy for which you stand...

—Mitchell Diamond, Sunnyvale, CA

Television is toxic enough, and a Sinclair-Tribune merger would only make it much worse.

—Virge, Boone, NC

Monopolies are bad for business and bad for citizens. Stop or we work to find new representatives.

—Tom Fitz, New York, NY

Remember the First Amendment!

—Judy Chapman, Wheeling, IL

Failure to block this merger = failure to do your sworn duty to the People of the USA. Enforce the 1934 Act & prevent this BAD merger.

—Mr. Brett A Greisen, NY, NY

Don't allow this to happen.

—Diane Ramirez, Greenwich, CT

The people need more choices not fewer choices. You should be breaking up the big conglomerates not letting them get bigger.

—Linda Cameron, Richland, WA

I will shut down all tvs in my family if this deal goes thru and put million of workers out of work but hey if you all think 33% of our country can support you all then go for it. I will SHUT IT DOWN

—Lisa Reed, Freeman, MO

We don't need misogynist, racist, xenophobic, classist, hate TV. Already Trump has increased hate crimes with his hate speech. Do not support Russian type propaganda. We have too much of it already.

—Ria Tanz K, El Sobrante, CA

We need MORE diversity and diverse ownership, not less in the media.

—Dee Boyle-Clapp, Amherst, MA

A company that dictates to its local affiliates that they should broadcast "must runs", which contain nothing but misleading and manipulated opinions masquerading as "facts" and which positions itself as Fox's principal competitor in the republican propaganda machine complex should not be allowed anywhere near the Tribune markets.

—ben Lichtin, rochester, NY

Can you say "DOA"?

—Mr. Leo Ss, Atlanta, GA

I thought Republicans were all for the advantages of competition. So let there be competition in the broadcast industry. We do not need a one voice system.

—Anna Graeber, College Park, MD

We need a free and balanced press for our democracy to work, not a monopoly with a very slanted point of view.

—Carol S Royce, Danbury, CT

Very scary implications, indeed!

—Shannon Bauer, Foley, AL

This is not "draining the swamp." This is bringing the swamp to more American homes. When is the FCC going to get a clue, and help to inform and protect the American people, rather than make it easier for big corporations to exploit them? Shame on you!

—Paul McCarthy, Pueblo, CO

NO, NO, NO, NO, a thousand times NO!!

—Kevin Barnard, San Francisco, CA

Trump has far too much access to the media as it is: don't give him carte blanche to shout down any views that don't agree with his.

—JC Honeycutt, Hertford, NC

Sinclair and Tribune should not be allowed to merge. This would create too much power in a single company.

—Lisa Langbein, Plainfield, IL

And Sinclair should lose their licenses for their other stations.

—Eleanor Snyder, Salmon, ID

This merger should not be approved.

—Gerald Lorenz, Salem, OR doubling their market is not preserving competition and variety of voices as required by the law

—J Angell, Rescue, CA

Diverse, independent press voices are necessarily for understanding our country-our neighbors-and for having an informed electorate.

—Robert B Kult, Minneapolis, MN

Stop the Monopolistic Corporate Media Propaganda Machine from getting even bigger!!!!

—Tani Martinat, Richmond, CA resist persist litigate impeach convict remove

—Joe Wolf, Mayfield Heights, OH

Trump doesn't need to allow a huge propaganda machine to be built.

—W C., Louisville, KY

news is supposed to be factual, not spreading more 'alternate facts' or self-promoting propaganda. doesn't this proposed merger create an illegal monopoly?

—Carol L Neill, Overland Park, KS

The FCC needs to stand up for both free press and competition.

—Daniel Ford, Middletown, NJ

This is how democracies are lost to authoritarian regimes. No way will the American people stand for it.

—Greg Collins, Coopersville, MI

Why is this even a consideration??? ALL ABOUT PULL AND MONEY!!!!!!! CORRUPTION IS THE NORM???

—jana Shiloh, s, AZ

With Trump as president, this smacks of state run TV just as they have in Russia!

—Carol Ballou, Bellmont, VT

Please do NOT allow these companies to merge. Monopolies are almost never good for the economy, the country or the people.

—Carol Gilbert Gilbert-Sacks, Charlottesville, VA

Stop this merger!!!!

—Phillip J Crabill, Little Elm, TX

NO NO NO

—L Yaco, San Francisco, CA

This is not a free press type of media.

—George P Post, Richmond, CA monopolies cause war

—Deport Pai, Prescott, AZ

This is gross and must not be allowed. Democracies don't have government propaganda TV.

—Jess Switalska, Tully, NY

STOP ALL THE MERGERS!!!

—Shane A. Morrison, Gosport, IN

This merger is a danger to a free society. This is not acceptable.

—LOIS BERNSTEIN, Glendale, AZ

America says no to merged mega news and tv corps!

—Jon Melberg, Pequot Lakes, MN

No way! This is a fake news provider and rules should not be changed to allow this erosion of Free Press. Meaning no particular party talking points that must be inserted into newscast every hour! They have already paid big fines for their propaganda. No NAZI/Russian influence.

—CR Howell, Albuquerque, NM

We need an educated populace not a bunch of dumbed down sheeple, you must not allow this ridiculous merger

—Jane Dog, Portland, OR

OBVIOUS CONFLICT OF INTEREST.

—karen Shell, Toronto, OH

This merger would take a top-notch Chicago-based operation and sink it to a horrific, biased labyrinth of fake and stupid-ized news. This merger cannot be allowed to proceed!

—Susan Masaracchia-Roberts, Vernon Hills, IL too big .....NO.

—Robert Higgins, portland, OR

We need independent, fact-based reporting...the more sources, the more democracy.

—MF Kite, Mt Pleasant, SC

we're as mad as hell and we're not going to take it anymore!!!

—Mark Johnson, New York, NY

This is not what the people want. Now we will get it armed down our throats.

—Gary Gall, Cambria, CA

What about the mantra of competition? We CANNOT have this kind of consolidation.

—Deborah Hanson, Miles City, MT

The integrity of our news outlets is paramount to a vital and free democracy. The last thing we need is a proliferation of biased news sources. Do not approve this merger.

—Gale Bromelmeier, Willoughby Hills, OH

This merger would be really bad for our democracy.

—Rick Ray, Troutdale, OR

Toward tyranny all the faster w. enlarged Sinclair.

—Bonnie Andrus, Covington, LA

This is scandalous we don't sell our public airwaves please stop this merger.

—Maureen McMeekin, San Francisco, CA diversity = democracy

—Bennett Hoffman, Tallahassee, FL

I am opposed to any kind of media monopoly. We need more independent TV, radio, newspapers, and other media. Otherwise, we are starting to look like Russia.

—Florence Blanchard, Bellevue, ID

The FCC should be ordering divestment into smaller, competitively scaled media companies, not allowing consolidation at oligopolistic and monopolistic levels of market penetration. The Sinclair-Tribune merger is not in the best interests of the American people or the American way of life.

—Robert Jansen, Anaheim, CA

Consolidation of media is a dangerous path that leads toward totalitarianism and away from democracy. It is unacceptable.

—Honora-Bright Aere, Blodgett, OR

This is an outrage!

—ElvaKatheryn Beckel, Indio, CA

It is hard to be even worse than Fox, but Sinclair somehow manages. It should be stopped in its tracks, and its assets auctioned off.

—Andrew Levine, Denton, MD

Monopolies are not a free press

—Linda borowski, Weeki Wachee, FL

Enough media consolidation already! Oppose this merger!

—Donna Boland, San Rafael, CA

Trump doesn't need anymore media clones -- he's got Fox news, which is enough. We need more diversity not more propaganda for one person. Do not permit this merger.

—Bruce Atkins, Homer, NY

The FCC is supposed to serve the PUBLIC -- not Donald Trump!!!

—Zvi Weiss, Edison, NJ

Monopolies are an affront to Democracy. Stop this madness NOW!

—Greg Zyzanski, Lyndhurst, OH

You must be kidding! You see NO CONFLICT OF INTEREST??? I believe Hitler had state-run TV, which is what this is.

—L Osborn, w. linn, OR

Comcast already has monopolistic strangle over hi-speed internet, are we going to do the same with broadcast TV?

—William Chavez, Sacramento, CA

Media concentration is already too great. We need diversity!

—Burt Peterson, Gold River, CA

The more agglomeration of broadcast or other media under a single corporation, the more individual voices will be drowned out by one big voice. Such agglomeration is anathema to a democracy. We must stop this merger.

—Calvin Skaggs, New York, NY

Our country needs to retain and increase the diversity of news media outlets, not consolidate them. Please do not allow this merger to proceed!

—John C. Morse, Pendleton, SC

Protect the free press.

—Mr Stephen J Spaulding, Hollis, NH

This merger is not in the best interest of us citizens, so stop it now.

—A vi Okin, Kamuela, HI

The industry is too consolidated and the lack of competition is resulting in reduced integrity and diversity of opinion. please remember to serve the American people first.

—Ian Ehrlich, Charlottesville, VA

very disturbing

—Mrs. Karen Raccio, Maple Grove, MN

We need disinterested truth-tellers, not self-interested bottom-line inflators.

—Mimi Jennings, St. Paul, MN

This is a terrible precedent!! Future generations will view this decision as such a breech of ethics and the pivot point of our national integrity!!!

—Joan Palmer, Pasadena, CA

That would put two stations in the Seattle market owned by Sinclair

—Devon J Liles, Gig Harbor, WA

This regime is fascist, and they are attempting a coup. Rightwingers hate America and Americans!!

—Linda Jean Edwards, Penngrove, CA

Oil companies don't need to get larger, just as other companies should not have a monopoly, or the banks that are too big to fail.

—Sandra Cullen, Dubuque, IA

Please stand strong against the merger. Let's not propel the US into the third world.

—Lesly Van Dame, Houston, TX

Enough with the greedy corporate monopolies that are at war with the democratic principles. We should be breaking the monopolies not helping them get larger. It's time for Sharing and Cooperation and Net Neutrality.

—Eric Bischoff, Glen Cove, NY

We are the United States of America not Russia or China or the numerous other countries that have a state run propaganda TV network. We must protect the integrity of free speech and Free Press by not allowing the Sinclair media group to have a monopoly on local TV stations

—Connie Nash-Kearns, Dayton, OH

No way.

—T Hildebrandt, Farmington Hills, MI

It's hard enough to find real news in the world today, don't let this merger go through and make it harder!

—James Fellrath, Columbus, OH

Companies that do not serve the public interest do not deserve a greater share of the public airwaves.

—Payam N Minoofar, Ventura, CA

The guy's a blatant liar. We need to get as far away from consolidated propaganda news as we can get. Otherwise, we are just another banana republic with the mafia getting even more rich and running the place.

—Todd Corbett, Umpqua, OR

STOP the MONOPOLY of GREEDY BUSINESS MONEY GRAB STOP the FAKE NEWS trump has LIED, LIED, LIED, and it all on tape

—J G, orting, WA

Media consolidation is one of the main reasons our democracy is in peril and politics is so dysfunctional. We need a variety of opinions and of owners, not a mega broadcaster pushing an already over-represented political agenda. Stop this merger now!

—Kevin Wildermuth, Seattle, WA

Freedom of information means diversity, not bowing down to the GOP- the party of mean.

—Richard Bahler, Fairfax Station, VA

Based on the validity of the figures used. I agree with the sentiments expressed above as the fewer providers, the fewer choices of vendors as well as the possibility of content being managed by fewer and fewer people as the corporate reach of fewer and fewer owners and managers grows with each merger. Allan

—Allan Breit, West Hollywood, CA

I've already seen the changes in my local Sinclair-owned news. Don't allow this merger. It goes against everything the FCC has stood for in the past.

—Karen Cooper, Milwaukie, OR

We need a variety of news sources, not a monopoly.

—Cynthia Guggemos, Blanchardville, WI

This is deplorable! When is someone going to step up for our laws and protections against this kind of behavior? Are there no values, beliefs or moral directions that are important enough to stand up and save us from such takeovers?! I'm sickened by big money, powermongers.

—Elizabeth Hostetler, Bluffton, OH

Instead of expanding Trump overexposure, how about making a Trump filter available?

—Peter Fritz, Delanco, NJ

That's what is great about this country. If you don't like something in the media, you don't have to give it any credibility or time by viewing or listening to it

—J Benevento, Gilroy, CA

The FCC has not been perfect in advocating for citizen's right to know the truth in the past, but it still is the agency most able to advocate for the everyday citizen. After 25 years in the broadcast education business, one thing seems absolutely clear to me: This merger goes directly against the idea of free competition of ideas in the marketplace, and is as un-American as persimmon pie.

—David Norlin, Salina, KS

Talk about conflict of interest! Again!

—Allan Hogle, Gualala, CA

Is there anything in the United States that the Trump administration is not trying to ruin? Every day the evidence of the utter corruption of the Trump administration is more pronounced. FCC: Say NO to Trump TV. Stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger dead in its tracks.

—William Alexander, Waynesville, NC

This proposed merger is outrageous. Whatever happened to public interest, convenience, and necessity? Don't forget that the airwaves are actually owned by all the people. To turn licenses into political power plays is typical of an oligarchy, a totalitarian state, rather than the democracy we strive to become. No approval for this merger, please.

—Gary Marx, Vienna, VA

We do not want the Corporate States of America!

—Anthony Albert, Corvallis, OR

Our democracy is at stake!

—Peter Bzowski, Winthrop, MA

If, as we have been raised to believe, that competition is good for business, why the hell are we seeing merger after merger? The people's right of expression is under threat by corporate greed, and a bought off US government. Time to stand up to the satanic greedsters of Wall Street. The internet is not broke, so keep your greedy hands off of it!

—Lee Hutchings, Wichita Falls, TX

no merges, no monopolies.

—Holly Riker, Harwood, TX

NO THANK YOU, VERY MUCH.

—Ms. Holly McDuffie, Los Angeles, CA

We need more diversity in the news media, not less.

—Pamela LaRue, Long Beach, CA

Stop the merger!!

—catherine Kilty belt-Vahle, San Francisco, CA

Are you in Donald Trump's pocket or are you a free agency acting in the country's best interests? We're watching. Please do the right thing.

—Debbie Notkin, Oakland, CA

A free and open press is essential for democracy. I'm counting on you!

—Mary J Martin, St Charles, MO

And so I say (along with my friends and neighbors) - NO NO NO! Our FCC needs to sit up and take notice: propaganda has no place on our local tv channels! Don't pretend that's not what's happening. "Slanted" is a polite way of saying it.

—Joan Summer, Poteet, TX preventing this merger is the reason the anti- trust laws were initially enacted

—norman Y. Blaz, Encino, CA

Our antitrust laws have been set into place to protect fair competition for consumers. The proposed merger benefits nobody except Sinclair Broadcast Group and would likely result in the spread of disinformation. It is my hope that if the FCC is misguided enough to approve this merger, that it will be tied up in the courts until the end of the current administration. Be wise. Be prudent. Remember who you serve.

—Julie Woodbury PhD, Eden Prairie, MN

No market domination. No dictators in the White House. Trump does not need more exposure; he needs far less.

—LK Woodruff, Rosemount, MN

Danger: Donald Trump suffers from a malignant case of pathological narcissism: he is paranoid, delusional, inept and incompetent President of the United States.

—Dan M Ingall, Lake Odessa, MI

This kind of mega-merger is EXACTLY WHAT WE DO NOT NEED. THIS MUST BE STOPPED.

—Bhavana Lymworth, ,

"The Powers That Be" (ref. David Halberstamm) needn't, shouldn't become even more homogenized. Communication should be multi-laned, not a one-way street of sensationalized, hyper-sexualized, and otherwise pandering propaganda. Take your jobs as stewards of the Public Trust seriously and deny monopolists their greed-stoked demands.

—Mr. Lew Welge, Jacksonville, FL

Can't the FCC at least do a better job of pretending to care about actual human citizens, as opposed to large corporations?

—Matt Strohbehn, Little Rock, AR

NO, to fascist trump and his evil lackeys!

—Pedro Anillo Guevara, ,

Sinclair went all out for Trump in 2016. Jared Kushner, the president's adviser and son-in-law, boasted about the special deal he struck with Sinclair to get Trump uninterrupted favorable coverage. This is collusion of the worst sort. This merger should not be allowed to happen!

—Kathleen Brown, San Francisco, CA

This results in less choice for millions of viewers. It absolutely should be prohibited.

—Carole McFarland, Houston, TX too much power in one place!!!!

—Michael Boshears, Crestline, CA

More consolidation is NOT in the best interests of this country. Less choice = more propaganda.
—Kelly McConnell, Tigard, OR

This merger MUST be blocked!
—Dorothy Rocklin, Melrose, MA

When does the republican congress step in to expose Trump and his personal hostile takeover for his personal financial interest? When is enough enough? This is way beyond an ordinary bait & switch.
—Sandra Holt, Casselberry, FL

This madness, illegal and unconstitutional behavior has to be stopped!!! Each day trump's mental imbalance gets worse--Hey! all of you elected officials who are not honoring our Constitution need to wake up--What happened to the Emoluments Clauses!! This travesty should have been months ago--The corrupt officials are not above the law; and their blind arrogance is taking them down further each day--They have to answer to WE THE PEOPLE and we are the power and we will not back down from the hatred--
—Bev Kelly Ph.D., Long Beach, CA

We don't need more "alternative facts" in the mix! Enough!
—Dan Hill, Tempe, AZ

The Tribune-Sinclair merger must be stopped!
—Justin Gibson, Granite City, IL

Allowing this merger to go forward will further the public perception of this administration as hypocritical: it claims to champion competition, but its actions weaken competition and favor the president's cronies. Is that how the Republicans want their party to be seen?
—Nick Moschovakis, Portland, OR

This is another attack on our democracy by this administration and its crony officers. This cannot stand. This is an affront to a free and independent press.
—James Pomeroy, Papillion, NE

This is another attack on our democracy by this administration and its crony officers. This cannot stand. This is an affront to a free and independent press.
—James Pomeroy, Papillion, NE

After observing this company push the smear of Sen. John Kerry on our local station in 2004, and as a Viet Nam Vet I am totally opposed to this merger being permitted.
—Paul Bebo, Holyoke, MA

not right, not right.
—Jonathan R Boshard, Kensington, CA

Trump is following the Russian government playbook for control of the media. This must not be approved!
—Louise K Wyche, Huntsville, AL

Additionally, such a merger is a clear violation of the laws of the United States, as it falls under the United States antitrust laws.

—Adam Beskosty, Hudson, NH

We need diversity! Not monopoly!

—Rhonda H Valdez, Espanola, NM resist persist litigate impeach convict remove

—Joe Wolf, Cleveland, OH

This does not benefit US Consumers - Nor does it make America great again.

—Elizabeth Merryman, Minneapolis, MN

Do the right thing!!

—Darlena Luppino Torres, Millbrae, CA

I am outraged by Donald Trump's ignorant statements attacking our free press and his disdain for objectivity, facts, and truth. We need an independent media to check the authoritarian impulses and anti-American ideology of the Trump regime; we do not need a corporation that profits off lies and deceit for political and financial gain to have control over the news media.

—Mr. Paul Burton, Oakland, CA

Well just more embarrassment and reasons for the World and the Country to dislike all Conservatives. Go ahead. Show your true Dictatorship face to the World. As if they are not already aware of this joke of a Country.

—Mary Madeco-Smith, Little Falls, MN

This is wrong for America!

—David Robert Fish, Brookfield, CT

Fuck Trump and the Russian whore he rode in on. We're taking our country back from you oligarch fuckers.

—Kevin West, Austin, TX

Lori

—Lori Caudill, Los Osos,, CA

No do not allow this media take over! Sinclair has already shown to tilt coverage with a heavy biased hand

—Susan Clouser, Springdale, AR

"The Powers That Be" (ref. David Halberstamm) needn't, shouldn't become even more homogenized. Communication should be multi-laned, not a one-way street of sensationalized, hyper-sexualized, and otherwise pandering propaganda. Take your jobs as stewards of the Public Trust seriously and deny monopolists their greed-stoked demands.

—Lew Welge, Gainesville, FL

The FCC should be breaking apart these large groupings: not creating a media monopoly.

—James Bannerman, Ambler, PA

Please prevent this!

—Karen Barton-Maycock, San Francisco, CA

Kinda like Russia's State Media? Putin TV.

—Bernard Sharkus, Tucson, AZ

FCC must block this merger. A single company should not have that much media control, especially with Sinclair's politically slanted content.

—Lisa Keim, Oak Lawn, IL

If you want to be perceived as an entity that has some credibility, you have got to say no. Otherwise people will want to know how much were you paid to OK this merger? You are about to align yourself with a person of questionable character and morals, and could possibly be accused of major "wrong-doing". Why not wait six months and "study the issue in detail"? That way you you can be more comfortable that the decision you made wasn't one where you supported a person in an orange jumpsuit in the crowbar motel.

—Mara McManus, Acworth, GA

This seems illegal.

—Marilyn Monclova, laurelton, NY

Freedom of the press is one of our most critical virtues in this country. We MUST maintain it!

—Ann C Somers, Brookline, NH

Its a bad idea. A very bad idea. The worst ever.

—Deborah Byron, Fayetteville, AR

This is supposed to be a democracy, so there is NO ROOM for such fascist ideas - would take this country back into the dark ages - and our founding fathers would be disgusted

—Linda Bator, Roseville, MI

The FCC is supposed to work for the peoples' interests, not those of the president.

—Nancy A Naragon, Sewickley, PA

This merger is a bad idea, and allowing it gives the owner, who should have shed or put his businesses in blind trusts before he took office, too much power in this industry, which thrives with many voices, and dies with only one.

—A Marina Fournier, Campbell, CA

Stop serving politicians and start serving the American people whom the FCC was established To protect!

—Tim Schneider, El Cajon, CA

Go FCC Yourself

—Tony Bailey, Brampton,

All we're going to get is what Trump wants us to get... This is absolutely unacceptable. It's going to be Nazi Germany all over again.

—Howard W. McCoy, Centreville, MD

That's all we need more REDNECK RIGHTWING news!

—Thomas Brenner, Hollidaysburg, PA

Stop it now!

—Deborah Dowling, St. Petersburg, FL

NO to this proposed merger.
—David Gustafson, Moline, IL

Stop the corporate consolidation. Give the media back to the people, not right wing cranks and corporatists.
—Kim Kaufman, Los Angeles, CA

We need more media outlets not less.
—Daryl J Shute, Englewood, CO

Outrageous attempt to control the airwaves!
—Patricia c Bleha, Carlsbad, CA

Stop the "Fascist Communication Consolidation."
—Sydney Vilen, Hemet, CA

Trump keeps on denigrating independent media by claiming everything other than his opinion is fake news. Allowing Sinclair to monopolize the US media market is a violation of monopoly restrictions, independent media, the Emolument Clause of the US constitution and our right as citizens to an open and fair news media. FCC should stop this merger from taking place.
—Peter Walker, Sebastopol, CA

Don't you numbskulls know that monopolies are every bit as great an affront to markets as government control? Even Adam Smith knew it, and he said so. When you guys who say you believe in "free markets" promote market consolidation, we know you're just lying.
—PhD (Economics) Scott A. Weir BA (Physics), Durham, NC

OMG, what next!!! This is an outrage!
—Annie Boomsma, Amherst, MA

We don't need more "Fake News" ! stop the monopolies ! One of our great republican presidents was Teddie Roosevelt , which you will never be !
—Ron D. Stout, Portland, OR

The people that voted for Trump elected a President they did not appoint a DICTATOR. He should never be given the right to have a TV station for propoganda, this must be stopped. Thank you.
—Sharon Doggett, crooked river ranch, OR

We have way too many mega banks, newspapers, tv,etc.
—Koleen Little, Chapel Hill, TN

We've lost the Fairness Doctrine. We have money controlling the news. How about we just post lies now? Yeah. That's what we're gonna do. Go the way of Russia and Nazi Germany and post lies and propaganda instead of the news.
—Kimberly Lewis, Steamboat Springs, CO

This kind of nonsense has to stop, trump and his crony Ajit Pi are not fooling anyone.
—Joe Colestro, Ellicottville, NY

block this merger!!!
—S Thompson, Los Angeles, CA

So under Republicans, "the market" is building more quasi-monopolies.. Sinclair has a very troubling record, evades paying fines, and helped the poor 'base' elect a man even Republicans now see is deranged/dangerous. Virtual monopolies, such as Blue Cross here in Florida, now Sinclair in many markets, are not what the Founding Fathers would have approved of. PS I used to be a Republican destruction

—Christopher Huggins, niagara falls,

Broadcast truth versus alternative facts!

—Thomas G. Dahl, New Port Richey, FL

Media ownership is too concentrated for the good of our republic as it is. Further concentration will only line the pockets of owners and large investors and promote corruption. The People will suffer, in the end. It is the FCC's duty to stand up to corporations for The People, the citizens.

—Dan Leggett, Silver Spring, MD

This outrageous attempt to take over the American airwaves for a conservative agenda, is doomed to fail, so don't even try to do it in the first place!

—Kevin B Havener, Chicago, IL

Serve the PUBLIC interest not the corporate interests!

—Raymond Kalas, Columbia, NJ

Yet another assault on democracy. We see what you're doing and it is wrong. Very, very wrong!

—Kenneth Sardella, stratford, CT

Sinclair's blatant historical efforts to conceal and deceive have been far more gratuitous than mere misadventures.

—Philip Ricaurte, Charlotte, NC

We want public communication channels that present both sides of any issues. The American people need to be educated, not propagandized. We do not want monopolies-we want choices.

—JOyce M Lavey, San Francisco, CA

Enough already with these mergers. Anti-trust in every sense of the word.

—Audrey Franklin, Brighton, CO

How is this good for American citizens? The merger will be another give away to big corporations.

—Elaine Donovan, Hemlock, NY

Consumers want REAL choices, not media soda machines. Nutritious information for all.

—Michael Miller, Los Angeles, CA

ABSOLUTELY DISGUSTING! Do NOT allow such a TRAVESTY!

—Pamela Overholtzer, Quail Valley, CA

Approving this merger will have fascist implications. Don't do it!

—Philip Johnston, Scotts Valley, CA

Diversity has always been the goal of federal management of our airwaves (and cable channels). Do not allow any mega-monopoly consolidations to corrupt our public media.

—Fred Granlund, Port Hueneme, CA

I would prefer NO television to this travesty. Oh, wait . . . I already quit watching. No right-wing brainwashing in this house, thank you so much.

—Karla Von Huben, Vancouver, WA

NO, NO & NO to super conglomerate TV!!!

—Eve Anderson, Jones, MI

I first learned of the dangers of media consolidation over twenty years ago. It has only gotten worse since then, as fewer and fewer companies control more media outlets. Since local TV is where most people get their news it is critical to stop the overt politicization of this still valuable resource.

—Ted Rubright, St. Louis, MO

Stop this merger.

—Tamara G. Prince, Silver Spring, MD

FCC Please do your job. Block one company from controlling 70% of the news. Fascism must be stopped

—Nancy Blastos, Redlands, CA

This is a ridiculous and dangerous concept. It must not be allowed.

—Mark Scardello, Petaluma, CA

FOX is bad enough. The last thing we need is another right wing, corporate conglomerate.

—Mr. Vincent Petta, Ocala, FL anti-monopoly laws

—Victoria Sweeney, Bradenton, FL

We need MORE points of view not less. This merger would allow the further erosion of an already in peril pillar of Democracy. Please block this merger in the interest of the American people.

—John Newell, Corona, CA

These mergers don't help the public. In fact, they hurt by further eroding the number of voices in the market place.

—Richard Foster, Toney, AL

No to Trump TV. Pravda

—Dave P. Margolis, Buffalo Grove, IL

This is incomprehensible in a democratic republic with a free press. This must be stopped!

—Susan Krysiak, Cape May Court House, NJ

No, no and no! Democracy depends on a fully informed citizenry. Media controlled by a few jeopardizes that.

—Ms. Bonnie T. Summers, Downers Grove, IL

Media concentration in a limited number of hands poses significant threats to free speech and exchange of ideas.

—Ed Paski, Blaine, WA

Why not just call it the Trump-Sinclair News Dominator Network. Please, remember this is America where diversity of opinions still matters (or have I missed something here?). Stop this merger!

—Frank Pilholski, Framingham, MA

monopolies are un-american

—Thatcher Bohrman, Prescott, AZ

I don't want our country to be like Russia where RT is the basic source of information AND misinformation.

—Susan Spengler, Palatine, IL

This would be WAY TOO MUCH consolidation of media in any case. But given Sinclair's extreme political focus, it would be unconscionable to approve this deal.

—Jennifer Swearingen, Bozeman, MT

No to this merger--it is NOT in the best interests of the American public!!

—Sandra Perkins, Seattle, WA

Illegal is illegal. Stop this illegal merger!

—Jack Ray, Newark, DE

Freedom of the Press would be extremely jeopardized with a merger of Sinclair & Tribune.....we need more independent broadcasting not monopolies.....

—Gene Roza, Clovis, CA

Count my NO.

—Elaine Dolan, Seattle, WA

We don't need any more mega monopoly's

—Kathy Davis, Bemidji, MN

Oh my! The level of corruption surrounding this deal, the president, and the FCC is staggering! You people really must stop being so crooked right in our faces! I thought I'd seen the last of the rewriting of the rules under another republican president when Rupert Murdoch was given special dispensation to acquire more media when his empire had reached allowable levels. Not so apparently! But this president has violated every other societal norm as well as more than a few laws I'm sure on his way to where he is today so why not here as well, right? Wrong! Sinclair is a well known right wing shill and their media empire is already to large given their ability to influence public opinion. This deal must not happen.

—Gary Jeffers, Liberty Twp., OH

Drain the swamp! Stop hurting Americans for the benefit of the rich!

—Jim Winer, Fort Myers, FL

Absolutely fricking NO!!!

—Kathleen Dougherty, Duluth, MN

These corporations do not represent factual information to the public. They should not be allowed to merge. They should also be watched very carefully and held accountable for supplying false information to people who may not have any way to determine the difference. There are far too many people getting false information and making bad decisions because of it. We get enough propaganda via social media, we need to trust our news and television agencies again. Please do your best to restore conversation, not incite riots, due to false information.

—Kim Hensley, Sacramento, CA

This "deal" would be a First Amendment nightmare even in the best of times. This type of media consolidation should have been stopped 20 years ago. This must not stand.

—Robert Young, Grand Rapids, MI

Not news. Not even fake news. This is propaganda, plain and simple. #NoTrumpTV

—Kevin Howley, Bloomington, IN

Next best thing to mind control...like Russia China North Korea and now Turkey. .way to go almighty despot.

—John La Follette, Columbus, OH

Enough of these monopolies already!

—Elatia Grimshaw, Royal Oak, MI

There is enough "fake news" without giving voice to another option. Giving so much power to a single company is just WRONG.

—Carol Maghakian, Myrtle Beach, SC

SAY NO TO tRUMP TV

—Laura Krebs Gordon, Brooklyn, NY

We need more voices, not fewer.

—Donald Di Russo, Hyde Park, MA

The world--and history--are still watching the United States lead in freedom of the press.

—John Barber, Lake Oswego, OR

In order to maintain our democracy we need a more diverse media not a more concentrated one.

—Ms. Suellen James, South Hill, WA

The proposed merger is already having an affect on the diversity of voices in programming. Historical drama Underground is in the chopping block and other programming that may not focus on the most economically hegemonic market segment.

—Mike Shushan, Williamsburg, VA

Not surprised.

—Timothy Franson, Woburn, MA

A media monopoly is against the American way!

—Fred Morrison, Hayward, CA

Our corporate media is already biased in favor of the powerful elite, and the elite is leaning politically to the right. Do not let this merger go through.

—Nico P, Merced, CA

Mega companies are NOT good for our country.

—Laura Jacobs, Dallas, TX

Sinclair should stick to selling gasoline!

—Daniel Duffy, Delavan, WI

Bad for us and bad for the country!

—David Robinson MD, Seattle, WA

Monopoly of communications kills democracy! No to Sinclair gaining more stations. No to Trump TV!

—W Jean Rohrer, Southwest Harbor, ME

NO FREAKING WAY he is selling us down the river!

—Janet G Heinle, Santa Monica, CA

More abomination from sick in chief filthy trump!!!!

—Dee Noblett, Mechanicville, NY

Diversity of major media ownership is crucial. Media concentration is dangerous and questionable on anti trust grounds.

—Douglas Longman, Chapel Hill, NC

What ARE elected officials thinking?

—Dolores Farrell, Sitka, AK

That sounds like a crappy idea!

—Edward J. Cowan, Englewood, CO

So many problems with this merger! Kushner history with Sinclair smacks of ethical issues. Not to mention a company that will be way too large, a monopoly. Allow this merger to go through and watch the lawsuits flow in. Think about it and do the right thing.

—Mary Ann Kastorff, Minneapolis, MN

You are trying to kill our "Free Press," by allowing this terrible merger. We DON'T want this!

—Sheila Wasung, Royal Oak, MI

The public and democracy will not be well served by this merger.

—Ron Moniz, Tiverton, RI

Sinclair is the Murican manifestation of Pravda.

—Bert Goodrich, Albuquerque, NM

This proposal would be dead on arrival if the law were being respected, and I will support all legal action to keep it from happening.

—Thomas Wahl, Collegeville, MN

Enough! No more mega mergers in our media!

—Sandy Rasich, Santa Fe, NM

We need to keep our news outlets as free and diverse as possible. The Sinclair-Tribune Merger is absolutely the WRONG WAY to do that.
NO MERGER!!!

—Charlotte Jones, Elmhurst, IL

Just say no to trump tv.

—Ken Spreng, Sioux Falls, SD

Let's see if the FCC is interested in serving the public or the industry. Airwaves are public domain, licensed to companies acting as trustees to serve the common good.

—Larry Baker, Rosemount, MN

Given the already high concentration of media ownership, the FCC should protect media diversity - especially televised media where most Americans seem to get their news - rather than permit further concentration. Locally owned television, radio and newspapers are life blood of a free and informed democracy.

—Paul Douglas, Los Angeles, CA

Monopolies of this sort are supposed to be illegal. What has happened to law in this country?

—Barbara O'Neill, Spooner, WI

ANOTHER RIGHT WING TAKEOVER OF MEDIA - AMERICA WAKE UP TO THIS TRUMP PAYOFF.

—Lucille Portner, Newington, CT

This will not be good for journalism or the American people...please say NO

—Timothy Meadows Sr, Crestline, CA

Sinclair + Trump = crooked organization

—Arthur Daniels, Wellington, FL

NO WAY

—Pat WALSH, Port Washington, WI

As a Canadian who receives much of my media content from the US I am deeply concerned by the potential this has to expand the reach of one perspective. Your actions echo across your borders - a broad range of perspectives need to be included so we can better understand ourselves in this complex world.

—Lesley Johnston, ,

NO MONOPOLIES!

—Elaine Becker, Roanoke, VA

We need more local media ownership and more diverse coverage, not less. Block this merger!

—Amy Martyn Martyn, Florence, MA

This is bullshit!

—Terry Helton, Ennis, MT

We need to stop this centralizing of news. We have national conglomerates who know nothing and care less about local issues pretending to cover local news.

—Nancy Schimmel, Berkeley, CA

Since Sinclair can't even follow the law, they instead should be broken up and their management fined heavily for airing propaganda.
—Curt Frederick, Cedar, MN

Rampant favoritism and rampant nepotism has no place in the presidency. Come clean, Trump, show us your tax returns and tell us about Russia, Comey, and all your other hidden little angles. I am so tired of this blatant corruption!
—SK Wolfersperger, Albuquerque, NM

Please do not allow the President of the US to have access (to promote himself) to the public. His ability to lie and spread propaganda would be detrimental to the Democracy. Thank You in Advance, In —Linda Nachman, Chappaqua, NY

Our country needs many small and medium size businesses, not a few giant ones.
—Emily Geyman, Friday Harbor, WA

Monopolized control of the press leads to totalitarianism. Protect our democracy.
—Alison McGinty, Denver, CO

Democracy depends on media disseminating news, not propaganda. If this merger is approved, democracy will be in even greater danger as these purveyors of right wing propaganda will have an even bigger megaphone. Do you care about democracy, or not?
—Gavin Trowsdale, Palm Springs, CA

This is contrary to the FCC's stated purpose. Please do not let the Sinclair Broadcast Group go through with this merger. We value our independent local TV stations. Thank you for your consideration of this request.
—Christy Compton, Arlington, VA

Sinclair is notorious for slipping right-wing views and Republican talking points into its newscasts. The company overrides the objections of local journalists and forces its stations to run conservative commentaries and slanted stories on the local news.
—Francis D. Slider, Middlebourne, WV

No broadcast monopolies allowed of any kind. Do your job and stop this monopoly from expanding.
—Richard Morgan, BELLINGHAM, WA

Local journalism is essential to our democracy, and it cannot be bought out by a huge corporation with an agenda. What happened to anti-trust rules?
—Emily Warren, Solon, OH

This is total propoganda machine for him, against our constitution
—Jenny Bass, Windham, CT

Allowing this merger because our illegitimate, minority-elect president is in bed with them is unacceptable and will not be tolerated.
—Bill Lindner, Greenbrae, CA

Just what drumpf and republicans want. Propaganda TV. Like Fox News.
—lisa Heard, Palm Beach, FL

We need more choices, not less, more diversity, not monopoly!

—Alan Wojtalik, Baltimore, MD

Allowing this merger would be another step on the road toward abolishing a free press in the US.

—Adam S. Wilkins, ,

We need more choices, not more monopolies. Stop this merger.

—Kenneth Ruby, Salem, NH

Thank you!

—Kathy Dabanian, Sellersville, PA

The conservatives control the airwaves now. If you search you will not find a liberal talk program or talk show host. It is all one sided. More control of the media means death to freedom and democracy. The conservatives will influence the less educated masses.

—Ralph, West Covina, CA

Nooooooooooooooooo!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

—Barbara Rhodes, New York, NY

The cronyism is so obvious. And the racism is downright disgusting. Ajit Pai, how can you let these white supremacist oligarchs use you this way? How can you look at yourself in the mirror? And what kind of world are you creating for your children?

—Collette Watson, Chandler, AZ

No!! We need diversity ! More small independent and Individual Cos. please!!

—Vicki Gagnebin, Novato, CA

For once, put the good of the Country ahead of corporate profits.

—R P Joe Smith, Portland, OR

The FCC is supposed to work for us, not Trump. Whatever happened to saying no to monopolies? This is the path away from freedom and our right to unbiased journalism.

—Katharine Beffa, Alameda, CA

I strongly oppose this merger.

—Mary Gifford, Austin, TX

This merger in no way makes sense. A truly free press cannot exist when so many stations would be owned by the same company.

—Kelly Nicklin, Omaha, NE

Media Consolidation hurts us, the citizens of this country. It erodes our constitutional right to free speech by putting even more power in the hands of a Sinclair, a giant media company. It is very difficult to find accurate, non commercial local information. I have to express my concern that this merger will make it virtually impossible to find local unbiased information on my television.

—Jason Daniels, Easton, MA

Under NO circumstance should this be allowed to Happen!! I am opposed to any kind of consolidation in ownership of media Companies. We should go in the opposite direction and force most of these media mergers to allow for multiple sources of Major news papers in a market. If Sinclair buys the Star & Tribune - I will cancel my subscription, and spend my money with a Media company whose coverage is more honest and less focused on Conservative issues and opinions. Please Do Not Allow this merger to Happen.

—N Avery Litin, Minden, NV

Public is being raped and either ignoring or enjoying it.

—Jim Glass, Redmond, WA

Stop attempt at manipulation by corporate interest. America is already reeling from assaults from outside its shores, the FCC's leadership has never been more important. Protect one of the most important things that can help make America great - our challenges to monopolies our healthy debates and stubborn insistence on the right to make up our own minds. Stop this insane and dangerous attempt to manipulate. Stop this merger. We're all counting on you Thanks for your time Sincerely Laoise Mac Reamoinn

—Laoise Mac Reamoinn, New York, NY

Whatever happened to the Sherman anti trust act!! More variety not less block this merger!!!

—Constantine Bogios, Walnut Creek, CA

We must have independent journalism to protect one of our most important and greatest freedoms...freedom of the press...

—Dixie Walter, Eatonville, WA

We must have a free and open press and TV which examine all sides truthfully without bias. That is the treasure of our country. If it goes, so goes the country. There is no point to have our advanced information technology if it is not used properly.

—Delores Keahey, Tucson, AZ

Even without the bias, this merger creates a huge conglomerate – far too big to serve the public interest.

—Frances Dunham, Gulf Breeze, FL

This merger would destroy the Los Angeles Times that I read daily. Antitrust laws are there to prevent this type of monopolistic merger. Enforce the law, don't violate it.

—James J. O'Connell III, Westminster, CA stop this.. here is LOS ANGELES KTLA has always been the station of the people. A sinclair takeover would be a longer arm of FOX NEWS/BRIETBART type of broadcasting

—Max Espinoza, Fullerton, CA

Hate does not and will not belong on local news! Local news should be about news that tells the truth and be used for good!

—Tracey Davis, Ocoee, FL

Trump is taking bribes from Verizon. Pai is Verizon's puppet. Sinclair and Verizon are in cahoots. Our nation is going to pot.

—Mrs. Debra L. Carr de Legorreta, Neponset, IL

Stop the death of diversity and democracy!

—Robert McFarland, Fort Lauderdale, FL

Just like Hitler taking over the press and turning this country in to a authoritarian country. NO

—Sandra Armour, Sidney, NE

The FCC should be independent from political manipulations. Look at the Canadian Radio and Telecommunications Commission as a model.
—William Junger, ,

No merger! No supersizing!
—Rita Waine, Charlottesville, VA

This would be a sinister and backwards development. No more monopolies. All points of view must be considered.
—Barbara Dean, Great Barrington, MA

I refuse to watch or listen to corporate news.
—Leroy Frankel, Longmont, CO

NO MEDIA MERGERS
—Thomas Gump, Santa Fe, NM

We must oppose fascism and bring back the Fairness Doctrine now!
—Joel Carlson, Lacey, WA

Use the Canadian Radio and Telecommunications Commission as a model for the FCC to be protected from political manipulations.
—William Junger, ,

This is clearly not in the interests of the American public. The whole 'bigger is better' merger-mainia has shown already that it's a poor idea. Don't let these merge. Please.
—Dirk Faegre, Belfast, ME

Stop local dumbing down of the news by the Sinclair Broadcast Group.
—Mary A. Vorachek, Salem, OR

This merger is absurd! NO! NO! NO!
—Ilona Berk, St Leonard, MD

If Mr. Trump wants his own TV station...he should have to buy one, like everyone else he knows!
—Sadie SullivanGreiner, El Cajon, CA

Do what you're supposed to do, FCC: block obscene media consolidation.
—Arthur Bane, Klickitat, WA

Bigger is never better. In this case it is AWFUL!
—Bruce Smith, Detroit, MI

This is not acceptable and not able politics. No one company should own this much of our media.
—Jason Lions, Culver City, CA

One step closer to tyranny!
—Laura G. Jones-Bedel, San Diego, CA

No corporation or its CEO or owners should have this much say over the media.

—Paul Franzmann, Walla Walla, WA

Keep the crazy off TV

—Barbara K, Niles, MI

Such 'centralised media' goes against all aspects of a free society based on democracy ... Where democracy is defined as empowerment to allow unbiased objectivity in social comment, the core of a free society ... !!

—Jason MAkeig, ,

WE DON'T NEED MONOPOLIES TO SUCK OUR MONEY!!!!

—Penelope A. Moore, Pensacola, FL

This is urgent!!

—Lois Zmitrovis, Hardy, VA

We want the facts, not hypothesis and second guesses.

—Grace Neff, ALBANY, OR

Sinclair Broadcast Group is already pervasive. Far from serving the public interest, Sinclair uses its presence to advance an extremist political agenda. Sinclair should be dismantled, not permitted to increase its reach.

—Robert A Console, Stow, MA

Don't you think you're squeezing us enough

—Leda Jahnke, Lena, WI

This merger will make the Media even less likely to report the news properly. Also it would be a very large corporate take over of TV Networks.

—Barry Heath, Hoschton, GA

This is really getting scary! STOP this train before we all go down.....

—Helene Mertz, houston, TX

Monopolies are Un-American.

—Jerri Mariott, Oakland, CA

Stop! He already has enough t.v. Time! When he is on TV he only speaks on how great he is going to make the country and in reality he is working for himself and his family!

—Bob Hacker, Cowiche, WA

This proposed acquisition is unacceptable given the irresponsible and manifestly hostile history of the company. The above statement gives the legal and moral reasons for rejecting this action.

—Lance Labun, Austin, TX

Another attack on a basic constitutional right.

—Geertruud Mensinga, Calexico, CA

THIS MONOPOLY IS ONLY BEING CONSIDERED BECAUSE TRAITOR TRUMP WANTS TO REWARD THOSE WHOSE LIES PUT HIM IN THE WHITEHOUSE!!

—Paul J Palla, Greencastle, PA

There goes freedom of speech. Wouldn't this be a monopoly? It's bad enough this country as FAUX News (fox) but now the FCC can literally make news a monopoly. What is wrong with you? Or should I ask - who and how much are paying for this decision? Disgusting that it's even being considered. I'm watching the US become a 3rd world country...talk about a race to the bottom.

—Marcy Donaldson, Denver, CO

Choose people over corporations and their profits, please.

—Ray Bellamy MD, tallahassee, FL

no trump TV propaganda machine

—D C, eug, OR

Do not allow the merger of sinclair and tribune.

—Diana butsch, West Falls, NY

We need more voices in the media sector, not less. Stop this takeover of Tribune.

—Mark Hawkins, Oakland, CA

Stand up for the people! Be sure NO one group will have over whelming power to shape news coverage.

—Joseph S. Baye, Ladysmith, WI

The Founding Fathers wrote the First Amendment which includes freedom of the press because they did not want the government to control the media. This merger is exactly what the founding fathers did not want the government to decide who owns the press. This is not a democracy.

—Angela Gardner, Hacienda heights, CA

I believe you work for we the people, not whomever happens to be President of these United States of America. The only choice in the best interest of your employers, i.e. citizens, is to oppose this merger.

—Roxann Carmean Floyd, Payson, AZ

Your job is to act in the best interests of the American People. START DOING IT!

—Stephen P. Karnisky, Rochester, NY

No crony capitalist monopolies. Keep the press free. Stop authoritarian power grabs.

—Dion Blundell, Cathedral City, CA

We are watching the completion of the corporate takeover of the US. Those who enable this process should be ware of the inevitable reaction to this takeover as people are adversely affected by the concentration of power. My response is to force the government to end corporate dominance in every area of our political and social life.

—Ted Steege, Olympia, WA

It is important to support competition to get innovation moving and costs down. These big mergers wipe out the competition.

—Kay Clifford, Ann Arbor, MI

Monopoly power is not good for consumers and damages our economy. Please help restore the integrity of our republic. Size matters and we don't need or want such monopolistic power in anyone's hands. Competition is good for everyone.

—Gail Pietrzyk, Oxford, PA

Unconstitutional and unAmerican

—Dorothy Li Calzi, Santa Monica, CA

This propaganda has no place in America.

—Jane Wilcox, Greenwood Village, CO

The U.S. claims to be a beacon of democracy but the rest of the world has been aghast at what's happening to our nation since Trump's election. The proposed merger is simply obscene. The airwaves belong to the people and the FCC exists to protect the integrity of media outlets.

—Lisa Nesselson, Chicago, IL

This merger is outrageous. We do not need more diversity & better information in this country, not more right-wing propaganda.

—Eric Schwartz, Williamsport, MD

Media monopolies are not in the public interest. The risk of abuse – undermining our democracy – is too high.

—Donald W. Henderson Ph.D., Ithaca, NY

We need to prevent a monopoly on news sources. This country is best served by a diversity of ideas.

—Charlotte Lister, Chester, NH

Enough is ENOUGH!

—Debra Mahony, Fairfield, CT

This is TOO much. Stop this.

—Aubrey Brobst, Denver, CO

EVEN MORE CORRUPTION WITHIN THE MOST CORRUPT ADMINISTRATION IN MY LIFETIME.

—Robert Obeid, Bakersville, NC

Free speech depends on a variety of opinions and the embodiment of local views. This merger is NOT acceptable.

—Liz Amsden, Los Angeles, CA

How corrupt does this administration have to be before Congress pushes back? It's shameful!

—Kate Sherwood, Long Beach, NY

Is this a Corporate handout to control the message? Sounds like a mega monopoly to me. Brought to us by someone who wants their own agenda wholly reported.

—Allan Young, Novato, CA

I am a U.S. citizen and I am very concerned that the public interest would be poorly served by the extreme concentration of television broadcast stations under Sinclair control if Sinclair and Tribune were permitted to merge.

—Mr. Curt Dunnam, Trumansburg, NY

This merger is detrimental to democracy.

—Patricia Silver, Berkeley, CA

"And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?" Matthew 7:3. We criticize Russia and Putin for propaganda, yet ignore our own political prostitutes. Leave $50 on the table before you go.

—Steven Robbins, Londonderry, NH

Oh god no!

—Mercy Drake, Mesa, AZ

This kind of media consolidation is unwise and unfair.

—Joan Duggan, Solomon, KS

Stop Sinclair's anti-democracy attempt.

—Michael C, Kennebunk, ME

Can you say Bell Telephone? Way too much control!

—Doug Simmer, Austin, TX

The trend to control the message thru manipulations of the media, from the internet, to NPR, and now to this merger, is typical of dictatorships, not democracies! The FCC needs to step up for our democratic values!

—Margarita Zamora, Verona, WI

We need a diverse group of newscasters. Not one giant company.

—Tom Denison, Corvallis, OR

The FCC is supposed to work for the people of the United States of America.

—Mary Suda, Clifton Park, NY

Cut out the mergers, they are not needed. Do your job supposed to, not lip service for Trump.

—Anthony G Franklin, Bedford, OH

ABSOLUTELY NOT! The FCC should block this merger and restore policies that encourage a diversity of local media owners!

—Kristen Parsons, Seattle, WA

This constitutes "Monopoly"!! Please look this up!

—Gary L. Barber, Gearhart, OR

After you've manipulated all of our nation's laws for your own political gains and rendered our nation an anarchic state, we'll make a date to meet in the street. Sound good, chachi?

—Sam DeLeo, Denver, CO

This is a direct threat to free speech.

—Richard Tisinai, Lafayette, CO

"The first casualty of war is the truth." Sinclair is waging war, in clandestine conspiracy with others determined to destroy representative Constitutional democracy. Someone should stand up and represent the people. Educate the people. Represent the people.

—Gary E. Andrews, Portsmouth, OH

How would this merger help the regular person?

—Martin Roth, Norwalk, CT

That's ridiculous. It's the first step toward state run media. This isn't Russia.

—Chelsea Sutton, Salina, KS

Whatever happened to monopolies being ILLEGAL. Especially MEDIA needs to be competitive, not all in one pocket.

—Ann Burkes, Endicott, NY

This is nuts. No Sinclair-Tribune merger. It would create a monopoly that should be illegal if it isn't already. This country embraced "free and open media" a long time ago. Keep it that way.

—Kathleen Rackliffe, Cleveland, OH

Please don't add to the growing list of conflicts of interests in this administration.

—Caere Dunn, Prescott, AZ

Sinclair is too big and too biased. Stop the takeover of Tribune by Sinclair.

—John D. Santamaria, Stoneham, MA

Horrible idea!

—Rhiannon Brown, Austin, TX

NO!

—Stephen Gliva, Evanston, IL

hell no!

—Vlatko Salaj, ,

STOP THIS NOW. AS A FORMER CEO OF A TOP TEN MARKET BROADCASTING COMPANY WITH NO POLITICAL TIES - WE WERE AGAINST RELAXING OWNERSHIP RULES IN THE 80s AND WE WERE RIGHT. THE USA PUBLIC OWNS THE AIR WAVES NOT CORPORATIONS - NEVER EVER FORGET THIS

—C Scullin, Santa Fe, NM

This is an outrage. We need to preserve diversity on the airwaves, not enable monolithic and forced opinion broadcasts to dominate the public sphere.

—Janis L. Solomon, Quaker Hill,, CT will he have russian subtitles??

—Lawrence Mitchell, Andover, MA

History tells us. If allowed, this will end badly.

—Sam Wallick, Renton, WA

Stop the stifling of diversity on the airwaves.

—Martha Goldin, San Francisco, CA

Stop the Sinclair merger and unplug Trump TV. Right wing propaganda is tragic for a democratic country !!!!

—Glenda ODell, Montgomery, IL

Favorable coverage to the Trump administration in exchange for changing the rules to allow local monopolies in many locations. Another Swamp Monster!!

—Darrell Noel, New York, NY

CAPITALISM is about competition. If you keep eliminating competition, what is left doesn't work for most of b us, only the corporate owners. Block this merger now.

—Mike Berger, Imperial, MO

This is not in the best interests of the consumers.

—Chris Farmer, LOS ALAMITOS, CA

What part of capitalism don't you people get. More competition keeps prices down and innovations and research up. You republicans and chairmen of the peoples agency are pretty conflicted between your words and your actions. But the people see what is going on. This is no longer the 19th century where corporations and bankers are not unmasked. Go work in the private sector where you belong. Then you are only criminal and not dangerous to the people you are supposed to be representing.

—Aileen Spillman, Herbster, WI

Consolidation in any industry is NOT good for consumers because it limits choices and competition. In the case of media, whether it's print or electronic, it means the public can't easily get alternative opinions. Democracy requires free and open access to ideas from diverse sources and that will be defeated by this merger.

—Richard R Gingras, city, VA

Guys, can't you see how scary this is? And what a slippery slope? Even Hitler, Stalin and Mussolini didn't manage to grab this kind of power over the media...STOP these people, stop them NOW! Please...

—Mikesmoore, Gerlach, NV

Under the first amendment the PUBLIC deserves to have real diversity in the media. That is not with a single company owning 200+ TV stations.

—sue Hestor, San Francisco, CA

why do you folks want to kill America? A free press is a checks and balance to power and you want to DESTROY that with this merger. HELL NO TO ANTI-AMERICAN PRESS!!!~

—Dyanne DiRosario, Glendale, CA

Where is the legal review on this. This is unfair and watching Trumps use of TV a propaganda nightmare.

—Donna Rice, Chesterfield, MO

This is a media monopoly that should never have gotten as big as it already is. Stop it now!

—Nancy Murphy, Maryville, IL

I feel that all kinds of views should be expressed on radio and TV. That being said, I'm opposed to Sinclair buying Tribune Broadcasting's stations. Sinclair is notorious for allowing only one point of view to be heard on its stations particularly during newscasts. There has been and continues to be too much media consolidation. This took place in 1996 when the Telecommunications Act ruined radio. Another example is when Comcast took over NBC. Now MSNBC is leaning toward one point of view which for the most part favors President Trump although its "liberal leaning programming" is making money after 8 P.M. weeknights. We don't need the same thing to happen today. Sinclair should not be allowed to own the stations currently licensed to Tribune. A diversity of opinions needs to continue in America. This assures a healthy and forward thinking population and the state of our democratic republic.

—Lawrence Stoler, Stamford, CT

Please stop this or soon we will have the "government" controlling everything published on TV. We don't need government controlled news even though the current president has been attempting to do this by his "hatred" of anyone who disagrees with him.

—Sharon K. Baker, Palmer Lake, CO

let me get this straight fcc chaircroak. You want to screw the public via the internet, and also pull a nazi stunt with the media. Correct?

—Mr. David Pushard, Boise, ID

Whose FCC is it? if it truly is ours (I am an American), then this merger should not go through

—Eileen Keller, Oakland, CA

Monopolies cannot be allowed to stand!

—Rachel C, S Burlington, VT

This is how dictatorships begin by stamping out opposing voices

—Diane Good, Bellaire, MI

We have more than enough outlets for disinformation already. Media consolidation never serves the public interest.

—Ira Steven Levine, Los Angeles, CA

We are sick of Trump fake news! He should be impeached.

—Ann Hiltner, Milton, NY

We are not satisfied on everything!

—Alan Katzer, winston-salem, NC

Hmmm - soon we won't be able to eat any food processed in this country, drink water without extensive filtration, visit National Parks, have accessible health care - now, T.V.? Is it coming to civil revolt or mass emigration? Good riddance, in any case, to the Criminals in the White House and Congress. NOT REAL AMERICANS!

—Ellene Shapiro, Highland Park, IL

NO F**KING WAY

—Glenn Ross, Eureka, CA

I was born into Fascist Italy. Centralized control of media is a pillar of Fascist dictatorship.

—Marco Pardi, Lawrenceville, GA

This is clearly against the law and the President must be made to follow his own platform of Law and Order in all things, as must the FCC. Please remind both entities this is not Russia...yet.

—Virginia Ross, Williamsburg, NM

Will every media outlet become monopolized in the U.S. making Trump's voice the only one heard in this country? Use some common sense before you too fall into the abyss.

—Lillian Liss, Edison, NJ

This reminds us of the early 1900s and of why antitrust laws were made. Obviously they need revision in favor of stopping mergers.

—Ms. Robert & Sandra Ross, Arroyo Seco, NM

EVERYONE knows this potential merger flies in the face of legal limits. What is WRONG with the FCC these days? Just their "considerations" are outrageous and if done will - without question - further erode our fragile democracy.

—Cathy Spalding, Olympia, WA

This is absolutely unacceptable and must be prevented at all costs!

—Britta Dimaggio, Louisville, CO

This country needs more diverse media, not less.

—Katharine W. Rylaarsdam, Baltimore, MD

Local news is often more important than national. Our safety sometimes depends on local TV and radio coverage.

—Judith Wands, NYC, NY

OH HELL NO

—Scott Graham, union grove, WI

Prevent the Predator-in-Chief from controlling the news.

—Ronald Lemmert, Peekskill, NY

I urge the Commissioner to block the merger of Sinclair and Tribune Broadcasting. It is unhealthy for democracy to have the majority of local TV broadcasters owned by one company.

—Dennis Bournique, San Francisco, CA

Free press free television free radio. Let the truth be FREE

—Dr. Barbara Ripel, Cutchogue, NY

The fewer individuals for American news, the worse for America. RESIST.

—Natalae Jaennae Alluneedis, Rochester, MN

Our democracy has no place for cronyism or megalopolies such as the Sinclair-Tribune merger.

—Sandra Fujita, Kaneohe, HI

Free and fair means no monopolies.

—Suzanne Kuffler, Woods Hole, MA

I thought you all were thinking human beings! Your lock step with this would be dictator. I'm ashamed of you.

—Ms. Canary Burton, Wellfleet, MA

A no brainer---a big NO.

—Rose M Lagerberg, Edmonds, WA

Keep variety in media do not allow this merger

—Richard D Stewart, Mill Valley, CA

Nothing about this merger is OK - and nothing about it would benefit the consumer in any way...

—Ellis Woodward, Baltimore, MD

News...not propaganda.

—Stephen ADVOKAT, Asheville, NC

Consolidation of media ownership has gone too far. We are losing diversity in news reporting. Sinclair acquisition of Tribune is unacceptable.

—John D Walling, Seattle, WA

People are really getting pissed, do you know what a revolt looks like? Keep it up and you will see. We are accumulating more and more desperate people with nothing to lose!

—Patsy Lowe, Simi Valley, CA

Republican pondscum

—J Teagle, garrison, NY

We need to bring back the old Anti-Trust laws. We have a monster to face, and it is big business wanting to rule the world. We do not want this in the USA!

—Karen Bartle, Mount Judea, AR

I am watching a chilling change in the media increasing especially after November. There seems less information and fear the truth will be even more elusive.

—Janet Dales, New Orleans, LA

This is just absurd. There's no defense for it.

—Rosary Grande, Rochester, NY

The FCC must meet its responsibility to the American people. Think about the present and the future!

—Sue Cook, Seattle, WA

Stop this conflict with American Values, do not approve this merger..

—Gary Albright, Snohomish, WA

Merger of Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune must NOT be allowed.

—Gladys M Bransford, Cobb, CA

We have too few independent news sources as it is. These companies should be broken Un, not allowed to merge.

—Les Rées, Tempe, AZ

Sounds like Monopoly in the making

—Jeff Crane, Miami, FL

Permitting this mega-merger could allow a communication conglomerate with a particular political slant to reach as much as 70% of our country's population. In the immediate future, this would likely result in a private TV network serving as an unofficial White House broadcasting arm with a very long reach.

—Kenneth Deffenbacher, Omaha, NE

This is an outrage! The FCC is SUPPOSED to work for the best interests of WE THE PEOPLE. Further media consolidation is insulting and likely criminal!

—Kathy Condor, LaVale, MD

No more mega mergers!

—Laura Hanks, Milwaukie, OR

I don't like any of the partisan TV channels - left wing or right wing - so turn them both off. These groups are detrimental to our democracy. Do not approve them!

—Sara C. Mayfield, Henderson, NV

It has been said that all politics is local. So is all life. The independent, small media are the main forum of democracy in this country.

—Margaret McBride, Greenfield, MA

Cannot believe he might have bullypulpit all his very own to bully people ...not okay with me and many others I speak to

—Lorraine Krane, Camarillo, CA

Press independence is too important to give up.

—Edward Jahn, Leesburg, VA

Have we forgotten the meaning of monopoly? This concept is especially important concerning the media industry and its importance to the functioning of democracy. I say, stop the monopolizing of our local TV stations.

—Jason C Reynolds, Sherwood, OR

Sinclair= Too BIG and a Free Press will FAIL!

—G Casey, Altadena, CA

Break up the media companies of all kinds. SDD

—Mr. Shelley D. Dahlgren PhD, Sammamish, WA

How nice it is to be last in knowledge and understanding; America the Stupid.

—Ms. Anne del Prado, Freeport, TX

Remember the old AT&T? May that happen to you.

—Virginia Wilber, Fort Worth, TX

I will never watch anything that Trump TV puts out. Stop this merger immediately.

—Janet Zehnal, Lady Lake, FL

Degrading local TV with propaganda is the quick way for it to lose out to cable.

—David R. Burwasser, Oberlin, OH

Sinclair's right wing agenda is evident in Seattle after the local ABC affiliate was bought by the family. It's news has taken a conservative slant and now reminds me of Fox Lite Seattle.

—James French, Seattle, WA

There is never a "Right-way" to do a wrong thing...

—Alan Ernesto Phillips, Redding, CA

Consolidation in media has caused our nations deicide. Big business in media equals biased sensationalism!

—Helder Prata, New Fairfield, CT

Conflict of interest is blatantly obvious if Trump has FCC approval for any platform for his disinformation .

—EFormby, Bedford, TX

This must not be allowed. If for no other reason, for the sake of our Democracy!

—David W. Stanley, Champaign, IL

DESPICABLE!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

—Thomas Peterson, Windham, ME

It is enough that we have to watch Trump tear down this country on decent, balanced outlets. Now he's going to gain the ability to tout his sick agenda on most major city stations. I urge the FCC not to allow this or any other expansion of his control of the media.

—John Quadros, Fremont, CA

Media monopolies are bad for the country. Do the right thing.

—Sue Edelman, Medford, MA

Sounds ;like dictator tRump is setting up his fake news network.

—Joann Ramos, Iselin, NJ

Conflict?

—John Back, Barryville, NY

Media is already far too concentrated!

—Lance J Konover, Chelsea, MA

Sinclair is big enough.

—Thomas Ogle, Logan, OH

We need diverse news sources. This merger would create an unacceptable level of media consolidation.

—Christine Sandow, LaFayette, GA

NO ! NO !NO ! Prevent this merger. This merger would NOT be in the public interest.

—Clyde Summerell, Jacksonville, FL

These are the nation's airwaves. The people's airwaves. No one political agenda, on either the right or left should be able to put their thumb on the scale in such a fashion.

—Scott Myers, Amarillo, TX

I totally agree with that. There should be checks for every Broadcasting group!

—Heidi Gulatee, ,

Isn't it wrong for a company to own too many stations or newspapers in one area?

—Elizabeth Boynton, Temple Terrace, FL

We don't need another monopoly corporation that becomes too big to fail.

—Roy J Colancecco Jr, Somerdale, NJ

This merger is bad for our democracy.

—Mr. Ron Garrison, Denver, CO

As if Fox News isn't poisoning enough minds already.....

—Dave Barlow, Chicago, IL

Please sustain factual reporting. Bar this merger. Thank you.

—Indee Brooke, Sunland, CA

I will fight to have everything trump has done, reversed, once he and his cohorts are impeached and jailed!

—Susan Paul, Arcata, CA

Please do not muzzle the free expression that is the very bedrock of this country!

—Mr. Milan Pantelic, West Bloomfield, MI

Consolidation in the media is a threat to democracy.

—Andrew Pavelchek, Poway, CA

NO to this mega-merger, no to monopolies!

—Pan Welland, Florence, MA

Typical Trump regime - undemocratic, corporate whore, un-American. Consolidating media with one giant, greedy corporationso is SO WRONG. Another nail in the coffin of Republicans, who will be evicted from office next election.

—Elen Gchesa, Napa, CA

This is obscene. Sinclair should be BROKEN UP, not allowed to get bigger. They are a horrible company. This is complete corruption. Do NOT allow this.

—Ronald Rauscher, Austin, TX

Deport Donald Trump!

—Johnes Ruta, New Haven, CT

There must be an FCC with a conscience out there. OUR FCC should not allow a mega-merger with our tv stations. The Sinclair-Tribune Merger is unethical. Know what unethical means?

—Hazel Poolos, Richfield, NC

Not just 'no'. HELL NO!!!!!!!!!!

—D Carino, Boise, ID

To be well-informed requires a diverse set of sources.

—Richard McCaffrey, Ester, AK

The FCC, now a wholly owned subsidiary of the Telecom Industry!!

—Bruce Anderson, Rolling Meadows, IL

This is a monopoly. Monopolies are dangerous to the people. Voters don't like dangerous monopolies.

—Rose Marie Ash, Buffalo, NY

A permanent boycott of all Sinclair outlets would be all too easy and satisfying, if they appear to be Hogs of the Airwaves. So many of us are ready to cut the Cable and take up reading again for both news and entertainment. If they can't play by the rules and Reason, they can't play with me. I sure won't pay for their undiversified brand, and I'll never need to do so.

—D Hof, Canaan, CT

You can't seriously think this is good for We the People. This is another step down the path to Brave New World. Stop it, NOW!

—Norm S Conrad, Mount Vernon, WA

Sinklower Broadcast Group is a purveyor of fake news - no wonder Drumpf likes it.

—Jeff Ball, Sacramento, CA

Consolidation of sources of news limits the perspective of the news consumer. Just say no.

—Patricia Warden, Newcastle, WA

The FCC's latest moves are among the crassest giveaways we have seen in modern history at the commission. We have localism rules for a reason. Centralized production benefits only Sinclair, not the information needs of local communities. Worse, this paves the way for further mergers of this very kind as other chains realize they need to bulk up to compete themselves. Please block this merger.

—Russell Newman, Attleboro, MA

Please stop this dangerous merger. We need to work to bring the country together with diverse programming.

—Katherin Balles, Bremerton, WA

Who will control this one voice across America? Can anybody? Or will it just be showing old Simpsons cartoons and the occasional erratic press release? America deserves better news and TV coverage than this. Preserve competition. Do not permit this merger.

—Peter Rogan, Royal Oak, MI

we need non-partisan media and not air waves dominated by donald trump

—Ma Do, van,

There is enough of Tv and radio ownership by single corporations.

—Tom Higley, Amarillo, TX

The FCC should be acting to ensure a variety of voices, not giving a monopoly voice to a single organization. Please prevent this merger and work to preclude any single company from monopolizing the media.

—Betsy Rubinstein, Chevy Chase, MD

The air ways belong to the people, make the rules reflect that idea, stop the ideology driven propaganda on our airwaves.

—William Haley, Tye, TX

NO NO NO

—John Back, Barryville, NY

Stop the Sinclair merger and unplug Trump TV.

—Gloria J. Howard, Marana, AZ

Free and independent media are essential for democracy. Monopolies destroy free and independent media, and ultimately democracy as well. Do you stand for tyranny or democracy?

—Larry Lawton, Aberdeen, WA

The professed function of the FCC is to regulate the communications industry, not enable the expansion of corporate conglomerates. Its own website references the FCC's competency in the following areas: Promoting competition, innovation and investment in broadband services and facilities Supporting the nation's economy by ensuring an appropriate competitive framework for the unfolding of the communications revolution Encouraging the highest and best use of spectrum domestically and internationally Revising media regulations so that new technologies flourish alongside diversity and localism Providing leadership in strengthening the defense of the nation's communications infrastructure. A Sinclair-Tribune merger would discourage competition, and promote a non-competitive framework for what is purportedly "public" communication. It is the function of the FCC to prevent this from occurring, not to serve as a tool for corporate supporters of this, or any other political administration.

—Mark Schwartz, Northbrook, IL

We have too few independent broadcasters now. Don't compound the felony. Break up Fox (Murdoch) instead.

—Charline B, Mahwah, NJ

Stop the extreme right wing Sinclair - from taking over 70% of TV station!

—Phyllis Coelho, Belfast, ME

Too much power in one place. Fertile bed for fascism, plutocracy and other forms of bad government. I don't believe the American public will tolerate it. Consumer strikes might not be out of the question!

—Stephen Stoker, San Antonio, TX

we don't need it

—Russell, tampa, FL

IF THIS ISN'T AGAINST SOME LAW (ANTI-TRUST?) IT OUGHT TO BE. PLAESE FIGHT THIS FEROCIOUSLY!

—Cecilia Lieder, Duluth, MN

Monopolies are so dangerous to our democracy

—Anne Sauer, Va. Beach, VA

And please get back to defending all of us, We the [Hardworking American] People, instead.

—Steven J. Vogel, FALLS CHURCH, VA

Competition is backbone of DEMOCRACY and capitalism!

—Mr. Jack Davison, Sun Prairie, WI

I oppose this merger not because I want to stifle Sinclair's right to free speech. I think media consolidation in general is a bad idea because it takes control of local content away from local management and local journalists. That is the violation of free speech in my opinion.

—Tom Hopkins, Milwaukie, OR

Say No to trump TV ,it's right wing propaganda. "The FCC should block this merger and restore policies that encourage a diversity of local media owners and a wide range of viewpoints."

—Frank Baldwin, hidden hills, CA

When I was in school, we were taught that the means of transportation and distribution, manufacturing and COMMUNICATION should not be in the hands of the few. Wise, particularly now.

—Helen Jones, Ashland, OR

Sinclair overrides the objections of local journalists and forces its stations to run conservative commentaries and slanted stories on the local news. Bad!

—Katrin Winterer, Winchester, MA

Too much concentration of ownership will help destroy our countries freedom.

—Francis Kelley, Riverside, RI

May God help us all. The catch is to behave ourselves.

—Sharon Walker, Moore, OK

What happened to competition!

—John grosklags, Marietta, GA

It is critical that this merger be prohibited. A functioning democracy needs variety of information. Allowing one company to supply so much of the market is antithetical to everything that "freedom" stands for! We have a number of historical precedents in which our leadership restrained burgeoning monopolistic action. It works. STOP THE SINCLAIR MERGER!

—S A. Linden, Columbus, OH

This is a democracy-poison pill for the nation... the poison pill should go to those who would destroy democracy. Get the priorities right... people first, greed never!

—Ken Marsh, Los Angeles, CA

The nation is better with sharply restricted ownership of all media outlets (a maximum of four nation-wide, as it was in the 1960s) and voluntary affiliates than it is with corporate media monopolies. All monopolies are evil, and media monopolies are nefariously evil.

—Frank Fisher M.D., Rio Rancho, NM

Keep the airwaves balanced and unbiased; do NOT allow this merger. To do otherwise is a first step toward Facism!

—Kirk Moore, El Granada, CA

If Trump has some form of control over 70 per cent of some form of the media, he's just that much closer to becoming a tyrant.

—Paula Berry, Los Angeles, CA

Will you finally be satisfied when we're down to one or two corporate masters deciding what you should watch and what news you should hear?

—Robert Post, Absecon, NJ

Will the FCC cave to the narcissistic talking yam in the White House or will it hear " the people" who say no to Sinclair and the Tribune merger? With all due respect, Pul-eeeez, do your job. Thank you.

—John Burnaby, Buellton, CA

Stop Sinclair! It is a key step in preventing the loss of open media.

—Jeffrey Labovitz, BOLINAS, CA

NOOOOO!!!!

—Sharon L Jabens, Omaha, NE

This merger must not happen. Sinclair has a history of bias.

—Joseph Lawson, New York, NY

Block this merger!

—Mary Wehrman, Pittsburg, KS

We need MORE diversity. not less.

—David Poese, Milwaukie, OR

Unbelievable!

—Joanne Hoemberg, Fremont, CA

It was the FCC's failure to enforce the long-standing equal time and fairness doctrines, together with the loosening of ownership limitations (maximum number of licenses / licensee character and fitness / etc.) a generation ago - and the agency's ensuing disregard of the basic tenets and goals of the Federal Communications Act - that fueled our nation's disastrous slide into oligarchy and corporate facism which continues to this day. It is time the FCC began the formal reversal of this trend by denying the proposed Sinclair takeover of Tribune. The American people are angry and weary with what has been happening with the FCC's gutless non-regulation of the corporate mass media. Just say NO.

—Russell Stein, Cocoa, FL

I rely on local news and PBS and believe this merger would put those services in jeopardy.

—Carla Skuce, Raleigh, NC

No way is this okay!

—David Hoemberg, Fremont, CA

This merger is definitely NOT in the best interest of the American people!!

—Mathew Webber, Cazenovia, NY

What the fuck happened to federal anti-trust laws. Jeez ... they broke up Ma Bell when they attempted to dominate telecommunications. Did someone erase them off the books?!?

—Pat Bailey, Somerville, NJ

GO HOME, DONALD TRUMP AND FAMILY. YOU'RE NOT FIT FOR THE JOB.

—Madeline Shaw, Slate Hill, NY

This concentration of media power in a single company is far too great and cannot be allowed because it invites corruption and misconduct.

—Jeanine Center, Ann Arbor, MI

Mega mergers only help mega profits for the few and higher costs, rates, for the customers, subscribers. Stop it, enough is enough.

—Ruth Freedner, Boynton Beach, FL

Monopoly in broadcasting, particularly NEWS broadcasting, is characteristic of authoritarian governments, not democracies. The merger of Sinclair with the Tribune will be a big step towards political, media and social decay.

—Daniel Oconnor, Norwood, MA

How can this be legal under various anti-trust laws such as Sherman and Anti-Monopoly legislation? Not to ignore domination of various local markets.

—Kenneth A. David, Tucson, AZ

The American people want fair and unbiased reporting, which must necessarily be distributed and diverse.

—Barb Basaj, Milwaukee, WI

If the FCC does not block this merger, it will have colluded with Trump to permit this to happen. Trump does NOT own this country, and neither does the FCC. This country belongs to its people!

—Richard Martin, Corvallis, OR

NO don't let this happen please!!!!!!

—Mrs K K, Colorado Springs, CO

Mega banks, mega media conglomerates, oil companies, etc., weren't there laws at one time preventing these things? Why is this allowed? It limits choice, innovation, costs more.

—Joanne Tollison, Petersburg, MI

Too Big to Broadcast!

—John Fitzpatrick, Springfield, VA

Enough with trump's corruption and graft!

—Kathleen A. Mireault, Jamaica Plain, MA

I won't and don't watch anything they offer and am wondering when the Sherman Anti-Trust Act was repealed????

—Ann Catherine Keirns, Concord, CA

NO more corporate news junk

—Carol Ann Timm, Brooklyn, MI

Don't do it A$$HOLE$...

—Johann D. Brentrup, mpls, MN

Stop today's Buzz (Beelzebub) Windrip, or else "It Can Happen Here!"

—Dr. Alice Faye Singleton, Los Angeles, CA

I shall just that I am an anti-fascist, and know this sort of consolidation of bigotry and truly fake news must not be allowed to infringe on democracy,

—Charles L. Rapport, Holliston, MA

Adding to an already shrill and unpatriotic voice is not something the FCC should allow.

—Paul Oostenbrug, Albuquerque, NM

Break up sinclair

—David Gurarie, boulder, CO

Dont create a media monopoly, block this merger

—Jesse Bernhardt, Peosta, IA

The Republican propaganda machine in action. Take over the media and the internet and block news agencies that actually tell the truth. All party of the police state as Trump remodels America in Russia's image. If Democrats were doing it, Republicans would be screaming "TREASON!"

—Krista Owens, Middlebury, CT is too much concentration already.....we don't need more.

—Anthony Marchione, Welaka, FL

This is a clear cut example of fraudulent mergers. It is ripe for anti-trust legislation. Too much power in one corporation.

—Rosemarie Bundy, Syracuse, NY

A consolidated press is not a FREE PRESS! The media should serve THE PEOPLE not the not the consolidated agenda of wealth.

—Susan Miller, North Palm Beach, FL

there is already a majority of right wing media over the airwaves. WE DO NOT NEED MORE.

—Mike Nelson, sequim, WA

We can't have another Fix the news channel. Racism, bigotry and misogyny should never be allowed to spew lies a la Trump ever.

—Jorge I. I. Gomez, San Antonio, TX

Monopolies are illegal in this country.

—Annie Katzman, N.Y.C., NY

No merger... stop these aggressive tactics.

—Diana Moon, Denver, CO

We must protect a free press. This merger would put that at risk.

—Leslie Noyes, Havana, FL

This chain is dangerous, and not viable for free speech, and abuses the airwaves which belong to public.

—Ted Liljeholm, Portland, OR

Mr. Pai, You have the power to act for the welfare of your country. If you fail to stop this merger the damage it causes to our democracy may later be undone but the shame you bring down on both your country and the land of your forbears will be permanent.

—Michele Childers, New York, IL

Stop this now.

—Judi Hendricks, Santa Fe, NM

No Deal!

—Steve Walsh, Gresham, OR

Too much power for one company.

—Dewey r Morgan, Oklahoma city, OK

No to increasing monopolization!

—Anthony Barron, Georgetown, TX

Hell No!!

—Joe R Winter, Reno, NV

Stop the greed. This is a free country and press is required.

—Mark Frost, Gold Beach, OR

If you allow this to happen, there is no hope for balanced, or even accurate, news reporting in the US. What have we come to, that we allow such monopolies to exist? That these Republican crimes, for crimes they are, are not stopped?

—Janet Tice, Chapel Hill, NC

Consolidating media is a threat to our country!

—D White, Windsor, NY

America needs *more* choices for our news, not fewer. Say 'No!' to Sinclair and keep your hands off public broadcasting.

—Mike McGraw, San Diego, CA

Trump using the Presidency to benefit himself!! Why am I not surprised!!!!

—Mary G. Puffenberger, Elizabethtown, PA

Trump has no business doing deals for himself while he is president of the united states

—David-Allen A-D Smith, PHOENIX, AZ

As a native Chicagoan, I grew up with WGN and the Chicago Tribune. They, along with other Chicago media, are regional staples. And regional staples should have regional voices, free from outside influence. Allowing this important collection of voices and Chicago culture be poisoned by an opportunistic media conglomerate would be a travesty. Furthermore, I find it incredibly troubling to find a company in which our current president has financial interest being favored by his administration. This merger must be stopped.

—Mike Egan, Brooklyn, NY

Keep Sinclair out of Los Angeles!

—Julie May, Los Angeles, CA

Gee. Why does this remind me of another time -- back there in the 30's when a funny guy with the mustache took over?!

—Ann Parker, Phoenix, AZ

I say NO to this dictatorship that is ripping apart our 1st Amendment and our democracy

—Marlene Levine, LA QUINTA, CA

Oh my *** it's too big! Don't let this mega merger go thru, we will never be the same!

—Joel Johnson, Vancouver, WA

OMG! Can things get any worse? Orwell rolls in his grave....AGAIN!

—Valerie Levy, Carmel, NY

This merger makes economic nonsense.

—Max Obuszewski, Baltimore, MD

A FREE/FAST Web is the most important FREEDOM we have left!

—Don Leichtling, San Diego, CA

Stop corporate consolidation of media! We need diversity and truth, not corporate controlled messaging. Fox is already too much of an influence in misleading, distorting, and misdirecting "Alternative facts" to make citizens think that they are true.

—Thomas T. Taylor, Los Angeles, CA

NOW!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

—Tania J Malven, Tucson, AZ

No more monopolies and mega-mergers!

—Mary Colby, Aurora, IL

The rules are in place for a very good reason, to protect and ensure that no one company, no one person can control all our airwaves. If you allow Sinclair increasing market share, you will be jeopardizing this country in ways you cannot imagine. STOP the mergers.

—Rebecca Kimsey, Sublimity, OR

You ask how to control information/diversity of opinion and elect "Super Culls" like Donald Trump, et. al. and benefit the 1%ers: Concentrate ownership of the media. It's time for the Supreme Court to step up at begin anti-trust action; or at least rule on constitutionality (of course not) of allowing further concentration of media ownership. It obviously violates Free Speech amendment by limits opposing view dissemination.

—Dennis Klosterman, Florence, OR

There were always rules to prevent oversized media companies controlling too many stations; be they radio or television. Those rules should never have changed or been allowed to be 'altered'. Sinclair should NOT be permitted to buy Tribune media. WE need MORE competition- NOT LESS! NO MERGER!! It goes against rules and it is bad policy for the country.

—Stacy R, New York, NY

Diverse sources of media content is vital to prevent one-size-fits-all and lowest common denominator programming. Information is power and should be provided from a wide spectrum rather than some focused profit-driven monopolistic mega-corporation. Deny this merger!

—Mack Green, Austin, TX

dump T-rump!

—John Guros, des moines, WA

Please protect us and put the needs of the American people before corporations

—Jennifer, Albuquerque, NM

Sinclair Broadcast Group must not be permitted to own and operate a widening array of media outlets. This consolidation is not in the public interest. The FCC must reject this right-wing take over effort.

—Barbara A. Kenney, Santa Fe, NM

Our government should protect us from megamergers, not facilitate them!

—Charlene Woodcock, Berkeley, CA

Freedom of the press and freedom of speech - not very many things are more important for our country.

—Gary DeCamp, Eugene, OR

We cannot have State run media in a free democratic country.

—Donna Parks, Red Oak, TX

asshole

—Marvin Gehrman, Cedar Park, TX

This merger will only give us less choice.

—Joe Joyner, Greeley, CO

Do Not Allow This Merger.

—Pam Silver, Palm Desert, CA

Enough is ENOUGH!

—Alan Ellefson Sr., New Richmond, WI

Hell NO! Trump is already disrespecting the office of President by continuing to spend time and money on his businesses.

—Toni Caldwell Clark, Kansas City, KS

Unacceptable.

—Susan McDonald, Nashville, TN

Don't help create a fascist media system. Thank you very much!

—Alison Monroe, Oakland, CA

This merger is an unholy political power grab and an egregious case of media concentration.

—John T. Powers Jr., Gresham, OR

Teddy Roosevelt would shit his pants over this atrocity that forms another monopoly!

—Ralph Tuscher, Cement City, MI

This merger must be stopped! There are very good reasons we have laws to limit the number of stations one conglomerate can own--1st & foremost, to protect our basic freedoms as Americans!

—Lee Snow, North Plains, OR

We have anti-trust laws and a free press for a reason!

—Mara Sabinson, Cornish, NH

No

—Joan Kargel, Climax, MN

Let Freedom Ring on my TV

—Brenda Guardado, Front Royal, VA

I detest mega-mergers because it means fewer points of view in the Marketplace of Ideas. That's what will happen if the Sinclair-Tribune merger happens. Don't allow it!

—Kathryn A. Burns, Austin, TX

NO. NO, NO!!!

—Nancy matthews, Sedona, AZ

Support the diversity of media opinion.

—Sherry Vatter, Los Angeles, CA

No propaganda news.

—Ana Pitarch, Miami, FL

somebody please stop this idiot! he's destroying everything america WAS about!

—Barbara hosmer, Mission Viejo, CA

We don't need another Fox News

—Elizabeth MacKelvie, Appleton, WI

In an already overly oligopolistic market where individual corporations are exerting inappropriate degrees of influence on public media consumption, further market consolidation goes in direct opposition to public interest. The corporations composing the market should be incentivized to break up their holdings so as to limit their ability to unduly influence and direct public opinion.

—Christopher Kloppinger-Todd, Montgomery Village, MD

This is America. We are supposed to be a land of laws not a training grounds for an agenda of propaganda.

—Dorothy Buchholz, Olathe, KS

CREATING FEWER AND FEWER MEDIA OUTLETS IS THE FASTEST WAY TO CREATE A THIRD-WORLD USA. YOU ARE A TRAITOR TO THE CONSTITUTION YOU SWORE TO UPHOLD. RESIGN NOW!

—S K Davis, Bristol, CT

it is time to represent the citizens instead of huge broad casting media companies. Lets play by the fair rules.

—Charles Semler, Sharpsburg, MD

There's less freedom to the airwaves if this merger takes place. Puh-lease.

—Jeff Cody, reston, VA

This is a disgrace to the democracy of the American people .... It must be stopped .....

—TGarmon Garmon, Dawsonville, GA

Stop this insanity.

—Ray Morris, Bakersfield, CA

Do your job! This is a deplorable merger and must not happen!

—Susan Dannenfelser, Lafayette, CA

TRUMP'S FAVORITE SALUTE:...SIEG HEIL! AND, HE NEEDS THE MEDIA TO JOIN HIM--SINCLAIR BROADCAST GROUP.

—Gil Vogel, PAHRUMP, NV

makes me wanna puke

—Thomas Phillips, Palisade, CO

HEIL TRUMP!!!!!!!!!!!!!! FASCIST DICTATOR BASTARD!!!!!!!!!!!!

—Joe Karr, middletown, NY

You are defiling the values that made America great. For generations, all political parties have agreed that it would be bad for democracy in America to have too much consideration of media power. If you agree to this merger, you will be part of the fascist Republican agenda to dismantle the safeguards that make democracy possible. You will be an enemy of America and you will be remembered as one of the key players responsible for all the evil that ensues.

—Benjamin Harley, New York, NY

We must retain autonomy and independent discourse on all stations. One company should not be allowed to choose based on agenda.

—Jacki Jean, Greer, SC

These mega mergers have worsened choices for radio & tv. And have only increased rates. There is no benefit for the American people in approving this merger

—D t ptak, Delevan, NY

NO TRUMP TV!

—Kent Vendrick, Oxford, PA

Enough with mega entertainment and news companies - no more. It's outrageous to have all that power in the hands of so few where they can shape the views of hundreds of millions of people. No, NO!

—Gavi Stevens, LARGO, FL

LESS Consolidation! NOT More!!!

—Jim Lykins, Scappoose, OR

Fascists always come to a bad end. Guaranteed.

—Robert Fischhoff, Silver City, NM

Sinclair has started to show about 10 to 15 minutes of propaganda before the Today show on NBC in Toledo Ohio. And Today is also accepting political info that should be challenged. The merger is a BAD move. We are not Russia, North Korea, or China. Lets not move toward state tv.

—Lori Wilson, Toledo, OH

Is there no end to GREED?

—Roberta Houllahan, Providence, RI

Please consider the long range consequences of stifling competition at this time. It is profoundly dangerous to our democracy.

—Susan Henning, Pittsboro, NC

Slanted broadcasting made us easy to manipulate by the Russian meddling in our election. How can increasing this SLANTING HELP US IN ANY WAY? PLEASE DO NOT APPROVE OF THIS MERGER.

—Ann E. Wales, Bellingham, WA

Trump is completely incompetent and should be removed from office!

—Kerry Moore, Toledo, WA

Diversity in our media....no merger!

—Carol Affleck, Seattle, WA

Sorry but that's way too much influence for just one corporation to wield! Please don't allow this HUGE MISTAKE TO HAPPEN!!!

—Dana Stickney, Mattapoisett, MA

Change the way we see you by being honest, ethical, fair, and a good president, not by controlling what we see.

—Steven Rogat, Pittsboro, NC

This deal would pave the way for Big Brother-style governance. No way should this be passed.

—Barbara Trypaluk, Saratoga Springs, NY

Denver needs better news coverage, not less.

—Helen Bushnell, Denver, CO

This deal would contribute to the demise of our democracy. But I know the FCC won't stop it because they are in trumps pocket

—Lori Lagorio, Sedona, AZ

Very nice ! Another way to illegitimately control the media. This must be stopped ! Outrageous !

—Maureen Robertson, Iowa City, IA

Do NOT want will NOT WATCH IT ALL FAKE NEWS

—F G, Vancouver, WA

I call upon you in the spirit of Republican President Theodore Roosevelt to bust this trust. Monopolies have no place in democracies. Stop this.

—Bella Silverstein, Canyon Country, CA

This is unbelievable. What ever happened to free press?

—Nathan Romberg, Douglas, WY

I am the 99%. OBSTRUCT. RESIST. REFUSE. Donald J. Tinyhands is not my President. Tinyhands has shown a troubling preference for the super rich, for the oligarchs and possibly treasonous contacts with Russian intelligence, a persistently profound ignorance of the Constitution. His public behavior shows he is probably mentally ill and thus a threat to life on our planet. He shows indications of functional illiteracy. He must be confined for his safety. And for ours. ALL of Tinyhands policies and nominations for office must be aggressively opposed by all available means.

—Peter J Butt, San Pedro, CA

Sinclair is big enough already.

—John Reynolds, Eugene, OR

Very dangerous!

—Stephen Day, Okemos, MI

No more consolidation of media. We want the truth.

—Sherrill Futrell, Davis, CA

No monopolies.

—Janet Robinson, Boca Raton, FL

We have too many "legal monopolies" now under the F.C.C. - DON'T BUILD ANOTHER ONE - LOCAL TV!

—John Blanchard3, Pittsburgh, PA

I don't want my local news to have to pander to hate and the right. Keep KTLA just the way it is - Sinclair FREE

—Marylucia Arace, Fullerton, CA

This merger will endanger our freedom of information.

—Catherine Riley, Chico, CA

Big Media is Bad Media. We need local, diverse media to ensure democracy.

—Ken Lauter, Nacogdoches, TX

This is a fascist tactic.

—James Shuta, Dickson City, PA

Competetion. Ever here of it?

—Douglas W. Meyer, Guilford, CT

No No No No No!!!!

—Kathy Weaver, Shasta, CA

We need competition and different perspectives on news.

—Jarryl Larson, Edgecomb, ME

A convergence of MegaAssholes.

—Malcolm Moore, Portola, CA

This has all gone too far. Big monopolies need to be broken up, especially any media companies, and those that can't tell facts from propaganda.

—Teresa Dix, Mount Vernon, WA

Trump is a well known liar. To be on the safe side, one needs to consider anything that comes out of his mouth a lie. He is re-writing laws with zero input from the public. He wants to control all the airwaves. That is exactly what dictators do! Do not let his company take over the real news and supplant it with lies, propaganda, and extreme racist views. Stop this merger so our country does not lose freedom of the press, which is part of the First Amendment!

—Karen Sinclair-Smith, Colorado Springs, CO

YOU MOTHER FUCKER! THE HATE YOU BROADCAST COMES RIGHT BACK TO YOU! HOPE YOU DIE SOONER!

—Barry Dow, McCall, ID

Free Press is essential to democracy. This merger must not happen.

—Catherine Terdich, Morton Grove, IL

No Soon all we will have is one huge news corporation and there will be only one view and no independent news reporting. NO

—Emily LaBrenz, Sterling, MI

We still have anti-trust laws on our books. Now comes this corporation with a history of law-breaking. This merger should be emphatically blocked.

—Alice Neuhauser, Manhattan Beach, CA

Our democracy needs diverse voices. This merger will be an enormous threat to our freedom.

—Brett O'Sullivan, Denver, CO

Not only does this proposed merger put far too many local media sources in one hands, those hands are dirty and don't deserve to expand their bad ways.

—Thomas R. Conroy, Manhattan Beach, CA

This is pure ANTITRUST!!!!

—T Taylor, New York, NY

When is enough, enough?!

—Christine Etapa, Chicago, IL

Please, please protect us from BIG MEDIA

—Lois West Duffy, Afton, MN

Whatever happened to antitrust laws?

—Helga Jack Freund & Morgenstern, Cornville, AZ

No monopolies please. We need to pursue the truth.

—Jeff Jelinek, Austin, TX

Monopoly, not "free trade" is the word that comes to mind. Trump doesn't even pretend to be re-writing rules for the greater good.

—Charles Homyak, Monrovia, CA

What about anti-trust law?

—Jerald Vinikoff, Mechanicville, NY

Diversity in local programming must be protected.

—Ken Heath, Marion, VA

Americans need to bust up mergers, mega-corporations are an anathema to the American way of life. Treason

—Joan Gabriele, Perkasie, PA

The Trump era will go down in history as the most insane in the history of the US. What are you thinking? It ain't natural to go against fairness and reason, where most of the country's sensibilities are. If you want to disenfranchise more than half the country, not to mention break long held rules of fairness, then please continue. It will come to no good end as the masses will eventually rebel and the far right word will fall on deaf ears. There's more of us than there is of you.

—Carol J. Trotter, Astoria, OR

This is corruption.

—Diane Kopan, Chicago, IL

No one should have that much control of the media, let alone a megalomaniac idiot president

—Mark White, ,

Sinclair Broadcast Group plus Agit Pai equals end of free speech in the United States and total propaganda

—Carol Huber, Seal Beach, CA

No more mergers they are too big now break them up.

—Lj Lombardo, Beaumont, TX

The American people and Electorate have been ill-served, even deceived through corporate media consolidation. Media control is a hallmark of the Authoritarian state, this act is aiding and abetting the rise of a corporate authoritarian state. A free press is meaningless if the outlets are owned by corporate interests of an inbred political ideology. In an age of unparalleled deceit and herd-think, democracy can not long survive a consolidated politicized media. Just say no! Sincerely David Reed

—David Reed, Denver, CO

As a Los Angeles resident I strongly oppose the Sinclairization of my local station. Let Sinclair know that I will participate as a leader in efforts to encourage a boycott of the station to drive advertisers away and put the station out of business. It's time to play nasty hardball with purveyors of right wing mis-truths.

—Barry Gerber, Los Angeles, CA

America must retain Free Speech by maintaining independent media. Combining or merging 2 very large media companies again is UN-democratic.

—Lynne Kane, Chapel Hill, NC

Media monopolies don't do anything good...Trump & Murdoch are going down, also!

—John S. Sonin, Juneau, AK

QUIT SCREWING US!!!!!!!!!!

—Gerard F Gaudin, METAIRIE, LA

All we need--more right-wing radio.NOT

—Robert J. Roth, shaker hts., OH

Sick to death of everything TRUMP--time to drain the White House SWAMP

—Kristen implacably opposed to corporate control of American Zehner, M, WI

What the heck. Kill this antitrust deal.

—Howard Pellett, Anacortes, WA

Fraud. Stop fraud.

—Robert Etherton, Joplin, MO

If this merger would place the new company "far beyond the legal limits on media ownership -- WHY IS IT EVEN BEING CONSIDERED??

—Virginia H. Bennett, Honolulu, HI

Do we seriously need more "Trump News"? I think not.

—Robin Patten, Oklahoma City, OK

Isn't this a conflict of interest? Isn't that against the law and the Constitution?

—Patricia Always, Sun City, AZ

Trump will make money on this ! Sorry I cannot put President in front of his name. Truly sorry . But his rhetoric and actions have not been Presidential outrageous beyond the word already!!

—Dawn Turner, elkton, MD

—Pat White, ogden, UT

I strongly disapprove of this merger. It would put too much power and influence in the hands of one company and would stifle the diversity of messages we need in order for our democracy to flourish.

—Katherine McHale, San Jose, CA

It is totally un-American to allow one company to take over all these stations. Stop it now.

—Cara Rose Simonetta, Riegelsville, PA

Please oppose the merger. We need more competition, not less of it, and not concentrated mega corps. Thank you.

—Nate Weiler, Danville, IA

Lock Trump up!

—Yolanda Stern Broad PhD, Indiana, PA

This is NOT right!! Protect the American consumer now.

—Michelle Brown, Goldsboro, NC

What the hell kind of nightmare is this Trump-TV!!! HELL NO!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

—Kenneth C. Robertson, Kansas City, MO

Monopolies have a long, solid record of working against the best interest of the people and the country.

—Diane H. Fabian, Fort Atkinson, WI

This would be putting the fox in the hen house. This Sinclair-Tribune Merger should NOT go through.

—Kathleen W Osgood, Las Vegas, NV

No no no

—Katherine O'Sullivan, New York, NY

Ever narrowing access to public information by consolidating the number of media outlets is harming our country . NO to this merger.

—R C. Arnett, Hicksville, NY

This is an anti-trust issue.

—Richard Pasichnyk, Eugene, OR

Help keep news real.

—Lara Smith, Vancouver,

Give us a choice of what we watch on TV! Countries run by dictatorships give people no choices. This country is supposed to be a democracy.

—Carol Vallejo, Stockton, CA

This cannot happen. Allowing this is further deteriorating the freedom of speech and pushing a conservative agenda. There is NO hiding the intent. This cannot happen.

—Matthew Kernes, Woodland Hills, CA independent news sources are scarce enough as it is no more mergers

—Rich Yurman, Oakland, CA

The proposed actions of this hijacked agency are anathema to any citizen for honest government. STOP this parade of giveaways!

—H D Morris, Fallbrook, CA

Our freedoms are quickly being torn from beneath us. One of the most valuable resources, access to accurate information is critical if we are to restore a true representative democracy, mega-mergers are counter to this important truth.

—Ruth Meyer, Keene, NH

Do you know what a monopoly is? Aren't you supposed to prevent that abuse of power?

—Wendy Fast, Dansville, NY

We already have too much media ownership in too few hands. It is important you stand against the Sinclair-Tribune Merger.

—Mahala Frye, Poulsbo, WA

The merger of Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune would create a monopoly and would be devastating to all Americans!

—Donald Harland, Candler, NC

With a Sinclair married to government, what we will get is state run television. As they say in Russian state media, there is no news in Izvestia and no truth in Pravda. We are not Russia. Oppose this merger.

—Ms. Anne D'Amico, Gainesville, FL

This is disastrous.

—Beverly A. Eckman Howell, Grants Pass, OR

It is important that you do what is best for all the people of America.

—Nancy J. Offer, Los Gatos, CA

A merger of this size is completely uncalled for and NOT in the interest of the country. We do not need such power in the hands of the few, be they conservatives OR liberals.

—Charles Hens, Bend, OR

This is against everything the FCC was supposed to uphold and is dangerous to democratic government.

—Lawrence Austin, Albuquerque, NM

Do not allow this merger!

—Deborah, La Mirada, CA

We do not need media monopolies!!! We need to be guaranteed free speech, investigative reporting and diversity in information flow so the people can determine the truth!

—Denise Gainer, Homosassa, FL

How about doing your real job -- not letting the person sitting in the Oval Office make a bigger mockery of our democracy.

—Faith Franck, Las Vegas, NV

NO!!!! A functional democracy requires Freedom of the Press.

—Ardeth L. Weed, Edmonds, WA

IT IS THE RIGHT, FAIR, JUST, HUMANE AND HEALTHY ACTION TO Oppose Trump TV: Stop the Sinclair-Tribune Merger

—Mr. Mary Frank Ann and Graffagnino, Tucson, AZ

We need more competition not less in the broadcast world. stop the merger!

—James D. Koger, Cambridge, MA

Media consolidation is not conducive to a healthy democracy.

—Maureen Slotto, Britton, SD

Inspired by his thug idol Vladimir Putin, our amateur autocrat is now seeking to make his own version of RT a reality. This is a horrifying move, one that will push our nation's fragile "democracy" several steps further in its morphing into a full-on corporate sponsored Dictatorship. Using a mega-merger to fill the U.S. airwaves with Trump-sponsored Propaganda is not only dangerous, it's utterly insane. If you care ANYTHING for American values or for the Fourth Estate (free press), you MUST act to block this absolutely reckless proposition. Our nation is depending on you to protect us from hateful propaganda being legitimized.

—Elizabeth Talev, Tucson, AZ

What "liberal media"? Have you heard left wing political talk on AM radio? Ever?

—Gilbert Hoffman, Beaverton, OR

This is what a Dictator does!

—Nancy Bayer, Mexico, MO

Networks should be broken up, not made bigger.

—Jan Cohen, Boonville, MO

We need more diversity of opinions, not less.

—Jean F Schulz, Santa Rosa, CA

Stop this! This is excessively concentrating the broadcast market. Oligarchy and monopoly are bad words for very good reason. I for one do not want anything that gets anywhere close to 'state TV'. BLOCK this merger, NOW.

—Leslie Riggs, Appleton, WI

Hell no!!!!

—Robert Long, Kansas City, MO

They're trying to steal another one of our most precious resources. The greed just grows the more it gets the more it takes. We as a nation must push back for our voice to be heard no Jeanette the trailing FCC you're supposed be on our side the people the people

—Marsha, Conroe, TX

This is really bad. Think' all that power in the little hands of a megalomaniac. It don't get my vote!!!!

—Roderick Brown, San Diego,, CA

Did we learn NOTHING from you-know-who?!

—Barbara Fry, Alton, IL

The FCC is gutting all protections that allow access of Americans to basic information that includes local and independent voices. We need that information if our country is to remain a democracy with educated and informed citizens. Do not allow the inappropriate FCC chairman to make these anti-democratic and corporate driven changes.

—Mickie Lynn, Delmar, NY

You cannot say we are all about business and competition to make this country healthy for all... and then take away the competition. That is not healthy for the country at all. Please do the right thing and say no to this merger.

—Rebecca H. Walding, Cerrillos, NM

Huge corporate mergers and media profits are killing democracy. Stop this merger.

—Chris Wegner, Moscow, ID

They recently took over KOMO 4 in Seattle, when they bought Fisher Broadcasting. Too Damn Big!

—Joe Wiederhold, BELLINGHAM, WA

Are you kidding? What happened to news? What happened to investigative journalism? What happened to the truth? This is a travesty.

—Martha Scoppa, Liberty, NY

There are laws against monopolies whether vertical or horizontal. This merger, for practical purposes, if not legal, would effectively create an unhealthy monopoly.

—Chris Davis, L.A., CA

Trump is a giant disaster, and linking a business to his sinking ship is a bad plan for longevity. There will come a time, probably in only a few years, where people who supported this orange demagogue will be called to task. Best not to be pointed out with them.

—Joseph Andrus, Edmonton,

It's a disaster for democracy if a single politically-aligned huge TV conglomerate can flood the population with biased news -- autocracy unchecked.

—Sherman L Guth, Bloomington, IN Diversity is good for America, monopoly is not!

—Deborah Veres, Palm Springs, FL

The FCC is supposed to police the public airwaves not allow our media access to be owned by a monopoly that chooses to serve it's paymasters rather than the American people it is supposed to. Do not allow this merger.

—Carl Doll, Manassas, VA

T O O B I G ! ! the FCC cannot allow a near monopoly in the broadcast industry!!

—Michael Leonard, la jolla, CA

The Trump Government has dozens of people like deVos, and now this as well? The fox owns the henhouse.

—David B Low, Langley,

This country is already suffering from the polarizing effects of this administration and the propensity to ignore the truth and to spout 'alternate facts' and pure fabrications. To even consider having a TV channel that will make all of the animosity, chaos and hate more prevalent is the height of audacity and stupidity. The Sinclair-Tribune merger is a bad (very bad) idea and irresponsible beyond measure.

—Joan Turpin, Vancouver, WA

This is a blatant conflict of interest!

—Mary Valerie Richter, Ann Arbor, MI

We need more independent media not big conglomerates.

—Diana Brunswig-Bosso, Arnold, MO

I want fair and balanced TV coverage, not news slanted to a particular political agenda. I also believe strongly in SMALL news organizations, not powerful conglomerates -- the larger an organization gets, the less fair and balanced it tends to be. Please do not allow this merger!!!!

—Cina Barker, Nashua, NH

We want our news from a wide variety of sources. The concentration of one viewpoint over another is nit freedom if the press.

—Virginia Dawnswir, afton, VA

Don't allow this merger - say NO to Trump TV!!!!

—Gary Osland, Laurel, IA

Diversity of information and opinion is the lifeblood of democracy. Protect it.

—Linda Faulhaber, New York, NY

Our Democracy depends on an open, free and diverse media. The proposed merger would promote a single political viewpoint controlled by a corporate monopoly. Stop the merger and save Democracy.

—Brad Lewis, Sparta, NJ

Even if I agreed with Sinclair's editorial perspectives, I would still argue that no one company should have this kind of broadcast reach.

—Timothy Miller, Baltimore, MD

Stop this latest Trump corruption.

—Karen Jacques, Sacramento, CA

Monopolies, especially of the media need to be strictly monitored and rare. It means that people do not get the facts but propaganda. This merger should NOT go through!

—Maureen Thompson, Soledad, CA

Stop Faux News White House.

—John Moszyk, Saint Louis, MO

Sinclair Broadcast Group is a scofflaw propagandist organization. They do not deserve any additional presence in the broadcast arena.

—Gary N. Granat, Palisade, CO

Edward R. Murrow is spinning in his grave...

—Pat Moore, Charlotte, NC

This merger MUST NOT go through. It must be stopped.

—Sheila Kolodny, New York, NY

Please restore a little sanity to the world of media. Block this deal.

—Susan Blain, Gardner, MA

This company has repeatedly broken FCC rules. Why, then, is the FCC even considering allowing this? Please stop this merger!

—Stephanie Killian, Kennesaw, GA

We must have as much diversity as possible in the media.

—Mike Larkin, Schnecksville, PA

I'm not sure if adding my voice to this administration means a thing because Trump does what he wants. He lied to all of his followers who are finally starting to see it. He doesn't give a damn about low-to-middle income people and can't relate to us at all. I pray for someone in government who is honest to come forward and speak up so he can be impeached. THAT is the only hope for America and the American people.

—Georgine Robertshaw, Coaldale, PA

Diversity in ownership of media is crucial to providing voice to all views. Monopolies work against our democracy. Block this merger.

—Virginia Machrowicz, College Station, TX

How stupid. Why did the government break up Ma Bell? This would even be worse. But that's our un-president
—Barbara Caso, rocky hill, CT

Ownership concentration is a menace in any industry but it is especially insidious in the news media industry.
—Alvin Goldman, Denver, CO

Check this out. Free Press continues to fight to prevent Oligarchy Media from expanding Trump Media!!
—Bernard J. Couming, Stoughton,, MA

America deserves a free press and it is almost all fake corporate news, when are mergers going to stop?
—Linda Gillaspy, Reno, NV

Stop that merger!!
—Esther Peterson, Battle LaKE, MN

My Republican father worked for the FCC, as engineering advisor to the Chairman. He knew the FCC was supposed to serve the whole USA, NOT just a single corporation or politician. DON'T SHAME MY FATHER'S MEMORY!
—Pat Carlson, Ithaca, NY

The march to monopoly is becoming plain for all to see. Don't keep pushing until revolt is the only option.
—Steve Berge, Martinez, CA

I don't want any more media monopolies, do not allow this merger to happen
—Michael A Spilatro, Rochester, NY

Please remember: 'Lady Justice' rules!
—Lee Doolan, Lawndale, CA

We need diversity not right wing lies and propaganda. No conservative or Christian media. NO!
—Joyce Loewy, Sunnyvale, CA stop the mega merger

—Martin B Laufe, Philadelphia, PA

The Internet should not be a monopoly! Stop this mega-merger.
—Barbara Winner, Arnold, MD

This kind of corruption of OUR airwaves is unacceptable.
—Ms. Melissa Hathaway, Gresham, OR

WTH
—Jennifer Henderson, Bayside, CA

Good God say no to Big Brother!
—David Childs, San Diego, CA

I will stop my Tribune subscription and start with a more objective media source the minute I find out that Sinclair has taken over the Tribune. Period. I am sick of being pushed around by conservative lies and fake news. They are the originators of alternative news!!!

—Karen Peterson, Chicago, IL

Does the FCC have any integrity left? Please, no more mergers: changing the rules doesn't make Sinclair's action respectable. The FCC should do its job.

—Carolyn M Birden, New York, NY

NO to the propaganization of media. NO to this merger.

—John M Fisher III, Fort Worth, TX

This is an absolute takeover of reasonable thought by Trump media! WTF??!!

—Eric Edwards, WEST CHICAGO, IL

Monopolies are in violation of the FTC and should not be allowed by the FCC.

—Robert M Proffitt, Salem, OR

Please prevent the TV Monopolies!

—Peter Becher, SOMERSET, WI

NO!

—Ron Ardia, Littleton, CO

Too much power, too many special moves to make this dictator in chief, too controlling over what we watch. THIS IS UNCONSCIONABLE! Deny him the power to control what we watch. Period.

—Elizabeth Juvet, Cloverdale, CA

I SAY NO to ANY MEGA mergers. Greedy. unnecessary greedy

—Frank Maiorano, Brooklyn, NY

Don't let this happen. Monopolies are outlawed for good reason

—Laura Jones, Carrollton, TX

This is America, not Comrade Trump's USSR.

—Paul Szymanowski, Curtice, OH

This Is like Russia. Control the masses and reward the oligarchs. Who needs the FCC as a rubber stamp?

—Paula Cronin, Hooksett, NH

This is ridiculous and we need to stop modeling our country based on Russia despite Trump's personal connections.

—Irene Leeg, Santa Monica, CA

No American Pravda. No more lies.

—Paul Lima, Christiana, TN

This isn't just about a single media deal, nor is it even about partisan politics. This is about protecting the very idea of both American anti-trust ideals and free press ideals. Do not fail American liberty in favor of greed.

—Alex Shatsky, Las Vegas, NV

When do the laws regarding monopolies step in? When one company owns them all?? Stop the Sinclair-Tribune Merger NOW!!!

—Ann Collins, Southern Pines, NC

Don't even try to slant our airwaves with your dystopian right-wing propaganda or else I won't even bother turning on my television (except when I'm watching my movies and videos on VHS and DVD). I refuse to conform to the oppressive dogma of the Far Right and I will do what it takes with whatever tools, resources, and measures to fight back with a vengeance to keep our airwaves from being rendered into a "State T.V." propaganda machine!! I refuse to allow the United States/Turtle Island to become another Nazi Germany or Soviet Union, and if push comes to shove, I shall fight the enemy Fascists, Nazis and Commies to the death!! Trump and his inner-circle are the enemies to the nation (and our planet), and I will not support any ruthless corporate dictatorship, 'cause again, I will fight the satanic government to the death!!

—Billy Angus, Hamilton, MT

There is no valid reason to reinstate the UHF discount, since few people watch TV over the air now.

—Nicholas DiMasi Jr., Glen Ellyn, IL

Stop this b.s. Just STOP.

—Andrew R., Cumberland, MD

We don't need any station airing politically slanted content on its stations. The FCC must block this merger and restore policies that encourage a diversity of local media owners and a wide range of viewpoints.

—Carmen Nichols, Chandler, AZ

Outrageous! This merger must not be allowed to go through.

—Linda Prostko, Caledonia, MI

Remember how Berliscini bought all the Italian media and then for many years ran Italy as his fiefdom? We can't let that happen here.

—Dr. Judith Lechner, Auburn, AL

This will be like brainwashing, another step resembling fascism.

—Diane Steen-H., Mpls., MN

Just say NO!!!

—Stella Navarro, Chino Hills, CA

It's time to begin serious trust busting! It was recognized back in the early 20th century that conglomerates were bad news for people. But now that corporations are considered to have the same rights as people, we are at their mercy. Time to MAKE AMERICA GREAT AGAIN by dismantling these mega corporations and preventing their cancerous proliferation.

—Linda Stead, Talent, OR

I agree that unbiased news media is very important to formulating more accurate ideas about events in the news.

—Nicolas Palmer, Roswell, GA

Now you the FCC are changing rules to pander to the Mega Corporations. It's like you're some kind of comic book super villian's cheesy sidekick. Only this is real life, and you are far from light hearted fiction. Do not change the rules to allow monopolies. Quit going after free speech. Stop forcing us to teach our children not to trust you. Do what's right for the people not for some people. Quit being a sold out lackey of the mega corporate agenda. We the people will not stand for it.

—James j. Schardt, reno, NV

Consolidated viewpoints are narrow minded viewpoints. Please stop this merger.

—Ronald E. Kaufman, Spokane, WA

Sinclair Broadcast Group is already a monopoly. It should be broken up, not given a license to expand. Also, the Fairness Doctrine needs to be reinstated. There needs to be a balance between various viewpoints in our news media, not wacky extremist-right-wing-nutjob propaganda - way too much of that already ! Stop Sinclair !

—Oleh Sydor, Glen Ellyn, IL

Shame on this man!

—Edh Stanley, Sacramento, CA

In the present atmosphere of a Trump administration probably colluding in a conspiracy with a foreign power and firing people who are or were investigating serious threats to our national security, the last thing we need is to create a media monopoly that limits our access to vital unbiased news.

—Norman R. West, Lake Ronkonkoma, NY

DO NOT ALLOW THIS MERGER!

—Helen Price, Excelsior Springs, MO

This is not the best interests of the people - in the US or anywhere else! Diversity of information sources and points of view results in people being well-informed and able to make good decisions. This should be what "media" is all about!

—Margaret Hilder, Mt Victoria,

We have two Sinclair stations here. You can't wade through the right-wing bullshit.

—Laurence W. Key, Stuart, FL

Locally owned news outlets are best

—Reenie De Geus, North Montpelier, VT

I think we demand to tell FCC Chairman Pai & Congress that we're not going to stand by this merger that Trump is proposing. I know the group owns a TV station in Las Vegas, & if this merger gets in their way, it would mean more commentary & less local news that people need. That's why we must tell the FCC to demand the merger needs to be stopped so that the FCC policies need to be restored & encourage a diversity of local ownership & a wide range of viewpoints, not more media propaganda.

—Derek Gendvil, Las Vegas, NV

HELL NO! TRUMP WILL USE TRUMPTV TO BLAST HIS BS PROPAGANDA 24/7!

—Karen Hewelt, New Baltimore, MI

I pulled the plug. No corporate TV in my house.

—Lin willett, Grapevine, TX

Media monopolies are very bad for America and our democratic system of government. Democracy requires a diversity of opinions and media monopolies, since the Equal Time Rule was tossed out, by their nature, work against such diversity.

—Robert Westover, Beaverton, OR

Stop this Insanity!

—Kathy OBrien, Redway, CA

No to Sinclair and Conservative BullShit No to Sinclair and Conservative BullShitNo to Sinclair and Conservative BullShitNo to Sinclair and Conservative BullShit

—Josh Heffron, New York, NY

STOP the Corporate RW propaganda machine!

—Charlene Boydston, Pahrump, NV

I thought there were laws against creating monopolies. Just what does FCC stand for now anyway? For Corporations Clearly??? Seems to me that it clearly does.

—Rita E. Larkin Sr., Addison, IL

Consolidation of media is harmful to our democracy, because it limits free press.

—Tamara Saarinen, Gig Harbor, WA

Can anyone say anti-trust?

—Maggi A. Carter, Beaumont, TX

Save our democracy. Do not allow the Sinclair - Tribune merger.

—Virginia Girard, Windsor Locks, CT

We need diversity in news broadcasting. No way should there be any more merging of TV channels, we would not have the diversity humans need to make the decisions we need to make to save our country and our planet. Its all dying as far as I am concern, no one really cares.

—Nina Council, Ashland, OR

Uphold American access to fair & balanced news & info, by blocking this proposed merger!

—AD Butz, Portland, OR

Stop the dumbing down of our country!

—Maria Jacobson, New Ulm, MN

No Monopoly on Journalism. Keep open and unbiased reporting and access to stations that are not deliberating slanting the news to ONE Political Party! That is NOT a Democracy. ANTI-TRUST LAWS, Please.

—C Andrews, Silver Spring, MD

Sieg Heil!

—Mark Tinsley, Paola, KS

I am opposed to ANYTHING Trump

—David M Wall, York, ME

Dump Trump....ignorant and constitutionally challenged danger to the entire world!!!

—Katlyn Stranger, San Rafael, CA

No trump tv!

—George Queral, New York, NY

These mega mergers are depriving many areas of local coverage.

—Terry Lianzi, Fort Myers, FL

One company owning TV stations reaching more than 70% of the country, is just plain wrong in a democracy. It threatens democracy, in that it threatens the "plurality of voices of the marketplace" that a democracy depends on: Democracy depends on an informed citizenry.

—J Kristin Hedges, Washington, DC

Media consolidation deprives us of the variety of voices that is critical to a functional democracy. Please block this ill-conceived merger.

—Jonathan Moretz, Norfolk, VA

We need more diversity in media outlets. otherwise all news will be tainted.

—Theresa Hadden-Martinez, Placitas, NM

This merger would put too much control of information into a single set of (corporate) hands. The FCC must not change the rules to allow such a very unamerican situation.

—Marcia Stauffer, Tallmadge, OH

We won't have the ability to weigh or even see the various reports.

—Thomas Ozzello, Apple Valley, MN

This merger must not take place at all. It must be DOA!

—Jim Phillips, Sonoma, CA

Too much power for a single company.

—Concepcion Elvira, Medford, MA

Stop and reverse the rise of the American fascist capitalist military/police state! Stop the Sinclair-Tribune merger!

—John and Martha, Elkhart Lake, WI

Monopolies are detrimental to democracy. By the FCC allowing Sinclair to purchase Tribune makes the FCC complicit in furthering Sinclair's monopolistic goals.

—Richard W. Hanusz, Toledo, OH

NO!

—D'Arcy Goodrich, Omaha, NE

Is no place safe for civil decency?

—Sharon McGraham, Santa Cruz, CA

What the Hell, remember Ma Bell.

—Brent Wachter, Cincinnati, OH

The FCC role is to block monopolies and favor a healthy free market of media.

—Marc Vayssières, Davis, CA

Stop sinclair, stop asshole trump.

—William Haegele, Philadelphia, PA

There is a need to STOP the propaganda coming out of trumps mouth.

—Victoria Olson, Fort Lauderdale, FL

For the people By the people. Of the people. You will be held responsible

—Dr Barryl leightling, La Jolla, CA

The Republican mantra is competition. This merger eliminates competition. Eliminate the merger.

—Ann Wasgatt, Roseville, CA

News information, and who controls it, is so important to our democracy.

—Christopher R. Martin, CEDAR FALLS, IA

No monopolies!! That's where this is headed!!

—Susanna Sorin, Artesia, CA

There will be a reckoning either in 2018 or 2020. Your actions against the people will be judged.

—Larry Downing, Asheville, NC

This is a bad merger. This again sounds like trump continuing to lining his pockets. When is he and the wealthy going to be held to the same rules as others? I say NO!

—J Stufflebeam, Oregon City, OR

Act in the PUBLIC interest.

—Colin Fitzgerald, Chchicago, IL

No way...

—Ralph Guay, Helena, MT

No monopolies. Especially in communications.

—Maryellen Redish, Palm Springs, CA

what's wrong with you people? DO WHAT'S RIGHT...SAY NO!

—James R Hipp, Bellingham, WA

For many, many years, Des Moines, Iowa enjoyed healthy competition among TV stations. We already have Nexstar owning two TV stations here in our area. For Sinclair to own BOTH KDSM and WHO would be a disaster for our area's TV viewing. The news content will ALL LOOK THE SAME. That is not in the best interest of Des Moines area and Central Iowa viewers. THERE ARE VIEWERS IN CENTRAL IOWA THAT CRAVE DIVERSITY IN THEIR NEWS PROGRAMMING. This merger would mean that all newscasts are biased and the same, and the lone channel, Hearst-owned KCCI, could feel the pressure to become LIKE Sinclair and Nexstar-owned stations. THIS MERGER IDEA IS BAD FOR IOWA!

—Lorna Immel, Otley, IA

Doesn't the FCC know better than to rubber stamp monopolies? There is no end to the conflict of interest that is popping up with this current administration.

—Jane L. Cone, Ruskin, FL

We have Anti-trust laws that would make this illegal. Enforce them, don't allow this to happen.

—Mary Creighton, Virginia, MN

Free speech thrives on diverse sources of input, investigation and perspectives. I am against Sinclair super media hog and corporations

—Fredricka Roi Berry, Vancouver, WA

Whatever happened to anti-trust considerations?

—Suzanne James, St. Helena, CA

Stop corporatist greed. Preserve our airways!

—William Whitaker, La Grande, OR

Stop restricting information so you can replace the so called fake news with REAL fake news. Where are your brains and your ethics?

—Candice Crossley, Stonington, CT

follow legal limits and block this merger.

—Bruce Allen, Solana Beach, CA

We don't need Trump on the air 24-7, the only thing that will come his way

—MaryGrace Brown, Mount Sinai, NY

Freedom of the press is one of our basic rights, many of which like clean water and air, are being sold to the highest bidder. Please arrest this reckless and unethical train wreck immediately!!!

—Cynthia Kaul, Langley, WA

Is this "BigBrother" from George Orwell, some Americans may think its perfect, but this is not my future. Collusion, is how it plays

—MaryGrace Brown, Mount Sinai, NY

No more monopolies. Keep our net ne

—Jerry Hansen, Ferryville, WI

A monopoly is a monopolyly is a monopoly. If the FCC created to protect the American people from this mergers, supports them, they are not supposed to be receiving our tax supported salary. They should resign and find a job supported by these corporations. Or do their job they are paid for. Protect us from this octopus! No merger of Sinclair with Tribune! Crooks!

—Graciela Huth, Los Angeles, CA

Aren't there laws against monopolies? And if there isn't the FCC isn't doing its job. Stop this atrocity NOW.

—Mary Matzek, Murphys, CA

We need more diversity in media ownership and more local media control, not less.

—James Hubbard, Los Angeles, CA

This will limit all Americans' choices!

—Paul Saint, Longwood, FL

Trump can keep an acting on his new tv stations... I still think Ronald Reagan will never be out-Trumped...

—James Rowland Roberts, Sugarloaf, CA

This would be totally unacceptable!! Just plain wrong!

—Katherine Phlegar, Georgetown, TX

In a few words: FUCK NO. Bring back ownership rules. Figure a percentage of the country a single-ownership group can own. Now.

—Jay Rubin, North Hollywood, CA

We MUST keep our media free and fair. PLEASE do what's RIGHT for all.

—Joel V. Elio, Shirley, NY

Stop conglomeration

—Lyman Michael, Colville, WA

Sinclair should not be a monopoly. Don't let it take over more stations. We need more points of view not fewer.

—Alice Trexler, arlington, MA

No monopolies! Please take the appropriate action and stop this from happening.

—Lacey A. Canton, Concord, CA

The larger the media group, the shittier the content!

—Elinor L Higgins, Oakville, CT

ENOUGH!!!!

—Eggers K., Addy, WA

The merger is bad enough without the boost it will give to the skewed conservative voice of Sinclair supporting Trump's agenda.

—Gilbert DeLiso, Oakland, CA

Our public media must not be further consolidated under a single entity.

—Barbara Consbruck, Sylmar, CA

We need more diversity and competition in media, not less.

—Connie Morton-Ewbank, Lowell, MA

It is too large a company

—Dennis Simpson, DALLAS, TX

And bring back the Fairness Doctrine.

—Ms. Nita McCreery, Tucson, AZ

Media monopolies are against the public welfare. The public owns the airwaves, which are to be run for the public benefit.

—Margaret Goodman, Glen Mills, PA

Just what we need- more Trump propaganda TV on every station to which you turn.

—Roy B Tansill, Corpus Christi, TX

We don't need a news monopoly--we need more diverse news sources!

—Katherine Slawinski, New York, NY

Consolidation is the bane of capitalism. Unrestricted, you end up with one corporation owning everything. That's pretty much how fascism works. Aside from that, there should never be just one take on the news. That's totalitarianism. If you want to maintain even the slightest illusion that you care about democracy and freedom, don't allow *any* more big communications mergers. They're not good for our country or for the world.

—Joseph J. Pollock, Buffalo, NY

This merger constitutes war on our Freedom of Speech and Freedom of the Press.

—Joan Christensen, Intl Falls, MN

Seems like another...excuse me...yet another ethics problem for Trump and another possible violation of the constitution

—Eileen Blake, Tenino, WA

This is an unthinkable and frightening possibility! Please protect our country from this dangerous merger which potentially allows propaganda rather than news to reach 70% of our population! History has shown us what happens when propaganda takes over and news is lost. Many of us still value the truth and ethics in America, though neither truth nor ethics are any longer guiding principles by which the President of our country abides! Please protect the PEOPLE as you are in a position of responsibility to do! Respectfully, Sherry Gingras

—Sherry Gingras, Austin, TX

No more racist and lies from the conservatives. I am offended by religious groups that push their beliefs on others.

—Jayne, Lynn, MA

Democracy needs diverse, independent media, not information controlled by a few powerful conglomerates.

—Christie Allan-PIper, Newton, MA

It is time our politicians and people in the agencies work the people interest, not big business or their own! They need to do their jobs or get out!

—Joan PJ Paul & Sullivan, Ventura, CA

This deal would have been DOA in any other administration. It would create an unthinkable level of media consolidation by a company that's used the public airwaves to push a conservative political agenda. But Trump's FCC is actually rewriting the rules to make it happen<sup>2</sup> — and to give one of the administration's loudest media boosters an even bigger megaphone. Dictators control the news.

—Lynn M Ketchum, Madison, WI

DAMM!!! NO WAY this dirty rotten monopoly monster merger IS WAR on diversity of local media owners and variety of contents!!! Sinclair Broadcasting and Tribune suck big time!!! FCC is AT WAR!!! DUMP TRUMP TV NOW!!!

—Meaghan Simpson, Fortuna, CA

You're rewriting the rules to allow this merger to go through? Really? I thought you were supposed to prevent just exactly this kind of thing from happening. Do your job.

—Allison Gentile, BROOKLYN, NY

HELLO, ARE WE LIVING IN NAZI GERMANY? THIS IS SMACKING OF HITLER. THIS MUST BE STOPPED, or as Barney Fife used to say, "NIP IT, NIP IT IN THE BUD."! I AM SOON TO BE 67 YEARS OLD. THE AMERICA THAT IS EMERGING UNDER trump IS NOT THE AMERICA INTO WHICH I WAS BORN. THERE WERE ISSUES...BUT EVERY DAY THERE IS MORE SCANDAL.

—Violet Young, Yachats, OR

This will effectively stifle free speech by allowing one corporate voice to be the main conduit of information dissemination. There is too much control of the media in one place. Please stop this terrible idea. Sincerely, SM Reno

—, Reno, NV

ABSOLUTELY NO!!

—C S, san diego, CA

We must maintain a free press

—june L Baker, Seattle, WA

We need more local control and less media consolidation.

—B R. Black, Mountainburg, AR

I cry for what our country could become.

—Barbara ogden, Auburn, CA

This should never be allowed. Doesn't matter which direction the slant is, it would be devastating to our country. AND the law about fair representation in newscasts should be reinstated.

—Sarah Kirton, Los Altos, CA

When will you start to stand up for the citizens?!?!?! PLEASE stop these mergers -- they only serve to consolidate market share (i.e., $$$ advertising) into fewer and fewer megacorporations -- who then further lock down our information content and the price competition options. This is NOT what you should be doing -- permitting such mergers. STOP this merger!!!!

—James Sharp, San Antonio, TX

Communities lose when too many local TV stations are under one large company and there are too many conservative leaning stations across this land as it is, always slanting news and alternative facts. Having a president who can't be trusted to tell the truth makes it very difficult for people to know what is going on and we don't have time to fact-check everything. I have never seen such an administration and have to rely on PBS and NPR more each day. Jared Kushner's deal with Sinclair to get Trump uninterrupted favorable coverage makes them even less trustworthy. Our country cannot be run on lies and distorted facts. Stop the Sinclair merger and keep our freedoms intact!

—Marguerite Polidori, Bingham Farms, MI

Prison for Pai

—Sue Starstone, Reedsport, OR

We are all getting plenty of BS from TRUMP. None of us need any more "garbage" freely pouring out of his mouth!

—Harold L Wakefield, Woodland Hills, CA

Nothing will destroy freedom of the press more.

—Vincent Ruiz Bouvet, Ventura, CA

The air waves belong to all of us. One company should not be allowed to control the majority of them, eliminating freedom of choice.
—Dolores Boutin, Tuolumne, CA

Fascism can be stopped by mindful opposition and outing the fascist. Say NO to nazi, I mean, Trump TV!
—Rhonda Oxley, San Francisco, CA

Goebbels would be proud of you , Trump !!
—Martin Watts, St.Marys, MA

OMG, NOT ANOTHER CONFLICT OF INTEREST!! THAT SOB SHOULD BE FIRED SO FAST THAT HIS HEAD WILL SPIN!
EVERY DAY THERE'S A NEW CONTROVERSY! HE HAS NO BUSINESS IN THE WHITE HOUSE, WITH HIS OBVIOUS DEMENTIA!!!
—Karen Laakaniemi RN Laakaniemi, Pensacola, FL

This is outrageous! We The People!
—Jeanette Saxon, phoenix, AZ

This is the way to Big Brother. We need diversity in news, not one big conglomerate that's pro-Trump.
—Gay Williamson, Hamilton, OH

Not that the ignorant, boorish, pathologically-lying and megalomaniacal slob that appointed you (under instruction, of course) that appointed you needs any more assistance committing political suicide, but sociopaths, misanthropes and corporate whores like yourself, Pai, are just pouring gasoline on the conflagration. As you, the rest of this "administration" and the GOP will discover next year, karma is truly a bitch. Of course by then, the damage that you walking excrement and mistakes of nature will have done will be incalculable.
—AJ Averett, Potsdam, NY

What happened to the Republicans love of competition? Is it a fact that they, along with their rich and famous owner operators, actually hate any form of competition, and actually have and will do anything in their power to either compromise it or eliminate it.
—Drew Lindhoff, Lilburn, GA

FCC needs to do it's job, and put a stop to this merger. Not much hope that they will. Like everything connected to the Trump administration they are corrupt to the bone.
—Sara Kathleen Ogden, Hohenwald, TN

Stop the mergers encourage competition in the marketplace. Isn't that the way that classical capitalism should work. Or is this just a money grab for profit for the oligarchs. Does the FCC have any ethics at all or are you all morally bankrupt.
—Pete Wilson, Pahoa, HI

Do Not Let Trump gain the kind of power that corrupts and allows him to spread awful harmful propaganda that undermines the tenets of our democracy. Please put constraints on him abusing his power.

They own the airwaves in my state and have fought against a free press for years, do not let them expand.

—Tony McCraney, GREENVILLE, SC

We must avoid monopolistic news or it WILL become fake news!

—Dr. Lew Lois & Bishop, West Union., IA

Keep your hands off the internet too .Respectfully .

—Mr. Donald Kirby, chandler, AZ

The last thing this country needs is a propagandist company pretending to purvey news. Someone screwed up and allowed Fox on air. Let's not continue that screw up by letting Sinclair start communicating fake news and hateful rhetoric.

—Mary E Gillespie, Fair Lawn, NJ

Not a good idea at all!

—Stephen Haspel, Philadelphia, PA

Please take charge the teachable moments; all TV news for profit is not real. It's audio and visual designed to heighten a viewers emotions and keep watching the next commercial. It's a show not news, never was.

—Dave Barnes, Versailles, KY

Its what the little corporate bitch boys do for their elitist owners, they do a right quick step and fetch it when told.

—James Norgrove, Winter Park, FL

Bigger is not always better

—Thomas Pine, Jensen Beach, FL

Bigger is never better for consumers. We need diversity in the media. Please don't allow the Sinclair- Tribune merger.

—Ellen Asbell, Boyertown, PA

stop it

—Dwight Ingersoll, Valrico, FL

We need to stop the restriction of free speech these mega-mergers cause. Enough is enough!

—Mike Raymond, Shelby Township, MI

PLEASE stop this deal!

—Jeffrey Falkenstein, cave junction, OR

Mega-corporate mergers harm our government for "We The People".

—Lewis Patrie, Asheville, NC

Please do not make exceptions to your own rules.

—Paula Bushkoff, Princeton, NJ

f the rich swine who are running our country

—Warren Steven Cushway, bay city, MI

How about you use common sense!

—Delaine Spilsbury, McGill, NV

WE DON'T NEED CONSOLIDATION !!!

—James Deen, Redlands, CA

Monopolies threaten our democracy, especially when they occur in the news media. Do not allow this merger.

—Sandy Toland, aurora, CO

If the airways belong to the citizens then the FCC should be regulating based on the best interest of the citizens, end of discussion.

—Nsalvail, Titusville, FL

The suggestion that perhaps allowing this merger is payback for favorable coverage of Trump, smells like corruption, smells like week old unrefrigerated fish.

—Mary Wildfire, Spencer, WV

This is a Trump push for pro-Trump propaganda, but is ill advised just on the merits of the monopoly issue.

—Ilana Pestcoe, Gays Mills, WI

Monopolies are illegal. What is the matter with you? Oppose the Sinclair-Tribune merger.

—Greta Buckman, Knoxville, TN

This would be a disaster for consumers. We need truth right now, not propaganda, and we need to have lots of sources or there is no purpose to having broadcast TV at all. This CANNOT happen.

—Susan M. Tocha, Alden, NY

PLEASE consider your OWN family's future!!! Then ours . . .

—Carol Ann Rittenhouse, Plymouth, WI

A monopoly exists when a preponderance of the enterprise is in the control of one entity. Sinclair Broadcast Group is already so large that it may already be a de-facto monopoly, and you shouldn't allow them to gain in market domination by allowing them to buy the Tribune's stations. Just say NO to TrumpTV.

—Paul Cully, Dover, NH

The FCC should block this merger and restore policies that encourage a diversity of local media owners and a wide range of viewpoints.

—Walter Letts, Boynton Beach, FL

Competition between media providers is critical to a healthy democracy. Please block this merger.

—Stephen D Hopkins, rye, NY

Free means free!!!! not run by one big corporation . please protect our precious democracy!

—Gretchen Clearwater, Bloomington, IN

...and then they came for me.

—John Jongen, Fairport, NY

Aside from the political reasons, this merger will kill innovation in the media industry by creating a monopolistic mindset that is ripe for pushing its own agendas. The FCC is taking the media industry in the wrong direction by implementing outdated loopholes as a short term fix for doing something even more devastating; that being raising the cap on audience reach by a single entity. One change in that direction will lead to more changes until we are only left with one or two monoliths that control everything and remove all choice options in the local markets. This must not be allowed to go through!

—Gary A Graeff, East Grand Rapids, MI

Stop the Sinclair Merger and Trump Media Monopoly!!!!

—Elizabeth Lampus, Boise, ID

This is not in the public interest.

—Robin Cisne, Ithaca, NY

No rule changes that would allow big media mergers such as Sinclair / Tribune.

—Scott Sanders, Chicago, IL

When it comes to businesses, bigger is rarely better. The bigger a business becomes, the less control over the illegal actions and deadly atrocities these companies commit. Without adequate competition, one big company will rip off the people, while multiple independent companies competing will give the public the better deal. This is just as true of the media. More lies will be promulgated by a mega-media that is controlled not by the people, but by a dictator want-a-be. And that is what Donald Trump and his band of henchmen are; dictator want-a-be's.

—Daniel L. Hulseapple, Middletown, NY

Are you kidding me! He thinks he's still doing a reality show! We put up with all his crap including lie after lie! It's embarrassing ! Scarey

—Sammia m Panciocco, Salem, NH

This move brings us closer to having the government media that autocratic (anti-democracy) governments use to enhance their control over the information that their citizens get.

—Roberta Zuckerman, South Portland, ME

The free-thinking Founding Fathers are rolling over in their graves. Stop the brainwashing!

—Donna Nieckula, Milroy, MN

STOP THIS INSANITY!

—Helen Miller, Emyville, CA

We need competition to keep costs in line for consumers.

—Miriam Hemphill, Gainesville, FL

Control of the media is another step to a dictatorship.

—Joann Hardy, Trenton, NJ

Allowing Trump to take over our media reminds me of Hitler and Germany. The news should always be by-partisan, open and free. Without it our democracy is doomed to fail.

—Kate Mullan, Panama City, FL

THIS ISN'T RUSSIA. WE DON'T WANT A "STATE RUN" TELEVISION CONGLOMERATE!!

—Edna Anderson, Beloit, WI

Is big brother planning to watch?

—Helene Daniels-Dummer, Raleigh, NC

Monopolies are dangerous for the economy and for freedom of choice, and in this case, they are a danger to our democracy. If you allow this to happen, it will be your legacy. You will be the "bad guys" in our history books. Please remember that the purpose of your agency, and all other federal agencies, is to serve our citizens. Th

—Sandra L. Uribe, Palmyra, VA

Stop the insanity that this administration is unleashing on our democracy.

—Elizabeth Doyle, Bethlehem, PA

Stop the madness and stop this nonsense immediately.

—Louis San-Millan, Pembroke Pines, FL

Projection of "1984" is upon us. Do your part to keep communication systems open for diversity of commentary and freedom of information in America. WE ARE AT RISK HERE!

—Gail Barton, Naches, WA

No merger, no monopoly, no, no!

—Robert Strain, Arlington, VA

This man is totally trying to restructure as much as he can for his own benefit. Given his history with bankrupting companies for personal gains, I don't feel like he should be allowed to pass any further legislation without in depth research on what he stands to gain from it. If he gains in any way, the changes should NOT be allowed. The last thing we need is media control by this wannabe dictator!

—Jolie Bonnette, Brick, NJ

The closer we get to full monopoly control of all businesses, the more everyday people are hurt. Please, corporations should control and limit our options

—Nathan Klein, Anaconda, MT

there are reasons that the limit laws were enacted and I see no reason they should be changed. I say this should be stopped. No one voice should be this loud. Save the free exchange of ideas.

—Shirley Moore, Philipsburg, PA

Another too big to fail failure..... Stupid idea!

—David Cornell, Talent, OR

This is a monopoly that controls what will not be broadcast that is fair,objective or what is good for the nation. IT IS A POLITICAL, PARTISIAN,NEWS THAT WILL LEAD TO A TOALTARIAN STATE.AND IT STIFLES THE MARKET.

—Kenneth Bryan, arab, AL

This is an abuse of power that, frankly, is cause for some form of punishment to be meted out to the President.

—Robert Pearson, Kosciusko, MS

If you can't muster enough backbone to do right for the american public, quit your job. I trust that Karma will take care of you...

—Chris Swenning, Richmond, CA

There is already too much consolidation. You need to be breaking these companies up not allowing them to merge.

—Jeremy Carter, Radford, VA

just another BAD idea from our loser in chief.

—Bill Chockla, Estes Park, CO

PLEASE stop merger of Sinclair Broadcasting and Tribune.

—Cathy Donath, N. Eastham, MA

This has got to be a terrible idea!

—Erin, Franklin, IN this is garbage

—Kenneth Kast, Santa Fe, NM

Break up big businesses, so they don't have monopolies. We also need to bring back the Fairness Doctrine and equal time.

—Tanya Hutchins, Washington, DC

Stop media monopolies!

—Steven Martinez, Newton, NJ

We have an issue already where lack of competition is anti-consumer. This must be stopped.

—Anthony Morgan, Poteau, OK

Media consolidation is bad for democracy. This must be stopped.

—Ms. Paula Zan, Hyndman, PA

STOP MEGA-MERGERS AND TRUMP!

—Tony Mendousa, Orleans, MA

Fascism is his goal. I will NOT sit this out.

—NickiLee Greenwalt, St Paul, MN

Our Democracy is dying because the corporate media has failed us. Stop this additional consolidation please.

—Dr. Jeffrey Paul LaGasse M.D., Freeland, WA

Please do your jobs and protect us from this unethical media conglomerate.

—Jami Peelle, Gambier, OH

Too much media concentration. This will reduce the dissemination of diverse opinions and discussion of ideas that might be detrimental to the current relations of power. Because of the view-point-stifling certainty of this deal, if approved the merger goes against fundamental principles of democracy, but supports oligarchy, authoritarianism, and tyranny. But perhaps this is the real political intent behind the organizational and financial consolidation of yet more media.

—Robert Sacco, New York, NY

A functioning democracy cannot work without a diversified press. It's only common sense to limit power of the purveyors of information.

—, Lone Tree, IA

You destroyed our television viewing and now you want to destroy our net neutrality. Viewers are leaving broadcast TV by the droves because the monopolies took it over. There is essentially no good programming to watch and the MSM news media is a total farce full of programming us with lies. It doesn't matter which channel (right or left) you try to watch, the monopolies are the deciders for us all. Killing net neutrality will give us the same mess we now have with TV. Do not kill the net neutrality the public has had and further commercialize it. It will kill our freedom to choose. The internet should be free and open for us all, just like our library.

—Joyce Hansen, Ferryville, WI

WWII repeat? If you love humanity...put a stop to this nonsense. MAKE A STAND for crying out loud.

—Beth Dubble, Bremerton, WA

AAAAGH! The very possibility of a 24-hr. "tweet" station just for Herr Trump is frightening!. NO - NO - NO!

—Polly Tarpley, Poulsbo, WA

The Air Waves belong to the citizens, NOT Corporate Predators. STOP the Merger NOW!

—Kenneth R Clark, Unionville, TN

Ethics and collusion: criminally prosecute and impeach.

—David Judd, Eureka, MO

This mega merge is unacceptable. Stop this power grab of our media! Disgusting!

—Jeffery Young, Rochester, NY

Please take action on this! There is no end to DT's manipulation and corruption!

—John Alfred White, De Soto, MO

don't let this become Russia

—Janice Bird, Glastonbury, CT

Trump wants to control everything & we must stop him!!! This is a Democracy & no Facism is allowed!

—Merlene Smith, Rochester, MN

it's PAST time to IMPEACH the KING OF MORONS and stop all of this insanity and greed!!

—Joann Butkus, Chicago, IL

The FreePress need more self belief. Recently you stated..... "we will not go down without a fight"..... That suggests you're resigned to "going down" but just that you'll fight first. The FreePress ought to rethink it's choice of language. It can have a powerful positive or negative effect. Say NO to Trump TV ?? F**k that.. SAY NO TO TRUMP !! Why hasn't he been impeached yet?
—Anne O' Reilly, ,

...toward ubiquitous propaganda...?
—Rikardo Jahnke, Gays Mills, WI

No to Sinclair. no to conservative political agenda.
—Jean Auris, Homosassa, FL

Stand with the people! Too much power in a conglomerate this size.
—Rex W. Sanders, Phenix City, AL

A monopoly in media is anti- democratic! No consolidation!!!!
—Beverly Ann Conroy, Oak Park, IL

Just say no...
—John C Tompkins, Naperville, IL

I want unbiased and impartial coverage. This is a reward to Sinclair for supporting Trumps campaign.

No more broadcast monopolies! No TrumpTV!!

—Thomas S. Meacham, Bowling Green, KY

No more Super-sized TV chains! it's bad for our democracy!

—Donald Dodge, San Francisco, CA

Why are we going back to monopolies? I want diversity and a range of views.

—Kathleen T Seyfried, New Hyde Park, NY

Enough w/ the media consolidation. If anything we should be dismantling these toxic media corporations.

—Robin Krenke, Ann Arbor, MI

This would be CRIMINAL & UNAMERICAN! >:-)

—Jennifer J. Timmons, Princess Anne, MD

Reject corporate supremacy now!

—Mike Caetano, Fresno, CA

This is a crime in the making. Don't do it. Thank you.

—Robert Ogden, Hohenwald, TN monopoly power, sectarian politicized news broadcast are anti democracy, are anti American. no merger approval for Sinclair!!!!

—Mr. Paul O'Rourke-Babb, chico, CA

A few press, not shackled by monopolies, is essential for democracy ... it's essential to both those on the right, the left, and those in the middle.

—Lee Bruch, Seattle, WA

Trump is going to destroy this country piece by piece.

—Terry Smith, Minneapolis, MN

Stop this disaster now!

—Frederick Walker, El Centro, CA

This proposed merger would be a virtual monopoly and a traitorous betrayal of America's vaunted "freedom of the press". Block it!

—William R Ferrell, Tucson, AZ

Please don't enforce the President's attempts to overwhelm freedom of speech. This is another big step towards a dictatorship.

—Mary Mutch, La Crosse, WI

Again please restore policies that encourage a diversity of LOCAL owners and a wide range of viewpoints

—Carol Potter, Cordova, AK

Please protect our free press. It's our only hope.

—Claudia Goertz, San Diego, CA

Ajit Pai must also go.
—Margie Hoyt, Gardena, CA

IMPEACH the crazy man before our country is destroyed!
—Penny Pascoe, Longmont, CO

Get some balls & stand up to Trump!!
—Cynthia Molinero, aurora, CO

No voice should be that much louder than the other.
—Sandy Mehalko, Bedford, PA

This may be the worst thing that could happen, with the exception of the 2016 election
—Gary Smith, West Haven, CT

NO! Thought capitalism is suppose to create competition not monopolies.
—Kathleen M Daly, Glen Ellen, CA

This is WRONG!!!
—Karen Christian, Vail, AZ

Please stand up for a democracy - not propaganda laden airwaves which destroy the very basis for aware citizens. Most people live extremely busy lives and get their information from local TV, radio, or internet. It is imperative that we safe guard our democracy by protecting our airwaves. No one company should reach 70% of our population.
—Annemarie Avanti, Phoenix, AZ

Media should definitely not be a monopoly of any stripe left or right. TR (Teddy Roosevelt) did what was necessary 100 years ago. We need the same now.
—Debbie Lackowitz, YORKTOWN HEIGHTS, NY

This is outrageous and should be illegal. Surprising that it has not been banned as breaching anti-trust regulations.
—Beverly Bensalem, San Diego, CA

This should never be allowed —Nora Tirabasso, Solon, OH

This is outrageous Herr Trump will have his own Hitler like propaganda TV. And the FCC can be proud for the assisting gladly in further destruction of the Democracy
—Cathy Balan, camptonville, CA

OH ME , OH MY , TRUMP APPOINTS ANOTHER CABINET MEMBER AND THIS ONE HAS IN NHIS OWN WOIRDS A WEEDWHACKER TO DESTROY A FREE OPEN INTERNET I GUESS IT MAKES SENSE NOW TRUMP FILLS HIS POCKETS I BET
—Ronald Buchanan, Quincy, MA

Do not allow this media takeover by Sinclair group. America needs more unbiased information not right wing brainwashing.
—Kathy Byrum, Concord, NC

Both broadcasting groups are big enough to be able to operate independently. This is an unjustified attempt to merge.

—Harriet Mullaney, Denver, CO

Please, under NO circumstances allow this merger.

—Margery Franklin, Coal Valley, IL

This is the path to dictatorship in the USA. POTUS will "own" a media consolidation. STOP, FCC ! STOP acting to facilitate the end of representative democracy in the USA and turning it into a dictatorship.

—Anne Swanson, Campbell, CA

It's all out in the open now – the corruption and dirty dealing. They don't care about being seen; they expect to become kings – fat rich stupid angry mean kings. Is there any other kind?

—Chad D Johnston, Portland, OR

We need diversity, not one big media conglomerate. NO MERGER.

—Linda Kipnes, Hudson, NH

Please say not to media consolidation. We need as much diversity as possible.

—Hannah L Banks, Newton, MA

No to media concentration!

—Michel Lebas, Seattle, WA

This kind of consolidation harms all Americans. We must also take all action possible to maintain hard won Net Neutrality as well.

—Barbara Miller, Boulder, CO

No company that actively evades FCC rules and routinely exceeds the law and ethical standards should be granted special privileges, especially when under pressure from a poorly informed and unaccountable president. I ask that the FCC act immediately to block the merger of Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune. Allowing this uncontrolled expansion of broadcasting sources for hate-based extremist reporting is absolutely not acceptable. Block this merger now.

—Sigrid Asmus, Seattle, WA

This is outrageous. No company should have this kind of a monopoly on the airwaves.

—Jennifer Waters, Tucson, AZ

Control of so many of the nation's local TV stations by a single entity would be tantamount to Sinclair being given a dictatorial voice for news and opinion over a majority of the country.

—Timothy Wallick, Huron, OH

ANTI TRUST IS ANTI TRUST IS ANTI TRUST-THIS IS THE TEXTBOOK DEFINITION OF ANTI TRUST.

—Nancy Currah, Casper, WY

What goes around, come around... messing with the fundamentals of democracy is a pernicious undertaking.

—Cesare Pella, ,

FCC was created to protect us from media monopolies yet we keep losing independent and competing voices. Reverse conglomeration.

—Chris Dragon, Crestline, CA

End our corporate fascist government!

—Bruce L. Murrie, Washington, DC

Mega-mergers are dangerous for free speech and harmful to consumers. Stop this merger now.

—Laura Horowitz, Pittsburgh, PA

No Mega mergers of corporations that affect our right to know the TRUTH!!!!

—Laurel Hughes, Lynnwood, WA

This is exactly the kind of thing Trump stumped against. He said he was going to do more for the common people and stand up to big corporations. What a ruse that turned out to be. This is just but one of many examples of Corporate America on steroids and out of control, and exactly what the common people are against, this broken system which favors the top 2 % at the expense of the rest of us. Enough is enough. We're sick of lying politicians and a broken feed the rich mentality, while the rest can just eat cake! Bull

—Thomas Keenan, Coeur d' Alene, ID

Big Brother is ALREADY getting too close to reality. Corporate news is an abomination.

—Sarah Bellem, Felton, CA

NO Trump TV !!

—John Culp, Saint Louis, MO

Please keep the media diversified and local. It's your job to protect the public. Don't allow Sinclair to merge with Tribune!

—David Smernoff, Portola Valley, CA

This merger shouldn't even be being considered in light of anti-monopoly laws.

—Kyra Humphrey, Sequim, WA

This merger would create an unthinkable level of media consolidation by a company that's used the public airwaves to push a political agenda. I strongly urge you to block this merger. I thank you for your time and consideration.

—Allan Fix, Albany, CA

This kind of consolidation of media power is absurd on the face of it, we need more, not fewer, voices. We certainly do not need more propaganda diluting reality.

—Larry Kimball, Cotopaxi, CO

UNNECESSARY

—Arlene Merryman, Berkeley, CA

Stop the takeover of local media by the Merger of Sinclair-Tribune. This is an information monopoly which should not be allowed to undermine our democracy. It's just another version of Citizens United!!

—Janice Ray Hallman, Saint Paul, MN

We don't need Russia TV

—James E Mitchell, Framingham, MA

Beyond the legal limits? YES. Most certainly. Just say NO!

—Carol Wolter-Gustafson, Jamaica Plain, MA

God damn it

—Steven O'Brien, Catonsville, MD

Just stop him, please. Nullify the 2016 election.

—Nadiya Littlewarrior-Davis, Santa Clarita, CA

A free and open media is the foundation of our democracy - don't allow the Sinclair-Tribune merger!

—Susan Silverman, Oakland, CA

This president must behave like we live in a Democracy.

—Lynn Levine, Minneapolis, MN

What ever happened to regulations on how many TV/radio/newspapers corporations were allowed to have in certain areas? The FCC has sold out to the oligarchs. DO NOT BE THEIR HANDMAIDENS!

—Leigh Hill, Felton, CA

Freedom of the press does not mean freedom of mega-corporations to dominate media markets and drown out other voices. Freedom of the press requires regulation to provide freedom from monopolies so that truth can be heard.

—Jeremy Heiman, Glenwood Springs, CO

Conflict of interest much? SAD! Stop the insanity!

—Chris McCarty, Englewood, CO

Boycotting is one way, but shutting you down is better.

—Karen Ingenthron, Oakland, CA

I haven't watched TV since the days of Walter Cronkite & Huntley & Brinkly. Today's tv news mostly sucks - it's akin to elevator muzak. I thought the whole idea of the FCC was to make sure there is diversity in the media outlets and owner. Aijit Pai 's FCC is on board with the "make american great again" crowd (read make american white again) ironic since he's a person of color.

—L Parker, Everett, WA

Hold him accountable already!!

—Lorrie Starr, Columbia, MO

The press must be independent! No takeovers!

—Lee Becker, Lindsborg, KS

Break up ALL monopolies in the USA! We thrive on competition, this is one of the worst decisions we could make!

—Robert J. Lockhorn, Vancouver, WA

More media consolidation: bad for freedom of the press, bad for the diversity of print and broadcast ideas and opinions, and bad for democracy.

—Bill J. Schoene, Santa Monica, CA

Whatever happened to Antitrust? This is way too big!

—Chris Kermiet, Denver, CO

Mergers do not serve the public, our older rules about diversity and anti-monopoly ownership ....did not go far enough. Stop consolidation.... not good for business and not good for honesty or transparency in media.

—Eben Ross, Hamden, CT

Major Mergers for the most part have harmed consumers. Do not allow this one —Monica Seymour McFeeters, Baldwin, MS

we need truth in media...please do not allow this its too large of a conglomerate..a democracy needs a free media platform

—, Kalamazoo, MI

I urge you to disallow this merger and consolidation of power!

—M.S. USMC P SSGT John P. Farrar Ret., Erie, CO

The problems that develop in markets when a provider of a service gets too big and then believes they have no responsibility to the customer but only to the share holders has been seen over and over. Just look at airlines, cable companies etc, banks, they just don't care about the customer service, and this will be true of Sinclair. In Columbus Ohio, they have 2 stations, and present the same info, same show hosts on 2 stations. They can consolidate their news and present their right wing Science devoid information in stereo!

—Dawn Stanko, Dublin, OH

It is truly unfair for a sitting President [Trump] to use his position of power, to help 'any' business become more powerful...very dangerous

—Brent Spencer, Long Beach, CA

I have little hope that this will do any good as the chairman is more vested in making sure are media shrinks to ownership by a view corporate giants. Local stations always are needed to air truly local content not just a vomiting up of national news that can be gotten on any cable station. Local news, that truly reports on the events in the surrounding communities, is vital for the people of those communities to live and work. Local channels should not be allowed to be taken over by any company that will use them as a propaganda platform for any political party or candidate. But as I stated earlier the chairman is working to enhance the power of the few to get their message across and turn channels into cookie cutter machines for their corporate owners.

—Sheila Beth Newtown, De Peyster, NY

Fox News is already bad enough. Sinclair is worse. We already have 'Twitter' in the WH. America has now become a 3rd world country. ENOUGH!!!

—Joseph Magnano, Stroudsburg, PA

We dont need no stinkin mergers !!!

—James Deen, Redlands, CA

Stop the Sinclair-Tribune Merger.

—Carlos Alén, Allentown, PA

Someone needs to stand up for the People!

—Mary Mobley, LIVE OAK, FL

Restore policies that encourage diversity of opinion and report truth.

—John Martin, Hazel Crest, IL

You can NOT allow this. This is fascism and has no place in the United States of America.

—Holly Lautwein, Streator, IL

Don't let Putin win. Again.

—John J Erben, Juneau, AK

This cannot be allowed. Please deny this. Thank you.

—Colin Kay, Tinley Park, IL

WITI-TV (Fox6) in Milwaukee, WI is bad enough as a FOX-News affiliate. To have it undergo a 100% conversion by becoming an Sinclair outlet would be intolerable. This needs to be stopped!

—Robert Whitney, Cudahy, WI

Anti-Trust Laws were created for a reason. FCC is supposed to protect these reasons.

—Lisa Mountain, Troy, MT

Say no to monopoly!

—Mohsen shenas, whitewright, TX

Monopoly/oligopoly is what is killing productivity and future growth. This one is one Trump's head.

—William Davern, Shoreview, MN

Keep our media open to all views and informed debate, local, national, and international. Knowledge is power. Don't allow for the further dumbing down of the American mind and experience. Don't be afraid to stand up to big corporations and moneyed interests. Maintain and improve access to what is actually happening in the world and to alternative thoughts. Maintain and improve, help bring back, the American spirit of creativity and innovation. For this we need informed and educated minds. For this we are counting on you, FCC. Don't allow for the erosion of a democracy that is already fighting for survival.

—Kathryn Yearsley, Portland, OR

Sinclair Broadcast Group has a history of pushing slanted, biased news over its affiliate local news stations. They are engaged in deliberate campaigns to mislead and fool the American people into accepting their radical agenda for unfettered, unregulated corporate influence over American politics. They are a bad corporate actor and they need to be refused access to an even larger platform for extending their democracy-corrupting disinformation and propaganda.

—Andrew May, Thurmont, MD

Say NO

—Susan Lanker, columbus, OH

Sinclair is not welcome in LA. We need broadcasters that serve our diverse population, which is over two-thirds people of color. Sinclair is known to spread hate and misinformation about undocumented people and people of color. This reckless hate profiteering would be bad for our community; it stokes fear about people of color, which in turns make us less safe amongst our neighbors. I want objective news and information on KTLA, not Donald Trump's propaganda machine. This deal is bad for the public, bad for Los Angelenos and bad for people of color. The FCC should show independence from the Trump Administration and reject this terrible deal.

—Jessica J. Gonzalez, Rancho Palos Verdes, CA

We need a wide variety of news sources. We do not need a state "owned" communication system. This would bring us closer to a system which may payback those who pushed through these changes. It cannot be good for the people of the United States. You have the chance to stop this! Do it!

—Kelly McMahan, Alameda, NM

Media consolidation is a dangerous trend in a democracy that depends upon a large variety of viewpoints.

—Judy Van Wyk, Durham, NC

We are already too far under the thrall of the corporate media in this Country.

—Peter Martinez, Tampa, FL

This merger deal is not in the public interest, in fact this kind of consolidated media control is against the public interest of our country.

—Duke Briscoe, Arlington, MA

Just as we need to break up the too big to fail banks, we need to break up the too big to be objective mega media companies, not enlarge them.

—Kevin Gershom Sicard, Independence, OR

We won't watch it.

—Karen Thaw, Beverly, MA

Along with this being illegal, that last thing we need 24/7 is 'Big Brother' Trump blasting his bigoted, hateful and ignorant propaganda on a super network, drowning out all sensible and balanced television. NO to all Trump T.V. all the time!

—Lynette Coffey, Shasta Lake, CA

During World War II the Nazis propaganda totally controlled all the news media in Germany and the rest is history. We can't allow that to happen in our cherished democracy! Television, newspapers, internet and all other communicative media must be free and not be monopolized or be restricted by an alt-right fascist like Trump and the misfits that support him!

Bring back the Fairness Doctrine, where differing views are aired on the same station by law.

—Gertrude Reagan, Palo Alto, CA

Let not Sinclair win the game of Monopoly. Keep our digital TV a free market.

—Vincent LaMarca, BROOKLYN, NY

This would be a straight-up monopoly. There are reasons there are laws to prevent monopolies, and we cannot have extreme corruption in this administration that allows it to happen. Furthermore, this merger would have been explicitly illegal except that Ajit Pai added a new job-killing regulation just a few days ago that allows the merger.

—Masaru Oka, Madison, WI

Omg I'm so happy to have come across free press, information that really matters and is pertinent to daily living :) thank you!! I hope to hear more and spread the news as an artist and rights enthusiast I'm always learning about our past in hopes of a brighter future for the people.

Your job is NOT to allow monopolies to flourish, it is to stop them. Your track record here is not good. Do your job and stop this huge conglomerate from acquiring more power over information. Allowing this merger is an affront to our society and our democracy.

The FCC's Open Internet Rules (net neutrality rules) are extremely important to me. I urge you to protect them. I don't want ISPs to have the power to block websites, slow them down, give some sites an advantage over others, or split the Internet into "fast lanes" for companies that pay and "slow lanes" for the rest. Thank you.

—Miro Pöllänen, Alturas, FL

If you vote yes, consumers will see a huge increase in cost for services. The public reaction will not be as expected. Your mission is to protect the consumer NOT to betray us. Have you joined the pathological political sociopaths who have no empathy, sympathy? Have your votes been bought so now you are puppets who have no choice but to submit to the puppeteers? If so they have taken away the power you think you have.

Diverse media ownership, open debate, and good journalism are the basis for a strong, vibrant media. Thank you for your hard work to all the people who make up Free Press.

—Andrew Rouse, Louisville, CO

The possibility of a media totally controlled by one entity does not support the freedom of press in the USA. We cannot continue to allow these huge media conglomerates to take over how Americans get their news, programming or coverage. Such control easily leads to State run programming and ultimately, fascism.

You CAN'T let this CRAZY, WOULD-BE DICTATOR monopolize the sources of information!!!!

—Herman S. Simms Jr., Detroit, MI

I am writing this to the commissioners of the FCC to urge them, in the strongest of terms, to stop the merger of Sinclair Broadcasting Group and Tribune Media. At a time when a growing number of individuals and organizations are getting increasingly fed up with the consolidation of media companies into fewer and fewer entities (and I might add that the criticism is growing bigger by the day), now is not the time to allow further media consolidation (i.e. Sinclair owning multiple TV stations covering over 70% of the U.S.) without running the risk of a potential backlash from the public, particularly the general public. Allowing this merger to go through, in any shape or form, would be a terrible mistake that would open the FCC as a whole to some serious embarrassment, not to mention causing considerable public outrage. In a nutshell the Sinclair-Tribune merger, if allowed to go through, would do real harm to communities all across America. So that is why I'm urging the FCC, in no uncertain terms, to completely STOP the Sinclair-Tribune merger once and for all, period. Stopping the merger would be the REAL right thing to do. In turn I would also strongly urge the FCC to start restoring and then enforcing policies meant to ensure and encourage diversity in local broadcast media. That too would be the right thing to do.

—Michael Dobson, Ballwin, MO

The FCC's ownership limits were designed to ensure a diversity of local voices and opinions. Amit Pai changed how the agency calculates station reach enabling Sinclair to skirt ownership limits. The FCC needs to create policies that promote equity and opportunity, rather than paving the way for distorted commentary- and less of the local news people really need.

The Trump administration and the Republicans in Congress are quickly moving to take our freedom of speech from the citizens of the United States (whom they swore to listen to and be THE CITIZEN'S voice). This administration is quickly moving to make our DEMOCRATIC based government into an OLIGARCHY. YOU are trying to take other freedoms from the 99%. This must STOP. NOW. Do not allow this merger. It takes away our freedom of speech that our CONSTITUTION PROVIDES TO ITS CITIZENS!! This is ILLEGAL and IMMORAL! STOP this merger NOW!!

Americans are not being fooled. This is another Koch and billionaires to control the country.
—Elaine Loughhead, Lake Linden, MI

The FCC's ownership limits and free licensing of the Public Airwaves were designed to ensure a diversity of local voices and opinions. These licenses are reviewed every eight years. Still, today, very few TV or radio stations are owned by women or people of color. Instead, limited business interest groups and lobbyists are dominating our airwaves. The society is fractured. The airwaves should reflect the society. The FCC should continue to follow its charter as a civil service operation.

—Kenneth Ryan, Fullerton, CA

This is nothing short of crazy. It will lead to a smothering of individual thought outlets - everything will be suffocated by the hate filled ideology of Donald Trump and his ilk. It must be stopped in the interests of the American people.

Sinclair should stop their massive buying spree of television stations (and Sinclair should stop broadcasting misleading information to the public).

—Christopher Hamby, Walkersville, MD

We already have enough conservative outlets in St. Louis; talk radio stations KMOX, KFTK and WSDZ are the leading purveyors of conservative talk in the market. Such a deal would give Sinclair too much control of the St. Louis TV market. Sinclair already owns the local ABC affiliate, KDNL; the deal would give Sinclair control of the local Fox (KTVI) and CW (KPLR) affiliates. This would cede the local news market to TEGNA (KSDK) and Meredith (KMOV). Too many jobs would be needlessly eliminated in this acquisition.

—Eric Bueneman, Hazelwood, MO

A free, unbiased press is constitutionally guaranteed!

—Melissa Chamberlain, Cedar Rapids, IA

I SAY YES TO TRUMP. DELETE MY NAME I SIGNED THIS ON ACCIDENT.

—Tracy Manzo, Union, NJ

Sinclair already owns 2 stations in my area. Of the 3 broadcast companies in our market, they produce by far the worst local news, with its distinguishing characteristics being a focus on crime and disaster, a lack of investigative journalism, and a tendency to fill time with celebrity gossip or crime and disaster from overseas rather than local human interest stories. Their lack of care for the communities they serve means that, for the sake of the public good, they should not be permitted to acquire more stations.

—Sarah Ammerman, Columbus, OH

A free and independent press, please. Not a conglomerate with an agenda.

—Ann Nicksick, Cross Lanes, WV

To whom it may concern at the FCC, Trump TV is not in the public interest your agency is required to serve the public. This merger involving Sinclair Broadcast Group is bad for the public this company has a history of pushing its corporate agenda in newsrooms of companies it owns and is very partisan and one sided. Do not allow them to own more stations and airwaves and use them to force their propaganda on more people we want real local news and reporting and investigative independent journalism.

I am disturbed that a well known propaganda group that has willfully skirted FCC regulations, is making a run to be the largest media conglomerate. Furthermore, the Trump administration has ties that are conflicts of interest. Do not allow this merger to happen. We will be watching this issue.

—Lisa Trent, Carlsbad, CA

This means more to me than anything else in my life right now. I'm fighting Fox News fear with my senior parents, having to calm them down after being scared to death every time they watch "Hannity." And they're addicted, just like a bad drug. Please don't add more of this fear to my parents' day by allowing this unthinkable amount of monopoly to exist in our precious, still free, democracy. Sinclair Broadcast Group broadcasts unvetted accusations about liberal politicians and the merger would violate the legal limits on Media ownership. Our country is stronger with more voices, and not fewer. The economic benefits of a diverse broadcast industry with more owners are many, and there are few (if any) benefits to consolidated ownership. Please oppose the merger of Sinclair Broadcasting and Tribune.

—Mark Kewman, West Sacramento, CA

I oppose the acquisition of our local news by monopolies that wish to control the message, rather than deliver quality local content to constituents. —Wilma Gregoropoulos, North Stonington, CT

The Sinclair takeover is a monopoly disguised as a merger. It creates single source of news in markets all over the country. I am strongly opposed and demand the FCC vote down this action.

—Robin Byers, Mercer Island, WA

This level of propaganda must not be allowed. Half of a story is a lie and Sinclair makes its reporters speak these lies on air or quit. This type of media control is unethical and must be illegal in any free nation.

—Lynn Davis, Selah, WA

In addition to the fact that it's dangerous for one company to have too much control over local media, it's even more dangerous that they require their local stations to broadcast their political agenda. My local Tribune station does a great job reporting national and local news but I fear their hands will be tied if this buyout is permitted.

—Ed Brancheau, San Diego, CA

What happened to anti-trust laws? No company should be allowed to control the market, particularly media and broadcast market, the 4th branch of the government.

—Steven Vaughan, Beaverton, OR

Sinclair is notorious for putting "mandatory" programs and talking points to local newscast unlike virtually all of their competitors. They force local journalists to tow a certain line of questioning and reporting (even scripted) rather than allowing them to act as responsible news outlets. We can not allow such blatant disrespect to fair journalism be disregarded.

—Jason James Guy, Culpeper, VA

Integrity in Journalism Matters.

—Casey Sepich, Danvers, IL

Propaganda is not news. Our airwaves should not promote propaganda or hate. Sinclair does this. For all these reasons listed, this merger must be denied.

—Judy king, Puyallup, WA

This is nothing short of a "news" media being a propaganda mouth piece. Take it down or the real patriots will!

—Gabriel Paavola, Richland, MI

Not only should the merger be disallowed, I hope you will also look into the deceptive practices of inserting forced political content into local news broadcasts. Do we no longer live in a democracy that wants a free press? Please stand up for America. Some of our most cherished democratic institutions are under seige.

—Annette de Soto, Seattle, WA

This kind of move is out to destroy the Free Press and spoon feed us propaganda. Sinclair will not give us "straighter coverage." Stop this! Our country deserves truth not slanted stories shoveled to Americans watching broadcast news. Sinclair's reach is too big and too manipulative.

Truly disgusting

—Charlotte Henthorn, Watertown, NY

There formerly was a law against this in the America we used to know.

—Marilyn Shugart, Pittsboro, NC

Local TV is supposed to be just that - local. How can we expect a politically motivated corporate parent to provide unfettered, unbiased local news when its directors and leaders don't live in the area, and likely have never visited the communities served by our local Connecticut affiliates. The thought of granting a large corporation control over a large swath of the country's airwaves is simple unAmerican. And it will not "Make America Great Again." Instead, it will make our country more like those nations whose airwaves are controlled by those in power to manipulate public opinion and to mislead.

—Dean J. Golembeski, Oxford, CT

DOWN WITH TRUMP TV!!

—Randall Faircloth, Wilmington, NC

This is an absolute outrage! Since when were Soviet practices legal in the "Land of the Free." This greed and propaganda has got to stop. We, the people, want reliable news sources that report on just that: the news. Unbiased facts of the day. Please do the right thing for the people of this country and stop this merger.

—Colleen Luckett, Denver, CO

The FCC should be fighting against efforts that are designed for partisan and misleading propaganda. The FCC should not be facilitating it.
—Zachary Woodruff, San Diego, CA

There is already too much concentrated power in the hands of Sinclair Broadcasting. Acquisition of Tribune Broadcasting will reduce diversity even further. The FCC must not approve the merger.
—Robert Spencer, New York, NY

Free press is under big business and harms our nation. No longer can we enjoy information based on FACTS, but just massive editorial, bias and leaves a vacuum that corrupt individuals, organizations, corporate interests use against citizens right to unabridged information about local, state, national and international events. The SINCLAIR'S cannot be permitted to own news networks, newspapers. Like FOX they saturate a local market, no other news is available. I've lived in remote locations and the unreality of their facts affects everything from local govt to healthcare. I spend HOURS with my patients undoing GOP news info. It's frightening what they believe and with Trump at war with first amendment this leads to authoritarianism. Russia attacked US sovereignty and Murdoch, Mercers and Sinclair's did everything they could to permit enemy action against us. —Christopher Hirt, La Grange, IL

Donald Trump wants to turn our government into the same kind of kleptocratic oligarchy Russia has under Vladimir Putin. He has repeatedly praised him and colluded with him to steal our presidency. Sinclair broadcasting, along with Murcoch's News Corporation would become the media arm of Trump's totalitarian regime. We cannot allow this to happen. Sinclair cannot be allowed to destroy independent journalism by merging with Tribune Broadcasting!
—William Swatos, Palm Desert, CA

WHAT IS WRONG WITH THE REPUBLICANS LATELY? FIRST THEY SUPPORT A RUSSIAN SYMPATHIZER, THEN THEY SUPPORT MAKING THE POOR GET POORER AND THE RICH GET RICHER. YOU PEOPLE ARE PAWNS IN A RELENTLESS WAR AGAINST THE AMERICAN CITIZEN - STOP IT ALREADY! THE AMERICAN PUBLIC IS OUTRAGED AND EMBARRASSED BY THE CONDUCT OF OUR ELECTED REPRESENTATIVES. THE WORLD USED TO SEE US AS A BEACON OF HOPE - NOT RUSSIAN. COMES TO YOUR FUCKING SENSES AND STOP ABUSING YOUR AUTHORITY. HELP US! VOTE TO STOP THIS MERGER!

—Jeffrey W Lindquist Jr, Portland, OR

Please protect consumers and reject this merger. This will harm the public, so please take action to stem this immediately. Thank you for reading these comments and thank you for the important job you do.

—Mica Mitchell, Nashville, TN

American ideals are about small businesses and grassroots organizations. The Sinclair merger will form the greatest monopoly of the news ever made. Please do not let a select few control the media. Local news should be just that: local and independent. This is the American way-- not corporate monopolies.

—Katie Jones, Sparks, NV

No monopoly on media

—Christine Francis, San Jose, CA

Local should be local. Not an Orwellian propaganda movement. Please do not allow a merger that spreads more disinformation through propaganda and endangers American Democracy.

—Amy Cooper, Baytown, TX

News should be neutral- not towards the left or the right. That's not reporting the news- that's an info commercial geared towards your agenda,

—Mary Elaine, Baltimore, MD

I am horrified that such monopoly is even being considered! Please protect the American consumer!

—Cathleen O'Neill, Lake Stevens, WA

This merger proposal creates a media monopoly which seriously jeopardizes one of the most sacred tenets of our Constitution. The FCC must reject the Sinclair/Tribune merger.

—Nicole Clarke, Haganan, NY

Trump is an imbecile, and ought to be prosecuted criminally for willful misrepresentation of the truth, and the deception and manipulation of the American people.

—Joe, Mission Viejo, CA

We do not need another propaganda network working against the best interests of the American people! Corporations have too much power now and need to be stopped. Be the force that stops it.

—Ms. Chris Casper, Stevens Point, WI

Do the right thing for the republic and the free press.

—Aleta Payne, Willingboro, NJ

NO, NO, NO!

—Juan Robinson Franco, Charlotte, NC

We need accurate news from a variety of sources. Sinclair Broadcast Group should not be allowed to merge with Tribune. It would create a monopoly with biased reporting.

—Elizabeth Kopper, South Windsor, CT

This should be illegal.

—Kristina Kovacs, Venice, CA

This is horrible. People are finding out about it. This is not Russia or Turkey. Prevent this merger!

—Michael Bennett, La Valle, WI

Monopolies are bad for the people!

—Megan A Petkewec, Iowa City, IA

Consolidation is wrong! Especially when the owners give the stations talking points they must follow!!!

—Barbara Bates, Fort Myers, FL

Peter Jennings said, "Whoever controls the media controls reality." As Trump tries to assert authoritarian power more and more, it is essential that we don't stay passive. We must stand up for a diverse and free media. Many of Sinclair's "must run" segments have a clear hard right slant masquerading as sensible news coming from the mouths of local journalists. None of it is news, however, just extremely irresponsible propaganda. It is not "conservative" by any formerly accepted meaning of that term. It functions simply as Trump's puppet.

—, Florence, MA

Block this merger. All Americans deserve unbiased news. The FCC fining of Sinclair indicates it airs propaganda and biased news. Support the reporting of the truth.

—J L Weiner, Houston, TX

Democracy requires a free press.

—Judy Maclauchlan, New Orleans, LA

this merger is not only illegal; it is extremely harmful to hand over this much media control to one company.

—Nancy Brownell, Bowling Green, OH

There is a frightening trend away from actual news toward propaganda. The Free press is a foundation of democracy. Sinclair had shown itself to be part of a propaganda machine that threatens our freedom. I urge you to examine their actions carefully.

—Lee Awmiller, La Grande, OR

Sinclair is not credible or in the best interest for most Americans. This merger does not promote diversity or a wide range of subjects and beliefs. Please restore your policies with the high standards and block this merger. Thank you.

—Cyndie, Katy, TX

This deal has the potential to affect access to information at the local level, which is one that affects all citizens and the sources they are most likely to trust: local news sources, the ones they often see and hear from the most. The ones they often assume will tell the truth. This merger needs to be blocked, and the FCC should work to ensure that obvious biases against the facts and accurate reporting is recognized for the danger that it is and appropriate policies put in place to address it.

—Rashada Alexander, Rockville, MD

Must stop monopolies.

—Kathrine Kent, Westfield, NJ

Stop the Sinclair train wreck. Stop the Tribune takeover, and roll back their current rural monopoly of broadcast stations.

—Bill Bryce, Marina del Rey, CA

How can the US allow a monopoly of the communication sources?

—Donny Bryce, Marina del Rey, CA

Stop this merger. It is a biased Fox News wannabe, and has abandoned all ethics of journalism.

—Lauren Tucker, Chicago, IL

SINCLAIR BROADCASTING IS PROPAGANDA AND FASCIST

—James E Russum Jr, Cataula, GA

The United States is a democracy. One of the hallmarks of that democracy is independent local news, not government propaganda masquerading as news. No one network should control 70% of local networks, that is a monopoly.

—Joanne Jackson, Chicago, IL

This is shameful. This could also hurt Trump's re-election chances.

—Dakota F. Flores, Loveland, CO

Democracies need a diversity of media. Protect our democracy!

—Anne Marie Wolf, Farmington, ME

The political slanted programs are not an option for Sinclair, nor do they present a contrasting opinion. This is not what American news is about. It is not what we need in a democracy.

—Gretchen Ebbesson-Keegan, Camden, ME

This deal should never happen. One company should NEVER reach 70% of the marketplace for broadcasting. Unreal, what the FCC is trying to do to this country. We have freedom because of the rules our society has not in spite of.

—Sean Bambic, Lockport, IL

OUTRAGEOUS!!! Stop this propaganda!!!

—, Scarborough, ME

Democracy is threatened when media is not independent and corporations dictate news. FCC must not weaken their regulations.

—Mary Hartley, Blue Hill, ME

Forcing television channels to air programming over which they have no control is contrary to the Free Press and everything that this country stands for. It makes us no better than the Soviet Union. I expect more from the United States government.

—Cristina Post, Freeport, ME

This blowhard gets enough attention and the airwaves belong to the people.

—Nancy Bradbury, Greene, ME

Relaxing regulations that will allow a monopoly broadcaster is dangerous for our country - especially with Sinclair Broadcasting attempting a huge merger, spreading misinformation and lies on a daily basis and forcing local affiliates to air 'must run' propaganda commentaries. This must be halted and prevented and it is your job. I implore you to remain steadfast and do it, truly to save the country from slanted, false propaganda. Thank you.

—Sheryl Nadell, Brunswick, ME

Please, do the RIGHT thing! Stop the merger!

—Brenda Adler, Hallowell, ME

Freedom of speech and expression is at risk if this merger is allowed to go through. Block Sinclair's attempt to brainwash the public.

—Betty Welt, Nobleboro, ME

Please DO NOT share my email address. Thank you.

—Elizabeth Schecher, Hallowell, ME

Free press is not giving one skewed view point an overwhelming advantage!

—Gus riker, Fullerton, CA

Stop this purchase.

—Barb Limar, Brooklyn, NY

Aside from the general principle that monopolistic control of media markets is harmful to the free exchange of ideas and information, this particular deal should be blocked if for no other reason than Sinclair has been shown to abuse the system and flout existing rules to the prejudice of the public.

—Susan Lowery, Harpswell, ME

More choice in our free media not less.

—Jayson Ovittore, Gastonia, NC

We do not need more fake news media, say no to this merger

—Linda Bennett, Zebulon, NC

I am extremely disappointed that the FCC is even considering allowing Sinclair to own so much of the media market and horrified by the propaganda Sinclair is spreading.

—Kirstan Watson, Kennebunkport, ME

I live in Greensboro, NC, which would be adversely affected.

—Lorraine Ahearn, Greensboro, NC

Diversity and integrity in news media is vital to our country's future. Protect them by denying the Sinclair/Tribune merger and by keeping in place laws that protect independence, diversity and integrity.

—Miriam Shark, Portland, ME

This is not in keeping with the rules of the FCC. Do not change the rules in order to allow Sinclair to monopolize our media market with propaganda. No way!

—Susan Murphy, Bar Harbor, ME

No propaganda by the Singlair group

—Judy Reeves, Fairfield, ME

It is urgent that the regulations preventing media monopoly no be loosened. Our country needs a free and unbiased press!

—Betty Massie, Bar Harbor, ME

Enough with the corporate and oligarchic propaganda.

—Dotty Coffey, Minneapolis, MN having moved from a large city to a rural state, i know how precious media diversity is but we must be very careful of infomercials masquerading as news

—, Bar Harbor, ME

Rules to limit monopolies were set up for a reason. It is dangerous to place over 70% of media markets under the monopoly of a single broadcast company. Please do not allow rules to be relaxed.

—Keri Hayes, Bass Harbor, ME

Don't allow idiot Trump to destroy America's values and our Democracy!!!

—Ronald Clayton, ASHEBORO, NC

Our media should not be monopolized by a few corporations. Say no to Sinclair Broadcasting.

—Andrea Bonnett, Altadena, CA

Monopolies are antithetical do both democracy and justice.

—Warren Adams-Ockrassa, Flagstaff, AZ

NO MERGER NO

—Stan J. Bozek, Boston, MA

This is a shocking corruption of our free press.

—Marie W Nelson, Clearwater, FL

stop the merger!

—Robert Garrod, Portland, OR

NO FUCKING WAY...GUTLESS ASSWIPES!

—Peter Solt, Chicago, IL

I absolutely oppose this merger. Diversity is safety.

—Alice B Evans, BELLEVUE, WA

Stop the Sinclair-Tribune Merger!! We don't need this type of racist, right-wing trash broadcast on our airwaves!!

—Domonick Jackson, RALEIGH, NC

We are gradually being reduced from a Democracy to authoritarian and plutocratic political dogmas. This needs to stop, before hundreds of years of freedom is lost.

—Timothy J. Larkin, San Francisco, CA

A near monopoly in any category is a bad idea and the media needs to be free of any political agenda to serve the truth. We will not tolerate anything less in this country.

—Mr. Scott Berry, Orlando, FL

Support American "little guys"

—Diane Louis, Chicago, IL

It is one thing to chose to watch a particular station which is aligned with your political views. It is totally another to be subjected to this kind of propaganda.

—Ellen Kelly, Raleigh, NC

Sinclair is notorious for slipping right-wing views and Republican talking points into its newscasts. The company overrides the objections of local journalists and forces its stations to run conservative commentaries and slanted stories on the local news. And Sinclair went all out for Trump in 2016. Jared Kushner, the president's adviser and son-in-law, boasted about the special deal he struck with Sinclair to get Trump uninterrupted favorable coverage.<sup>3</sup> And Sinclair has been hiring Trump campaign spokespeople as analysts ever since. Now Sinclair's getting its payback. If this deal goes through, Sinclair's cookie-cutter, Trump-boosting content could reach more than 70 percent of the U.S. population.<sup>5</sup> That means more distorted commentary — and less of the local news people really need.

—Marcus Maloney, Sacramento, CA

This is a plan worthy of Goebbles

—Peter Davison, Idyllwild, CA

We are a plutocracy and fascism is on the way!!! We MUST stop it dead in its tracks!! Not an option!!!

—Sarah Zitin, Studio City, CA

We don't need Big Brother News = non-stop subsidized political spin.

—Nina Wouk, 1259 El Camino Real #215 Menlo Park, CA

A free country needs a free press to remain a free country.

—Diana Somerville, Port Angeles, WA

We are not Italy; Trump is not Berlusconi, and this is the 21st millenium. So stop with this trump takeover of our public air waves. ENOUGH!!!!

—, South Hamilton, MA

Stop this garbage now.

—Marc Goldfine, San Francisco, CA

In so many ways we are going so backwards. Please stop this from being just one more regressive influence.

—Jackie Patridge Stewart, Austin, TX

NEITHER RACISM NOR BIAS OF ANY TYPE HAVE ANY PLACE IN HE DISSEMINATION OF THE NEWS IN THIS NATION.

—George V. Williams, Hudson,, FL

I thought the FCC's job was to protect consumers? How is this legal?

—D Jessop, Santa Fe, NM

These rules are in place for a reason -- to encourage diversity in media coverage and avoid homogenizing the news. Please keep them in place.
—Timothy Keenan, Steamboat Springs, CO

There was a reason that anti monopoly laws were enacted. And it's a poor reflection on our "elected officials" those laws were rescinded. And it's an embarrassment that the FCC is so in the pockets of the moneyed corporations, rather than the public good. Please, stop this antiamerican merger.

—James M Dodge, Raleigh, NC

We can't afford another hit against our democracy, now do we.

—Steven DeGennaro, Santa Fe, NM

This cannot happen, televised hate speech is just wrong and immoral.

—Kim Spencer, Pontiac, MI

We gave up our only control of the air waves by forcing digital only channels. No one has to be reviewed for licensing any longer. You are our hope to keep America safe from biased propaganda. Please stand strong for all Americans.

—Irene Bean, Carmichael, CA

We do NOT want or need another right-wing/Fox Supremacist broadcast system in America, like in Russia. We want an open, free broadcast system and we want THE PROTECTION of the FCC, NOT their COLLUSION with these dictator types.

—Tish Hill, Cheshire, MA

These pigs don't have ENOUGH of the market as is? I forgot - there's NO SUCH THING AS ENOUGH for bloodsuckers like this. THAT is the biggest problem in this country - saying ENOUGH to the pigs for whom there's no such thing. Schools not getting enough money? Starving children? Oldies eating cat food? These filthy parasites don't give a shit - they want MORE.

MOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOORE!!!

—Richard Nuts, stamford, CT

Changing rules in order to allow disinformation? The FCC has been bought.

—James Soares, Everson, WA

I have studied the media concentration issue and have published on it. I am opposed to this merger. I urge the FCC to block it.

—Robert Horwitz, San Diego, CA

Free Press means FREE PRESS.

—Vic Phillips, Simpsonville, SC

Creating popularity, where there is none.

—Mario Manzo, Ojo Caliente, NM

Stop Monopoly!

—Robert Janusko, Bethlehem, PA

NOT that I feel the FCC is working FOR us any more>>>>

—Jeanne Acosta-Caipe, Tampa, FL

The whole reason for the FCC existing is to make sure there's a variety of points of view.

—Judy Nakadegawa, Berkeley, CA

The FCC must oppose this merger if its member want to preserve what is left of our democracy.

—Catherine Bailey, Wheatland, WY

Doing this will more than likely END the FCC. Be careful what you play with ,

—Zev Babbitt, Gillette, NJ

Trying to destroy democracy one station at a time! Unacceptable to all Americans.

—Dianna Bubach, Roxbury, NY

we don't need to build more racism and hate, isn't trump doing enough already?

—Mrs. Donnasue Jacobi, san andreas, CA

We rely on you to be a true regulatory agency and protect journalistic freedom and integrity.

—Mel Ginsberg, Ashland, OR

NO to Sinclair Broadcast Group to take over any more tv stations. That kind of monopoly is so dangerous for our country. In fact, they should have to give up some of their stations! This is such a threat to a democracy.

—Ellen Zarter, Bellevue, WA

I agree with every word and I think you understand the problem of near-monopolies of this sort. Please, block this merger.

—Ms. Linda Frey, Ada, MI

Accurate news and reporting should be part of FCC requirements for news programming. Do not allow a broadcast that breaks these rules to proliferate, and continue to fine them for inaccurate reporting as news.

—Karen Ashikeh, Fremont, CA

Never!!!

—Georgia Gillespie, Baldwinsville, NY

STOP aiding this Facist regime. The American People are having none of this. Too much power in too few hands...This is on YOU and you'd better do it right.

—Joseph Herzog, Fresno, CA

No single company should have this much influence.

—christopher Simmons, West Hills, CA

PLEASE do the right thing!

—Geraldine Schabb, REISTERSTOWN, MD

I ask you to please refrain from changing the FCC rule to allow the Sinclair-Tribune Merger to occur. There is no way you can allow this to occur. Sinclair is well-known to spread propaganda such as anti-muslims rhetoric designed to incite fear and hatred. This action is inappropriate for Sinclair-Tribune Merger to occur. Please block this merger and restore policies that encourage a diversity of local media owners to allow a wide range of viewpoints! Thank you very much!

—Reyes Preciado, Santa Clara, CA

If anything, a "broadcast group," like Sinclair, more interested in providing one-sided propaganda rather than the news, should have a smaller share of the market, not bigger.

—Thomas P. Gardner, Keokuk, IA

I think we've suffered enough media consolidation.

—Thomas Bub, Lonedell, MO

no one should get special treatment at the detriment of others

—Lajeane Kline, Bend, OR

This merger is unAmerican!! It's wrong. I can't believe it's even being considered.

—Carolyn Crooke, Minneapolis, MN

Protect our right to free speech. Protect the independent stations.

—Miss Billie Abbott, Sweet Home, OR

The FCC is to protect America not destroy it.

—Keeneth Osburn, Clayton, IN

The Board of Directors is in the owners pockets! Check them out!

—Anne Connolly Keith, Beltsville, MD

It is your duty and responsibility to block this merger which will not serve the interest of free and informed electorate.

—Peter Fraterdeus, Galena, IL

This is a repulsive, regressive, and undemocratic effort that undermines the very bedrock of American political engagement and the cornerstones of a free-press. There is nothing acceptable or American about Sinclair, much less their current agenda. As an American I'm embarrassed. As A human being, I'm disgusted.

—Jeremy Goldstein, Lawrence, KS

Do the right think and stop this merger.

—Margaret Monks, Lyndhurst, NJ

I want my local station to be independent and LOCAL!!

—Dorie Green, Bozeman, MT

Steve Bannon's only good idea was to break up tech giants like Google & Facebook, the same anti-monopoly mentality should apply to media corporations. This merger will essentially create a monolith of local news disseminating the same messages to everyone across the country. Varying viewpoints are important, you get that with independent / smaller media organizations.

—Matthias Smed Larsen, ,

Democracy is best served with the diversity of voices. This is why there have been no ownership lemons since the beginning of the Communications Act. Any loosening of these rules by you will be damaging.

—Thomas Simonet, Yardley, PA

The FCC needs to protect the airwaves from those who would hurt our country!!

—Anita DeLeon, San Antonio, TX

Stop this alarming threat to our country!

—Mary A. Keeler, Seattle, WA

Sinclair is bad for America. At the very least all these stations once bought should have to identify as Sinclair, not allow Sinclair to hide behind local station names.

—Jared Riley, Concord, CA

What's next?? Changing the name of our country to the Trump Union of American Socialist States? In short, Trump U ASS. Put THAT on the air!

—Deborah Lee Chill, Yucaipa, CA

SINCLAIR BROADCAST GROUP IS TOO BIG AS IT IS. PLEASE DO NOT PERMIT IT TO MERGE.

—Judith Bergson, Somerville, MA

This has to stop. The country is already suffering from too much of this kind of hate-filled vile. We don't want it on the airwaves. We don't want our children and grandchildren exposed to it.

—Nancy J. Fitzgerald, Gouldsboro, ME

Sinclair is notorious for slipping right-wing views and Republican talking points into its newscasts. The company overrides the objections of local journalists and forces its stations to run conservative commentaries and slanted stories on the local news.

—Mr. Charles Wyrostok, Spencer, WV

We will continue to suffer the toxic effects of this Archie Bunker clone.

—Mr. Thomas Warner, Castleton, NY

Need to break this monopoly up not add to it. Sinclair is like Fox only local areas can't tune it out for an alternative because in many rural areas, Sinclair is all there is! Need FREE PRESS AND MEDIA!

—Linda Hillemann, Ellsinore, MO

Dump Trump!

—Margie Mallén, Covina, CA

You work for all Americans. Big buck donors cannot consolidate our media. This bodes ill for democracy.

—Cynthia La Croix, ALAMEDA, CA

FCC should not promote more racism and hatred toward a specific group. Instead there should be more diversity and perspectives from local media owners. It is time to not be so biased and target a group, but to allow the truth and every perspective on issues.

—Hiral Patel, Passaic, NJ

WE NEED TO GO BACK TO COMPETITION, AMONG ALL COMPANIES. WE DO NOT NEED MONOPOLIES. THANK YOU.

—Georgia And John And John Locker, FORT COLLINS, CO

No matter what Donald Trump tells you, you signed and swore an oath to uphold the Constitution of the United States. The Fourth Amendment protects our right to get the facts and the truth. Block this merger and restore policies that encourage a diversity of local media owners that will offer a wide range of viewpoints and allow us to make informed decisions.

—Anita McInnis, Bellflower, CA

I'm not a Trump fan and neither is most of the country based on the popular vote so most of us do NOT want this type of broadcasting.
—Katherine Otis, Palmdale, CA

TV is for Americans, not just billionaires.
—Greg Thomas, silver spring, MD

The press is arguably the most powerful force in a democracy. Regardless of your politics, huge news conglomerates threaten a democracy like nothing else. What you may see as favorable now, has potential to become unfavorable. Please keep the long term in mind, the value of having a free press, and the vital need for a free press to maintain a democratic government. Our beloved democracy could be shut down should Sinclair be allowed to grow even more.
—Ann Sutton, Houston, TX

You are supposed to be protecting the American public from monopolized broadcasting. We need more BALANCED reporting of news events, not more biased political agendas. The airwaves belong to US (the American public), NOT to the Sinclair Broadcast Group.
—R Shandor, San Diego, CA

This is just another example of "fake news" and hysterical news being shoved down our throats by the same kind of people who are running the White House. It's like Fox News on steroids. If local and national news is to inform the public without bias, then this merger will surely negate that purpose. It sounds more like what you would expect in a country such as Russia or North Korea. This merger and monopoly of our news must not be allowed.
—Leslie L Young, Bloomington, CA

Ultimately, weak news could destroy the country that is the basis for the business that supports your consumers.
—Dennis and Dorinda Tapley, Sebastopol, CA

It is your responsibility to protect Americans from unbridled monopolies.
—Jo Sippie-Gora, Kinnelon, NJ

This is an effort to have the U.S. be a true banana republic and must be defeated
—Bruce Sims, escondido, CA

Two of our local channels just merged which means that instead of two local points of view we now only get ONE. That is not how a free press works in a democracy. That is how Franco kept Spain fascist for 30+ years and how most dictatorships function to keep their citizens ignorant. Is that really the way we want our country to be?
—Dr. Marianne Caston, Santa Barbara, CA

News needs to be real. This would be a horrible idea because false news is wrog and people would be reacting to things that are not real. We need Truth. We have already seen encouraged anti social behavior and I worry that this type of content is destabilizing
—Rebecca Greeley, Acton, MA

We the people don't want this. Your job is to represent us NOT the corporations!
—Sandra V. Mueller, Pray, MT

NO NO NO. Our country needs to hear ALL sides of every news story to make educated and thoughtful decisions on how each issue will affect us & NOT just a select few.
—Theresa Bradley, Half Moon Bay, CA

Sinclair has had a bad effect on local radio stations as well.

—James Locke, Williamsburg, MA

If RW media cannot win on its merits, it should not win by coercion.

—Robin Smith, Albany, NY

this will not work fewer and fewer people watch tv

—Geraldine Theobald, Urbana, IL

The FCC should be about policing and discouraging media monopolies, not aiding and abetting them.

—Catherine Bell, Amherst, MA

This country gets enough lies from Brietbart and FOX, we don't need any more!!!

—Madelane Coale, Federal Way, WA

We will never get beyond this dangerous polarized country if we don't encourage diverse viewpoints in the media!

Thomas Jefferson: "Educate and inform the whole mass of the people... They are the only sure reliance for the preservation of our liberty."

—Veda Stram, Camano Island, WA

Monopolies are destroying this country!

—Cathy Bangerter, Bothell, WA

I am against all large mergers. But I am especially against mergers within the communications industry. It is anti-democratic to allow large companies to control the media, to control the rhetoric that everyone hears, watches and/or reads. This sounds like Trump is in a sense paying the company to stomp for him as well, with propaganda thrown into what is supposed to be news. Is there no end to his conflicts of interest? How many more are going along that path with him? And can we stop pretending that they should be leaders in any sense of the word?

—Bonnie Harzewski, Dixmont, ME

Diversity of views makes democracy healthy. Please don't set rules or allow behavior that limits viewpoints to particular or overly partisan perspectives.

—David W. McIVOR, SEATTLE, WA

They're already here in Portland. The wave is obvious.

—Marilyn Jackson, Portland, OR

The FCC must stop this right-wing takeover of broadcasting!!

—John Sauter, Reston, VA

what in the hell is wrong with you morons? Just how much dirty money will you guys receive for this act? You people at the FCC are a disgrace to the people of America.

—Bartley Deason, Darby, MT

We need a more diverse media landscape, not a more consolidated one. Indeed, democracy itself requires informed media consumers, and democracy itself is threatened by further consolidation. Please do not allow this harmful merger to happen.

—Steven M Peters, Quakertown, PA

Coe on. Do your job for the people of this great country, not for the Sinclairs.

—Marc Fleisher, Moscow, ID

No Pravda or Tass here!

—Beth A Pensiero, Hendersonville, NC

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances. Dear FCC, in case you don't recognize it, this is the 1st Amendment of our Constitution. It will be in grave jeopardy if this merger goes through. Please do not allow this to happen.

—Stefany McLain, Morriston, FL

Just say No!

—Dan Parillo, Clifton, NJ

Your actions are reprehensible. We need more diversity and competition in broadcasting. And we DO NOT need any more crap from the rabid right. You're re-writing the rules so you can push this through? You are a pack of crooks.

—Lyn Lowry, Longmont, CO

The nation doesn't need any more "hate" speech. Instead, it needs sanity--something unknown to the current occupant in the White House.

—Mary Sue Meads, Oakland, CA

We are not a dictatorship! Protect freedom of the press!

—Gene Planes, North Las Vegas, NV

We must insist on diversity and block this merger - this is about the survival of truth, a functional democracy, access to information and our freedom of ideas and speech. This is urgent.

—Cory Alperstein, Newton, MA

This is despicable!

—Brenda James, Vero Beach, FL

Mega mergers are not in the best interest of the American public.

—David Paul, Turlock, CA

Mr. Trump has polluted the public mind, attitudes, discourse and airwaves too much already! Please deny him any additional audience reach.

—Kathryn J. Riss, Piscataway, NJ

Enough Media consolidation. Vote down this merger.

—Eric V Tait Jr, New York, NY

Although, greed is a republican virtue, the particular merger is a dangerous step toward federally endorsed propaganda.

—Scott Evans, Vashon, WA

NO "TRUMP TV"!!!! As far as I'm concerned there is too much tRump on the airwaves and internet as it is. I turn him off whenever possible. I do not want to be forced to listen to the yammerings of this bigoted, corrupt, bloviating fraud of a so-called "president." Keep Sinclair's claws off of the Tribune news service! It is clearly in bed with tRump and the far-right bigots of our nation.

—Karen Davis, Gilbert, AZ

Stop this media monopoly and especially this purveyor of racist hate!

—Jonathan Karpf, San Jose, CA

would not watch for a minute all lies it is what these right wing group does best and they call themselves Christians while slapping the Lord in the face God mentions his hatred of lies 200 more times than a murder

—Betty Smisk, West St Paul, MN

Stop this merger/acquisition.

—Grover Gregory, Rockledge, FL

We have enough of this ass on Fox.

—Mike Richter, Greenwich, CT

Consolidation is a slippery slope. We need differing opinions expressed not propaganda.

—Thomas Sahl, Cleveland, OH

No one should have a monopoly on our airwaves. Please don't be a part of the dumbing down of America.

—Jerry Cissell, Littleton, CO

Do not condone chaos

—Neville Allum, Decatur, GA

Same thing the Nazis did ... as though (since the start of the 2000 election campaign) right out of the Nazi Handbook ... and working hand in glove with the zion-Nazis / jew-Nazis for FULL (albeit slightly fragmented) influence and control (if not total outright ownership YET) OF MAJOR MAINSTREAM MEDIA IN THE US. CONTROL OF INFORMATION (AND THE ABILITY TO SLANT IT, FABRICATE IT, AND IN GENERAL TELL LIES - EVEN BY OMISSION) IS EFFECTIVELY THE MOST POWERFUL (NON-EXPLOSIVE) WEAPON ON EARTH. ONLY FOOLS WHO ARE SELECTIVELY IGNORANT OF HISTORY WILL PAY NO HEED TO WHAT THE GOP-NAZIS AND israel / the zionist (Nazis) HAVE BEEN UP TO SINCE THE RUN-UP TO CAMPAIGN / ELECTION 2000.

Sinclair already wields too much power as it is, and local viewers frequently have no idea the content they are consuming has been mandated by Sinclair. No merger!
—Art Keller, Moreno Valley, CA

The truth is a public trust!
—David Southworth, Greensboro, NC

News must be fact-based, even opinions--or marked with a disclaimer when it gets to be like Sinclair.
—Mr. Miles Parker, Pawtucket, RI

Media ownership rules have been in place for decades for good reason--to ensure our democracy benefits from open and diverse points of view. The FCC greasing the skids of this merger brings us yet another step closer to the propaganda machines of Nazi Germany or the Soviet Union. We are heading down a very slippery slope!

—David Fiedler, Bensalem, PA

The entire idea of Sinclair is UN-AMERICAN. Free speech is fine, but this kind of propaganda should come with a disclaimer. If this goes through, it's guaranteed there'll be no disclaimer when locals are watching their local news. It's wrong if it was leftist, it's wrong if it's right-wing. It's wrong on every level. Not only that, but Teddy Roosevelt would be turning over in his grave. No one news/broadcast group/conglomerate or whatever-they-call-themselves should have that much power. It's fascist by definition and, again, *wrong*.

—Mark Shanahan, Dearborn Heights, MI

A monopoly on news coverage and commentary will damage our democracy, regardless of its perspective.

—James A. Young, Harrisburg, PA

What is this country tuning into??? Stop the madness!

—Michael Hedrick, Kaaawa, HI

pure insanity...stop this... NOW

—Patti, Elmer, NJ

Our American democracy is under direct attack by unscrupulous corporatist interests. The consolidation and corporatization of what's supposed to be OUR public airwaves and media, negatively impacts OUR ability to conduct the business of OUR democracy. We DEMAND that this dangerous trend be reversed in order to preserve our American democracy.

—Seabury Lyon, Bethel, ME

Stop the Ministry of Propaganda!

—Chris Saia, Brooklyn, NY

This is not the Soviet Union of America (yet) nor North Korean America (yet) but certain poor choices could create the same results - State Approved Broadcasting that silences any differing sources. It has happened nearly everywhere else, so the only reason it hasn't happened here - comes down to the guardians of America standing in the gap, refusing bribes, and doing the right thing. Please, Please, PLEASE - continue this heroic tradition.

—David Billingsley, Los Angeles, CA

Whatever happened to the promise of maintaining multiple owners in a capitalist economy in order to promote competition in the market and keep prices lower? Then there's the problem of the possibility of propaganda in our news instead of information. We need more owners and more viewpoints.

—Judith Abel, McLouth, KS

This is so back-door, underhanded and dirty. Do not allow this!

—Kyle Krause, Miami, FL

This is one of the important steps to establishing a dictatorship. Please PLEASE do not allow this to happen. Protect our American freedom.

—Nancy Brewster, Bellingham, WA

How about doing something useful like fine FOX NEWS every time it spreads lies and propaganda?

—Jeff Witt, Kansas City, MO

A free and diverse press is necessary to a democracy. That includes all media. This merger will threaten American democracy by creating a nationwide propaganda mega-machine. This merger must not be allowed to go through!

—Lynne Salomon Miceli, Norfolk, VA

I am disgusted by this action....we are becoming Russia and Nazi Germany at the same time!

—Marilyn Davis, Evanston, IL

Keep news neutral.

—Cynthia Davies, Babson Park, FL

Please uphold your duty to the people of the United States!

—Bill Knowlton, Little Silver, NJ

Local news coverage should be local, not dictated by a mega-media conglomerate with a political agenda.

—Ms. Nancy Haffner, Dobbs Ferry, NY

We don't need propaganda broadcast on our local stations. I read about how Sinclair already forces their message on stations they already own and how they gut the stations personal because Sinclair spins its own news. This is a very bad merge.

—Tina Miller, Aurora, CO

When will government entities take the side of ordinary citizens? Big biz owns you guys!

—John Vanellis, Trenton, NJ

Trump needs to stick to trying to be President and not create more media on which he can extol himself via reporters. This is not his job. Stand up to Trump p and say NO. He is bullying his way through this regime and it is unacceptable. What is next?Blown up photos of him in public spaces ( like dictators do)?

—Kate Kenner, Jamaica Plain, MA

Our news sources should be reporting unbiased news. Period!

—Sharon Ponce, Tempe, AZ

Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one. HL Mencken. Please do not allow this merger.

—Michael Sill, Seattle, WA

My local CBS station is now a Sinclair owned station. They have now blocked their letters@whp21news e-mail to all comments. This is a direct violation of the license that allows them to operate. They DONOT own the airwaves in our community. Their biased programing is a threat to our democracy.

—Michael Kirchner, Harrisburg, PA

Self-obsessed, narcissistic, lying, immature, sociopath with the attention span of a goldfish.

—Colin Deurance, Ceylon, MN

NO! NO! NO! Freedom of expression includes diversity in television!

—Francoise Frigola, Idyllwild, CA

Monopoly is not right for the 'airwaves'!

—Ted Wilcox, Rochester, NY

This merger is a threat to democracy. The FCC needs to manage the allotment of our airwaves to encourage diverse opinions, not reward the promulgation of propaganda.

—Cheryl Walsh, Iowa City, IA

I want choices, not a single perspective!

—Michael Ryan, Citrus Heights, CA

Ever-increasing monopolization of media ownership is damaging to a free and open exchange of information and American rights. This merger should be denied.

—John C. Wiesner, Castro Valley, CA

Where is the oversight over public airwaves?

—James Sander, Austin, TX

Decrepit use of spectrum.

—Carl C Warner, Indianapolis, IN

NO!!!! Sinclair doesn't believe in free speech as evidenced by its practices. Please stop this horrendous merger!!!

—Susan Vogel-Hudgins, Gambrills, MD

Truly repulsive!

—A Zide, Chicago, IL

You cannot condone this far-right wing monopoly. It is harmful to the American people, who think they are getting fair and balanced local news. It goes against our anti-trust laws.

—Kristina Cliff-Evans, Philadelphia, PA

Sinclair Broadcast Group should not be given the opportunity to control so many stations as to put a slant on the news.

—David Schneider, Tolland, CT

It was already too much the last time the FCC increased the legal limit!

—Derek Watkins, Arnold, MD

I want choices!

—Robert Newton, Presque Isle, MI

I care about the state of our country.

—Adriana Hall, Pacifica, CA

Trump is trying to reward Sinclair for giving him positive coverage during his campaign. That is CORRUPTION! Trump is using the FCC to pay back his cover up of lies! Don't let it happen.

—Mary Daniel, Troy, VA

Monopolies are BAD.

—Lynn AND FREE INTERNET! OPEN Mansfield, Monona, WI

Disgusting and anti-American!!!

—Sue Stark, Madison, WI

This must be stopped!!!!!! Or fascism becomes the new way of life in America.

—Leslie, Northborough, MA

Do NOT allow Sinclair to proceed with this plan. Bad news and is likely a major source of fake news -- not the mainstream. John Johnson

—John C Johnson, fort collins, CO

We need no more Right Wing media...we have Fox, the more you watch...the less you know.

—Warren Leming, Chicago, IL

Local news should be locally controlled, not a monopoly.

—Jennifer Williams Pavich, Austin, TX

Sinclair already has a monopoly. End their growth now. I've already quit tuning into their D.C. Channel 7.

—Regina Swygert-Smith, Stephens City, VA

Stop this monopoly!

—Steve Babb, speedway, IN

We don't need a State tv. We need a free press who aren't censored by a corporation. This is scary.

—Anne Pryor, Normal, IL

Stop the Sinclair merger.

—David H. Stetler, Kirkland, WA

No more monopolies particularly politically slanted ones. Control of the media is against democracy. Don't let this power grab happen.

—Sandra K. Neumann, Corte Madera, CA

To be inundated with lies and spin on our local news channels is a travesty and outrageous! If people wish to be battered with propaganda, they can watch FOX! We are not RUSSIA, Syria, or N. Korea! This is the United States of America where our news is centered on only the viewpoints of propaganda, whether that propaganda leans right or left! Block this merger! It is death to free speech, and a single company, Sinclair, should NOT be allowed to force politically slanted content down our throats!

—Cheri Gaspero, Beecher, IL

Stop racist Boris State TV! Honor the Constitution.

—Dr. Celeste Jamerson, Port Chester, NY

This merger should not be allowed due to the market-distorting size of the combined Tribune and Sinclair properties. And the consequences of that kind of consolidation are already clear, with Sinclair advancing a strong political position, requiring all its stations to air certain material, and shutting out dissenting voices. This is exactly what the FCC is here to prevent, and I trust you will take your responsibilities seriously.

Thank you.

—Alex Brown, East Montpelier, VT

Seriously, you are allowing a sick person to influence people.

—Susan Beers, Saint Paul, MN

We need a return to the days when to have a broadcast license, news was not to be slanted but only fact-based.

—Sarah Remme, Sparks, NV

Bring back the Fairness Doctrine for local TV markets. Slanted Sinclair is a propaganda outlet. Lost em.

—Forrest Gabitsch, San Antonio, TX

There are too many things wrong with this deal--wrong for consumers, wrong for journalism, wrong for the health of media in the United States. I strongly oppose it.

—Beth Goss, Herndon, VA

This is , one of the dangerous mergers , I've ever heard of —Curt Leiowitz, Munster, IN

Thank you on behalf of my family and friends in the US and all Americans.

—Patsy Price, ,

we the people own the airwaves we should be getting more things that serve the public good from companies for the LEASING of our airwaves. NOT LESS!!! We the People still Vote and we are watching Semper Fi

—Daniel Smith, Woodstock, NY

Current FCC rules work; they help prevent monopolization of the airwaves. Weakening these rules to enable this merger flies in the face of the spirit of the current rules.

—Timothy Kosem, Willoughby, OH

Trump is an embarrassment to all AMERICANS.

—Michele Kendzior, Brighton, MI

No monopolies, no propaganda masquerading as "news," and please restore diversity in the news marketplace.

—June E Esposito, Sparks, NV

What craqp

—Roger Lowry, ,

The rules to prevent this sort of thing were made for a good reason, and that is to protect the public from single-viewpoint propaganda. Please do not change the rules to permit this unwise merger.

—Thomas Esposito, Sparks, NV

Diversity in media is essential to democracy! Please do your part to promote it, not shrink it. Thank you.

—Cynthia J Kimball, Sparks, NV

No Sputnik News equivalent here in US

—Tom Secco, Medinah, IL

A free press isn't free when it's consolidated!

—Lynn Gedeon, Athens, OH

A viable democracy depends on its citizens having access to a wide variety of opinions. Our media should be further diversified, NOT consolidated!

—Laurie "Ryan" Norton, Durango, CO

Sooner or later, the public will change its mind about the short shortsightedness of the Ultra right agenda. Some of us already think what is being done is unamerican & worthy of penalties & perhaps even jail time. why not stop and consider what you are are trying to inflict on the American public. The merger is not in the best interests of the America i know and love.

—Barry Woolf, Fallston, MD

"We the people" deserve diversity in public broadcast.

—Henry Miller, Chappaqua, NY

FCC must stop the merger of Sinclair Broadcast and Tribune. This passes legal limits on media ownership. Thank you.

—James Flanagan, Bastrop, TX

We don't need to be hearing this stuff on our local news or anywhere else. Stop it from happening

—Betty A. Gosselin, Gorham, NH

STOP this despicable merger between Sinclair and Tribune!!!!!! This is absolutely NOT in the best interest of consumers and is FAR, FAR too much consolidation for ANY company, especially one that is so blatantly politically biased!!!!!! It's just simply wrong to allow this!!!! Ownership rules should be tightened, not relaxed!!!!!!

—Kim Young, Nashville, TN

We need to c him less- in fact not at all would be perfect. We do no need to listen to his lies and incoherent ramblings.it is a waste of our time and brain cells. KUSHner is not in a position to push trumps lies. He is not quite well in the head, himself.

—Beverly Brenowitz, Greensboro, NC

Please do not allow this merge. The propaganda and bias needs to stop. Please! things are getting so out of hand! Save our country - oppose this merge

—Tammy Wyatt, Ogden, UT

I spent 45 years in the local news industry, and I can tell you this is a very big deal for people who work in those stations. They cannot stand the affiliation, but they need to put food on the table. We simply cannot sit by while extremism rips the heart out of well-intention local news people and gives the airwaves over to a single monopoly with a political agenda. The press wasn't invented to be a political entity, but that doesn't stop the right wingers from accusing mainstream affiliates of partisanship in order to justify their own. We cannot allow this. Say NO to Trump TV!

—Terry Heaton, Madison, AL

The last thing we need is racist propaganda on our airwaves.It would be like having Hitler on the air and one of him was enough.

—Normand Bureau, Verdun,

Stop all mega mergers that create monopolies that do not provide choice.

—Lawrence M Berardi, Lancaster, PA

NO!!!!!!!!!!!!!! NO!!!!!!!!!!!!!! NO!!!!!!!!!!!!!! NO!!!!!!!!!!!!!! NO!!!!!!!!!!!!!! NO!!!!!!!!!!!!!! ABSOLUTELY NOT!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

—Lin Downing, Auburn, ME

((***EVIL MUST NOT TRUMP***))

—Mervin Paulson, NASHVILLE, TN

I am outraged at this abuse of power!!

—Judy Nancarrow, Fort Wayne, IN

Corruption

—Robert Jamieson, Edmonds, WA

I'm so sick of Trump and his Fox news mentality. We do NOT WANT THIS IN OUR CITY!!!! GO AWAY, TRUMP AND HIS CLONES.

—Kathleen McCarthy, Morro Bay, CA

This, like numerous other issues (climate change, food labeling, gun regulation, immigration reform, prison reform, education reform, short-term lending regulation, healthcare reform, banking regulation) remains a vexing problem primarily due to corporations' ability to curry favor with elected officials. The corrupting influence of money in our political system is undermining our democratic traditions and discouraging Americans from voting and/or running for office. This ominous development may well end our experiment in representative democracy unless we alter this decades-long trend. For the sake of the republic, we must amend the US Constitution to state that corporations are not people (and do not have constitutional rights) and money is not speech (and thus can be regulated by state and/or federal campaign finance laws). Short of accomplishing this, no other reform of significance will be achieved. The moneyed interests will turn any reform to their benefit, often at the expense of the nation as a whole.

—James Klein, Corpus Christi, TX

You don't care about the public trust you were sworn to protect. You are corporate shills. Damn you all!

—Dr. Barry L. Swedlow, Lynchburg, VA

REAL FACTUAL NEWS, NOT MORE RACIST SEXIST XENOPHOBIC PROPAGANDA! Keep local news local. Keep it free of the hate that has poisoned America! Bring back the FCC of the 70's!

—Maggie Maxwell, Chicago, IL

Another dumb idea.

—Robert Sholtez, Derby, NY

IMPEACH number one American terrorist trump!!!!!!

—Sharon Potusky, springfield, GA

This is a very dangerously bad idea.

—Brian Hudson, Vidalia, LA

This merger will be a broadcast nightmare! We already have racists, hate filled radio/TV and it has caused our country to become more hate filled and violent. We do not need anymore stations that simply broadcast lies, lies and more lies allowed on the air.

—Gloria McCluskey, Pembroke Pines, FL

No one owns the truth. We need to be able to work together, not played off against one another. We need many points of view, so we can actually be informed and must that information constructively. Protect independent news agencies, but hold them accountable. Let the people, informed, participate in democracy, so that we may all benefit.

—Sean Duffy, ,

Thank you for promoting competition among media sources. More information from more points of view is preferred.

—Nancy York, Fort Collins, CO

It may be time for us to drop cable all together is the sinclair fascist group and tribune merge,

—Mary MacVicar, columbus, OH

This is sounding more and more like Hitler.

—Kay Childs, Quaker City, OH

If a broadcast station has evaded FCC rules in the past for airing propaganda and for airing politically slanted content why are they being rewarded by granting them more power by allowing them to merge with Tribune. The American people deserve, want and demand a open system where many ideas are presented not just propaganda from one group. We don't need to Nazi Germany here.

—Anne Wolf, Santa Rosa, CA

NO!!!!!!ON TRUMP T.V !!!!!!!

—Margaret Houffelaar, Laguna Woods, CA

Say no to editorialized "news"!

—Donna K Webb, Norfolk, VA

free the press keep the press free

—Sheila O'Neill Massoni Ph.D., Hackensack, NJ

Freedom for all!

—T H. Fernandez, Burbank, CA

.

—Rick Hart, Austin, TX

Retain the FCC rules. This is America, not Russia.

—Patricia M. Williams, Lewes, DE

Monopolies should not exist in a free Democracy!

—D Burn, spring city, PA

Stop this Madness - Asshole Trump is Hilter ALL OVER AGAIN. We do not need his crap on the TV for our young people to listen too and be brainwashed. Asshole Trump is mentally ill, he needs to be in a padded cell but definitely NOT in his own TV programing and certainly NOT in the White House !!!!!

—Noreen Marshall, Orchard Park, NY

Mergers stifle the diversity of information sources necessary for democracy to function.

—K Hill, Malibu, CA

We need neutral news sources!

—Stuat Fishelman, Hanover, PA

Whatever happened to laws against monopolies? Sinclair already owns my local ABC affiliate; don't let it gobble up any more.

—Kate Connolly, Lynnwood, WA

You should be cleaning up the dark web instead of making it harder for small businesses and not-for-profits!

—Kristyn Reid, Choctaw, OK

There is more than enough consolidation in the US media. Please reject this merger.

—Mark Ahlstrom, Holden, MA

All of this media consolidation is a danger to our democracy.

—Lorraine Shirkus Moore, San Antonio, TX

please restore knowledge and education on the local airwaves

—e Johnson, San Anselmo, CA

Do not allow the Sinclair communications group to expand their station base. On the surface it appears there would be competitive use, however, in fact the opinions and perspectives would still come from a singular base. America is far too diversified for control of its news source to be restricted to a single slant.

—Duke Pavliger, Santa Rosa, CA

This must be stopped before it gets any farther. In awhile it will be impossible to reverse the trend, and the effect that Trump's racist policies are inflicting on the American people will be much more difficult to neutralize.

—Karil Daniels, San Francisco, CA

The GOP is a corrupt organization, they serve only their wealthy donors. Let's remove them from power.

—Jeffery Biss, Elgin, IL

To hell with giving the bastards monopoly power. Stand up for the ignored and betrayed people you campaigned for.

—Ron Carlson, Erie, PA

This is outrageous!

—Thomas Pauley, York, SC

This is HORRIBLE!!! Do your job or we won't have our Democracy any longer!!!

—Adelle Wiesinger, Garland, TX

we need our local stations!! Especially when we have bad weather and emergencies in the area.

—Terry Elliott, Wysox, PA

Enough. Already. Trump wants to increase the hate and make America hate once more.

—Deborah Jackson, Bronx, NY

Let the news be true; not political slant.

—Donna Hortsch, Lake Oswego, OR

Monopolies are not good for the health of America!

—Mary True, Pepeekeo, HI

Surprise us, FCC, and do what your mission requires: ensure diversity in the public's airwaves and VOTE AGAINST SINCLAIR and against another goddamned media merger.

—Michael D. Spence, Tukwila, WA

This is a near monopoly and should be stopped and their lies and propaganda should be stopped!

—Lise Brown, Portland, OR

Monopoly in the media undermines the free discourse essential to democracy. Mix monopoly with a disposition to promote racial and religious division and you get a toxic culture.

—Dr. Jan Edward Garrett, Bowling Green, KY

This fascism must not be allowed!

—Claire Ewart, Fort Wayne, IN

No propaganda machines, please!

—Donna Lee Martin, Grosse Pointe Park, MI

We do not need bigotry delivered to our living rooms.

—Pat Floersch, Overland Park, KS

Please NO!

—Jody Ochs, Bushnell, FL

I oppose this outrageous merger!

—Gregory Loomis, Seattle, WA

A few years ago my wife and I spent several months in Pensacola, FL. The local Sinclair outlet was so bad we could not stand to watch it.

—Edward Mc Eleney, Norris, TN

Real conservatives would never oppose the accumulation of power or influence in the hands of a single entity. Restricting information and pushing falsehoods like Sinclair does is an anti-democratic and dangerous.

—Jeremiah Parks, Seattle, WA

The corrupt Trump administration will do anything except tell the TRUTH. Bigger is not always better. We don't need another white bigoted channel.

—Mrs. Susan C. Acosta, Inglewood, CA

fascist TV coming to you!

—Elizabeth Barron, Loudonville, NY

Fascism at its' ugly best. Republicans will destroy America from within for their own greed and profit.

—June Picard, Bay City, MI

Please don't ruin WGN by allowing this merger.

—Beth Bannor, Oak Park, IL

We don't need another monopoly to screw us!

—Greg J. Cantwell, N. Las Vegas, NV

Truth is becoming an endangered species. We need facts to think on not lies and propoganda aimed at pointing to a predetermined end.

—Mr. R. Michael Ehr, Milwaukee, WI

Where is Teddy Roosiavelt when you really need him ...

—Garry Spencer, Tampa, FL

WTF are you thinking?? Speaking as a 100% Disabled Veteran; Allowing this kind of merger to take place undermines the very thing that I put my life on the line to protect. ...DO NOT ALLOW IT !!!

—Stephen Sleeper, Bonita Springs, FL

My God, will the madness never stop. Please oppose this merger. We do not need any more FAKE NEWS circulating.

—Lyn Buerger, Arlington, TX

We need to maintain LOCAL control of our media to insure diversity of views

—Susan Suskiewich, ,

This merger is just WRONG.

—William D Forbes, Saint Paul, MN

We need diversity not oligarchic monopoly spewing right wing lies and propoganda for their mass hypnosis campaign of demagoguery, deregulation, deflect, disrupt, degrade, destroy informed democracy so that plutocrats can be more rich and powerful fudual overlords. We want uncensored information, not Orwellian dominance of communication media that is what Sinclair Broadcast Group is. We want knowledge unfiltered, unbiased without vested interests suppressing and cherry picking and fabricating so called facts.

—John Dodge, Homer, AK

Propaganda is a Russian thing, wait Trump has sold us out to Russia.

—Bill Calloway, Cedar Rapids, IA

Too dangerous to allow. Block this merger.

—Susan Barth, FALLS CHURCH, VA

PUCK AJIT FAI! TUCK FRUMP!

—Thomas Knecht MD, PhD, Avila Beach, CA

No, NO, NO!!!

—Barbara Setzer, Woodinville, WA

This is disgusting. Propaganda like this is why Germany succeeded in murdering millions. This administration continues to fuel hatred and it can not be allowed to ovetake local media with its evil rhetoric.

—Chris Bodnar, Cincinnati, OH

Stop the propoganda machine!fake news is destroying this country

—Mr. marc degregorio, north haven, CT

please resist this propaganda takeover of local news stations and stand up for democracy and the freedom of the press.

—Jackie Nelson, Boulder, CO

We don't need any more propaganda and fear-mongering nonsense. We already have more than enough BS coming from the 'white' house.

—Marcel Liberge, MANCHESTER, NH

There are still some people who care about our children and suggestible citizens. Our country must not sink to the lowest level.

—Martha M Kennedy, Winston-Salem, NC

You work for us!

—Cindy Koch, Long Beach, CA

This is the surest way to undermine democracy--control the information that we citizens have access to. Stop this NOW!

—Kathleen P Hoffmann, Mebane, NC

Please stop this insanity, this evil monopoly of news which allows racism and new for the rich and greedy, the bias for Trump, a billionaire business man who is without empathy.

—Sandy Ongley, Tucson, AZ

Monopolies have proven to be damaging to the American public. Please don't allow this consolidation.

—Barbara G Coulson, Marshall, NC

We are living in Orwell's dystopian world of 1984.

—Lorene Bossong, Hicksville, NY

We need real news, not fake news as presented by conglomerates like Sinclair. Protect us and this nation by denying this merger.

—Bettie J. Reina, Milmay, NJ

Since Sinclair has take ownership of my local station the quality and fairness of the news broadcast has declined to propaganda. Do not allow this to spread and become wider spread. No broadcasting group should be allowed to control such a large segment of the nations' TV stations.

—Dave Clayman, Clifton Park, NY

Public air-ways.

—JamesEric Eric McGee, Buena Park, CA

Block this merger. Why are you even considering giving them propaganda rights?

—Judith Larson, Minneapolis, MN

We need independent news more than ever

—Kristina Creighton, Granville, VT

Please stop the corporatization of American companies!

—Dawn Rohner, Greenwood Lake, NY

ABSOLUTELY NOT!

—Carole Nelson, Indio, CA

Wrong!
—Taylor Donlan, Los Angeles, CA

Since DJ Trump came onto the political scene he has given tacit endorsement to all the efforts to reverse the progress made in civil rights.
—Audrey C Bailey, Chesapeake, VA

The proposed merger threatens free speech and our democracy. Block this merger!
—Beatrice Birch, Larchmont, NY

Stop any more conglomeration of media. It's bad for America and freedom.
—Benita J. Campbell, Burgettstown, PA

I'm looking for a media to tell the truth, not propaganda. Stop this nonsense.
—Carol Ring, Schererville, IN

Sinclair owns my local ABC station and I avoid its broadcast local and national news.
—Chris Powers, Portland, OR

As a retired media professional, I have long seen Sinclair endangering the notion of a responsible free press and as a detriment to the communities in which it operates.
—Michael Barr, Athens, OH

We need to break up mega-media corporations and restore diversity.
—Kathleen Maher, Ocean, NJ

Trump only exists on TV. He is not a real American.
—Elizabeth Schaeffer, Exeter, NH

FREE PRESS & REAL JOURNALISM; not partisan crap.
—Harold L Rosenbaum, Atlanta, GA

We don't need another Fox news.
—Dee Moore, Kansas City, MO

No TV for any elected official it is unconstitutional
—Ann C McGill, Brunswick, OH

Please pay attention to this issue - give us a break! We need SIGNIFICANT VARIETY in our news programs, not repetitive deliveries of one, strongly biased, viewpoint.
—Robert J. Moffat, los altos, CA

Communications companies should NOT be allowed to form mergers. It is important to have multiple perspectives on important issues in order to insure that everybody can see different perspectives about issues of importance and can make up their own minds on what they think is better or worse than before.

—John M Comella, Philadelphia, PA

Another step on the way to authoritarian rule

—Melvin D. Cheitlin, San Francisco, CA

These policies were put in place with good reason and should not be abandoned.

—Richard Guernsey, So Wellfleet, MA

Any student of history can tell you that when powerful people look to destroy individual freedom and take over a country, first they take control of the flow of news.

—Carol E. Johnson, Dakota, IL

we need diversity and fact based information instead of lies and denials!

—Marilyn Smith, Clarkston, WA media consolidation is bad for America. You should know that. DO NOT give Sinclair more power thanks

—William Glatfelter, Westborough, MA

Anti-trust is anti-trust. This does not look legal. If approved, it would look more like a RICO case of collusion on your part than an impartial approval.

—Eric West, Port Orange, FL

FCC gave airwaves to the nation's broadcast owners and advertisers, who reneged on their promise to make them accessible to local news and civic broadcasting. Now the same media conglomerates want to use the internet -- also built and owned by taxpayers -- as their cash register.

No!

Free market! Competition! That's what creates real news.

—Kathy A Fish, West Bend, WI

Please keep the airwaves free of bigotry and bias.

—Donna Monahan, Chester, VT

A free unbiased press (including TV) is the foundation of democracy. I stand against this merger and demand that the FCC uphold rules that create diversity in media. Our democracy is at stake. The FCC should protect our democracy from the likes of Trump TV!

—Anne Stein, des moines, IA

FCC: STOP DONALD TRUMP'S MONOPOLY ON "TRUMP TV"

—William G Gonzalez, Suffern, NY

70% control of local news is unacceptable, even when I agree with the proprietors in control. Do not allow this merger, please. A marketplace of ideas needs more than just Coke and Pepsi, or Apple and Samsung, it needs a real multiplicity of sources.

—Lewis Okun, Ann Arbor, MI

We need fairer coverage not less.

—Willis Sutliff, Rapid City, SD

This merger would be detrimental to democracy.

Putinesque? Sounds like it doesn't it. We grow ever closer to an authoritarian state.

—Robert Vargas, Bothell, WA

Free speech is being taken away bit by bit. All propaganda, all the time, coming. FCC protect us!

—Colleen Johnson, Seattle, WA

When I watch the local news, I do not want a rerun of cable news which leaves tends to leave the truth as a nonstarter. I do not watch cable news because it is so bad. I would quit watching local news if this happens.

—Shirley Powell, Johnson Creek, WI

Broadcast deregulation and ownership consolidation do not serve the best interests of the American public. Preserving the interest was the original mission of the FCC. I insist that you remember that mission and act upon it. Free and unfettered communications, not corporate profits, is most important to be preserved.

—Steve Miller, Zionsville, IN

Our country was founded on small companies for better competition so that one large company couldn't control content. If these 2 companies are allowed to merge, it would mean only 1 company controls all the content which would not be what our founding fathers wanted.

Truth before power

—Cate Renner, Dayton, OH

Many year ago, a local family owned both our local TV station and newspapers. They were forced to relinquish ownership of one or the other. Ma Bell was broken up in the 80s. So, why in 2017 are 6 corporations allowed to own 90% of America's media? Sinclair and Tribune should NOT be permitted to merge and control a larger portion of local media.

—Mickey L. Glick, Lancaster, PA

This merger threatens our democracy!

—Rosemary O Erb, Eugene, OR

We need more diversity of sources for news, not fewer. Do not approve this merger.

—Marybelle Suczek, Stamford, CT

This isn't Nazi Germany or Russia. Don't let Trump's people take over our local news.

—Ann Wendy Burnham, Tahoe City, CA

I have lived 80+ years and in that time I have seen the ugly effects of monopoly formation. This is particularly crucial in news media. We need a diversity of news sources.

—Patricia Montee, Charlotte, NC

Whatever happened to anti trust laws? Back in the day, this type of merger would have been considered a monopoly. Please, may we go back to the 'good old days' of competition among several small companies rather than mergers creating faux economic growth through the development of behemoth corporations?

—Jane Tufts, Chicago, IL

remember Peter Zenger. no free press, no liberty for all.

—Margaret Beels, new york, NY

A free market means avoiding monopolies. This is close to a monopoly.

—Carol S Wood, Roanoke, TX

Motion to deny the Sinclair Ministry of Propaganda extended reach to US citizens.

Save this country's dignity! Stop the Sinclair agenda.

—Michael Baltimore, Midland, GA

Stop Russian propaganda machine!!!

—Chip Croft, Los Angeles, CA

This cannot be allowed. The airwaves need to remain neutral. Sinclair is despicable

—Marjorie FritzBirch, Chicago, IL

This merger is unthinkable and dangerous to our fragile American Democracy. Please, for the sake of AMERICA, stop this merger. THANK YOU!

—Jamie jeffries, Santa Cruz, CA

"We the People" Deserve and Demand that the independent and free dissemination of news not be eroded any more than it has been. Disney as Clear Channel are but two that have multiple avenues on which they can get out their editorial message and call it news. We are moving closer control of the media which could allow those with the most money or power to control news and information. This has been going on or years and it needs to stop. Bob Rayburn U.S.Veteran 1963-1967

—Bob Rayburn U.S. Veteran 1963-1967, Chicago, IL

the merger would be a disaster for the truth.

—C Zawadzki, Schenectady, NY

We need freedom of speech! Not the dissolution of free speech.

—Andrea Fuhrman, Abilene, KS

Sinclair broadcasting has a history of broadcasting propaganda and this merger of Sinclair and the Tribune would be considered to be a monopoly. The FCC MUST NOT APPROVE this MERGER.

—T O, Millerton, NY

We need to break up communication oligopolies, not create even more concentration.

—Rosalind Bresnahan Ph.D., San Bernardino, CA

Break up Sinclair now

—Earl Morse, Waterford, ME

NO to the merger. We don't need more conservative propaganda spoon fed with the nightly news.

—MaryAnn Stewart, Hillsboro, OR

Our voices WILL NOT be stifled!

—Roseann, Columbus, OH

Do not allow Sinclaire/Tribune merger.

—Elizabeth Exter, Berkeley, CA

The FCC has a legal duty to protect the public and public airways from abuse by broadcasters and any broadcast practices that violate laws or regulations. For example, you must not allow monopolistic ownership of outlets or hate speech that promotes racial, religious, cultural, national origin, or ethnic discrimination, nor discrimination toward individuals with disabilities or other protected classes, which could engender perpetration of hate crimes. Beyond the legal requirements, there are the questions of ethics and potential for violations of fair political practices as well. Do not create opportunities that may tacitly invite the broadcast outlets in question to commit such acts. FCC must be stalwart in exercising its legal duty on behalf of the public. You must deny this merger.

—Susan Miller, Auburn, CA

no but hell no shut down sinclair

—Ed Hinojosa, Irving, TX

Please do NOT allow the take of over the Tribune by Sinclair broadcast group. No media should ever be in a positions to have monopoly over programing or any other types of media. This is no healthy for competition an it is not healthy for the country for one source pushing their ideas on the American people. NO Please Stop This!

—Linda Miller, Redding, CA

No laws should be passed restricting freedom of the press, and that's what this is. Mark my words, this president will not complete even his first term, and no one will want to be caught in the backwash when he sinks. Do your job and protect our freedoms.

—Susan Williams, Lakewood, CO

WHEN WILL THE MADNESS END

—Kenneth Grant, Depoe Bay, OR

This level of monopoly is UNACCEPTABLE!

—Elizabeth Billingham, Westn, MA

Please - just say no.

—Carol Reinhardt, Gastonia, NC

What ever happened to breaking up huge monopolies? don't let it start

—Blaine L Gott, West Valley City, UT

Do your job, remember you work for us and protect US communications and our democratic system.

—Reverend Sandra Mackie, Gettysburg, PA

Don't support fascism!

—Carol Anne Fusco, Berkeley, CA

Without diversity democracy will die. Sinclair has repeatedly fill the airways with fear mongering

—Sarah Shuherk, Columbus, OH

Asinine idea from major asshats!

—Rosemary Sneeringer, Boise, ID

No to rewards for bad behavior. No to monopolies. Sorry, Sinclair, get lost.

—Geoff Dutton, Belmont, MA

This will truly be "Fake News" if allowed.

—Charles McGivern, Pompano, FL

This is a takeover by the right-wing media. Stop it before it's too late!

—Katherine Boyd Nungesser, Brooklyn, NY

Let's not turn Democracy into an advertising war!

—Richard Chogyoji, Los Angeles, CA

please stand up for morality. resist the Fascist pull that is sucking all that is what has made America Great.

—Marc Sadoux, Marietta, GA

We need the local media free of consolidation. Reject the Sinclair-Tribune merger.

—AG Gilmore, Walnut, CA

We must have an informed public so that voters know what they are voting for and excessive consolidation of media outlets has already led to a lot of misinformation. Think about our country and the need to keep the society open to new ideas and to science. Do not allow Sinclair-Tribune merger.

—Betsy Malpass, Chapel Hill, NC

There are supposed to be laws that protect us from this kind of monopolistic propaganda. Do your jobs and reject this horror.

—Ken Jackson, Hillsboro, OR

As a former FCC Commissioner I'm disappointed this merger is even getting serious consideration. "The public interest"?! I don't see how this one can pass the laugh test.

—Nicholas Johnson, Iowa City, IA

It's hard enough NOW to find media one can trust to report truthfully all sides of the issues we must better understand. Don't make it even MORE difficult by allowing Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune to merge. It stuns me that you would actually rewrite FCC rules to make this possible.

—Mrs. 4843810180703808 McMillen, Portland, OR

Access to multiple, independant, sources for for our news is critical for any society intending to have an informed citizenship and a democratic government.

—Tom Stadelmann, Plymouth, MA

We want fair and true news stations not some spewing out Trump's trash. This merger should be stopped and fast. Yes, Trump's money and Sinclair's talks big but you somewhere must have some ethics and moral values to go by. Talk about a Monopoly on false info, this is it.

—Barbara J. Schrader, Galena, MO

We are losing our freedoms, one by one.

—Ms. Kelli Gilbert, Conifer, CO

I am against media consolidation. I am against the Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune merger.

—Samantha Garcia, San Francisco, CA

Are you crazy! The internet belongs to the people.....no fast lanes for the government allowed.

—Helen Babcock, Ventura, CA

Stop the fake news! This is un-American.

—Sarah Szwajkos, Rockland, ME

Please do all you can to prevent this merger and to preserve a wide range of divergent viewpoints in our media. Thank you.

—Dianne Daley, Long Beach, CA

Allow our journalists to do their jobs, which is reporting the news. They did not work as hard as they did to get where they are, just to be part of a propaganda machine.

—Glenna Johnson, Seattle, WA

This country has gone crazy. We need a thorough housecleaning. Drainung the swamp means getting rid of trump and his administration and federal appointees. So corrupt I can smell them, including the FCC, down here in Southern Maryland.

—Cheryl Morgan, La Plata, MD

I'm tired of these corporations shoving their message down my throat. The quality of television programming is narrow enough as it is. Stop doing everything these companies insist you do. This is against the everything this country used to stand for.

—Debra A Howson, Bradford, RI

Fascism is the problem, not the solution

—Rolf Radicke, Bristol, PA

One monster broadcast company is not "free press". This happens in authoritarian countries where the government controls the "news". It shouldn't happen in the U.S.

—Sandra Woodall, San Antonio, TX

When we, the people, lost the airwaves, we lost our country.

—Patricia Deller, Reno, NV

Pretend that you actually care about democracy in America. What happen to the old trope that capitalism encourages competition? The US news agency TASS eported today.....

—Tim Isom, San Francisco, CA

what the fuck! is our channel 4, 5 and 7 owned by Sinclair???

—Karen Hartman, Kirkland, WA

When I hear a supposed news caster ask another, "What do you think?" about a piece of news. I turn it off. NEWS, FOLKS, IS PLAIN AND SIMPLY "WHAT HAPPENED" If you DO NOT know what happened, do NOT report it.

—Irene Bolden, Austell, GA

Sinclair is the worst. They force their stations to broadcast their canned ultra conservative editorial tripe. And it doesn't stop there. They have Terrorist Update, and the same scripted stories distributed across their network. I guess Sinclair likes to pride itself as the counter to the so-called "liberal" media. More like their solution to indoctrinate the masses. We know how much the masses like to be indoctrinated. The problem is their too dumb to realize they've been had. Vote no to this merger!

—Jeff Mankie, Woodbridge, VA

No one company should have this level of media coverage.

—Richard Heckman, Huntsville, AL

You are killing free speech! You are a disgrace!

—Lisa Harrison, New York, NY

We need independent local news organizations. Stop this takeover.

—Ms. Patricia Cahill, Irvine, CA

Stop this right now!

—Janet Smoker, Corvallis, OR

So much for fair and balanced in News if Sinclair is allowed to buy The majority of local TV stations that will push pro Trump, Islam a phobic fear mongering as news. FCC, do your job under the first amendment and disavowal a media message controlled by special interests.

—Betty Martin, Houston, TX

Giving religious and politically far right scripts to local anchors that 'must' be read is the mark of people like - who - ? - pick your dictator.

—Michael Arentoft, Atlantic Highlands, NJ

Why hasn't this gangster creep been impeached yet?

—Dana Weatover, Somerville, MA

Please stop this before it gets started! We would just go to paper news if we were forced to watch this type of garbage.

—Judith Arnold, Shelbyville, KY

America is stupid enough no alt facts broadcasting

—James M Villalobos, Los Angeles, CA

We learned long ago that monopolies are bad for democracy and for our country. We need diversity of opinion not the same slanted view from everyone.

—Nancy Roessel, Fort White, FL

There is no democracy unless the people have full and free access to the information that informs our votes. Information monopolies are the enemy of a free state.

—Leila Zai, San Diego, CA

No-No-No...

—James Perkins, Los Angeles, CA

An absolute outrage. Stop this merger!!

—JoAnna Sonnier Manganiello, Noble, OK

What a mess pool everything has become in such a short time

—Gina Caracci, Cocoa, FL

Blocking this kind of action is the precise reason you exist.

—Dan Malooly, Morrison, IL

Please stop the hateful rhetoric - our country needs to come together not be torn apart.

—Charlotte Curry, Sedalia, MO

Stop this maniac!

—Edythe Shaw, Laguna Woods, CA

dump trump in a sump pump

—Doug Cunningham, Barrie,

We the people, do not need a huge media-giant with a bad reputation! Trash this idea for the betterment of our nation!

—Marilyn Stinson, Longmont, CO

Monopoly ownership of media outlets leads to corporate agendas being pushed under the guise of news and the stifling of free speech. The FCC exists to prevent such actions as the Sinclair-Tribune merger. Please do your job and block this merger.

—Leverett Woodruff, Sandy, UT

ABSOLUTELY NO!!!

—Rita Heinz, Ashland, OR

We are watching YOU, not the idiot box known as a television -- do the right thing.

—Jay Wolfe, Pepperell, MA

I will refuse to watch my local Sinclair hate TV, NBC KECI. This is criminal,

—David SEELEY, Florence, MT

We demand an independent media!

—Andrea Browne, Staten Island, NY

We don't need another Fox New Network!

—Doug Fairbanks, Indianapolis, IN

We need an unfettered internet - no second class internet for main street.

—Jacki Fox Ruby, Grants Pass, OR

No merger for Sinclair Group./

—Liz H, Phx, AZ

This merger is outside of usual business practices and motivated to further a one sided political agenda. Our laws are not sacrosanct but shouldn't be changed to accomodate unfair political propaganda. We need more than ever a fair and unbiased media

—Duncan MacKinnon, Reno, NV

Stop their take over now!!!

—Clarice Rankins, Nashville, TN

The time is NOW to support policies that serve the American people, not mega corporate merger interests.

—Charles Lynd, Delaware, OH

The worst example of a toxic monopoly ever!

—Martha Devernoe, Bradenton, FL

NO NO NO NO NO to Sinclair-Tribune Merger!

—Marcia Curry, Leander, TX

Good grief! An even MORE virulent form of the extremely hate-filled, bogus spew of Fox news? God help us.

—Patty Ridenour, Dayton, OH

The pathway to hell is being paved by Sinclair!

—Richard Kelly, Plymouth, MA

Indeed this would be far too much power in the hands of one company!

—Patricia Rovik, ,

Sinclair has ruined a local TV station news division with their version of the news. The thought of them broadcasting to 70% of the market, or any other single company, is just unacceptable.

—Debra Collins, Holts Summit, MO

Stop Sinclair Broadcasting Group.

—Kathleen L Findlay, Lebanon, OR

We need independence in the news media, not monopoly. Please prevent this merger which opposed to American ideas of fair play.

—Ms. Christina Albers, New Orleans, LA

We do not wish monopoly media.

—Edward P Craig, Eugene, OR

I am very concerned about this monopoly impeding our free press. That is much too much power, and this will affect every american consumer. Sinclair has already proven that it is airing politically slanted coverage. Do not allow this merger to go forward.

—Lisa Trent, Vista, CA

Monopolies are bad business, especially for America. Please do not allow this merger.

—Mary Schwartz, Brewster, NY

LEAVE THE INTERNET ALONE!

—Nancy Strickland, Edwardsville, IL

I'll cut off my cable & watch all of my shows & movies online if you keep pushing this Nazi inspired propaganda machine down my throat.

—Ronnie Mc Millian, Hawthorne, NJ

Block this illegal, authoritarian-promoting merger.

—Lin Luker, Prescott, AZ

Our democracy is at stake. Please block this proposed merger.

—Dr. Steve Lewis, Chico, CA

The media needs more competition and variety of voices, more mergers will make the news worse.

—Rob wells, Lake Oswego, OR

A free press means freedom from propaganda being forced down our throats st an extremist company buys every station it can get its hands on. American democracy is dying.

—Sharlene Beck, Salt Lake City, UT

How low can you go? Just because you can doesn't mean you should!

—Leslie T Bush, Cherryfield, ME

There are enough lies coming out if Fox. We don't need more.

—Janalyn Lynne, Prescott, AZ

There has been far too much merging for a long time; it needs to stop.

—Sandi Joiner, Cave City, KY

Please, PLEASE, just say no! And athen restore policies that encourage a diversity of a wide range of viewpoints, PLEASE!

—Marjorie Erway, Kailua Kona, HI

Please see that this is the same as state TV. No matter the party you have to know the dangerous territory they are entering. Be a patriot for our country. These are our airwaves being used. Stop this now.

—Dawn Black, Blue Springs, MO

We need more voices not just 1 big corporate one.

—Greg Koshak, Larsen, WI

This merger is too one sided and is wrong!

—Mandi Woronowicz, Brookfield, IL

Stop the Sinclair merger and unplug Trump TV.

—Arthur Delgadillo, Lakewood, CA

This is absurd. These rules exist for a reason Chairman Pai. Please stop undoing everything!

—Kristen Perry, Lafayette, CO

Halt the monopolies in communications; TV, radio, newspapers, phone, cable and magazines. If this is capitalism you ought to look it up in the dictionary. You got it all wrong.

—Cathie Donahue, San Jose, CA say NO to trump TV . We don't need such a big company . They only want to get money any way they can

—Julianna Benefield, CARY, NC

Just thinking about doing this exposes your fear of the truth. Fraidy cats, eh?

—Ruth Hosek, chicago, IL

I am a veteran of the USNavy. I served 4+ years. I and millions of other veterans have heard the claims of the false claims of the plutocrat who has proven himself to be one of the biggest liars, if not the biggest liar in the history of the world. By the millions we took a sacred oath to protect and defend the constitution of this country against all enemies foreign and domestic. The plutocrats dismiss the oaths of millions of service men at their peril in thinking that we are nothing more than Pavlovian cretins. We are very close to stepping forward to take up weapon of civilized men, the vote and we will clean the stables of the ruffraff who think they are somehow entitled to own and control it all. That the plutocrat in chief may have packed the various agencies of the executive branch with his puppets and straw men determined to dance only to his tune is perhaps the greatest testimony to his abysmal ignorance of our constitution and works. Every day we are watching and waiting as agency after agency barter away the assets of our nation to the highest bidders, be clear that you tread on the common citizens of this nation at great risk. We will not sit idel and watch unconstitutional choices continue to be made with out recourse. We are watching. We are waiting to see if duty to country is supreme or if is sold out by traitors to liberty.

—Mr. Richard D Foley, Tucson, AZ

This is too much power for a single company. Sinclair has already affected local news coverage in my area. Keep news local!

—Nina West, Seattle, WA

Stop the propagation of Right Wing propaganda and the Sinclair monopoly takeover of our local news

—Donna Newman, Raleigh, NC

this is fascist

—Judith A Conoyer Ph.D., University City, MO

No to Sinclair!

—Anke Pearson, Grand Rapids, MI

NO NO NO Enough

—Walter R Disney, Falmouth, MI

Diversity of opinion is what makes this country great, not a minority voice dominating the media. There was a reason why the original rules prevented such dominance.

—Dee Halzack, Lowell, MA

Block this merger and keep Sinclair out of our homes.

—Elizabeth H Brigden, Alexandria, VA

Hell NO

—Cynthia Caceres Curtis, Garland, TX

Your responsibility is to protect citizen access to information, especially news. You know that huge conglomerates hold the same dangers as monopolies. Do NOT allow the merger of Sinclair Broadcast Group with Tribune.

—Mary Wollitz-Dooley, Plainfield, IN

We don't need a monopoly here in the U.S.!

—Sharon J Smith, Evansville, IN Resist hate.

—Jeff Thiemann, Florence, KY

ANTITRUST LAWS. WE HAVE THEM ON THE BOOKS FOR A REASON.THEY APPLY IN THIS CASE. DO NOT LET THIS MERGER GO THROUGH!!!

—Lisa Ramaci, New York, NY

Need independent media, not conglomerates spewing propaganda.

—Gordon Lange, Kihei, HI

This is getting to close to having one news source, which would be an environment ripe for corruption and propaganda on the scale of all dictatorships. Stop the Sinclair-Tribune Merger!

—Esther B Johnson, Clewiston, FL

We need truth not more bs conservative lies!

—Aleta Streett-Leavy, Butler, PA

Dictators always want to control the media.

—James Bradford, Ft. Washington, MD

Instead of trying to restrict the internet, why not try and fix it? My access is constantly being interrupted by Comcast.

—Richard F. McGrain Jr., Charlottesville, VA

If this deal goes ahead America will become a larger North Korea - Looks Like George Orwell was right on the money.

—John Sadler, Roberts Creek,

Expand? Maybe consider relieving the Sinclair Broadcast Group of their broadcasting license.

—Henry Berkowitz, Sabinsville, PA

Does Sinclair have the proper Propoganda

—Marilyn Goldstein, New York, NY

Have you No Shame! You bow to money & leave diversity to die

—Mary Bell, Amarillo, TX

I thought Republicans favored capitalism which means competition, not monopolies. Allowing Sinclair propoganda to usurp shows such as Face the Nation, Meet the Press, etc. is an indication that Republicans fear knowledgeable voters.

—Patricia Max, Camp Verde, AZ

Stop Sinclair from swallowing up my local news!

—April Wayland, Manhattan Beach, CA

Monopolies are SUPPOSED to be ILLEGAL.

—C K, Lake Geneva, WI

The more consolidation, the less choice, and I, a "boomer" will follow the "millenials" and turn the sucker off.

Stop the push to enable authoritarian dictatorship in the U.S. Stop the fomenting of hatred and divisiveness.

—Karen Alexander-Brown, Portland, OR

Stop the corruption

—Mary L Harris, Washington, DC

This proposed monopoly is against the public interest! It must not take place.

—Patricia Frederick, Ashburnham, MA

Why do regulators almost always choose corporate monopolies over citizens best interest? so sad that MONEY can but off regulators.

—Larry Lewis, Winter Garden, FL

Trump is definitely a extremely poor example for our young people to see.

—Steve Oakland, Ames, IA

Information is such an important aspect of a democratic society that having such a large portion of the media under one business entity must be prohibited.

—P A Savagian, Lone Tree, CO

What ever happened to the laws against monopolies?

—Mr. Joseph Holdner, Olivebridge, NY

No way! Fox news is enough.

—William Sacks, Tucson, AZ

James K Hadcroft here. We remember Merrick Garland. Stand together. Stand strong. Tell the Truth. Fascism is Fascism. Fascists are Fascists. The current administration is fascists in action. America is a Democracy. Fascism is a betrayal of Democracy. Time to remove the Traitors. Go to the beginning of this paragraph and repeat until it becomes clear. No appointments or executive orders until Tax Returns and Independent investigation into Russian ties!!! Hate is unRepublican Hate is unDemocratic Hate is unAmerican There is no place for hate in Massachusetts. There is no place for hate in America. This is 2000's America not 1930's Germany. America needs a new election. I am a Veteran, Active Voter and TaxPayer. As a Veteran I put my life on the line for Democracy. This missive is Democracy in action. Please help stop the plutocratic take over and save American Democracy and the middle class. It is my sad observation that national socialist philosophy now informs and drives the republican party.

—James K Hadcroft, Falmouth, MA

What cowardlessness.

—David Christman, Oxford, OH

The public airwaves are an important national resource and Sinclair has demonstrated no respect for the FCC or the commons it regulates. Do not approve this merger. Sinclair Broadcasting should have no greater share of our common airwaves!

—Ms. Erin Gonzales, Madison, WI

Monopolies were outlawed years ago, as we studied in American history classes. This merger amounts to a monopoly of local broadcasting. Read your history. I expect you to stop this merger.

—Elizabeth WardDonahue, Midland, MI

The general public needs to continue to have as many news channel options as possible - somewhere there has to be a way to hear the truth!

Block Sinclair/ Tribune merger! Too big, too bigoted, too many lies and broken rules!!!

—Diana Curington, Portsmouth, NH

He's not an elected Oligarch, he is an almost elected self-appointed ... I'm just not sure.

—Kirk Taylor, Yelm, WA

Block the merger.

—John D Smith, New York, NY

Trump is dragging us into a swamp. This is not my America.

—Cheryl G. Pelavin, ,

State run TV is what Russia has!

—Steven Hibshman, Foster City, CA

Please block this merger. Our democracy is at stake. Do you even care?

—Hugh McFadden, Bozeman, MT

We need a multitude of voices--Sinclair's size is drowning out true discourse at the local level.

—Elinor M. Walker, Rockville, MD

This country is starting to look like Berlusconi's Italy. Media monopolizing trend is not a good sign. Please work for the diversity of opinions on media.

—Mr. Alfred Christiansen, Madison, WI

I no longer watch my local FOX news station because I can't stomach the "Trump Propaganda Segment" that appeared just after the election. It does not belong in the news - it is an editorial, and should be listed as such. One man's opinion. Not the local news.

—Virginia Hildebrand, Mountain Top, PA

Local TV needs to be local—especially when the alternative is spewing racist propaganda.

—Henry Millstein, San Jose, CA

I AM ADAMANTLY OPPOSED TO MEDIA MONOPOLIES THAT STIFLE A DIVERSITY OF VOICES. THIS IS SUCH A MERGER.

—Harry Lewis Michaels Jr., Fort Collins, CO

Racism is strong enough in this country. Don't let it get stronger.

—Bruce Carroll, Ames, IA

What are you thinking!! This is NOT the FCC our nation needs nor wants.

—Yvette M Schultenover, Grand Rapids, MN

the donald Sucks Shit.

—Mr. MCPaullin Paullin, Denver, CO

Let's return to the Fairness Doctrine, not allow a politically biased company control such a huge market share.

—Catherine Page, Eugene, OR

Do your job.

—Elise MacDonald, Nashua, NH

It is no surprise that a would-be autocrat like Trump wants to do favors for his friendly media companies. That is exactly the kind of close relationship between media and government that autocracies depend upon.

—Joshua R Hebert, Austin, TX

This would be a huge step toward a totalitarian government with a propaganda arm. It would further corrode and undermine our society and democracy.

—Nita Sembrowich, Cambridge, MA

No way should we give up our democracy!!!!

—Margarette Adam, Miami, FL

Don't allow the air waves to be the manipulators that bring down America. Stop this nonsensical merger.

—Sheryl Schmatjen, Brush, CO

There is nothing quite as useless to a Democracy than a sycophant fourth estate... Do this move, and you can take your pile of gold and shove it up your ass... Good luck... And goodbye...

—Martin Nyberg, Gig Harbor, WA

Hitler was successful because he grabbed control of the media with Goebels, his Minister of Propaganda. Never will we allow that to happen in the USA.

—Tom Marlin, Arlington, TX

This is evil and must be stopped.

—Lynna Dhanani, New Haven, CT

DO YOUR JOB!

—Mr. David M. Boehm, New York, NY

Leave our local news alone!

—Ms. Laura Goldberg, Arlington, WA

Allowing this merger would be the exact opposite of "draining the swamp."

—Carrie Santulli Schudda, Oregon, WI

Please stop dividing our country! It already is great and does not need to have an Orange Liar at the helm!

—Aly Havrilla, Wallingford, CT

This move is monopolistic in nature even if some competition remains and that is anti competition. competition is the bedrock of proper capitalism. competition must be maintained and monopolistic moves countered and prevented.

—Robn Diekow, Sequim, WA

It is an overreach to have president invade citizens privacy.

—Beth Montano, Berkeley, CA

Do what's right, not what's right-wing.

—Barbara Winn, New York, NY

This merger defies first Amendment rights and constitutes the actions of a plutocracy not democracy.

—Paula Zimmerman, New York, NY

I didn't think this administration was into picking winners.

—Gary Thomsen, Newport Beach, CA

Guess I'll have to quit watching the local news if this disastrous deal goes through. This is Trump taking over the airwaves, just like a dictator. Stop bending the rules and stop this merger. We need a diversity of local media owners so we can get the facts and make up our own minds, instead of being spoon fed right wing propaganda by Sinclair.

—Gayle Janzen, Seattle, WA

This deal is a non-starter if the U.S. wants to be a functioning democracy.

—Lya D Guerra, Austin, TX

Reinstating the obsolete UHF discount is codifying a license to cheat. Democracy is not well-served with monopolistic control of news.

—Jan Mills, Manhattan Beach, CA

Diversity, and the differences in view point and coverage insures good journalism. Single (biased) sources are dangerous to our democracy!

—Richard England, Beaverton, OR

Wake up FCC Commissioners and Chairman Pai - we're on to you and on to Trump too. Wake up before it's too late. The word is out on him. The Republicans are jumping ship right and left. Why should you look like such a traitor jackass in the eyes of history. Trump is deadly for Democracy - who are you? And what did you do when the single greatest threat to this country started rocking our Ship of State in 2017? The world's watching, Wynne Alexander

—Wynne Alexander, Merion, PA

PUSHING HATE SHOULD NEVER HAPPEN IN THE MEDIA.

—Patricia Guthrie, Chalfont, PA

Local news should be SOLELY about local matters. I need to know what the weather is going to be like IN MY NEIGHBORHOOD. I need to know about accidents, transit, etc. Except for election results, I don't want ANY political coverage. This sort of thing is available elsewhere. Local news is NOT.

—Valerie Shubert, Seattle, WA

Quit damaging the people. Your job is to protect the people. The internet belongs to all of us. Our taxes help build it. You deserve little, the people deserve all.

—Lorna Paisley, Van Nuys, CA

This merger is DANGEROUS!! THERE IS NO PLACE IN AMERICA FOR PROPAGANDA! We already have Faux news! They are bad enough!! Spreading lies, fear, racism, xenophobia and bigotry is UNACCEPTABLE in this day and age!

—Robert Pound, Concord, CA

Impeach DonOLD CUNT already!

—A W, seattle, WA

I thought our country prided itself on its freedoms and its diversity of opinions. By backing mergers such as this, the FCC is opening our society up to inappropriate propaganda and dictatorial rule.

—Mr. Frank D. Tigue Esq., Connersville, IN

No

—Brian de Castro, South Orange, NJ

Don't need far right "facts" polluting the airwaves!

—jeffrey daley, hampton, VA

No is the only recourse in this situation... stop the GREED;

—Nancy Crimmins, Vancouver, WA

Please stop this from going through and stop the takeover. We need diversity, not dictatorship

—Julio Rodriguez, Miami, FL

Propaganda machine from Russia

—D Bakas, Danville, VA

This is designed to politically influence this nation, to monopolize thought and speech. It must be stopped.

—Lisa Bonanno, Pitman, NJ

This is outrageous. The current state of partisanship that exists in the country needs not to be amplified with my vitriol. Stop this merger!

—Roberto Gonzalez, Tampa, FL

These "must-run" segments that Sinclair compels their local affiliates to include on local newscasts are offensive to MANY people. This would have never been allowed when the Fairness Doctrine was in effect. I ask that you take action to take these ultra-biased propaganda pieces off-the-air. Thank you.

—Robert Gaynor, Clear Lake, IA

Give truth and diversity a chance.

—Robert Barlow, Wassaic, NY

FCC,STOP THIS MERGER OF THE SINCLAIR BROADCAST GROUP!!!

—Mr. Jeri Ledenbach, Hawthorne, CA

Saying NO to hate TV

—Virginia Conlon, Rutherford, NJ

So, monopolies and lack of competition OK now?

—Thomas N. Morrison, Buxton, ME

Democracy cannot withstand large corporations controlling what information the public receives. It requires an informed public, not one bred on corporate propaganda.

—James Melloh, S Portland, ME

The Constitution requires a free press.

—Trisha Ristagno, Emeryville, CA

This has already happened in Syracuse, New York and people are angry and disgusted to hear propaganda on their station. This is unconscionable.

—Lyn Gerry, Watkins Glen, NY

WTF!

—Skip Vena, Woodland Park, CO

They really are fomenting fear and hate on a daily basis.

—Tim Kilbride, Louisville, CO

This seems like a violation of anti-trust laws.

—Joyce Baskind, Cleveland, OH

Thank you for protecting democracy through your work to keep the airways open to everyone.

—Barry Gabay, Richmond, VA

Monopolies are supposed to be illegal in The U.S.A. and this combination of Sinclair and Tribune would be a monopoly and stifel competition. This is a no brainer for the FCC. stop this merger.

—David Fulwiler, Milwaukee, WI

Anti-Trust violations on top of Hateful Propaganda

—John David Oakes, SCOTT TOWNSHIP, PA

Media consolidation is a real threat to a free and informed citizenry, and thus to democracy. Sinclair is positioned to function as an American Pravda. Don't let them do it.

—Susan Goodman, Matawan, NJ

This isn't free press. This is controlled press

—susan Gair, new york, NY

Trump TV is nothing more than an unstable, propagandistic "news source."

—David Starr, Westbrook, CT

Please don't let this merger go through. Thank you. Shirley McGreal

—Shirley McGreal, Summerville, SC

I am deeply concerned that the public airwaves are now only available to one political perspective.

—Susan Grossman, Los Angeles, CA

You must realize that this is part of a bigger plan by the Trump administration to CHANGE OUR DEMOCRACY! You can't let this happen. It must be stopped and stopped on all fronts.

—James Stewart, National Park, NJ

Keep Sinclair's and all canned editorials off the airwaves. We can think for ourselves if we have the facts.

—Christine Nafziger, Sacramento, CA

This is how so many left behind are hoodwinked into voting against their own interests. Having this horse shit tripe blaring on their TV's all day long is modern day Nazism Propaganda filled with hate, police with shaved heads and arms covered in tattoos looking like pissed off skinhead gargoyles with badges, politicians blaming minority's and poor people for the nations problems etc. and etc. is Nazi Germany in the 21st century.

—Kevin J. Gosztonyi, Bethlehem, PA

Media consolidation is bad for democracy.

—Jerry Swope, Winooski, VT

Stop the actual fake news being perpetrated by the Trumps and Sinclair Broadcasting

—Elisa Messore, Bronx, NY

Sinclair, you are despicable, and deserve to fall prey to disaster. Shame on you.

—Patricia Pearson, Boulder, CO

Come on people, pull your head out....!!!!

—Mr. Wayne Flick, Grand Junction, CO

Stop the Sinclair-Tribune Merger

—Don CU Bernstein, Valley Village, CA

Stop the Sinclair-Tribune Merger

—Jim Thomas, Chapel Hill, NC

Stop the Sinclair-Tribune Merger

—AJ CA Jones, Studio City, CA

this is more important than most people think.

—Joan Languet, New York, NY

NO!!!! Do not let this go thru!

—Lisa H, Colorado Springs, CO

This is unAmerican and treasonous and against the best interests of the American people!

—Lillian Feierabend, Cottonwood, CA

NO!

—Dixie Gilreath, Chattanooga, TN

Boris Epystein is a Russian spy just like Trump and all of his criminal administration.

—Douglas DUBLER, New York, NY

In a democracy this should never happen. Preserve American freedom!

—Lauren Davis, Northfield, MN

Whatever the political ideology of the owner, no merger of this magnitude can be sanctioned in a democracy.

—Elizabeth Roper, Somerville, MA

Nonetheless, the USPS officials repudiate property Owner Timberlake's rights and privileges to receive their mail delivery services; without due process of law, the USPS officials deny Timberlake's rights and privileges, without granting Timberlake, his requested hearings.

Unabashed, the USPS officials illicitly proscribe their mail delivery services to Timberlake's property; thus, Property Owner Timberlake requests a criminal and a civil investigating of the banning of USPS' property First-Class-Mail delivery service.

—Ralph Timberlake, Huntsville, AL

I detest propaganda, and I don't want my newspaper taken over by a propaganda machine like Sinclair! If it goes through, I will be forced to drop my paper.

—Winfield M Carson, Poway, CA

In fact, Sinclair Broadcasting should be broken up.

—Cynthia Hughes, Silver Springs, NY

DO NOT LET THEM MERGE!

—Leanna Loomer, Newington, CT

Drop this plan or expect the majority of Americans to drop tv.

—Ms. Allison Black, Levelland, TX

Please stand up for the principles this country was founded upon.

—Nancy R. Neilsen, Louisville, TN

Just say no.

—Carl Weiler, Ferndale, MI

the nation does not need more hate media

—Barbara Sowder, Rockville, MD

No more Sinclair propaganda !

—Stephen Miller, Philadelphia, PA

Please don't. No more mergers. We need multiple viewpoints.

—Thomas A Foreman, Monterey Park, CA

(OUTRAGES)

—Beverly Murphy, Bronx, NY

Stop ruling in favor of corporate interests and work on behalf of the American public, you know those that you're charged to represent and protect.

—Craig Bann, mt juliet, TN

Do the right thing for the American people before this really gets out of hand.

—Kenneth Winston, Sonoma, CA

Do your job, FCC! Break up these media monopolies now. You work for the United States citizen--not these media oligarchs. The Robber Barons in the 1880's and the 1920's almost destroyed the US economy. Now they're doing it again. Quit being a tool for the wealth.

—Eleanor (Lea) Sinclair, Carrollton, TX

You don't seem to have a feel for communications. The message sent by this decision, should you decide to allow it, will eventually come back to haunt all of us. The takeover of the public airwaves by private interests has many parallels around the world. None of those have ever been for the good.

—Norm Cimon, LaGrande, OR

The media is suppose to be the voice for the people. They have lost that voice and this merger would make it worse not better. There is no need for these two media behemoths to merger. For what? So that one company can dominate the air time. I think we need more competition and more media companies to compete. This merger is a bad idea!

—Jennifer McClinton, Linden, NJ

Some monopolies are more equal than others in the FCC .

—Osborne Lamoree, Fort Lauderdale, FL

See above. Although, I wouldn't've put it so "nicely". hbr

—Heather Ring, Haymarket, VA

Your self-righteous hatred will NOT win.

—John Kephart, CATHEDRAL CITY, CA

Regardless of political slant, this is too much concentration of media power. Please prohibit this deal. Thank you.

—Mr. John Furber, Gainesville, FL

American business has competition as its driving value. Allowing Sinclair to engulf Tribune destroys competition, and should not be tolerated.

—Sherron Collins, Spring Lake, MI

The freedom of our local networks to air what they choose is one of the primary differences between a democracy and a dictatorship or an oligarchy. The people of this country, whatever their political leanings, all want democracy. Please don't allow our democracy to be eroded.

—Margo Ball, Norfolk, MA

Absolute Power corrupts absolutely, and this is you standing by and giving the Sinclair Group the keys to the kingdom to spout their propaganda and lies as a reward for supporting Trump and giving his people jobs. The FCC should be more than the President that put his lackey into the chairman position, and authorizing this monopoly on hate is the exact opposite of that. This deal is an abomination!

—John R Miller, Plattsburgh, NY

Remember, the Rapeuglicans will not be in charge when the collusion is discovered.

—Lawrence Jimenez, Los Angeles, CA

The entire purpose of the FCC is to preserve democracy by protecting media access and preventing monopolization of the PUBLIC AIRWAYS. Sinclair has shown it cannot be trusted to preserve freedom of speech and provide access to opposing views. It is worse than a monopoly, it is a propaganda conglomerate. The FCC is obligated to protect the people, not favor one point of view.
—Abra Bigham, New York, NY

Slander and fraud are not free speech
—Allen Wheeland, Portland, OR

Please don't be the same kind of bully that Trump is!
—Jean A Carlson, Minneapolis, MN

Sinclair is already giving political commentary on our local news station and I don't like it. It is propaganda.
—Linda Cameron, Richland, WA

We already don't have enough choice in the media in the United States.
—Ronald Wharton, Columbus, OH

We cannot allow politically biased and discriminatory media to be broadcasted without any checks or balances. The public will suffer as a result. The world is challenging enough to navigate already. Please help stop this from happening.
—Aaron Tillman, West Roxbury, MA

ABSOLUTELY DO NOT ALLOW THIS MERGER IF YOU WANT TO LIVE UNDER A DICTATOR
—Robert Darrow, Mukilteo, WA

Media consolidation creates monopolies. This merger is WRONG!
—Sara R Curran, Seattle, WA

Stop Sinclair Goebbels Trump Media.
—Fred Bichl, Yakima, WA

The new chairman is a lackey and a stooge for the telecom industry. He will work in their interests, not the interests of the average American!
—Richard Marcle, Albany, NY

Americans know Sinclair and our government is a fraud and betrayal a way of life.
—Robert Hyer II, Lillian, AL

To approve this would be a violation of the public trust
—Robert Horick, Georgetown, TX

Our fragile democracy depends on truly balanced free press and media. Profits and greed should not be driving your decisions.
—Diana Martinez, Santa Paula, CA

This is a disgrace and nightmare. How do we get this fake president out of office?
—Mr. James Yourkovich, Mukwonago, WI

What else needs to be said?
—Jeffrey Holzer, Randallstown, MD

A free press is the major indicator of a country's freedom. This merger puts the public's access to multiple viewpoints and opinions at risk, which puts our freedom at risk. Access to information is powerful and needs to be from multiple sources.

—Kathleen Pierce, ,

Make the fines bigger! Maybe we should start deporting bigots and racists so we can get on with helpful UNITED STATES business!

—Phillip R Hlavac, mount dora, FL

Tell Sinclair Broadcast Group to go fuck themselves

—Ian Barton, ,

This country desperately needs real facts, not bigoted propoganda. PLEASE block this disastrous merger.

—Paula D Kuttner, The Dalles, OR

Pai is damaged. Works for self interest.

—Matang Gonzales, Bethlehem, CT

This is undemocratic and dangerous.

—Gretchen, Gahanna, OH

Don't break the law! This is illegal consolidation and inevitably will result in excessive control of local news.

—David and Helen Gill, Springfield, VA

It will become Propaganda TV for the right wing who want the country to go back to the 1950's. Republicans must cheat to get their way because no Republican who ran for potus has gotten the popular vote since 1988. Let's get real...the ONLY way Republicans get elected is Gerrymandering and rigging the vote and NOW TV.

—Sandra Sarradet, Charlottesville, VA

Just say NO to T-rump, he can't have everything he wants. It is a conflict of interests while he is #45. # NotMyPresident

—Nancy Benjamin, San Francisco, CA

Please - don't reward Sinclair's illegal past actions. Support media diversity across our nation.

—Carol Reinhardt, Gastonia, NC

If I want propoganda I'll move to Russia

—Gale Foca, Clifton, NJ

Rules were written for a reason; these were written to avoid monopolies, to ensure that residents had choices of media outlets, to ensure local journalists have a voice in local broadcasts. Allowing Sinclair to take over Tribune is antithetical to these goals, and limits free speech. Our president is a public servant, accountable to all the public, and we must have access to accurate, not slanted, information about the president's agenda and actions. Allowing a company that has a history of forcing slanted commentary and stories on its outlets to expand to >70% of the media market is very simply unAmerican; we will simply not accept this proposed action.

—Sally Jane Gellert, Woodcliff Lake, NJ

Propaganda is bad for America! STOP IT NOW!!

—Dedra Smith, boulder, CO

A high level of media consolidation is not a good thing. Stop this merger.

—Joni Solis, Kentwood, LA

Please block this merger! We need a diversity of media owners and not just one company having so much power.

—Marian Cooley, Muncie, IN

You should be ashamed of taking office while slobbering at the feet of these corporations. Your duty is to citizens. Not to corporations.

—A Spain, Chicago, IL

HELL NO! We don't need more lying, right wing propaganda networks.

—Margaret Richards, Pensacola, FL

no more lies!

—Kevin Orme, seattle, WA

Leave some for the fish.

—William Joseph Seno, Hinsdale, IL

No comments should be necessary.

—Robert Olkowski, Waukesha, WI

THIS IS UNACCEPTABLE TO MOST AMERICANS!

—Mrs. Betty A. Boral, Toms River, NJ

Too much consolidation of media markets have taken place. This needs to be stopped.

—Carl Hearne, North Canton, OH

Do not pave the way for more prejudice and misinformation to divide our people even more!

—Sandra Gauci, Bedford, NH

At what point do you follow the rules, rather than the money? Stand for Americans, not corporations!

—Rebekah Morris, Brooklyn, NY

Sinclair Broadcasting practices propaganda, not journalism. This is precisely what current ownership rules are intended to counteract. Please do not allow this merger to damage the integrity of the news received by the public.

—D Bertke, New York, NY

Please stop this merger!

—Tom Horne, Chicago, IL

There was a time when there were certain standards that had to be met to be on the air. What has happened???

—Linda Livingston, Ojai, CA

This merger is terrible for Democracy, but great if you want to support a dictatorship!

—Shawn Mulvihill, Racine, WI

This pervasive right wing bias will hurt our country. Please stop this damage!

—Diane Kupelian, Bethesda, MD

What the F**%&!

—Todd Waymon, Silver Spring, MD

It's bad enough that Sinclair owns one station in St. Louis. For them to own two more would destroy local television as we know it. Please DO NOT allow this merger to take place.

—Colin Feeney, Saint Louis, MO

Permitting this merger will reduce diversity & it will reduce competition. A capitalist country should embrace competition. Therefore, we need this merger blocked.

—Brian Street, Parker, CO

Time to step up and do the right thing!

—Ricardo Mendez, L. A., CA

This goes against all the FCC was created to protect.

—Stephen Silha, Vashon Island, WA

We all need as much reliable information as possible and Sinclair does not provide what we need.

—Deb Fulham-Winston, Carlisle, PA

This possibility is scary. Sinclair manipulates the news. We need our local stations to have autonomy.

—RD Apple, Madison, WI

This extensive racket MUST be thwarted!!! Merger should not be allowed for a minute!

—Jean Wilhelm, Eastport, ME

This is the United States Of America . . . not Nazi Germany . . . racism and bigotry cannot be tolerated . . . to promote it is antiAmerican . . . and the act of traitors. It's why nations around the world oppose Trump . . . and why they regard the USA as the most dangerous country . . . Racism and bigotry do not lend to peace and understanding . . . only death to everybody including racists and bigots . . . sooner or later they each up each other.

—Mr. Harv Buchman, gables, MI

Unfair and unbalanced- They should have their FCC license revoked.

—James Edward Hughes, Brunswick, GA

This has gotten out of hand.

—Frank Rowland, Newfield, NY

If it happened I like to leave United State!

—Yoko Y Matthews, Wellington, FL

Monopolies like this need to be stopped!

—Nancy Kronenfeld, Indialantic, FL

Why would Trump want to promote more "fake news"?

—Angel Rodriguez, Glendale, AZ

Whatever happened to anti-trust laws because "trusts" are bad for consumers? In this case, it's worse still. One very partisan and near-crazy company would "own" 70 percent of local TV markets. It's an outrage. Ajit Pai would be a criminal to cause this to happen. Of course, he works for a criminal "president." Thus must not be permitted to happen.

—Eva Klein, Great Falls, VA

I want a free press that encourages debate and allows me to make my own decisions. Propaganda like this implies that Sinclair thinks the America people are stupid. Hell hath no fury. . . .

—Pamela Yarbrough, Manhattan Beach, CA

Beware of the real underlying agendas of your own making- we see them clearly!

—Ms. Coco Gordon, Lyons, CO

Stop the promotion of Right Wing/Trump Propaganda...it is threatening our democracy.

—Mary Murfitt, Ancramdale, NY

We do not need state sponsored TV

—Luis Berocay, Minneapolis, MN

A free, unbiased press is critical for all Americans.

—Dianna Dentino, Waterford, WI

This is one more of many reasons I weep for the future of my country. Every step we're taking is toward a less informed populace. This will in the long run harm even the people who believe they will benefit from the horrible slanting of the media.

—Marlen Beach, Kansas City, MO

Don't allow this alarming meerger because it is a monopoly and subliminal and strong arming and one sided and hurts diversity and abusive and authoritarian.

—Ms. Lynne Koral, Sarasota, FL

Most everything I've seen on Trump's favorite TV chain is FAKE NEWS!!

—Stephanie Dufford, Wyoming, MI

we need more media outlets, not fewer! completion is a good thing!

—Ronald Leurquin, Minneapolis, MN

Good god--stop this merger! Trump T.V.!????!!!!

—Nan Willis, Louisville, KY

This Sinclair-Tribune Merger is a danger to democracy as it directly limits a diversity of news and perspective, its control over the media through this consolidation. Furthermore this merger would strengthen the message of one political perspective. Whether right or left, a media proselytizing and pushing a particular point of view does not serve the American public. Sinclair Broadcast Group does not enjoy respect from the major news media because they often do not report facts, and what facts they do report are flavored with opinion. This is essentially wrong and our Founding Fathers would be rolling in their graves. PLEASE, do not fear Trump and do what is right. Say NO to this merger.

—Susan Applegate, Yoncalla, OR

Please demonstrate that you are a commission working for the best interests of citizens of a democracy.

—Kathryn Darnell, East Lansing, MI

Trump cannot last until Xmas if we expect this republic to survive. Our gutless congress won't act; perhaps Der Trumpf will have had enough and resign. Or, he may develop an acute case of lead poisoning.

—Don Richardson, Brevard, NC

"The horrible thing about the Two Minutes Hate was not that one was obliged to act a part, but, on the contrary, that it was impossible to avoid joining in. Within thirty seconds any pretence was always unnecessary. A hideous ecstasy of fear and vindictiveness, a desire to kill, to torture, to smash faces in with a sledge-hammer, seemed to flow through the whole group of people like an electric current, turning one even against one's will into a grimacing, screaming lunatic."

—Dave Rogge II, Amherst, NY

This isn't capitalism. It's putocratic capitalism that does not adhere to one of the supposed principles of capitalism--competition. Giving control to yet another right-wing group that attacks the fabric of our democracy by taining both journalistic ethics and overwhelming public discourse with a lop-sided, anti-democratic viewpoint will make the death knell of American democracy ring out its death more loudly and at a more hurried pace. Of course the FCC itself has been tainted by those same corporate forces, so asking the de-toothed watchdog to guard the farm may be wasted effort. Prove citizens wrong and do the right thing.

—Mr. Michael Carano, Tallmadge, OH

Please Say NO and Oppose Trump TV

—Clay Scott, Warsaw, NC

Sinclair is a dangerous, propaganda spewing cancer on our nation! This merger represents a dangerous and move that would make the industry LESS competitive and do great harm to our democracy!

—David Sillman, New Port Richey, FL

There is enough hate in the world, we don't have to pipe it into our homes on our technology

—Frank Curley, Middletown, NY

Please remember that you are obligated to act in the public interest and that corporations are obligated to serve shareholder interests. In this case, those are not the same. They don't even overlap. Do your job.

—Faith Rogow, Ithaca, NY

This proposed merge would create an illegal, right-wing monopoly too horrible and devastating to contemplate!

—Darvel Lloyd, Portland, OR

The FCC needs to do its job and protect our democracy and our news media from a proaganda takeover. It doesn't matter if it from the right or the left, no single entity shuod be allowed to have this much influence. Do not sell out the American people!

—Patti Ulirsch, Arden, NC

NO TO TRUMP TV AND RACISM

—Jim Highfill, kansas city, MO

Our First Amendment Freedoms deserve better!

—M D. Block, La Jolla, CA

Enough! This merger is not in the best interest of a Free Press and Journalistic Integrity. DO NOT LET THIS HAPPEN

—John Gibson, Phoenix, AZ

Your actions are promoting hate propaganda and must stop.

—Carolyn Kittle, Alamogordo, NM

There should NEVER be a "Right way" to do a wrong thing.

—Alan Ernesto Phillips, Redding, CA

It will be yet another reason to leave cable TV.

—Shirley Longan, Midlothian, VA

This is an outrage. Trump is using his position to further his own ends.

—Catherine Schmidt, Reno, NV

Monolithic media outlets are just a bad idea because they can create message ubiquity.

—Michael Marcus, Hamtramck, MI

Give it a rest, Ajit.

—M C Kubiak, Bloomington, IL

Trump & GOP & NRA & Southern Baptists, Déjà vu, Nazi Germany, 1933. Sinclair/Goebbels

—Luther E. Franklin, Issaquah, WA

Ethics should not be for sale in Sinclair/Tribune's dark alley.

—Butch Blawd, Minneapolis, MN

Just how much worse do you want to make America? Don't permit this merger.

—Deane Bristow, Newport, OR

The kind of consolidation that the Sinclair-Tribune merger would create is antithetical to participation in democracy by an informed public. Rightwing control of the airwaves would be just as bad for an informed citizenry as control by any other group. That way lies totalitarianism.

—Glenn F Gang, Hansville, WA

Democracy as we know it hangs on the balance of honest journalism. This merger is a major threat to democracy.

—Richard Stuart, Edmonds, WA

Absolutely NO to this proposal!

—Joan M. Walker, Bell, FL

Sinclair BG is also forcing local channels they own here in Maine to air Trump propaganda. This must not be allowed.

—Jennifer Muehle, Portland, ME

Fight fascism! Defend democracy!

—Jason Reed, Coos Bay, OR

Stop this !!! Do the right thing !!!

—Nancy L Neskauskas, Santa Fe, NM

We do not want racist television. Absolutely NO to Trump TV. This merger should never ever be allowed. The media should never be in the hands of a small group. This will bring the end to Democracy which is being attacked by this Administration every day.

—Deborah Balasko, Sparta, MI

In my area Sinclair is poised to buy up ALL the local station affiliates. That alone greatly disturbed me, and this was before I learned of Sinclair's media bias.

—Barbara Keating, Blue Lake, CA

NO TRUMP TV!! WE SEE WAY TOO MUCH OF THIS MAN!!

—Linda Fleming, Auburn, WA

I Do Not Support anything that Donald Trump stands for He is the Most Evil Racist Bigoted, Bastard ever hatched.

—Vernon Ferguson, Bryan, TX

TV has become enough of a brainwashing machine - I chose many years ago to get rid of it and I don't miss it at all. But this corruption is so blatant - shame on you!!

—Kelly Solms, Jacksonville Beach, FL

We don't need another media monopoly.

—James Moyers, Oakland, CA

Ajit Pai, why aren't you blocking this merger instead of changing the ownership rules to jam it through? No company should own 200 or even 100 stations. Enough is enough. We need more diversity of viewpoints, not less. And we certainly don't need a partisan company dictating to it's stations what side to foist on its viewers. Please do your job, rule on the side of the public interest and block this merger.

—Stevie Converse, Florence, MA

GET adit pie OUT OF HERE!!!! HE IS AS BAD AS trump!!! HE WOULD SELL OFF ANY FREEDOM TO LINE HIS POCKETS !!!

—Matthew J Jadud, Columbia Station, OH

Fight fascism!

—Mr. don dines, Danville, IL

If the FCC permits this merger it will be clear that the FCC has become as corrupt as the corporation it clearly serves.

—Michael J Swain, Roswell, GA

Our Democracy is disappearing in a series of small steps. Please don't allow this merger to take place.

—Bruce L. Saltz M.D., Boca Raton, FL

No.

—Mr. Dean Van Eimeren, PVE, CA

This would be a dangerous move. In essence, it would create a state TV, thus turning the presidency into a dictatorship. Absolutely NO on this!!

—John Jurgensen, Oneonta, NY

Honest journalism dies in the presence of monopolies.

—Mr. Jared Mark Graham, Salem, OR

This is an abomination. Your role in government is to prevent such mergers. Do your job.

—Patricia Michaels, Santa Fe, NM

The FCC is supposed to work for the people and not big money special interests! Don't approve this parasitic merger!

—Paul Karsh, Martinez, CA

Stop the handouts. You work for all of us not just the radicals you favor.

—Ralph W Horton, Longwood, FL

I'm horrified at this deal. NO WAY!

—Joan Lockwood, Salem, OR

It's time for the FCC to step up and show that they are not beholden to the President of the United States, but instead actually take into account the comments they receive from the public.

—Mr. Garrett E. Culver, Corry, PA

Please do not allow this to happen.....our future is in your hands.....handle our rights with caution..PLEASE

—Jade Pekkala, Portland, OR

HORRIBLE IDEA GIVING TRUMP ANOTHER FORM OF MEDIA TO SPREAD HIS POISON! STOP GIVING HIM ANY MEDIA TIME - HE NEEDS TO BE DUMPED NOT ENCOURAGED TO BE A WORSE EXCUSE FOR A HUMAN BEING THAN HE ALREADY IS!

—Maggie Schafer, Boulder, CO

We don't need more HATE! Stop this deal.

—Alice SHAW, Irvine, CA

STOP THIS MADNESS!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

—John Satchell, San Miguel, CA

I want tv and news that is truthful, unbiased and not opinion filled. No Sinclair-Tribune merger. We need to stop the hate filled uneducated media from taking over the airwaves!

—Teresa Miller, Havre, MT

Daily Islamophobic comments are the LAST thing we need on the airwaves. Do NOT approve this merger.

—Jane Lee, Kansas City, MO

Why would such a monopolistic merger even be considered??

—Ruth A Carter, Atlanta, GA

This outrageous deal and its supporting rule change are beyond the pale! STOP IT NOW!

—Scott Warren, Houston, TX

There's a reason democracies must not allow media monopolies. Control of the media by the Nazis is the main mechanism by which Hitler rose to and sustained iron-fisted power in the years leading up to WWII. Don't allow Trump or any other politician to repeat that disastrous chapter in history.

—Susan McDonald, Nashville, TN

A disgusting and scary proposition.

—Viola Nicholson, Littleton, CO

It used to be that monopolies were considered bad and competition was considered good. What happened to our values?

—Robert Bailey, Lowell, MA

Monopolies should not be allowed!

—Christine Earles, Greenwood Lake, NY

If not the FCC, who will protect the American consumer and public from monopolies? Can you really allow this betrayal of trust and responsibility?

—Faith Steinfert, Cinnaminson, NJ

I am strongly opposed to the merger of Tribune and Sinclair Broadcast Group! American democracy depends on diverse viewpoints in the media.

—Ms. Judith K. Moseley, Columbus, OH

Do NOT allow this merger to happen!

—Jean Davis, Hoquiam, WA

I know you already understand this. I'm sharing that I care, care enough especially when it comes election time.

—Glen L. Bledsoe, Salem, OR

That we have come this far with what started as the airwaves owned by the people is a truly horrific state of affairs. It is amounting to TV dominated by one political perspective, not even one party, but one part of one party. The Founders, who believed more strongly in an independent free press than in government, would also be horrified.

—Kathryn Munson, Seattle, WA

The US Congress should investigate you and all your holding to see if you made off this action

—James L Sellers, St.Louis, MO

not only NO but, HELL, NO to giving Sinclair Broadcasting a SWEETHEART DEAL

—Lydia Howell, Minneapolis, MN

Stop racism in its tracks! NO to fascism!!!

—Ronald Domin, San Francisco, CA

My father, a conservative Republican, managed Memphis's premier radio and TV stations, WMC and WMCT (NBC) for about 30 years. He cut Stokely Carmichael off during a Republican convention in Philadelphia but he was a staunch proponent of the Fairness Rule and anti-monopoly broadcast ownership restrictions. He would turn over in his grave at this abuse of power. Personally, I was a loyal CBS fan until Sinclair came to Portland. I offered condolences to its able news cadre and tuned Channel 13 out save to watch 60 minutes.

—William H. Slavick, Portland, ME

Even more important than stopping this merger is the need for the restoration of the Broadcast Fairness Doctrine and Political Equal Time laws. The travesty of slanted news prevailing in this nation is NOT in the best interest of the public who do still own the airwaves in this nation!

—Mary T. Ficalora, Thousand Oaks, CA

Do we still have antitrust legislation on the books? Does anyone enforce it? Do broadcasters still have to operate in the public interest? Are there laws against hate speech? Sinclair seems to be striking out on all these criteria. Shame!

—James Lobdell, Santa Rosa, CA

No business should control 70% of any industry. With broadcasting, that is a downright disaster for a free press if it happens. If the owners of Sinclair succeed (they already interfere with local news programs by inserting propaganda) they will eventually try to control all the political content AND COMMENTARY in the news on ALL their stations. That is a violation of the freedom of speech aspects of our Constitution (what they are doing already is as well).

—KC Labdon, Sandy, UT

FCC, please keep high ethical standards and say no to Sinclair.

—Glenda Adkinson, austin, TX

If allowed to proceed, this corruption will have the capacity to wreck our democratic order.

—Karen E. Fields, Henrico, VA

Too Big... Too Loud... Too Negative..

—L Adams, Jackson, MI

Talk about FAKE "news". Bring back Dan Rather, reincarnate Walter Cronkite and Edward R. Murrow! They understood what real journalism is about -- unlike the current, un-/anti-American FCC frauds, who are only interested in power and broadcasting Republican LIES and propaganda. These anti-truth, turbo-capitalist bastards deserve to be deported -- see how they like living in a dictatorship with no free speech!

—US expat in Austria Beth Jones, Monticello IA and Salzburg AUSTRIA, IA

No pro-Trump biased TV

—Tim Davidson, Marshfield, MA

All these cable conglomerate groups need to be broken up into smaller more locally attentive companies.

—Larry Heller, Lawai, HI

This deal represents a level of blatant corruption that is startling even for the vile Trump administration. Monopoly, racist discrimination, nepotism, total disregard of freedom of the press -- this one's got it all. If the FCC has any integrity whatsoever, it MUST squelch this obscene merger.

—Jo Falcon, San Francisco, CA

Free speech is protected by the constitution but so are our rights against hate speech directed at creating violence, and fake news that misleads for the purpose of obstructing justice.

—Sandy, Edmonds, WA

Sinclair is fake news.

—Mike Betz, Bellingham, WA

As a Chicago native and long-time subscriber to the Chicago Tribune and a listener to Tribune Media's Channel 9, I am really upset at the prospect of Sinclair taking over Tribune Media. That's too much concentration. It also way too much power for Sinclair, which pushes right-wing materials through its owned stations. Diversity in ownership of public media needs to be carefully guarded!!!!

—Mary F. Warren, Wheaton, IL

Because we have so much choice now for local tv? Because when these behemoths merge, prices NEVER go up? NO! To the monopolization of media!!!

—Matt Woolery, La Jolla, CA

FCC stop this corruption of American free press ideals.

—Pamela Askew, dallas, TX

Ajit Pai is just another plague in the FCC. Where do folks like him come from ? We're sick and tired of weasels trying to make their fortunes on our backs.

—Richard Grady, East Orange, NJ

We are, or were, a democracy-keep it that way!

—Jeanne Stancil, Raleigh, NC

We need free and accountable media to continue as a democracy.

—Pamela Norton, Oakland, CA

the rules and laws against monopolies were written for good reasons. Please don't show yourselves to be pawns of corruption by weakening or allowing the evasion of them.

—Daniel Wood, New York, NY

Don't give the hater another forum for his poison. Keep America free.

—J Agata, Sebastopol, CA

Must every American corporation become a monopoly? Have we no corporate or regulatory interest in diversity? Stop Sinclair from eating up more than its narrow share of media!

—Charlene Breedlove, Chicago, IL

NO! We demand a choice in TV and the FCC needs to STOP this merger, and others, restricting our right to choose!

—Nancy K Brown, Black Mountain, NC break up the media!

—James Race, Palm Desert, CA

Prevent this merger to prevent "state" run television.

—Lee Robinson, El Dorado Hills, CA

A Sinclair Broadcast Group / Tribune merger is clearly NOT in the public interest. Further media consolidation hurts consumers, hurts local news and stifles diverse opinion. The FCC must reject this ill-conceived merger.

—Bob Soper, Portland, OR

Diversity in news is paramount to an informed electorate. Read your constitution. This merger is antithetical to that.

—J B. Wilson, San Francisco, CA

This, next to the removal of Net Neutrality, is a means to destroy the United States and tarnish its reputation even more. I won't stand for this, nor will everyone else.

—Aaron J Rodriguez, WHITING, IN

Additionally, this is a blatant attempt to shout down the actual truth by a president who is so far from truthful that he has to call his propaganda "Alternative truth." Sinclair has been anything but fair in its commentaries. Sinclair has sided with Trump propaganda time and again, even after it was proven false. Diversity of voices ensures that the truth will out, but it is up to the FCC to do its job to PROTECT that diversity.

—Erich Ackermann, Seattle, WA

What is this Russia? Why would you give this LIAR a platform to spread even more LIES!

—Edwin J. McGrath, Albion, PA

You guys are messed up. Work for us not corporations.

—Philip Mullen, La Crescenta, CA

We need news from all sides...this proposed takeover will only give us info from one side. It would be a propaganda site and nothing more...stop the takeover.

—Ms. Pat Benabe, Lawrence, KS

no more mergers!

—Gary Zucett, Charleston, WV

NO! Our nation has suffered enough under Fox FakeNews. We don't need another lousy far-right lying source of fake news. We already have plenty of those. How about working toward factual representations of what's actually happening instead? An ignorant and ill-informed electorate got us into our present mess; we need a highly factually informed electorate to vote in an actually functioning government.

—Amanda McNeill, Cortez, CO

I think this is a dangerous precedent and have stopped watching Ch 4 in Charleston, SC.

—Judith Goldsmith, Charleston, SC

A free press is a cornerstone of democracy.

—Marilyn Kaggen, Brooklyn, NY

Stop racist incitement!!!!

—Carol Trevor, Portland, OR

The Founding Fathers knew our Constitution could not survive without a Free Press. When there is ONLY ONE PRESS, that is NOT THE VOICE OF ALL THE PEOPLE. WHAT EVER HAPPENED THAT MONOPOLY IS ALLOWED IN THIS REPUBLIC? FASCISM ON THE RISE!

—Vonny Eckman, Carlisle, PA

May we once again TRY to be a democracy.... PLEASE!

—Marylin Olds, Kingston, WA

this merger spells nothing but disaster. we don't need another Fox News!

—Marty Torok, Apple Valley, CA

JUST DO IT!!!!

—Shireen Parsons, Washington, DC

"Have you no sense of Decency, Sir, at long last? Have you left no sense of DECENCY?" And Another Thing: Doesn't the Communications Act hold that American broadcasting spectrum is actually owned by the American People and Nation in trust?

—Larry Ellis Reed, Winona, MN

These sorts of mergers are a detriment to democracy.

—James Bredin, Toronto,

As free marketers, you should know that competition is the access for low prices, quality service, and local accountability. Please do not allow this merger!

—Bernie Sirelson, North Hollywood, CA

Please

—Roger Ball, Lakewood, CO

This degree of media consolidation is harmful to the entire country. Please don't let this go forward.

—Keith Ross, Battle Ground, WA

You changed things for fox a while back and nothing good has ever come of it. Now you are thinking about changing the rules so we can get more slanted stories on the local news.

—David Gillette, Chadron, NE

We want unbiased truthful news. We can't get this from Sinclair

—Lin Valazza, Syracuse, NY

In addition, we must be aware that these consolidated media companies run canned programming and local programming as well as emergency alerts about local earthquakes, fires, etc. often are unavailable. We experienced that a few years ago in Honolulu. We had not idea how serious the earthquake was and there was no local programming on am or fm radio. I wrote to the FCC then and I think it is so important to have local media available to let the public know what is going on.

—Sandra Morey, Oakland, CA

Sounds to me like things that happened in the 1930s brought to life again.

—Wayne Purdy, Albertson, NY

Stop selling out America!

—John Grand, Green Valley, AZ

This is outrageous! You MUST put a stop to this. Can you please look up the definition of 'Monopoly'? You need to read up on that Statute!

—Ms. Ellen-Cathryn Nash, Hoboken, NJ

There is no ethical reason - and no constitutional or legal justification - for the FCC to encourage hate speech. Say NO on this proposed merger.

—Richard Lozeau, Maynard, MA

Stop the insanity. Fox news has already done enough damage with intentionally lying to and brain washing our public. It doesn't serve the selfish 1%, but we need a general citizenry that is educated and can think critically, not one force fed backwards propaganda. The government is intended to take CARE of its citizens, not F them over like it is currently doing. For shame.

—Chiara D'Amore PhD, Columbia, MD

No way!

—Kay D. Nelson, Richfield, MN

This is about as un-American as it gets. More reminiscent of fascism than our open, liberal democracy.

—Cathy Goldberg, Seal Beach, CA

Democracy is dependent upon multiple sources of knowledge and information.

—Kory McFarland, Salinas, CA

NO TRUMP TV. Block the merger of Sinclair Broadcast Group. DO NOT let them own more than 200 local-TV stations. They portray the worst in right-wing slanted made-up "news".

—John Drevicky, Farmers Branch, TX

You are helping to create a world whose base of sand will eventually topple over under the weight of its lies and deceptive practices.

—Teri Laning, Chesterland, OH

Media consolidation, especially when it allows a company to require subsidiaries to spew lies with no competing outlets for the truth, is not one, but several nails in the coffin of democracy. Do NOT allow this merger.

—Barbara Muehlhausen, Schaumburg, IL

I grew up with Republican policies that favored small business competition, not large corporate unilateral control. Why would you EVER support this dominance by one corporation over so much of our country's news sources, which tends to be local TV. Please turn down the Sinclair/Tribune merger!

—Mary L. Ford, Northampton, MA

Do your job. American people do not need another public mouthpiece for right wing propaganda. You would certainly not approve this merger if we were talking about two liberal broadcast outlets.

—Julia Gilden, San Rafael, CA

No media monopolies!

—Timothy Taylor, Los Angeles, CA

Freedom of communication is not a toy for government to take liberties with.

—William Jeffrey Ellison I, Parkville, MD

It is going to take years to undo the harm Mr. Trump's appointees are enacting. Do not let this one happen.

—Sara Lang, Columbia., MO

No more right wing "conservative" message. Please!

—William H White, Fort Walton Beach, FL

Giving Sinclair more power is propagating hateful propaganda. That's cool jot what our public airwaves need.

—Jessica Wolfe, Sebastopol, CA

It's obvious the U.S. is now a 3rd world country. What a disgrace. My father and husband fought for liberty. They are rolling over in their graves after this coup!

—Nancy S, ,

We do not need this kind of merger. No Hate television stations in this country.

—Lee Winslow, Mason, MI

Please do not show such hatred.

—Mary Roberts, Middleton, WI

Please do not allow the Sinclair group merger.

—Zach Imler, appleton, WI

The fact that this is happening is ludacris, unconscionable, abusive and unbecoming of mankind!

—Nathan Starr, Wilsonville, OR

JUSTICE FOR ALL !!!!!!! PEACE ON EARTH !!!!!!!

—Eleanor Kaye, Hallandale Beach, FL

Stop it NOW. I and the nation does not need a more consentated owership, single view communications source. News and message need to be as broad based as possible so the voice and opinion of the many facits of our nation are heard. It is difficult enough with so many ways to tune out any opposing point of view to add a monopoly owner in the mix that would lead to narrowing choice.

—Duke Pavliger, Santa Rosa, CA

no, no, no, *NO* more media consolidation - this needs to be unwound -- not expanded

—Joel Sparler, Redmond, WA

We do not need any more lying corporations the increase the murkiness of the already muddy waters of the public airways. Hey you at the FCC, you must stop this for the good of America. Pursuing profits for personal reasons and via unethical means has ruin our society and it well on its way to destroying our democracy. For God's Sake, stop it!!!!

—Dr. Glenn E Lambert, Springfield, OH

Bring back the Fairness Doctrine!

—Devyn, Long Beach, CA

Shame Shame Shame

—Cd Foote, Austin, TX

Enough!

—Amy Seigart, Del Rio, TX

News is supposed to be impartial. With the exception of the occasional editorial--OCCASIONAL--local news most of all should be locally relevant and unbiased. Sinclair would be the first step toward state-run television news--something out the old USSR. Absolutely DO NOT allow this to happen.

—T L. Lawrence, Orem, UT

Sinclair is now airing propaganda masquerading as news in my geographic area. It is very discouraging to have our public airwaves used to promote false and misleading information

—Lynd Blatchford, North Berwick, ME

This merger is too large and will disrupt the balance of wide ranging viewpoints in my area. Local news personnel at two station that Sinclair will gain are privately voicing concern about the impact on their presently balanced presentation of information to the public.

—Cynthia L Seidel, Littleton, CO

This is all part of Trump's agenda to bring a Fascist state to US, so he can be the dictator.

—Glenn Gill, Carson, NM

We want FREE PRESS. Block the merger of Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune! We do not want an autocrat POTUS to use this merger as his pulpit. Do not allow the authoritarian #DJT to control anything larger than his hair style account. We have had enough of this demagogue and his prolific false accounts of his nonsensical rhetoric. #DJT is nothing more than a pathologic liar who will say anything to promote his indulgence in narcissistic terms. We do not need any further utterance from a deranged psychopathic POTUS!

—James Sheehan, Laguna Niguel, CA

This is very important.

—Laura Miner, New York, NY

Let me remind you that you represent the public's best interests in preserving freedom of speech. Sinclair has already a near monopoly on the message and is hell bent on turning our media into one that mimics some of the worst autocracies in the world.

—Michael Knudsen, Mc Lean, VA

If the FCC were doing its job it would be breaking up these media conglomerates, not helping them to become more powerful. But then, the FCC hasn't been doing its job for quite some time. "The Public Good" just isn't on the table.

—Tim Blaes, Hendersonville, NC

This company is the opposite to everything the US stands for, it fosters a sick agenda.

—Maurine Klimt, NYC, NY

NO, I am not a robot. I really do care that media in this country should not be a monopoly. The very definition of FAKE NEWS is the Sinclair Broadcasting group. What happened to diversity, and balanced and fair?

—Laura Bundy, Fort Payne, AL

If you care about this country, and understand the consequences of what this action proposes, you will not allow Sinclair & Tribune to merge. We are paying attention, well aware who is supporting this greed and corruption.

—, Port Angeles, WA

What happened to USA being a Democracy with NO MONOPLIES? Gone forever to a Fascist Kingdom. Sounds like Hitler's Germany to me.

—Ms. Marilyn Katz, Los Angeles, CA

Dystopian - and you damn well know it.

—Alison Brooke Monfort, Austin, TX

Do not allow this merger. We watch Trump lie over and over, and the Sinclair Group and the Tribune back him up. This is wrong and you know it. This is the kind of thing that allows history to be rewritten even as it happens. Look at the history of the Sinclair Group. DO NOT APPROVE THIS MERGER.

—Tarvin Clark, Arroyo Grande, CA

It is totally wrong to allow one corporation such vast control of the public media. THE FCC needs to stop this practice. Diverse ownership of the media is the only way to fairly inform the public. Block this merger.

—Colleen Soden, Seattle, WA

We need more diversity in media, not less. We can get the "Party Line" from Fox News, and RT. Dtop this dangerous concentration of media!

—Dennis Monson, Cedar Hill, TX

FCC must block the merger between Sinclair and Tribune, or lose all credibility.

—Martha Osmun, Bristol, VT

Sinclair should not be allowed to take over the Tribune because the broadcasts will simply be propaganda for right-wing claptrap. I urge the FCC to block the merger.

—Stephen Spieckerman, Waukesha, WI

Chairman Pai, at what point will you start to work for the people and not big business? What line must you cross to realize that you are failing the people and our country?

—Al Sears, Redondo Beach, CA

They're both big enough!

—Thamar Wherrit, Mount Shasta, CA

Stop this now!

—H F. von Ulmer, Denmark, ME

Trump and his broadcast systems are making corruption the hallmark of the 'American way'.

—Lisbeth Applefield, Portland, OR

No merger for SBG & Tribune. Its a corrupt / deceitful, plus fraudulent move, instigated by Trump & his illegal ill gotten gains.

—Trevor Alfred, New York, NY

The FCC has no business bending its rules to accommodate the Sinclair Broadcast Group, purveyors of slanted news coverage. Rush Limbaugh is enough of a disgrace to our nation.

—Leslie Schroeder M.D., Lincolnwood, IL

This is absolutely unethical. You have a responsibility to keep monopolies from growing. Do the right thing.

—Zk Kastl, Tucson, AZ

I am already very concerned with the impact of propaganda on the public. I yearn for the pre-cable days of the Fairness Doctrine and journalists like Bill Moyers and Dan Rather. Our democracy has suffered!!

—Alison Lamothe, Edwardsville, IL

Stop the Sinclair-Tribune Merger

—Mark Gresko, Peoria, AZ

We saw how bad the public was informed during the Democratic Primary and then during the following months right up until today. Our Local Stations have been reporting stories verbatim from all around the country - ginning up fear and a single point of view regarding every section of society. Sinclair is already doing damage to the concept of free press and the merger will kill it once and for all - planting the seeds for a vicious backlash from all directions. It would certainly become a pay for information and neither party has enough money to out bid a dozen or so multi-billionaires let alone police foreign influences.

—Charles Whitcomb, Winsted, CT

This should not be allowed.

—Kevin J. O'Rourke, Camden, NY

The more media companies have been allowed to consolidate the worse our Nation has fared, economically, socially and politically. This would be astronomically bad.

—Jan Saxton, Aromas, CA

We do not want to listen to the incessant ultraconservative ramblings of their commenters. We have only one local TV station here in western NC and it is unconscionable that we should be forced to listen to this when the other only TV station we get is in SC. Do not let Sinclair have all the power to control our local news. That is too much consolidation.

—Linda Alfredson, Asheville, NC

Whatever happened to our antitrust laws? Consolidation of news sources is an immoral undermining of our democracy.

—Ralph Novak, Roseville, CA

Stop the racist, hateful, fake news!

—Richard R Ruble, Houston, TX

This is what oppressive governments do ... get control of the media so they can spread whatever propaganda they want with impunity.

—Dennis M McDaniel, Boulder, CO

HE SUCKS!

—Bruce Hartman, Cape Coral, FL

This merger flies in the face of FCC policies to restrict concentration of media ownership. We need more voices not fewer.

—S Johnston, Greensboro, NC

Talk about "false news". As it is I read America's news from foreign journals.

—Jerry Cecere, Folsom, CA

I really have a hard time believing that the FCC professionals would not see this as the subversive act it is.

—Anne B. Garcia, Oak Ridge, TN

Make the public airways serve the public interest. Do your job!

—Joel T Thorson, Portland, OR

NO TO CORPORATE TYRANNY!

—Amy Harlib, New York, NY

We need more not less independent news outlets. Trump TV is NOT an option.

—Eugenia A. Patterson, Poulsbo, WA

NO NO NO !!!!!!!

—Bernadette Zupan, Tamarac, FL

You're so fired - get lost! It's the 21st Century.

—Charles Ice, aiea, HI

We don't need fewer news sources.

—Ruthann Ovenshire, Minneapolis, MN

The FCC should block this merger and restore policies that encourage a diversity of local media owners and a wide range of viewpoints.

—Doug Hudgins, New York, NY

Stop merger mania

—David Paul, Turlock, CA

I will carefully watch the FCC action on this proposal. It is important to me, my family and friends.

—Donald Wallace, Calabasas, CA

Too much bible thumping!

—Rebecca McGlothlin, Austin, TX

Make America Great Again -- IMPEACH THIS LOSER, then JAIL HIM AND HIS ENABLERS -- including his fellow pro-Russian traitors: Pence, his kids, EVERYbody involved.

—BL Jones, Cedar Rapids, IA

We need limits on media ownership so that no one individual or group control the news that reaches the citizenry.

—Marlene Puaoi, Novato, CA

NAZI TAE OVER OF COUNTRY

—Linda Krausen, so pas, CA

Media conglomerates dispensing political propaganda and fabricated "news" at the local level present a real threat to our democracy. Sinclair should not be allowed to build its empire of misinformation.

—Chloe Snyder, Syracuse, NY

Stop this now!

—Theodore Hensley, Sequim, WA

There are reasons the FCC has rules about how many outlets a news conglomerate can own. This nation certainly does not need more media conglomerates taking over still more local news stations and newspapers! Different points of view are essential in a democracy. The FCC must block the merger of Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune.

—Sherry Bupp, Redmond, WA

The merger would be completely irresponsible, and the FCC would be completely irresponsible were the merger approved.

—Hans von Briesen, Santa Fe, NM

BLOCK THIS MERGER, FCC. YOU ARE SUPPOSED TO LOOK OUT FOR THE GOOD OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AND TO ALLOW THIS MERGER WOULD BE A DISASTER FOR OUR DEMOCRACY. WHAT HAPPENED TO THE FCC RULE THAT INSISTED ON FAIRNESS AMONG THE MEDIA OUTLETS IN AN AREA. THAT WENT AWAY, BUT IT SHOULDN'T HAVE AND SINCLAIR WILL EVENTUALLY BECOME STATE-RUN TV, AS IF IT'S NOT ALREADY. DO NOT ALLOW THIS MERGER!

—Sandy neese, Pegram, TN

The merger is a bad idea. Media need to be diverse, not aggregated into a monopoly. That's not good for America.

—Mr Dana Craig, Norwood, MA

Over time our broadcast industry has become increasingly centralized. As this has happened, there has been a substantial decrease in community access and coverage. This limits the freedom of speech in communities. In addition, the large companies can impose viewpoints that do not represent the many communities served. If a large owner of stations has a particular political agenda then that company could influence a large number of individuals served. It was a mistake to permit the ownership of broadcast licences to be acquired by a few major companies. This is particularly true when one company holds several licences for one region. This serves to drastically limit the full expression of a variety of ideas of citizens in that broadcast area.

—Dr Richard Ely, Florence, MA

Not my kind of news

—Margaret Shanahan, Catonsville, MD

NO NO NO!

—eva Zucker, New York, NY

I will not watch any local TV stations owned by this sinister Sinclair Broadcast Group! This is disgusting if the FCC allows this to happen.

Are we living in Nazi Germany?

—Donald S. Barrett, Salinas, CA

THE RELAXATION OF OWNERSHIP RULES HAS LED TO THE CORPORATE OWNED AND CONTROLLED INFOTAINMENT WE CURRENTLY CALL NEWS! WE NEED TO GO BACK TO MORE DIVERSIFIED OWNERSHIP, NOT FURTHER CONSOLIDATE IT!

—Jeff Tatom, Grants Pass, OR

No longer enforcing the Sherman Anti-Trust Act has led to a concentration of biased and insidious right-wing news conglomerates. This media and opinion-concentration must stop.

—Patricia Mellon, Bremerton, WA

We've been listening to the right-wing comments of Donald Trump and his supporters for a year and a half now, and we're sick of him and them. Our airwaves should enlighten and entertain us, not pack our heads with ignorant, racist, fascist diatribes--pure hateful propaganda.

—Mike Dorsey, Emporia, KS

We need to be breaking up mega corporations especially media.

—Mark Makkonen, Verona, WI

This is the USA we are an example to the rest of the world and should act as such.

—Larry Beard, Woodstock, CT

To allow this merger is to strike perhaps a death blow to our democracy which requires the voicing of many points of view. Totalitarian states try to control the public with limited avenues for expression of thoughts and opinion.

—VMcClurkin Jones, Oak Ridge, TN

Monopolies are always a disaster and especially for a democracy!

—Jeanne Moenk, Chardon, OH

Government propoganda filled with racist, Islamaphobic, bigoted bullshit will not last and neither will the scum that seek to influence the public with their lies.

—Calvin Johnson, Marion, IL

What happened to the Sherman Anti-trust Act that I learned about in High School? Please do NOT allow this.

—Lewis C Murdock, Winston, OR

A variety of views promotes open minds--exactly what our country needs. Prevent this conglomerate from happening! Thank you.

—Kim Rutty, Sandwich, MA

Democracy small d. Not oligarchy.

—Mr. Tracy McLellan, Chicago, IL

I WAS UNDER THE IMPRESSION ALL THESE YEARS THAT THE U.S.A. WAS A DEMOCRACY... WHAT HAPPENED???

—Margaret G. Rego, Lares, PR

Monoplies cater to tunnel vision stockholder,s bottom line., Diversity offers diffrent perspectives and creativity.

—Francisco Rashid, Calexico, CA

Only he who owns the press has free press

—Robert Irwin, Lorton, VA

Hey! We don't need more racist, women hating, Islamaphobic crap. Fox News is bad enough & has poisoned our culture.

—Patricia Greenough, Ashland, OR

We don't need a State TV station, which is what the Sinclair power grab represents. Stop letting them monopolize the media in major cities. Your job is to make sure there is a variety of media throughout the US.

—Linda Indyke, Cockeysville, MD

We need to move away from huge monopolistic business practices and return America to the hands of the people, not corporations.

—Suzette Dollar, Avondale, AZ

This is the beginning of Big Brother influence in our media and must come to a halt NOW

—James Hall, Mount Holly, NJ

Of all the institutions, allowing monopolies or oligopolies take over the communications vehicles is a prelude to eliminating free speech in the US

—Barbara Gage, Belfast, ME

We the people, reject Trump TV and the Sinclair Tribune Merger.

—Darby Stone, Harvest, AL

There is a grave danger in having too much of the media outlets controlled by a single ownership. We need a diversity of voices.

—Walter Pinkus, Mesa, AZ

PLEASE

—Christopher Feehan, Tallahassee, FL

Media companies are already too large. I urge you to reject this merger plan for the sake of our democracy.

—Frederick J. Mackey, DENVER, CO

We must NOT let Ajit Pei convince us with his lies to let him and his cronies dissolve net neutrality.

—Lucinda Windsor, Midlothian, TX

Can anyone say "anti-trust" at the FCC?

—Pamela Gibberman, Panorama City, CA

America does not need monopolies. We need competition. Monopolies create stagnation and reduce jobs and wages.

—Kevin Evans, Edmond, OK

Every effort should be made to keep local media local. Monopolies in media are not helpful at all.

—Nan Clancy, Saint Marys, OH

Please vote no to the Tribune merger

—Mike Mirretti, Elmhurst, IL

Corporations are NOT PEOPLE! They have NO consciences! They are sociopathic! Put them in jail? Execute them for the killing they've done?

—George R. Goffe, San Jose, CA

Do we not still have anti-monopoly laws in this country?

—Renny Reep, Seattle, WA

This is disgusting. Every day it's like we're falling down a quicksand pit with a sign next to it that says 'BEWARE: FACIST PIT'

—Craig Apfelbeck, Poulsbo, WA

Equal time on the air waves and return of air waves to the public should happen now! Laws need to stop private buy of what used to belong to the public.

—Skylar Phoenix, Homer, AK

No way should this happen, for numerous reasons!

—Bob Remstein, Reseda, CA

Drop your corrupt plan!!!

—Susan J Balthasar, Los Osos, CA

When monopoly makes a free and honest news media impossible, fascism will thrive and lead to the decline of American credibility and prestige in the world. So do the right thing or suffer the consequences of a failed democracy.

—Richard A. Piekarski, Golden, CO

Fascism comes to America; a fake president, the reincarnation of benito Mussolini, all just Trumpster trash for sure.

—Gary J. Jones, Joliet, IL

Stop the Greed

—Rick Foster, Altavista, VA

There's a reason we have limits on ownership. Those limits need to be put back in place and corporations like Sinclair need to be forced to sell the areas that they cheated and purchased more than they were allowed.

—Kathy Reimer, Blue Springs, MO

STOP! We need some real rules about ownership!! Sinclair Broadcast Group is slippery when it comes to legalities and we need more diversity, not less. Too many big companies are only getting bigger and we need MORE, not less choices!

—Noel Orr, Shoreline, WA

We need diversity, not corruption.

—Pietro G. Poggi, San Rafael, CA

CORRUPT CUNTS!

—One of the people you serve, ALL, NY

Please do the next right thing.

—Jerry Brees, Marysville, WA

STOP!!

—Lou Orr, Shoreline, WA

Stop this all out attack on the citizens of this country! This is Nazi Germany all over again! Who would have thought that once the protector of freedom has now become the oppressor! :-)

—Robert D Prevost, Saint Petersburg, FL

Another step towards facism. We must not let this merger happen.

—Zorina Weber, Montclair, NJ

This would allow fake news to proliferate.

—Michael Verdon, Saint Petersburg, FL

Jesus wept.

—John S Tavares, North Scituate, RI

Please!

—Bonnie Baldwin, Litchfield, CT

FCC, do your job. Protect democracy and the little person. To hell with the corporations.

—Tim Joseph, Brethren, MI

Not only is this kind of news hateful, but most of it isn't even true! The last thing we need is another monopoly taking over anything. Stop this merger now!

—Suzanne Michael, Clio, MI

We need many different viewpoints in our news industry. This would reduce the number of viewpoints to one larger megamouthpiece.

—Jerri Meys, Honeoye, NY

The media should not be controlled by the few. There needs to be diversity, and competition in order to get accurate information.

—Joshua Shelley, Bryan, TX

This is extremely dangerous to the future of america

—Sarah T. Jones, Pine Plains, NY

Access to a variety of voices via the media is crucial to wise decision-making. Stop trying to block access.

—Virginia Brown-Nolan, Silver Spring, MD

Sinclair Broadcasting has constantly engaged in unethical and market destructive tactics. There is no aspect of this deal that is in the public interest and it should be rejected immediately.

—Kelly Logan, Dearborn, MI

Cut the crap man!! Racism is NOT cool!! Don't you know that by now!!?? Sheeesh!

—George Stass, Brooklyn, NY

This is tantamount to taking over the free press to propagandize the take over of the country by a minority dictatorship. You don't give up a country because of money. You don't let anybody BUY the country. You don't let only people working underground to BUY the country, take over its media.

—Sandra Martin, Clinton Twp, MI

I think media should be held fully responsible for what it publishes or airs. This includes calls to violence and cruelty, scams, lies, and everything else. Wouldn't we live in a different country if that were so!

—Susan Siens, Unity, ME

NO! Bring back The Fairness Doctrine. We're already being censored enough. Do we want to become like China???

—LuAnne, ,

Monopoly?

—Angelina Odievich, Mercer island, WA

Re-establish FCC ownership limits immediately.

—Jonathan P Carlson, Minneapolis, MN

One private company must NOT be allowed to have this immense power of propaganda.

—Terry Blaes, Dunnellon, FL

tRump is a immature moron.

—dave Freeman, Camp Verde, AZ

Media consolidation is a threat to our democracy. Move towards less consolidation, not more.

—Deborah Dinzes, Kirkland, WA

Democracy in this country is being imperiled by this president in many ways, and this may be the most blatant. This president maligns real journalism, which follows standards of integrity, as being "fake news" while this merger would provide a huge platform for a group which has an agenda and has a history of pushing biased information designed to further that agenda. It is the job of the FCC to protect this country and our democracy against this

—Mrs. Wendy Connelly, Hillsboro, OR

This's wrong: insider operating, insider merging, insider conglomerating. I say NO.

—Karen Kane, Roslindale, MA

Outrageous!

—Patricia B. Ryan, Washington, DC

The FCC is clearly corrupt if they continue and allow SInclair to buy all htese other stations!

—C Warren Pope, Asheville, NC

Stop the merger!

—Stephanie Schueler, Chesterton, IN

I urge you to protect our rights and block this disaster in the making. We don't need monopolies in the media.

—Toni G Miller, Saint Pauls, NC

Why don't we start thinking of everyone and not just ourselves? Get off your high horses and start thinking of the betterment of humankind, not just your pocket.

—Chris Franzen, South Milwaukee, WI

A prez should never have his own TV station. Unamerican.

—Renee Page, Santa Clarita, CA

Stop this disgraceful action NOW!

—Mary-Kay Mary-Kay Gamel, Sonoma, CA

Pull their FCC license

—Marsha Shaiman, Seattle, WA

Tha real Americans are watching you people destroy our democracy and freedom of true speech!!

—john Guerrero, Louisville, KY

This is pure and simply collusion and tampering by government and its agents to influence media for political advantage.

—Ted Shore, ,

Sinclair thwarts the public interest, by promoting anti-American themes. Thwart them.

—Warren Land, Pensacola, FL

Please, the future of everything is in your hands. Let's keep America a democracy.

—Jennifer Messina, Ely, NV

The reinstatement of the UHF Rule that would allow Sinclair to purchase Tribune media is unethical and invalid. UHF no longer exists, everything is digital. This was done to benefit friends of Trump and to push more of his political agenda. PLEASE do not ruin Tribune Media.

—Nancy Laskero, Chicago, IL

please NO more lying tv everywhere

—Dr. Susan Caswell, Paauilo, HI

This is no time to give even more power for media outlets to consolidate or control news and information.

—Sharon Feola, hansville, WA

The propaganda and fake news that this arrangement promotes is sickening.

—Mike Miles, Niles, MI

Sinclair is the real FAKE NEWS. Do not approve more power for its propaganda.

—Arlaine Rockey, Marshall, NC

The airwaves do not need "fake" news and lies and propoganda perpetuated by the trump cronies!!

—Lisa Convente, Midland Park, NJ

Just say no to propoganda-fake news

—Jay Richards, Bend, OR

SHUT THIS BUFFOON DOWN NOW!

—Robert Phillips, Patchogue, NY

Hell No! This is not ok for our Democracy!

—Arthur Lightman, Sebastopol, CA

No more monopolies!

—Elaine Fischer, Roanoke, VA

It is unethical - and illegal - to change a longstanding rule solely to reward political lackeys. Considering the current administration - and FCC leadership - we apparently must get used to such misconduct.

—Thom Fistner, Fountain Hill, PA

No more treason against the citizens of what used to be a great country, now divided by racists in political office.

—Marco Marroquin, Las Vegas, NV

This is getting scary.

—Nicole Honour, Keystone Heights, FL

Mergers are NEVER a good idea...when has one saved consumers or citizens money, time, hassle, frustration...no, they only get bigger and listen LESS to their customers and charge them more. Reject this and any merger.

—Ron Wildt, Lakeville, MN

how do you even consider this ?

—Bob Lonardo, seminole, FL

no to merger and monopoly building.

—Sally Mason, Manistee, MI

without honest news sources, we have no democracy

—Barbara Nordfors, Seattle, WA

This is horrible and allows for propaganda TV to spread across the country. This must stop!!

—Robert James IV, Denver, CO

More media consolidation is the EXACT thing the U.S. DOES NOT need

—Bruce Sims, ESCONDIDO, CA

No, No , No. That will be really really BAD IDEA, BAD PEOPLE, BAD KARMA!

—Sam O'Rourke, gretna, LA

Do you job! Stop breaking the rules! If you don't do your job, you face consequences when new leadership comes along—and it will change against you!

—Jason Mocanu, STOCKTON, CA

Our country needs news that is based on facts, that helps bring people together, and does not instigate fear. Sinclair News is NOT that company. Stop of the Sinclair merger.

—Ingrid M. Cook, Joseph, OR they own too much now

—Robert Luke, auburn, CA

Hate speech is fake news. Fake news got us a fake leader. Fake leaders suck.

—Kim Diaz, St. Petersburg, FL

We need to prevent massively expanded media ownership by a single corporation. There used to be limits on how much of a given market could be owned by a single entity, but those seem to have fallen by the wayside. We are coming perilously close to a state-run propaganda machine, and cannot allow that to happen. This merger must be stopped!.

—Linda M. Reilly, Olympia, WA

We need diversity in our news--not a monopoly!

—David Henning, Marshfield, WI

How can you justify this merger as reflecting the spirit of fair, open, and democratic (small "d") competition? Please favor fairness over ideology . . .

—Matthew Gilbert, Eastsound, WA

For not only this is political bias, but destroying the nature of the press in the first place. Imagine journalists who have worked so hard to get important news coverage, but instead the news station goes into "Terrorism Alert Desk" or the must runs of Mark Hyman and Boris Epshteyn. The worst case scenario is that they have political bias that went from benign to pretty leaning (Ex: What do you think of today's Comey's testimony? Answers: It was all about substance, It was all about theater) or local TV stations that have scripts that repeats the same lines through local news coverage (Ex: they might say like, "Did the FBI have a personal vendetta in pursuing the Russia investigation of President Trump's former national security adviser Michael Flynn?" and this has been repeated throughout all TV stations). Now, this is very scary and I personally believe that we as Americans should fight over what is true or not true and have rights to have news coverage. That is why that the FCC should block this fusion of Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune in order to have a diversity of different viewpoints, that is what America is.

—Joseph Sarra, Totowa, NJ

You wouldn't allow it if it was Russia wanting to do this, would you? Are the Russian's controlling Sinclair too?

—Sheri Connor, Lynnwood, WA

No. No, no, no. This is classic corruption.

—Liz Gaspar, SHELTON, WA

The Sinclair/Tribune merger will RUIN the goodness that is WHO channel 13 in the greater Des Moines/Central Iowa viewing area. WHO has taken pride over many years of their IOWA-CENTRIC REPORTING. The merger with Sinclair will mean more terrible editorial content REPLACING UNBIASED IOWA-CENTRIC REPORTING THAT OUR COMMUNITIES COUNT ON. NO MORE TRUMP TV IN IOWA, PLEASE. Thank you.

—Lorna Immel, Otley, IA

NO! NO! STOP the Sinclair- Tribune Merger!

—Annette Tenny, Danbury, NC

No more outlets for FAKE NEWS!

—Pat Reichenbach, Pflugerville, TX

Please block this merger

—Alissa Mellis, Asheville, NC

Please protect our free press! As a democracy, we do not need (and should not condon) government sanctioned propaganda. People need to know that the news we are seeing, hearing, and reading is fair, accurate, and un-biased!

—Dianne Armitage, Carpinteria, CA

Freedom of the press is a sacred institution. Replacing unbiased reporting with far-right (or far-left) opinion is an affront to the very notion of journalism and everything America stands for. Sinclair cannot be allowed to merge with Tribune.

—Colin, Burbank, CA

The FCC must decide whether they big money monopolies which would enable them to propel self-serving viewpoints or the people of this country who look to you for justice and freedom of the press to make sure that the media represents all of us.

—Maryann, Fort Lauderdale, FL

No on corporate monopoly of our airwaves.
—Karen Sinclair Yost, Boulder Creek CA, CA

Creeping fascism, anyone?
—Ariel Gomez, Milwaukee, WI

Monolithic control of media is dangerous. No merger for Sinclair!
—Karen Waller, Bel Air, MD

Please act responsibly and deny this merger.
—Phillip Rollfing, College Station, TX

I oppose Trump having his own TV show. It will only cause hate and a division in this country.
—Tere Johnston, Safety Harbor, FL

Save our democracy!
—Jennifer Roy, San Diego, CA

Tell them NO!
—, San Tan Valley, AZ

We must maintain a free press or our democracy will fall. Allowing state run channels is the same as spewing forth the propaganda of a dictator.
—Lynn Pace, Asheville, NC

Block this anti-democracy overreach. Control of the media by an entity, state-owned or privately owned, is an invitation to authoritarianism.
—Joseph W Bradley, Hartford, CT

This merger is bad for democracy and bad for America.
—Nancy Peterson, Saint Paul, MN

Sinclair is a propaganda machine whose purpose is to titillate, provoke, misinform, and ultimately shrivel the brains of millions of Americans. This bid to acquire mass distribution power illustrates exactly the danger to American democracy, and to Enlightenment rationalism itself, of placing the infrastructure of journalism at the service of those with the money to own it, and the existential need for FCC to prevent such lethal entanglement.
—Jim Steitz, Gatlinburg, TN

We've already started the slide down the slippery slope. It is inconceivable we should consciously elect to add velocity to such a travesty. Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune should NEVER BE ALLOWED TO MERGE!
—Ralph Myer, Seattle, WA

One corporation can't own as many TV stations that reach 72% of the country.
—Carmine Tronolone, New York, NY

We need free and independent media!
—Helen Redli, Missoula, MT

Please ensure that media remains an independent watchdog, not a tool for the administration.

—Julie Engemann, Rimrock, AZ

How bout that we try to keep some diversity. And not slide down the slippery slope that leads totalitarianism. Thanks!

—Zachaty Nichols, Fayetteville, AR

Sinclair Broadcast Group as well as Fox News Corporation should be made by law to only report facts, and to openly and publicly explain when something reported is an opinion.

—Elizabeth Shepard, Olympia, WA

This is government propoganda that does not serve our democratic republic - of - by - and for the American people! We as a people can do better than this!

—Robert Horn, Asheville, NC

Please do not let Sinclair Media expand in ANY way. Their history of racism and Islamaphobia must be stopped!

—Carol Hansen, Salt Lake City, UT

Please!

—Judith Springer, New Providence, NJ

This will potentially damage our democracy. Do not allow this to occur.

—Maria T Waddell, Indianapolis, IN

The last thing we need is to eliminate diversity in our broadcast media. Please do not allow this.

—Russell ericson, Boulder Creek, CA

Media ownership rules are already relaxed enough as it is. We already have issues with large media corporations owning more than 50% of the news/media outlets in a given area. This has led to less diversity in the media and more corporatism. To have a functioning democracy, we need to have an informed public. Relaxing ownership rules will lead to more media outlets owned by fewer large corporations until we get to a point where one company owns nearly all of the print and broadcast media outlets in a given area. This is bad for journalism and bad for America.

—Clay McCauley, Charleston, SC

We are a free democracy not a society for dictatorship or Authoritarian. By allowing this to happen you will help perpetuate the destruction of the fabric of our society and democracy. Please do not allow.

—Theresa Ikard, Kingston, WA

This man has NOTHING redeeming to add to the news cycle. He's delusional and thinks that all news is fake, unless he's reporting it! How on earth can you give this man a platform to spew his frightening ideas. One outlet, Fox News, is more than enough. I think 45's news will be worse than Fox! Americans have had more than enough of 45 and his corrupt ways. Can SOMEONE do the correct thing for American and Americans?

—Adelaide Corn, Staten Island, NY

This is not a news program but a infomercial for rump. Don't lower the standards for this type of hype. I will not waste my time watching it.

—Leslie Shapiro, Arroyo Grande, CA

This monopolization suppresses Free Enterprise.

—Scott Norman Rosenthal, Irasburg, VT

Fox news is bad enough. We don't need right-wing propaganda in every city

—Tom M Swem, Dayton, OH

The continuing consolidation of media outlets in the US is a growing threat to the free press.

—Bryan McLane, Lafayette, CA

How can a sane country allow this psychopath to spew his brand of propaganda garbage to the American People.

—G Fisher, Pine Bush, NY

There should be no outlet this large!

—Karen Bowker, Flemington, NJ

No to right wing news propaganda!!!

—Laurie Laska, West Berlin, NJ

This should not be allowed

—Norreen thomas, Cleveland, OH

This is in violation of monopoly, I think. It just does not seem right that I point of view should be promoted that effects 70 percent of the market. And I understand they promote a right sided agenda. Verging on propaganda! Do not approve this merger

—Anne-Marie Burkhardt, Thorofare, NJ

No merger for Sinclair and Tribune

—Patricia Abbott, West Palm Beach, FL

I oppose Sinclair expanding markets and territories. Monopolies threaten American prosperity

—William oliwa, Elizabeth, NJ

Isn't this more Trump profiting from his position--isn't this illegal?

—JGilroy, Los Angeles, CA

STOP THE MADNESS! tRUMP WILL NOT DELIVER NEWS. HE LIES 76% OF THE TIME.

—, Santa Ana, CA

This Is Not Right!!!

—Jean Rhodes, Palos Verdes Peninsula, CA

I do not agree with the Sinclair-Tribune Merger! This will inhibit freedom of the press and contribute to corporate takeover of independent media outlets

—Helen Darby, Silver Spring, MD

State run television is an offense against Democracy!

—David Pugh, Strasburg, VA

We do not need any more racist, isolationist, white supremacist propaganda in this country. What is already here has caused the fall of our democracy.

—Leslie Englehart, Dayton, MD

It's quite inappropriate for a sitting president to start up his own propaganda channel. Hell no!

—Jo Ann Bailey, Manchester, NY

Trump TV is nothing but state sanctioned propaganda. This cannot be allowed.

—Rita Fischer, Jackson, TN

The merger of Sinclair Broadcasting and Tribune must be blocked.

—Barbara J Kellogg, Mason City, IA

Do not promote Trump's lies.

—Shirley Sutter, Vernon Hills, IL

This decision is a conflict of interest. It gives Donald Trump Trump TV. Against the emolument (sp) clause.

—Patricia A Lustig, Commerce Township, MI

Propaganda TV is a danger to a passive audience of easily influenced citizens including children and the mentally challenged.

—Dawn Balk, Saint Charles, MO

. . . Stop the insanity. . .

—, Novato, CA

No to Trump's undemocratic TV Station. No to government control of media.

—Jose Rivera, San Antonio, TX

No corporate takeover of our media. This is unacceptable and I strongly oppose this merger.

—John David Darby, Silver Spring, MD

I do not use internet services and rely on broadcast TV. I find that of the 4 English speaking networks in El Paso, 2 are owned by Sinclair. The problem with that is that their news, weather, and locally produced programs are exactly the same. You may not care, but I do. I do not support fox like news and it is coming to that with the Sinclair requirement that their station run conservative commentary. You may like that until the opposite is true. Stop this —Jeanette Walker, El Paso, TX

No "state run" TV. Never!

—James Ferrando, Minneapolis, MN

Only dictators have their own TV shows. This is a propaganda "news" station. America is a democracy. Shut this down!

—Paula Sabo, Columbus, OH

Sinclair is PRO TRUMP. It is Extremely Unfair to let them have a Monopoly on so many stations. Whatever happened to FAIRNESS? In a Democracy this should not be Happening.

—Bonnie Brazil, Packwood, WA

Bring back Truth in Media ! Vote Democratic !

—Rod Timmons, Daytona Beach, FL

It is unacceptable that the FCC would allow programs claiming to be "news" to be anything other than actual fact unless stated as "opinion." Americans should be able to rely on news broadcasts from any station, and the FCC has a responsibility to condition a station's right to broadcast on the honesty and reliability of their news programming.

—Denise Bagley, Winter Haven, FL

Do not take away our freedom of speech and press from local levels or above that

—Priti G, Englishtown, NJ

Please don't

—Julie Barrett, Chico, CA

No trump tv

—April siegal, Fairhope, AL

Consolidation of media to this extent is undemocratic.

—Nancy Hawkins, Austin, TX

FCC Do your job and help protect America against this unthinkable level of media consolidation. This action is WRONG for our Democracy!

—Andy, Mound, MN

This is a critical issue that endangers our freedoms. We need to feel secure that we have access to all points of view, which is nearly impossible with a conglomerate in control. Too much information power in too few hands if approved.

—Barbara Gallagher, Springfield, PA

Stop the fascist propaganda machine.

—Marcelyn Bible, Glendale, CA

The news needs to be truthful, fair and nonpartisan, three things Sinclair Broadcasting isn't.

—Curtis Tilton, Toccoa, GA

I believe there are laws against this, is that not true?

—Pamela Malanowski, Erie, PA

I dont feel that Trump TV should be on facebook and forcing people to watch "fake news" I thought FB was going to monitor this more closely. I SAY NO...NOT ON MY FACEBOOK

—Susan Reed, Shippensburg, PA

Our democracy is in jeopardy, propaganda programming must not be supported.

—SARAH Leake, Sacramento, CA

Stop state run propaganda TV

—Rayne Lanzing, Bradenton, FL

Please do not approve of this state-run media. Consider the constitutionality of this.

—Jon Rochmis, San Francisco, CA

Consolidation of corporate power in this scale is and should continue to be prohibited. The bodies involved have already received multiple FCC fines. Please help block this merge.

—Sarah Bishop, Brooklyn, NY

This is nonsense!! This needs to stop and you need to say HELL NO to Trump TV!!!

—Celeste Johnson, Nashua, NH

Too much control !

—Charles Fessler, Carrollton, OH

STOP GIVING bozo45 AIR TIME, IT'S WRONG, HIT SPEWING HATE AND FACIST PROPAGANDA, PERIOD.

—Birdi's Bangles, Redondo Beach, CA

We do NOT need more propaganda TV

—Linda Parsel, Dallas, TX

Just as Canada rejected Fox, America needs to reject this highly biased and propagandizing Sinclair.

—Pam Gouse, Hamilton, MT stop propaganda tv and truly fake news by russian bots

—Debi Caniff, Orlando, FL

This merger would NOT make America great again!

—Christine Ingles, Northville, MI

NO!!!

—Deanna, Ogden, UT

Do not allow this gathering of power. Enough harm has already been done without more decisiveness happening.

—Johniene Doran, Nashville, TN

It would be a demonic media takeover.

—Loraine Schoenfield, Geneva, NY

Three of our local TV stations are owned by Sinclair and the quality of the news is deplorable. We have stopped watching these stations as a result. Please take a stand to break up monopolies and corporate takeovers of our air waves. No to Sinclair and No to Trump TV!!

—Patricia Elkovitch, Skaneateles, NY

It is not in the interest of the country to consolidate media outlets. In fact, diverse opinion and local points of view have repeatedly been shown to contribute to economic and social well-being. Please reverse the trend of consolidation and prevent this ill-advised merger.

—Bruce Adelsohn, Jackson Heights, NY

Will actively boycott every advertiser of KCRG if merged. Hate Trump news mandatory editorials.

—Margaret Griffin, Tipton, IA

We don't want propaganda in this country. We will boycott

—Elaine Woodman, Melbourne, FL

this is a PROPAGANDA tv and inappropriate for the president of the United States. don't care if dem or repub *****INAPPROPRIATE and a waste of taxpayer dollars.

—Aylonna Welling, Catonsville, MD

We don't need another fox fakeness. You should in fact insist fox take news out of their ads. Drumphs network would just be nothing but lies.

—Robert LaForce, Browns Mills, NJ

NO PLEASE NO!!!

—Kathy, Glen Ellyn, IL

There is no room for propaganda TV in the United States of America. It is the antithesis of what our country represents.

—Karen H. Constantine, Altamonte Springs, FL

Trump is a criminal posing as president. DO NOT give him and his fellow travellers their own network to further LIE to the American people.

—Fred Schonberg, Sarasota, FL

this merger will create a monopoly. this should not be approved.

—Terri Bell, Lutz, FL

This merger goes against anti-monopoly laws and the idea of a free press. One conglomerate shouldn't own that many channels! Please protect our media from being purchased this way.

—Heather, Santa Rosa, CA

Stop it

—Mark Kenney, Reading, PA

This is lunacy.

—Joanne Baker, Spring Grove, IL

We need an independent free press that presents all sides of an issue

—Niki Vogt, Vancouver, WA

I don't want to watch our freedoms being taken away.

—Gloria Kopp, Melrose Park, IL

Nothing Trump! He's done enough harm to this country!

—DianaSimpson, Dallas, TX

Sinclair must abide by federal laws.

—Gloria Falconi, Littleton, CO

We are not Russia

—Kathleen Cardona, Blackwood, NJ

Propaganda is already a huge problem. Please keep our news sources truthful. Say NO to Sinclair Broadcasting and Trump News.

—Deborah Mann, Amherst, MA

This is ludicrous, have we not learned any. One single company owning all our sources of news. Now are looking at a dictatorship, where we no longer have freedom of speak. This what makes America great, only simple minded people would think this is a good thing. I remember explaining to my mother once who is since passed away she would well be in her nineties now almost 100, she said but I read it in the newspaper, I heard it on the news, I told her mom you don't understand the newspapers of the news they are owned by people that believe either Democrat Republican independent they have their own views and this is what's being played out in the media. She grew up when the media did relate the truth to a big degree, but no longer those are gone. We MUST continue to freedom of speak. But now we as as an individual and nation must do our own homework. This means not taking things at face value, but look at it from all angles, see the truth see the distortion that it may hold learn what a lie looks like. We must take responsibility for what goes on in our nation. We must come together as one not separate. Some may think that having one news would be a good thing in that would make making people come together unfortunately that's not true we have not got past the greed of the past. So please do not vote this in for the welfare of the nation and their welfare all that live here.

—Janna Moore, Midlothian, VA

Follow the rules!

—Martha Brady, Port Murray, NJ

Monopolies are always BAD for democracy - if you even care about that.

—Mr. Gary C Calderone, Ewing, NJ

No fascist t.v.

—Thomas rickert, Benson, AZ

To much trump talk now do not need any more.

—Katherine Eddis-LeMon, Philadelphia, PA

We all know this is nothing but propaganda, no truth, no facts. This must NOT be allowed!

—Deborah A Kist, Austin, TX

Controlling the press enables the White House to control the country's narrative. The reason we have a free press is to insure that all news is reported, not just news the government wants reported. Free press is as important as the other branches of government that kept the White House from overstepping its authority

—Joni jones, Kingwood, TX

This is an abomination, and against everything we stand for as independent thinkers.

—Michael Kronk, Union Bridge, MD

Save us from Trump propaganda

—Lou Luecke, Columbus, OH

NO to Sinclair-Tribune Merger We need healthy competition in the market!

—Brian S Overton, Tuckerton, NJ

This is a huge infringement on our freedom of speech! This is a conflict of interest if enormous proportions!

—Deb Diemer, Cortez, CO

If joined, it sounds like a Monopoly to me! No Way!

—Paula Guenther, Calabash, NC

You ban President Obama but not this scum bag who wants to indoctrinate his "followers" in Russian policies? Give me a break! This administration is EVIL. IT IS TRYING TO DESTROY AMERICA FOR THE SAKE OF PUTIN'S BLACKMAIL.

—Betty Catlette, Montrose, MN

In flagrant violation of ANTI-TRUST. Paves the way for propaganda tv and threatens the free press. Large mergers are monopolies.

—Holly Reed Fey, Doylestown, PA

We don't need another propoganda fake news channel - we already suffer with Faux news. Only dictatorships have their own propoganda channels in foreign countries. As of now, the US is still a democracy and needs to stay that way

—Darnell Miller, Fairview, MT

We DO NOT need a propoganda station. We already have Sinclair and FOX news.

—Karen Grossaint, Palisade, CO

This cannot happen.

—Joan, Dallas, TX

There's no reasoning in doing this horrible night mare

—Brett, Indianapolis, IN

We need to keep Pres. Out of media. Unethical and known untruth is very dangerous to any democracy.

—Nora, Pittsfield, MA

Just Say NO to Sinclair

—Barbara Ann Voetsch, Lincroft, NJ

What's worse than Faux News? Trump TV!

—Linda Laddin, Shawnee, KS

IZVESTIA TV

—LEX Medved, Rahway, NJ

This is a no brainer..it must be stooped for the good of the country and for the freedom of the press to continue without propoganda being in control

—Maura Hicks, Saint Louis, MO

There is no need for another broadcast station, that will promote total propoganda!!!

—Patti Steel, Barker, NY

Do not allow our Country to be lead towards a dictatorship with propoganda television coming from the White House being led by the White House....it's proven time and again there is nothing but lies coming from the White House, so why would you give them yet another platform to spread those lies?? How freaking unamerican has the FCC become???

—Mia, Bremerton, WA

This is not only insane, it's terrifying!

—Kelley trott, Vilas, NC

This is too much power in a single organization

—Robin Powton, Thornton, PA

NO...evil

—Diane Riebel, Lakewood, OH

We need less mega corporations, not more!

—Florence, Bridgeville, PA

Please stop this assault on the free press.

—Sheila giltzow, Lynnwood, WA

NO TRUMP TV

—Mary Garbrough, Louisville, KY

FCC do your job! This is not Russia

—Stephanie MacGorvin, Levittown, PA

Equal expression of opposing views is your mandate. Exercise it.

—, Thibodaux, LA

We need to be sure we provide a wider range of information to the public. Having a company too big in control of content is like having a bank too big to fail.

—Pat Aarti, Boise, ID

No state sanctioned news so profits can line Trump pockets! This is still a free country!

—Georgene Bous, Redding, CA

No it bad enough Fox still on the air- we do not need a station that also promotes hate and bigotry and racism and lies

—Marsha Keith, Oklahoma City, OK

No Trump TV!!!

—Margaret Hurley, Waldwick, NJ

We cannot have State Run Media. It goes against everything our country believes in.

—Martha Campbell, Jamestown, PA

We DO NOT need a channel for twitlers hate speech & propaganda...the incredible amount of self dealing he already does at tax payers expense is excessive---please don't allow him & the 1% to promote their oppressive agenda via a legitimate platform!

—Robin, Lawrence, KS

Absolutely NEVER!

—Dian Vince, Trumbull, CT

We don't wed traitors taking over the air waves

—Kristina Waible, Newburgh, IN

This is ridiculous. Please block the broadcast of this so-called news channel.

—James Cooper, Salem, OR

Save our country, don't allow this merger.

—Virginia S Rude, Hamburg, NJ

No Trump tv

—Phyllis Diggs, Walkersville, MD

We need diversity in sources of information, not consolidation.

—Gabriella E Perez, Huntsville, AL

No to trump and his fake news aka lies!!

—Laura K Brinkley, Virginia Beach, VA

Please no Trump TV,,I don't want hear anymore Lies

—Lillie Holmes, North Las Vegas, NV

This is a frightening concept

—Lucinda Davey, Silver Spring, MD

Why would you allow this? It's wrong and unethical. We SERIOUSLY need unbiased, factual news more than ever right NOW.

—Lynne Tallberg, Warren, ME

America needs an open and free internet. Please do not let special interests control the market!

—Ricki Ritter, Kansas City, MO

Monopolies are dangerous to America! Please don't allow it!

—Patricia Goldbach, Venice, FL

Free press is fundamental to our rights as citizens. Propagandist press is NOT.

—Karen Morss, Redwood City, CA

We don't need state controlled TV.

—Lorna Wise, Chicago, IL

A free press is essential to the health of our democracy. Domination of media by only one entity, whether liberal or conservative, is dangerous. If you haven't read 1984, you need to.

—Faith L Smith, Spotsylvania, VA

This action would be the beginning of the end of Freedom of Speech.

—R Ross, Haskell, NJ

Truth not propaganda

—Kate OConnell-Faust, Salem, NH

This is an obvious conflict of interest and a blatant misuse of power. Trump is treating the Presidency like a subsidiary company.

—Karen Bledsoe, Salem, OR

Please don't create a Sinclair monopoly

—Linda Engel, Cedar Rapids, IA

Against merger. This is a free country. Stop propaganda.

—Crist, Indianapolis, IN

This at very least is illegal and unconstitutional for him to have his own round the clock public forum.

—Ellen O'Gorman, North Palm Beach, FL

This would be tantamount to a monopoly.

—Carole Martz, Mount Prospect, IL

Fuck Trump

—James Kostas, Shawnee, KS

No Trump TV!

—Charlyce Washington, Rensselaer, NY

NO trump T.V.

—Rhonda Espenlaub, Poseyville, IN

We don't need right-wing (or any)propoganda in our news coverage. Stop this merger that forces local journalists and stations to run slanted commentaries and stories.

—Barbara Anspach, Berea, KY

We have enough fKe tv with Fox News, we don't need another station for propaganda.

—Vivian Harvey, Terlingua, TX

No propaganda!

—Sarah Davis, Jonesport, ME

Do not allow this to continue.

—Laura Tripp, Williamsburg, VA

We do not need a channel full of hate and misinformation

—Enid Cepero-Pierce, Rahway, NJ

Sinclair speed right wing propaganda site through its local affiliates. This is not a news organization!

—Joe pratt, Berkeley, CA

Do not allow the merge to go through, follow the law.

—Barbara Noe, Saint Louis, MO

The FCC should be supporting true local news - not news dictated by a politically-motivated conglomerate.

—Ellen Pomeroy, New York, NY

I want a variety of opinions because everyone's voice gets to be heard in this country, right? We have to stop the takeover by the rich and religious right. I will have no problem throwing my tv in the trash and then look for an actual free country to live in.

—Caren Licata, Lancaster, NY

This would equate to State run T.V. NO, NO, NO

—Carol Poe Walters, Bulan, KY

No to Sinclair takeover of airwaves.

—, Lake Worth, FL

Do not allow this

—Christine Eklund, Brewerton, NY

The Trump regime already has a network for their propaganda.

—L Barham, Fayetteville, AR

The President should never have his own news station as long as he is in office. He is not a dictator!!

—Carol Bunch, Canton, MI

This is un-American & undemocratic! We are NOT Russia!

—Debra L Young, New Albany, IN

We need more independent media outlets, not larger conglomerates. The FCC needs to take measure to ensure that news reveals truth, and this happens when there are many news sources.

—Cynthia Marie Headley, Carlsbad, CA

Allowing a "news program" from a sitting president is beyond a logical and hopefully legal gray area.

—Peter Grubbs, Atlantic Highlands, NJ

We do not need a trump tv news show. He and his people want to divide America.

—cherra Connor, Malabar, FL

Block this merger! This would hurt our country badly! please stand up to propaganda and the harm it would do!!!

—Amy, Danvers, MA

Trump is dangerous. Get him out!

—Tricia Hirsnell, ,

Don't let this happen!!! This is the beginning of Nazism!!! Nip this in the bud!

—Kathleen Darlington, Greenville, RI

No. We don't want State Run television from anyone. FREE PRESS!

—Michael Chandler, Knightstown, IN

This is a bad deal for the American public. We should have access to MANY news sources.

—Dawn Casella, Livonia, MI

This would be a HUGE mistake!

—Julie Scali, Phoenix, AZ

When He has loud speakers on every corner, brainwashing, maybe that will shake people up,

—Marie strasbaugh, Ogden, UT freedom of speech also includes freedom to watch TV without hearing propoganda from the tv station owners

—Sheila Noll, Somerset, NJ

This is a threat to our free speech and will force millions from watching spin news on our local channels. Sinclair Boadcadting should not be allowed to own 70% of the local market. This IS NOT Russia - NO propanganda TV!

—Barbara Whitt, Auburn, KS

DO NOT GIVE IN TO THE DICTATOR'S WHIMS... keep our information open and not decimated by his outrageous lies and abhorrent view of the world. He is a tyrant! Do not give in —Margaret Foster, Lamar, CO

We don't need any more FAKE news!!! This will undermine our democracy!!

—Cari Koebke, Hugo, MN

We don't need more propaganda and lies.

—Margie Miller, Statesville, NC

We have far too many hate networks now!

—Isabelle Kelly, Pittsburgh, PA

No to Trump TV!! This is simply a propaganda tool and state-run TV. No public funds should go to this either!!!

—Priscilla Moss, Atwater, OH

Please! NO TRUMP TV!!!!

—Christine Houde, Vista, CA

Trump must Not be allowed to influence this merger.

—Jana knittle, Lehi, UT

This is EXACTLY the kind of thing the FCC should be protecting is from. Allowing propaganda to be forced into the homes of people who just want to watch tv. The head is the FCC is in trumps pocket and is incapable of honor or integrity.

—Dena Barrett, Stone Mountain, GA

We do not need propaganda coming over our airwaves. Please do not allow this bogus TV station any visibility.

—Donna Lipman, Austin, TX

Already too much extreme opinion masquerading as journalism. Please block this merger

—Zakee McGill, Martinsburg, WV

It's so wrong!

—Marjorie Foss, Bay City, MI

We already have enough "alternative facts!"

—Suzanne Barbour, Orlando, FL

No to State TV and the "Ministry of Truth!"

—Phila Hoopes, Baltimore, MD

No, no, no - please don't let Sinclair continue to consolidate their empire - way too close to a monopoly. And their clear and specific agenda of inserting propaganda into previously independent stations, especially without the audience knowing where it is coming from and giving the stations no choice in the matter, is the opposite of freedom of the press. No, no, a thousand times no!

—P Pittenger, Philadelphia, PA

Vote no

—Tamara Taskey, Seymour, IN

NO to merger of Sinclair Broadcast Group and Tribune.

—Jeanne Haave, Laguna Niguel, CA

No to the merger. This is bad for America!

—Margaret Buckles, Thousand Oaks, CA

Please do not allow this!

—Diane Seltz, Madison, IN

This is the most ridiculous idea I've ever heard. Only truth reported on TV as for "News". Also, must be proven facts. People are already uneducated. Don't prey on the weak this way!

—Rebecca Kelley, Reelsville, IN

Please block this merger, we so need more diversity in our country!

—Alysan Azman, Fremont, OH

This acquisition would be an unfair monopolization of local television. Further, news broadcasts are no longer local when stations are forced to air one sided propaganda pretending to be news.

—Andrea Williams, Chatham, IL

Antitrust, consolidation of media for propaganda purposes, conglomerates seem very unamerican and illegal

—Kim Bennett, New Haven, CT

Reduce biased tv. Don't increase it!

—Lynne Carothers, St. Clair Shores, MI
