Sir,

I am opposed to changes proposed in "net neutrality". I have no doubt that given the ability to control my access to information by the large monopoly serving as my gateway to the internet will be to my detriment.

I feel the internet has become a necessary utility for an individual to conduct matters of daily life.

In sum, no to changes in "net neutrality" and yes to the internet as a public utility.

Ben Smart

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ben Smart". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke extending from the end of the name.
