Re: In the Matter of Petition of USTelecom for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

I have been a DSL customer of Sonic.net for years. I chose their service because it was competitively priced, and they delivered exceptionable customer service to me. They could not have done this without using AT&T copper wire to my home. If you deregulate the telephone companies, they will likely levy large price increases on broadband services provided by startup, competitive companies. I am 100% happy with the DSL service provided to me under the current regulations. DSL allows me to access the internet at competitive rates and is suited to my needs. Please retain the current regulatory structure.
