47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

I am stuck with only one provided in San Francisco downtown. Living in the hard of the Silicon Valley and unable to access a fair market value internet connection is outrageous. I would like you guys to help bring a good competitive market to the broadband business. This would help small businesses and individuals users to enjoy good pricing and good quality of service.
