

August 30, 2017

Re: Restoring Internet Freedom

Dear Federal Communications Commission:

Please classify broadband Internet access service as a telecommunications service subject to public-utility regulations under Title II and reject the proposal to classify broadband Internet access service as an information service.

Our country and the rest of the world will be better served by the level playing field provided by robust net neutrality rules.

Thank you,
Jonathan Harris