

Dear FCC,

Please do not let this happen. We need to have a fair and free market for the internet! If you do this my worst enemy Comcast will own and throttle all of my favorite websites. You will be giving them a monopoly. Which is not fair. We need freedom and not have to worry about who controls the information and how fast we receive it. This only fair and I plead you all to not go through with this!!!

Sincerely,
Brent Williams