47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

The state of competition in the Internet Service Provider market is abysmal. With only large carriers such as AT&T or Comcast in many markets, consumers are forced to purchase from these companies who have infamous customer service. Internet is no longer Beyond creating frustrating experiences, they are notorious for incorrect billing and I even have an acquaintance that had his credit ruined when they refused to disconnect his account. He was active military at the time! Please, we must have local competition to these giant telecom companies.
