

Net Neutrality is essential to free speech, economic development of small businesses, and consumer rights. I strongly oppose any removal of Title II protections of Net Neutrality.