

Please save net neutrality. The internet is a necessary utility and needs to offer equal access. The large internet providers are upgrading their systems without taking away net neutrality, so it seems as if the FCC is just in it to make life worse for humans and better for corporate profits. All loss and no gain for people and small business.