

I do not support Sinclair Broadcasting's application to be granted ownership of far-too-many local news stations (to reach 72% of HH).

Their practice of forcing stations to promote an extreme conservative perspective and distort local news actively threatens the wellbeing of marginalized communities across the nation, specifically communities of color and immigrants. People of color disproportionately rely on broadcast news and thus will be disproportionately harmed by a reduction in localism, competition and diversity.