47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

Internet and telephone services are a necessity in today's world, they should be fairly regulated. Do not give up your regulatory functions by caving into industry pressure. You are tasked with the job of regulating this public utility and seeing that it remains competitive and useful for all citizens. Please do that job!
