

I am strongly opposed to the imposition of these new rulings that allow companies to pay for their content to be favored by content providers. This is absolutely unfair and un-American. The US tries to create a level playing field for all its citizens in real-world business affairs; it can do the same in cyber space. It must do the same in cyberspace to ensure that specifically Americans and the rest of the world can freely choose what to view and purchase online.