Re: Facsimile Machine Regulations

Dear Cheryl:

I know you are now considering a request to defer the effective date of a Part 68 regulation which governs the manufacture of facsimile machines. Before you make your decision, I would like to make this one last plea for you to give the stay request favorable consideration.

We recognize that the case before you presents difficult issues. All we can ask is that you do your best to serve the public interest, within the limits of the law. We believe that you do have the flexibility necessary to prevent the precipitous termination of the manufacturing of products which are subject to valid Part 68 equipment authorizations. We further believe that both manufacturers and consumers alike will be injured if the manufacturing regulation goes into effect, as currently scheduled, on December 20.

We would welcome an opportunity to work with the Domestic Services staff to develop measures which ensure timely and effective implementation of the manufacturing regulation. We would also hope to assist in the resolution of outstanding ambiguities in it. A necessary prerequisite for these efforts is a reasonable extension of the manufacturing deadline, at least for products already authorized under Part 68.

Thank you in advance for considering this request.

Sincerely,
