Re: In the Matter of Petition of USTelecom for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

In a free market, competition is always a vital factor for better fair price, and better service to all consumers.

As a residential consumer these days, our daily life is bonded with telecommunication service including high speed internet.

The reason that I switched to Sonic is quiet simple: better service, faster speed with affordable price. To many low income families, I believe that only competition can offer them more affordable price choices.

Therefore, broadband competition is critical for many Americans.
