Re: In the Matter of Petition of USTelecom for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

I live in a city where I am fortunate to have many choices of internet providers and I choose to subscribe to one that is committed to net neutrality. It is obvious to me that the removal of net neutrality rules sets up a scenario that does not favor the consumer. I implore you to maintain an environment that is favorable for consumers by allowing competition among internet providers. I disagree with price hikes that will increase the cost of internet and telephone services, especially if this is done as a way of stifling competition. Please keep this vital basic service that is essential to our economic and educational growth and development intact by keeping it open to innovators. The only way this can be done is by allowing competition.
