Dear FCC,

My Name is Natan khazin. I'm a customer of Internet and phone provider calls Sonic in San Francisco. I would like to let you know Sonic one of the companies around who provide good competitive service around. It looks like numbers of providers around slowly disappearing and I really do not like monopoly in any fields. A few people I know which using Sonic also like this kind of service, competition and prefer to have a choice instead of monopolization in services.
